Nairobi Show a Big Jubilee Occasion

BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR AN IMPORTANT EVENT

Of Interest to All

TURNING POINT IN THE COLONY'S AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY

Every effort is being put forward by the organisers to make the Agricultural Show at Nairobi a really worth-while occasion for the Jubilee year.

It is confidently anticipated indeed that the Show will prove to be one of the best stages by the Royal Agricultural and Horticultural Society.

In the following article an appeal is made to farmers, traders and members of the public generally to co-operate in supporting an event which is so closely linked with the life of the country.

Help Co-operation

Onward H. B. Turner, Chairman of the Nairobi Show Committee... The greatest prospect is in co-operation with the Agricultural Show which is being held at Nairobi on July 4 and 5.

Important Features

The Nairobi Industrial Section is already assured of being a success as are the various exhibits in the African Development Display, which the Agricultural, the Medical, and Forestry Departments, are staging.

Luxurious Cabins

Some idea of her immense size will be gained from calculations of the 'Normandie's' deck.

The grand dining room is of proportions never before seen in a ship.

The design of the 'Normandie' is the product of the art and skill of the most prominent men in modern French decoration.

BILL REJECTED

The Finance Commission of the Chamber of Deputies voted against the Plenary Powers Bill by 25 votes to 15.

The Commission's rejection of the Bill is a severe blow to the Government.

It came after hearing the Minister of Finance, Mr. Martin, who declined to commit the Government beyond giving an assurance that no reduction in the pensions of ex-Servicemen would be made, or in low-paid Civil Servants' salaries.

The Commission, however, was unanimously in favour of prosecuting franc speculators.

MUTHAIGA TENNIS TOURNAMENT

INTER-DEPARTMENTAL FOOTBALL

Lecture on Forensic American Novellet

Transportation met Mechanical at the Inter-Departmental at 8.30 p.m. on Friday evening by the only 7 goals scored. It was a very interesting game played with only 8 men for the greater part of the game. The match was very interesting and the Mechanical forwards, the latter very frequently falling victims to the offside traps. Wallace was the best player in fine style. The Transportation forwards played well under the circumstances, while Wallace, Pugh and Simpson were the mainstays to the Transportation defence. The game was heavily contested and the Transportation with a team of 8 men, deserve credit for their great fight.

Mechanical: Beade, Rosen, Goodridge, Males, Yeall, Dalgleish, Pugh, Simpson, Waldgrave, Rosen, Derwin.
Transportation: Davies, Clowes, Nibish-Stewart, Trivling, Hutson, Walker, Hildaway, Orpin, Tucker.

NAIROBI GOLF CLUB Special Jubilee Competition

A ladies' stroke competition is scheduled for to-morrow. Members are reminded of the Special Jubilee Competition to be played on Monday, June 5. For the convenience of members this competition may be played either in the morning or the afternoon. Members are also reminded that the second round of the Men's Annual Forecourse is due for completion by June 2, and the third round by June 9.

Remarks being with reference to the Jubilee Dinner held last Saturday are a flattering commentary on its shortness. Mrs. Davidson and the Ladies' Committee are to be highly congratulated for their generous efforts to give colour and substance to the occasion. Mr. Trevor Cole and his Band were at the top of their form, and Major Bailey with the band of his tent added the finishing touch to an all-round success.

SINCLAIR LEWIS

Nairobi Show a Big Jubilee Occasion

The products of the land, commercial industries, African developments and so forth, is not being overlooked, and each afternoon there will be a variety of attractive events taking place without pause in the main ring, which will include a novel display by the 20th Battalion of the King's African Rifles and by the Police, while the Nairobi Polo Club is organizing an exciting exhibition, "stunts," as well as jumping events. It is also hoped that the Nairobi public will watch that most interesting of all animals, namely sheep dogs, handling sheep more efficiently than any human can do.

