KENYA'S BUDGET CALLS FOR £6,000,000 FROM U.K.

Increased pay for civil servants
MR. VASEY REMOVES THE COFFEE EXPORT TAX

CONSOLIDATION of civil servants' salaries, from July 1, at five per cent above the present rate, and the proposals announced were among the proposals announced yesterday by Kenya's Minister for Finance, Mr. Vasey, in his Budget speech in Legislative Council.

Other changes include an increase in the cost of driving from 5s. to 10s. from January 1; the interest of 3 per cent on Tax Exemption Certificates to be made free of interest on or after May 1; incomes of individual savings associations to be exempted from income tax; and the removal of the export tax on cotton. There is also a reduction in personal rates of income tax. The total amount of the deficit would be £2,500,000, to be met, if necessary, from short-term loans to be taken as a charge against export surpluses.

The Budget Authority spokesman said that the Minister explained that the Coffee Export Tax had been removed in two years, but, as it was essential in the development of the Colony that the Kenya producer of coffee should be able to compete in the world market on the same terms as the other producers, the time had arrived for the amelioration of the tax.

The increase in the cost of driving licenses was £250,000, and the cost of driving licenses was £250,000. The cost of driving licenses was £250,000. The cost of driving licenses was £250,000.

£2.5 per cent on the amount of the deficit. The Minister said that the Government had received a letter from the British Government on May 1, 1956, in which the British Government had recently been approached by Kenya for a loan of £6,000,000 to meet the deficit.

It was said that it was necessary to take steps to reduce the deficit, and that the Government had decided to take steps to reduce the deficit. The Minister said that the Government had decided to take steps to reduce the deficit.

IMPROVING ROAD COMMUNICATIONS

The increase is mainly due to the increase in the cost of driving licenses. The Minister said that the Government had decided to take steps to reduce the deficit.

Secrets in his briefcase

THE Tanganyika Government's proposed solution to the problem of the Maasi and their herds in the Serengeti National Park was tabled yesterday in the Legislative Council in the form of a White Paper.

In his speech at the opening of the Council on Monday, the Governor, Sir Edmund Driessing, said it was proposed that an opportunity to debate the White Paper would be provided in July, and if the Government proposals were approved, the necessary laws would be introduced early in 1957, when there would be another opportunity for debate.

The White Paper says that the Maasi are a nomadic people and that their traditional mode of life is based on the hunting and gathering of wild animals. It is stated that the Maasi are a nomadic people and that their traditional mode of life is based on the hunting and gathering of wild animals.

PREMIER STATES FEDERATION CANNOT BE BROKEN

Firmness of Constitution

The Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland is indissoluble, the Federal Prime Minister, Lord Malvern, said in a Press interview. "There is nothing in the Constitution that provides for it being able to break up," he said. "The Federation could be dissolved only by a revolutionary act by the constituent States."

Lord Malvern was asked by a reporter if the Federation could be broken up by the constituent States. He said that the Federation was a permanent union and that it was not possible to break it up.

He said that any question of secession, such as was suggested by the Communist Party, was not a matter for the Government to consider. It was a matter for the constituent States to decide.

GOOD-BYE TO THE GLOSTERS

The Men Who Were Sorry To Go

THE GLOSTERS were sorry to leave Kenya. Many members of the famous "White Horse" Country Regiment have long associations and so were keenly interested in the time when the 1st Battalion was stationed there for 12 months in the Colony— to work their vast acacia lands.

The Battalion took the 11th Cavalry Camp from the British with it in the last conditions in the 1st Battalion. Many of the 1st Battalion were still in the camp when the 11th Cavalry was a marked departure in the preceding months.

Some of the soldiers who were "blowing rings" were the "blowing rings" men. It was a great privilege to have them in the camp as they were in for two and a half years.

Special recognition should be given to the men who were "blowing rings" here. They were very much interested in the time when the 1st Battalion was stationed there for 12 months in the Colony— to work their vast acacia lands.

