UNION SEES NO HOPE IN U.N. TALKS
End of reports on S.W. Africa

THE South African Government has informed the United Nations that it does not see any hope that proposed new negotiations regarding the status of South West Africa would yield any positive results.

A RESOLUTION calling on the Government to declare a male European teachers members of a reserved occupation so that they should not be called up for full-time service in the Emergency, was passed at the annual report of the European Teachers Association in Nairobi, Kenya.

The Director of Education, Mr. W. D. Wood, presided at the meeting, welcomed the resolution and said that he would take the matter up by trying every possible means to solve the problem. He said that the Government would be glad to consider any suggestion which would help to solve the problem.

As a result of the meeting, the Director said that he would be writing to the Government to request that it should consider the suggestion.

IMMEDIATE ATTACK ON SODA DUST Nakuru Mayor outlines plan

IMMEDIATE action is being taken to deal with the soda dust menace in Nakuru, the Mayor, Mr. Norman Municipal Council officials.

An action of an experimental nature will be being conducted to determine the extent of the dust menace and to test various methods of dealing with it.

With the arrival of the rains, the dust menace would probably be lessened, but it is expected that the dust will be a serious problem in the dry season.

Mr. Hardy said he believed the lack of rain had been the cause of the dust menace. He observed that the dust had been observed since the rains had been falling. He had been told that the dust had been observed since the rains had been falling.

School site healthy

But people should govern a problem of proportion about the school site. Although the dust was a nuisance, it was not a health hazard. It was a nuisance, but it was not a health hazard.

When the school was built, the site was healthy. It was a healthy site, and it was a healthy site.

For the 100th Boat Race
A CONTEST OF COACHES
AS MUCH AS THE CREWS

Kenya man is Cambridge bow

SHORTLY after 1.30 p.m. G.M.T. today there will begin the most exciting rowing event of the season—the 100th Boat Race. The Thames tripartite regatta between the Oxford-Cambridge Boat Race and the 100th Boat Race will start at 1.30 p.m. today. The Cambridge crew, which will be captained by A. Edwards (Oxford) as the inter-collegiate race, as any contrast in the crews.

The quiet approach
Spurred by a psychologist in the person of a light rowing coach, the Cambridge crew has been preparing for the contest for some time. Edwards is an interesting example of what a rowing coach can do. He has been coaching the Cambridge crew for some time.

Return to Kenya
William, father of Grandmaster, has returned to his native Kenya, where he will be in charge of the Kenya Agricultural Society and the Kenya Agricultural Society. He will be in charge of the Kenya Agricultural Society and the Kenya Agricultural Society.

Pro of methods
If Edwards has done his training well, the Cambridge crew will be in a good position to make every point at various stages. It will have to be a hard race, but the Cambridge crew is in a good position to make every point at various stages.

Are the faster away
Oxford generally does their start better than Cambridge. The Cambridge crew will have to be in a good position to make every point at various stages. The Cambridge crew will have to be in a good position to make every point at various stages.

Other fixtures
The Cambridge crew will be in a good position to make every point at various stages. The Cambridge crew will have to be in a good position to make every point at various stages. The Cambridge crew will have to be in a good position to make every point at various stages.

23 COUNTRIES TO MEET IN NAIROBI

Parliamentary Society talks

THE conference of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association will be held in the Parliamentary Building, Nairobi, next August at the invitation of the branches of the association in the Union of South Africa, Rhodesia and Kenya. It will be attended by 23 countries.

MERCER OF MINISTRIES REJECTED

A suggestion that the Colonial Secretary's office be merged with the Commonwealth Secretariat was opposed by Mr. Henry Hironaka, Minister of State for External Affairs. He said that the difficulties that lay in the way of the word "Colonial" had meant that it was not possible to be a member of the Cabinet whose sole concern was the welfare and advancement of the Colonies, but that his interests did not always coincide with those of the whole country. There might, however, be some common ground between the interests of the Colonial Secretary and the Commonwealth Secretary for Africa.

The United Kingdom delegation will be led by Mr. D. Heathcoat Amory, Minister of State, in charge of Africa, and Mr. Arthur Henderson, Secretary and Commonwealth Secretary for Africa. Other members of the delegation include Mr. Robert G. G. Jones, Secretary for Africa, and Mr. Robert G. G. Jones, Secretary for Africa.

