CORNISH CENTENARY

Birth of the Broccoli Industry

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.] London, Feb. 2. (By Air Mail.) This year is celebrated as the centenary of the Cornish broccoli industry, for in 1736, the first consignment was taken out of Cornwall for sale elsewhere. In that year, a Mr. Dicks of Haily, took four dozen broccoli to Bristol and sold them at a profit, and on a subsequent journey he increased his load to sixteen dozen. In the following year, another pioneer, Mr. Tenby of Truro, purchased a consignment of broccoli from Benjamin Roberts, of Devonshire, and great by enterprising, disposed of them in London. Only within the past few years has the industry thus far shadowed grown to national importance as a major source of prosperity for the county of Cornwall. Last season, from December to April, thirty thousand tons of broccoli were forwarded by railway from the delightful Duchy. In several years the trade has more than doubled. To cater for this rapidly growing trade, additional railway sidings have been built to enable traffic to be quickly marshalled and dispatched. Fleets of railway lorries are allocated to Cornwall in the harvest season to collect supplies from growers and link up with fast freight trains.

Less than fifty years ago Cornish property rested mainly on production of tin and copper. As these ancient industries declined the new business of growing broccoli arose, often on top of disused mines. Its expansion is due chiefly to transport that brings remote West Cornish fields within a few hours of the great consuming centres of the country.

DAME CLARA BUTT

Tribute of Music at the Funeral

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.] London, Feb. 2. (By Air Mail.) In the midst of her own grief Queen Mary sent a message of sympathy to Mr. H. Kenworthy of Hamford on the death of his wife, Dame Clara Butt, the great contralto, whose funeral took place at St. Mary's Church, North Stoke, Oxon. Other messages were received from Princess Beatrice, Princess Louise, the Viceroy and Vicereine of India, Lord and Lady Willington and Mrs. Richard Kipling.

The church was a mass of flowers, with wreaths hanging from every post. On the oak coffin lay a great mass of crimson roses and carnations from her husband.

The service was conducted by the Bishop of London, Dr. Winchester Ingram, assisted by the Rev. H. J. Warner, Vicar of North Stoke. Seated in the chancel Mr. W. H. Bering, the cellist, a great friend of Dame Clara Butt, played her own beautiful "Maiden Lull." It was one of her favorite pieces, and Mr. Squire had often played it when he toured with her in many parts of the world.

ARCHBISHOP OF YORK NO "WARDWAGER"

Dr. Temple Corroborates U.S. Maintains

AMERICA AND THE LEAGUE

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.] London, February 1. (By Air Mail.) The Archbishop of York, on his return from a tour of the United States, explained the remarkable "war" statements attributed to him on his arrival in New York. He was reported throughout the world as having said: "It may be necessary to have another great and horrible war in order to establish the efficacy of the League of Nations."

"Actually," he stated, "I was asked whether I thought the League of Nations would lead to a European war. I said I thought not, but that there were risks."

"I was then asked for my views generally upon the matter, and I said I thought we had to be prepared for the possibility of the League of Nations sending military support. These statements were misquoted, and I was eventually reported as referring to war and its horrors."

"I never said that I thought, expected, or still less hoped that it would be so bad. I should regard war as more probable if the League broke down."

A New View

Dr. Temple expressed an entirely new view of the American attitude towards the League of Nations and European contingencies.

"The idea was given to me by prominent officials at a conference the attention of the United States from the League," he continued. "It was clear that the country has great foreign connections within her. Although they are making treaties which would tend to become more difficult should America's policy become identical with the League. They would regard all kinds of pressure upon the Government."

