CATAPULT WINS THE BIG RACE

Favourites fared very poorly

HAD Saturday's weather been as warm and sunny as it was on Sunday, a far bigger crowd would probably have witnessed the Nairobi one-day race meeting. As it was the cold and misty conditions kept many away from the African enclosure, which was filled, as expected, by the few who were present. The race was little more than a half full. This was unfortunate as racing was unfortunately as slow as it was.

Capt. and Mrs. Nigel Graham had their first race day at the Nairobi race meeting. Capt. Graham and Capt. Dwyer were the only two who were able to see the race while Dwyer and Pyle were unable to see.

The big race of the day was the 1000 yards race. The favourite, the 1000 yards race, was won by the 1000 yards race.

Salisbury victory A triumph in first tour game for Kenya athletes

SALISBURY won the first match of their brief Rugby tour of Kenya on Saturday afternoon on the R.F.P. ground, Nairobi. They beat a Central Provinces XV by 12 points (two goals, a penalty goal and two tries) to 55 (two penalty goals, three tries). It was a hard but most enjoyable game with the Kenyan players showing their ability to make a late rally for a try with some 15 minutes to go.

ANNIHILATION WARNING TO RUSSIA BY SANDYS

INCREASE OF A BAG ON MAIZE IN KENYA

MAIZE is to be raised in Kenya by one cent a bushel from 10s 6d to 11s 6d. This is the first increase in the price of maize since 1955. The increase is due to the fact that the cost of production has risen by one cent a bushel.

West holds vast nuclear stockpile

MISSILE PROGRESS

If Russia started a war it would have to fight the wholesale devastation of her cities and the annihilation of a large part of her population, the British Defence Minister, Mr. Sandys, warned in a broadcast in Sydney.

So long as the free world possessed nuclear power and showed that it would be used if need be, the Soviet Union would assuredly hesitate to begin a war, Mr. Sandys said.

The United States, which had an immense stock of atomic and hydrogen weapons, provided almost the whole of a free world's nuclear deterrent. But Britain now had a reasonable stockpile of A-bombs and intended to make a stockpile of hydrogen bombs. She was planning, together with the development of long-range ballistic missiles, Mr. Sandys added.

Appeal to Bulgarian

The Prime Minister, Mr. Maclean, has appealed to the Grand Prince Minister, Borisov, for "frank consideration" of the Western part of the armament plan which was put forward last year.

The appeal was contained in a personal letter framed in a personal note from Mr. Maclean delivered in Moscow last Friday.

Referring to the Western plan tabled in the Western Union last November last Thursday, Mr. Maclean said: "I have had to say the word and my relations are assured."

T.U.C. blames employers for anarchy threat

EMPLOYERS in Britain were warned yesterday by Sir Thomas Williams, president of the Trades Union Congress, that out-of-date attitudes might lead to anarchy.

He was speaking at the T.U.C.'s 80th anniversary at Blackpool.

Mr. Williams said that trade unionists should democracy through consultation and negotiation and employers must do the same. He claimed that "young engineering and delivery strikes had been provoked by the employers' deliberate and contemptuous disregard of normal democratic procedure."

"This danger has been well known to the State for many years but more of the employers than of their own men," he said.

"It is no need to this opinion that some employers still retain the attitude of selfishness."

Mr. Williams concluded his address by saying: "The State has a duty to see that the interests of the workers are protected and that the interests of the employers are also protected."

NEHRU APPEALS TO BOTH SIDES

At appeal that both Russia and the Western Powers should refrain from interfering in the Middle East to the detriment of the Indian, Prime Minister, Mr. Nehru.

Commenting on events in Syria during a session in the Indian Parliament, Mr. Nehru said that the Middle East was a region of great importance and that it was essential for the peace and stability of the world that the interests of all the peoples of the region should be protected.

Markets quiet in London

London Stock Markets quiet yesterday, but the undertone was firm, helped by Friday's sharp rally on Wall Street.
Coffee, cocoa and tea were higher and C.I.S. rose to 49.40, while tin was steady at 172.50.
The general tone was active, but the market was not really in a buying mood. The only notable exception was the tin market, which was held up by a large order from the Japanese Government.