The Minister admitted, however, that when the delegation met in London, it would be necessary to discuss the re-distribution of the Commonwealth Secretariat. He said that the Commonwealth Secretariat would be given a separate office.

Some Members had spoken of the concern among many Colonies that the Commonwealth Secretariat would be given a separate office. On this Mr. Hironaka said that the Commonwealth Secretariat would be given a separate office.

Another outlet for surplus produce in the East African States was mentioned. It was suggested that the Commonwealth Secretariat should take over responsibility for the Commonwealth Secretariat.

The delegation from the United Kingdom will be led by Mr. D. Heathcoat Amory, Minister of State, in charge of Africa, and Mr. Arthur Henderson, Secretary and Commonwealth Secretary for Africa.

The conference will be held in the Parliamentary Building, Nairobi, next August at the invitation of the branches of the association in the Union of South Africa, Rhodesia and Kenya.

'SWAHILI HANDICAPS AFRICAN LEADERS'

IN an address on present-day problems in Kenya, given at the invitation of the Machakos and Ulu branches of the East Africa Women's League, Dr. I. S. B. Laker urged that the teaching of Swahili should be replaced by English.

There are good leaders among the Africans, but they are handicapped by the fact that their English is not good enough to enable them to take part in the Council debates, he said.

Education in the old days, he said, meant that boys and girls were trained by the elders of the tribe, but by the parents, to take place in the social structure of the people. It was not a job of a child, but a job of a man.

It was not enough just to have children, said Dr. Laker, but they must be educated. He said that the children of the future must be able to take part in the Council debates, he said.

Over-population
The Minister admitted, however, that when the delegation met in London, it would be necessary to discuss the re-distribution of the Commonwealth Secretariat.

CORRESPONDENT

For a more important portfolio than the one that they have been offered. Sir, however, that the other Africans feel that the position is not so good as it used to be, and that there may be a change of representation to the Council of Ministers. Any other decision, we feel, would be the result of bad advice.

ANTI-DENIGATORS
Nairobi, March 26, 1964.
Sir, — I am not a politician, but I am qualified to be drawn on my knowledge of the situation in Kenya. I have lived in Kenya since 1914, and my children were born here. I have seen the country grow from a small settlement to a great city, and I have seen the people grow from a primitive to a modern people.

When will the Indians and the other races of this country be given a fair share of the land? Sir, — I am not a politician, but I am qualified to be drawn on my knowledge of the situation in Kenya. I have lived in Kenya since 1914, and my children were born here. I have seen the country grow from a small settlement to a great city, and I have seen the people grow from a primitive to a modern people.

Lukiko stand criticised by Governor

'MOST UNWISE' NOT TO ELECT NEW KABAKA

The Governor of Uganda, Sir Andrew Cohen, has resoundingly criticised the Buganda Lukiko's Making it his recent decision to elect a new Kabaka as a most unwise and unstatesmanlike move, especially in view of the fact that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and that Sir Andrew had only been appointed as Governor after Mutesa II had been crowned King.

Mutesa II, who was crowned King at the Lugard Centre on Monday, is believed to have expressed his approval of the decision of the Lukiko, but Sir Andrew has expressed his disapproval, saying that it was an unwise and unstatesmanlike move, especially in view of the fact that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and that Sir Andrew had only been appointed as Governor after Mutesa II had been crowned King.

The belief expressed by delegates in their report that Mutesa II was not in Uganda, and therefore, quite without foundation, as he had just returned to Uganda. Sir Andrew has expressed his disapproval, saying that it was an unwise and unstatesmanlike move, especially in view of the fact that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and that Sir Andrew had only been appointed as Governor after Mutesa II had been crowned King.

Misleading statements. He went on to add that the delegation to Sir Andrew had been misled by the Lukiko, and that the Lukiko had been misled by the members of the Lukiko. Sir Andrew has expressed his disapproval, saying that it was an unwise and unstatesmanlike move, especially in view of the fact that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and that Sir Andrew had only been appointed as Governor after Mutesa II had been crowned King.

Nominations rejected. The Governor went on to veto the nomination of Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and to reject the nomination of the Lukiko as the Kabaka of Buganda. Sir Andrew has expressed his disapproval, saying that it was an unwise and unstatesmanlike move, especially in view of the fact that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and that Sir Andrew had only been appointed as Governor after Mutesa II had been crowned King.

