As a stenographer she has had the opportunity of learning something of most aspects of the oil industry and though details and draw-works, vacuumations and ocean ratings mean little to her, she is beginning to appreciate the vital part that oil plays in this machine age. There is the belief, throughout the whole of the BP organization a feeling that each of its members is playing a necessary part in a complicated pattern ranging over desert, jungle, sea, city and countryside. Reducing evaporation to save reservoir water

EXPERIMENTS ALMOST OVER

EXPERIMENTS by experts of the East Africa Meteorological Department into reducing water evaporation from reservoirs have shown that a substantial savings of water from the Department's Director, Mr. J. H. Beazley, who describes the experiments as "promising".

By spreading a substance resembling soap flakes on a reservoir at intervals of one to one-and-a-half days, the experts cut evaporation from a reservoir at an estimated 40 per cent. The Meteorological Department has estimated that this would mean a savings of 100 million gallons of water a year in the case of most reservoirs. In the case of most reservoirs, as much water is lost by evaporation as is used by the reservoir.

The Department estimates that the loss by evaporation during the dry season is as much as 100 million gallons a year. This is a loss of 100 million gallons a year. This is a loss of 100 million gallons a year.

So the Department set out to try to find an economic method of reducing evaporation from the heads of people in East Africa. It decided to use a chemical that has been successfully used by the American Chemical and Industrial Chemicals Company. This chemical is called "Sodium Chloride".

The substance which contains most of the water is sodium chloride. It is a white crystalline solid. It is a white crystalline solid. It is a white crystalline solid.

The technique was found to be more effective than painting. In cold weather it was found that the evaporation rate could be reduced by up to 40 per cent. In hot weather it was found that the evaporation rate could be reduced by up to 40 per cent.

East Africa's expanding Industries—TEA

As tea production increases so does the call of the growers and exporters on the transport services. In 1955 East African Railways moved 3,126 tons; in 1955 the total was 14,000 tons. The railways are also playing a big part in the development of the industry, for much of the increased production forecast for the future is likely to come from the fertile areas opened up by the Railways' Western Uganda Extension. And the exports will, of course, be handled by the Harbours Administration at the ports, where constant development is going on to handle East Africa's ever increasing exports more economically and more speedily.

and I know, sir, because my uncle's a teacher too. He says that with fewer teachers, larger classes and fewer books he finds the Bando essential in his school. There's no end to what it can do and its running costs are low. And he says it makes possible a return to the "personal touch" which is essential if education is to improve... Uncle told me, sir, that Bando gives him greater scope to express his ideas to his pupils and to expand on his lessons. You know, sir, even I remember things better... and they're clearer—if they're in colour and the Bando can print in seven colours at one operation... why don't you go and see one, sir, there's no obligation... and we really do need a Bando in our school. By the way, sir, uncle's girl-friend said they've got one in her office and her boss said it helped their sales to go up, and that isn't the only way in which it earns its keep.

COLOUR, GAIETY, AND A RADIANT PRINCESS

ON ZANZIBAR ISLAND

The most colorful event of the whole afternoon was the display of Indian dances on the square grounds in Zanzibar during the Children's Day.

The State Dinner held in the Hallway on Saturday evening, the Princess comes down the stairs to meet the guests.

Here is the Princess of her visit and her husband. Our picture was taken at the Garden Party held in the grounds of the Hallway at Zanzibar on Friday, the day on which she arrived.

At the State dinner held at the Palace of His Highness the Sultan, African women, in high white dresses, give a performance of traditional dancing.

NEW ROLE

Stars Deliberately Flaunt Fashion

BY GWYN ROBYNS

At the time I am talking with June Allyson, film star, she couldn't help thinking: "Well... isn't Paris crazy?" Isn't it silly how women get all fussed-up just because some dress designer says "The Slender Suit is in" or "The Siren Slit is out"?

There is a something in this... I don't know if it is just a passing fancy or if it is something more serious. I don't know if it is just a passing fancy or if it is something more serious.

This School Rose On A Patch Of Waste Ground

BY JEAN VAUGHAN

DURING the last ten years or so, many of Nairobi's schools have moved into new and spacious buildings. One school, however, has been quietly carrying on in the building in which it started its existence more than 30 years ago. It is St. Peter Claver's Catholic Mission in Rekererere Road.

