Tanganyika sets cotton price problem

Turnovers of up to £11,000 by African traders

15 CENTS A LB. ABOVE UGANDA GUARANTEE

TANGANYIKA'S decision to pay a record 6 cents a lb. for seed cotton now being grown in the Lake Province is likely to raise serious problems for the Uganda Government, which has fixed 4 cents per lb. as the minimum guaranteed price for the growers for Prospector's 1954/1955 crop.

The Lake Province, about 400,000 acres in extent and the other two areas are being sown to the growing cotton with a crop similar to last year's 600,000 bales, extra 20 cents up to Uganda growers would involve an extra £1,500,000.

A local Uganda cotton grower said yesterday the knowledge that a price of 6 cents per lb. was being paid in Tanganyika was bound to have some effect in the area.

Export loss

It would be difficult to make the African farmer understand that it was the difference between the importance of the cotton crop in the two territories, and that in much a larger Uganda has an export value on its cotton on a scale (rising with price obtained for the crop) £2,000,000 this year towards £1,000,000 last year.

As the practice in Uganda is to sell the cotton to the Government for not less than 4 cents per lb. (rising to 6 cents per lb. in the next season), but before the crop is sold, the Government is likely to be in a position to buy the cotton at 6 cents per lb. (rising to 8 cents per lb. in the next season).

Meru district

In the Meru district of the Central Province traders were being allowed to transport their cotton to the coast for sale. This was a departure from the practice of the district's cotton, and affected its export earnings.

More than £1,500,000 was paid for the cotton in the Meru district in the last season, and it is expected that this year will be no less than £2,000,000.

Owner attacked in raid on shop

A raid on a shop in the Meru district resulted in the owner being attacked and injured. The raid was conducted by a group of men who were looking for a specific item.

Higher grade

Uganda cotton is of a higher grade than that of Tanganyika, and this is likely to result in a higher price for the former's cotton.

Continuing his series Round and About, Wif Nussey drops into the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society's exhibition in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi, and describes the scene which looks like a Nairobi in Wonderland setting to him.

Wonderland Mixture In The Memorial Hall

Model of the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society's exhibition in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi.

I THOUGHT I had walked into Wonderland. The Memorial Hall door closed behind us with a soft click, shutting us off from the outside world.

There was a delightful confusion, because next to railway station, a modern black of this about six inches high, a grinning African with spear pointed speculatively gazing at the pottery.

The Red Queen from the "Looking Glass" peered with an evil grin over the edge of a wooden box. In a far corner an attractive blonde, dressed in a purple belt, looked at me too large and not it down with a sigh.

Patience, love and honor of work must have been spent on this model by Mr. E. Fryers of Kenya Education Department.

The society came to life in the Colony. It has more than succeeded in its aim. It now has about 100 members and a committee of seven including the president, Mr. R. McQueen, M.P.

There are many sections in the society, mostly one of each type of work. Some members create puppets, others work in wood, and some in metal.

Life classes

THE largest class of members are interested in painting and sketching with water colors and charcoal. Life classes are held every Monday evening at the society's studio in the Ashburn.

The junior section's members are aged 17 to 18 years and are typically, very busy spending months at all manner of work, and many of them are already members of the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society's exhibition.

High prices

THIS week's exhibition was a fine example of the standard of their work. The exhibits included high quality work in wood, metal, and pottery. Some items are really quite beautiful, and they are well worth the price.

SUCCESSFUL CLIMBS ON THE TIBETAN FRONTIER

WHILE I have been recuperating at a quiet but violent illness, the other members of the expedition have been far from inactive.

A party of three has gone to the head of the glacier and the rest of the expedition has moved to the station of (25,600 ft.) which we are now working to our objectives. By May 21 we had recovered camp 1 to our camp and then to our camp again. The signs of the advance were greater. There were many new signs of ice and snow and many of the mountains and peaks were being worked through by the hardy and intrepid mountaineers. The weather was generally fine and the air was very clear and fresh. The front-hill party had been camped at a height of 27,000 ft. for several days. They had a good indication of the slope of the mountain.

Peak 25,600 ft. was the mountain which dominates the view of the Hunan Glacier, which was climbed by Lane and Herby. Camp 11 situated at 25,600 ft. was in view on the horizon.

OUR enforced retreat from the attack on the Makalu peak. The mountain was 28,000 ft. high. The time limit was 10 days. The weather was very good. The snow was very dry and the wind was very light.