It is an axiom known to the majority of your readers that this Society has been passing through very difficult financial times, and that it has been entirely due to the determination of a very small number of enthusiastic believers in the future of the Colony, who have not only given up their time, but have also opened their purses, that the Society has not become defunct. The confidence we have that the public of Nairobi, and the farming and planting communities as a whole, will show appreciation of their efforts and prevent this happening in the future by supporting the Jubilee Show at their utmost, by their attendance and their gifts, and so make quite sure that this Royal Society shall be placed in a financial position to continue its useful, and in fact, indispensable, activities, which are by no means confined to the holding of shows.

PARKLANDS SPORTS CLUB

Mixed Doubles Tennis Tournament

There will be a mixed doubles sealed handball tennis tournament at Parklands on Monday next, commencing at 9.30 a.m. A departure is being made from usual practice in that it has been decided that players may enter as couples. For some time previously it has been the custom for partners to be drawn for. If any member, however, has no partner, or wishes to enter under the old scheme they may enter singly.

BOWLING GREENS

Severe Criticism by a Councillor

Spirited criticism of the conduct of the bowling greens in City Park was voiced by Councillor A. L. Simkinson at the monthly meeting of the Nairobi Municipal Council on Tuesday afternoon. "It is appalling at the state of these greens," he said. "To-day you could not play hockey on them, let alone bowls." He mentioned that the greens had cost approximately £150 to construct, and asked whether the money was going to be wasted. He also wished to know whether it was the intention of the Municipal Engineer to allow the greens to deteriorate into a hay-field.

Referring to a suggestion by Councillor Simkinson that a special meeting of the Parks Committee be held to go into the matter, Councillor H. A. Wood expressed the hope that it would be borne in mind that the weather conditions could not be controlled by the councillors. He refused Simkinson's claim that the weather conditions had been ideal for the purpose of getting the greens into good condition. Councillor Simkinson complained that on several occasions he had endeavoured to secure the attendance at meetings of the Parks Committee of the Superintendent of Parks or the Municipal Engineer in order to get information on the subject under discussion, but that he had never succeeded in doing so. He wished it placed on record that the greens were in poor condition prior to the departure overseas on long leave of the Parks Superintendent, so that that official would not be able to lay the blame on his deputy when he returned.

The Town Clerk (F. S. Ebbaley) explained that the Parks Superintendent was of the opinion that the greens were at present not fit to be played on, to which Councillor Simkinson replied: "They will never be bowling greens until they are dug up and re-laid." It was eventually decided to hold a special meeting of the Parks Committee on Tuesday for the purpose of investigating Councillor Simkinson's complaint, and to invite a member of the Nairobi Bowling Club to attend. The meeting will probably be held at the bowling greens.

THE DRESSMAKER'S POINT OF VIEW

Kenya modistes for Kenya women is a slogan that might very well be adopted in this country. In this connection, a talk with the heads of leading dressmaking firms in Nairobi during last week proved to be a very interesting and illuminating experience which provided ample room for thought. One gained an insight into the difficulties which have extended during the last years of depression and financial stringency, and which have been met with a cheerful spirit and always with the will to overcome them. "We have been up against it," said one dressmaker, who does her own cutting and tailoring, "we are coming through and business is improving slowly," said another.

All this suggests, and suggests very emphatically, that it is the duty—it should be the pleasure—of Kenya women to employ Kenya dressmakers, milliners and tailors, and to avoid as far as possible sending overseas for the replacement of their wardrobe and the adornment of their fair faces. In other words, the proverb, "charity begins at home" is in this case a sound argument.

But there are many arguments which can with justice be urged in favour of those who have not so skilfully and so patiently, and in addition have copied English and Parisian models. They have and have kept smiling during the years that drought and depression have laid their unkind hands upon poor Kenya. Perhaps the aspect that, so to speak, jumps to the eye, lies in certain admirable work designs which have taken place recently in Nairobi, and for which we thank its public spirit, helped by the knowledge of what was right and just, the entire wedding orders have been placed in the hands of local dressmakers and tailors, and artistically carried out. After all, it is not natural that the marriage of a Kenya girl should come just the kind of interest that is best for her good work, but because of that interest, pretty dresses and the wedding materials have been beautifully turned out for the great occasion.

