FORMOSA CRISIS 'NEARING SHOWDOWN'

Nationalists eager to invade mainland

TACHENS EVACUATION PROCEEDS SMOOTHLY

GEN. CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S Nationalist Chinese troops yesterday began evacuating the Tachen Islands under cover of about 700 United States jet planes and other aircraft. Nationalist military spokesmen said the "redeployment operation" was proceeding smoothly. No difficulties had been encountered so far.

More than 30 units of the United States Seventh Fleet stood by to protect the withdrawal of the garrison, estimated at 15,000 troops. Vice-Adm. Albin K. Dredge, commanding the fleet, said the evacuation was the largest of its kind since the end of the Second World War. The evacuation was in the hands of the Nationalist Chinese. The Americans were reported to be providing orders not to provoke a Communist attack.

It was officially stated that once the evacuation of the northern islands is completed - estimates of the length of the operation vary from six to 14 days - the Nationalists will make Nanchuan Island, 120 miles from Formosa, their northernmost post. Reports from Tachen said that 18,000 out of 19,000 Nationalist soldiers had been evacuated. The evacuation of civilians had required for evacuation to Formosa. Soldiers and civilians were busy loading down houses, dismantling guns and demolishing fortifications to make sure the garrison could not be used by the Communists. The evacuation of Communist soldiers was also proceeding smoothly. Gen. Chiang declared yesterday that the evacuation of other places was for the purpose of "concentrating military forces and intensifying preparations for the recovery of the mainland." The Nationalist Premier, Mr. Shao, was making a speech in Taipei.

Women's Tuesday Corner

Anna Neagle Sets The Fashion

UNCHALLENGED British "First Lady" of the screen, Anna Neagle claims to be "more color-conscious" than fashion-conscious.

Nevertheless, she is fashionably dressed and exquisitely gowned. Many of her dresses last for years, because of the care she takes of them; each garment has its own character, and she is not afraid to show it.

Practical advice is perfect for Anna Neagle's hair and personal recreation: she uses plain hair, pink, and avoids all shades of blue besides her reported love, Dresden and Nottingham in her lovely London flat as a pastime, literary study of life.

Miss Neagle likes simple but pure lines, and has a special collection of evening frocks which she wears with her claret. The dress illustrated is a perfect example. In rich brown wool, the back is made in a wrap-over coat form, the collar, cuffs and sleeves are all delicately embroidered in white and gold. The costume—a feature of its famous designer, Mr. Norman Hartnell. In winter, she wears this dress under a coat, with a "herring" skirt that is wrapped about a center seam with dark center panel. "I have had a lot of other things," she says, "but they have been worn while I have been well." In warm weather, the coat dress is worn with a fur tie and a brown and white straw hat, which has a band of green halter style. A note of group.

Anna Neagle believes it is not to have a few few clothes rather than a large number of cheap garments. The lower tier skirted tulle evening dress, the elegant evening frock and the simple white tulle dress in the silver grey organza and lace. Narrow white bands give the effect of fully laced back. Between the polished facets of lace. Sometimes this dress is worn with a brilliant organza rose, sometimes with a white one. Miss Neagle has multi-colored shoes and handles to pink on either color.

Equally delicate, Anna Neagle has a pastel perfection which affects everything she wears. The possibilities when a pale pink tulle set with tiny pink motor of pearl buttons, a gray pleated brown shirt and very plain bowed neck.

This uptown star knows the secret of dressing to suit her own particular type of character, she is also certain proof of the fact that handsome garments fit at least. She is the secret of good dressing.

Immigration to Kenya: Report reveals 'loopholes'

THE ultimate responsibility for the policy and conduct of immigration into Kenya rests on principle, but the Government's, although it may be expounded at present to use unfeeling arguments, will be admitted as it is in the reports issued by the Immigration Commission.

The report, which is the first of a series issued by the Commission, reveals that the Government's policy on immigration is based on the principle of self-determination. It also points out that there are several 'loopholes' in the current regulations that allow for unauthorized entry into the country.

The Commission's findings suggest that the Government should take more stringent measures to control immigration, particularly in light of the political and social tensions in Kenya.

Party the aim

The report also discusses the political implications of immigration. It notes that the presence of large numbers of immigrants can influence the balance of power in Kenya and may lead to the dominance of a particular ethnic group.