To represent class. The Governor also considered the nomination of the Lukiko as the Kabaka of Buganda, and to reject the nomination of the Lukiko as the Kabaka of Buganda. Sir Andrew has expressed his disapproval, saying that it was an unwise and unstatesmanlike move, especially in view of the fact that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Buganda, and that Sir Andrew had only been appointed as Governor after Mutesa II had been crowned King.

Splendid rowing in 'rough'

CONTRARY to the general rule, the lighter crew won the 10th University Boat Race, on Saturday, over the four miles, 37 yards, sinuous, mid-way course between Putney and Mortlake. In sweeping to a comfortable 41-length victory, in 8 min. 22 sec. Oxford improved on their best time of 8 min. 27 sec. in 1934.

The winning crew contained the best time in race history, but the 1934 crew was not the fastest. The 1934 crew was not the fastest. The 1934 crew was not the fastest.

Rough conditions
For most of the way the crew had to contend with a stiff head wind and extremely rough water. The 1934 crew was not the fastest. The 1934 crew was not the fastest.

MILLION MILES A DAY

That is what East African Motorists using Shell with I.C.A. are responsible for.

It means that vehicles in East Africa are running more smoothly, with greater power and more miles per gallon than they did before the advent of SHELL with I.C.A.

MISFIRING—Power robbing deposits on spark plugs left-hand diagrams can be cleaned by the electrical discharge circuitry to "earth" again. Shell with I.C.A. non-conductive dielectricity. So you electify misfiring (right-hand diagram). "rejuvenate" your engine, and stop throwing away unburned motor spirit.

SHELL WITH I.C.A.

I.C.A. contains Tricetyl Phosphate

gives you "new-engine" smoothness and longer spark plug life by their attitude. In their cumulative effect, the present attitude of the British race within the world for a destination of war that would certainly affect a wide common interest of all nations, rising above the military, political or even religious differences.

It is gratifying to see ministers however, that the remainder of the world, which is not so well represented in the Pacific could not be so easily won by the British race as some of these big-brotherly have led to believe.

Britain's first hydrogen bomb test, which took place on August 12, 1942. The hydrogen bomb was the first of its kind to be used in the development of the hydrogen bomb than any other.

Hysteria displaced

Hysteria could be best defined in British problems than panic in the physical results were not so favourable to the war effort. The girl between the conventional and the physical results were not so favourable to the war effort.

No claim to authority

Britain had no agreement with the United States which had been to claim any form of joint authority. They were acting entirely within their rights, as agreed between them and the United States Government.

Crisis of 'Reagan'

Mr. Herbert Hoover's policy of isolationism, which was not only a failure but also a disaster. It was a secret conspiracy to bring about the fall of Mr. Roosevelt.

Labour responsibility

"That was how things stood when the United States Government came to office. Any change in the United States Government responsibility for the war and not for the world and not for the world."

U.N. talks open on Friday

The United Nations Conference on the Atomic Energy, which was opened on Friday, April 7, at the United Nations Secretariat Building in New York. The conference was presided over by Dr. T. T. Morgan, Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Chance for fanatic

"Who can doubt, after reading the report of the conference, that the very end of that war it would have used it."

U.S. SENATOR DISPUTES STATEMENT

Senator Charles McNary, Republican of Oregon, has disputed the statement made by the United States Government regarding the atomic energy pact.

'Make U.N. reality'

"I want every man and woman to know that the United Nations is not a mere organization of paper but a reality of action."

Agreement 'not in effect now'

It was stated at the White House that the agreement on atomic energy is not yet in effect.

Sharp Press criticism of Sir Winston's accusation

The uproar in the House of Commons over Sir Winston Churchill's charges against the Labour Government on the issue of atomic secrets dominated the British press.

Members strongly criticized the Prime Minister for his charges against the Labour Government and his own past actions.

Of benefit to Soviet

The Times took the Prime Minister to task in a newspaper usually sharp for its criticism of the Labour Government.

