WORSE: CUT IN GRANTS Greater discomfort for motorists

AUTHORITY'S DEFICIT

MANY of the roads in Kenya will deteriorate in the next few months because grants for repairs are being cut. Motorists were warned yesterday to expect considerable inconvenience and discomfort. The Road Authority, which is faced with a deficit of £20,000, has decided to reduce maintenance grants for gravel roads to the Public Works Department and all local authorities by 15 per cent for the first six months of the year.

"It is regretted that this unavoidable step will undoubtedly result in the deterioration of the roads of the Colony's roads," the Road Authority chairman, Mr. Gen. C. F. Fowkes, said. The Authority relies mainly on its statutory revenue from vehicle licence fees, petrol consumption tax and drivers' licences for the maintenance of roads.

£100,000 less from petrol

The latest estimate of revenue from the petrol consumption tax in the financial year July 1, 1956, to June 30, 1957, was £120,000 below the original estimate of £200,000. Vehicle licence fees were up 10 per cent but money from drivers' licences was down by £2,000. The net result to the Authority was £100,000 less than the original estimate of £200,000. "In view of the greater shortage of money, the Government grant is very much appreciated," Mr. Gen. Fowkes said.

The main reason for my deficit is to give some relief to the P.W.D. and local authorities from the £100,000 of revenue which would otherwise be lost. It is a necessary step to take in view of the shortage of the motorist's licence fees. It is a necessary step to take in view of the shortage of the motorist's licence fees. It is a necessary step to take in view of the shortage of the motorist's licence fees.

MORE DRIVING

The estimated drop in revenue from the petrol consumption tax in the financial year July 1, 1956, to June 30, 1957, was £120,000 below the original estimate of £200,000. Vehicle licence fees were up 10 per cent but money from drivers' licences was down by £2,000. The net result to the Authority was £100,000 less than the original estimate of £200,000.

Orderly polling expected after stormy campaign

HIGH FEELINGS IN NAIROBI

THE nightly collection of bruises and blooded noses in the African locations of Nairobi is a significant indication of the extent to which election feelings have been roused. Meetings addressed by the four candidates have generally been quiet and orderly—with one exception where a private war was done to furnish to a large number of participants a large number of many a damage wrangle among participants, and that their most violent and boisterous and dunks has been witnessed.

Indeed, an African opinion poll conducted during the last few days of the small groups of meetings has had administrative beatings to people of different political persuasions.

And, not before time, the exclusive gentlemen who entered arguments to searching a butcher's cleaver had been asked to adopt middle positions.

Only one of the four candidates has been treated with civility. He is the man who sits outside a shop owned by one of his rivals' most rabid supporters. The trade shopkeeper came out with fists raised and the candidate decided to park elsewhere.

Historic occasion

All candidates in Mr. Tom Mwangi, Mr. C. M. O. Arap, Kothick, Mr. M. Kikuyu and Mr. J. M. Kanjoko—before the public meeting held yesterday.

Only one of the four candidates has been treated with civility. He is the man who sits outside a shop owned by one of his rivals' most rabid supporters. The trade shopkeeper came out with fists raised and the candidate decided to park elsewhere.

Quiet rebuke

So far, one of the candidates has been in trouble. He is the man who sits outside a shop owned by one of his rivals' most rabid supporters. The trade shopkeeper came out with fists raised and the candidate decided to park elsewhere.

NAIROBI TALKS RAISE HOPES FOR £18,000,000 PROJECTS

Methods to raise capital agreed

ADVICE ON MARKET

AGREEMENT on a provisional loan programme to finance development plans in East Africa during the next few years was reached by financial experts from London and the East African territories at a two-day conference which ended in Nairobi yesterday. The delegates reached agreement also on the methods to be used in attempting to find the necessary capital.

A statement issued after the conference disclosed that the present development programme for the period 1956-60 called for the expenditure of about £18,000,000. There is a reasonable expectation that the bridging of the gap between funds thought to be available and the required £18,000,000 might not prove to be altogether unmanageable.

£20,000,000 shortfall

The East African Standard understands that the shortfall is calculated to be about £20,000,000. However, as this will be spread over four years, there will be no drastic alteration of development plans.

The statement reads: "The conference was advised by representatives of the Colonial Office and the Crown Agents of the present position of the London market and the estimated capital requirements which in 1956 had produced only £11,000,000 of loan money by Colonial territories including East Africa."

