RUS REVEALS E. AFRICA FOR EXILE

Transferred at sea to British frigate

MOVEMENTS COVERED BY STRICT SECURITY CLOAK

Archbishop Makarios and the three other clerics who were deported with him from Cyprus are on their way to exile in the Seychelles. They arrived at Mombasa in an R.A.F. transport aircraft at dawn on Saturday and, after 24 hours at sea in H.M.S. Rosalind, were transferred to the frigate Loch Fada yesterday evening.

Their wretched movements were covered by a very strict security cloak. The only official statement issued was a Kenyan Government spokesman at 8.30 p.m. on Saturday. He said he had "been informed that the Archbishop and the other clergy had been captured and taken to the frigate Loch Fada yesterday evening."

It is believed that the four men were flown first to Aden, where they were taken to the naval base, a Hastings and were taken immediately to sea in the R.A.F. transport. For every 10,000 people Kenya has one doctor

U.N. STATISTICAL SURVEY

ONE doctor serves 65,000 people in Nigeria, 25,000 in the Gold Coast and 10,000 in the United States, according to a United Nations survey. The survey is the seventh issue of the U.N. statistical year-book. It contains 183 tables of international statistics on a variety of subjects over a 20-year period up to 1954.

The world index survey in 1954 had an estimated population of about 2,500,000,000, 32 per cent more than in 1950 and about 100 million more than in 1929. Slightly more than half these people live in Asia, though Europe is easily the most densely populated country. Figures available from the non-Communist world show that in 1954 factories and mines were producing 40 per cent more goods than in 1929. The world's average income per man has risen about twice as much from 1929 to 1954. There are now more goods and roads built with help as many roads as in 1929.

Largest trading country
Since the war, the United States has replaced Britain as the largest single trading country. Its share of the world's total world trade rose from about 17 per cent in 1929 to 22 per cent in 1954. While Britain's dropped from 12.5 to 11 per cent, the most important trading country for the world.

Production Between 1929 and 1954, world production increased by 46 and a half per cent, steel by 162 per cent and made automobiles by 148 per cent.

Trade The value of world trade in 1954 was $127 billion, an increase of a half per cent over 1953.

Food Supplies representing more than 2,000 million per head per day were produced in 1954. The largest exporters of food were Denmark, Poland, Iceland, Switzerland, Britain and the United States. In other words, the world's cattle barely exceeded 2,000 in 1954, and the world's sheep were less than 2,000 in 1954.

Six rooms
Housing: One of two rooms for 1.5 a bedroom is the most common type of dwelling unit in the world. In the United States, there is 88 per cent of the housing stock in the United States, 75 per cent in Europe. The five to six room apartment complex is the largest group in Australia (55 per cent), New Zealand (45 per cent), the Netherlands and Britain (44 per cent), Canada (42 per cent) and the United States (38 per cent).

World's largest cities
The world's largest cities are: London, 10 million; New York, 10 million; Moscow, 10 million; Tokyo, 10 million; and Shanghai, 10 million.

Women's Tuesday Corner

She is a 'best dressed' petite woman

BY EVELYN WISEMAN

WE ARE HERE TO WORK

...Sly the Princess of Dolphin Square

PEGGY CUMMINS is a girl with an efficient type of beauty. She is tiny—only 5 ft. 11 in.—but appears to be much taller for the slender build and dresses cleverly to give herself height.

Her plain shoes with high heels, simple clothes, always keeps her necklines high and away from the throat. She is not too long for her height. The result is no deceiving effect. It seems that she was built tall—generally for her build to meet the requirements of the set of the face.

Own design
"I don't have any taste," said Peggy, "but I have even known to wear odd stockings—'till I saw a girl with a pair of white stockings."

Peggy often designs her own clothes. Her designs are very simple, but she has a good sense of color. She likes to wear a lot of blue and white. She likes to wear a lot of blue and white.

'MARRY YOUNG' IS THE FASHION IN AMERICA

By Jennifer Jones

IT WAS the wedding of a close friend last week I was struck by a phenomenon of American life that is no universal today—that unless one is involved personally—one scarcely notices it as the victims of too late parents or as naive victims of delinquents.

Do this occasion the groom is a young man, and the bride a more college junior—and both were heading back to the university to take up their studies again after their honeymoon.

Without looking back too far, I can recall my own university days when I like the college youngsters would never have allowed such a thing. Some days, at any rate, I had boys mugging in their early teens were looked upon either.

WHAT CAN YOU EXPECT FROM 'BARGAIN'

REPLACEMENT PARTS?

You can expect a gambler Caterpillar parts engineers have discovered that such replacements do not have accurate dimensions. They have also found, through field tests, the hidden cost these spurious spares offer the long service life to be expected of genuine spares.