Speed in Transport

The increased speed and facility of present day transport is another important point, a point which it would be difficult to advance any argument. In this connection, the head of one firm gave as an example a case which had occurred just recently. A wedding order was placed on April 24 for all the silks, lace, and thinny fripperies which go towards the preparation of a trousseau. The order was sent home by air mail and in twenty days, the materials were in the hands of the dressmaker and cutting and planning had begun. A speedy transaction which has only recently become possible.

Styles

Resisting to styles and the question of fashion in this country, the modistes were unanimous in their conviction that looking ahead is the best most up-to-date in style and material was good enough for Kenya women—they are much more up-to-date we consider than their compatriots in English Provincial towns" said one, and at the same time expressed the opinion that dresses can be as beautifully cut and tailored in Kenya as overseas. Then there is a rather more delicate point of question of cost. Whether in England, in Paris, in New York, or in Nairobi, a really good thing has its price. But at the same time it is a doubtful whether it would be possible elsewhere to find a more reasonable rate for good dressmaking and millinery than in Kenya's capital city, at least that is an experience gained personally during two years spent in Nairobi.

There are no recent looking styles of attire. One goes long, and sells the price against one's own conviction. "Trot! Oh, five guinea madam!" One goes out crushed by a devastating experience, feeling that the subject of lace is forever anathema. There is extreme coarseness in the style and, just that shining touch which only the experienced eye recognizes. Here charming hats are made by milliners who have learnt that profession at home, and who are wise enough to adapt their prices to the pockets of their clients.

The point which arises from these enquiries is obvious Kenya dressmakers and tailors for Kenya Women. A second article will be published next week dealing with the materials that are in vogue just now, and other outside knowledge which will be treated in further interviews.

A Popular Nairobi Wedding

New Zealand Bridegroom and Kenya Bride

CROWDED CATHEDRAL

After a week of doubtful weather, the clouds cleared away on Saturday afternoon and the sun shone brilliantly on the wedding of Miss Sheila Piggis and Mr. Ian Horton, so bringing a specially cheery benediction on an entirely happy occasion.

Slightly after 2.30 p.m. the guests began to arrive, and by three o'clock, the Cathedral of the Highlands was full to overflowing, and the Ushers had some difficulty in finding seats for every one. Miss Piggis was a punctual and very lovely little bride. All the appointed hour she entered the cathedral bearing on her father's arm and as she and her attendant bridesmaids walked up the aisle, a special choir of personal friends who were being held there in connection with the Jeanes Schools and the work which is undertaken by them in various parts of the world. Mr. Benson left for the South on the previous day. She is travelling on the s.s. "Kenya" and will join her husband in Durban before proceeding home on long leave.

and the ceremony ended with Sister Margaret Stuart's own convivial "Trot! Oh, five guinea madam!" One goes out crushed by a devastating experience, feeling that the subject of lace is forever anathema. There is extreme coarseness in the style and, just that shining touch which only the experienced eye recognizes. Here charming hats are made by milliners who have learnt that profession at home, and who are wise enough to adapt their prices to the pockets of their clients.

The bride wore a long and clinging gown of cream tulle, cut in modern fashion, with a lustrous head-dress of orange blossoms from which old-fashioned tulle, a family possession, depended and fell in graceful folds to the ground. Charming ensemble was completed by a bouquet of white roses. This was a white wedding. The church was decorated with white flowers, and the bridesmaids, Miss Maud Knightly and Miss Joy Foyfarth, with two little attendant maids, Pat Ley and Jill Horley, were in white aback gowns, each with a small white corsage and a white picture hat. The bouquet of dark red roses carried off by the bridesmaid, and the auspicious contrasting touch of colour. Mrs. E. K. Piggis was a most striking and beautiful gown of brown and black, with a three-quarter coat round which was a touch of moulton pink velvet. The hat, which matched the dress was a Greek model.

The bride was given away by her father and the bridegroom was attended by Mr. Theo Wallace. Following the ceremony, the signing of the registers in the Vestry, Mr. and Mrs. Horton walked down the aisle to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March and was greeted in the porch by showers of confetti.