They found a piece of waste ground in the African quarter near the railway and belonging to a white man. After much ado, petition, pleading and saving of heavy pennies, with a year's delay, the school was built on the waste ground. The site was not a good one, but the missionaries, at first an Italian mission, then the Jesuits, then another mission, had an account of the foundation of the school and chapel that they said was a waste ground used for the burial of the Mission's members.

Today, two long single-story buildings, one classroom deep and with each class occupying one of the original strata, and another building, one story deep, form the main body of the intermediate school in the building on which the Jesuits and their workers laboured in 1921.

Later addition

The other, which houses the primary school, is a new building. Between the two school buildings is the original site garden, the playground. The open has long ago spread up to and beyond the school, and includes the buildings across from St. Peter's Old Church in the African quarter. The main church, capable of holding 1,000 worshippers, which was built in 1912. St. Peter Claver's is a large parish, though it has been divided again and again—originally into two and two more parishes. It is the only school in Nairobi that has a main building, with a separate infant school, which is built in 1932. This little infant schoolers have a main building on the same site. The younger next to him has a main building on the same site.

Close connection

There is still a very close connection between the school and the original site. St. Peter Claver's is a Catholic school, and the main building, which is built on the waste ground, is a Catholic school. The main building, which is built on the waste ground, is a Catholic school.

CHURCH IN MEMORY OF VALIANT MEN

By Anthony Laws

THEY'RE building a church in Fort Hall. It was designed by a leader of Kikuyu loyalists. It is being built by Kikuyu loyalists. It will stand as a shrine to the memory of several hundred loyalists who died because they said "yes" when nearly all their neighbours said "no". Side by side with the men of the Kikuyu Guard fought units of the African Forces and the African Police. The ultimate sacrifice made during the bitter months of the Mau Mau insurrection will also be commemorated in the new church.

Simple men

Who were these Mau Mau men? They were simple, brave men. They were simple in their thinking, but they were brave in their actions. They were simple in their desires, but they were brave in their sacrifices. They were simple in their lives, but they were brave in their deaths.

Wife of a hero

Wife of a hero... she was a woman of great courage and strength. She stood by her husband through the darkest of times. She cared for him when he was wounded and in pain. She kept his memory alive in her heart and in her home.

Prize of peace

Prize of peace... it was a reward for the bravery and sacrifice of the Mau Mau fighters. It was a symbol of the government's recognition of their actions. It was a sign of the new era of peace and stability that was being built in Kenya.

...and he was a man of great courage and strength. He stood by his wife through the darkest of times. He cared for her when she was wounded and in pain. He kept her memory alive in his heart and in his home.

...and he was a man of great courage and strength. He stood by his wife through the darkest of times. He cared for her when she was wounded and in pain. He kept her memory alive in his heart and in his home.

Help needed

Help needed... we are looking for more people to help with the construction of the church. We need people who are willing to work hard and who are committed to the cause. We need people who are brave and who are strong.

Princess Will Be 11th Royal Visitor

ALTHOUGH it is less than 60 years since Natal had its birth as an unpretentious railway camp, the thriving Natal Province is preparing for the visit of Princess Margaret, the 11th member of the British Royal Family to make an official visit in its short history. The story of Natal's rise from a remote railway station to a vibrant province is a tale of perseverance and progress.

The earliest efforts to open a railway from Durban to the interior of Natal were undertaken by the Natal Government, which was then a British colony. The railway was completed in 1874, and it was the first of many that would follow, connecting the coast to the interior and opening up vast areas of land for settlement and agriculture.

By the late 19th century, Natal had become a significant part of the British Empire, and its strategic location on the Indian Ocean coast made it a key point of contact with the East. The discovery of diamonds in the Transvaal region further increased its importance, as it became a major center for the mining industry.

Over the years, Natal's infrastructure has improved significantly, and it has become a more developed and integrated part of the South African nation. Today, it is a vibrant and diverse province, known for its beautiful landscapes, rich cultural heritage, and strong sense of community.

The Duke and Duchess of Gloucester have proposed to visit Natal before going on to the Transvaal. The visit will be the first of its kind for the Duke and Duchess, who will be accompanied by their children, Prince and Princess Alexander of Wales. The visit is expected to be a highly successful one, and it will provide an excellent opportunity for the Princess to meet the people of Natal and to see the progress that has been made since the province's founding.