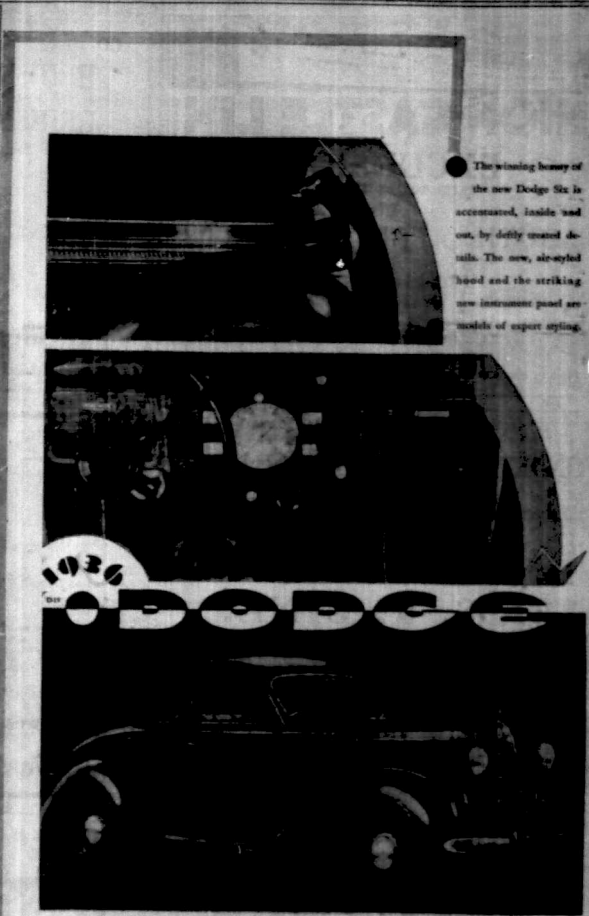

"But the most objection still remains—that the United States wishes to keep free from all the troubles of this Continent."

HYMN SINGING 17,000 Dequest for its Encouragement

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.] London, Feb. 2. (By Air Mail.) Mr. Gilbert Smith Hay, a theatrical manufacturer, of Glasgow, who died in October last, left behind a great sum of money to be used for the encouragement of hymn and hymn singing.

His brother, Mr. William Hamilton Hay, a Glasgow actor, said that Mr. Hay was an ardent and able player, and had played for years in a theatre company. He had also been a member of a church choir. Mr. Hay directed that the money should be devoted to the maintenance of the Publicity Committee of the Church of Scotland in the hope that the Church might disseminate verily its purpose in words.

"His idea," said Mr. Hay, "was that if it were thought desirable to have a travelling body of players of hymns and a strong effort to encourage the singing of hymns and hymns, the trust should give assistance to the Dequest Committee for this object."

The winning beauty of the new Dodge Six is accentuated, inside and out, by deftly created details. The new, air-swept hood and the striking new instrument panel are models of expert styling.

Children's Film Show
A cinematograph exhibition for children will be held at the Millem Memorial Library this afternoon at 4.30 p.m. The main part of the programme consists of a film showing man's use of tools in work and in sport. The film was made and narrated by Messrs. Howes and McGeorge Ltd. and is shown in free.

New Chaplain
During a typographical error in the report relating to the resignation of the Rev. E. C. Bushy, it was stated that Mr. Bushy was resigning from his post as Chaplain of the Nairobi District Council. The resignation was actually of Mr. Bushy, who is now Chaplain of the University of Durham. For several years he has been Chaplain of the Nairobi District Council, and his resignation was accepted by the Rev. E. C. Bushy, who is now Chaplain of the Nairobi District Council.

Trade Pointers
The fact that the fruits were recently pointed out in these columns—the quantities of certain food crops for export last year showed notable increases over the previous year, and the value of exports for the year ended in the total of no less than 54 per cent. over the year ended in 1934. It is interesting to note that many of the products—such as maize, wheat, sugar, etc.—showed a loss return last year. Is this a trend?

COTTON IMPORTS
The statement issued by the Kenya and Uganda Customs showing the quantities of cotton imported into Kenya for the year ending November 30, 1935, shows the usual proportion among the exporting countries. In all but one instance the quantities of cotton and blankets—the Japanese imports are very much the largest. The unshredded cotton imported in value, Shs. 37,743, of which Japan took 18,185, United Kingdom, Shs. 1,000 and United Kingdom, Shs. 1,600 and Japan Shs. 1,220. Shredded cotton imported in value, Shs. 71,705, of which Japan took 30,821, United Kingdom, Shs. 9,790, Japan Shs. 14,088, Netherlands Shs. 161,576 (Japan Shs. 120,735, Netherlands Shs. 40,841) and United Kingdom Shs. 165,484. The total for unshredded cotton imported in value, Shs. 210,077, of which Japan took 148,681, United Kingdom Shs. 14,088, Netherlands Shs. 20,820. The biggest supplier of blankets was Germany, with 210,077 and the other export was the Heligoland, Republic of Estonia (Shs. 15,818), Japan (Shs. 12,798). The total was Shs. 81,909.