The Reception

The reception was held in the porch of the Cathedral of the Highlands in Girardin Road. In the cake had been cut, Mr. R. W. Playfair proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom in an short and delightful speech, and Mr. Horton's response, in which he very happily blended, proved him to be a speaker of many parts. Other speeches followed. Mr. J. D. Leonard proposed the toast of Mr. and Mrs. Piggis to which his best wishes were equally happy terms, and Mr. Michael Hogan and Mr. Wallace were entrusted with the speeches on behalf of the bridesmaids. Much more than was possible on that occasion, and altogether the speeches were plentiful and well maintained features of the reception.

Practical Hints

A NEW USE FOR ONIONS

They cover an ink stain on white linen with a paste of minced onion water to mix it. Allow it to soak well into the material and then wash in warm soapy water...

This white material which is now being worn so much is very liable to have a red stain on it. Wash in the ordinary way, and, if any trace of the stain remains, soak in lukewarm water and rub the stain with a cake of ordinary laundry soap...

Book a clock stained by strong tea in lukewarm water to which two teaspoonfuls of borax have been added. Leave until the water is quite cold, wash with hot soapy water, boil and hang in the open air.

If linen has become mildewed wash and boil it, and then rub the marks well with soap. It is sufficient to make the material quite stiff with lather. Choose a sunny day and lay the stained article out of doors, flat, in the sun. If it can be laid on grass for several hours so much the better.

Wash again and boil, repeating the process until the marks have been removed.

TO BE CARRIED OUT BY A COMMITTEE OF COUNCILLORS

Divided Views

MOTION PASSED BY CASTING VOTE OF H.W. THE MAJOR

Following intensive investigation by a Joint Select Committee of Parliament, the Government of the Union of South Africa have drafted two Bills which are intended to form the basis of future native policy in the Union.

The first Bill deals with representation whereby four Senators will be elected—one for each Province—directly by the natives, while an elected Native Council will be employed to make representations through the Minister for Native Affairs.

The second Bill provides for the establishment of a Native Lands Trust Fund, in which will be vested all lands reserved for native occupation. The trust will be administered by the Governor-General.

A Problem Defined

As already briefly announced, the Government of the Union of South Africa have drafted two Bills intended to provide a basis for South African native policy. It may be recalled that the Hon. J. B. Maseko, Minister of Native Affairs, introduced a series of Native Bills some years ago, but did not proceed with them.

The first Bill, known as the Native Representation Bill, provides for the election by the natives of four Senators to the Union Council, and also the creation of a Council of 40 European officials and 16 natives, with the Secretary for Native Affairs as Chairman. The Council will be elected by the natives of the Union, and will be empowered to make representations to Parliament through the Minister for Native Affairs.

A Minority Vote

Out of the total number of 120,000 in the Cape there are only 12,000 natives, but the Government have made it their policy to give the natives a fair share in the Government. The purpose of the Bill is to provide a means by which the natives can be represented in the Government.

The four Senators to be elected by the natives will be in addition to the members appointed under the South Africa Act. The four Senators will be elected by the natives of the Union, and will be empowered to make representations to Parliament through the Minister for Native Affairs.

The Coloured People

The Government and people of South Africa have long been faced with the problem of defining a native for the purposes of legislation. This problem has even more difficulties in South Africa owing to the fact that the Government have to acquire land for native settlement, and this is a task which is being carried out by the Government.

Land Trust Bill

The second Bill called the Native Lands Trust and Land Bill creates a South African Native Trust in which will be vested all the lands reserved for native occupation in the Union, and will be administered by the Governor-General.

It is suggested that the natives of South Africa have been handicapped in the past by the fact that they have not been able to acquire land for their own use. This is a problem which is being solved by the Government.

The Native Council will be elected by the natives of the Union, and will be empowered to make representations to Parliament through the Minister for Native Affairs.

