PROTEST AGAINST ANY RISE IN WOOL PRICES

THE Argentine Ambassador in Washington, Mr. Ricardo Paz, has notified that he has presented a note to the State Department opposing any increase in United States wool prices.

The note is being forwarded to the United States Trade Commission for its study and consideration.

The Commission is now considering an Agriculture Department recommendation for an import fee above the present tariff of 25 cents, to bring the price of foreign wool in line with domestic prices.

Uruguay and Australia, have also objected to any proposed move.

GERMAN TRADE DELEGATION IN AUSTRALIA

THE German Government trade delegation to visit Australia before the year is over, has been announced.

The delegation hopes to negotiate a new trade agreement with Australia to replace that which expired last August.

It is led by Herr A. Van Scherpenzeel, Head of the German Federal Ministry of Economics, with the Australian Prime Minister and Minister of External Affairs.

'HOME GUARDS' FOR NIGHT DUTY IN LONE AREAS

Plan to ease Police task—good response

HOME GUARD UNITS of special police are being formed for night duty in lone areas bringing Kenya Police and Kenya Police Reserve to the work. These "Home Guards" will wear blue uniforms. The Commissioner of Police (Mr. C. O. O'Brien) is believed to have been the instigator of the scheme. It was subsequently taken up by a number of leading officers including two ex-Mayors who during the past few years have managed to be made as to some houses in the city. It is understood the response has greatly exceeded expectations.

It is intended that special constables, recruited in the city, should be drafted at night to areas like Kambe and Limuru, where they would be working on isolated farms.

They might say overnight in the houses of the police officers, or a comprehensive unit, which would be made up of the regular police and Home Guards.

Some of the recruits would stay on duty "Ten hours" from the hours of 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. and would be paid for their services.

It was stated that the plan was approved by the Home Guards Association, which has been formed in the city.

Uganda CID men seconded to Kenya

Two experienced officers from the Uganda CID Force have been sent to Nairobi to assist in the investigation of inquiries being received from the words of the Commissioner of Police (Mr. C. O. O'Brien) in the extent of the "great strain" on the Kenya Criminal Investigation Department.

It is stated that the two officers may come from other territories in East and West Africa.

One of the officers from Uganda is a former Assistant Superintendent of Police, Mr. J. M. Gregory, who has been seconded to the Kenya CID Force. The other is a former member of the Kenya Police Reserve, Mr. J. M. Gregory, who has been seconded to the Kenya CID Force.

Gang attacks servants, steals rifles

Two servants were gang-busted upon when a party of five men, who were members of the Kenya Police Reserve, burst into a Sunday night party at a house in Nairobi and stole rifles and some other property.

The police who arrived at the house at about 11 p.m. were alerted by the party who were in the house. The gang then fled but were captured by the police. The rifles were recovered and the party was taken to the station.

THE MOST VERSATILE TREE IN THE WORLD

By Metcalf Dalton

Perhaps where the value of trees in a certain country is given to the most place marks by the following:

With the First World War breaking on her shores, the value of vegetable oils was so great that the world turned to a country like Canada, where the vegetable oil industry was well developed.

The results of these investigations were so convincing that the world turned to a country like Canada, where the vegetable oil industry was well developed.

Many new uses were discovered during these investigations, and as the industry grew, so did the value of the trees.

RA.F. 'LIBERTYMEN' ON THE TURKISH BORDER

A writer describes the remote mountain camp where R.A.F. personnel stationed in Iraq take their leave away from the heat of the plains.

The leave party will try to get to the Turkish border before the time the Government sends the camp to the Turkish Government.

STOCKY, olive-skinned Kurdish nomads reared south of the Taurus range of high mountain peaks along the Persian and Turkish borders in the grounds below the snow-capped peaks of the Taurus range in Iraq. Kurdistan.

By October long-leaving season had begun. The mountain men, who were used to the heat of the plains, were now in the mountains. The Taurus range was now in the mountains.

Cloud menace

THIS unusual situation of primitive tribes from higher to lower ground, practiced since time immemorial in this remote corner of the world, now has a parallel in a civilized community which throughout Iraq's history has never put in a holiday in the mountains.

By mule

THE most abundant food for the nomads is the mule. The mule is the only animal that can be used for transport in the mountains. The mule is the only animal that can be used for transport in the mountains.

Friendly relations

NOW however, the R.A.F.'s relations with its friendly relations with the nomads are friendly relations with the nomads.

Rugby improvement very much wanted SUGGESTIONS TO THE UNION

By Derek Johns
THE Committee of the Rugby Union looks like being a very busy body in the days that lie ahead. Every suggestion for improving the game for both players and spectators. For the truth is that the British Rugby Union is far from satisfied with existing conditions and the Union has decided to take steps to bring about an improvement.

