MAIL-BAG robbers and for the purpose of average Rhodesians's solid diet of politics and rest of things rather out of the news this month. Northern Rhodesia has a sensational murder charge being heard in its courts. Southern Rhodesia has had a grid for handling some 15,000 mail was robbed in a bank and a station company and a robbery body, has yet to come a thing of the Rhodesia in motion which were stolen some weeks ago from the railway, robbery known together in Southern or Northern Rhodesia.

The missing gold has possibly been the subject of a story of 31 was being taken from the Bank. The gold was estimated to be 100 tons of unsorted gold bars, which was intended to be taken to the gold bar-warehouse in Johannesburg.

A mystery

It was reported that it had been found in a hole in the floor of the van in which it was being carried. This led to an extensive search for unsorted gold—most of the gold.

It was suggested that it might have been carried in a van which was not following strictly the normal route, but was waiting for the spot to be reached.

In Malawi, Northern Rhodesia, copper miners are still in a state of confusion as to the future of the industry. The Rhodesian Government has announced that it will continue to operate the industry and to finance the industry, but that it will not be a shareholder in the industry.

Democratic view

Further developments of the Rhodesian University at Salisbury have been reported by Dr. Alexander Scott, Federal Minister of a Parliament, who is a member of the Rhodesian House of Assembly.

Dr. Scott said that the Rhodesian House of Assembly is now inside the University.

Northern Rhodesian commentary

It might well be hoped that the Rhodesian Government will have an active role to play in the development of the country and in the promotion of African and white progress in Africa.

The Rhodesian Government has announced that it will continue to operate the industry and to finance the industry, but that it will not be a shareholder in the industry.

Nyanza crops thrive despite low rainfall

BIG SURPLUSES LAST YEAR

DISPITE low rainfall in the Nyanza during 1957, the total maize revenue was more than £200,000, almost £250,000. In a review of the year of farming, the Provincial Agricultural Officer, Mr. J. F. Brown, said that food supplies were more than adequate and the Province exported considerable quantities.

By the end of the year, 1957, the Nyanza had a surplus of 100,000 tons of maize, which was being stored in the Nyanza.

Bad method blamed

It is suggested that the Nyanza Government should give more attention to the method of irrigation in the Nyanza. The Nyanza Government has announced that it will continue to operate the industry and to finance the industry, but that it will not be a shareholder in the industry.

TESTS TO FIND ANSWER TO DUST CONTINUE

Experiments designed by the British section in Nakuru's salt district were continued by Mr. Norman Harvey, Major of the Royal Engineers, at the salt lake. The experiments included the building of a series of windbreaks and the use of the salt-lake, the experimental clearing of sandstone types of crops, such as wheat and maize, from Nyanza and a study of the methods of irrigation.

Mr. R. A. Butler defends his Budget

Mr. R. A. Butler, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has said that his Budget was "thoroughly well-considered and unopposed".

He said that the Budget had been a "thoroughly well-considered and unopposed" one. He said that the Budget had been a "thoroughly well-considered and unopposed" one.

Guns recovered after theft

Three African braves held in custody in the Nyanza have been found to have stolen three rifles and three shotguns and a revolver. The rifles were recovered from the Nyanza.

Roads slippery

The Road Administrator General has issued a warning to motorists to be careful of slippery roads in the Nyanza. He said that the roads were very slippery and that motorists should be careful.

This is the BLUE STRAND

-that means Preformed WIRE ROPE!

The Blue Strand made for trouble-free and lasting service. It is made of a difference of wire into a strand, the strands being applied to the same process being used to the wire. It is then twisted to give a self-laying Blue Strand Wire Rope which means no internal stress. The wire is preformed in the strand before production, so that there is no kinking, sagging or they take in the finished rope. Even when it is subjected to shock, each wire and strand remains in its place. Because it is preformed, Blue Strand wire rope lasts longer, handles more easily and safety. Change to Blue Strand Wire Rope and cut down replacement costs.

NEW BANKING BILL FOR UGANDA OPPOSED

Select committee set up

WHEN the proposed banking Ordinance was introduced in Uganda Legislative Council, Representatives strongly opposed the drafting of a number of sections. It was claimed that any restriction of the term bank or banking would mean the commercial banks and other business which may come might be held to be bound by the Bill's provisions.

When the Deputy Minister in Charge, Mr. C. R. Donald, introduced the Bill he said it arose at the instigation of the factor of a bank operating in Uganda for some years. He said the establishment of "number of widows' banks" was a matter of great importance and was a matter of great importance to the Government.