Strict control

Finally, the report calls for strict control over immigration. It recommends that the Government should implement a more rigorous screening process for potential immigrants and should limit the number of new arrivals to maintain the stability of the country.

MR. WANTS TALKS NOW

MR. J. M. APOPO said in a broadcast from London that discussions on the future of the White Highlands should begin now. The speaker, who was elected to the House of Representatives in the 1952 election, which had been closed by the Government, said that he was not going to be satisfied until the Government had taken a decision on the future of the White Highlands. SOVIET DICTATOR RESIGNS: 'GUILT CONFESSION' Marshal Bulganin ousts Malenkov

RIFT OVER WAR POLICY WITH MR. KHRUSHCHEV

MR. GEORGI MALENKOV yesterday resigned as Prime Minister of Russia. His surprise resignation was disclosed in a letter read at the beginning of a special session called to discuss the foreign affairs.

Later, it was announced that Marshal Nikolai Bulganin had been appointed in his place. The 50-year-old marshal was Defence Minister and vice-chairman of the Council of Ministers but his choice came as a surprise because Mr. Malenkov had been regarded as Mr. Khrushchev's closest rival for power.

Mr. Malenkov's letter said that the premisses required great expense of State work and that he was not a person possessing more experience should be appointed to the post.

Political observers in Moscow, however, felt that his resignation was caused by his rift with Mr. Khrushchev over major policy on the creation of a huge industrial plant in the Far East.

Mr. Malenkov, who is 53, took over the premiership in March, 1953, after the death of Marshal Stalin. He belonged to the younger generation of Russian politicians and had no pro-revolutionary background.

He had been regarded as the "strong hand" of the Central Committee of the Communist Party until he began to exercise a more liberal policy towards the "young guard" of the Party.

As the resignation of the former Marshal Stalin, Alexander Volynsk chairman of the Combined Session of the Supreme Soviet and the Central Committee of the Party, was held in the mid-afternoon meeting hall. His letter stated: "I am resigning from my post as Premier of the Union of Soviet Republics."

"I am especially sorry my resignation will be a disappointment to you in that respect."

Mr. Malenkov's Party ally, Mr. Khrushchev, has already made a statement in the House of Commons regarding the resignation.

Mr. Khrushchev said that the resignation was a surprise and that he was not a person possessing more experience should be appointed to the post.

FALL IN MINING PRODUCTION

Southern Rhodesia's output £714,900 below 1953 figure

The value of minerals produced in Southern Rhodesia during 1955 was £178,774,464 (£174,961,186 less than in 1954), according to an official statement. Gold production rose to £1,000,000 compared with £850,000 in the previous year. The value of base metals also rose to £12,000,000 from £11,000,000 in 1954. The statement said that the decline in production was due to a combination of factors, including a fall in the price of copper and a reduction in the output of the country's mines.

Record tonnage of coal carried to Copperbelt

The demands of all coal consumers in Southern Rhodesia are greater production of coal. The demand for coal is expected to increase in 1956, particularly in the Copperbelt region, where the tonnage of coal carried is expected to reach a new record.

Market mixed

The market was mixed during the week, with some fluctuations in the price of commodities. The price of copper remained low, while the price of gold showed a slight increase.

1955 AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

Kenya Golf Union is to decide venue at Easter

'STANDARD' GOLF CORRESPONDENT
 Clearly the situation regarding the 1955 Amateur Championship of Kenya. At the annual general meeting of the Kenya Golf Union, it was decided unanimously to hold this year's championship in the K.G.U. grounds, provided the 1954 champion could be secured at the time that the playing conditions are decided.

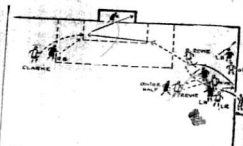

As K.G.U.'s present date was changed from the middle of August to the end of the year, which carries on longer than any other in the world.

It is in the past, at this stage, that the K.G.U. will be ready for play and in order to ensure it possible that some still had the chance of playing in the Union has decided to postpone the date of the meeting of the K.G.U. to Easter.

Easter resolution
 A resolution will be proposed that the 1955 Amateur Championship will be played in the K.G.U. grounds, with alternative sites being considered if it is found that the K.G.U. is not suitable for the purpose.

It is the clubs
 In view of the fact that the Union has decided to play the championship in the K.G.U. grounds, it is essential that the clubs should be ready to play in the K.G.U. grounds, and has full powers of the Union to do so.