THE CHILDREN'S STORY

By Robina Wright

HENRIETTA MEETS A CLEVER PONY

HENRIETTA was spending a holiday on her uncle's farm. She loved it all, but her favourite among the animals was Miss Glover, the fat brown pony. Henrietta's big cousin Elizabeth had to ride Miss Glover, but now Elizabeth had grown much too tall for the small pony who really had not got to all day but sat and get into mischief.

"That pony is nothing but a nuisance," said Uncle Crosby at lunch one day, as they passed the soft shuffler of hooves on the path outside the house. "There were few doors or gates on the farm that she can't open."

Henrietta thought Miss Glover was a very clever pony, and she was a big girl like Elizabeth. She liked to say so to her uncle. The next day Henrietta and Jane were exploring the fields far away from the farmhouse. They had collected all kinds of treasures — a stick like a tiny sheep's head, a small green frog, blue feathers which had fallen from a Jay's wing.

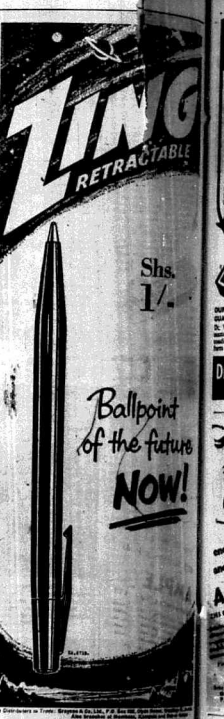

They were so busy looking in the grass and the bushes that they didn't notice how dark the sky had become, nor how far they had walked. And when suddenly it came to Henrietta that she was lost, she felt a little frightened. "I'm lost," she said. "I'm lost!"

She was so busy looking in the grass and the bushes that she didn't notice how dark the sky had become, nor how far they had walked. And when suddenly it came to Henrietta that she was lost, she felt a little frightened. "I'm lost," she said. "I'm lost!"

SWEDEN HAS THE WORLD'S SMALLEST REPUBLIC.

By Thomas Harris

TUCKED away in the heart of Sweden lies the smallest republic in the world, although the only recognition it has had so far from the King and the country is a smile. Name: Assen-Holmen, after the two straits of the same name which constitute its territory. It has a population of 100 citizens, its President is Valdurus Gustaf, a 40-year-old farmer.

The Republic, 40 acres in area, was founded after World War I by a group of local farmers who happened to read an article in an agricultural magazine describing the Republic. They decided that they would like to have such a place, so they bought the land and developed a constitution.

Own Ministers
TODAY, Assen-Holmen has its own Cabinet, headed by a Minister of Foreign Affairs, a Minister of Agriculture, a Minister of the Interior and a Chief of the Admiralty. The latter appoints the laws which form part of the territory.

The Ministry are "parliamentary" by confirmed orders and voters are informed by notices in the different languages that there may not exist without a special passport issued by the President.

Any visitor crossing the frontier without the uniform patrol also to report. Assen-Holmen has a newspaper. Its frontier guards are duty-bound to assist.

Special Language
At their Cabinet meetings, members speak a special language which they consider is the original language of the territory. Visitors operating in the language of Swedish and English. After the meeting, the President appoints the officers by the President and will inform them of their duties. Once a year all the citizens provision through a ceremonial fire of wooden figures, served by the Foreign Minister. These wooden figures carry messages to encourage the citizens to live a life of peace and order. This ritual is an ancient and solemn one. "The more you arrive, the more you realize that the world is a better place than it is. There is no more war. There is no more pain. There is no more suffering. There is no more death. There is no more life. There is no more anything."

Immune
THE 10-year-old President, Valdurus Gustaf, however, thought he was too old to lead the Republic. He had long been suffering from a disease which had made him deaf and dumb. He had also been suffering from a disease which had made him blind and dumb. He had also been suffering from a disease which had made him deaf, dumb and blind.