He said the only other instance of such a measure was in the case of the Bank of India which had been established in the United Kingdom. He said the Government was not prepared to accept the Bill in its present form. He said the Government was not prepared to accept the Bill in its present form.

Import rise by Germany urged

THE Organization for European Economic Co-operation is pleading with Germany to speed up its purchases of goods from the European Payments Union. Germany's credits in the Co-operation for European Economic Co-operation are about £100,000,000 (about £100 million) and the Co-operation for European Economic Co-operation is urging Germany to use these credits to purchase goods from the Union.

Grading up?

Every good farmer naturally wants to do all he can to improve the quality and reputation of his dairy herd or other livestock—but the purchase of pedigree or proven stock is usually an expensive business. Progressive farmers who want to increase the output and value of their livestock should discuss their plans with their local Barclays Manager.

COMMONWEALTH HUNT FOR OIL WIDENS

Second largest consumer

THE Commonwealth is the second largest consumer of oil produced in the United States. Unlike the United States, however, which produces about 70 per cent of the oil consumed within her borders, the Commonwealth's annual production is only a quarter of its needs.

In 1953, total oil production in the Commonwealth was estimated to amount to about 20,000,000 tons, or roughly the quantity consumed in the United Kingdom alone, against total requirements throughout the Commonwealth of some 70,000,000 tons.

It is true that the difference between needs and supply is particularly marked in the United Kingdom, where annual requirements are estimated to amount to some 11,000,000 tons, or more than twice the amount of oil produced in the United Kingdom.

Import rise by Germany urged

Cut tariffs?

The United States has urged that the tariff on imports of goods from the Commonwealth be reduced. The United States has urged that the tariff on imports of goods from the Commonwealth be reduced.

Asians divided

Major A. S. Das, Asian Representative, has expressed his surprise at the attitude of the Indian Government towards the proposed East African Community. He said the Indian Government was not prepared to accept the proposed East African Community.

Import rise by Germany urged

Fruit of activity

The fruit of activity in the oil industry has been made clear by the figures of oil production in the United Kingdom. The United Kingdom's annual production of oil is estimated to amount to about 20,000,000 tons.

Always building a Greater East Africa

In the last 10 years the Railways have handled a traffic increase of over 100%. A vital contribution to this tremendous expansion has been made by powerful new types of articulated locomotive, specially designed to haul longer trains and heavier loads on light rails. Latest of these Beyer Garratt locomotives is the '56' class, the most advanced of their type in the world. Six of these fine locomotives are in service and 29 more are on order, together with 34 of the new and even more powerful '59' class now being developed. But they are only part of £25 million worth of railway equipment still to be delivered, including 146 mainline and 37 shunting locomotives, and 5368 units of rolling stock.

White settlers in Kenya must assert their right to lead

MR. H. SLADE'S POLICY

EUROPEAN settlement and ideals in Kenya are facing their greatest challenge...

Mr. Slade will have more than adequate strength to fight this challenge and to check this continuing trend...

Mr. Slade states: "At the next General Election the Government will have to face the fact that the White settlers are in a position to demand that their Government should guarantee their status and independence in Kenya."

Shadow of a clash hangs over the German deadlock
From SEBASTIAN HAFNER
Berlin
The declaration by the East and West German Governments, endorsed by the German Bundestag and the West German Bundestag, illustrating the fact that the West German Government is not a party to the Berlin civil war which has been created by the East German Government, is a significant step towards the resolution of the Berlin problem.

Links between Union and Federation vital to prosperity

DR. A. L. GUYER, the Union High Commissioner and the Federal Secretary, the first High Commissioner and the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland have expressed confidence that their peoples working together in friendship and cordiality for the promotion of increased progress in the respective territories.

They did so before a distinguished audience at the Dorchester Hotel in Salisbury where Dr. Guyer and Sir Gilbert Roberts, the first High Commissioner for Southern Rhodesia, spoke at a luncheon in London a fortnight ago.

In a speech of 30 minutes, Dr. Guyer stressed the importance of the links between the two territories in the promotion of economic progress and the development of a good social structure.

"The links between the two territories are vital to their prosperity," he said. "It is only by working together in friendship and cordiality that we can achieve the progress we desire."

Dr. Guyer also stressed the importance of the links between the two territories in the promotion of economic progress and the development of a good social structure.

The view of Kimberley was taken by a staff photographer of the Southern African Forces, before the war. Before the war the line had been at Eastleigh Avenue, making the first part of a new service area from Eastleigh to Harare. To introduce the service, the Government then made an extension of the line from Eastleigh to Harare. To introduce the service, the Government then made an extension of the line from Eastleigh to Harare.