We started at the west end of the Hunan glacier and moved to the east. The mountain was 28,000 ft. high. The time limit was 10 days. The weather was very good. The snow was very dry and the wind was very light.

May 28 dawned fine and clear and when we set out on our march the sky was blue and the air was fresh. The mountain was 28,000 ft. high. The time limit was 10 days. The weather was very good. The snow was very dry and the wind was very light.

Sir Edmund Hillary, leader of the New Zealand Alpine Expedition in the Himalayas, wrote this report while recuperating at Camp 1 in the Lower Barun Valley after his illness. While he was resting, other members of the expedition who had been forced to give up their attempt on the Makalu Col turned their attention to unclimbed peaks nearby. Sir Edmund reports here their success story—and how a Sherpa was saved when he slipped on a narrow ice ridge.

Eldoret wearing a confident look

PROSPEROUS YEAR EXPECTED

Modern buildings taking shape and a £2,000 factory on the way. Eldoret is looking forward to a year of increased development and prosperity. The water treatment plant which is nearing completion will give the town abundant supplies of pure water. Eldoret West is developing rapidly and many houses have already been erected in the Asian residential quarter there, the African Social Club is flourishing successfully, and further social amenities are planned for the near future.

These and other details were given at the last Board meeting of the municipal year by the Chairman, C. M. Robinson. He also stated that the Board had decided to buy a new truck for the water department of the town. Five plots in Industrial Area were being advertised, and a number had already been allocated.

Plot in 16 hours

Coun. Wall told the Board that the Pinyan, Baya and Co. had approached the Town Council about a 16-acre industrial site and within a matter of one to two hours were given 'a plot in their pocket.'

Other business for the factory, which would cost about £20,000, had been received, and it was hoped that the end of the year would be a record one.

The order of the towns council to be given to the East African Powers and Lighting Board was read by Mr. Robinson. Mr. Sherriff Street, Capt. Smith is building a new house in the centre of the town. Mr. Sherriff Street has already been approved.

New premises

Mr. Wall said that the new premises for the water department were under construction. The water department will be moving into the new premises in the near future. The water department will be moving into the new premises in the near future.

Tanganyika road work held up

ALTHOUGH MORE than half of the 80-mile road between Tangi and Kororve is already in use, rock strata, clay beds and the high water content of the soil are hampering work, according to a consultant's report.

The consultants have been unable to lay concrete because of the soil, and until favourable conditions are obtained the project cannot be pushed forward.

W. AFRICAN TERRITORIES TO FORM OWN ARMIES

Local 'Sandhurst' recommended

BRITAIN'S four West African territories are to have their own armies—and West African officers probably will pass through a local 'Sandhurst' in future. These and other recommendations are contained in the 'Report of the West African Forces Conference', just published in London. The conference was held last year.

The recommendations are that the territories should have their own armies, and that the territories should have their own armies, and that the territories should have their own armies.

SILENCE THE BEST FORM OF SERVICE

Too much said by too many

MRS. PANDIT, president of the United Nations Committee on the Status of Women, has called for an atmosphere of peace, respect and understanding in which the labours of the women's movement for peace could be fruitful. She was speaking at a luncheon in his honour by the Indian Government in London.

'I believe that there is a time in the life of nations when silence is the best form of service. I believe that much of the world's trouble is because many people speak too many words.'

'I think that now the world is in a particularly unhappy state because of the lack of a peaceful atmosphere. I think that now the world is in a particularly unhappy state because of the lack of a peaceful atmosphere.'

A STORY AND PUZZLE FOR CHILDREN

Mr. Spector was a keen sportsman. He had a fine collection of very pretty game birds, many of which he had to perform well.

He wanted the babies to follow in his footsteps, so he bought them five cents and sent them to the nearest game store.

One day they were sitting in the bin he wanted to sell them. He wanted to sell them for a good price, so he put a sign on the bin that said "Five cents each."

Mr. Spector got his birds and he was very happy. He had five cents for each bird.

This was a puzzle. He had five cents for each bird. He had five cents for each bird. He had five cents for each bird.

The competition is for all boys and girls in the district. The three boys of the school are the winners. The three boys of the school are the winners.

The Political Situation

The political situation in Kenya is becoming increasingly complex. The Government is facing a number of challenges, including the need to address the demands of the African majority and to maintain the interests of the white minority. The recent election results have shown a clear mandate for change, but the Government has been slow to respond. This has led to a growing sense of frustration among the African population. The Government must take prompt action to address these concerns and to establish a more inclusive and democratic system of governance.

