CHANGES IN DEFENCE

Military leaders go to the Palace

DELAY ON CYPRUS

BRITAIN'S new defence plan, involving the Army's most drastic peacetime changes, is understood to have been discussed when the Queen received the Secretary for War, Mr. John Hare, and the C.I.G.S., Field Marshal Sir Gerald Templer, at Buckingham Palace.

The Queen is Colonel-in-Chief of several regiments, and political observers said that under the reorganisation some famous regiments might lose their identities.

EUROPE BOOSTS CAR SALES TO AMERICA

Popularity of small models

EUROPE is selling more and more "baby" cars to the United States, according to a survey released in London. British, German, French and Italian vehicles are being reported to be very available to America and in all cases the sales are on the same: small cars cost less and they are better for parking and ideal as second cars.

Sales of British cars amount to about four per cent of the total of all American cars. The United States market. Some of the sales come from sports cars like the Jaguar, M.G. and Mercedes-Benz.

But except for the Volkswagen, the American baby car market is only just beginning to expand. British Ford hopes to expand 1957 sales five-fold on last year's figure, to 700,000 cars.

Twice as many

The United States imported 12,842 cars in the first quarter of 1957, compared with 21,000 in the same period last year. Importers expect that 1957 figures will reach about 21,000 figures, more than half that of 1956.

In addition to Austin, Citroen, Renault, Volkswagen, Alfa Romeo, Fiat, Ford, the manufacturers of cars are now turning to the motor-car market.

Among those who are turning to the motor-car market is the German firm, Daimler-Benz, which is now turning to the motor-car market in the United States.

Not a matter of price, according to an open poll of opinion, is a matter of price. The price of a car is not a matter of price, it is a matter of quality.

Queen's portrait for Sandhurst

This portrait in oils of the Queen has been granted to the Royal Military Academy at Sandhurst by the 30th-year London artist Leonard Rodin. The Queen is seen wearing the mantle and ermine of the Order of the Bath, the first time she has been portrayed in this order of knighthood. The work, with 19 hanging decorations, belonged to the late Queen Mary. Her Majesty gave Mr. Rodin eight shillings of Buckingham Palace for the portrait.

CONFUSION OVER TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: MOTORISTS LODGE A PROTEST

A LETTER from Mrs. J. J. Blicher raises a very interesting point which has been going on for quite a long time.

The position as an under-secretary of the Customs Union of East Africa, which covers Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika and Zanzibar, is a matter of some concern to the Department of the Belgian Congo which is the only country in the world which has not signed the agreement.

My name is that of the only motorist in the country and there has been no evidence that a copy of the best conditions of that point will be made available to me.

POLITICAL RESTRICTIONS ON TEACHERS EXPLAINED

New African system

WHEN the unified African teaching service was introduced in the future, teachers employed in the various schools will be divided into two groups. The first group will be those who are employed in the service of the Government. The second group will be those who are employed in the service of the various political parties or in the service of the various religious organizations.

Mr. James Johnson (Lawyer) has asked whether the Government is aware that African teachers in Northern Rhodesia were not permitted to take part in political activities and to what extent this is still the case in the new territories of Tanganyika and Nyasaland.

Mr. Johnson stated that in the case of Northern Rhodesia, teachers are not permitted to take part in political activities. In the case of Tanganyika and Nyasaland, teachers are not permitted to take part in political activities, but they are permitted to take part in social and cultural activities.

Kenya position

They were first to stand for the principle of a unified African teaching service and if the Government would accept this principle, it would be in the best interests of the African people in Kenya.

A minority group of members of the United African Service has been formed and it is expected that this group will be able to secure the necessary support for the proposed unified African teaching service.

Good will in race relationships: African leaders

MSNYI, a Kenyan of the newly independent country, stands, thank you, Mr. Carr, for their letters of quick advice to all those who have a balanced view on life in this country just now?

It is good to read such letters, which show that we are all of one mind on the other matter, but I am being frank to say that I am not sure that we can make a big gesture to those who have been towards others.

PROPOSALS FOR HALT TO TAX EVASION

Reduction in personal rates advised

DISCUSSIONS with the Commissioner of Incomes Tax, with a view to assisting him to draw ways and means of combatting evasion, would be welcomed by Nairobi Chamber of Commerce.