ITALY'S RELATIONS WITH GREAT BRITAIN

that modern Italy has never been, and may never again be, a united and civilized nation, in fact a very nation at all—Empire cannot be created by a nation, but a backward and semi-barbaric State, badly needing the assistance of a civilized nation for the progress and well-being of its many people and its territory.

France to give a very striking instance, was strongly opposed to the policy of Italy and Italy's strong ally on her borders. With the collapse of the armistice, and the steady decline in Italy's position, Napoleon III helped Italy against Austria in 1859, but in 1860 France decided against Italian union. In 1860, Garibaldi was driven out of Rome and chased by the French of Napoleon III, eleven years later, in 1870, on Italian troops rallied to the help of the Prussian army against the French. In 1891, France suddenly occupied Tunis about which Italy had been very large and on which Italy had a right of priority. The Tunis question was the cause of very serious relations between Italy and France for a long time. In fact, in August 1914, France was so seriously menaced and in great danger that Italy declared war on her neutral ally, causing France to remove her Italian army from the Italian border on the north, against the invaders, and to turn them against the Germans back to the Massie. It is impossible to say how much Prussia had to do with Italy's success, but it is certain that Italy's success was due to the assistance of Italy's ally, France.

A few months afterwards in France and the Allies joined France, England and the other Allies with all her forces, and she was the only one who was not a member of the League of Nations. She was the only one who was not a member of the League of Nations. She was the only one who was not a member of the League of Nations. She was the only one who was not a member of the League of Nations.

NAIROBI INDIAN ASSOCIATION

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard,"—It is gratifying to read the report, as published in the "East African Standard" of February 12, of Mr. R. S. Varma, Hon.-Law, made on the occasion of an address of the Indian Association of the Indian Association, Nairobi. It appears that Mr. Varma's opinion was that the Indian community was never made, but one who is interested in the Indian politics, particularly in the Indian politics and politics, would like to know—

1. How many Indians were present at the time of election of the Indian Association members. Out of those elected how many were present at the time of election of the Indian Association members. 2. Is Mr. A. H. Malik, Secretary, to the Indian Association for three years under the present constitution, or is he an Indian gentleman who, in spite of the fact that he is a member of the Indian National Congress, that he should represent the Legislative Council, read by the Council? The whole Indian community, in order to determine membership, should elect Mr. Malik as a member of the Indian National Congress, and the National Council and resign. But the Indian community was totally deaf to all the orators and passed his three most defining the whole Indian Community. Yours etc., NAIROBI, February 13, 1936.

FAMILY HEALTH: A CRITIC OF SUGAR

To the Editor "E.A. Standard,"—Sir—My intention has been drawn to the article in your issue of the 7th inst. entitled "The Health of the Family". You have performed a useful purpose in drawing attention to the necessity for protective foods, and the published opinions of the medical profession may have more far-reaching results than you imagine especially if the authorities responsible for the feeding in Kenya Schools will take notice.

But we are still up against the sugar fiend. Is not an intelligent public entitled to ask him to produce definite, scientific, experimental proofs of his contention, and is it not probable that the Health organization of the League of Nations were in possession of proofs backing their opinions before they published them? He makes very definite statements about sugar, and it would enable us to put them in the balance were it not for the fact that—

W. J. DAWSON, Nyeri, February 12, 1936.

THE CARE OF CHILDREN: THE POSITION OF THE AFRICAN WOMAN

To the Editor "E.A. Standard,"—Sir—It is a pity that you would give me a space in your columns to read your paper to express an African view on the matter recently published in your paper under the heading "The Care of Children". The subject for which it is said to be found in bringing native girls to Spain. The problem of girls education is occupying the minds of many in Africa in this country. The subordination of the future generation of girls education is something which should be given the greatest anxiety on the part of the Kenya African. It has been said in the desire of many African that the education of our girls be given special attention.

