'Duco' MOTOR CAR FINISHES AND 'Dulux' COACH FINISHES

are helping the war effort

The essential raw materials in these quality products are now directed entirely to war effort and supplies are not present available for private use. In post-war painting programmes, "Duco" and "Dulux" will help to give new life and colour to all types of passenger-carrying motor vehicles. Maintenance of quality paints and varnishes is essential for the successful work of our war effort.

To protect the finish of your war equipment, use "Duco" for motor cars, "Dulux" for coaches and "Dulux" for other types of motor vehicles.

AFTER a prolonged discussion at the meeting on Tuesday last held in the Council Chamber, the following resolutions were passed:

1. That the Council should be informed of the progress of the re-education of the German army in the East and that the Government should be urged to take steps to ensure that the German army is not re-equipped with modern arms and that the German army is not re-trained in modern tactics.

The Council has also decided to send a delegation to the United Nations to discuss the problem of the German army and to urge the United Nations to take steps to ensure that the German army is not re-equipped with modern arms and that the German army is not re-trained in modern tactics.

The Civil Reabsorption Board has reported that it has received a number of applications from former members of the German army who are seeking employment in Kenya. The Board has advised that it will consider these applications and will recommend suitable candidates for employment.

HOUSEWIVES IN WARTIME

Quick peeps into busy days in Britain

HEAR it now—of all things, the most interesting thing about the war is the life of the housewife. She is the backbone of the nation, and her life is a constant struggle against the odds. She has to find ways to stretch her resources, to find substitutes for the things that are in short supply, and to keep her family as healthy and happy as possible. Her life is a constant struggle against the odds.

WATER SUPPLIES—OMAS

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard":

The "Water Supplies" article in your issue of April 25, 1945, is most interesting. It is a pity that the water supply in this country is not better than it is. The water is often of a very poor quality, and it is not safe to drink. It is a pity that the water supply in this country is not better than it is.

PE

Before the war I've stood for quality in radio manufacture. We were proud of this reputation. We tried to maintain that standard wherever we shipped Radio Sets. When they leave the name PE on them you can be certain they are quality products.

Inner Cleanliness comes first for Health!

To enjoy everyday fitness, it is important to operate successfully and efficiently. It is even more important to be clean inside. That means to be widely appreciated and contented. This is why Andrew's Liver Salt is so popular. It cleanses the system, settles the stomach, soothes the bowels, and gives the blood a healthy glow. It is a tonic for the whole system.

Anxiety For British Prisoners

April 22. Sir Arthur Henderson, Secretary to the War Office, in a statement to the House of Commons (Labour) said on Thursday that the British Government was anxious to know the whereabouts of 20,000 British prisoners of war held in Germany. He said that the War Office was anxious to know the whereabouts of 20,000 British prisoners of war held in Germany. Uganda Cotton Report

The Uganda Cotton Report for the year 1944 is published. It shows that the cotton crop in Uganda was a record-breaking one. The report states that the total cotton production in Uganda for the year 1944 was 10,000 bales, compared with 8,000 bales in 1943. This increase is attributed to the improved cultivation methods and the use of better cotton seeds.

Native Soldiers Become Policemen

One man does not see everything

However brilliant his gifts, the man who does not see everything will never be a success. The only way to see everything is to see through the eyes of others. This is the secret of success. It is the secret of the man who sees through the eyes of others. It is the secret of the man who sees through the eyes of others.

AFRICA

WEDNESDAY

THE AVALE

For some weeks past the world has been watching a spectacle which, owing to its dramaticity, it did not witness in Africa for twenty centuries. On November 17th, 1944, the German and Italian soldiers of the Afrika Korps, who had been ordered to retreat, were surprised by the British forces. The German army was surrounded and the Afrika Korps was completely annihilated. The German soldiers were taken to a prisoner of war camp. The Afrika Korps was a German expeditionary force in North Africa during the Second World War. It was commanded by General Erwin Rommel. The Afrika Korps was defeated by the British forces in the Second Battle of El Alamein in November 1942. The Afrika Korps was then sent to Italy, where it fought the Battle of Monte Cassino in January 1944. The Afrika Korps was then sent to France, where it fought the Battle of the Colonne in May 1944. The Afrika Korps was then sent to the Pacific, where it fought the Battle of Okinawa in June 1945. The Afrika Korps was then sent to the Philippines, where it fought the Battle of Manila in August 1945. The Afrika Korps was then sent to the Netherlands, where it fought the Battle of the Scheldt in September 1944. The Afrika Korps was then sent to the German border, where it fought the Battle of the Westwall in January 1945. The Afrika Korps was then sent to the German border, where it fought the Battle of the Westwall in January 1945. LOD FARMINGS VIEWS

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
The article in your issue of the 15th inst. headed "Lod Farmings" is a very interesting one. It is a pity that the author should have been so ignorant of the facts of the case as to state that the Government had the right to take over the land for the purpose of the settlement of the landless. It is a pity also that the author should have been so ignorant of the facts of the case as to state that the Government had the right to take over the land for the purpose of the settlement of the landless.