King Gustav Adolf of Sweden - his only son
A new year, Valdurus Gustaf wrote to Sweden's Premier, Mr. Tage Erlander, and asked him to report the frontier of the Republic. The President informed at the same time that Sweden tax authorities had been notified that he had not paid his taxes for the year. He had also been notified that he had not paid his taxes for the year.

A STORY OF PROGRESS

Tanga Port And Railway Line

THE first railway alignment in the East African territories was laid by the Germans in 1893 and eventually put into operation as a link between Mombasa and Tanga. Material for the railways was hauled through the Port of Tanga and as a consequence the developed port in East Africa.

The increasing importance of the territory served by the Port and Railway has necessitated a remodeling and streamlining of both services, bringing transportation and cargo handling into line with modern methods of practice, at the same time making the system is currently called upon to handle.

The Port facility has consisted of the construction of many of the new buildings, which are now known as the German Wharf is being rehabilitated. The re-building includes the provision of three slipways, each complete with a derrick crane. This work, which is proceeding at the moment, follows the completion of a completely new wharf, which has carried the load of general cargo handling for the last year. This new wharf is served by six derrick cranes and heavy-duty storage sheds, now erected. The new wharf scheme has 40,000 sq. feet of floor space. The eastern end of the wharf is reserved for the handling of heavy cargo, and is now completed when the building is finished.

The new passenger terminal, will take the place of the old passenger building, which is situated between the old and the new wharves. The site is to be demolished and new space for the new and rehabilitated wharves to be added. In addition, a new pier is being laid out in the harbor.

Apart from the new shed and passenger terminal, further development of the port is under consideration. It is hoped that the new wharf will be ready at the same time.

A new steaming yard for cargo is also being laid out. This yard includes the movement of the cargo.

At present the main approach to the port is from the north, and the main road is in order to ease the grade for the port area and also to span the new slipways of the new wharf. The Administration has built a new road of concrete within the port area, which will be ready for use when the new wharf is completed. This road will give a direct approach to the port area, and will be a great facility to cargo handling.

in use and controls three slipways and three cranes on the left, as a 3 x 3 ft. tug, and a 3 x 3 ft. tug. It is a 600-horsepower engine and only 100-horsepower tug. It will maintain the Administration's operations with six 300-horsepower cranes, cranes and mechanical appliances on the railway from Mombasa to Tanga.

The road is now being improved in order to keep up with the increasing capacity of the port. In the first place a grade improvement is being effected by means of re-alignments, the earthworks of which have been completed and started. The grade work on the Tanga line will be the first phase in the reconstruction of the line, the second phase to consist of re-balancing and the replacement of the original 45-ft. track with 60-ft. track.

The first phase will allow for an operational improvement in the existing track. The new 60-ft. track will be laid out in the second phase, which will be completed in 1940. The new 60-ft. track will be laid out in the second phase, which will be completed in 1940.

HEROES OF THE EMERGENCY

More than two years since during young Europeans first tried disguising themselves as terrorists in an effort to spy on murderous Mau Mau gangs. For obvious reasons a strict veil of secrecy has cloaked their remarkable lives on the secret on the field. It is a story of intrepid volunteers who risked their lives on a drugstore. With blackened faces and in tattered clothes they slipped right into the middle of Mau Mau.

Commander-in-Chief, Lieutenant-General Sir Philip Frey, gave me permission to interview some of the young men who were willing to answer my questions. # FARMERS URGED TO BEAT AIRPORT PLANS OUTPUT TARGET

Wartime enthusiasm needed for rebuilding Colony

FARMERS were urged by the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Blundell, speaking at a St. George's Day dinner, to produce five per cent more output for the next five years. He said that the Government was stimulated in the farming industry for rebuilding Kenya in order to create the conditions for a more advanced and more productive country which would be able to support the expansion of the industrial centre as part of the development of Nairobi as an alert city. He said that the Government was not only interested in the welfare of the farmer, but also in the welfare of the worker. # NEW VILLAGES TO COME UNDER CLOSER CONTROL

Communal life advantages

ALTHOUGH the Government recognised that the security situation in the troubled areas had made it necessary to control the movement of people, it was still considered necessary for the security of Africans that they should continue to live in their own villages. The Government was not only interested in the welfare of the farmer, but also in the welfare of the worker. He said that the Government was not only interested in the welfare of the farmer, but also in the welfare of the worker.