The spurious parts problem has been given impetus by exchange difficulties as well as the past burden of military requirements on manufacturing facilities. To correct this problem, Caterpillar has expanded its facilities to produce, process and inspect spare parts to Great Britain and the U.S.A. You can be sure that any spare that honestly bears the name "Caterpillar" meets Caterpillar standards of design, materials and workmanship.

Don't gamble with the life of your valuable machine. Use one of our adequate stock of genuine CATERPILLAR spares. You will save every time!

Letters to the Editor

THE EDITOR,
EAST AFRICAN STANDARD, NAIROBI.

Dear Sir,
I have read with interest the article in your issue of the 10th March regarding the building programme in Kenya. It is not surprising to find that the building programme in Kenya is expected to fall to about 10 per cent in 1958. This is due to a credit squeeze which will affect the building industry.

The inner secret of the Tasty sandwich

There's an inner secret behind the increased demand for Marmite. Marmite is really a concentrated yeast extract. It is a member of the B group and flavoured with vegetable oils. They are Marmite sandwiches when you were wondering why they were so satisfying.

P.S.—Children love Marmite in school sandwiches. It's responsible for a crop of budding watermelon fans in a suburban district.

Kenya society proposes formation of C.I.D. team

GAME poaching in Kenya should be tackled immediately by the formation of a special C.I.D. or Kenya Wildlife Unit. The strengthening of existing laws by Mr. M. M. M. was the first step taken. The Council was instructed to look into the matter. The action of the Government in the formation of a committee to investigate the matter is a commendable one. The committee is to issue immediate and interim report on the question of poaching.

Particular regard should be given to the enforcement of the law with the object of deterring the existing law. The committee is to issue immediate and interim report on the question of poaching.

Critics impressed with first of the full-course trials

THAMESIDE rowing critics had their first glimpse of this year's Oxford and Cambridge University eight on last week when both crews arrived on the Tideway to complete day's training for the 112nd annual Boat Race on Saturday, March 24. Both crews had ideal conditions in which to show off their pace before the "experts" and both came through their first test runs—the full course trials—without a noticeable measure of success.

Cambridge University came to Putney with a reputation of being a big, powerful crew, well advanced. But Oxford crew, well advanced, had the "lock" attached to them.

The Duke House have had to overcome a run of illness amongst their crew since the start of Boat Race training. They had two of their key men out of the boat for a week, just as the crew was settling into their rhythm. This has led to a number of their best rowers being out of the boat for a week or more.

Free from trouble Cambridge, on the other hand, have been singularly free from illness and injury which have delayed Oxford's development. They were able to row a full strength on the long open water trials on Saturday, March 24, and arrived at Putney in an advanced condition.

They were the heaviest crew to race in the Boat Race, averaging 16 1/2 in. They are a well-matched crew, and have the makings of a really fast combination—which would please the British medical selectors in this Olympic year.

Rowing in straight-line weather, the boat crews had the course in 22 min. 47 sec although they had the advantage of a stiff breeze which did not do help from the lake. The full course trials were held on the Tideway. They showed their mettle against these strong crews and, despite a flat patch against the head wind, Oxford made a final start home in 28 strokes to the bridge.

Although this was a faster time than Cambridge's, Oxford did not show the same power as their rivals in the long haul. But they were certainly a good combination with plenty of potential.

Both crews have a new boat which was built for the occasion and their tradition of recent years in having two Australians in the crew.

Only two old Blues Only two men in each boat have served on the Boat Race crew in the past.

A row man who has been in the row in his previous year's crew is now in the row in his second year. The Universities now have had a full patch on the Tideway. They were in the water for 22 min. 47 sec. The crews will be in the water for their highest patch. (Reuter).

Final Oxford U. athletic trials
Oxford University held their final athletic trials on Saturday in the weather but on a track that did little to help performers. They showed that a ninth successive victory over Cambridge is within their grasp at White City on April 10. The victorious University of London was beaten by W. H. Palmer, his high jump was 55 ft. 6 in. and his long jump was 21 ft. 6 in. Palmer had also a strong race with his 100 yd. time of 17.8 sec. in the 100 yd. trials. He was the only man to be in the top 10 in each of the British Empire events.

7th win in East-King League

THE East-King Inter-club men's doubles lawn tennis league competition was completed at the weekend when the Division "B" leadership was decided. In every division the leaders won all their matches and the runner-up lost one match each, in the eventual championship. In the two lower divisions the weekend sports leaders lost one match played with in Division "A". Division "B" was won by a strong and well-balanced team including the East-King League champion, Mr. J. H. Palmer.

The crucial match For the past three years the title has remained in Division "A", runners-up have been from the Division "B".

