How the S.M.S. Makes The Desert Blossom

MILLIONS of acres of deserts in the West have been transformed into fertile farms and pastures by the application of a fourth of the population of the Empire. The S.M.S. (Soil Moisture System) was developed by the Canadian farmer, the Marquis de Sade, who has spent many years in the West, and is now being applied to the deserts of the United States. The S.M.S. consists of a series of pipes, each with a small hole, which are laid out in a grid pattern over the land. Water is pumped into the pipes from a nearby source, and it seeps out of the holes into the soil. This method has been successful in many parts of the West, and is now being applied to the deserts of the United States. The S.M.S. has been successful in many parts of the West, and is now being applied to the deserts of the United States.

The Border Method of irrigation in western America is a new method of raising alfalfa and small grains by raising or submerging water. The method is based on the old operation of flooding or seeping water for centuries by the American Indians. It has been developed in the last few years by the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, and is now being applied to the deserts of the United States. The Border Method consists of a series of pipes, each with a small hole, which are laid out in a grid pattern over the land. Water is pumped into the pipes from a nearby source, and it seeps out of the holes into the soil. This method has been successful in many parts of the West, and is now being applied to the deserts of the United States.

Concrete Pipe Lines
Most of the pipe used with this method is made of concrete. It is a very durable material, and it is easy to install. It is also very cheap. The concrete pipe is laid out in a grid pattern over the land, and water is pumped into it from a nearby source. The water seeps out of the holes in the pipe into the soil. This method has been successful in many parts of the West, and is now being applied to the deserts of the United States.

ATTENTION OF FARMERS
Don't Let Major Calamity Sneak Up on You.
New Tractors and Farm Machines are hard to get, and so are spare parts for those now in use. You may say "Oh it's nothing" when you first hear something buzz that shouldn't buzz. But that's the time to check and put the matter right, not wait until the buzz becomes a major calamity.

AGRAMON G
The fungi or spores of Smut, and other seed-borne diseases, cannot attack protected seed in storage. When seed has been properly dressed with Agramon G, every grain is virtually sealed in a germ-proof coating. This fine powder does not only envelop and protect the seed, it also affords protection against infection. It stays around every grain in storage, in the process of planting or sowing—and it is still giving protection when fungi in the soil try to undermine your crops.

Meanwhile a bare sign of German consciousness of inevitable defeat lies in the report that they are allowing the evacuation of the lack of human friendships in Germany. The evacuation may seem it seems as though the Allies are in danger of being welcomed as the usual deliverers of the tortures of the tyrant of the haled Nazis. It is to be hoped that the British memories will not be enough to let the unfortunate German people get away with that one.

Kenya Drs. SEQUEL TO FATAL ACCIDENT Informed

£40 Fine

To the Editor of "The Standard":

There was a sequel to a fatal accident which took place in the R.A.O.C. (Royal Air Force) in Nairobi on the 29th of March, 1945. The pilot, Mr. J. H. Roberts, was killed when he crashed his plane into a tree in the course of a flight. The cause of the accident was traced to a failure to observe a signal in the approach to the runway.

The pilot was fined £40 for this offence. The fine was imposed by the Court-Martial on the 29th of March, 1945.

Colds & flu are no respecters of persons—they strike swiftly and are not concerned with the importance of your job. Yet there's no need to be 'laid-up' with a cold or 'flu attack for swift action with 'ASPRO' will stamp them out at inception. Furthermore, it will save you much distress and possible complications. At first sign of a sore throat, gargle with an 'ASPRO' tablet in a little water. You will feel instant relief and the spread of the infection will be inhibited. For a feverish cold or 'flu' 'ASPRO' with a hot drink has almost immediate effect. Your head clear—the groggy, uneasy, 'gone-at-the-knees' feeling goes. By morning the recovery is complete. So don't hesitate—when colds & flu are about

Narok Masai See Captured Jap Sword

[From a Military Government] Narok and surrounding areas in the north have seen a new arrival in the shape of a captured Japanese sword. The sword was captured by a young Masai of the Narok district in the north-western district of Narok.

It is a light-colored sword with a scabbard and a hilt. The scabbard is made of wood and the hilt is made of metal. The sword is a typical Japanese sword of the type used by the Japanese army during the war.

BRILLIANT BOUTS AT BURMA WEEK BOXING TOURNAMENT

It was a brilliant display of boxing skill and sportsmanship that was the feature of the Burma Week Boxing Tournament which opened at the National Sports Ground, Rangoon, on Monday night.

The tournament was organized by the Burma Boxing Association and was the first of its kind in the country. It attracted a large number of spectators and was a great success.

TRADITION

The strict code of manufacturing excellence and ethical promotion which characterizes the Boree policy have been able to win the national Boree. They yield the secret of continuous and reliable service during more than half a century.

These time-honored standards have been a great inspiration to many to supply range for endurance and the successful fulfilment of their objectives. They are the necessary stabilizing influences in the progressive programme of today, as evidenced as it is to scientific research and pharmaceutical advance. They represent experience and dependability. They are the traditions of Boree.
