REFLECTIONS ON THE 1951 GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Winner sets seal on fine reputation

Standard golf correspondent. Another Kenya golf championship has come and gone and that of R. W. Scott, who entered from Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika, in every way this year's event.

How good is he?

How good is he? This is a question that has been asked many times in the past. The answer is that R. W. Scott is a very good golfer. He has a consistent record and is always in contention for the title.

Springboks may make changes

The better change—one possible

The better change—one possible. The Springboks may make changes to their team for the upcoming tour. This is a possibility that has been discussed by the selectors.

Sport in brief

A lightning finalist

A lightning finalist. This was a surprise result in the county cricket championship. The team that was considered a favorite was defeated by a much weaker team.

Crucial Dobbie league match is postponed

Crucial Dobbie league match is postponed

Crucial Dobbie league match is postponed. The match between the two teams was postponed due to bad weather. This is a disappointment for both teams.

Ruling on 'month's notice'

MEMPHIS—A Federal court has ruled that an employer in Kenya, paid monthly and offered a bonus, is entitled to a month's salary in lieu of notice given by an employee. This is the ruling in a case decided by the Court of Appeal.

P. R. Patel, formerly employed as a manager, and subsequently as a sales manager, was dismissed by L.E.B.S. Ltd. in December 1951. The company had offered him a bonus of £100 for the year 1951-52. The bonus was to be paid in three instalments of £33 1/3 each, the first being paid in December 1951, the second in February 1952, and the third in April 1952. The company had also offered him a bonus of £100 for the year 1952-53, which was to be paid in three instalments of £33 1/3 each, the first being paid in December 1952, the second in February 1953, and the third in April 1953.

Mr. Justice Goff, in his judgment, said that the company was not bound to pay the bonus if the employee was dismissed before the end of the year. He said that the company was not bound to pay the bonus if the employee was dismissed before the end of the year.

UGANDA'S FIGHT AGAINST COTTON PLANT DISEASE

Successful experiments described

STRAUS—A successful method of fighting cotton plant disease in Uganda is being described by the Agricultural Commissioner, Mr. J. J. Straus, in a report issued by the International Cotton Research Station, Uppsala, Sweden.

Mr. Straus, who is also the Director of the Uganda Cotton Research Station, has described a method of fighting cotton plant disease which has been successful in Uganda. The method involves the use of a chemical called 'Dithionite' which has been found to be effective against the disease.

THE WEATHER FORECAST

PRELIMINARY weather forecasts for the week ending June 22, 1952, issued by the Meteorological Department, Nairobi.

MEMPHIS—A Federal court has ruled that an employer in Kenya, paid monthly and offered a bonus, is entitled to a month's salary in lieu of notice given by an employee. This is the ruling in a case decided by the Court of Appeal.

P. R. Patel, formerly employed as a manager, and subsequently as a sales manager, was dismissed by L.E.B.S. Ltd. in December 1951. The company had offered him a bonus of £100 for the year 1951-52. The bonus was to be paid in three instalments of £33 1/3 each, the first being paid in December 1951, the second in February 1952, and the third in April 1952.

Indian pensions and tax rule

DELHI—The Government has announced that the pension of a retired Indian official will be subject to a new tax rule. The rule states that the pension will be subject to a tax of 10 per cent of the amount of the pension.

The new rule will apply to all Indian officials who are retired after June 30, 1952. The rule will also apply to all Indian officials who are retired after June 30, 1952.

'Violation' of tribal shrine

DELHI—The Government has announced that the violation of a tribal shrine in India will be a criminal offence. The offence will be punishable with a fine of up to Rs. 100 or imprisonment for up to six months.

The new law will apply to all tribal shrines in India. The law will also apply to all tribal shrines in India.

How Kenya and the Belgian Congo differ

TWO African Colonies officials yesterday flew from Nairobi to the Belgian Congo, talking with their counterparts in Kenya's administration, pleased with the results of their visit.

They are Mr. Lambrechts, Director of Administration and Labour, and Mr. De Weert, Director of Administration and Labour.

Full of praise for the efficiency and modernity of the Kenyan administration, they said the Belgian Congo had much to learn from Kenya's administrative system.