The London markets for East African produce were generally fairly steady during the week ending May 20, states the report issued by the E.A. Dependencies Trade and Information Office. Kenya coffee, however, was in price and business was difficult chiefly on account of the fact that there was a brisk decline in the value of the coffee.

The following is the report: Coffee. Interest in Kenya is reported to be waning and business has been slow. The market is reported to be unattractive on account of the fact that the quality of the coffee is poor.

Kenya—1,445 bags offered and 900 sold at an all-over average of 50/6d. For "A" size the top price was 58/- and the average 56/6d. Tanganyika—412 bags offered and 200 sold at an all-over average of 45/6d. No "A" size was sold and the top price offered was 45/6d.

No Uganda reported as sold. London stocks of African coffee of 57,500 bags compared with 59,075 bags on May 14, 1934, at the same date last year.

The market was irregular and rather cheerless. Nyasaland 1,854 packages sold at an average of 45/6d. per lb. The market was reported to be unattractive on account of the fact that the quality of the coffee is poor.

A moderate business continues to do a fair trade in rubber. Spot prices of American rubber have been: May 18, 6.94d; May 19, 6.94d; May 20, 6.94d; May 21, 6.94d.

The mail market has continued firm with an active demand and prices have appreciated further, particularly in the case of the Kenya mail, for which there has been a good response. The following are today's values: Tanganyika and Kenya mail, 11/6d; East Africa mail, 11/6d; East Africa mail, 11/6d.

The Franchise will also administer the Native Lands Trust. The Franchise will also administer the Native Lands Trust. The Franchise will also administer the Native Lands Trust.

Other Committees. Wood: At the Colonial Wood Committee it is reported that some 100,000 tons of wood are being produced in the Union of South Africa.

Within the schedule or released areas in the Union of South Africa, the Government are reported to be acquiring land for native settlement, and this is a task which is being carried out by the Government.

The Government realizes that the rights of European owners in the Union of South Africa will be prejudiced, so the Bill provides that the owner of such land shall sell to the Trust by a bid if he can prove that it cannot be sold at a reasonable price as it has become unproductive by native land. The object of this is to enable the Trust to acquire land for native settlement.

It is to be a principle of the scheme that native settlement should be promoted on the land reserved for native occupation. This is a task which is being carried out by the Government.

The two Bills arise out of White Paper on Native Affairs of 1931 and 1932, and are intended to give effect to the recommendations of the Select Committee of Parliament on the Native Lands Trust and Land Bill.

GOVERNOR'S DESPATCH TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

An "Ill-considered Agitation"

ATTORNEY-GENERAL SATISFIED WITH CONDUCT OF NAKURU TRIAL

The Government of Kenya has issued for publication a copy of a despatch by His Excellency Sir Joseph Byrne, with relative documents, in connection with the unresolved Poyry case. As a result the Secretary of State declines the suggestion made by some settlers in the Laikipia area that there should be a Commission of Enquiry.

The Attorney-General, in a spirited memorandum, criticizes and rejects an allegation made by a deputation of three settlers (whose action in seeking an interview with Government was afterwards described by the Chairman, Laikipia Farmers' Association as having been taken without the authority of their society) that it was the deliberate policy of Government that the Nakuru High Court trial should fail. The Attorney-General says he is entirely satisfied with the conduct of the case.

The documents include a letter from a District Commissioner who was officially reprimanded for causing two Samburu youths to be publicly beaten, in the course of the investigation. He was transferred to a Frontier station. While unable to condone his act the Governor expressed his understanding of the difficult circumstances in which it was taken.

A District Officer's Difficulty

The Government of Kenya has issued a White Paper containing descriptions and details of the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Theodore L. Poyry. It will be remembered that the body of Mr. Poyry was found on a small island in the Nakuru lake, and was identified as that of a man who had been reported to have been murdered by a group of Samburu youths.