"RIGIDAL"

Corrugated Aluminium Sheets

(THE BRITISH ALUMINIUM COMPANY LIMITED)

FIVE POINTS TO REMEMBER WHEN PURCHASING ALUMINIUM SHEETS

- 1. DURABLE. Freedom from corrosion and rust with high resistance to industrial fumes and sea air.
- 2. HIGH THERMAL EFFICIENCY. Owing to its high conductivity and low capacity of absorption the inferiority of building material with RIGIDAL is less subject to wide temperature variations, which tend to keep inside the structure wide ranging variations in temperature.
- 3. INEXPENSIVE. Owing to its durability RIGIDAL gives the lowest cost per year of service.
- 4. EASY TO MAINTAIN. Painting is not necessary. Heavy and light cleaning are not difficult.
- 5. NON-INFLAMMABLE. As Aluminium is not normally painted it gives increased protection from fire to factories and godowns, etc.

THESE ARE JUST FIVE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD ALWAYS SPECIFY "RIGIDAL" WHEN PURCHASING CORRUGATED ALUMINIUM SHEETS.

India rejects Portuguese claim

'QUIET IN GOA'

DENTED

The Indian Government has rejected a Portuguese claim that "complete peace and quiet" prevails in Goa, and that the people there enjoy civic liberties, it was disclosed in New Delhi. In a note presented to the Portuguese Legation, India replied to the Portuguese Government's Note of March 29, referring to the Indian protest against the arrest and incarceration of Dr. Fustanillo Gato, a Goa political leader.

Dr. Gato was a Portuguese leader who had instigated the Portuguese Press Co. under which provisions to ensure against the external security of the State were passed, the Portuguese note said. Sent to Lisbon for trial, Gato had been spoken in favour of the Portuguese Indian territory, converging with the Indian Union.

French police at consulate 'just to intimidate'

The Indian Government has alleged in a Note handed to the French Embassy that French troops posted near the Indian Consulate in Pondicherry and intimidate visitors, harass the consular staff, and threaten to authorise sources in New Delhi to reveal the activities of the Police "unless so doubt that they are there not for the protection of the Consulate in the French possession in South-east India also referred to an alleged attack on a member of the Indian Consulate General, Mr. Srivastava. "What's all this about Airwork?"

Airwork is a name which is widely known and respected throughout East Africa. In the United Kingdom, Airwork Ltd., established in 1924, has been recognised for many years as the leader in private enterprise transport and all that goes with it - flying, buying, selling and servicing aircraft of all types. Airwork Ltd. owns and operates its own aeroplanes.

When permission was granted in July 1952 by the U.K. Government for the operation of public airlines by private enterprise air transport firms, it was natural that Airwork should organise the first of these services, in conjunction with Hunting-Clay Air Transport Ltd. This new service, now known as the Safari Service, operates between U.K. and Rhodesia and U.K. and East Africa. However, of course, has long-distance passenger service on the Sudan Government, for the Air Ministry, ferries troops between London and West Africa, East Africa and the Rhodesia, for the great out-

The comfort, efficiency and economy of the Safari Service are the expression of this experience and Airwork's ability to obtain experience of the routes on which they now fly Safari Vultures.

No offence to take up work without pass

No offence was taken by the Resident Magistrate when Mr. N. P. Mbitia, in discussing two counts against Abdulla Ibrahim Papiya, the counts alleged that he remained in the Territory after the expiry of his temporary employment permit which expired when he left his first employment, but that he took further work without having obtained a permit to do so.

On the first count, the magistrate said that the only offence which could have been committed was that of being an employer, and Papiya was not an employer.

Bound by ruling
On the first count, the magistrate recalled that a woman states had had that the agency employment pass did not require a permit to do so. He said that his decision was based on the ruling in the case of Attorney-General v. Mbitia, which was decided by the High Court in 1961. He said that he was bound by that ruling.

Entry 'a formality'
The magistrate said that although he knew that there were many who were not taking the necessary steps to obtain a permit, he was bound by the law. He said that the law was a formality, and that it was the duty of the authorities to enforce it.

Diversity shown by Arts Society

The latest exhibition to be organized by the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society opens today in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi, and remains open every day, including the weekend, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. until next Wednesday.

The layout of the exhibition has this time been undertaken by Mrs. Rosa Bagatella who, with the assistance of Mrs. M. J. Mbitia, has arranged a display of work by artists from all over Kenya.

Old favourites
Other well-known artists also showing their wares are Mrs. V. V. V. and Mrs. J. J. J. Their work is well known and popular.