TO-DAY'S BIG MATCH: England Versus The Colonies

Last Representative Fixtures: COMPOSITION OF THE TWO TEAMS. The afternoon's last representative cricket match of the season opens at the Prince of Wales School grounds when England leads to meet the Colonies.

The term 'Young Players' has been widened sufficiently to include some slightly older players who have not yet worn their caps in representative matches.

On paper the England side looks to have the advantage of the pace, and it will be interesting to see them through. The Colonies have a strong younger side.

D. Power, the Parklands skipper, will lead the Colonies in the batting. Power, Milne and Archer will be the mainstays in the batting order. The bowlers will be led by the captain, G. D. Power, who has been promising well at the top of the batting.

The batting strength of the England team, which will be captained by E. D. Scholze, of Malindi, looks to be very strong whatever the opposition.

The leading strength of the England team, which will be captained by E. D. Scholze, of Malindi, looks to be very strong whatever the opposition.

The match will start off at 2:30 p.m. and to-morrow will be the last match of the year.

The following are the teams: England: E. D. Scholze (Captain), R. J. H. (Captain), J. H. H. (Captain), J. H. H. (Captain).

Proposed Ministry of Defence

TO CO-ORDINATE WORK OF NAVY, ARMY AND AIR FORCE

Important Debate STEP WHICH WOULD SAVE MONEY AND GIVE BETTER SERVICES

Members of all parties in the House of Commons expressed approval of the principle enunciated in a Bill the object of which was to create a Ministry of Defence to co-ordinate the work of the fighting services.

It is widely believed that such a step would be the means of improving efficiency and that it would save millions of pounds.

In the course of a long debate stress was laid on the peril of attack from the air.

The Bill was withdrawn on the understanding that Government would issue a statement on the subject.

The Fleet

Continuing on the removal of the British Fleet from Malta to Alexandria, Admiral Beatty suggested that that might be due to the neighborhood of Italy.

Sir Auston Chamberlain

His statement of resignation is inevitable, and it is difficult to see how it could be avoided without any thought of prestige or place or politics.

Government's Reply

Lord Justice Percy, Conservative Member for Harrogate, moved and spoke in favour of the Government.

Premier Criticized

As Sir Auston Chamberlain charitably suggested to Mr. Baldwin on Foreign matters, he had formed an opinion as to the Government's policy.

Press Comments

It is felt that the Government's proposal is a step in the right direction, and that it is well to have a Ministry of Defence.

ELECTIONS IN SPANISH WAY

Armoured Cars and Warships

Uncertain Issue

Moving Way for National Government? THE OUTCOME of the elections for the Cortes on Sunday between the two principal groups of the Right will be decided through the Right appear to be slightly more likely to win.

The Prime Minister, Sr. Manuel Portela, who heads the Radical Coalition Government leads the conservative Centre Party.

Some of his followers appear to be from the Right, while others are standing as Independents.

BALANCE OF POWER THE elections may result in Portugal's being restored to power and may prove the beginning of a National Government.

Meniscus, extraordinary precautions are being taken. Armoured cars with machine guns are patrolling the roads.

Struggle for Mountain

72,000 WHITE TROOPS TAKE PART IN WEEK'S FIGHTING

The fiercest battle of the war which involved a desperate struggle for a 5,000 feet high mountain has ended in an Italian victory and the advancement of the Italian line to ten miles south of Makale.

Heavy Casualties

The Abyssinians put up a strong resistance and in a surprise attack temporarily cut off an enemy battalion. Five hand-to-hand fighting occurred on the slopes of the mountain, the Abyssinians using long curved swords. Twenty two thousand Italian white troops were engaged in the battle and the Italians state their losses at under 500 dead and a thousand wounded. They claim that 5,000 Abyssinians were killed in the week's fighting.

EFFECT OF THE WAR IN ABYSSINIA

Additional Provision

Supplementary defence service estimates were issued to-day as follows: Navy £4,500,000. Army £1,300,000. Air services £1,511,000.