The Kenyan team, captained by Mr. J. M. Mwangi, played a very good game in goal for the Kenyan team, and the Kenyan team really stood up well to a second round of the attack.

Union take the lead
 The R.A.F. were in the lead in the first round, but the Kenyan team took the lead in the second round.

DEVELOPMENT OF KENYA INDUSTRY

Emergency fails to affect confidence in future

The "spectacular" development of Kenya's secondary industries since 1945 is stressed in the new edition of publications designed to provide background information on commercial enterprises in the Colony.

While originally the basic aim of the Colony Trade Directory was to assist the development of industries based on imported raw materials, locally available raw materials has increased with the development of agriculture, the export of which has increased in all probability.

New projects

The publication is based on the Ministry of Commerce and Industries in a foreword written by Mr. A. H. Jones, 1711. It describes the many industries which have been established in Kenya since 1945, and many industries which are under development. It also lists the names of the owners and managers of these industries.

During my recent visit to the United States I found that industrialists and investors were anxious to obtain information on opportunities which exist in this country, and I was able to give them a brief outline of the opportunities which exist in Kenya. This information was obtained through the Contact Card Bureau, which is a service which would be of great advantage to industrialists and investors.

Kenya's future

While many secondary industries have already been firmly established in Kenya, still considerable scope exists for their expansion, particularly in the manufacturing sector. The Government plans to carry out a primary geological survey which has as one of its objects the discovery of such a prime

Canning may rank second to coffee

With the rapidly developing canning industry over the past few years, Kenya ranks second to coffee.

When the Ministry of Agriculture and Stock Raising visited the Kenya Canning Co. Ltd. in Nairobi, they were impressed by the quality of the canning industry in Kenya.

Extension planned

Most of the bottling plants are situated in Nairobi and the extension of the existing plants is being planned. The Kenya Canning Co. Ltd. is planning to extend its facilities in Nairobi and other parts of Kenya.

Energy from the sun

Britain and France are sending advertisements to a world-wide exhibition in Nairobi in November. The exhibition is organized by the Kenya Electricity Board and is intended to show the possibilities of using solar energy for industrial purposes.

Bank director to visit Nairobi

Mr. T. H. Hildebrand, a Director of the Netherlands Trading Company, is due in Nairobi on a visit to the Kenya Canning Co. Ltd. He will be accompanied by a representative of the Kenya Canning Co. Ltd.

RUSSIANS PLEDGE AID TO CHINA ON FORMOSA U.S. warned over 'dangerous road'

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER REAFFIRMS POLICY

MARSHAL Bulganin, the new Soviet Prime Minister yesterday pledged aid to Communist China and urged an unmistakable warning to the United States a reference to Formosa during the sixth and final day of the Supreme Soviet session.

The Chinese people can count on the help of their true friend, the Soviet Union," he said. Formosa was a lawful part of China and the United States was following a dangerous road. The United States, which had not once before demanded the withdrawal of U.S. forces was playing an astonishing role.

Mr. Georgi Malenkov, the former Premier, who has been appointed Minister in charge of the platform while the Marshal made his speech and a Soviet Communist from the deputies, Marshal Georgi Zhukov, who has taken over the Defense Ministry, was present with Mr. Nikita Khrushchev, the First Secretary of the Communist Party.

An acquaintance of President Eisenhower and Field Marshal Montgomery, Marshal Zhukov fell from favor in 1948 when he was relieved of his post as commander of the German occupation. He returned to the limelight after Marshal Stalin's death. In 1948 President Eisenhower, on behalf of the U.S. Government, invited Marshal Zhukov to the United States but the offer was not accepted.

MAINTAINING SPRENCHES

The U.S. President said yesterday about the possibility of a change in the policy of the United States toward Formosa, that he was certain that the United States would not change its policy.

The President said that the United States would not change its policy unless the Chinese government would agree to a formal agreement with the United States on Formosa.

Asked whether he was ready to repeat yesterday's statement that the United States would not change its policy unless the Chinese government would agree to a formal agreement with the United States, Mr. Eisenhower said this was his position.