The Duke and Duchess will be accompanied by a large entourage, and they will be staying in Durban during their visit. being developed by private enterprise.

As well as housing for the increasing population, another problem which faces the town planners is the provision of parking spaces. In the central area of the town, the number of cars is increasing rapidly, and it is necessary to provide parking spaces for the increasing number of cars. This is a problem which is being met by the construction of new parking lots, and by the use of existing buildings for parking purposes.

The city of Durban is a major center of industry and commerce in Natal, and it is a city of great importance. It is a city of many industries, and it is a city of many people. It is a city of great beauty, and it is a city of great promise. It is a city that is growing and developing, and it is a city that is full of life and energy.

RADIO? - INDOES a visit to CBV!
CAMPBELL BROS. & VANDERKAL LTD

Hey! Take a look at these FORD International Victories!

Yes - just a look at the column on the right. An impressive list of achievements by any standard, and only as far back as 1935.

Not really. The real significance lies in the fact that every model of Ford is produced in more languages than we'd like to add up. In Britain, on the Continent, in Scandinavia, Australia, South Africa, Central Africa, West Africa and East Africa, the full Ford Range is constantly proving its worth under all conditions. From Anglia to Zodiac.

They all outclass their class!

Buying a new car? Test for yourself the qualities which have covered Ford's success in three and a half continents over the world. See HUGHES LIMITED about a new Ford today.

SPURS are chasing Manchester United for the Division I title, but although they are probable winners and should enjoy the championship, who should not set for it at Sunderland and the return of their stars from international duty. Spurs' manager, Harry Redknapp, said: "I think we are in a good position to win the title. We have a strong defence and a good attack. We are confident that we can win the title." The return of the stars from international duty is a boost for Spurs. They have a strong defence and a good attack. They are confident that they can win the title.

KENYA'S PROSPERITY DEPENDS ON SUCCESS OF FARMING

Message from Minister for Agriculture

It is imperative which agriculture plays in the economy of Kenya is well demonstrated by the decision of the East African Standard to present a supplement dealing with the Royal Show.

It is imperative which agriculture plays in the economy of Kenya is well demonstrated by the decision of the East African Standard to present a supplement dealing with the Royal Show.

FARMERS' NEW AID

Nevertheless, he manages to place most of his produce on the market at a price which compares favourably with that of other countries.

COMPLEX INDUSTRY

The Royal Show brings an all in one package of modern country life to the East African farmer.

Mr. Michael Barnwell, who manages the Agricultural Department, has announced that the Royal Show will be held at the British East Africa Corporation stand.

The showman shows the route to be followed by the Royal procession when Princess Margaret visits the show. She will leave the Embassy at 11.35 A.M.

PROGRAMME FOR PRINCESS MARGARET'S VISIT

When Princess Margaret visits the Royal Show in Kenya, she will be met by the other members of the Royal Family for 25 years to visit the Royal Show in Kenya.

After her inspection, the Princess will take the salute in the park at the end of the show, where she will inspect the new Agricultural and Governmental departments.

Mr. McIndoe will then proceed to the vice-presidents of the show, Mr. J. E. Berry and Mr. J. P. Smith. He will then proceed to the vice-presidents of the show, Mr. J. E. Berry and Mr. J. P. Smith.

Records set up already in the 1956 show

Kenya's 1956 Royal Show will attract more than 100,000 visitors in every way. Entries are greater than ever in many livestock classes, the trade section will be the biggest yet seen at Mitchell Park and the visit of Princess Margaret on Friday practically guarantees record crowds.

Only one thing can stop the show from being a record-breaking success — the weather. However, the weather is held in the hands of God, and the Royal Show is a show that is not dependent on the weather.

With all the progress and improvements, the Royal Show is a show that is not dependent on the weather. It is a show that is not dependent on the weather.

These stands have also packed up and are ready for the next year, several firms having already started to erect.

100 YEARS OF 500 YEARS

The Royal Show gives the opportunity to the East African farmer to see the progress of the world's agriculture in every part of the world.

Mr. Michael Barnwell, who manages the Agricultural Department, has announced that the Royal Show will be held at the British East Africa Corporation stand.

