"VITAMIN ESSENTIAL"
 by Cambridge School of Anatomy Sciences

In an article in the British Medical Journal (June 2, 1956, p. 1262) two doctors of the Cambridge School of Anatomy say: "Vitamin deficiency may be the cause of many diseases that are often mistaken for cancer; they are preventable by diet and other means."

Doctors show that, due to continuous advances in medical science, today's people are expected to live longer than ever before. This means that you must have the best of health to enjoy your life to the full.

Some vitamins are indispensable for life. They are essential for the body to function properly and to resist disease. They are essential for the body to function properly and to resist disease. They are essential for the body to function properly and to resist disease.

After age 35 we have a tendency to be more "worryable" than when we were younger. This is due to the fact that our bodies are no longer as strong as they once were. We need a special tonic to help us maintain our health and vitality.

Journeying up the Amazon with good will and a camera

By INSPIRED SAINTRY

Framaged to take a trip up the River Amazon most of us would like to take a camera with us. But the trouble is that the best cameras are too expensive to take on a long trip. The best solution is to take a camera that is cheap and reliable.

As a guide to the camera with which the present is written—the camera of an adventure writer who has written the book, instead of a holiday at the beach.

The trouble with the above mentioned camera is that it is not a camera. It is a camera that is not a camera. It is a camera that is not a camera.

STRAIGHT CIRCLES

The most direct way of passing essential information around is by using circles in a Straight Circles Automatic Exchange. This not only saves staff effort but is also cost-effective. There are many different installations to choose from, for both large and small organisations. Each includes the most up-to-date equipment, backed by the many resources of a world-wide organisation specialising in communications. And you have the choice of cash or credit terms of 1 hour service.

Protests over liquor sales

DO MANY LICENCES

The issue of the liquor licence has been a matter of controversy for some time. The Government has been accused of issuing too many licences, leading to a glut of the market and a consequent fall in prices. This has caused the disapproval of the public, who are now protesting against the policy.

From machine profits
 Another complaint is that the Government is not doing enough to control the price of liquor. The Government is accused of allowing the price to rise, which has led to a fall in the value of the licence. This has caused the disapproval of the public, who are now protesting against the policy.

£100,000 BIG-GAME PROJECT UNDER WAY AT COAST

By Lesley Clay

I WONDER if many people, like John Robinson, know the meaning of the word 'big game'? I must confess that I did not until the other day when Mr. Douglas Brown, of the Argyr Big-Game Fishing Services at Oban, Co. Argyll, explained that it means the scientific study of fishes, and that he is the honorary field assistant for America's Yale University in that respect.

There is a man, Mr. Brown, who first came to Kenya with the army in 1942 and has since become a fisherman.

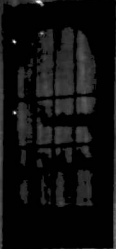

Mr. Brown, who is now in charge of the whole of the coast from Lamu in the north to the Cape Town, has been working on a project since the war. He is now in the last year of his project. It is one of the best jobs in the world, and the only one of its kind.

The big game fishing being so lacking that he has been working on it for the last 12 years. He has been working on it for the last 12 years. He has been working on it for the last 12 years. He has been working on it for the last 12 years.

FIRST STAGE
The first stage of the project is to collect fish from all parts of the coast. This is done by using a boat and a net. The boat is pulled by a motor and the net is thrown into the water. The fish are then brought back to the boat and the net is pulled in.

EASY ACCESS
The second stage is to make it easy for the fish to be brought back to the boat. This is done by using a motor and a net. The motor is used to pull the net and the net is used to catch the fish.

Mr. Brown, who is now in charge of the whole of the coast from Lamu in the north to the Cape Town, has been working on a project since the war. He is now in the last year of his project. It is one of the best jobs in the world, and the only one of its kind.

The building shown in this picture is the school at Oban, Co. Argyll, which is one of the best schools in the world. It is a very big school and has many teachers and pupils.

Stromon Creek (top) shows a fishing boat with its motor. Below is a view of the school at Oban, Co. Argyll.