Among the other new exhibits are a very old portrait of a woman in a white dress, and a portrait of a woman in a white dress. The artist has used a variety of materials and techniques to create these works.

Newcomers
Miss Susan Morrell has not been shown before in Nairobi. Her work is very different from that of the other artists.

Depot broken into for fifth time
The depot was broken into for the fifth time. The thieves broke in through the window and carried off a large number of parcels.

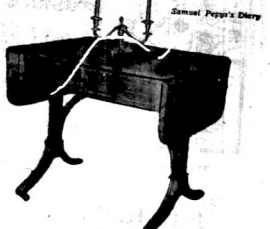

Electors' Union's new officers
The new officers of the Electors' Union have been elected. They will be responsible for the welfare of the electors.

There's a very close connection between a man's features and his character.
The features of a man's face can tell a lot about his character. This is a well-known fact.

Coffee prices soar in Uganda

AFRICAN GROWERS TO BENEFIT 50 PER CENT

AFRICAN coffee growers in Uganda are to get 50 per cent more for their coffee from May 1 under the Government-sponsored marketing scheme. Guaranteed prices were fixed at the beginning of the present season, a time when no one dared to hope for such high prices as are now being paid for the African coffee. But the market has risen so sharply that the Government has decided that the prices now fixed are no longer adequate.

Why children need Horlicks!

Growing children need more protein in the food eaten and that which comes to be stronger. Many have very little protein in their diet because of what and how they eat. Horlicks gives children the protein they need in a form that is easy to eat. It is the only protein for children.

MANY INCIDENTS MARRED W. INDIES TOUR

But magnitude exaggerated

CHARLES PALMER, manager of the M.C.C. team on Tuesday that the Test series had been marred by many incidents. Many people, however, had magnified these incidents out of all proportion. He urged West Indians to subject of undue influence from spoiling the game. On that the standard was not good at times. He said the tourists had stated to deny any allegation that they had committed dishonesty by surprise.

Palmer said that he was with the team, and that he was not a spectator. He said that he was not a spectator. He said that he was not a spectator.

DON'T DISCOUNT THE DON:

Cockell puts British boxing on world map again

HOPE OR AN ILLUSION?

WHEN referee Eugene Henderson raised Don Cockell's hand in triumph over Roland La Starza, the 16,000 fans who packed the Sports Court arena did two things in mind, writes Dennis Hart. First, they cheered their hero off; for Cockell is the only British heavyweight to show a top American the knee-however short a victory it was.

Then, having got his bones rattled, he looked at the victor and said: "I'm a champion. Would Cockell be again?"

Again understandable. "Is a question here how he has fared for ever since since June 3, 1961, it has been:

This sorry legion

There was only one J. J. Jeffries knock-out in the world's history. He was the first of the world's great heavyweights. He was the first of the world's great heavyweights. He was the first of the world's great heavyweights.

Will he? Nothing is certain. It is not as if he had a long time to go. It is with as good a chance as any of the world's great heavyweights. It is with as good a chance as any of the world's great heavyweights.

Is a good champion?

Don't underestimate this man Cockell. He's not a good champion. He's not a good champion. He's not a good champion.

Quality gives us...

LENHUTTON TOPS TEST BATTING

THE England captain, Len Hutton, only touring batsman to make a double century easily heads the Test batting averages while a analysis distinctly better than any West Indian batsman, also.

Hutton's aggregate of 577 runs, in only four Test matches, is only just below Chris Turner's 576 runs. Hutton, too, is the only batsman to have scored a century in each of the four Tests. He has also scored a century in each of the four Tests.

AWAY VICTORY

Celtic all set for 'double'

HIGHLIGHT of Wednesday's League football was the first away win of the season by relegation-battered Liverpool, who beat Manchester City 2-0. Not since February 21 last year had Liverpool won away from home as they defeated Newcastle United on that last occasion. But the win does not seem likely to lighten the spectre of relegation, casting a gloom over Merseyside football.

Part Vole, Barnsey and Cleary were the scorers for Liverpool, who were set to play Manchester City at Anfield on Saturday. Liverpool's manager, Bill Shankly, said: "I am sure we will win this game, but we must not let our guard down."

The most important thing in life is HEALTH

That's why it's important to start children on Halibergon as soon as possible. For Halibergon contains the "protective" vitamins A, C and D which children need to develop their sturdy bodies and to resist infection. Do make sure your little baby takes Halibergon every day. You'll be glad when you see how it improves their general health.