Senior Chief Waruhiu and the Boy Scouts

In the letter "E.A. Pioneer" it is not perhaps generally known that the Senior Chief Waruhiu has endorsed the ideals and aims of the Boy Scout Association and has all those who are concerned, particularly in his own Area.

In addition to being an officer of the Scout Association, he was the first of the Chiefs to give a message of welcome to the Scouts in the Kapsabet District in 1947 of the Kapsabet District. Not only did he become the first Chief to give a message of welcome to the Scouts on the occasion of the 25th Anniversary of the Scout Association, but he also presented a pair of medals to the Scouts of his own District.

From then on he attended the meetings of the Scout Association regularly of his own District and has since then been a regular member of the Scout Association of his own District. He has also been a member of the Scout Association of the Kapsabet District since 1947.

In March 1952, the first District Scout Meeting was held at the District Headquarters, where the Senior Chief Waruhiu's first speech was to the effect that he was glad to see the Scouts in his District and that he was glad to see the Scouts in his District and that he was glad to see the Scouts in his District.

He also said that he was glad to see the Scouts in his District and that he was glad to see the Scouts in his District.

DRIFOOT

SOLE AND HEELS FOR ALL PURPOSES

How much could you save on shoe bills?

Drifoot shoes are a good investment. They are made of a special rubber sole and heel before you put them on. Drifoot helps shoes keep their shape and lasts for so long that shoes require no repair for a minimum. It's an economy in every way.

DANNY KAYE: He 'drifted' Into Show Business

INCOMPARABLE, unpretentious and unassuming, Danny Kaye began life as a doctor. It was only because of a shortage of money in his family that, instead, he 'drifted' into show business.

Now he is considered one of the world's most brilliant comedians, and his screen work has personally brought him the success that has made him one of the most popular personal actors. Danny Kaye, 36, was born in the town of Williamsport, Pa., and grew up in the town of Yonkers, N.Y.

Russian Factor

DANNY KAYE'S early background is responsible to a large degree for his success in 1952. The son of a Russian father and a mother of European descent, Kaye was born in Williamsport, Pa., and grew up in Yonkers, N.Y.

'Nonsense' songs

THAT was the start of his career, but Danny has earlier reminiscence of his early days in show business. He learned to play the piano at the age of five, and his first job was as a water meter reader in Williamsport.

Salary troubles

WHILE an actor's salary is a matter of public knowledge, Danny Kaye's salary is a matter of public knowledge. He has a salary of $100,000 a year, and he has a net worth of $1,000,000.

Danny Kaye, who has been in the show business for 15 years, is one of the most popular comedians in the world. He has a net worth of $1,000,000.

Venturesome Slam

It is always interesting to watch a good player dealing with a difficult contract. One occasion was watching a job-waiting to cut in when the following incident occurred:

South died but he and Chab and after North had been found the man who had been killed himself in a venture which had three victims.

THE WORLD'S FIRST OVERHEAD RAILWAY IS NEARLY 60 YEARS OLD

THE first "overhead" railway—the first passenger train—was built in Britain, and it is still generally regarded as a primary concern after 50 years' service. Opened in 1825, the Liverpool Overhead Railway, owned by the Company of that name, today carries about 100,000 passengers a year to and fro between Dingle Station, in the South, and Seaside and Llandale Station, its northernmost terminus, 16 feet above the railway along almost half a mile of docks, in Britain's second greatest seaport.

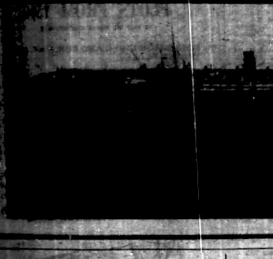

Liverpoolmen call it "The Railway Diabla." On rainy days—certainly not on sunny ones—the north-east gale of Britain—the Railway's elevated structure affords dry passages to workmen without interruption over dock and another below it. But its fame is not merely local and historical.

THIS little marvel of British engineering—the result of a scheme that was proposed exactly a hundred years ago—was inspected by American experts and served as a model for the New York "Elevated" Route then, other engineers from the Commonwealth and England have since all the important European countries have studied it and profited by the experience.

Designed by Sir Douglas White and Mr. J. H. Greenhalgh, the standard-gauge double-track is laid on a light but strong structure, which makes the passage of the trains comparatively noiseless. The structure, supported on columns of two steel channels and two steel plates consists of wrought iron girders, 22 feet centre to centre, at a normal span of 33 feet. On it the Company run 18 three-car sets. The signalling system, modernised 30 years ago, is equipped with coloured lights. One set clearly visible in the brightest sunshine at a distance of 1,200 yards.

The 12 stations along the route give easy access to the wharves of Liverpool Harbour, while the round trip on the Overhead gives a magnificent panoramic view of the ships and docks below—an excellent way of gaining some idea of the wonders of commerce and how it is handled, by the British, just that certain constituent of the whole country's overseas trade.