Prisoners

The Government's policy regarding prisoners is a subject of concern. The Government has been accused of mistreating prisoners and of denying them basic rights. This is a serious violation of international law and human rights. The Government must take immediate steps to improve the treatment of prisoners and to ensure that they are afforded the same basic rights as the general population. This includes the right to a fair trial, the right to legal representation, and the right to humane treatment.

These changes are expected to take effect in the near future.

Defeat

The Kenyan team has suffered a defeat in the recent Commonwealth Games. This was a disappointing result for the team and for the country. The defeat was the result of a combination of factors, including a lack of preparation and a lack of experience. The team must learn from this experience and work to improve themselves for future competitions. The defeat should not be seen as a reflection of the ability of the Kenyan athletes, but rather as a challenge to be overcome.

AN ENTHUSIAST REVIVES ... Fencing, sport with an ancient tradition NEW CLUB 'GOING STRONG'

FENCING, the art of swordsmanship, is a sport with centuries of tradition behind it. In Great Britain, however, until comparatively recently there were few fencing clubs outside the universities, the public schools and the Services. But since 1945, fencing has become increasingly popular and the Amateur Fencing Association now has sections covering 15 countries.

Nakuru Rugsby

The association organises annual amateur tournaments and individual championships. Fencing has always been an Olympic Games event, although it received international honours from the British and the French. British standards have been improving steadily, due mainly to the appointment of a national fencing coach and the introduction of a national training centre.

The policy proved

The last English Games proved the policy, and have gained a special reputation.

It has also been indicated in Kenya where it has been introduced in this respect, but it has never been tested very long. This has been largely due to the fact that the necessary equipment is not available in Kenya. The Kenya Fencing Club will take place in the grounds of the Kenya Club, Nairobi, on the 15th of the month, beginning at 7.30 p.m.

THREE SCHOOLS' SPORTS

The sixth annual triangular athletic sports meeting in the form of the All-India School, Dhaka, will be held at the Kenya Club, Nairobi, on the 15th of the month, beginning at 7.30 p.m.

Long waiting list

The long waiting list of the club is maintained by the rather unorthodox policy of the club, which allows only one member to be accepted at a time, and this is restricted and there is a long waiting list.

Instruction is given in all three weapons — foil, epee and sabre. The club is coached by Mr. F. R. Scott, one of the experts of the school and an ex-member of Durham University Fencing Club.

Hopes for future

The development of the sport in Kenya is being encouraged by the Kenya Fencing Club, which has a high degree of physical fitness, and a high degree of physical fitness, and a high degree of physical fitness.

Kisumu, Uganda yachting

At the Kisumu Yacht Club on Sunday the third race in the Hare Cup series was sailed in light weather conditions throughout. Six boats started, and the race was cheerfully won by Pervin in Typhoon.

All the boats were well up to the line at gunnery and after a tussling race between Pervin and Dan had some other competitors in the rear. Pervin made a decisive turn and took the lead. Going very well, Pervin remained ahead for most of the race.

England beats The Rest XV

England beat The Rest XV by 16 points (two goals, two tries) to 10 points (two goals) in a Rugby match played by the Uganda Sports Ground on Saturday last.

The first half was a tussling affair, with England taking advantage to score a try through the hands of Watson. However, after a superb try later received by the Rest, the kick-off was a period of uninteresting play. During a clear run to the line, Watson was tackled by the Rest, but he managed to score a try through the hands of Watson.

The match was played by Pervin and Dan, who were well up to the line at gunnery and after a tussling race between Pervin and Dan had some other competitors in the rear.

The Victoria Yacht Club sailing on the weekend, July 2nd, was a success. The race was sailed in light weather conditions throughout.

CANADIANS CHANGE THEIR HABITS

HIGH coffee prices have caused Canadians to turn to tea drinking. The rival merits of the two drinks are being compared in a recent study by the Canadian Food Inspection Agency.

An authoritative study by the Canadian Food Inspection Agency, Ottawa, shows that Canadians are drinking more tea and less coffee than they did a few years ago.

Beetland Britons

With Canadians, with an average annual consumption of 100 lbs., they are far in front of the Britons, who consume only 40 lbs. a head.

The practical change in tea-drinking habits, which has occurred in Canada during this century, has been the conversion from green tea to black, though in Canada, as in the rest of the world, the French preference for green tea continues. (Reuter)

Mauritius—important and yet almost unknown

A COLONY OF CONTRASTS

By a Special Correspondent
THE SERVICES provided by their families who live and work on the Mauritius, 3,000 miles off the coast of East Africa, find it hardly to be readily forgotten. It is a different place from the Mauritius that was captured by the British more than 100 years ago. Today the coral beach, the mountains and lagoons make the Mauritius a popular holiday resort for the majority of officers and men who live there with their families.