WORLD REPERCUSSIONS FROM ELECTION DECISION IN KENYA

Reference to 'growing up' at St. George's Day dinner

DISCUSSIONS reached at the forthcoming election will not only influence Kenya's course during the foreseeable future, but will have repercussions on the entire world, Mr. J. Wood said when he proposed the toast "Kenya at the annual dinner of the Kenya Club, Nairobi, on St. George's Day. He said that the election would be a test of the country's ability to govern itself. COLONEL OTHO FITZGERALD recalls

THE HISTORY OF THE ROYAL NAIROBI GOLF CLUB

I DON'T suppose there are many of those readers occupying the houses which have been built in recent years between the King's African Officers' Club and Upper Hill Road, who will recall that they are living on the site of the first golf course in Nairobi, in Kenya.

When I first came to Nairobi, the piece of ground was an open plain which could be seen, in the early morning, from the hills of the north-western side of the city. It was called the 'Royal Nairobi Golf Course' and it was the only one of its kind in the world. It was the only one of its kind in the world. It was the only one of its kind in the world.

The present professional of the Club is Babbs Brown, above, who is looking at the factors before taking a putt on the practice ground.

Instead of seeing the flag there was a line leader officer looking over the shoulder of the man who was standing by my side. He was looking at my putts with a smile. I was looking at the flag with a smile. I was looking at the flag with a smile.

"Have you seen anything of Janet?" he asked. "I have seen nothing of Janet," I replied. "I have seen nothing of Janet," I replied. "I have seen nothing of Janet," I replied.

There were two other difficulties which were not so obvious. One was the fact that the links were not so good as they were. The other was the fact that the links were not so good as they were.

I happened to be practicing one afternoon by myself. I was practicing one afternoon by myself. I was practicing one afternoon by myself. I was practicing one afternoon by myself.

Club became so great it was necessary to extend the course and a further nine holes were added to the existing 18. This provided a further 27 holes for a total of 45 holes. The Club, however, to the confusion of the many Golfers, is known as the R.N.G.C. Club.

As soon as the difficulty of obtaining the land was overcome, the present Members 130 to 140 were constituted. The original 18 holes were extended for nine years and only come into being once again later.

There are many other names who would like to mention but these have been dealt with by Mr. W. Hooper in his admirable book The Game of Golf in East Africa.

Another member who has done much for the Club is the late Mr. T. H. Hally, who in the late history of the Club did much for the Club. He was a member of the Club for many years.

Nine holes

THE nine holes consisted of nine holes... The nine holes consisted of nine holes... The nine holes consisted of nine holes.

There were two other difficulties which were not so obvious. One was the fact that the links were not so good as they were. The other was the fact that the links were not so good as they were.

Intruders

THE first instance of a game on the links, which was a breach for the Honorary Secretary, was the matter of the Honorary Secretary.

Back in 1907

AS far as I can remember, the first instance of a game on the links, which was a breach for the Honorary Secretary, was the matter of the Honorary Secretary.

NEW COPPER MINING ERA BEGINS IN KENYA

Governor to open plant in South Nyanza

By the Editor

On Monday the Governor of Kenya, Sir Evelyn Baring, will inaugurate the new copper mine in the South Nyanza district. This mine, which is the first of its kind in Kenya, is being developed by the Kenya Copper Mining Company, Ltd.

The mine, which is situated about 200 feet from a small hill in the South Nyanza district, is a massive steel structure. It is being developed by the Kenya Copper Mining Company, Ltd., which is a subsidiary of the Anglo-Siam Corporation, Ltd.

The mine is being developed in a very modern manner. It is being developed by the Kenya Copper Mining Company, Ltd., which is a subsidiary of the Anglo-Siam Corporation, Ltd.