We had a tough little motorcar. A Morris Minor. We had a lot of confidence in her. We had quite a lot of satisfied users in our office, but not as many as the Morris Minor. So we looked around for a tough little car to break. "Morris to Cape Town and back" was the motto. The motorcar didn't, we weren't worried. Off she went and back she came and beat the record handsomely, just as we knew she would. That motorcar that a lot more people know about the Morris and her qualities on African roads. A lot more people bought one and a lot more people have broken records of their own as far as their car is concerned for

PROFILE

Mr. Will Evans A LEADER OF KENYA FARMERS

By Michael Mwanjaga
O will Evans is a familiar figure at Kenya shows. He will be missing from this year's Royal Show but the hundreds of members of the K.N.F.U. stand will almost certainly regret that they are without their old leader.

Will Evans is undoubtedly one of the most distinguished agriculturalists in Kenya. He has been one of the leading forces in the development of the country, and he has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

He first saw Africa in the South African War. Then, after Kenya was declared a crown colony, he came to Kenya to work for the Government. He was in Kenya for a long time before he returned to his native land to take up a position as a lecturer at the University of Nairobi. He has since returned to Kenya to work for the Government.

Crested triumph
But his own efforts have had their own triumph. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

He has always been a great champion of the Kenya Farmers' Union. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

Plans of bluff
He did this in his usual way by talking about it and convincing his audience that it was a really serious matter. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

He has always been a great champion of the Kenya Farmers' Union. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

Dominating personality and maker of ideas

Mr. Evans presided over the K.N.F.U. for many years. He was one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

He has always been a great champion of the Kenya Farmers' Union. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

Individuals helped
How nearly 50, he can look back on a list of achievements at a tragedy. His only son died in the war. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya. He has been one of the most active in the promotion of agriculture in Kenya.

T.A. join guard of honour

Members of the Kenya Agricultural Union joined with a problem when arranging for the guard of honour, and to greet Princess Margaret at the showground on October 18. Queen's Regulations for dress that a guard of honour for Her Majesty must be of at least 100 men and there were not 100 men available.

To solve the problem, the President called on members of the technical section of the showground for the guard, and asked them to give the volunteers the day of in their part.

From an excellent willingness to see in the Princess and a wide and representative outfit of the young men of Kenya, many of whom have helped during the Emergency and are now back in civilian dress.

This trade stand under construction is one of many strikingly attractive stands of the exhibition. Great efforts have been made by the organizers to achieve a high standard of novelty and dignity in the design of the stands.

— Perhaps one of the most beautiful sights in the world, the flight of a bird. The grace, speed, and seemingly effortless motion that pass through the eyes has tried to imitate, and that we cannot even pretend to equal — but in the short last years, since 1946, when East African Airways first started to serve you and this country of ours, we have come a very long way towards bringing to you our ideal of a faster, more comfortable and reliable air service, including air freight facilities that have grown dramatically since those earlier days, to become one of the leading factors in the rapid development and advance of Eastern Africa.

If you are suffering tonight to have a headache — don't suffer it — let us give you a couple of "DISPRINS" to relieve your pain! WHY DISPRIN? BECAUSE IT dissolves, it is more rapidly absorbed into the blood stream — giving relief from pain in the shortest time possible.

DISPRIN is far less acid on the stomach than aspirin because heartburn, dyspepsia, or other symptoms of gastric irritation. DISPRIN is pleasant to take — also safe and easy to give to children.

Both DETOL and DISPRIN, on safety, used in Hospitals, Nursing Homes, etc. and recommended by the Medical Profession generally.

They are low salt-contents products manufactured by BRETTE & COLMAN LIMITED, (Incorporated in England) and distributed in the African Continent by G. A. G. & Co. Ltd., Nairobi, Kenya.

Stars Deliberately Flaunt Fashion

BY GWYN ROBYNS

All the time I was talking with June Allyson, film star, I couldn't help thinking: "Well... isn't Paris crazy?" It is silly how women get all fussed-up just because some dress designer says "The Slasher Suit is in" or "The Siren Slink is out"...

Breaks rules But here was a beguiling star with the fact of a well-worn, well-worn, well-worn slasher suit... There is one, preferably becoming to get a few other styles and stick to it... I remember Greta Garbo, who was wearing a few styles and stick to it... But here was a beguiling star with the fact of a well-worn, well-worn, well-worn slasher suit...

This School Rose on A Patch Of Waste Ground

By JEAN VAUGHAN

DURING the last ten years or so, many of Nairobi's schools have moved into new and spacious buildings. It is noteworthy, however, that in a quiet way a school has been quietly carrying on its activities in which it started its existence more than 20 years ago in 20 years' time in Racecourse Road.

