R. A. F. FLIGHT'S HUNDRED PER CENT SUCCESS

All Three Aircraft Beat Distance Record

The world's record for a non-stop long distance flight was broken by all three of the Royal Air Force "Wellington" bombers which left Lima, Erythraea, for Australia on Saturday. Two of them landed in Darwin, Australia, within three minutes of each other yesterday afternoon and the third—came in later, having had to stop at Koepang, on Timor Island, to refuel.

The minimum distance necessary to beat the record—set up by the Russian flyers who flew from Moscow to California over the North Pole—was 10,000 miles, and all three R.A.F. machines passed this total when they reached the south east end of Celebes Island.

London, Nov. 7. The world's long distance non-stop flight record was captured for the first time by the three Royal Air Force long range "Wellington" bombers landed at Darwin, Northern Australia, within three minutes of each other yesterday afternoon. The flight was a triumph for the R.A.F. as it was the first time that a non-stop flight of this length had been made.

Member for Kiambu urges Finance Committee To Be Vigilant

When the debate on the Estimates was resumed in Legislative Council yesterday, the Earl of Effingham pointed out that although the estimate of next year's revenue was £206,000 less than the revised estimate for the present year, the estimated expenditure was £57,000 more than that sanctioned for this year.

He argued that the Standing Finance Committee should do everything possible to reduce recurrent expenditure.

Another proposal by the Member for Kiambu was that a Devising Committee should be appointed with strong unofficial representation which would assume responsibility for making recommendations.

Sir Edward Grigg, Governor of Kenya, in a special interview published in the 'Daily Telegraph and Morning Post' declares that one thing is certain, without prejudice to whatever other territory Germany may recover in Africa or elsewhere, Tanganyika must never come under the Swastika.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Armistice Day.
NOT A WAITING STAY.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
Sir—The observations of "The Editor" on Armistice Day in the most remarkable manner in our national history. We are, in the whole, entirely of his opinion, and we are glad to see that the country has caught the inspiration and turned the page to a new chapter in its history.

I think that their idea of a Peace League of Women is a splendid one, but I am afraid that it is hopelessly premature if the women of the world are to be the arbiters of the peace of the world. It is a pity that the women of the world are not more united in their efforts to bring about a peace that will be permanent and lasting.

At the "East African Standard" meeting in London on the 2nd inst. I saw a lady who was speaking of the possibility of a peace conference being held in London. She said that she had been approached by a number of people who were interested in the idea of a peace conference being held in London. How to make delicious gravy

In all our days, just get your cook to put on your good temper, or some of those little heads and make delicious gravy with a half a pint of water (not boiling water).

Place the minute hair the most of, from which the fat has been removed. Stir well and boil for 10 minutes.

The result is a delicious, rich gravy, free from lumps and seasoned by salt. A gravy that will make your guests so much appreciative and make the meal so far more.

SAFETY—

You do not see how your brakes work? all you see is the effort. If you did see then you would demand Equal-Pressure Hydraulic Brakes, and here's why: Equal-Pressure Hydraulic Brakes exert pressure evenly and simultaneously against all brake shoes in all wheels, bringing the car to a smooth stop that discourages skidding or side slipping. In Self-Exercising brakes—the most widely used other type—only one brake shoe in the wheel receives the pressure and it operates the other shoe by leverage, building up the pressure instead of applying it all evenly and at once. Dodge engineers produced the first hydraulic brakes for motor cars. They led the industry with safer braking, and have led with the safest brakes ever since.

PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN REJECTED

Arab-Jewish Talks To Take Place In London

BRITISH DECISION

The Peel Commission's plan for the partition of Palestine into independent Arab and Jewish States, with certain parts under British Mandate, has been rejected by the British Government, which will call an immediate conference of Arab and Jewish representatives to take place in London. If this conference does not reach an early settlement, the Government will make its own decisions.

The news was announced in London yesterday afternoon with the publication of a Government White Paper on the report of the Woodhead Commission which was examining the Peel Partition plan. Although the Woodhead Commission rejected the partition plan, it could not reach unanimity on any alternative.

In referring to the political, financial and administrative difficulties that would be created by an attempt to partition Palestine, the Government declared its intention of continuing responsibility for the government of the whole of the country.

London, November 19.—The Woodhead Commission on Palestine has unanimously agreed to a White Paper setting out the Government's decision to continue its responsibility for the government of the whole of the country. The Government proposes the immediate withdrawal of its troops from Palestine. It also proposes the immediate withdrawal of its troops from Palestine. It also proposes the immediate withdrawal of its troops from Palestine.