New Zealand fears loss on dairy produce

Mr. F. F. Weston, president of the New Zealand Association of Dairy Producers, has warned that the dairy industry might suffer a severe loss if the New Zealand Government does not take prompt action to increase export prices for its produce.
The Association's report, which was issued yesterday, states that the price of dairy produce in New Zealand is currently 10% below the world market price. This is due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of shipping space and a decline in demand in the United Kingdom.

INTEREST IN NEW FORK-LIFT VEHICLE Answer to timber problems

The new type of fork-lift vehicle which is expected to be developed in New Zealand is being developed by the New Zealand Association of Timber Producers.
The Association's report, which was issued yesterday, states that the new vehicle is designed to be a more efficient and safer alternative to the traditional forklift truck. It is particularly suited for use in the timber industry, where it can be used for a wide range of tasks, including loading and unloading trucks, and moving logs.

BRISK BIDDING AT KAMPALA COFFEE SALES

Bidding was brisk throughout the 1956/57 season at Kampala coffee sales, with prices reaching a record high of 130/- per cwt. for the best quality coffee.
The sales, which are held by the Uganda Coffee Producers' Association, attracted a large number of buyers from both within and outside the country. The high prices were due to a combination of factors, including a shortage of coffee beans and a strong demand for high quality coffee.

Help for a young boarder

By PENNY WISE

WHILE on leave recently, I was talking to the matron of a large boarding school in England, and learned a great deal of use to parents who have children going to boarding school in England—or in East Africa.

The children will be off to school in a few days, and it is advisable to check your child's equipment, clothing, etc., in accordance with the requirements of the school. This will not mean a heavy load, but it will mean that you will be sure that the child has everything he needs.

KEEP IN STYLE

If however the school parents wish to have their child's wardrobe up-to-date, it is better to have the wardrobe made in England, as it will be sure to be in the latest style.

It's made for

Home chores for children

It is essential for children to learn how to do household chores from a young age. This not only teaches them responsibility and the value of hard work, but it also helps to develop their motor skills and self-discipline.

Here are some simple chores that children can do:

- 1. Making their beds.
- 2. Cleaning their rooms.
- 3. Wiping down tables and chairs.
- 4. Taking out the trash.
- 5. Helping to wash the dishes.
- 6. Sweeping the porch.
- 7. Feeding the pets.
- 8. Watering the plants.

By assigning these chores to children, parents can help them to become more independent and self-sufficient.

POSTAGE of being ordered, especially and militarily. "Half" at the major road, as indicated by a Kenya sign, no less prominent as "stop" on the district civilian laws. The result should be the same; i.e., the order and maintenance of order and safety on the roads.

Journal of the progressive movement has now ordered a "wild" in black letters on a yellow background, topped by a warning circle in red. And that has quite a different meaning. The author believes that what a driver thinks caution and another thinks caution in burning out of a side road is removed under a night sign. "Wild" is an injunction to the driver to stop, to slow down, to be slow to beware, before and go way to traffic on the main road.

There are two examples chosen from more than 50 traffic signs which will be introduced during the next 12 months to make it easier for the driver to understand the year's gear. Some delays have been experienced because of the slow delivery of the signs from London, but the signs are now being sent to the provinces.

HUNDREDS OF TRAFFIC SUMMONSES WITHDRAWN

Nairobi court delays

Number of summonses issued by the police against motor traffic offenders in Nairobi has decreased because of the length of time that it takes before they are called to court. It is shown that this action is partly caused by an increase in the number of vehicles in the city and partly because they are being issued in bulk.

By the police traffic department has had a number of traffic offences summons that the two of the Law Courts have been taking. The courts are now the burden on the traffic court.

UNIFORMITY AIM

The first legal steps to have uniform traffic signs throughout Kenya were taken yesterday with the publication in the 'Kenya Gazette' of orders of new road signs.

The signs—many of them will be seen on Kenya's roads for the first time—conform to the recommendations adopted at a Transport Conference in South Africa about seven years ago. The most important change is the 'National' transport advisory board.

They will be the only ones in which Kenya conforms to the recommendations of the International Commission on Road Signs. The signs will be uniform in design and color throughout the country.