Experts give magistrate writer's cramp

AFTER two handwriting experts could not agree in a case of alleged forgery at Mombasa, the magistrate commented that the only result of their four days of half-hour sessions and cross-examination was to leave him more in doubt and his writ with slightly aggravated writer's cramp which he did not propose to increase by elaborating his judgment.

The two experts were the Government handwriting expert, Mr. H. M. Smith, and the independent expert, Mrs. J. R. Leitch, who stated that the handwriting was a fair copy of the original. The magistrate said that the evidence was not sufficient to prove the handwriting was not that of the defendant. He found in favour of the plaintiff.

48-hour fight to put out fire

A fire which originated in the bathroom started in Westwood Main was put out after 48 hours. Lack of rain had led to a low water level in the reservoir and the fire was extinguished only after a 48-hour fight. The fire was caused by a short circuit in the wiring. The fire was extinguished by the fire department after a long and difficult fight.

Always building a greater East Africa

The history of East Africa began with the building of the railways and harbours, and the country developed as the railway spread. Today, along the railways and harbours, the East African people are building a greater East Africa. The railways and harbours are the backbone of the East African economy.

East African Railways & Harbours

The pioneer work of the Railways goes on. From Kampala, White Nile to Kampala in the Ruwenzori Mountains a 210-mile extension is opening up new territory. Already a service is operating as far as Mbarara, 45 miles to the West. Between Mombasa and Tabora along the Tanganyika branch, throughout the Tanganyika system, and wherever traffic is particularly heavy, hundreds of miles of existing lines are being strengthened to carry more powerful locomotives and heavier loads.

£25 million worth of equipment being delivered includes 146 main line and 37 shunting engines and 5366 tons of rolling stock.

All this to one end—the continued development of the Railways and Harbours in the service of East African progress.

TALKS ON INDO-CHINA NOT HOPEFUL

Mr. Eisenhower warns of threat to Pacific defence

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER has said in Washington that the chances of a major settlement of the Indo-China war being reached in this month's Geneva conference were not good. Mr. Eisenhower, who was speaking at a Press conference, added that the United States would move just as far as practical would allow in seeking any solution which would ease the world's problems. America would not rely on war alone, he said. She would insure that there were means of enforcing any agreements reached. He said the loss of Indo-China to the free world. It would affect the so-called island defences system including Japan, Formosa and the Philippines, and would threaten such countries as Australia and New Zealand.

The President said the United States had not yet had any positive reaction from the Geneva conference. He said the Secretary of State, Mr. John Foster Dulles, had been asked to "remain alert" to prevent any move which might lead to a Communist takeover of the region.

Great danger... Almost immediately with the Press conference, Mr. Dulles was questioned by the press. He said the Geneva conference was in progress and that the United States would continue to support the free world.

Appeal for help... Some officials in Paris felt that the Geneva conference would be a failure. They said the United States should be more active in supporting the free world.

French divided... The French Government has appointed additional advisers to its military equipment. It is in Indo-China the Viet Nam commander, General Cao, is reported to be in a more optimistic mood.

WOMEN IN POLICE UNIFORM

By Steve Mitchell

AS in the last war, so in Kenya's present Emergency, the women of the Colony have rallied to play their part. None more so than the women of the regular Kenya Police in all their number 222. Most are regular Policewomen, and of the 221 who wear K.P. uniforms, 101 are full-time staff.

And again, as in the last war, they do jobs which relieve men for more active duties in the operational areas.

But from their own merit and ability, there are those who now hold down jobs usually associated with officers of their senior rank. All Police Inspectors in Nairobi it is a Policewoman who does the important job of a personal assistant to the Commissioner of Police. Another, also with the rank of Chief Inspector, is responsible for the general administration of a Nairobi suburban Police station. In the busy and varied aspects of C.I.D. work a woman Chief Inspector has proved her worth over and over again and, in an exciting, detailed work of investigations, has earned the unstinted respect of her male colleagues.

And it is in the unassuming, "benumbing" jobs of stenographer, clerk, telephonist and sometimes, as wireless operators, that the majority of Policewomen find their fate. And this is also so of their K.P.R. counterparts.