The statement went on: "Presentations of the local market were also carefully investigated and it was agreed that the Government should consider the possibility of raising money from foreign sources and that the Government should consider the possibility of raising money from the local market. It was also agreed that the Government should consider the possibility of raising money from the local market."

EXCHANGE OF IDEAS

"Consideration was also given to the possibility of raising money from foreign sources and to the possibility of raising money from the local market. It was also agreed that the Government should consider the possibility of raising money from the local market."

START ON £1,000,000 SEWERAGE SCHEME

RECOMMENDED FOR A SEPARATE SEWERAGE SCHEME. CHANGEWATER SCHEME WILL BE COST £1,000,000.

Members of the Municipal Council on Tuesday night approved a report by the Municipal Engineer on the proposed sewerage scheme for the town of Nairobi.

It had been proposed that four main sewerage lines should be laid in the town of Nairobi, with a total length of about 100 miles.

A firm which had been approached to estimate the cost of the scheme had estimated that it would cost about £1,000,000.

The scheme would be financed by the Government and the Municipal Council. It is expected that the scheme will be completed within five years.

FEAR OF 'SHOCKING' ROADS

Police crash nearly led to accident IN GRANTS Threat to economy

Kenya's roads already were in a lamentable state and if they deteriorated any further they would be in a shocking condition, a spokesman of the East Africa Road Federation said yesterday, referring to the Government's decision to reduce its grants for road repairs.

The decision came at a time when the country, he added, is directly threatened by a drought which has caused the Government to reduce its grants for road repairs to a level which is a definite threat to the economy of the country.

Polling Day

VOTING begins today for the election of eight members of the Legislative Council. Apart from the few in the postal ballot, this will be the first time the polls to exercise the franchise of their own representatives in the evolution of African participation in the Government that has been going on since the formation of the parent unit in Britain. The section of African voters who have found unrepresentative meetings and canvassing have gone to the polls to elect or to reject the voters who are to be represented in the Legislative Council. The importance of the vote is emphasized by the fact that the Administration is interested in having a warranted general election and candidates not elected will be returned to the polls.

Most of them have behaved in a moderate way. As far as can be ascertained, the moderate, with a few notable exceptions, have been the ones who have elected. The country has its extremists on both sides, but the outlook is moderate.

Out of the eight members who are returned, it is probable that two will be African, one will be a European, and a third will be a member of the Legislative Council. The African members will have the right to express their views on the Government and in committee with all the force of their contact with the people. The interests of the various communities are represented in the Council. The African members will be able to express their views on the Government and in committee with all the force of their contact with the people. The interests of the various communities are represented in the Council.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

time, and especially with regard to the PERGEME, the Masai of Nairobi.

Secret society?

I HAVE received some correspondence regarding the "Secret society" mentioned in your issue of the 27th ult. I have no objection to the publication of the letter which you refer to, but I must point out that the "Secret society" mentioned in your issue of the 27th ult. is not a secret society at all, but a group of Masai who are interested in the welfare of their race and who are working for the betterment of their race.

HIGH INVESTMENT STANDARD AT WESTERN KENYA SHOW

MISSING V.I.P.s

Deputation sent to Governor

BUSINESS men, local farmers and members of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce formed a deputation yesterday to request the Governor of the Eastern Shores, Sir Evelyn Baring, to visit the show, which was being held at the Royal Victoria Hotel, Nairobi.

Compares with 'Royal'

MANY comparisons with standards at Kenya's Royal Show were made by judges of livestock when the Western Kenya Show opened at Eldoret yesterday. Cattle entries, particularly, proved that a large proportion of the Colony's top quality stock is to be found in the Eastern Shores.

Achievements

His Highness the Governor and the members of the deputation were met by the local farmers and members of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce and other important people.

Districts in friendly competition

At the show, which was held at Eldoret, the local farmers and members of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce and other important people.

Assistance promised

It is said he would have the very best of the show, which was held at Eldoret, the local farmers and members of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce and other important people.

Africans lack knowledge of economics

MINISTER'S VIEW

FROM statements made by some of the candidates in the African elections, it appeared that even the most highly educated Africans could not grasp the simplest knowledge of economics. This was stated at yesterday's annual meeting of the Mount Kenya Association, by Group Captain R. Briggs, European Minister of Education.

Move for closure rejected

RETROGRADE STEP

A PROPOSAL that the association should close down because it has served its purpose was rejected by a vote of 10 to 2.

Union's dispute with bus firm

Wage claims rejected

FORMAL notice of the existence of a dispute between the Transport and Allied Workers' Union and Kenya Buses Limited was served on the latter company yesterday by union representatives.