It is stated by the Chamber's standing committee on Incomes Tax, in a report on the Taxation of Income Tax, that the Commissioner has indicated that individual taxation rates would be reduced to 10 per cent for the year 1957-58. This was an unexpected announcement, but it was regarded as a step in the right direction.

The committee also pointed out that the Commissioner had generally not proceeded to deal with the evasion of tax, but that the public, including the Chamber, should be kept advised of any developments in this regard.

Exemption limit

The committee also pointed out that the Commissioner had indicated that the exemption limit for the year 1957-58 would be increased to £100. This was also an unexpected announcement, but it was regarded as a step in the right direction.

The committee also pointed out that the Commissioner had generally not proceeded to deal with the evasion of tax, but that the public, including the Chamber, should be kept advised of any developments in this regard.

Simplifying law

The committee also pointed out that the Commissioner had indicated that the law should be simplified to make it easier for the public to understand. This was also an unexpected announcement, but it was regarded as a step in the right direction.

The committee also pointed out that the Commissioner had generally not proceeded to deal with the evasion of tax, but that the public, including the Chamber, should be kept advised of any developments in this regard.

Essential stability

The committee also pointed out that the Commissioner had indicated that the law should be simplified to make it easier for the public to understand. This was also an unexpected announcement, but it was regarded as a step in the right direction.

WEST INDIES COLLAPSE AGAINST SEAM BOWLING

Out for their lowest of season against Hampshire

THE West Indies recorded first- innings lead in Hampshire on the first day of their match in Southampton on Saturday after being dismissed for 110—their lowest score in the season. The county had replied with 272 as the wickets all came with Jimmy Gray, their opening batsman, out first. The tourists could only reply 116 in the Hampshire attack on a pitch, which, though slightly green, did not bow the bowlers as much as the second innings.

Only Geoffrey Roberts, who with 20 not out, was a credit to the West Indies side on the first day. Hampshire were on the first day, but their performance on Saturday was in direct contrast.

Fighting innings

Ray Marshall, who in that match made a standing ovation for the tourists, could not score 11 for his team. Marshall was out for 11 in the first innings. Marshall's captain Jimmy Gray (48) and N. Patterson (37) and N. Anderson (30) put on 55 for the first 10 minutes, but Gray's fighting innings Hampshire might have been as much trouble as the tourists.

Colin Ingham-Macpherson, who is expected to captain the county next season when Dennis Bagge retires, had two dozen of his runs in the first innings.

Johnny Wardle unwell

Ray presented a ball being bowled to him in the first innings at other venues which he could not play. The county was dismissed for 110 in the first innings. The county was dismissed for 110 in the first innings. The county was dismissed for 110 in the first innings.

The one of the first pieces of fully produced cotton cloth at Jinja is being turned into cloth at the rate of 6,000,000 yards a year at the new textile factory at Jinja. The industry started in 1955 and has 700 workers in different stages of training. Two eight-hour shifts are being worked in the factory.

Using new weaving techniques, the factory is producing the further processing department for the first time. The work is done in the factory.

Three-shift plan

An official of the factory estimated that at the present time the factory is using 700 workers. It is expected to be in operation next year, when a three-shift plan will be introduced. It is, however, a matter of months before the factory will be in operation next year, when a three-shift plan will be introduced.

COACH CLASS AIR SERVICE BETWEEN AFRICA AND U.K.

Bombay to Bond Street

By JANE FIRTH

ON first appearance it would not seem that the dress of Indian women and that of the Western world had anything in common.

The look closely of a woman in a sari and a woman in the usual Western length dress is strikingly different. The Western dress is usually made of a single piece of material, whereas the sari is made of two pieces of material, one for the body and one for the shawl.

These days a number of Indian shops in London and other big cities have sections in those attractive, fashionable districts.

Unlike the Japanese who have money for the latest fashions and who are willing to pay for them, the Indian woman is often governed by her pocket. She is often content with the traditional Indian dress, but she will buy a Western dress if she can get it for a very low price.

The sari is a piece of material which is worn in a number of ways. It is usually worn in a way which shows the traditional Indian dress, but it can be worn in a way which is very different from the traditional Indian dress.