They also noted the Belgian Congo's industrial development, particularly its steel industry, which they felt was well advanced.

They also noted the Belgian Congo's development of new industries, particularly its steel industry, which they felt was well advanced.

WIMBLEDON TITLE HOLDER BEATEN

Budge Patty ousted by unseeded player

First real upset in this year's Wimbledon tennis tournament occurred in a second round men's singles match on Wednesday by an 18-year-old American university student, Hamilton Richardson, 44, 44, 104, 64-64.

Richardson, the American Junior Champion, ousted the champion in a protracted five-set fight. Patty had been suffering from a bad ankle but he gave the unseeded player a change of beating the holder of the title.

Richardson, 18, who is a student at the University of California, Berkeley, had never before won a professional tennis match. He had won the title of Junior Champion in 1959 and had been runner-up in 1960.

Richardson's victory was a surprise to many tennis fans. He had never before won a professional tennis match. He had won the title of Junior Champion in 1959 and had been runner-up in 1960.

Sugar helped

After the match, Richardson was interviewed and he said that he had been helped by the fact that he had a good racket. He said that he had been using a racket that was made by a company called 'Sugar' and that he had been using it for some time.

Richardson said that he had been using the racket for some time and that he had been using it for some time. He said that he had been using the racket for some time and that he had been using it for some time.

Three tennis titles for woman competitor

Miss Francesca Hook was crowned champion in the women's singles tennis tournament at the Nairobian Club. She defeated her opponent in a straight set.

Hook, who is a student at the University of Nairobi, had never before won a professional tennis match. She had won the title of Junior Champion in 1960 and had been runner-up in 1961.

No annual holiday for half Britain: it costs too much

THE forbidding Puritan should not be surprised to learn that the Government is opposed to the idea of a half-annual holiday for half of the population in holiday villages, whether the industrial or agricultural population.

The Government is a full assessment of the cost of such a scheme. It is estimated that the cost of such a scheme would be £1,000 million a year. The Government is opposed to such a scheme because it is too expensive.

Cost of living

The answer must be found in the fact that the cost of living is rising. The Government is opposed to such a scheme because it is too expensive.

A 'Farmers' Day' at Songhor

UNDER the auspices of the Government of Kenya, the Department of Agriculture, through the Agricultural Officer, Kericho, organized a 'Farmers' Day' on June 24, which was attended by about 100 farmers and their wives from Songhor, Kericho, and Lamuria.

The programme consisted of a display of agricultural implements, a talk on the use of fertilizers, and a talk on the use of insecticides. There was also a display of various types of crops and a talk on the use of various types of soil.

A FIBRE CROP WHICH CHALLENGES JUTE

By A Special Correspondent

SOURCES of supply of some of the more important natural fibres in the growing crop of Governments. Experiences of the last year exposed this weakness and underlined the need for new sources of supply in less vulnerable areas.

It is a fact that the supply of cotton, which is the most important fibre, has been seriously affected by the drought in the West Indies and the East Indies. The need for alternative sources of supply is therefore acute.

The Government of Kenya has been studying the possibilities of growing a fibre crop which would be suitable for spinning into yarn. It has been found that the jute plant is a suitable candidate for this purpose.

The jute plant is a hardy, perennial crop which can be grown in a wide range of soils and climates. It is a fibre crop which is well adapted to the conditions of Kenya.

The Government is now conducting experiments to determine the best methods of growing and processing the jute plant. It is hoped that a suitable fibre crop will be developed in the near future.

Development

The agricultural plan for the next year has been announced. It is a plan which is designed to increase the production of food and other agricultural products.

The plan includes a number of measures which are designed to improve the efficiency of the agricultural sector. These measures include the provision of more tractors and other agricultural machinery, the provision of more fertilizers and pesticides, and the provision of more extension services.

The Government is also planning to increase the production of food and other agricultural products by increasing the area under cultivation. This will be done by providing more land for agriculture and by encouraging farmers to cultivate more land.

The Government is also planning to increase the production of food and other agricultural products by increasing the productivity of the land. This will be done by providing more irrigation facilities and by improving the soil fertility.

Indian destroyers call at Tanga

The Indian destroyers, the Delhi and the Delhi, called at Tanga on their way to the East Indies. The destroyers were accompanied by a number of other ships, including a minesweeper and a tugboat.