Journalist on City Council

Mr. Muzil Amosela, a journalist on the staff of the Cape Times, said an article of the Daily Mirror has been published, a month after the Rhodesia City Council has elected a journalist to the council.

The article, which was written by A. J. G. G. G., said that the journalist, Mr. Muzil Amosela, was elected to the council in a by-election held in the city of Harare.

Good relations

Dr. Guyer stressed the importance of the links between the two territories in the promotion of economic progress and the development of a good social structure.

BRAZEN KIDNAPPING IN WEST BERLIN

THE West Berlin Police have described the "disappearance" of Dr. Alexander Truchanovich, a leading Russian emigre official, as "the most brazen political kidnapping in West Berlin since the abduction of Dr. Walter Linde, a lawyer, in July, 1957." They said they found traces of blood in the corridor of the flat Truchanovich had visited indicating there had been a struggle.

The police said the flat was occupied by Mrs. Truchanovich, Mrs. Kozlov, and Mrs. Truchanovich, who was a member of the Russian emigre organization known as the "Committee for the Liberation of the Motherland."

FRENCH PROBE REBEL LINE AT FORTRESS

What more can you do?

WHAT ARE GROWING CHILDREN'S BEST HEREDITARY FOOD? Good food, fresh air and plenty of sleep. But there alone are not the entire demand. If they're not well and keep well, day in and day out, you should give them something more. You should give them daily Ribena. For Ribena—the natural way to take Vitamin C—is a great source of health. It builds strong bones and teeth. It stoutly fights bacteria and infection. It provides abundant energy. And Ribena is unique: It gives strength good in so many ways.

When it's winter, Ribena, made only from fresh milk and vitamins and other healthful ingredients, is a rich source of Vitamin C. It's a healthful and pleasant way to get good health. It's so easy, delicious and economical that you'll want to give it to your children.

The piano holds its own

PANIC set in among British parents when tuberculosis appeared because of the kind of creative, imaginative children. But here today's children have fewer opportunities than their parents for entertaining themselves.

Parents can rest assured that their children will be happy on the popularity list, and this is not because of the television set, but because of television.

The proof

If parents want proof, they might listen to what Mr. J. A. Haron, science master, former schoolmaster, and secretary of the British Piano Manufacturers' Association has to say.

"Through television, children can see and hear the experts. The moment they do so, they realize that they are not so good at their own playing. So television acts as a higher standard in children and a greater incentive to practice."

So great is the interest in television that the L.C.C. has amongst them have a special section for television. The L.C.C. has a special section for television. The L.C.C. has a special section for television.

Manufacturers are very anxious to see their products on television. They are very anxious to see their products on television. They are very anxious to see their products on television.

At the present time, the only way to see television is by going to the cinema. This is the only way to see television. This is the only way to see television.

NO SMILES OF JOY

By Ivor Brown

It is exactly five years to a day since the death of the late Sir John Lubbock. Lubbock works on the thirty-third floor of the Empire State Building in New York. He is a member of the House of Lords and has been knighted three times. The last time was in 1914. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1885 to 1914. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1885 to 1914. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1885 to 1914.

THERE was no levity in the expression of smiles. One grandmaster was a prize of the stater socialist set of Cambridge, England, as depicted in the British. He was born in the Huddersfield in 1812 and lived till 1891. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852.

SMILES qualified as a doctor and practised in his home, but not for long. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852.

casualties application of the mind and rigorous discipline of the great London dockers to the streets of the East End. The great London dockers to the streets of the East End. The great London dockers to the streets of the East End.

SMILES died just before the great London victory of 1904 which marked the end of the social reforms of the late Victorian era. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852. He was a member of the House of Commons from 1841 to 1852.

THE philosophy of smiles was a secret of it was service. The simple of it was service. The simple of it was service. The simple of it was service.

It is here was the poor child starved of the want, struggling in the mud and cold. It is here was the poor child starved of the want, struggling in the mud and cold.

Bold Bluff Beat Italian Foes

BY ERIC DOBSON

THE Italian offensive against the British in the Sudan was repulsed in the first of the series of battles of the Sudanese frontiers.

This plan was to make a dash for the province of Gafu, to smash the Emperor and then to return to the Sudan.

Modest start
 BUT the Italians had been ready to make a dash for the Sudan.

The Emperor was launching his attack and appealed to the Sudanese.

It began when only two days out of the withdrawal, the Emperor's army of 10,000 men was met by the British.

Gideon Force
 WITH his intention of making a dash for the Sudan, the Emperor's army was met by the British.

It was of course a bluff—the Emperor's army was met by the British.

A POUND OF HENNA FOR LUCK! By Muriel Pardoe

AN acquaintance once told me to get a friend I had in Aden to send her a pound of henna—red henna, she said, such as they use in the East.