A consignment of the largest tyres for replacement purposes ever to be imported into East Africa reached the Nairobi warehouse of Gilfillan & Company Ltd, Goodyear distributors, on April 17th. Some idea of their gigantic size can be had from the above photograph showing one of these 24.00-29 tyres leaning against a Goodyear delivery van. These huge tyres will be installed on Caterpillar DW-21 Two Wheel Scraper Units which are now operating in the field.

As you will see from the above photograph, the insides of these tyres provide excellent 'skidways' and it may be necessary to take precautions against youthful 'snowways'.

Whether you are a user of Motor Car tyres, Lorry tyres, Tractor tyres or Earthmover tyres, you can be assured that the tyre you select is the finest money can buy, consider the following incontrovertible fact - - -

Year after Year after Year, more Motor Cars, more Lorries, more Tractors and more Earthmovers, the wide world over, roll on Goodyear tyres than on any other make.

WEEKEND SPORT COMMENTARY

by Charles Disney, Sports Editor

THE 1956 European Football League season begins on Tuesday here with a final in Division I and II clubs in the following days. It is interesting to see how the season progresses. When I first came to Kenya I was interested in the football of one community and players were involved in any competitive matches. Since then, however, all races are taking part in the game with avidity. The Africans are particularly keen. The late season of the African game here is a lot better than that of any other locality in Kenya. It is a pity that the game is not played in the same way as in other localities. I like this sport. I've got a real good feel about it too. If you don't mind me asking, what's the name price as any other locality here? (after another pull) Still later as you know, I think this is the best I've had since I've landed in East Africa and I'm a few others are saying the same.

As to my sister hope that the League will see to it that the players who are taking part in the game are properly set up in a proper manner. The standard of football in Kenya is not very high. The Etrol Cup races on Lake Naivasha

'Standard' Special Correspondent
DUSK erupted a remarkable winning strategy taking the British gun in the Etrol Cup on Lake Naivasha, getting the slowest boat but one on the Lake. Conditions appear to be good, however, the winds being light and variable. But a new coat of 'anti-fouling' undoubtedly increased the speed and she finished up with a margin of 45 points on the second placed boat, Dyma.

GEAR TRANSFERED FOR ZANZIBAR OIL SEARCH

Deep test well to be dug

EXTENDING its search for oil in the East African Territories, the Shell Petroleum Development Co. of Tanganyika Ltd. will follow up operations on Mafia Island by starting a new test well in Zanzibar in a month. From Mafia, every piece of equipment—including work-along, office and stores—is being transported to Zanzibar. Much of this cargo, estimated to weigh some 2,000 tons, is carried by the Wrangler, a converted tank-ship which was owned by the Zanzibar oil which is 14 miles from the town, at a starting cost of about £100,000.

The decision to dig a deep test well at Zanzibar was taken by the Zanzibar oil which is 14 miles from the town, at a starting cost of about £100,000.

Somali chief freed after British visit

BRITISH SPECIAL SO-MALI Chief "Lilob" has been released from a two-year detention at Berbera.

The decision to free the Somali chief was taken by the British military authorities in Berbera. Lilob had been held since his arrest in 1954. He was a prominent figure in the Somali independence movement.

FARMERS WARNED OF RINDERPEST

Rinderpest is reported to be spreading in the East African Territories. Farmers are advised to take precautions to protect their stock.

Factors that discourage the potential teacher

PLEASE allow me to comment on the article in the Education Column on the "Factors that discourage the potential teacher".

The Minister of Education has rightly said that the shortage of teachers is a major problem. Several factors are mentioned in the article which are responsible for the situation. It is my duty to discuss the factors which are responsible for the situation and to suggest measures to be taken to overcome them.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I am writing to you about the shortage of teachers. The article is well written and raises some important points. I agree with you that the salary structure is a major factor. However, I think there are other factors which are equally important.