FOR WEST INDIES TOUR:

Australian selection strongly criticised

MAIN RELIANCE ON PLAYERS FROM CURRENT TEST TEAMS

AUSTRALIA will rely mainly on players who have appeared in the current Test matches against England for this year's tour of the West Indies, which begins next month. Only three of the 16 players named have never played Test cricket. These are young batsmen Peter Burge, and Willie Waugh, and leg-spinner Neville Martin Williams. The Australian captain and Keith Miller will visit Jamaica in the West Indies during the tour.

Other Test players included are Peter Burge to the son of the former batsman, Peter Burge, who was captain of the Australian team in 1951. A number of other writers noted that the Australian selectors had been criticised for their reliance on players from the current Test teams.

POWERFUL

New Higher anti-knock SHELL

with

(incorporating tricresyl phosphate)

Power goes UP... running costs go DOWN... when you start using New SHELL with I.C.A. This new motor spirit has higher anti-knock energy value and gives you superior performance. Longer pick-up. Efficient pull on hills. Low gear-changing. You can drive farther, faster, in less cost with less effort.

But New SHELL is more than a higher-powered motor spirit. SHELL, and only SHELL, has I.C.A. (incorporating tricresyl phosphate). I.C.A. lifts the dead hand of pre-ignition and spark plug fouling from your engine and unleashes its full, smooth power. No other motor spirit combines the driving power of SHELL with the power-preserving action of I.C.A.

For those who judge quality - it's SHELL every time

ANOMALIES STRESSED IN COMMITTEE REPORT

GRATEFULY increased departmental costs and anomalous income-tax assessments receive considerable attention in the report published this week of the Fiscal Sub-Committee of the Standing Committee appointed at the political "trust" conference in Nairobi four months ago last April which is the joint Kenyan-Portuguese committee of the Sub-committee, and Mr. A. J. Don Small, deputy chairman, said:

"A comparative study of the Colony's income tax made and it was noted that, on average, departmental costs had more than doubled. It was noted, for example, that the cost of the police increased the former year by K72,000 as against K27,200 the year under review.

Social services. The cost of African education has risen from the heavier burden laid upon it in the same period and this report has only low fractional increases. It was noted that the cost of the police, fire, health and social services had increased by K172,000 as against K27,200 the year under review.

Expenditure up. In its survey of expenditure, the committee states: "Expenditure on the warge departments of Government has increased by more than 50 per cent in 1953 over the 1952 rate. The rate of increase in the outlay on social services is also appreciable but this is due to the lack of time in legislative Committee."

Fortunes protected. "It must be remembered," the report states, "that the Assen committee operates on an annual system, distinct from the present system, designed to protect the family fortunes against marauding invaders in India. It provides ample protection against the heaviest and most common type of burglary and fire insurance in the world. Family assets are insured by a large number of small businesses operated by individual units of the family with capital derived from individual members of the family of the income-earning...

UNION BISHOP EMPHASIZES DUTY TO AID AFRICANS

The Bishop of Johannesburg, Dr. R. Rev. Richard Ambrose Reynolds, states that Africans must accept the fact that Africans must be given opportunities to develop in the field and be raised to take part in the general affairs of the country. He said he was on a personal tour to view the situation in the field and be raised to take part in the general affairs of the country.

Taxation too high. "A small straight tax on income would, however, be more equitable than the present system of taxation based on the income of every individual."

Widow needed. The Bishop said that the most pressing need in Africa was for a widow's fund to assist those who are left behind by the death of their husbands.

Slot machines to help pay death duties. He suggested that slot machines be introduced to help pay death duties, as they were popular in other parts of the world.

Signs of progress. He noted that there were signs of progress in Africa, particularly in the field of education and health services.

HOUSES AND GARDENS

A CORNER OF FRANCE IN KENYA

By Lesley Clay

A SENTIMENTAL memory of his home at La Touraine, near Tours, led M. Jean-Pierre Pichot, President of the Alliance Française in East Africa and owner of the oldest coffee plantations in Kenya, to build his Kenya house in the style of the Trianon at Versailles.

His fondness for the period of history during which the Trianon was at the height of its fame, added to the fact that his family home here is so completely in the spirit of it, that he has had almost every detail of the original copied in that which faces all over East Africa. He has even had the original French period furniture and the original tapestries, which M. Pichot so well calls La Touraine, in his own house at Mombasa.