DOUBLES

WOULD you wear your best dress to the office? Probably not. But you might wear the same dress in an inexpensive material. For most people, the difference between a good dress and a cheap dress is not in the material, but in the cut and the fit. A good dress is one that fits you well and is made of a material that is easy to care for. A cheap dress is one that does not fit you well and is made of a material that is difficult to care for.

In defence of the Voice of Kenya: over tree planting

I would be interesting to know if Mr. Thompson Kenyan? has any knowledge of the practical work done by the Voice of Kenya, in Britain or elsewhere, in the field of tree-planting particularly in Kenya? It was mentioned in the Voice of Kenya that a number of its weekly columns in the Voice of Kenya are devoted to the work of the Kenyan National Committee, whose members included well-known representatives of all shades of political and racial opinion in Kenya. The work of this committee is of the highest importance in the value of its contribution to the development of Kenya in East Africa.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

As a member of the Kenyan National Committee, I am writing to you to express my disappointment at the article in your issue of July 10th, entitled "Over tree planting". It is a pity that the Government should have taken such a line in this respect. It is a pity that the Government should have taken such a line in this respect.

A letter dated July 10th, from Mr. Forster, regarding the delegation of powers to the Kenyan National Committee, was received by the Kenyan National Committee.

Asien youth

A very informative and thought-provoking article by Mr. Forster in your issue of July 10th, regarding the youth of Asia, is of great interest to the Kenyan National Committee.

A "DISEMBODIED" letter is getting around the world, and it is a pity that the Government should have taken such a line in this respect.

U.K. unions opposed to African air service plan

AIRCRAFT trade unions in Britain have announced opposition to Government plans to allow independent operators to run services to Africa.

The Government's plan was announced in the House of Commons at the end of last week. It provides for Airwork to be floated. It will have a fleet of 100 aircraft on lease of their own.

The two companies together will be allowed 10 per cent of the total air traffic to be handled by independent operators.

Further action. It was said that the absence of a national fleet of aircraft would be a disadvantage to the Government's plan.

FINANCING KENYA-CAPE ROAD PROJECT

Hopes of British aid

"Hindu" Staff Reporter.
PRESSING the importance of the projected Nairobi-Cape Town road to inter-continental trade in Africa, Mr. Nkururu said that it was hoped that the British Treasury would give priority to the development of the road was expected to start early next year.

Addressing a meeting of the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Dunford said that the project in Kenya would be £12,500,000, as the road would only have to be developed between Addis Ababa and Kampala.

Mr. Dunford said that the Government of Kenya would like to have a 50 per cent share in the road and the other 50 per cent would be shared between the Governments of Kenya, Uganda and Tanzania.

"Any plans raised for the development of the Nairobi-Cape Town road would be a far-sighted Government plan for a long period," Mr. Dunford said.

"An appeal came from the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce for special road facilities for the Nairobi road because in view of the fact that the greatest mileage would go to Tanzania."

"The suggestion that a system of tolls should be established along the road was not practical because the road of collecting the toll charge would be a great gain to the Government."

Chief Minister who is a former school leaver, mentioned the small literacy campaign in the Nairobi District and the extension in English and Swahili to the children of all ages in many schools.

What is COLD RUBBER

It has a very important bearing on the mileage life of a tyre. It is a well-known fact that in many cases when a substance is subjected to the greatest heat it often loses some of its quality.

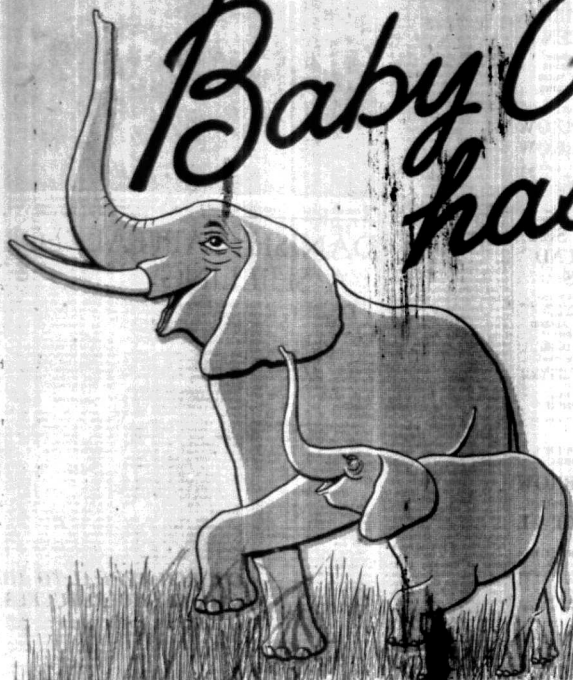

The temperature at which rubber is heated to form a mix for manufacture of tyre tread compounds is directly related to tyre mileage. After many years of research manufacturers have successfully managed to reduce the temperature at which rubber polymers to form a mix. With this new process you can get up to 30 per cent more mileage with COLD RUBBER retread.