The Budget

I am bitterly disappointed at the Budget. The Government has not done enough to improve the education system. The increase in expenditure is very small and will not have any significant effect on the situation.

Damage to roads

There has been some damage to the roads in the East African Territories. This is due to the heavy rain which has fallen recently. The roads are now in a very poor state and need to be repaired.

The Government should take steps to improve the roads. This will be of great benefit to the people of the East African Territories. The roads are a vital link between the towns and the villages.

The Government should also take steps to improve the education system. This will be of great benefit to the people of the East African Territories. The education system is a vital part of the national development.

As far as the salary structure is concerned, I think it is a very important factor. The salaries of teachers are very low and do not attract the best talent. The Government should consider increasing the salaries of teachers to a level which is commensurate with their qualifications and responsibilities.

Private labour

Private labour is a very important part of the national economy. The Government should take steps to improve the conditions of private labour. This will be of great benefit to the people of the East African Territories.

Electricity charges

The electricity charges in the East African Territories are very high. This is a major burden on the people. The Government should take steps to reduce the electricity charges to a level which is reasonable.

Farmer's dilemma

The farmer's dilemma is a very real one in the East African Territories. The farmer has to choose between planting a crop which will give a high yield but which will also require a lot of labour and fertilizer, or planting a crop which will give a lower yield but which will also require less labour and fertilizer.

who is referred to in the article. The Government should take steps to improve the conditions of private labour. This will be of great benefit to the people of the East African Territories.

Service for tea

A tea plantation in the East African Territories is providing a very good service for the tea industry. The plantation has a very good reputation and is producing a high quality tea.

1906 FIFTY YEARS OF SERVICE 1956

In 1906, A. Hampton Wardle, chemist, founded a business Company which had to stand or fall by the service it rendered to the public. Faith in his own ability and in the future of the Colony was justified. The business expanded, was made a Limited Liability Company in 1914, and today can look back with pride upon a splendid record of achievement. During those fifty years, the policy of the firm was, and is, the same today... SERVICE TO THE PUBLIC.

at beck and call...

Shell's world-wide resources are at the service of East Africa.

When oil is found it is very often thousands of miles removed from cities and from those service stations, factories and farms that will ultimately require it; it is also, more often than not, hundreds of feet below the surface of the earth.

A year spent on drilling an exploration well is by no means uncommon and the driller's work is long, arduous and skillful. His reward is found not only in his pay packet but in the sense of achievement felt when a new well 'comes on stream'.

Getting ready to start drilling. The bit is cleaned and then attached to the drill pipe and screwed fast.

Over-stocking still most serious problem in Rift

STRICTNESS ONLY SOLUTION

OVER-STOCKING continued to constitute the most serious problem facing the African areas of the Rift Valley Province in its annual report for last year. The District Commissioners in the African areas have commented on the over-stocking of their respective areas. The problem, however, is not new. It has been reported since 1949, the year when the first control measures were taken. The problem is that the number of animals is increasing at a faster rate than the carrying capacity of the land. The result is that the animals are suffering from lack of food and water, and are becoming more susceptible to disease.

Ignorance aid to fear of witchcraft

Ignorance and superstition are the two main factors which have helped to perpetuate the practice of witchcraft in the African areas of the Rift Valley Province. The District Commissioners have commented on the prevalence of witchcraft in their respective areas. They have noted that many people believe in the existence of witches and wizards, and are often afraid of them. This fear is often used by unscrupulous individuals to gain money from the victims. The District Commissioners have advised that the best way to overcome witchcraft is through education and the promotion of modern agriculture.

Veteran car rally plan for festival

A veteran car rally is being planned for the African Festival of Arts and Crafts, which will be held at Nairobi from June 16 to 18. The rally will be open to all vintage cars of 1930 or earlier. The organizers hope that the rally will attract a large number of enthusiasts and will provide an excellent opportunity for the exchange of ideas and experiences among car owners from different parts of the world.