The extra air services estimate is also mainly for expenditure consequent upon the special measures taken in connection with the Italian-Abyssinian dispute, the restoration of the remainder of emergency allowances from remuneration, pay of extra, and the Singapore defences. The net total is reduced by £400,000, representing the Army share of the jubilee gift of the Sultan and State of Johore.

Government but its reception in the House of Commons placed beyond doubt the fact of success which the House and the Public' talking in practical directions on the financial stability of the general defence. Admiral Scurry's views on the direction and the extent of the defence policy of Great Britain has not married with the requirements of modern times which the Air Force is today the largest in the Army and the Navy and that it is a dangerous policy to continue the conventional traditional policy of relying for co-ordination of three separate services, so as to form an organization as the Imperial Defence Committee with its associated technical experts. He argued that there should be simplification of the machinery of command, that policies should be worked out which took account of the interdependence of the three arms, that not only military, naval and air experts but technically expert civilians should be associated with a Defence Minister in his advisory capacity and that a scheme as far as possible should be brought up to date. It was pointed out that the existing debate, the leaders of every party in the House, including the Government, had indicated the general desire and intention of the Government to carry out a policy which would be a complete withdrawal from the Government did not wish to commit the House to a scheme as far as possible in advance of the declaration of the Emergency. It was pointed out that the Government was also doubtful whether there could be any more adequate machinery to fill the tremendously important and important duties of the Defence in a position in connection with the House of Commons. It was pointed out that the Government had given the House an assurance given the House that the most important and urgent questions are taking place in the direction of the country's defence policy that the public had to be satisfied that the Government was not in any way lessening its defence policy. The recognition of the fact that the Government was not in any way lessening its defence policy was a very long period of time and the Government was not in any way lessening its defence policy. The Government was not in any way lessening its defence policy. The Government was not in any way lessening its defence policy.

Don't ruin your walls

HAVE you ever had the very little experience you get in a wall hole with a cold chisel and a screwdriver? After making a hole in a wall with a cold chisel and a screwdriver, you are left with a hole in the wall. This hole is a nuisance and it is a waste of time and money to have a hole in the wall. The solution is to use a wall plug. A wall plug is a small piece of wood or metal that is inserted into the hole in the wall. It is then secured with a screw. This is a simple and effective way to fill a hole in the wall. It is a wall plug that is made of wood or metal. It is a wall plug that is made of wood or metal. Mountain Fauna

THE LIONS OF MTS KENYA AND ELGOR

To The Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir, I have in your issue of January 14, Dr. Arthur, the President of the Mountain Club of East Africa, mentions that it may be a special variety of mountain lion found at a certain altitude on Mt. Kenya.

A neighbour of mine who has had some experience with the mountain or forest lion describes them as smaller and of a darker coat than ordinary lions. He emphasizes the fact that they are not spotted, though I am sure the lions of Woodlands natives do not show lion spotting.

That our Mr. Arthur mentions that they are not spotted, and that their eyes are red and that the researchers of the Swedish Scientific Expedition to East Africa, some years ago, produced some interesting specimens.

Amongst a number of new discoveries they made, not the least interesting is the long-tailed leopard, which was actually discovered by Mr. Allen Forrest in 1932 but on a mountain which is not mentioned in his report.

Down in this part of Tanganyika, in the vicinity of Mt. Meru, the publisher (think good) has his home in the dense forest which grows on the tops of high hills, and does not seem to frequent the lower country. Perhaps such a slow moving animal is more numerous from grass fire in this isolated position.

I am sure you should be very interested to hear more about mountain lions, especially if they are a spotted variety as some people think, but for the time being perhaps we could use them as charges on a Coat of Arms for the Mountain Club.

To The Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir, Many efforts have been made in 1932 and 1933 without success to form the Kenyan Shop Assistants and Clerks Union.

Since the Shop Hours Act was applied to Kisumu in July 1935 the position of the Shop Assistants and Clerks has not changed any. They are being made to work from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. even up to 8 p.m. weekly 48 minutes in excess in between.

Even on Saturday which is declared as a half working day, work is being carried on up to 7 p.m., only on Sunday the work stops at 4 p.m. which is not a working day.

According to the Shop Hours Act the working hours are limited to 50 in a week, Sunday always a holiday, but in Kisumu though the Shop Hours Act has been applied the working hours total 71 hours per week, and Sundays five hours.

