"PISTOL AT OUR HEAD"

Italian Press Comment On Tunis And Corsica

ITALY HAS PROBLEMS TO SETTLE WITH FRANCE. THEY WILL EITHER BE RESOLVED, OR ITALY WILL RESOLVE THEM. SO SAYS AN INSPIRED ITALIAN NEWSPAPER ARTICLE, WHICH DEPRECATES TUNIS AND CORSICA AS PISTOLS POINTED AT THE HEAD OF ITALY.

It is reported that efforts have been issued in Italy to stop demonstrations against France, but the press is now pointing the country's demands against France in more detail. Giorno is particularly concerned with the issue, and writes, he declares, Italy must have an interest proportionate to her use of the Canal.

Things are quieter in Tunis, but six Italians, two stated to be the employees of the Italian Embassy, are under arrest on charges of insulting France.

London, December 11.

As is reported from Italy that the case has been given to stop demonstrations against France, and Italian newspapers are now taking a more optimistic line. Giorno is particularly concerned with the issue, and writes, he declares, Italy must have an interest proportionate to her use of the Canal.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS? SOLVE THE PROBLEM BY COMING TO US FOR THEM. Gardening SEEDS FOR SALE

The hens once held a hearing
They came from near and far
Some came by Wilson Airways planes
And some by motor car.

The Chairman said "now listen"
"I've had an excellent egg"
"That fellow Seager's making now"
"A better called 'EGG FLIP'"

"No chicken eggs with du-lin"
"He makes the best of 'em"
"Let's give him a couple of eggs"
"For loss would be a sin"

"I'll second that," said someone,
"But how about someone?"
"The bill will be a big one"
"For eggs is things that means"

A Leghorn took the platform
"This problem we must tackle"
"Now every time we lay an egg"
"Let's give a heavy tackle"

The motion it was carried
And that is why, they say
A hen must cackle as it lays
To letty the boys "O.K."

So when you hear a cackler
And that is why, they say
You'll know the reason why
Seager's egg flip is so good
And it tops duck—just say.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Indians And District Councils

The Bill to amend the Local Government (District Councils) Ordinance 1933 and the Local Government (Municipalities) Ordinance 1933 came up for second reading in the Kenya Legislative Council on Thursday. Moving the motion, the Attorney General said that one of the objects of the Bill was to bring the two Standing Committees of the Council, the District Councils and Municipalities, as it was considered desirable to have one central body.

The District Commissioner of the district will appoint a member of the District Council. It was desired that the present Ordinance should be amended to provide that where the law under the jurisdiction of a District Council, contained two or more administrative districts, such district commissioners may be appointed by the Governor in Council, or the district officer shall be members of the District Council.

Lady Spicers' laws are not in agreement with the Government, but in the opinion of the Attorney General, the District Councils, which are appointed by the Governor in Council, should be members of the District Councils. The District Commissioner of the district will appoint a member of the District Council. It was desired that the present Ordinance should be amended to provide that where the law under the jurisdiction of a District Council, contained two or more administrative districts, such district commissioners may be appointed by the Governor in Council, or the district officer shall be members of the District Council.

"NEW" USED CARS
DODGE - PLYMOUTH

Last week we drew motorists attention to the fact that owing to a number of our satisfied clients purchasing New 1938 Dodge and Plymouth cars, we had in stock a few 1937 used car models of these makes which were in perfect mechanical running order and whose condition was equal to that of a new car.

A number of these cars have already been sold, but we still have a few left which we have no hesitation in offering to the public under the heading "New Used Cars". They have all been thoroughly overhauled by our mechanics and their condition really is almost equal to that of a new car. We would suggest that you take early advantage of this excellent opportunity of obtaining such fine used car bargains, and we welcome any examination or trial which you may require. A complete list giving full details of used cars will gladly be sent on application.