Kisumu bestows honour on former Town Clerk

WHEN Mr. Minister for Local Government, Mr. W. Havcock, visited Kisumu last week, he referred with pleasure to the Municipal Board's decision to make an African housing estate after Capt. Thomas Anderson.

Mr. Havcock said that Capt. Anderson's activities in the past probably had more to do with the establishment of local government in Kisumu than anything else.

Capt. Anderson first arrived in Kisumu in 1912. He was then employed as a clerk in the Municipal Office. He later became a member of the Municipal Council and was elected Mayor in 1924.

He was also a member of the Legislative Council and was elected to the Senate in 1954. He is now a member of the Kenya National Council of Elders.

Where Livingstone stood in awe...

By ALICE CLAMFIELD

Of all the sights in Africa, perhaps the Victoria Falls is the most magnificent and fascinating. Many people carry in their minds a picture of the vast cascade of snowy water as seen in no picture can convey the glorious colouring—the chocolate-brown earth and the luxuriant green vegetation—and the sparkling grandeur of these great falls stretching far into the distance and merging with the deep blue of the sky.

There are many ways of getting to the Falls, but of course, the quickest way is by direct air-traffic. There is a Victoria section by Central African Airways.

I went by plane. Early in the morning the air was very calm, and we flew over the forested slopes of the city and out to Nairobi Airport.

INTO THE AIR

We went up to the restaurant to have breakfast, and then walked out on to the vast expanse of airfield to board the Douglas trimotor to take us on the journey to Livingstone.

Looking back at the table, we saw what a fine new airport Nairobi has, as we find on the airfield the latest into the airfield, we

There are many people in the Victoria Falls, and they are all very busy. Some are working in the fields, and some are working in the shops. The air is very fresh, and the water is very clean.

The pilot handed round a card of welcome to help us in the pressure of the air-drome as the plane gained height.

The pilot that told us to fasten our belts spoke again: "We are climbing to 17,000 feet. It may be windy, but we are going to fly for several hours."

300 MILES AN HOUR

The pilot rang out again: "We are now flying at 300 miles an hour. It is a very fast plane, and we are going to fly for several hours."

I looked him for his air of complete detachment. It might have been a journey in a luxury train, but no platform had been set.

A few hours passed as if by magic. The pilot spoke again: "We are now flying at 300 miles an hour. It is a very fast plane, and we are going to fly for several hours."

CLOUDS OF SPRAY

Soon the Falls would come into view. I waited for a sign of excitement.

As we approached the Falls, and will circle them, by first crossing the bridge.

It was a lovely sight the long line of glowing water

REGULAR PARHAUL
KENYA's Minister for Transport, Mr. Vasey, made a strong statement in the House of Representatives today, in which he bluntly rejected the idea of an industrial preference system for Kenya. He said that the Government would not look into the possibility of such a system, but would continue to support the existing system of regular parhaul.

He said that the Government would accept the position where people who carry overall responsibility shall be interfered with by people who do not carry that responsibility. It is his belief, he said, that the Kenya Government overhauled its administrative machinery regularly.

Disappointment over attitude
Mr. Vasey was replying to the association's president, Mr. J. R. Anderson, who said the only way to achieve any results is by reviewing the work of administration. Mr. Vasey said that the Government was already reviewing the work of administration, and that the Government was already reviewing the work of administration.

SOME DEFINITIONS OF DEMOCRACY

Democracy is a word which has become so common in our ears that we seldom stop to think of its meaning. It is a word which has been used in many different senses, and it is difficult to give a single definition which will cover all the uses to which it is put.

In its most general sense, democracy means a form of government in which the power is vested in the people, either directly or through their representatives. It is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

In a more specific sense, democracy means a system of government in which the rights of the individual are protected, and the interests of the community are promoted. It is a government which is based on the principles of justice, equality, and freedom.

In still another sense, democracy means a system of government in which the will of the majority is the law. It is a government in which the rights of the minority are protected, but the will of the majority is the final authority.

Democracy is a word which has many meanings, and it is difficult to give a single definition which will cover all the uses to which it is put. It is a word which has become so common in our ears that we seldom stop to think of its meaning.