The first document is a lengthy despatch by His Excellency Sir Joseph Byrne, Governor of Kenya, dated February 24 last, written on the occasion of a question in the House of Commons. The despatch outlines the facts in regard to the disappearance of Mr. Poyry on October 19, 1931, the search which was conducted and the ultimate discovery of the mutilated remains on a spot about three and a half miles from the temporary homestead on Lake Nakuru. The despatch recalls that all the signs appeared to suggest that the body belonged to Poyry, and that the despatch recalls that all the signs appeared to suggest that the body belonged to Poyry, and that the despatch recalls that all the signs appeared to suggest that the body belonged to Poyry.

Resignation of French Government

HEAVY DEFEAT OF IMPORTANT EMERGENCY MEASURE

A Grave Crisis

DRAIN ON GOLD RESERVES LIKELY TO BE ACCELERATED

The French Government has resigned following the Chamber's rejection by a majority of the Plenary Powers

The resigning followed an impassioned address by the ailing Prime Minister who at the end of his speech had to be assisted from the Chamber.

It is likely that a National Government on the lines of that recently formed in Belgium will assume office.

The political and economic crisis is regarded as one of the gravest since the war and its immediate result will probably be to accelerate the drain of gold from the country.

A New Coalition

[THROUGH BETTER'S AGENCY.] Paris, May 30. M. Flaud's prospects have improved since the failure at the meeting this morning of the Left Coalition Government, including the Radicals.

It is now following a strong speech by M. Herriot the decided to resign.

There was a pathetic incident at the conclusion of his speech in which M. Flaud staggered from his brother, and taken home.

An Adjournment

The Chamber adjourned to enable groups to meet and the news of the adjournment of the Plenary Powers Bill began at 3 p.m.

Government Defeated

The Plenary Powers Bill was defeated by 251 votes to 292, whereupon the Government resigned.

President Leduc has asked the Socialist President of the Chamber, M. Bonin, to form a Cabinet as quickly as possible in order to be ready to take office to-day.

The unexpectedly heavy defeat of the government opens up one of the gravest crises since the war and its immediate effect will be to redouble the efforts of the anti-france speculators and to accelerate the drain of gold.

It is possible to try to induce M. Bonin to resign and to form a National Union Government on the lines of the one recently formed in Belgium to save off devaluation.

A Judicial Enquiry

Before the fatal vote was taken M. Herriot announced that there would be a judicial enquiry and said that one bank had already been searched.

Later as a first step towards initiating proceedings seals had been placed on the doors of one or more financial establishments by order of the Public Prosecutor.

The "Echo de Paris" announces that the House will be closed to-day.

Cabinet Attempt

M. Bonin has agreed to try to form a Cabinet. It is officially announced that the Bourne is functioning to-day.

The Premier in an impassioned speech said that although the principle of the convertibility of the franc into gold would be maintained, the Government would not discuss anonymous gold, which M. Herriot said would be the cause of the crisis.

EUROPEAN AIR PACT

Draft Submitted by Germany

Clearing the Way

FIVE-POWER CONFERENCE LIKELY

[THROUGH BETTER'S AGENCY.] London, May 30.

The submission of Germany's draft to the League of Nations is believed to be a definite step towards a definite pact of goodwill and co-operation.

It is known to be in communication with France, Italy and Belgium.

Memoranda show Germany has also been preparing a memorandum and the French draft has already been received by the Foreign Office.

The possibility of a conference between the five Powers is now envisaged, though some preliminary diplomatic work will doubtless be necessary.

BRITAIN'S POSITION

Explained by Foreign Secretary

[BY WIRELESS.] [LONDON.] May 31.

The debate on foreign affairs was raised in the House of Commons this morning by Sir Herbert Samuel, speaking for the Liberal Party.

He said: "Wherever we refuse to give them to ourselves we shall be within a few days of a monetary regime and the franc, when there was a pathetic incident at the conclusion of his speech in which M. Flaud staggered from his brother, and taken home."

If however, it was possible to limit the air forces of Western Europe it would be eagerly welcomed and the programme of air expansion could be postponed until it was modified.

His speech was marked by the revealing absence of plans of any diplomatic aggressiveness and opened an opportunity, which must not be missed. The air pact would be good but an air pact involving such limitations would be better.

