All-Lancashire Cup final at Wembley today

THE climax of the English football season will be reached this afternoon at Wembley Stadium, where Manchester United, favourites from the first, will face out an all-Lancashire City club with Blackpool.

The "bookie" market was rather unexciting, and Blackpool, who were expected to win, were given odds of 11 to 10. Manchester United, who were expected to lose, were given odds of 11 to 10. The odds were not very far apart, and it is expected that the match will be a very close one. Manchester United, who were the winners of the cup in 1947, are the favourites to win again. Blackpool, who were runners-up in 1947, are the favourites to lose. The match is expected to be a very exciting one, and it is expected that it will be a very close one.

WHY wisdom tooth? OODL'S ORAL QUIZ. “Widest” teeth generally appear between the 17th and 18th years, an age when we are supposed to become wise. However, you are never too young to learn the wisest way of caring for the teeth—regular cleaning with Oodol. Soft, smooth and refreshing. Oodol makes each smile and keeps them healthy. And how it tones up the whole mouth!

Mr. Rees-Williams' speeches in Uganda

THE UNDER-SECRETARY of State for the Colonies, Mr. Rees-Williams, addressed several public bodies, European and African, official and non-official, during his recent tour of Uganda. The text of those addresses, his views on the present situation and his declarations are some points from the Under Secretary's public speeches.

Speaking at the headquarters of the Parliament of Uganda, Mr. Rees-Williams expressed his hope that when the career of office were not so much as gain as to spend a longer time in Uganda.

He made particular reference to the development of the Government of Uganda and of the British Government to develop local government.

He said that he was very glad to see that the Government of Uganda was taking steps to develop local government. He said that he was very glad to see that the Government of Uganda was taking steps to develop local government.

Indian Association puts some questions

Standard News Development. DURING his stay in Kenya, Mr. Rees-Williams met a deputation from the Indian Association of Kenya and following the reading of a memorandum by the President, Mr. K. F. Patel, replied that many of the points raised should properly be taken up with the Tanganyika Government.

Mr. Rees-Williams is answer to the suggestion that there should be abolition of the salt tax. He said that the Government is considering the abolition of the salt tax.

Lovely hair-styles can't hide starving hair

Your hair needs food and a rich hair cream to keep it lustrous, healthy and shining. Signs of malnutrition become more and more common unless you feed the roots with the hair product Silvolkin. Silvolkin is what it needs. Silvolkin, the hair's natural food, keeps it rich, thick, abundant and in the best condition. For serious loss of hair and other troubles use Pure Silvolkin. As a daily tonic, beautifier and anti-dandruff, use Silvolkin Lotion.

The fruits of the soil
measure the well-being of man

The vitality of man depends entirely upon the basic, essential, life-giving process of raising food. And the products of the science of food production—science agriculture throughout the world. Wherever the soil is broken for planting, there man's health and life are made better. With less physical labour... with greater efficiency and economy.