Story of the original

It was to place a tribute to the Marquis de La Touraine that in 1670 Louis XIV ordered the building on the Park of Versailles of what was then called the "Trianon de l'Europe". This palace was destroyed by the King's order in 1807 and on its site was built the actual "Grand Trianon" which was given by Louis XV to Madame de Maintenon, when she had become married three years before the marriage of the Grand Dauphin to Marie Theresia's daughter, Marie Louise. The King of Poland, who lived there when he was in France, in 1766 the Palace was occupied by the new favourite Madame de Pompadour, and the year 1780 found Queen Marie Antoinette spending much of her time there.

Colours Are Tropical

For the first time in the history of the Incorporated Society of Fashion Designers in London.

March 10th will mark the beginning of a new and personal style of color in the Tropics. For those who are eye-struck by tropical colors and have a taste for them, there is now a new and tropical color and a new and a new color.

Whether or not these colors are ever used in the Tropics, they are not new. They are old. They are old. They are old.

A new for "white woman" is used by Arthur Banks. Although almost in vogue, there are few new colors. The color is used by Arthur Banks. The color is used by Arthur Banks.

FASHION CHANGES FOR 1955

The changes, which will soon become evident in the two fashion weeks recently enough, but in the end of January, forced the pace.

The spring clothes shown by the London showmen have been in the fashion experts recently incorporate most of the new lines, carefully retained to give a new and more who cannot afford to release his wallet in a panic.

Nevertheless, the changes are marked. The changes are marked. The changes are marked.

On the other hand, there are the new and old. The new and old. The new and old.

English lessons

THE great English scholar is however Mrs. Kaneko, who has been devoting all her spare time to teaching English. She is taking lessons at the property of Nairobi's leading grammar school. A vivacious little woman, with the characteristic features of her country, Mrs. Kaneko has very many people and has a rare facility for presenting English lessons. She was born in Kobe, in Western Japan, and accompanied her father to Thailand at the age of 11. She returned to Japan to finish her education at the Kyoto Girls' High after spending 10 years in Thailand. One of her first occupations in London was as a typewriter operator, which led to an educational subject in Hindi, and it was facilitated by the special set of tools she used.

His crops
WHEN Samuel arrived from the Makusho home, one mile away, only grass grew on his virgin Shimba hill farm. Today there are two acres of profitable cottons for export and various types of cereals, over an acre of drought and locust-resistant castor, half an acre of sugarcane and sweet potatoes in regular to temporary rotation. The banana crops, infant oranges, mango and citrus trees are doing well. There are also a few chickens, a couple of goats and a cow. The Kamba pioneer has been able to supply from Shimba his needs for food and shelter, supplemented with the use of his crop stores.

Samuel Masoko's early life was spent in the Makusho district, where he worked as a soldier, tire driver, and adventurer. The prospects
WHAT are the prospects of the Kamba pioneer in the Shimba hills? The answer is that there are many opportunities for the Kamba pioneer in the Shimba hills. He can grow crops, raise animals, and engage in trade.

Lord Milverton's motion was supported by Lord Milverton, who initiated a lively debate on whether to accept or reject the offer. The House of Lords was divided on the issue, with Lord Milverton's motion being defeated. The Government's reply to the motion was that the offer was a "delicate and delicate" one, and that it was not to be taken as a "deliberate attempt to bring about a change in the Government's terms of offer."

NEW ITALIAN FILM BRINGS ANCIENT HISTORY TO LIFE

WHENEVER I see or hear of an historical film I always leap for the encyclopedia, either to check the story or, my history being what it is, to assure myself that such events did take place and that such people did exist. I did it with Moby And I and with Hera Christa And I, to mention only two recent ones. And now I have done it with Theodora, Slave Empress, the last film released by the new Film Institutions set up in the Italian Cinema Bureau.

True story

THEODORA, the empress of Byzantium, is the central figure of the film which has been made in the most realistic manner. She was the empress and she was the empress. In the Roman Empire in 528, the empress Theodora, who was the empress of Byzantium, is the central figure of the film which has been made in the most realistic manner.

The story of this remarkable Italian color film is that of an interesting episode that is in the annals of the Middle Ages. The empress Theodora, who was the empress of Byzantium, is the central figure of the film which has been made in the most realistic manner.

Of it the critics have said outstandingly original offering of Roman splendour and of the empress Theodora, who was the empress of Byzantium, is the central figure of the film which has been made in the most realistic manner.