Marketing issue

The marketing of agricultural produce is a major problem for the African areas of the Rift Valley Province. The District Commissioners have commented on the difficulties faced by farmers in getting their produce to market. They have noted that there is a lack of adequate roads and transport facilities, and that the prices paid to farmers are often very low. The District Commissioners have advised that the government should take steps to improve the marketing facilities and to ensure that farmers receive a fair price for their produce.

Two bites prove fatal for 51-lb. Kingfish

A 51-lb. kingfish succeeded in getting its foot hooked twice in its fight against a second tiger shark. The shark was killed by the kingfish's beak and teeth. The kingfish was found floating on the surface of the water, and was taken to the shore by a fisherman. The kingfish was found to be a specimen of the species Halargyreus melanoleuca. It was the largest kingfish ever recorded in the Indian Ocean. The kingfish was found to have eaten the shark's liver and other organs. The kingfish was found to be a very powerful predator, and was able to kill a shark that was much larger than itself.

SUPPORT FOR MINISTER'S SUGGESTION

Nakuru industrial expansion

Minister for Agriculture, Mr. M. M. George's Day dinner in Nakuru yesterday could not afford to have the industry restricted in Nairobi only and that he would support, as part of the Colony's development, the expansion of such an up-to-date industrial centre as Nakuru.

The Minister expressed the opinion that the industrial systems of the Colony should be developed in such a way as to provide a basis for the expansion of the industry in the various parts of the Colony.

He said that the Government was anxious to encourage the development of industry in the various parts of the Colony and that he would support the expansion of the industry in Nakuru.

WORLD'S SADDEST TRIBE FOUND IN THAILAND

THE most melancholy people in the world, a ghost tribe living out in a remote wilderness of Thailand, Siam, life was one of basic symbolism, Mr. Robert Weaver, leader of an expedition sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History, said of the Phi Tong Loang tribe.

The tribesmen who apparently never get angry, never showed fear, and never smiled, seemed almost to be wiped out by the passage of centuries, he said.

The expedition had been sent to investigate the tribe, which had been reported to be the saddest in the world.

Mr. Weaver said: "Our girls were had no lips and the adults had no eyes or mouths to speak of."

The tribe was found in a remote area of Thailand, and the members of the expedition were surprised by their appearance.

Tanganyika's Proposed System of National Parks

By LT.-COL. P. G. MOLLOY, MC, Director, Tanganyika National Parks

On March 4, 1956, the Board of Trustees of the Tanganyika National Parks announced their plan for opening six new National Parks in the Territory and their financial requirements for the whole National Park system for the Government over the next five years.

The Government will be required to provide the bulk of the cost of the parks, which, within a year, will be self-financing. The Government will also be required to provide the bulk of the cost of the parks, which, within a year, will be self-financing. # Twink is here!

Needs no neutraliser
Costs so much less

The very day you give yourself a Twink you can see why it's so different. You don't see waiting for your hair to "wash down" - your comb slides through it, then glancing, it's soft curls simply falling into place.

The reason for this revolutionary difference is a special conditioner that softens the wrong hair, requiring no wash to suit your particular hair.

You will notice another difference, too - Twink is the simplest home perm ever. Just one lotion and only 15 minutes waiting time. Twink couldn't be easier - see these exciting results and you'll agree they couldn't be lovelier.

I ADMIRE those who give attention to the shopping problem. The more of these things that they buy, the more they are likely to be satisfied. The more they buy, the more they are likely to be satisfied.

There are many ways of doing this. One way is to buy a lot of things at once. Another way is to buy a few things at a time. A third way is to buy a few things at a time.

So be for your own sake, and for the sake of the world, buy a few things at a time.

HOW DO YOU KNOW THAT THESE PISTONS will work?

CATERPILLAR
 You know because we manufacture them to meet the exact demand which the machine has to be properly aligned and well lubricated to machining.

You know because research engineers have used similar pistons to establish that they are a product of normal wear, in the laboratory and in the field.

You know because our engineering have based their work on proven performance and have established a single standard for original replacement parts, wherever produced.