THE KENYA ANGLO

A Motion on the Tanganyika Question

The Member for Nairobi North will introduce to the Kenya Legislative Council today a motion which deals with the Tanganyika question. It is framed in simple terms. It views with "concern" the harmful repercussions on Kenya and dependencies occasioned by uncertainty regarding the future of Tanganyika. It calls upon the Imperial Government "for an early unequivocal and open re-annunciation."

Presumably the motion has been worded with special care as that another of His Majesty's Colonial Governments should not be embarrassed, though we are unable to imagine why it should not be competent for a definition of opinion, because in this issue the Government is asked to voice the anxiety of the people whose interests it is appointed to protect. It is inconceivable that there should be any difficulty about this. The facts are so plain that they do not require to be disputed. It is incontrovertible that if Tanganyika is handed over to Germany the whole of Kenya and Uganda and Zanzibar will be gravely menaced and an early re-annunciation is imperative before the evil effects of the situation, already evident in Tanganyika, are extended to the neighbouring Dependencies.

In Uganda the traditional attitude of complacency towards the Government has prevented any stirring of public opinion in support of the task which the settlers in Kenya have undertaken but it may be that a clear lead from the Legislature of the United Kingdom and the public in Uganda and Zanzibar to their place in movement which broadly based on the threat to the whole of Eastern Africa. It would be logical and encouraging if the Government of Kenya, during its debate on the motion—its indication is intended to indicate the danger of the dangers of the situation which has made the resolution necessary. At the least the country, except a unanimous vote, without abstention. It is necessary, too, to make it clear that the motion should be communicated at once to the Imperial Government.

The report today of the message which has been sent to the Government candidate in the West African Elections by Malcolm MacDonald is illuminating and significant. He acted in this instance as the Secretary of State for the Colonies, though he is in fact the Dominions Secretary, and he added his intention to know whether what the Dominions Government (especially those of South Africa and Rhodesia) would do in the event of the employment of a Government of the type which the Prime Minister is at the moment pursuing. Urging support for Mr. Chamberlain's "unwavering policy for peace," the Secretary of State for the Colonies declares that the proposals of Great Britain "have long realized that there were certain features of the Versailles Treaty that would require revision. This should have been achieved long ago" and the failure of the League of Nations to do so was "no reason why the world should be plunged into another war" to prevent changes which would be desirable and which would remove some of the chief causes of friction in Europe."

It is legitimate to assume that, as Colonial Secretary, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald was representing the Government's official claims, the only remaining important unaltered part of the Versailles Treaty. It is legitimate to assume that his main aim was to assure that his intervention in a hypothesis has been made with content and indeed at the suggestion, if not dictation, of the Prime Minister. Otherwise there is no reason why a junior Minister and particularly one representing Empire interests, should have intervened when the Government has just lost the Dartmouth seat to a Socialist in a straight fight with the main party who was the Premier's foreign policy. At Nairobi, where Sir George Schuster is standing as a Labour-Nationalist against a Socialist, the international situation is again the main issue and Sir George has been adopted as the official candidate.

The message sent by the Secretary is an added reason why the Kenya Legislative Council should show its solidarity in the Tanganyika case. The people of East Africa have every right to seek an explanation of that message sent at a moment when Herr Hitler (again rejecting war as an alternative) has made his demand and when his Pro-Paganda Minister, Dr. Goebbels, is uttering vilification criticisms against the African Press and denouncing them as "warmongers" because they are for once engaged in a vigorous movement with the energy and imagination which has hitherto been the hallmark of Dr. Goebbels' own essays in publicity. It is not war-mongering to stand up in defence of one's own home; at the very least it can only be the adoption of the principle of self-determination, which Germany's politicians have so forcibly emphasized in recent months. The African Press will be disturbed or influenced by the latest German desire to maintain freedom of thought and expression the direction which has reduced the newspaper to the status of pamphlets for political propaganda.

WITCHCRAFT HANGING APPEAL CASE

Tribal Killing Described As "Suicide Of Victim"

When the appeal of the 44 Kenya natives against sentence of death for hanging a supposed witch-doctor was heard in the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa at Dar es Salaam it was stated that when certain tribesmen committed a killing, the witch-doctor and hanged them, or made them hang themselves, it had been the custom for the Native elders and warriors to kill the witch-doctor.