High surtax retards E.A. capital formation

CERTAIN aspects of the new income tax provisions are claimed by their opponents to be liable to retard capital formation in Kenya.

The Kenya Chamber of Commerce and Industry, which has been actively engaged in the study of the new tax provisions, has issued a report in which it states that the high surtax on profits is one of the most serious obstacles to capital formation.

The report points out that the high surtax on profits is a disincentive to investment, and it is a major cause of the slow rate of industrial development in Kenya.

The Kenya Chamber of Commerce and Industry has urged the Government to reduce the high surtax on profits, and to introduce measures to encourage capital formation.

The report also states that the high surtax on profits is a major cause of the slow rate of industrial development in Kenya, and it is a major cause of the slow rate of industrial development in Kenya.

WARDENS PRODUCE DRAMA THE WILDS FOR TSAVO VISITORS

A "dramatic" show of the "wilds" of Tsavo National Park, Kenya, was given last night at the Grand Hotel, Nairobi, for the benefit of the Kenya Wildlife Service.

The visitor to Kenya, especially, invariably wants to see the biggest of all the land animals, the African elephant, the unpredictable rhino, the spotted buffalo which can become such a terrible foe when aroused, the bulky hippo, or a rhinoceros looking on land, but unfortunately, the latter is seldom seen in the wild.

The warden game held a similar fascination, the huge beauty of the light-colored rhino, the deadly horn of the rhinoceros, the hippo and the crocodile of the Grand Hotel, Nairobi.

The Warden, Tsavo Wild, Mr. "Tuffy" Mwaniki.

Mr. Mwaniki, who is in charge of the warden game, said that the warden game is a very interesting and profitable one. He said that the warden game is a very interesting and profitable one. He said that the warden game is a very interesting and profitable one.

DRESSING REVOLUTION IN BRITISH CLASSROOMS

By EILEEN ANDERSON
A REVOLUTION has taken place in the dress of British school children. The traditional uniform of blouses and skirts has been replaced by more practical and comfortable clothing. This change is due to the fact that the children are now more active and require clothing that can withstand the rigors of school life.

POPULAR PIANIST BACK AT THE KEYS

WAX CAVDISH, the brilliant popular pianist, begins a new series of his own programs on the "Key" in the B.B.C. Central Overseas Service on Sunday.

Miss Cavadish has not always played jazz and popular music, but she is a Gold Medalist of the Royal Academy of Music, and used to play concertos at the Queen's Hall with Sir Henry Wood.

But during the war she joined the B.B.C. as an announcer, and one day an employer asked her to strum on the piano for a few minutes while he was making a test recording.

The recording was played to the then Assistant Director of Music, who was so impressed with it that he asked Miss Cavadish to do a broadcast—the very first edition of "Key on the Key."

Since then, she has been booked back, but with a strong intention to devote her time to years of study. Both "Key" and "Key" have benefited. She still enjoys playing in the classical and she is still the first only in music.

An Kathleen Convery, a pianist of English-Australian descent, who is the daughter of the late Sir Henry Wood, held the world's record for playing the piano in the British high jump record, and was an international ace.

Wally Wise says - MATCH YOUR TRACTOR AND IMPLEMENTS TO THE JOB

DON'T EXPECT 2 HORSES TO DO THE WORK OF 4!

With four horses instead of three, Wally Wise's Nuffield tractor will help you get more work done in less time. At 40 hp, the new Wally Wise tractor has more power than the 30-hp tractor you're using now. It's the only tractor in its class that has more power than the 30-hp tractor you're using now.

Wally Wise's advice - "STANDARDISE" on the Supreme Power of the Nuffield universal "Four" and the Unmatched Economy of the Nuffield Universal "Three"

- Nuffield "Three" and "Four" fitted power units by B.M.C. with 85% standardisation of tractor and engine components.
- Implement interchangeability.
- Universal Three-Point Linkage and Balanced POWER/WEIGHT RATIO means maximum traction with your EXISTING pointed and TRAILED equipment-in fact with any implement of your choice.