Other Interests

The Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, after having reviewed the history of the project for an air pact said that while Britain had to show herself zealous and determined in pushing the air pact, she must remember that others had general interests in the project.

There was no reason why they should not press on with it, but not because other things are at a later stage.

Suggestions had been received from France and Italy as to the sort of things which should contain and they might soon find themselves at a point where they would have to make suggestions by whatever means, seemed the most desirable.

Britain's Programme

Sir John Simon said he had not thought it would be practicable to include in the British air programme until these negotiations were carried through.

It was a programme of expansion. The fact that the expansion programme was proceeding greatly added to the prospect of such an agreement.

He welcomed the declaration of the German Government that it was prepared to discuss not only the air pact, but also limitation. Limitation would be an achievement, the repudiation of which would be a tremendous blow to the security of the world.

The debate is proceeding.

Darwin's white ants, or termites, one of tropical North Australia's pests... interesting and puzzling, have lately shown considerable interest in the local telephone system.

They have eaten through the concrete and iron sheath of earthenware, a thick coating of arsenic and lead cable, a quarter of an inch thick, and the insulation of the telephone system.

They are carried in wet earth which made contact with the exposed wires and short-circuited the system.

NAIROBI MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

To the Editor, 'E.A. Standard.' Sir,—As a candidate for the forthcoming Municipal elections...

I am quite in agreement with you that the object of Councillor Wood's original move was to check attack and I was more than surprised that the Council by the casting vote of the Mayor...

Another important point made by Councillor Wood was that only five months ago the whole Council sat in Committee to discuss ways and means to efficiency economy and with my small knowledge of Council work...

To the Editor 'E.A. Standard.' Sir,—May I hope in fairness to your propaganda against the few subordinates...

The total expenditure of the town for 1935 is £28,000. It is arrived at roughly as follows:— Balance of the £28,000 is arrived at roughly as follows...

expenditure is for our trading and the proper reason for the amendment as far as I can see was to replace European high paid staff with presumably equally serviceable staff of Indian or African origin...

If I am elected at the forthcoming election it will be my duty, firstly, to see that the Administration is run as economically as possible...

I can very credibly inform you that the first item on the agenda to be considered by the new committee of enquiry is to investigate whether thirty-one European employees can be economically replaced either now, or sometime in the near future...

May I say in conclusion with His Worship the Mayor in his very delicate position and I am confident that all members of the Council will realize that their relations they should show to their constituents is a broad point of view of the general interests of the taxpayer.

Yours, etc. D. NEWMARK. NAIROBI, May 30, 1935.

To the Editor 'E.A. Standard.' Sir,—I have read with interest and pleasure the expression of Tanganyika in 'today's' letter...

To the Editor 'E.A. Standard.' Sir,—I do not think it serves any useful purpose to add to this belated controversy over the name of an institution which has been in existence for so many years.

With all the publications on the spot of yellow and black perils and with all the aggression which is carried on, the Indians will have their way to uplift if He so likes.

Mr. Editor, you must not be misled by the members of the East African Standard, but an ancient proverb on the chess board of the destiny of the world...

To the Editor, 'E.A. Standard.' Sir,—I have read with interest and pleasure the expression of Tanganyika in 'today's' letter...

Personally, I have been quite unable to persuade any of my German friends to give me even the slightest idea of their aspirations, if any, regarding Tanganyika, and after all one cannot blame anyone for not wishing to discuss controversial political questions in a foreign country.

THE FUTURE OF TANGANYIKA

To the Editor, 'E.A. Standard.' Sir,—I have read with interest and pleasure the expression of Tanganyika in 'today's' letter...

Speaking purely from memory, I think it was a letter from Mr. O'Shea that provoked this correspondence. Some of those who replied to Mr. O'Shea's letter, Mr. Biss for instance, must surely have been more fortunate than myself in their search for a true German opinion...

HORSE RACING IN NYASALAND

Revival of the Sport

TURF CLUB FORMED

To the Sports Editor, "E.A. Standard."