TAKING THE WALL

Some 300 years ago when the streets of the capital cities of the world were mostly paved with mud and refuse, it was the practice of foot-travellers to keep to the wall as far as possible in order to avoid slipping in the water of the Pook and being vapourised by passing coaches.

When two such travellers approached each other, the one would step forward, and the other would step back, and the two would pass each other without incident.

The well-dressed person still carries it over his head but the manner has changed, and that is why the new man travels in the ease and elegance of his clothing obtained at Ahamed Bros. Ltd., where the quality of material and excellence of workmanship are in perfect harmony.

URANIUM IN E. AFRICA

Dodoma opening of atomic energy office

REACTOR PROSPECT

The possibility of Tanganyika having its own atomic reactor within a few years was announced by the Governor, Sir Edward Twining, at Dodoma last night, when he opened the East African letter of the British Atomic Energy Authority.

Steady market

The Authority would offer prices which were reasonable in the light of world conditions at the time. This, Sir Edward added, means that any price producing surplus is a major attractive proposition in these days of straits and falling prices.

Lake Rudolf 'strike' not confirmed

REPORTS that uranium and other precious metals had been discovered in the Lake Rudolf region of East Africa were not confirmed by the British Atomic Energy Authority.

Subsidy claims

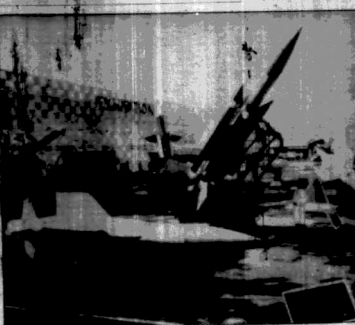

The Government will not subsidize the uranium industry, Sir Edward Twining said.

PROPOSALS TO COMBAT VICE IN BRITAIN

Report urges heavier fines

Tougher punishments to reduce illicit practices in London and other big cities are recommended by an official committee of inquiry appointed by the Government to investigate vice in Britain.

The committee also recommends that homosexuality be private between consenting adults should no longer be a criminal offence.

The Westminster Chamber of 15 named from its chairman, John Wolffe, Chairman of Housing Unemployment and Control, Sir Albert Evans, Secretary for Education, Sir Walter Baring, Secretary for Labour, Sir Arthur H. Wood, Secretary for Home Affairs, Sir John Glynne, Secretary for Health, and Sir Charles Atterton, Secretary for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry.

The committee has reported its findings in a memorandum of 30 pages. The memorandum is divided into three parts: the first dealing with the general principles, the second with the specific proposals, and the third with the administrative arrangements.

The committee's proposals are designed to deal with the various forms of vice which are common in the big cities. These include prostitution, gambling, and the sale of liquor to intoxicated persons.

The committee also proposes that the sale of liquor to intoxicated persons should be a criminal offence, and that the sale of liquor to minors should be a criminal offence.

The committee further proposes that the sale of liquor to persons who are obviously intoxicated should be a criminal offence, and that the sale of liquor to persons who are obviously intoxicated should be a criminal offence.

Church comment on 'clearing streets'

REACTION to the Wolfenden Committee's vice report was generally favourable yesterday, although many organisations and individuals declared its recommendations were not strong enough.

The Church of England Moral Welfare Council welcomed the section of the report on homosexuality as "a humane and liberal disposition and thoroughness of thought".

By contrast, it found the recommendations on prostitution too weak, and the recommendations on the sale of liquor to intoxicated persons too weak.

The Council also welcomed the recommendations on the sale of liquor to minors and on the sale of liquor to persons who are obviously intoxicated.

The Council also welcomed the recommendations on the sale of liquor to persons who are obviously intoxicated, and on the sale of liquor to persons who are obviously intoxicated.

VE TO CURB FLOW OF ICE-CREAM IMPORTS

Kenya sales affected

INTRODUCTION of measures to regulate the flow of frozen foods and ice-cream imports into Kenya will be urged by the Kenya National Farmers Union and the Kenya Co-operative Creameries Ltd. before the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Blundell, returns to the Colony later this month.