Kianaris Club and Parklands "B" shared their third place in the Division "A" table. In Division "A", runners-up had won and took all points, which implies winning the crucial match on Saturday last. It was surprising that Parklands "B" failed to win any of their six matches.

Club Soccer "B" also had to contend with runners-up position, in fact, in the Division "B", against whom they lost their only match in the Division "B".

Moonga, a new club on the scene, failed to win a match but did not lose any of their eight games. Parklands, again runners-up, were the league 1951-52 champions.

SEED'S SPRINGBOKS HAD SCOTS IN PANIC

But scratch side bow to more attractive football

A TEAM of South African footballers playing with English and Scottish clubs at Forth Park, Glasgow, on Monday night, had a good account of the natives. A crowd of 50,000 saw the Scottish South Africa team, who were forced to field a number of players out of their normal positions, play clever football which often caused the Scottish national side to panic.

The first team of the Springboks, captained by Charlton James, had played against the Scots at Glasgow on a Sunday night.

RIOT EXILES ARRIVE AT SEYCHELLES Ceremonial farewell of British frigate U.S. EMBASSY ACTION SHOCKS LONDON

Archbishop Makarios, Bishop Kypranos and two other Cypriot priests who were deported with the Cyprus rioters, arrived at the Seychelles in the frigate, Loch Fada, yesterday after their 1,000-mile journey from Mombasa. They were brought ashore by launch and transferred quickly to a police van, waiting at the port's Custom Steps.

Both the archbishop and bishop, in sleepwear hats and wearing long beards, made a ceremonial farewell to the officers of the Loch Fada before they departed. They were accompanied by their dignified bearing during their transfer from launch to van.

Opinion in London was shocked by yesterday's statement from the United States Embassy in Athens that the Cyprus rioters were being deported to the Seychelles. The statement, which was made by the Ambassador, Mr. Cavendish Casper, had expressed "sympathetic concern" to Greece over recent developments in Cyprus.

Immediate instructions were given to the British Ambassador in Washington, Sir Roger Makin, to ask for an explanation. Meantime, in the United States, British police officers were shot dead by terrorists with sten guns.

WORST DAY OF TERROR IN CYPRUS

Marine Commandos ambushed on patrol

BRITISH SOLDIER KILLED BY BOOBY TRAP BOMB

A BRITISH soldier was killed and 12 others were injured in Cyprus on Saturday in the worst day of violence on the island since terror attacks began in April last year. It is considered possible that the attack marks the start of a 'spring offensive' by Eoka.

Operating in different parts of the island, Greek Cypriot terrorists ambushed a party of Royal Marine Commandos, threw bombs and blew up an Army vehicle carrying troops. They are reported to have used a booby trap for the first time.

It was the explosion of this trap that killed the soldier. He is the 11th Briton to be killed by the terrorists in the month. Terrorists also shot and wounded a European official of a British-owned copper mine at Limni, 10 miles west of Nicosia.

At least 12 terrorists with automatic weapons and bombs ambushed the Commandos while they were on patrol near Khaniada, 30 miles north-west of Nicosia. Five Marines were injured, two of them seriously. Immediate curfews were imposed on seven nearby Greek villages.

Reinforcements were sent to the area, a notorious center of Eoka activity.

The soldier was killed and three others were injured with serious wounds, but was blown up near Yfessara, 10 miles north-west of Nicosia.

While an ambulance carried the soldier to hospital from Yfessara, the ambulance was also blown up.

The British soldier was killed slightly before the attack on the north coast when he was driving a truck carrying a load of supplies.

SECURITY FORCES CLOSED DOWN

Security forces have closed in shops and ten houses in a district of Nicosia in a collective punishment for the killing of a British soldier.

The punishment was imposed after an inquiry in which it was found that the British soldier was killed by a booby trap bomb.

The shops will stay shut until the British soldier's body has been recovered.

BRITISH ATOMIC FORCES GATHER

BRITISH ships and implements of destruction
and protection are converging on Western Atlantic
for Britain's atomic tests on the barren isolated Mont
Bleau Islands, 50 miles north-west of New York.
More than three years after Britain exploded her first atomic bomb in the same island, they are still a probably sterile hulk. Death lurks there from radiation in patches of limestone. A designed explosion which vaporized
the island, the veteran
ship, Plymouth, in October, 1952.

BRITISH ATOMIC FORCES GATHER

BRITISH ships and implements of destruction
and protection are converging on Western Atlantic
for Britain's atomic tests on the barren isolated Mont
Bleau Islands, 50 miles north-west of New York.
More than three years after Britain exploded her first atomic bomb in the same island, they are still a probably sterile hulk. Death lurks there from radiation in patches
of limestone. A designed explosion which vaporized
the island, the veteran
ship, Plymouth, in October, 1952.