BRITISH PLANE BEATS WORLD AIR SPEED RECORD

Fighter flies faster than 1,132 m.p.h.
UNOFFICIAL TIMING
BRITAIN'S fastest fighter aircraft, the Electric P.1, has broken the world air speed record, its makers announced yesterday.

The aircraft flew faster than 1,132 m.p.h. on a test flight on July 11 at a height of 38,000 feet, the manufacturer, the English Electric, claimed that it would have a maximum speed of 1,500 m.p.h.

The previous record of 1,124 m.p.h. was set up on March 19 last year by Lt. Conde, Peter Twin, test pilot with Fairey Aviation. Flying a Fairey Delta II at a height of 38,000 feet, he beat the existing record of 824 m.p.h. held by an American Super Sabre, by the English Electric.

Labour plan to buy its way into private industry

STATE PARTICIPATION

BRITAIN'S Labour Party, if returned to power, might seek to gain a foothold in some of the country's biggest private enterprises by buying them, it is stated in a report issued as a discussion paper for the Labour Party's annual delegate conference in the autumn.

The report said the committee would like to see the fruits of industrial democracy. It would like to see industry and industry workers working together to improve the conditions of service of their employees. It would like to see the conditions of production of their goods improved. It would like to see the conditions of their lives improved. It would like to see the conditions of their communities improved.

Dominating position

It was the dominating position of the Labour Party in the country which would be the main reason for its success in buying its way into private industry. The Labour Party would be able to buy its way into private industry because it would be able to buy its way into the minds of the people. The Labour Party would be able to buy its way into the minds of the people because it would be able to buy its way into the hearts of the people.

The stability of the Labour Party would be the main reason for its success in buying its way into private industry. The Labour Party would be able to buy its way into private industry because it would be able to buy its way into the minds of the people. The Labour Party would be able to buy its way into the minds of the people because it would be able to buy its way into the hearts of the people.

Inequality maintained

"It is interesting to note that the economic performance of the Labour Party has been so poor that it has been unable to buy its way into private industry. The Labour Party has been unable to buy its way into private industry because it has been unable to buy its way into the minds of the people. The Labour Party has been unable to buy its way into the minds of the people because it has been unable to buy its way into the hearts of the people.

Tax evasion

NAIROBI Chamber of Commerce, in the report it submitted on Tuesday night, has crystallised in unpalatable terms what the East African lay-going public has been thinking for some time on the question of income tax. It has urged the Government to do all in its power to give the tax payers a fair and equitable system of taxation.

It is pointed out that the present system of taxation is based on the principle of a flat rate of 10 per cent on the total income of the taxpayer. This is a system which is not only unfair but also inefficient. It is suggested that a progressive system of taxation should be introduced, with a maximum rate of 30 per cent on the total income of the taxpayer.

The Chamber of Commerce also suggests that the Government should consider the possibility of introducing a system of tax relief for small businesses and for those who are engaged in agriculture and stock raising.

ATOMIC FALL-DANGERS DISCOUNTED

LAYMEN and scientists have lost their "perplexed" air over the dangers of man-made atomic energy, according to the University of California, one of the world's leading authorities on the subject. The state of mind was made plain by a survey of public opinion conducted last week by the university's "Public Opinion" group. The survey showed that 70 per cent of the public believed that the dangers of atomic energy were being exaggerated.

The survey also showed that 60 per cent of the public believed that the benefits of atomic energy outweighed the dangers. This is a significant change from the opinion of the public in 1946, when 80 per cent of the public believed that the dangers of atomic energy were being exaggerated.

The survey was conducted by the "Public Opinion" group, which is a part of the university's "Social Science Research Center". The group has conducted a number of surveys on public opinion on a wide range of social and political issues.