During the past two months, members of the K.C.C.F. have held discussions at each of which it has been pointed out that substantial imports of frozen foods from the United States and other countries of frozen food are the steady supply of frozen products of the United States and other countries. The K.C.C.F. has also pointed out that the United States and other countries are producing more than enough to supply the needs of their own countries and are exporting the surplus to other countries.

DELIVERIES TO M. EAST Attitude over Syrian threat hardening CRISIS CONFERENCE

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER yesterday announced in the supply of American arms and equipment to the Middle East...
Observers in Washington said that the President's approval of Middle East developments reflected a definite hardening of U.S. policy towards Syria. For the first time, he had suggested that international Communism was directing Syria's subversive campaign against other Arab States...
The President interrupted a holiday at Rhode Island to attend an emergency conference at the White House on the Middle East crisis. He was attended by the Secretary of State, Mr. Dulles, and Mr. Loy Henderson, who returned last week after consultations with the pro-Western leaders in the Middle East.

Push towards aggression

After the meeting, Mr. Dulles read a statement from the President in which he reaffirmed his intention to provide the Middle East with Communist aggression and authorized the delivery of economic and defensive military aid to the area. Mr. Dulles added: "The President expressed his conviction that the international Communists would use any and all means to push Syria into any kind of aggressive war."

Solving a seaside problem

By HELEN GAGE

WET sand and salt-water, as most people know, will ruin the leather, but not everyone knows how to remedy the damage that sand and salt-water inflict on footwear.

The immediate remedy from the deleterious effects of a day in the sun, first remove the sand by tapping the shoes and then allow them to dry naturally. Wipe the leather with a soft cloth of an inch or so of the wet sand.

Then give the shoes a good washing with a cloth which has been dipped again and again in the same solution. Rub the shoes thoroughly, and rub the soles and heels with a stiff brush. If you favour the straw method, first wash the shoes with the same solution, but before the final washing, rub the soles and heels with a stiff brush. This will remove the sand and salt-water from the soles and heels, and will prevent the shoes from becoming stiff and cracked.

COTTONS

By Evelyn Wood

NOT since the days of Marie-Antoinette's famous "milkmaid" period, has cotton been so fashionable as it is today.

During the phase when she put aside her elaborate silks and brocades in favour of simpler garments with muslin bosoms to frame her royal head, the real beauty among fashion designers that, two centuries later, cotton would take its place in couturier fashion along with the more sumptuous fabrics.

This week I have seen many beautiful models made in wonderful cottons, materials which you will be able to keep in 1938.

Victor Bonfai designed a full-length printed cotton evening dress in shades of peach. A long kimono last-line was adorned with a wide turquoise poplin and silk mesh.

Also designed a shirt with a stock designed by Charles Creed. In white and white checked poplin it was worn under a tailored suit in Bedford cord by the same designer—both worn in the fashion salon.

Delay over hotel blamed on City Council

SITE RESTRICTIONS

It is believed that the construction of a 12-story hotel in Nairobi's City Square has been held up for some time as a result of "various" development restrictions placed on it by the City Council over the site.

According to an official of the planning Mr. K. D. Doughty said that the City Council's decision to release the site for hotel development in 1952 at the rate of 2-3/4 sq ft per sq ft was based on an assumption that the site was to be used as a hotel. It was in the opinion of the Council that the site was a suitable one for a hotel of the type which would be built on the site. Mr. Doughty said that it had been assumed that the site would be used as a hotel of the type which would be built on the site.

A FINE PERFORMANCE BY GEORGE KNIGHT

Fastest 10,000 metres ever performed by Englishman

Of the many fine performances from both teams during the friendly addition match between Britain and Poland at the Decennial Stadium, Warsaw, it is George Knight, Britain's top miles champion, who in 20 min. 48 sec. won the 10,000 metres in the world's best time.

The only way the fast time was accomplished was by a series of short bursts, but only one of these bursts had any effect on the spectators.

Knight led almost throughout the race and never allowed his lead to be broken.

Smith (24) received a great ovation from the crowd when he won more than ten times as many points as his opponent, but his time of 20 min. 48 sec. was not as good as that of his opponent.

British whittled down

Poland's best runner, Jan Kowalski, won the 10,000 metres in 20 min. 48 sec. in the men's race, but his time was not as good as that of his opponent.