We found a piece of waste ground in the African quarters, near the railway and belonging to the late Mr. J. J. Peter, who died in 1917. After much ado, permission to use the ground was obtained by the late Mr. J. J. Peter, who died in 1917. After much ado, permission to use the ground was obtained by the late Mr. J. J. Peter, who died in 1917.

It included all Catholic children in the area, and was the first school to be established in the area. The first school to be established in the area was the first school to be established in the area.

Close connection

There is still a very close connection between the school and the patch. The school is still in the patch, and the patch is still the school's.

The school was built in 1917, and has since then been a source of pride to the community. It has since then been a source of pride to the community.

Other schools were built in the area, but none were as well equipped as this one. It has since then been a source of pride to the community.

The school is now one of the best in the area, and is a source of pride to the community. It has since then been a source of pride to the community.

CHURCH IN MEMORY OF VALIANT MEN

By Anthony Lewis

THEY'RE building a church in Fort Hall. It is designed by a leader of Kikuyu loyalists. It is being built by Kikuyu loyalists. It will stand as a shrine to the memory of several hundred loyalists who died because they died "when nearly all their neighbours said 'yes'". Side by side with the rest of the Kikuyu Guard fought units of the British Army, the East African Forces and the Kenya Police. The ultimate sacrifice many of these strangers to Kikuyuland made during the bitter months of the Mau Mau insurrection will also be commemorated in the new church.

It is fitting that a lasting memorial should be built to those who died during the Emergency. Few monuments mark the graves of the Kikuyu Guards.

Others were burned to death and buried in secret places where their bodies are still lying frozen in the mountain streams of many of the high mountains of Kenya. Many died when Mau Mau was the dominant force in the country. They died by themselves in the mountains. They refused to help the terrorists when they knew they could expect no help from the forces of law.

What impelled them to make so great a sacrifice? The Mau Mau Government side was inevitable. This was revealed early in the conflict by the Commander-in-Chief, General Sir George Gurnea, when he said: "The Mau Mau will be beaten by the British Government." Many terrorists were killed and captured by the British. Their knowledge of the country, their skill in the use of weapons and their ability to strike a mortal blow were factors which made them so valuable to the Mau Mau Government.

They were Mau Mau, but they were not Mau Mau. They were loyalists. They were British. They were Mau Mau. They were Mau Mau. They were Mau Mau.

TALKING RADIO By Henry Reuter

It appears that in criticizing the balance of Cable and Wireless programmes recently I annoyed some members of the Kenya Wireless public. Some even suggested that my article was written for the purpose of not getting my facts right. In a letter published in the previous column of not getting my facts right I said this week to reiterate my arguments about the balancing of Cable and Wireless programmes, but I still maintain that the Nairobi programme is not balanced. I am sure that the public will agree with me. I am sure that the public will agree with me. I am sure that the public will agree with me.

EPITAPH FOR A MULE

EPIT.—The mule, Shs. 1000, an animal with a shrewish wit and great stamina fitted to be our best friend as much as 15 cubic yards (one cubic meter) of earth per hour over a moderate distance.

But his days were cut short by the machine. Private Motor. Working under the same conditions, it would haul and load 15 cubic yards (1.5 cubic meters) of earth on each day for 100.

We ordered the CAT 257D for this comparison because, like the mule, it can be driven manually from job to job. The horsepower (44) is added to 120 and the top speed, 25.2 mph.

Take all prime movers of its rank, the D7E is proved by a reliable Caterpillar Diesel Engine. See us for full information on these modern, productive prime movers.

AMONG THE NEW BOOKS Legendary Figure In Underwater Naval Warfare

In any year there is an interval at this season in the arrival of new books in the shops and this year it seems to have been excessively prolonged, as doubtless by the Suez Canal crisis. However, on looking round, one can without difficulty find quite a number of interesting books left over from the immediate seasons which are worth the attention of any reader.

A short while ago the author of "Commander Crab" by Marshall Pugh was asked to name the an attempt to "cash in" on the discovery surrounding his disappearance. He stated that the author's posthumous work has already for some time past.

It is a simple straightforward narrative illustrating through personal sketches, the nature of bravery and determination. When his knowledge in action. When Crab went into battle he was in a state of mind that he would fight to the last breath.