There are merchants who abide by the law to close at 4 p.m. on working days and at 1 p.m. on Saturday, while the others carry on their business in full swing on Saturday with the decision of the Municipal Council. It would indeed be a sad state of affairs if the municipal policy and the planning of the town were to be hampered by these individual plot owners of Nairobi.

Will not the Authorities look into the matter and relieve the Shop Assistants of their hardships and drudgery, and be blessed for their efforts in this behalf.

In DEFENCE OF GLASGOW To The Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir, I read with interest the letter by your correspondent Mr. W. J. Davidson, "Painful Health: A Critic of Sugar". There may be a great deal of truth in some of his assertions, but when he states that "the excessive consumption of sugar in early young makes for the decay of having alcohol later in life," I entirely disagree with him.

My real grouse against Mr. Davidson however, is his reference to my native City as the "Town of Glasgow." Town formerly Glasgow, Sir, is a City and, perhaps likely that your correspondent, along with many others, may oft-times have heard it referred to as "The Second City of the Empire." So, pass the sugar to him.

TO THE EDITOR, "E.A. STANDARD." Sir, May I be permitted to make some correspondence columns to further the suggestion of a "Kenya Society." My object in writing this letter is to beg everyone who is interested in forming a "Kenya Society" to send their names to Mr. Anderson at Box 158, Nairobi, in order that he may lay a big enough list to justify his calling a meeting at an early date to form the Society.

any more direct method... of the question as it would be possible for the Government to... to take this opportunity... to assist in its formation by sending... to their names and suggestions... by asking their friends to do the same.

TRAFFIC ISLANDS: STEWART STREET

To The Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir, Regarding Mr. Edgely's article on the traffic islands proposed in your paper, I am a supporter and business plot owner in the area.

It would not be surprising if the present town planning officer is at all times... with a decision arrived during Mr. Edgely's visit of office as a Council officer.

THE PRODUCER'S PROBLEM To The Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir, When a man finds himself in the water he has three or four courses open to him.

Stomach Discomfort?

Stomach Worms May Cause Pinafore Frocks of Discomfort. Many children suffer from Stomach Worms (also known as Pinworms) and they cause much discomfort. The symptoms are a feeling of fullness, bloating, and a constant desire to eat. The worms are small, thread-like creatures that live in the stomach and intestines. They can be easily identified by their appearance, which is that of a small, white, thread-like worm. The best way to get rid of them is by using a medicine that is specifically designed to kill them. Such a medicine is available from the Mombasa Trading Stores, Ltd., and the African Commercial Corporation Ltd.

TEAMERS EVERS' BID FOR PROMOTION

There is little change in the standings in the First and Second Divisions. Only a skeleton programme of league games was possible on Saturday evening, but the Cupwinners' Shield has gone to the first team since the start of the season. Three months ago this club was in the bottom division, but they have steadily improved, and have now taken the top position, but have played a rather tame game.

Country-hunt was made in the south-western section of Division II, but failed to produce a home victory at the weekend, and with the City winning the last game, a change became. Later have a game in hand, however, in the other section, the gap between Burnley and Chesterfield has been widened following upon the latter's defeat on Saturday. The Evers, with the same number of games played, are two points ahead of their nearest rivals.

It is strange how in a few weeks the form of a team can change completely. A number of the first months ago Hamilton Athletic were in the top flight, but in the winter league, they are now in the bottom half of the table. Only one side are concerned with the destination of the flag; the rest are fighting to get into the top flight. Burnley are two points ahead of Chesterfield, and the City are two points ahead of Burnley. The Evers, with the same number of games played, are two points ahead of their nearest rivals.

RIFT VALLEY MAIZE

The Control of Stalk
Borer

In view of the lateness of many farmers in the Nairobian area in harvesting their maize it has not been possible to enforce a final ban before which old maize crops would have been destroyed. The relevant section has accordingly not been published in the "Official Gazette" says a Commissioner of Agriculture.