A South African Campaign
Everybody who has followed the great affairs in South Africa in recent years will know the reasons why the Prime Minister, General Herzing, issued the plain warning to political, professional, school teachers and civil servants reported in our columns today. It has been an unhappy feature of South African public life for a long time that the Nationalist Opposition has been unable to distinguish between the interests and welfare of the country and the interests of the white race. This weakness in the public life of the Union has made it difficult for well-wishers of South Africa to understand some of the personalities which have raged in the Union, not only dividing the English-speaking and the Afrikaner elements but embarrassing the Government and its supporters both here and overseas.

Gen. Hertzog Fears "Degeneration" Of Afrikanerdom

Ministers of the church, he said, were engaging themselves in party politics, knowing that this brought division in their congregations. It could no longer be tolerated that teachers teaching Government schools should be divided between parent and child and parent and parrot and 'befoul social relations'.

The South African Government fears the degeneration of Afrikanerdom, declared the Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd in the course of a recent campaign against the forces of administrative, educational, and religious appointments for the benefit of the majority.

Confidence Shown At Uganda Meetings Of Tanganyika League

IF WE PERSEVERE AND MAKE IT PERFECTLY CLEAR THAT THE PEOPLES OF THESE TERRITORIES WOULD REGARD IT AS AN UNBELIEVABLE BETRAYAL IF TANGANYIKA WERE HANDED BACK TO BERHANYA UNDER SOME SORT OF DISGUISED PRETEXT OR IN ANY FORM, THEN I BELIEVE THAT WITHIN THE NEXT SIX MONTHS THIS ISSUE WILL BE RELEGATED TO THE LIMBO OF THE PAST."

Both at the Kampala meeting and at a subsequent gathering at Jinja, all races were well represented, and resolutions were unanimously carried against the handing back of Tanganyika.

BIG SCALE DEVELOPMENT OF TANGANYIKA

Policy Is To Give Full Scope For Settlement

ENQUIRY TO BE STARTED

Speaking in the LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL TO-DAY THE GOVERNOR OF TANGANYIKA, HIS EXCELLENCY SIR MARK YOUNG, FORESHADOWED A VIGOROUS POLICY OF DEVELOPMENT OF THE HANDICAPPED TERRITORY, WHICH WOULD BE THE UTMOST SATISFACTION TO ALL WHO HEARD IT AND WHICH IS LIKELY TO HAVE A MOST HEARTENING EFFECT ON THE WHOLE COUNTRY. IT IS PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT AT A TIME WHEN UNCERTAINTY REGARDING THE FUTURE HAD A DEPRESSING EFFECT ON EVERY FORM OF ENTERPRISE.

Speaking of the attitude of Government towards projects and particularly development of non-native enterprise, the Governor said it had been thought and still was thought to some extent that the attitude of the Tanganyika Government towards the settlement of non-natives on the land was unpropitious—overs verging on antagonism. There was no justification for that view.

NON-NATIVE SETTLEMENT

The Governor added: "The present and future policy of the Government is to give all possible encouragement and assistance to non-native settlement provided—using the words of one of my predecessors—who there is sound reason for believing it will assist in the task of promoting the prosperity and general well-being of the community."

The Government was perfectly satisfied that there were many projects and many openings for development which ought to come before them and which, simply fulfilled that condition.

"Non-native settlement is not to be regarded as inimical to the interests of the Native population. On the contrary it is an integral part of the policy whereby this Government plans to advance the general prosperity of the country."

COMMITTEE'S TASK

A Mr. Rosenthal announced that by appointing a Committee to examine and report upon the methods whereby the development of the Territory, both by Native and non-native enterprise, may be encouraged and assisted and also to advise upon the extent to which development may be facilitated by works of public utility undertaken by the Government.

IRISH SETTLEMENT

It was also announced that the question of Jewish settlement in Tanganyika is to be investigated by a Select Committee consisting of two official and five unofficial members.

It will be recalled that when the Prime Minister invited the Governors of Colonial and Mandated Territories to consider what steps should be given throughout the Empire to alleviate the religious problem, the Governor of Tanganyika informed him that 80,000 acres could be made available in the Southern part of the country.

BRITAIN IN A DILEMMA THE ITALIAN THREAT TO FRANCE

Prejudicing Chances Of Agreement By Munich Powers

Bills laid on the table.
Motion of confidence.