Success for plan

Mr. E. Pugh, the chairman of the Kenya Chamber of Commerce, has announced that he has been successful in his plan to secure the Government's approval of a scheme for the development of the Eastern Shores.

NEW PARTY IN KENYA SOON

Capricorn policy

KENYA'S first inter-class political party—it will probably be known as the Kenya Party—will be formed in two months.

Stable Government

That confidence and continuity in the Government are essential for the country's progress is the view of the Kenya Chamber of Commerce.

COURT WRONG IN ORDERING RELEASE

Mr. J. M. Njiru, the Attorney-General, has announced that the Government is appealing against the decision of the High Court to release the Kenya Chamber of Commerce.

CHIEFS TAKE COURSE ON LAND REFORM

About 60 South African chiefs have been invited to attend a conference on land reform in Kenya.

Company heads

In a letter to the union, Mr. J. M. Njiru, the Attorney-General, has announced that the Government is appealing against the decision of the High Court to release the Kenya Chamber of Commerce.

Official working on aid plans

MINISTRY of Agriculture officials are still discussing the details of a plan to provide assistance to farmers in the crisis brought about by a marked recession in the world market.

FOUR NOMINATED MEMBERS APPOINTED IN KENYA

Two seats filled by choice of Boards AGREED REFORMS

Kenya Legislative Council members were announced yesterday. They are the Earl of Portsmouth, Alfred Vincent, Mr. Bruce MacKenzie and P. J. Rogers. Mr. Vincent and Mr. Bruce MacKenzie will sit on the Government benches and Sir Alfred Vincent and Mr. Alfred Vincent are made under the constitutional reforms agreed last year by all groups of Legislative Council.

Provision was made for two "corporate" seats on the Board of Agriculture and the Board of Commerce and Industry respectively. The Earl of Portsmouth was chosen by the Board of Agriculture and Alfred Vincent by the Board of Commerce and Industry.

Mr. MacKenzie and Mr. Vincent will sit on the Government benches. They will fill two vacancies which have existed since the formation of the Council.

The two constitutional changes agreed last November were the appointment of six extra Representative Members of the Council and the election of six extra African Members. They will be known as Elected Members.

SEALED against the weather

New Louvre development puts NACO Louvre ahead

Now introduces a new Louvre, the "Weatherseal" in the East African market. And what a Louvre it is—completely and positively sealed against the roughest weather. Exclusive features are the Centre Ribbed Profile and Flanged Clips and the Embossed Dromae Bearings.

When the Louvre is closed the Centre Rib and Flanged Clips don't let a speck of dirt or a drop of driving rain get in. And that moisture can't creep through. The "Weatherseal" is the greatest development in window fittings since NACO first introduced the adjustable Louvre more than 20 years ago. NACO was first with the pressure sealing lock...and now, first again with the WEATHERSEALING CLIPS.

Ask for the new NACO "WEATHERSEAL" at your nearest Hardware Store and remember—Architects and Builders throughout the world recommend NACO Louvres for health, for beauty, for utility, and for economy.

Harmony in an integrated Kenya society

MR CAMERON'S letter is not just clearly torn from the fabric of reality by many about the development of Kenya against colonial lines of an integrated community.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

It is certainly true that anyone who undertakes the great task of the free world of Commonwealth in living in a free society must be able to take only two philosophies of life—either the philosophy of the East or the philosophy of the West. Harmony, in however many guises, is the result of the domination may be of the East or the West.

It is a pity that the Government of Kenya is not responsible in a far greater degree for the development of Kenya against colonial lines of an integrated community. GIRLS WERE LIKE SEALS IN WATER

Netherlands swimmers give a display of amazing talent

The display given by the teenage Netherlands girl swimmers at the Solihull Club at the weekend was the most remarkable seen in this Colony. Kenya has seen many top-class athletes, including world champions, from many of its world-record class swimmers.

Intensive training

Most notable of all was their intensive training methods. They frequently take to the water for 100 yards, and are supervised by Jan Standaert, who is a professional swimmer. They are also supervised by ordinary swimmers. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard.

Records easily beaten

Many of the single-handed effort racing by these girls that their record attempts were very little, were not made. Needless to say their speed is not surprising to those acquainted with top class through the water. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard.

Most exciting relay

One of the most exciting events was the 400 yards relay. It was won by the Netherlands girls. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard. They are very fit and their swimming is of a high standard.