In their own interests, however, farmers are urged to destroy all old maize crops and stalks and shell the maize. All maize intended for the manufacture of human consumption with stalks must be treated with Derris and particular care must be taken to check for infestation in the maize in the immediate vicinity of stacks of old stalks. Volunteer maize should be ploughed if it is to be used for the manufacture of stalks.

Farmers are referred to the accounts of the use of Derris in control of stalk borer, given in Entomological Leaflet No. 4 (1938).

Farmers are reminded that bonfire stacks have impurities or off-culls of the Department of Agriculture may order the use of Derris in the vicinity of stacks given them by virtue of the powers given them by Title 2 of the Industrial Plantation Prevention Bill, 1938.

In conclusion farmers should remember that no maize planting may be carried out in the precincts of the Nairobi and District districts before February 21 or the Department of Agriculture wishes to be advised of any farmers who transgress this rule and so act suitably to their neighbours' interests.

RELIEF AFTER YEARS OF ULCERATED STOMACH

Is it to be wondered at that Mr. C. is thankful he was advised to take Maudsloni Brand Stomach Powder? After years of suffering from ulcerated stomach, one dose of this marvellous stomach remedy relieved him instant and permanent relief. "I am so pleased with the results I have obtained by the use of your Maudsloni Brand Stomach Powder that I am writing to offer a personal testimonial. I have suffered badly from stomach pain due to ulceration of the stomach. A short time ago I was recommended to try your Stomach Powder. Since the first dose I have never had another pain, and although I have only taken the powder for four days, I already feel twice the man I did before."

You can obtain just as much relief as Mr. C., but be sure you get the original Maudsloni Brand Stomach Powder. Be sure to ask for the genuine Maudsloni Brand Stomach Powder, bearing the signature "Alex C. Maudsloni" on cover and label. If you have any difficulty in obtaining it from your local store, write to Hovoss and Metcalfs, Ltd., P.O. Box 28, Nairobi.

"KING'S TIME" ENDED

Checks no longer in Advance

"STANDARD" COMMENTARY.
London, Feb. 10.

"King's Time," which has been observed at Sandhurst for some fifty years, has been discontinued by King Edward VIII.

It was half-hour in advance of Omelette time, and the 130 clocks in the Royal Norfolk house all recorded it.

This divergence from normal time had its origin in the time of King Edward, it is recorded that it is a shrewd party in the evening were not punctual.

Thought it a joke
The then Prince of Wales, afterwards to become King George V, is reported to have suggested to his father that they ought to keep "Omelette time."

Edith, the sister of Lord Leconter, is not the only one who the clocks are always half an hour late.

King Edward appreciated the idea, and rather, it is thought, in the nature of a jest, gave the order. But it was never confirmed.

It had, at least, the advantage of providing extra daylight for shooting and other pursuits, but Summer Time was introduced.

The Training of Kenya Youth

THE DANGERS OF CHILDREN BECOMING "NATIVE-MINDED" Care of Infants PSYCHOLOGICAL EFFECTS OF A CORRECT MENTAL ENVIRONMENT

The training of the future white citizens of Kenya formed the subject of two thought-provoking addresses given at a meeting of women members of the Njoro Settlers' Association.

Lady Sidney Farrar dealt with problems arising from the care of young children in the Colony and stressed the need for a proper physical and mental environment, pointing out some of the dangers of leaving little ones in the care of non-European parents.

The need for an agricultural training farm in Kenya was the text of the address given by the Hon. Mrs. E. I. Grant who said that such an institution was a basic necessity for the future of the Colony.

Have a most deleterious effect on a young child's mind. There was no thought that the murals of a number of apes were used to give an impression as to the health of some of them and children might easily be taught very bad habits. As patients syphilis were only fitted to be used as assistants to the child's mother in washing, press pushing and other simple and supervised jobs. "We are raising a serious danger of our children becoming indoctrinated if we have them in their hands" said Lady Sidley.

The increasing danger from house arrests has been locally brought home recently by the East Africa Women's League and brought with it a problem of how to tackle a question of constant watchfulness without taking away with the child's self reliance.

The Acting President of the East Africa Women's League had previously been presiding the Director of Education for a Special Training Conference to discuss educational problems. "Don't you feel with the time has come when mothers of children should also get together and tackle their problems with a wider vision than they are doing at present?" she asked. "Don't you feel we are relegating a lot of our boys to these new problems make it more than necessary to study the question with care and intelligence?"