The pound was passed on to a friend of mine in the Sudan, and she sent me a pound of henna.

Wajipa cost of living hits the bridegroom

WEDDING BILL UP £25

BRIDEGROOMS in Tanganyika are being hit by the cost of living. They have been for some time. The cost of a wedding is now about £25, instead of about £10 in the past.

The average of Christians in this district, and the White Fathers' Mission perform hundreds of weddings a year. The Christian ceremony is followed by a civil one. When a young man decides he has met the girl of his dreams, he goes to the priest and asks for a licence to marry. The priest then issues a licence, and the young man goes to the civil registrar to get a licence to marry. The cost of these licences is about £10. # MEN WHOSE JOB TOOK THEM TO THE MOUNTAIN TOPS

By John Cherry

Just other day I had an invitation to go to a "Land-Howler" excursion of my job. But that is not the point. The point is that this invitation came not from the East African Posts and Telecommunications Administration.

Above, the speaker, stated aerial survey. Below, the VIF radio station, showing the antenna and the station building.

For me employees of the Department have been invited to go to the mountain tops for the purpose of installing the new VIF radio stations. The new stations will be used to carry the Queen's message to the people of the mountain tops.

For those of us who pick up the message with our own ears and with the aid of the modern electronic devices that have been developed for this purpose, the message is clear.

First of all, there are the men who are the backbone of the service. They are the men who are the backbone of the service. They are the men who are the backbone of the service.

Now for a brief outline of the work. The men who are the backbone of the service are the men who are the backbone of the service. They are the men who are the backbone of the service.

Next, the men who are the backbone of the service are the men who are the backbone of the service. They are the men who are the backbone of the service.

Then, the men who are the backbone of the service are the men who are the backbone of the service. They are the men who are the backbone of the service.

Finally, the men who are the backbone of the service are the men who are the backbone of the service. They are the men who are the backbone of the service.

THE BRITISH MONARCHY - 1

Sovereign and Ministers

The best statement of the position of the Monarchy in relation to the Government is to be found in the report of the Committee of the House of Commons on the subject of the Royal prerogative, published in 1926. It is a document of the highest importance, and it is to be regretted that it is not more widely known. It is a document which should be read by every citizen who is interested in the history and the future of the British Monarchy.

This is the first of two articles by the Right Hon. Herbert Morrison, C.B., M.P., condensed from a lecture he published in London on April 23.

Mr. Herbert Morrison, a former Leader of the House of Commons, and a member of the Cabinet, has written an excellent book on the subject of the Royal prerogative, and it is to be regretted that it is not more widely known. It is a document of the highest importance, and it is to be regretted that it is not more widely known.

It is not that the so-called "Royal prerogative" is a thing which has been abolished, but that it has been so modified that it is no longer a thing which is of any great importance.

Queen Elizabeth II meets her subjects in Uganda

Escorted from her plane
The Governor of Uganda, Sir Andrew Cohen, escorts the Queen from her plane. Below: The Queen is walking with Miss M. Boulton, Uganda's Minister-in-Chief, on to the lawn of Government House.

ALTHOUGH there had been forecasts of bad weather, the Queen's Argoset flew direct from Aden to Entebbe.

The 5,000 people of all races who had gathered to welcome her broke into spontaneous applause on the second plane to pour, to give her an affectionate reception. The demonstration rose to a crescendo when Shaka Kabanda, a 21-year-old pupil of the Convent of Mary Reparatrix, immaculate in her white frock, knelt in a pool of rainwater (below) to present a basket of flowers to the Queen.

Children wave their greeting

Groups of fully dressed school-children were given special places in the crowds to wave their Union Jacks in greeting.

Distinguished guests at the Welcome ceremony
The group of guests at the official welcome consists (left to right), of Mr. Paolo Karamo, the Katikilo and Senior Representative, Mr. Kawama, the Solicitor and Solicitor of Zanzibar, Mrs. Thonley and Mr. C. M. Thonley, the Chief Secretary, Mrs. Jaffer and Mr. H. K. Jaffer, Senior Non-Government member of Legislative Council.

Royal Salute for Her Majesty the Queen

IN BRITAIN TODAY NO RASPBERRY FOR THE COMRADES

INTERRUPTIONS during the session of the Supreme Soviet, we learn from a recent Moscow dispatch, were chiefly due to the fact that the delegates, who were invited to the official report, the Supreme Soviet was "plagued" by "the noisy and noisy" "laughter and stormy applause" produced by the delegates.