Members of the Court drew attention to what they described as "magical means punishment," and emphasized the need for complete proof in the case of each accused.

The Court is to announce its judgment at a later date.

[Nairobi] (Continued)

In the concluding stages of the hearing of the appeal of the 44 Kenya natives, in the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa at Dar es Salaam, Mr. Justice G. C. G. Phillips, in his judgment against conviction and sentence at the trial, stated that the appellant, Mr. A. Phillips, mentioned that the case of a man, No. 29, was a special one, as he was the man who had suggested taking the matter of the witch-doctor to the attention of the Court.

Special case

Mr. Phillips, C.J., there gave evidence to show that accused No. 29 was present. That in what was to be considered a "suicide" that a man had suggested hanging himself, and the scene of the killing had been witnessed by several witnesses. It did not support the case against accused No. 29.

Crown Counsel then proceeded to list briefly with some of the statements made by the various accused in the lower court, as follows:

There was a supposed witch-doctor present made by No. 1 named "M. Phillips," because the witness saw him go and do it.

Magical means

The case of one important witness, Mr. Phillips, because of the evidence of the other said that they had nothing to do with the killing. No. 11 and No. 12, each of the latter named "M. Phillips," because the witness saw him go and do it.

Common intention

Mr. Phillips, C.J., then proceeded to state that what the Court objects to, added Mr. McCallister—"the fact that each accused had a common intention to kill the victim."

Colony In Commons Debate: "Nothing To Say"

The debate on the reply to the King's speech continued in the House of Commons yesterday and discussion raised over such topics as the Government's foreign policy, the question of a two-power pact, the Munich agreement, and the Far Eastern question.

GERMAN JEWS SUFFER NEW PERSECUTION

Outrages against Jews throughout Germany, connected by the German press with "popular indignation" at the assassination of the German diplomat, Herr von Rath, by a Polish Jew in Paris, but stated by foreign observers to have been instigated by Nazis with no support in popular feeling, began on Wednesday night and continued yesterday.

Shops were wrecked and looted systematically, synagogues were burned and, apparently, Jews were arrested wholesale. Twenty-two are stated to have been committed to Vienna yesterday.

AN APPRECIATION

"I would like to take this opportunity to compliment you upon your excellent second-hand Cax Sales Service. I am very pleased with the Chevrolet which I bought from you. I change my car every year, and have dealt with most of the garages in Nairobi at one time or another. In future I shall deal with you, as your second-hand cars carry a guarantee which really means something."

KENYA SUPPORT FOR TANGANYIKA
 A Final Debate
 His Excellency the Governor of Kenya believes that the motion in Legislative Council, "That the Government of Kenya should support the Government of Tanganyika," is a matter of national importance.

At times of strong emotional feeling, the British people turn hearts to the comforting strength, and inspiration and solace to their Christian faith. No better example is provided in recent years than that of the late King George V, whose death was met with a universal outpouring of grief and sympathy. The late King's death was met with a universal outpouring of grief and sympathy.

"SPENDTHRIFT" RAISES THE STANDARD

SPENDTHRIFT is all for Effie. It seems to be the spirit of the times, what with the upped hair platform shoes, specially designed furniture and materials and enlighten'd accessories that one can get these days.

A nice in salary would just about meet it. Spending expert for uplift of the sale, she went to Kadley's to see what she could get for her money. She found that they are expected next the end of the month. The second most attractive (and moderately priced) to be seen are brown or beige but blue; she saw the appropriate thing for her and brother and very easily bought these things and was made of cork covering with leather. There will also be some smart top-coats made to wear with white frocks.

Butler's hat in stock one of the best-selling Gull shoes. Spendthrift has seen made of a new and very smart French leather called as "Gull" soft, smooth and honey-combed. She has to be plain as a Gull shoe should be, have a lovely line and is light-weight. It is a fitting and cute about 20/- What is more, you get a pair of these shoes with your purchase of 25/- which is only fair when you consider the difference in size!

There are also some extremely high-heeled afternoon shoes which will be sold for 40/-, one with a coating about 40/-, one with black and white material and with a little leather, one with a blue glass and a little leather, and another with a blue glass and a little leather. And for the dinner dress, an attractive, light-colored dress for 25/- with a high, slightly gathered skirt and very low neckline, with a thin line of white.