THREE IS NO AGREEMENT UNDER WHICH BRITAIN WOULD BE BOUND TO GO TO THE ASSISTANCE OF FRANCE IN THE EVENT OF WAR-LIKE OPERATIONS AGAINST FRANCE BY ITALY. NEVERTHELESS BRITAIN HAS MADE IT CLEAR TO ITALY THAT THE RECENT ANTI-FRENCH DEMONSTRATIONS ARE REGARDED AS PREJUDICING THE CHANCES OF COLLABORATION BETWEEN THE MUNICH POWERS.

Mr. Chamberlain in the House of Commons said the primary object of his forthcoming visit to Rome was to settle points of contact and to discuss matters which might be entered into would be subject to discussion and confirmation by Parliament.

London, Dec. 13. Italian claims on Tunisia and other French colonies were discussed today in the House of Commons.
The Prime Minister was first asked whether there was any treaty of understanding which would support France's claim to Tunis and other colonies and the right to go to France if Italy were to invade Tunisia.
Mr. Chamberlain replied that there was no such treaty of understanding.

In a further answer, he recalled that the British Government had always been in favour of the recovery of French Africa and had been in constant collaboration between the four great powers in the world since the outbreak of the present war.
He said he was sure that Italy would be anxious to restore the Italian Empire.

BRITAIN NOW IN POSITION TO FULFIL OBLIGATIONS

More than one during these weeks I have been very desirous to see the approach of the new year, either in my own person or through the medium of the press. I have been very desirous to see the new year in the light of the obligations which we have undertaken to fulfil.

REFUGEES RAISE URGENT PROPOSAL TO PROVIDE FOR A BOND UP TO £500 MAXIMUM

NEARLY 200 IMMIGRANTS

The Kenya Legislative Council critically debated yesterday the Government's Bill to revise the immigration restrictions so as to deal with the urgent problem of refugees.

The main objection taken by the majority of the European Members was to a provision in the Bill that a bond up to £500 can be demanded. They said, might adversely affect the Colony's search for new settlers.

Government spokesmen told the Council that during the past year some 200 refugees had been admitted and applications for permits are being received at the rate of nearly 50 a week.

The Attorney General asserted that the Congo Basin Treaty made it difficult for Kenya to deal with its immigration problem.

PROGRESS IN ABYSSINIA

Roads Built: "High Standard Of Security" Reached

A Correspondent of "The Times," lately in Abyssinia, has given a valuable account of the progress of civilisation and development in the new Italian Colony. The correspondent travelled over 4,000 miles in Italian East Africa and despite the handicap which still exists, he says that the Italians have established a high standard of public security.

Long stretches of tarred roads have already been made, serving hundreds of miles of country.

Three types of settlement are being considered and advance parties of men are already busy clearing the ground and building villages for the reception of the new settlers.

At present there are a quarter of a million resident Italians in Abyssinia.

Following are extracts from the article.

Nowhere is it harder to distinguish between the Italian East African colonies and the Italian East African colonies. Although all reports agree that the Italian East African colonies are the best in the world, it is not without reason that a world of old and new Italian East African colonies has been made. The new public order is the result of the former Italian public order, and the new public order is the result of the former Italian public order. The new public order is the result of the former Italian public order. The new public order is the result of the former Italian public order.

At the end of the article in 1927 and last June, there were 1,000,000 in the Italian East African colonies. The Italian East African colonies are the best in the world. The Italian East African colonies are the best in the world. The Italian East African colonies are the best in the world.

More serious perhaps is the heavy duty imposed in certain parts of the small tribes or sections of tribes who have been driven out of their lands and despite work and labor what they do is not enough to support their families. In some districts no girl will marry unless she has been married at least once. In some districts no girl will marry unless she has been married at least once. In some districts no girl will marry unless she has been married at least once.

France and England

SPECULATION has become a life about the purpose and the result of the visit of the British Prime Minister and Lord Halifax to Paris last week is the grey aftermath of Munich. It was certainly necessary that ministers at the head of both countries should take cognizance of their position and of their mutual relations.