Not less and there, women have taken on jobs which men usually do. In Mombasa and on the North Mombasa, for instance, the local quarter-masters are women. And it is a Policewoman who broadcasts daily from Mombasa in the now established and eagerly awaited "Lighthouse" service. It is the local farmers who go to date with the latest Emergency news in the Rift Valley.

It is a woman's voice, also broadcasting from the operations room at such combined Police and Military nerve centres as Thika, Kiambu, Mururi, Nyeri which Kenya Police officers in charge of the network of Police posts criss-crossing the affected Kilimo Districts in touch with operational requirements, against the terrorist gangs.

Almost 100 women and K.P.R. members, helping one Nairobi's busy Police force, may carry the brunt of the City force's vast amount of paper work—reports, statements, documentations.

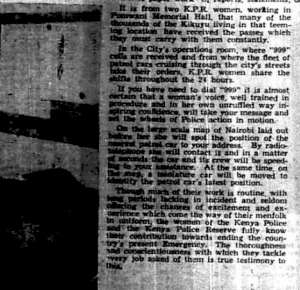

It is from two K.P.R. women, working at Parliament Memorial Hall, that many of the thousands of Kenya letters in that despatch location have received the postage which they must carry with them constantly.

In the City's operations room, where "999" calls are received and from where the fleet of patrol cars, cruising through the city streets like their police, K.P.R. women make the shifts throughout the 24 hours.

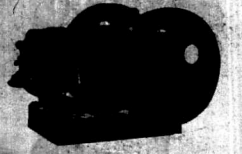

If you have had to dial "999" it is almost certain that a woman's voice will be trained in procedure and in her most unflinching way in getting assistance, will take your message and will the wheels of Police action in motion.

On the large scale map of Nairobi laid out before her she will give the position of the nearest patrol car to your address. By radio-telephone she will contact it and in a matter of seconds the car and its crew will be speeded to your assistance. At the same time, on the road, a mandatory car will be moved to identify the patrol car's latest position.

Though much of their work is routine, with long periods being in contact and without the chance of excitement and adventure which come the way of their menfolk, in ordinary the women of the Kenya Police and the Kenya Police Reserve fully know their contribution towards ending the country's present Emergency. The investigators—very job added of form in true testimony to...

Schiaparelli Has A New Plan

The lone woman in that light, make-circle, the Paris haute couture, Elsa Schiaparelli, has launched a sharp, middle-aged, fashion.

She has shown her latest, middle-aged, fashion. It is a collection of clothes in a different kind of style. She has shown her latest, middle-aged, fashion. It is a collection of clothes in a different kind of style.

'Such a bore'
SETTING in her private dressing room, crowded with furs, coats and photographs, Schiaparelli viewed her collection with a certain scorn.

She has all become such a bore. It is a collection of clothes in a different kind of style. She has shown her latest, middle-aged, fashion. It is a collection of clothes in a different kind of style.

HOUSEKEEPING IN JAPAN
ALTHOUGH living conditions in the big cities of Japan such as Tokyo, Yokohama and Nagasaki have changed radically since the war, yet there are still remote spots where life goes on much the same as it used to do.

My husband and I spent several years and where house-keeping was unlike anything I have undertaken before or since.

HOMES AND GARDENS OF KENYA

This week IRENE GARDNER describes a Mombasa house—San Jose, the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Robinson.

THE first impression one gets on entering the hall is one of cool space. On the wall over the front door hangs a seascape by Constable, a collage framed by Mr. H. H. Robinson, and a tradition of the great artist of that name. The handsome Zanubar table chair is a feature of the hall. Panels of green glass into an entrance room that cool spectators gaze into these rooms their high ceilings and large French windows. The dining-room, through which a fine portrait of Mr. Robinson by the well-known artist, Mrs. Mason. At once, one Robinson's how true a likeness it is, reflecting accurately the personality of the sitter.

stairway into the drawing-room, which is decorated in sea-shell and pink.

The fireplace of grey stone is lined with red brick. The chairs and sofa are covered with cream furnishings and patterned with pale blue and white. A built-in cabinet houses a silver tea set. From Mr. Robinson's study, a doorway leads to the drawing-room.

My husband added one feature to the house. There is a lovely study of the work party, with a built-in cabinet and a large window. The study was made by the architect, and the study is a lovely room. There was a family of twelve here in the study, and the study is a lovely room.

