PRESTIGE OF U.N. AT STAKE

U.S. MAY RESUME AID TO ISRAEL

ECONOMIC aid, cut off by the United States after the U.N. Presidential election, may be restored to Israel as soon as successful negotiations with the British Government, Mr. Lincoln White, U.S. ambassador to the United States, said yesterday. He said the United States had been approached by the British Government and he did not know if the United States would resume aid to Israel. He said the United States would resume aid to Israel if the British Government would agree to a "symbolic" withdrawal from the Gaza Strip.

OVER SUEZ SOLUTION Gaza withdrawal a courageous act COMMONS DEBATE

THE United Nations stood at the bar of world opinion and would be judged by the rest of the world in action in settling the Middle East problem. This British Government view was discussed in a debate in the House of Commons.

Opening the debate, the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Selwyn Lloyd, pointed out that the United Nations had been put into the position that its prestige would be vitally affected if it did not procure at least an easing of the situation.

"Amid Government cheers, he said: "We think the test is, if those who brought such pressure to bear on us and France and Israel will face up to the fact of the situation and undertake a proper share of responsibility for securing a solution."

For the Socialists, Mr. Aneurin Bevan spoke of Israel's "act of courageous faith" in leaving Gaza and gave a warning on the consequences if those who persuaded Mr. Bevan to take that course of action, in the face of wide opposition among the Israelis, left him in the lurch.

Both sides of the House cheered him when he said: "I believe that he fails, however, to take the steps to preserve peace in the Middle East merely by substituting his patronage for ours."

President on way to talks in Bermuda

President Eisenhower went to Bermuda to meet with the British Prime Minister, Mr. Macmillan, and to discuss the situation in the Middle East. He is expected to return to the United States on Monday.

Fears on Egypt's intentions remain

BRITAIN believes that the Gaza Strip should come under some form of control exercised by the United Nations, Mr. Lloyd stated in the Commons. Although he admitted the fact of the situation, he said the "deliberate actions" of the Egyptian Government, against Israeli territorial settlements, led to the present situation.

A spokesman for the British Government said that the Egyptian Government's actions were "deliberate" and that the United Nations should be asked to take over the Gaza Strip.

Eoka trace offer under scrutiny

BRITISH and Cypriot officials yesterday studied the new trace offer made by the Eoka terrorist organisation.

The Eoka offer, signed by the organisation's leader, Nikos Demetrias, offered to suspend its operations in return for a £100,000 cash payment. The offer was rejected by the British Government.

Vote defeat for Uganda Government

THE Uganda Government was defeated in the Legislative Council yesterday on a motion requesting it to establish new junior secondary, teacher-training centres in the Eastern, Northern and Western Provinces.

The motion, which was supported by the Government, was defeated by 27 to 25, with four abstentions.

STRIKE ON THE WAY

Little hope of settlement

GOVERNMENT representatives and trade union leaders held last night a minute meeting to discuss the possibility of averting a threatened strike by 100,000 workers in British shipyards from noon today.

The Ministry of Labour's Chief Whip, Mr. George Brown, said that the Government would not agree to a strike by 100,000 workers in British shipyards from noon today.

EDUCATION MOTION

THE House of Commons yesterday passed a motion supporting the Government's proposal to establish a new Education Commission to oversee the development of education in the colonies.

The motion, which was supported by the Government, was passed by 275 to 10.

ATTACK ON EMBASSY BUILDING

ABOUT 500 Indian students attacked the Indian Embassy building in Dibrugarh yesterday. The reason for the attack was not known.

The students, who were protesting against the Government's policy in the Middle East, threw stones and bricks at the building.

ALL NATO AIR UNITS TO HAVE A-BOMBS

One command already equipped

ALL air forces of the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation were being equipped with atom bombs and the aircraft to carry them, Air Marshal the Earl of Sandwich said yesterday.

He said that the Allied Tactical Air Force, which was the first to be equipped, had already received its atomic bombs.

PROBLEM FACED BY PRESIDENT NASSER

ON his other hand, there were certain hopeful features. Events had developed in the Middle East which were being watched with interest by the rest of the world.

Mr. Nasser's position was becoming more difficult as the situation in the Middle East developed. He was facing a difficult choice between the United States and the Soviet Union.

NO ERROR BY VISCOUNT PILOT: CRASH MYSTERY

The Chief Executive of British Overseas Airways, Mr. Arthur H. C. Brown, said yesterday that there was no indication of error in the crash of a Viscount aircraft near King's Cross, London, on Monday.

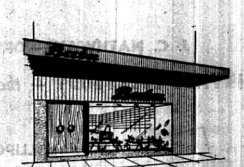

He said that the aircraft had been flying at a normal altitude and that the crash was due to a technical fault.

THREAT OF DEFERRED

London's economy is not necessarily in a state of emergency, but it is facing a difficult situation. The Government is considering a number of measures to deal with the situation.

The threat of a general election is also a factor in the Government's decision-making.