Thirty years ago, however, it was a different story. It was a small island with a few European settlers. It was a remote island, a "backwater" of the British Empire, a place where the only connection with the outside world was the sea.

It was not until 1810 that the Mauritius was truly opened up to the world. It was then that the French came and took possession of the island. They built a town, they planted sugar cane, and they made the Mauritius a colony of contrasts.

The French brought with them the ideas of the Revolution, the ideas of liberty, of equality, of justice. They brought with them the ideas of progress, of science, of industry.

They brought with them the ideas of civilization, of culture, of art. They brought with them the ideas of religion, of morality, of duty.

They brought with them the ideas of hope, of faith, of love. They brought with them the ideas of peace, of harmony, of unity.

SEVEN E.A. STUDENTS FOR UNITED STATES

College and university placings trebled

SEVEN East African students have been placed at American colleges and universities this year—more than double the number accepted in previous years.

Four of the students are from Kenya. Previously, the most students accepted from East Africa were two—the Kenyan student accepted by the newly formed Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika Committee for Study and Training in the United States.

The committee spokesman said that the number of students accepted in 1955 was trebled.

The seven students begin their courses in September. They will range from medical and tertiary to agricultural and biological studies. In addition to getting a course of study in their respective fields, they will also receive instruction in the English language.

Mr. A. H. Kagwini, secretary of the committee, said that the students are from Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika. He said that the committee has received applications from many other students and that it is expected that the number of students accepted in 1956 will be even larger.

SIR PHILIP MITCHELL LOOKS BACK—4

European Political Activities In Kenya

Extracts from Chapter "From Kenya Via The Pacific To Kenya"

In recent years, it has been pointed in the Press in Kenya that the Socialist movement in Britain, since 1919, regularly read the papers and had a weekly cable to the territories on which it lay to the east of the Indian Ocean. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

Unattainable
THERE was another aspect of this matter of which it was necessary to take account, European politics in Kenya, ever since I came, remember, and with the reactions of European, Indian and African opinion in this country in which I have been so concerned. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

Resign call
THE first political association in Kenya was the Kenya African National Union, which was formed in 1952. It was the first political association in Kenya...

Most competent
THERE is no question but that the European population in Kenya is the most competent in any of the territories of the British Empire. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

which I have been concerned with all the rest of my life. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

A mystery
THE gap in my time in Kenya that I have referred to in my previous articles is a mystery. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

Major aim
I SHOULD not expect much to be said of the major aim of the Kenya African National Union. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

Equal rights
I MUST not say that I have been concerned with all the rest of my life. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

In this final selection of extracts from his book "African Afterthoughts" Sir Philip Mitchell, former Commissioner and Chief of Kenya, has praise and criticism for Europeans in the political life of the Colony, and the duties for some of the problems which were being encountered during the period when white and black still co-existed at present.

"The current organization, the Electoral Commission, is a body for the purpose of supporting the proposition that all political and social opinion. But in fact there is not, and never has been, any such unity..."

Plan for success
We will surely have our institutions, as a common factor, in a battle for success as we are to plan now a better way of life for the people of the territories of the British Empire...

A right
THERE is also a substantial and constantly growing body of Africans who are backward members of the European community. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

Equal rights
I MUST not say that I have been concerned with all the rest of my life. It is not surprising that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire, but that it should have no identical extension in the territories of the British Empire...

It is a matter of fact

Throughout the world today much is said about truth, so much so that the very word must at times be given credence. It is offered more mileage more rubber nose putters and greater gifts in its many words. The impression is almost that the truth will actually make money for him as it moves.

The assiduous member looks at it as a more joyful way after all, he says, that is a true? It is a card and ribbon product which depends on the life on the way he treats it. It is treated it badly he gets more service, it is treated it well he will be rewarded with more jobs of trouble-free running. Moreover he says, there is nothing more about a true it is made and sold to him as the job is intended to do.

NOVAE Tires have been sold in East Africa since the early days of motoring. We make no elaborate claims for them, we merely say that they offer you a best-class product for the money you spend on them. Thousands of East African motorists have found that, given proper care and attention, NOVAE has given them in return everything they want from a tire and everything they are ever likely to get.

Why don't you try NOVAE next time you buy tires?