Although school simplified the problem there was the associated with natives in the holidays to think of as well as the growing arrogance of the white child, looking in over a native one, which could only be met by increased supervision and by parental supervision of indifference and achievement.

Lack of Books

Lady Sidley continuing said the lack of children's books was a serious one and local leading firms should cope with the problem or else club together to obtain a supply. The speaker said she had been asking for books by a child of ten and when Ealing, Fernis, Cooper and Ballantyne had been returned as suitable, it had been greatly explained to her that what the child really appreciated and preferred was Edgar Wallace. Then the parents complained of colonial accents "and I'll give you letters and blame the school. If Kenya was not going to turn out totally provincial minded school-

The Schools

The speaker paid a tribute to the primary and preparatory schools of the Colony and said that no European child was ever refused entry to a Government Primary school on the score of finance. Two places were always granted to children whose parents could not afford the fee. The speaker also pointed to the best public representation on the School Advisory Committee and said as a member of this Committee herself that she had always found the Director of Education very ready to hear the views of these Committees.

Education was pleasantly almost Secondary education was quite well catered for in Government schools. Most parents who could afford it thought it well to send their children home for a few years and there was no doubt it was the best possible thing to broaden their minds and removing them all an impracticable age from native influences and until we understood local conditions better from the point of view of their health.

Employers' Criticisms

"There is constant criticism from rubber plantation employers," continued the speaker, that country-bred and educated children lack sticking power, initiative and the capacity for hard work. Personally I believe this criticism will be shown to have very little to do with the fact when we prevent our children from becoming imbued in any way with the native mentality which-

They are small, think a little more of the future of the country, as well as teaching them by the example of a busy and happy life. Instead of standing by and waiting for the Government to do it for us, we have found out and are now doing it ourselves. We are now doing it for their benefit, and for their own improvement in their daily life.

TRAINING FARM

Basic Necessity for Colony's Future

The Hon. Mrs. E. L. Grant was the next speaker. Her address was "The Training of Agricultural Training Farm in Kenya." She pointed out that during the past year the possibility had been discussed in connection with a proposed Delimitation Memorial scheme, the Government to attempt to prove to the future of the Colony that it was a basic necessity for the future of the Colony. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.

White Settlement

Dealing with the subject in its general aspects, Mrs. Grant began with what she called "a quick stock-taking of the history of white settlement" covering a period of thirty-five years during which the Government had emerged from the pioneer stage to establishing an operative industry. That industry would always be predominantly agricultural, turning to the question of the white population in relation to economic development. The total was said to be only about 17,000 with an agricultural area of 1,000,000 acres. The 1926 Immigration figures had shown a steady decline, due to world factors. While she recognized the factors, particularly economic, behind the decline, there were deeper causes in the immigration policy among themselves. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.

...the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.

The Future

Mrs. Grant said that it was true that there were a great many good things for a plan in the sun but the political habits of the Government would hardly be improved. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.

She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.

Indigenous Trees

Mrs. Rebecca Ward followed with a interesting lecture on indigenous trees. She dealt with the advantages of indigenous trees over exotic ones. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.

A Fertile Country

They know that they had in Kenya land in abundance which, taken as a whole, compared favourably for fertility with any agricultural country. The soil had been made of mill-ions of years of intensive cultivation and subdivision. The right sort of cultivation could only be given by the modern trained farmer. They had also the most modern and complete agricultural machinery and equipment. They had also the most modern and complete agricultural machinery and equipment.

An American Example

Mrs. Grant used an interesting example from The Timothy Dwight, President of the Yale University about 150 years ago regarding the migration of New Englanders to the rapidly expanding western states. They were impatient to find at the maintenance of law and order, and they were impatient to find at the maintenance of law and order. They were impatient to find at the maintenance of law and order.

Housecraft

The last item on the agenda was an address by Miss Wilma Hood of Nairobi, on "Housecraft" and it was a pity that this was obliged to be curtailed by time. She pointed out that the Government had been asked to propose a Resolution to the Legislative Council to the effect that a training farm should be established.