The destroyers were on their way to the East Indies to participate in a number of exercises. They will be in the East Indies for a number of weeks.

The visit of the destroyers to Tanga is a welcome one for the people of the town. It is a reminder of the close relationship between Kenya and India.

Decorations

The Government has announced a list of decorations and awards for the year 1950. The list includes a number of names who have been awarded decorations for their services to the country.

The decorations include the Order of the British Empire, the Order of the Star of East Africa, and the Order of the East African Star. The list also includes a number of names who have been awarded medals and other awards.

The Government is proud of the achievements of these individuals and wishes to commend them for their services to the country.

DEHORNING OF CATTLE IS FAVOURED BY E.A.S.P.C.A.

It is the policy of the East African Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (E.A.S.P.C.A.) to favour the dehorning of cattle. The society believes that dehorning is a more humane method of controlling the horns of cattle than the traditional method of docking.

The society has been successful in convincing many farmers to dehorn their cattle. It has provided them with information about the benefits of dehorning and has provided them with the necessary facilities for dehorning.

The society is now planning to expand its dehorning program. It is providing more information about the benefits of dehorning and is providing more facilities for dehorning.

Young African's courageous rescue

A young African, Mr. [Name], has been praised for his courageous rescue of a young boy who had fallen into a well. Mr. [Name] was walking past the well when he saw the boy in the water. He immediately jumped in and rescued the boy.

Mr. [Name] is a young man who is well known in his community for his good character and his courage. He is a true hero and his actions are a credit to his race.

The community is very grateful to Mr. [Name] for his heroic deed. They are proud to have such a brave young man in their midst.

The theatre in Kenya: old days recalled

The theatre in Kenya has a long and interesting history. It has been a part of the cultural life of the country for many years. The theatre has been used to entertain the people and to educate them.

The theatre in Kenya has been affected by the drought and the economic difficulties of the country. It has been difficult to find the money to produce plays and to pay the salaries of the actors and actresses.

Despite these difficulties, the theatre in Kenya is still going strong. It is still a part of the cultural life of the country and it is still being used to entertain and educate the people.

Farmers' Day at Nakuru

The Farmers' Day at Nakuru was a great success. It was a day when farmers from all over the district gathered together to discuss their problems and to share their experiences.

The day was spent in a number of sessions. In the first session, the farmers discussed their problems and the causes of these problems. In the second session, the farmers discussed the solutions to these problems.

The day was a very profitable one for the farmers. They were able to learn a great deal about their problems and the solutions to these problems. They were also able to share their experiences with each other.

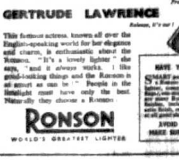

Assam Relief Fund

The Assam Relief Fund has been established to help the people of Assam who are suffering from the effects of the drought. The fund is a voluntary fund and it is open to all who wish to contribute.

The fund is being managed by the Assam Relief Committee. The committee is a group of people who are interested in the welfare of the people of Assam. They are working to raise money for the fund and to distribute the money to the people who need it.

The fund is a very important one for the people of Assam. It is helping them to survive the drought and it is helping them to rebuild their lives.

CEASEFIRE OFFER MAY BE ACCEPTED

Peking Radio announcement CHINESE PROPOSE CONFERENCE ON PARALLEL ABOUT JULY 10

PEKING radio announced in Mandarin that the North Korean and Chinese negotiators had just sent a message to General Matthew Bageby agreeing to a cease-fire in Korea on the 20th Parallel between July 10 and July 15.

The announcement was a development of Seoul, was one of the first steps to fall to the negotiators who they intended South Korea and North Korea.

The United Nations Security Council has been asked to consider the offer.

The Chinese had some time ago made a similar offer to the United Nations Security Council, but it was rejected.

The North Korean negotiators had also made a similar offer to the United Nations Security Council, but it was also rejected.

COLOMBO PLAN NOW UNDER WAY

Development of Southern Area

FIFTEEN nations yesterday officially started preparing the ELISE million Colombo Plan for the development of South and South-East Asia. The plan, born at the British Commonwealth Conference in Colombo in January 1950, aims basically to increase land under cultivation by 13 million acres, increase land under irrigation by the same extent, raise food grain production by six million tons and increase electric generating capacity by 1,100,000 kilowatts.