An immense change has occurred in the balance of power, and far-reaching reforms are also in progress in the public minds of both the Western Democracies. Great Britain is divided upon foreign policy as she has never been for fifty years. Political controversy is lively, and will become more so.

In France, the impact of September's grim events has struck all the more deeply because it has been borne in silence. The Chamber endorsed M. Daladier's and Bonnet's action, almost unanimously, one single member of the Right, M. de Kerillis, alone voting with the Communists against it. But every section of French society has been shaken to its foundations.

The shadowy conquest and virtual absorption of Czechoslovakia by Nazi Germany has transformed the military position of France. All her systems of Alliances in Eastern Europe have not only not been re-constructed, except perhaps after a long interval, but have been broken up. Her position in the Balkans is different from that of the United States and Great Britain, and the feeling that they were stronger than Germany, Manchester and America, has been seen what Herr Hitler has been able to accomplish in spite of his weakness. We have now to learn how far we will use this strength.

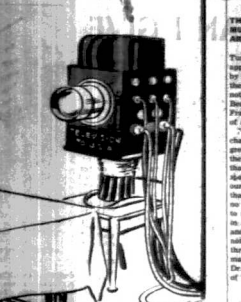

Munich and other triumphs were won in the green wood. What will be done in the future?

The statements of Great Britain and France have written, or will write their names upon these pages which Hitler will sign and no one in either country has any more security from such aims and vagaries of good fortune.

Wanted A FOREIGN POLICY

The recent visit of the Prime Minister and the Foreign Secretary to Paris must focus upon the British Foreign Office the attention of the world. In these days most depends upon British Foreign policy than the future of Great Britain. It is for this reason that not only this country but the world has a right to know how they are being handled. Excessive cynicism is not to be encouraged and repeated Parliamentary debates upon foreign affairs do more harm than good. The machinery of diplomacy is of extreme delicacy. When the Governments have stated from what they are proceeding, along what road and towards what end, then, if the people are satisfied that the general principles are sound, they should be content to wait in patience their results.

It would appear to be only two alternatives—either isolation or alliance. The League of Nations, which was based on the latter, is now a thing of the past. The world is divided into two camps, and the only way to avoid the perils of isolation is to form an alliance with one of the great powers. The only power which is not a member of the League is the United States. The only way to avoid the perils of isolation is to form an alliance with one of the great powers. The only power which is not a member of the League is the United States.

THE NOT-EXACTLY-VACANT CHAIR (Copyright in All Countries.)

By the Rt. Hon. WINSTON CHURCHILL, P.C., M.P.

The principle which united the minds of the French people in resistance to the aggression of the Axis Powers has been steadily breaking down. It is not to be denied that the French people in England have retained an impression of bewilderment. Even I, who for thirty years have steadily professed, in peace and in war, after the cause of Anglo-French solidarity, am somewhat baffled. One does not know what the new France stands for or to what extent it is a continuation of the old France.

The outbreak of strikes and disorders, domestic in the nature of the League, may have the effect of weakening the French position, but it would be a great mistake to regard them as a sign of moral weakness.

"Main Kampf"

Is It Peace or War?

By Mein Kampf Hitler
writes: "The cry for the restoration of colonies is merely empty talk."

But that was in 1924. The words still stand in the book, but elsewhere things have changed. Said Hitler, January 27, 1935: "Colonies are acquired by right of might."

Said Hitler, September 30, 1937: "We must have colonies. But they are worth nothing as so-called armed force is not maintained to guard them. Our interest is commercial."

Said Hitler, November 22, 1937: "We must raise the demand for colonial living space."

What raise it louder and louder so that the rest of the world will not be able to refuse to hear it. What people don't care to hear to-day they will be obliged to ignore in a few years."

Said Hitler's spokesman, Herr Wenig, propaganda leader of the German colonial organization since May 1935: "Now that Austria is incorporated in Greater Germany our need for colonies is the more evident."

"Unfortunately our colonies do not lie on our borders and we cannot get on with them. Otherwise foreign states might suck up one day and read in their morning papers that we are already there."