Sir,—I think you will be interested in the previous history of horse racing in Nyasaland and their revival. So far as I know the first horse race in the country was one which John Mott, of the African Lakes Company, had at Blantyre. Sir Alfred Sharpe rode it on several occasions from Blantyre to the Lotus River on the Matope Road (at that time the Lake Steamers' "Tourist" used to come down to Matope with 6 feet of water). Beyond the river there were several miles of trestle bridge—he also used to ride it between Blantyre and the top of the hill in the road to Katungo in which place all the lower Shiré Steamers and boats came in those days.

When Sir Harry Johnston came from India to this country in 1891 he brought 13 horses. Of these 12 died and the remaining one was sold in St. Albans. These various people. It is nearly died, but recovered with proper treatment and has now been brought over from Zomba, a Somali pony brought out of a charity at Alder A. M. Marshall brought in horses and ran a Cape Cart and four horses, but none of them were of Zomba for some time. Sir Harry Johnston acquired several more horses later. These various people got more in.

In the early 90's Cecil Rhodes acquired a couple of horse races in Nyasaland which was known as the "Rhodes Cup" and was won by Johnny W. Jones (afterwards General Gough V.C.) with a horse named "The Elephant". This race was won outright at the last race in Blantyre in 1897. After that year racing and all manner of sports faded out and the "horse race" came to an end as Sir Alfred Sharpe wrote "Rhodes wrote 'Mr. Mott's horse'." We have recently revived the formation of the Nyasaland Turf Club; the main object being to mark the occasion of His Majesty's Silver Jubilee. Eight horses were imported from South Africa in January of this year which, together with the already in the country, formed the nucleus for the first race meeting. The Club's first meeting was held on the 15th of May at Zomba as a part of the official celebrations of His Majesty's Silver Jubilee.

I enclose a hand-drawn card, giving the results and also a page from "The Nyasaland Times" which gives an account of the very successful meeting. As one will see the Rhodes Trustees very generously agreed to replace the old Rhodes Cup for an event to be known as the Silver Jubilee Handicap. This cup was won by the fourth of the race club, Mr. K. L. Hall's horse (three for long)—Mr. K. R. Tucker's Smoky (Mr. H. W. Edworthy); Major Thomas's Eldorado (Mr. Cooper-Key); Mr. Oliver's Gibraltar, 2.

Also ran: Mr. de Men's Killdeer and Major Stephen's Bill. Won by a neck. Total 50.

RONEODEX
the x-ray of business

The new way for all records reproduced the old "card-in-box" or ledger methods. Make crystal clear facts, which, unless arranged on Roneodex, are obscure and difficult to arrive at. Amongst other advantages, Roneodex gives you control over every stage of your work, and enables you to see at a GLANCE—

Customer's Record.—You can see at once those who have not purchased from you for 6 months.
Ledger.—You can see at a glance those of your accounts which have not been settled for any particular period you wish to know.
Stock Record.—You can see at a glance (a) Those goods which are not moving, (b) Those goods which are dangerously low, (c) Those which are heavily overstocked.
Works Record.—You can see at a glance—(a) Exact progress of any piece of work at every stage; (b) All jobs in hand or unexecuted.

A unique system of Coloured Signals automatically checks up on you via the vital facts. Call and see the Roneodex in operation on the spot—FREE

This "Magic Brain" created by RCA VICTOR

... outperforms everything you've ever known in Radio

An exclusive RCA Victor development!

1. You hear every note with clarity.
2. You reach far more distance.
3. You find in world records the accuracy and ease.

NOW you can tune in on broadcasts from almost any important short wave station all over the world as easily and accurately, as your favorite nearby station.

RCA Victor's "Magic Brain" revolutionizes everything broadcast. In the past, RCA Victor broadcasts in the past, the station is so ill-tuned we show it as a human brain. It corrects the selection and reception of wavelengths radio broadcasts— brings you the program you want— results in loss of higher fidelity. Noise is less. Sound and feeling in this place are balance, crisp, precise.

gabbons, too, are usually beautiful in design and color—they will delight your eyes, not your nose.