The women's race was won by the Polish runner, Janina Jankowska, in 44 min. 30 sec.

ECONOMY DURING 1956

New markets for increased exports

FARMING EXPANSION

REVIEWING events in Kenya in 1956, the Colonial Office, in a report published in London yesterday, claimed that the "striking improvement" in the Emergency situation had had marked effect in all fields of work.

Agriculture, which was generally regarded as the basis of the country's economy, continued to expand satisfactorily. Crop production in most African areas increased, while European areas farm development and soiled planning continued to show good results.

The Government in the Emergency situation greatly helped this progress, the report states. "There was a gradual rise of farm labour, mainly as a result of the fact that the danger to stock and crops reduced greater efforts were able to be concentrated on the development of agriculture."

Financial position sound

In spite of the long years of the Emergency, the country's financial position remained sound, although it was too early to expect any great relief "the improved conditions" nevertheless began to have a great effect.

Again, the cessation of the Emergency brought about a considerable improvement in the country's external accounts. "There was also a steady flow of immigrants of all professions in the volume of tourist arrivals and the number of tourists who were admitted to the country. Other main features in the report were mentioned by the Minister of Finance, Mr. J. N. Kariuki, in a statement made at the end of the year.

The Minister said that the country's financial position was sound, and that the Government was able to meet its obligations to the outside world. He also mentioned that the country's external accounts had improved, and that the Government was able to pay its external debts.

CURBER FORK

During the week ending September 10, 1957, the total catch of the curber fish in the waters of the Kenya coast was 1,000 tons, according to the Kenya Fisheries Department.

MAU MAU PERSONALITY

A public official said "Mau Mau" had a "strong personality" and was "not a man of letters" but a "man of action". He said that Mau Mau was a "man of action" and was "not a man of letters".

PRINCE CHARLES MAY SLEEP HERE

WHEN Prince Charles becomes a pupil at Cheam School, Hampshire, later this month he will sleep in either of two dormitories, by one of which, seen on the right, Mrs. Peter Beck, wife of one of the school's two headmasters, makes up a bed. The wooden beds, which have a somewhat quaint appearance, are 200 years old.

The boys are roused by a bell at 7.15, and lessons start at 9. They attended, is believed in the village of Cheam. The other headmaster is Mr. Mark Widdow, both he and Mr. Beck have stated that the young Prince will receive a special privilege as a result of his stay at the school.

Saint Constant, the vessel which carried the first British migrants to Queensland, in 1807. Lady Mountbatten smashed a bottle of River James water, flown to England by the U.S. Air Force, across the town outside Woolwich Town Hall, London. The ship will be used in the re-enactment of the famous landing at the Woolwich searchlight tower this week.

SOME of the Air Rangers — senior members of the Girl Guide movement — who went to Fairbairns on field at Chobham, Surrey, to be initiated into the thrills of flying. The Rangers were under canvas at Evesley, Warghishore. Those in the picture include Lord Baden Powell's grand daughter, Lady Mary, second from left, who is the daughter of Mrs. Gerouse Clay, Commandant of Guides in Northern Rhodesia; in the cockpit are Diane Turner, of Harrogate, and Katherine Hunt, of Liverpool, both aged 17. The others (left to right) are: Betty Sabin, of Birmingham; Jane Henning, of Birmingham; and Frances Mortimer, of Bradford.

AS THE CROW FLIES...

The crow's route's the best in many a country but, in East Africa where your interests lie as far apart as Soy and Songea, Kampala and Kilifi, it's the only really sound way to go about your business. Hire an airplane, take an air taxi, charter an aircraft—call it what you will, but it all boils down to the same thing, fast, comfortable, safer than road travel at the very low cost of 70 cents per mile per hour.

What is COLD RUBBER

It has a very important bearing on the mileage life of a tyre. It is a well-known fact that in many cases when a substandard is subjected to great heat it often loses some of its quality.

The temperature at which rubber is heated to form a mix for manufacture of tyre tread compound is directly related to tyre mileage. After many years of research manufacturers have successfully managed to reduce the temperature at which rubber polymerizes to form a mix. With this new process you can get up to 30 per cent more mileage with COLD RUBBER retreads.