Says Dr. Bauer, in a National-Socialist Party pamphlet: "The pamphlet 'Mein Kampf' explains Germany's colonial claims to objectives in Europe has been misinterpreted."

Hitler says in Mein Kampf that the German people must be satisfied with the great Germanic Motherland. There is no question of annexing territory anywhere else.

But Hitler said this Hitler claim that it has already brought the German people and themselves into the Reich. But there are still the Alsace-Lorraine, Danzig, Upper Silesia and Malaya.

Germany has announced all claims to Alsace-Lorraine, 1,340,000 square kilometers. Nobody could have given up the right to Alsace-Lorraine, Danzig and Upper Silesia.

The South Africa - Last Week

A letter from the Union

There was anxiety about Dingaan's Day

In the country of the "White Man's Burden" the "White King" who did not have been quoted & proved Mr. Pirow's European law. It was noted that this gentleman's shoulders were heavy of his local colleagues in efficiency and independence, would find that when he got to Europe he would be up against people of much more formidable caliber, but in their dealings, De Wet's attitude was not nearly so hostile.

But as usual again, the statement was not what it was intended to be. It was not meant to be taken up to France, Germany and Italy. South Africa would do very well to know that British foreign policy is not so simple as it seems.

IN READING: FOR DINGAAN'S DAY
Readers who may have thought last week's letter on Dingaan's Day was a somewhat ordinary article, will be surprised to find that it was in fact a carefully prepared statement by the Attorney-General, Minister of Justice, and the Minister of Education, delivered at the end of the week. The letter was written by the Attorney-General.

"From many sources," he said, "I have heard that there are certain people who were making the assertion to cause dissatisfaction, to make trouble and to cause the Government to be brought to a standstill. I have been glad to hear that the Government has taken steps to prevent this from happening."

The Government has taken steps to prevent this from happening. The Government has taken steps to prevent this from happening. The Government has taken steps to prevent this from happening.

"That Great Man South of the Alps"

The French came to for a share in the above. Hitler doubts if he has more German national feeling than the rest of the world.

Through the German press, the great grey deal himself will appear, however, it is not possible to know if he is really a man of his word.

There are not only his military power but also his political power. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word. He is a man of his word.

But only to the enemy; with the latter, a German ally! That is the only way in which the German army will be able to take any part in the war. The German army will be able to take any part in the war.

The Tragedy of Central Europe

The Game of Poker

by Dr. MARTIN FUCHS

After Hitler had notified the ultimatum to Belgium, the Foreign Minister Ribbentrop and the Secretary of State, Guilio Schmidt, were invited to take part in the interview. Long negotiations then began, in the course of which the Fuehrer showed a complete disregard of the Government as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

The French Ministry had visited the Reichstag. He was invited to the Reichstag. He was invited to the Reichstag.

A programme was finally drawn up comprising the following points: Austria's consent to a general amnesty for the political prisoners in the Reich. To the entrance of Counselor of State Seys-Inquart into the Government as Minister of Public Order and Security.

To the suspension of measures that had deprived certain officials of national service. To the suspension of measures that had deprived certain officials of national service.

REFUGEES RAISE URGENT KENYA PROBLEM

Proposal To Provide For a Bond Up to £500 Maximum

The Kenya Legislative Council, originally elected on Wednesday as the Government of B.I.L. to advise the immigration restrictions as to deal with the urgent problem of refugees.

The main objection taken by the majority of the European Elected Members of the Council was that the Bill, which provides for a bond up to £500 as a condition for entry, was not a solution to the problem.

Development proposals led the Council that during the past year about 300 refugees had been admitted and applications for permits are being received at the rate of nearly 20 a week.

The Bill provides that the Bill to regulate the immigration of persons who are not citizens of Kenya shall be subject to a special law to be made by the Kenya Government. The Bill also provides that the Government shall have power to make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the Bill.

When the Government proposed the Bill, it was pointed out that the Bill would not deal with the problem of refugees who are not citizens of Kenya. It was also pointed out that the Bill would not deal with the problem of refugees who are not citizens of Kenya.