Finally, for any woman who

Thinking she'd like to have sweep-up hair, Spendthrift went to Mason's where to see if they could give her money; she was told that was fortunate for her, as they were practically any type of hair and make-up of any type of permanent waving. They have Macdonald's (Broom), Enner's (all shades), Wella (the strong color), and Macdonald's (all shades) among others. Also a brand-new type of super hair-dryer, a smart black shiny jacket when dress you quickly for a party.

La Femme S'Amuse I FOR ONE... Discuss 'Best Friends'

ALMOST everybody craves conversation now and days and that is the job of our "best friend"—just plain, unadorned conversation. It is the only thing that we can all do together and make for ourselves. It is the only thing that we can all do together and make for ourselves.

People sometimes say books are their friends, but they fall in line, that while they may take you out of yourself, comfort you with the knowledge that other people have been troubled or exhilarated by what you are reading. It is the opportunity of listening to a friend.

It is that many people's best friend in the pastime and in the present. It is the only thing that we can all do together and make for ourselves. It is the only thing that we can all do together and make for ourselves.

AN EXILE IN MAYFAIR Goes Gaily To Town

ONCE, when I was a very young and stupid, I said rudely about a woman's name other than myself "She's nice but completely brainless and the only thing she can do is to dress well."

My companion, who was far wiser than I, retorted "If she can dress well, she cannot possibly be brainless!"

GOOD-BYE FOTHERINGHAM

The last of the short stories about an odd sort of butler by JOHN HEYGATE

"This morning towards the end of June I received a letter from her paper. "Where are you looking for my boy today? What holiday has he got for his holiday home, old man?"

"The girl was the daughter of the man."

"I had no idea. No one could say I had inherited my uncle's money. I had not taken any steps to ring the bell for Fotheringham."

"The girl was the daughter of the man."

EVENTS IN INDIA Bombay Legislative Council Debates Jewish Settlement in Kenya

THE proposed colonization of Kenya by Jewish colonists in order to the Premier Mr. B. K. Ghosh explained that the subject was not one within the competence of the Provincial Government to whom the resolution was made stated it was still under consideration. The resolution was eventually withdrawn, but according to The Statesman it indicated the trend of Indian opinion "on a project which would further complicate the already dangerously complex racial position in East Africa."

THE CHEAPEST Real MOTORING THAT MONEY CAN BUY

VAUXHALL
10 four
40 M.P.G.

VAUXHALL
12 four
35 M.P.G.

VAUXHALL
14 six
30 M.P.G.

The outstanding feature of each of these Vauxhalls is the unusual combination of roominess, comfort and economy. The 16-four provides the cheaper motoring; the 13-four costs slightly more to run, but it is an appreciably bigger car while the 18-six is the ideal family car. We do not suggest that you buy any of them, but we do ask you to try every other first (or twelve or fourteen) before you make your choice.

A MILLION LESS

Strange Contrasts in East Africa

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1955
Everybody in Kenya is excited in the working of the new Government and read the speech made by the Prime Minister before the Legislative Council by His Excellency the Governor of Kenya, Sir George Schuster. We hope particularly that the efforts of the Government of Kenya and the Executive Council of the Legislative Council will stand by it because it will do much good. With all respect we must comment on the attitude of the Government of Kenya who has in his attitude to the Legislature the responsibility for development shows some appreciation of the need for change.

The Kenya Legislative Council will discuss the Budget. No doubt many of the members have already prepared their minds and their speeches and are ready to discuss the Budget. The Government is again to tell us what the Budget represents the Government's plan for the year. It is not to be materially altered without the approval of the Legislature. The Government is again to tell us what the Budget represents the Government's plan for the year. It is not to be materially altered without the approval of the Legislature.

Let us look at Uganda and at some chapters in past history. The Government of Uganda today has a million pounds in the bank. It has been deliberately reducing taxation and restoring to the people what they have lost. It is not to be materially altered without the approval of the Legislature.

It is time that the people of Kenya really begin to take an interest in public life. They must be interested in the preparation of a Budget and in the working of the Government. It is time also that the Executive Members began to examine the Budget and to determine to whom it should be referred.

In 1952 the Kenya Executive Advisory Committee decided a chapter of their Report to be sent to the Provincial Administrators and reference to Provincial Administrators, and said: "In regard to the Provincial Administrators, the Government and the work of the departments there appear to us to be excessive centralization of power and authority in the hands of the Provincial Administrators." This is a very serious criticism.

Why somebody would find why the Government of Kenya has not been able to make a similar announcement long ago. It is a pity that the Government was generally a lover of Provincialism working a co-ordinated policy and programme.