His retirement

The retirement from the Navy came in 1925. The author was a fighting man which interested him. He was an expert of authority and had the reputation of an expert in the use of a submersible.

TOWN AND COUNTRY AWAIT THE PRINCESS

One of Nairobi's most picturesque buildings, the Tashari Clubhouse, where Princess Margaret will attend a service.

The Royal Tashari Clubhouse, Nairobi, which Margaret will formally open during her visit to the Kenya coast.

Abricans, Asians and Europeans will welcome the Princess. Here Sabina, the bride of Prince Philip, is in a Luo 'Kilimani' in traditional dress.

Nairobi's history dates back less than 60 years. It had its birth as an operations railway camp on the line being built by the British Government from Mombasa to the interior. As this picture shows, it is a thriving city ready to give the warmest welcome to Princess Margaret. This picture shows the Government Reserve in the foreground.

Col. Mervyn Cowie, Director of the Royal Household Forces of Kenya, who will accompany Princess Margaret round the Southern Kenya.

One of the most pleasant and interesting parts of Princess Margaret's tour should be her visit to Amboseli Game Reserve. This picture shows some of the many elephants for which the Reserve is famed.

Tribal dancing will be another feature of the Royal tour. A typical Kamba dance in action. A feature of the Kamba dances is the acrobatics and gyrations of the dancers.

FOR months gangs of men have been fighting the way through jungle and thick bamboo forest, toping up mountain slopes and erecting towers and derricks to make way for a power-line which will bring electricity from the mountains to Nairobi and several other Kenya towns. Their work will be recognized as a great engineering triumph for many years to come.

In May 1954, British Overseas Airways Corp. Ltd. ordered from the Kenya Power Co. Ltd. a line of 220,000 v., 132,000 v. and 66,000 v. power lines of a total length of about 250 miles.

The towers are being erected by three gangs in charge of 1,200 men and 100 tons of material. The towers are about 120 ft. high and carry equipment and power lines.

Digging foundations
The work on the line is done from the air - the miles ahead there is a straight track and through undergrowth, a large and well-organized force of men and equipment is working on the mountains of Kenya. The work is done by the Kenya Power Co. Ltd. and the British Overseas Airways Corp. Ltd.

At several points along the track it could be said that the work is done by the Kenya Power Co. Ltd. and the British Overseas Airways Corp. Ltd.

After having a bird's-eye view of the tower erection, a local of about 30 miles from the line, the towers are being erected by three gangs in charge of 1,200 men and 100 tons of material.

Time wasted
Mr. M. Roberts, who is in charge of the line, said that he had seen something of the difficulties of the work. He said that he had seen something of the difficulties of the work. He said that he had seen something of the difficulties of the work.

Nine camps
Further along the line a group of Polish engineers, under Mr. James Jankowski, have started work. They were given 200 tons of material and 100 tons of equipment. They are working on the line between Nairobi and Kisumu.

There are four district headquarters in charge of each. All the work is done by the Kenya Power Co. Ltd. and the British Overseas Airways Corp. Ltd.

There are 12 European working on the project with about 1,200 Africans from the States and the Kisumu and Nairobi.

Hey! Take a look at these FORD International Victories!

Yes - just take a look at the column on the right. An impressive list of achievements by your jeep, and only as far back as 1955.

Trumps them all! For really, the real significance lies in the fact that every model of the Ford - De Soto range (Anglia to Zodiac) is featured among the winners.

Ford is placed in more languages than we'd like to add up. In Britain, on the Continent, in Scandinavia, South Africa, Central Africa, West Africa and East Africa, the full Ford Range is constantly proving its worth under all conditions. From Anglia to Zodiac -

They all outclass their class!

Buying a new car? Test for yourself the qualities which have ensured Ford's success in trials and rallies all over the world. See HUGHES LIMITED about a new Ford today.

SPURS are chasing Manchester United for the Division I lead, but although they are at home and should beat Cardiff all right, they should not make any impression on the champions, who seem set for a win at Sunderland.

The return of their star striker, Cliff Johnston, to the first team, written by Archie Purvis, Leeds, in third place, from Birmingham, and this could be a ray of hope for the city.

It is likely that the City will finish in the top three, but it looks a home advantage for the away side.

Derby seem to be looking for a win against Ipswich, who they would appreciate such a win.