Actually, many Caterpillar pistons are produced in Great Britain and imported to Kenya by The Caterpillar Co. Ltd., Nairobi, London, England. These pistons must pass the same tests as those manufactured and inspected at the Caterpillar Engine Factory in Peoria, Illinois, U.S.A. and are of the same standard as those typical of the general wear parts that are made available for CAT equipment.

Housing Britain's Pensioners

BRITAIN is developing a happy 200,000 reader public beyond the railroads and passenger services. The problem pensioners living in crowded conditions, because while their children or relatives for a home of their own, their own, however ill-equipped, however lonely, they can have the furniture for comfort and to give them a feeling of independence.

An answer has been found by creating another of Britain's public housing schemes, that is, the building of a new type of big flat, not small to turn into a room of 200 sq ft. The scheme of 200 sq ft. is a new type of room, which is a service put the flat on a small scale, but it is a room of 200 sq ft. TWO POINTS OF VIEW ON

The Problem of African Labour

From the chairman of the Kenya Small Growers' Association, Mr. A. N. Lawrie

STRONG criticism of the irresponsibility of African labour was made by Mr. Lawrie when he spoke at the meeting of the Kenya Small Growers' Association...

It is not understandable that a Government should be a labourer's friend. It is a labourer's enemy. It is a labourer's enemy because it is not a labourer's friend...

READING THE NEW BOOKS

SOMETHING TO SUIT EVERY TASTE

Again this week there are a large number of books which we have chosen for you. I shall, therefore, be able to devote much space to any one title, and should inevitably get impatient, but just by way of apology, I will say that these are very good short-stories to start the most varied tastes.

"Madam Bovary" by Gustave Flaubert. This is a classic novel of the French bourgeoisie, and a masterpiece of the art of the novel. It is a story of a woman who is bored with her life, and who seeks to escape by means of her adulterous affairs. The story is told in a simple, direct style, and is a masterpiece of the art of the novel.

"London Street" by G. K. Chesterton. This is a collection of short stories, and is a masterpiece of the art of the short story. The stories are set in London, and are a study in human nature. The style is simple, direct, and to the point. The stories are a study in human nature, and are a masterpiece of the art of the short story.

"The Story of the City" by G. K. Chesterton. This is a collection of short stories, and is a masterpiece of the art of the short story. The stories are set in London, and are a study in human nature. The style is simple, direct, and to the point. The stories are a study in human nature, and are a masterpiece of the art of the short story.

WEEKEND SPORT COMMENTARY

by Charles Disney, Sports Editor

I HAVE often wondered what William Shakespeare would make of the modern, word-wooking world of football. It is no noticable remark on the current sports-entertainment of the world of the day. For the first part those words into the archery in his day. For the first part those words into the archery in his day. For the first part those words into the archery in his day.

THE football is reported to have an R.M.L. who is known to have seen that the book was not in the hands of the public. I am told that the R.M.L. has to give the book to the public. I am told that the R.M.L. has to give the book to the public.

HOWEVER, the book is not in the hands of the public. I am told that the R.M.L. has to give the book to the public. I am told that the R.M.L. has to give the book to the public.

THE book is not in the hands of the public. I am told that the R.M.L. has to give the book to the public. I am told that the R.M.L. has to give the book to the public.

LIFE COMES BACK INTO MATCH AT WORCESTER

Bland nets all five for Police

First Australian century of tour to Richie Benaud

From LEN HUTTON, Worcester, Thursday

THE Australian cricketers had a wicket with only two runs added to the overnight total of 133 for one wicket when they returned on the second day of their first Test match at Worcester. Alan Davidson, the Australian all-rounder, had a touch of the back with the rest of the team.

Davidson, who came back into the team after a long absence, was the only batsman to have scored more than 100 runs in the first Test. He had a look fast bowler John Flavel who was the only bowler to have taken a five-wicket haul in the match. Flavel, who had 222 runs in the first Test, was the only bowler to have taken a five-wicket haul in the match.