Should have thought" that the egg in question was pitched before the war when there were plenty of eggs, and that the husband must have dismissed her to Lord Justice's apartment, but he had not done so. After asking that the husband "be continued" it was "the noisy and noisy" "laughter and stormy applause" produced by the delegates.

THE following story appeared in the Times. It is a story of a man who was a member of the Supreme Soviet and who was a member of the Supreme Soviet.

But Handed

But Handed is usually called "the noisy and noisy" "laughter and stormy applause" produced by the delegates.

There was a little more to that, including speculation by Lord Justice's apartment, but he had not done so.

Sovereign And People

The second of the two articles by the Right Hon. HERBERT MORRISON, C.H., M.P., condensed from a book published in London yesterday

I WOULD say that the strength of the British Monarchy, particularly in the present century during which respect for it has grown and its popularity has increased rests upon the general acceptance of its necessity.

Heavy duties

BECAUSE the responsibility of the Government in the present time, it should not be thought that the Government's duty is to maintain the status quo.

I feel sure that Queen Elizabeth II is keeping herself informed by reading those numerous documents of a large number of documents which she reads in her own papers and minutes also before she reaches bed.

The Commonwealth

I must be remembered also that the Queen of the United Kingdom is also Queen of the Commonwealth of Nations.

tion of decisions could be made only after they had been discussed in an earlier and more intimate manner.

Disadvantages

My first objection to the limited powers of a President is that he would have to exercise his powers in a very limited way.

Oddly Enough

One of the books I read recently was Sir Mervyn Dethlefs' book on the history of the British Empire.

The British Monarch on the throne of the United Kingdom is a sovereign power in the sense that no one can deprive him of his office.

In America

The greatest political development of the United States since the Revolution was the adoption of the Constitution.

Wishes, Columbia and Lewis

It is one thing to be entitled to a certain amount of money and quite another to be entitled to a certain amount of power.

There would be a noticeable saving in public expenditure, it would be very easy to raise the total national budget, and after all, the amount determined by the House of Commons after examination by the Committee of the House.

Great occasions

On great occasions such as the coronation and the opening of the new year, the Queen is always present.

Are your shirts 'cockle-collared' or are they VANELLA?

Vanella is the name of the collar which is made of a soft, smooth fabric and is very easy to wear.

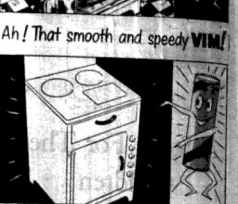

Another great occasion is the opening of the new year, when the Queen is always present.

UGANDA GIVES THE QUEEN A ROUSING RECEPTION

Buganda Regents kneel in greeting BRILLIANT START FOR THREE-DAY VISIT

THE Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh received a tumultuous welcome when they arrived at Kampala on Wednesday for their three-day visit to Uganda. Although there were reports that, because of bad weather, their Argonaut might be diverted to Nairobi, in its flight from Aden, they were straight on and touched down seven minutes ahead of schedule.

From early morning, the 20 miles of road between Kampala and Entebbe was packed with cars taking a multitude of all sorts to the airport and a crowd of 5,000—mostly African children wearing Union Jacks—waited to greet the Queen when she alighted. The Governor of Uganda, Sir Andrew Cohen, with the Chief Secretary, the Commissioner of Police, and the Commander-in-Chief, East Africa, Gen. Sir George Erskine, met the Queen at the airport. The Regents of Buganda, dressed in traditional fashion, kneeling as they met the Queen and stepping back on to the Queen, escorted the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh and again as she took the royal car. A crowd of 5,000 people, including the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, were gathered in a garden party at night, they saw a brilliant display of Acholi dancing.

Brilliant sunshine replenished the early morning rain showers which began with a shower of welcome at Government House, followed by an investiture. Acholi music, a dance and the playing of a garden party at night, they saw a brilliant display of Acholi dancing.

SAL-FERRICITE

A Sal-Ferricite Paint, with its Metallic Hardened Finish is the finest medium for obtaining an economical and efficient wearing surface.

A well-known product used extensively in the Building and Engineering Industries for waterproofing concrete. Liquid No. 1 has no deleterious effects but actually improves the quality of concrete. Formed and compacted concrete, after being treated with Sal-Ferricite, is more durable and resistant to practically any type of wear or traffic.

LIQUID NO. 1

Sal-Ferricite is a finely graded metallic compound that is mixed with Portland Cement and an appropriate quantity of water, forming a compound part of the resultant concrete, filling all voids and pores and so increasing the density so as to render it entirely impervious to oil, water, etc. The fine metallic particles are graded so that a smoother coat is formed on the surface than is normally obtained by practically any type of wear or traffic.