It was originally outlined as a Commonwealth scheme but grew in scope to include Australia, Canada, Ceylon, India, Pakistan, New Zealand, Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia in Indo-China, the Columbia territories of Malaya, Singapore, North Borneo and Sarawak, with Britain and the United States.

Special Cables to the "East African Standard"

In a few days the Chancellor of the Exchequer is due to make his quarterly statement on gold and dollar reserves. This statement will probably show that although reserves continued to grow in the second quarter of this year, the rate of increase has been due to stockpiling of American demand.

There is a growing feeling, particularly among Commonwealth countries, that the Government's policy of maintaining the gold and dollar reserves is not in the long-term interest of the Commonwealth. It is felt that the Government should consider the possibility of a more flexible approach to the gold and dollar reserves.

It is also felt that the Government should consider the possibility of a more flexible approach to the gold and dollar reserves. This would involve a more active role for the Commonwealth in the international financial system.

The British Government still remains committed to the gold and dollar reserves. However, it is likely to consider the possibility of a more flexible approach in the future.

MENACE OF THE SHANTY TOWNS

A start has been made to clean up the mushroom growth of tenement shacks on the outskirts of the city. Here, on 'East African Standard' reporter points to the moral that has been learnt and the dangers that could arise if action is not taken swiftly.

BURU BURU, the sprawling conglomerate of tenement shacks and shanty towns and wattle and daub cottages on the outskirts of the Nairobi City Centre. A start has been made to demolish the unsightly but tenacious growth of tenement shacks on the outskirts of the city. Here, on 'East African Standard' reporter points to the moral that has been learnt and the dangers that could arise if action is not taken swiftly.

THIS can so easily become... In the upper picture is one of the "tenement" shacks at Nairobi. On Friday, thousands of shacks were demolished by the City Council. In the lower picture is one of the shanty towns built on the hillside. The shanty towns are built on the hillside and are built with wattle and daub. UNDER-ARM BOWLING AS A RETORT TO SLOW BATTING

Reg Simpson startles Trent Bridge crowd. A REMARKABLE scene unfolded in the County Cricket stadium at Trent Bridge on Saturday when the Nottinghamshire captain and England player, Reg Simpson, resorted to under-arm bowling as a retort to the West-Indies' slow batting. Simpson's tactic was to bowl the ball under his arm, which was a surprise move for the crowd. Simpson's bowling was effective and helped Nottinghamshire to win the match.

TWO ATTITUDES TOWARDS THE AFRICAN

Speaker praises Kenya's outlook

THE attitude towards the African in Kenya is one of respect and admiration, according to a speaker at the annual meeting of the Christian Literature Society in London last night. The speaker, Mr. J. H. Johnson, who is a member of the society, praised the outlook of the white settlers in Kenya for their respect and admiration for the African.

Mr. Johnson, who is a member of the society, praised the outlook of the white settlers in Kenya for their respect and admiration for the African. He said that the white settlers in Kenya were not afraid of the African and that they were proud to have him as a neighbor and a friend.

Printed word

THE printed word is the most important of all the arts, according to a speaker at the annual meeting of the Christian Literature Society in London last night. The speaker, Mr. J. H. Johnson, who is a member of the society, praised the printed word for its importance in the life of the human race.

Mr. Johnson said that the printed word was the most important of all the arts because it allowed people to communicate with each other over long distances and to preserve their thoughts for future generations. He said that the printed word was the most important of all the arts because it allowed people to communicate with each other over long distances and to preserve their thoughts for future generations.

Contrast

THE contrast between the attitude towards the African in Kenya and the attitude towards the African in the rest of the world is striking, according to a speaker at the annual meeting of the Christian Literature Society in London last night. The speaker, Mr. J. H. Johnson, who is a member of the society, praised the attitude towards the African in Kenya for its respect and admiration for the African.

Mr. Johnson said that the contrast between the attitude towards the African in Kenya and the attitude towards the African in the rest of the world was striking because in Kenya the white settlers respected and admired the African, while in the rest of the world the African was often treated as an inferior.