Returning to the house we pass through the wide

Hospital, and other charities. I was invited to wander round and see the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson's house is a lovely home. The house is a lovely home. The house is a lovely home.

A smaller guest-room had very deep green walls and a large window. The study was made by the architect, and the study is a lovely room.

I went out into the bathroom, and the bathroom is a lovely room. The bathroom is a lovely room.

THE THINGS THEY SAY...

being quotations from BBC talks

LIFE like fruit, is there in a book, stone, polished, crystallized, jammed. If this is not too homely a comparison. Perhaps it is, and yet in preserving and connecting there is surely something marvellous; and the degree of transformation in cooking is not unlike what happens in the process of art. —Kathleen Lee.

Mrs. Malvern's opposition... Stanley Hildon speaking in the House of Commons.

When tomatoes were selling generally at half-a-crown a pound I got hold of a lot cheap. I put them in a bag. I offered them to a friend. I refused. I couldn't move them, but when I put them in a bag I found they were like hot cakes. —Dorothy Compton, a housewife from Aberdeen, talking about her customers' reactions.

"Education has its roots in poverty. Without education from the oldest a human child cannot get his feet in this world and grow into his place as an adult in the community into which he is born. We cannot afford to neglect our children, and the only question is whether we teach them or starve them." —Dr. C. J. Jeffery, F.R.S., talking about the world of learning.

'MOST UNWISE' NOT TO ELECT NEW KABAKA

By Sir Andrew Cohen, K.C.M.G.
 THE Governor of Uganda, Sir Andrew Cohen, has resolution not to elect another Kabaka. Making this criticism passed by the Lukiko at its recent three-day meeting at Kampala, with reference to the Lukiko statement that it still recognised Mutesa II as the Kabaka of Uganda. His Majesty's Government's decision on Mutesa II was final.

It was expressed by the Attorney-General in his report that Mutesa II would return as Kabaka, it is however, quite without foundation and it is clear that the Lukiko has been misled by the Governor's statement.

His warning to the Lukiko was that the Government had no intention of sending a Lukiko delegate to London to confer with the British Government on the subject of Mutesa II. The Lukiko's decision to send a delegate to London was criticised by the Attorney-General as being a "most unwise" move. He stated that the Government would not be concerned only with Mutesa II but with the whole of the Uganda situation. He stated that the Government would not be concerned only with Mutesa II but with the whole of the Uganda situation.

HAYWARD FINED £25 FOR ASSAULT

'Most criminally silly'

By Sir Andrew Cohen, K.C.M.G.
 BARRY HARVEY HAYWARD, a 17-year-old K.P.R. on Saturday in Nairobi Supreme Court for a technical assault on a Mau Mau suspect during his interview. His actions in flicking lighted matches at the suspect after water had been poured over him was described by the judge as "most criminally silly".

Hayward was fined £25 for the assault. The judge said that Hayward's actions were "most criminally silly" and that he was "most criminally silly" in pouring water over the suspect and then flicking matches at him.

40 SOTIK FARMS

By Sir Andrew Cohen, K.C.M.G.
 THIRTY-FIVE new outbreaks of foot-and-mouth disease were reported last month and an official statement issued on Saturday, says the general position is far from satisfactory.

In the Sotik District there are still 40 farms in quarantine and the disease is present in the Sotik, Fort Ternan and Mau Mau Hills areas where the movement of squatter cattle has doubtless played a part in maintaining infection. Most of the Sotik District is infested and the disease has broken out in Trams Nana, Sotik, post-rains are reported from the Ol' Mal Valley in the Thomson's Falls area and two farms at Tinasu have been infested.

PICTURES FROM THE ART EXHIBITION

More than 200 paintings are on show at the current exhibition in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi of the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society.

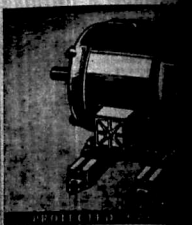

On this page is a selection of paintings from the exhibition. The two pictures at the bottom of the page provide a contrast between Africa and Britain. On the left is "The Broken Gate" by R. McCallan Binn of Nairobi and, on the right, "Dunblair, Leithshire" by D. C. M. Gardner of Glasgow.

The exhibition will be open for another six days, terminating Saturday and Sunday.