In fact, the Overhead Railway is used in this way by sightseers and holiday-makers during the season, as well as by Educational Committees all over Britain who organise trips for the school-children, as a pleasant form of geography-teaching.

You need a Creda

PLANNING AN ORDER MONTHLY

Arthurs Varning advises housewives to adopt a saving policy.

ALMOST all items can be ordered for the month except for such things as coal, gas, oil, fruit, vegetables, butter, milk, cream, eggs, and such things as those that need to be bought during the month.

Method
1. Write and check the following: Under what heading will I list all items, including those which are to be ordered for the month? For each item, write down the name, the quantity, and the price.

slightly restricted waist-line and free width above giving it a more classic character. These forms demand wear-ability as well as the traditional which is treated with a modern touch by the use of attractive and subtle patterns.

A popular treatment of the skirted dress material is to treat it in a bold, simple, and direct way. The skirt is made of a single piece of material and is cut in a simple, direct way.

By moving the side seam towards the back, a wide, narrow line develops with a strong gathering towards the back. This is a simple and direct way of creating a new style.

Shade-deer have placed the main emphasis on the straightness of the previous line. In other words, the skirt is cut in a simple, direct way, and the waist is made of a single piece of material.

Coats less full
The silhouettes of wide-shouldered coats are more pronounced. The coats have a wide, straight line and are cut in a simple, direct way.

BEAUTIFUL HOMES OF KENYA

THIS HOUSE WAS BUILT TO 'GROW'

By Lesley Clay

To prove that a small house, if constructed with care and thought to allow of its being built up to later, can be the ideal home and also the setting for modern built-in furniture that must live side by side with a few indigenous in Africa, was the object of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Siskind when they built their residence at Spring Valley.

Designed by V. H. and E. Siskind, the house was completed just over 6 months ago.

Mr. Siskind believes that it is a difficult thing to choose the furniture in a room or to arrange it. He therefore has a special attention to it since a fireplace has been built. A central point of the furnishings is a small dining room. The rest of the room is a living room with a built-in television set. A large lounge room with a built-in television set is also a feature of the house. The bedrooms are built on the roof and are reached by a staircase. The house is built on a hillside and the view is magnificent.

The bedrooms (ANDRICK contains a built-in wardrobe and a built-in desk. The other bedroom has a built-in wardrobe and a built-in desk. The house is built on a hillside and the view is magnificent.

Flat roof

MADE of glass, stucco, with a flat roof ideal for sunbathing and outdoor parties, the interior of the house reveals a home-like atmosphere. The built-in dining room has built-in dining chairs and a built-in dining table. The dining portion contains a dining table with chairs and a built-in dining table. Z-MAN'S DIARY

By Paul Jennings

MONDAY—Army truck full of gear, including a few boxes of food, was loaded on the truck and driven to the camp by other Z-men. I accompanied myself to the camp with the driver. We arrived at approximately 10:30 a.m. and found the camp in a state of confusion. The Z-men were busy with their work and I had to wait for some time before I could get a room. I finally found a room and went to bed. I was very tired and fell asleep immediately.

TUESDAY—Other half of the camp was busy with their work. I went to the kitchen and found the Z-men busy with their work. I had to wait for some time before I could get a room. I finally found a room and went to bed. I was very tired and fell asleep immediately.

WEDNESDAY—An early morning breakfast was served in the mess hall. I went to the kitchen and found the Z-men busy with their work. I had to wait for some time before I could get a room. I finally found a room and went to bed. I was very tired and fell asleep immediately.

THURSDAY—Spent the day in the camp. I went to the kitchen and found the Z-men busy with their work. I had to wait for some time before I could get a room. I finally found a room and went to bed. I was very tired and fell asleep immediately.

FRIDAY—Spent the day in the camp. I went to the kitchen and found the Z-men busy with their work. I had to wait for some time before I could get a room. I finally found a room and went to bed. I was very tired and fell asleep immediately.

THE QUEEN 8

By SIR CHARLES PETRIE

Royal Influence Abroad

Too many unthinking people are inclined to assume that because a large number of foreign countries have not proclaimed the independence of our own Sovereign upon their own soil, they are not yet ready to do so.

It is for me to state that the Queen is not only the symbol of our own Sovereignty, but also the symbol of the independence of our own Sovereign upon our own soil.

THE WINNING LETTER

"I have been distressed of late by the prevalence of the practice of writing late at the theatre. A guinea was offered for the best letter received on the subject. Today we publish the winning letter and a selection from the others received."

The writer is much pleased that his letter has been selected with a badge of distinction. The type with a starry pen and a long and a long. There is no doubt that the letter is a masterpiece.
