AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY WILL REQUIRE GENERAL FRANCO'S GOVERNMENT IN SPAIN, THIS ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE IN BUDAPEST AT THE CLOSE OF THE CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN THE SIGNATORIES OF THE ROSE PROTOCOLS—ITALY, AUSTRIA AND HUNGARY.

Austria and Hungary have decided to recognize General Franco's administration as the lawful Government of Spain.

NOW and again I run across a fellow motorist who is full of complaint. Nothing is right with him or his car. Running expenses and repair bills are far too high; he can never be sure that a breakdown on the road will not upset an important engagement and even his family have a quiet smile at him when he takes them for a holiday trip.

Of course, he blames the car. Ask him what oil he uses, and he says "Oh, it's all the same to me!"

When I meet one of these dejected fellows, I feel genuinely sorry for him because I was just that way myself at one time. That was before I took myself to task and went into things sensibly. Now I am able to tell such disappointed drivers what it means to run a car on Shell Motor Oils—no free alike from road worries and constant annoying expense.

I am really "bucked" whenever I make a convert because since reliance on Shell Motor Oils has made a thoroughly satisfied motorist out of me, I feel it is up to me to pass the goods news on to my friends.

Kitale Air Rally

CROWDS WATCH SUCCESSFUL EVENT

STANDARD CORRESPONDENT
Kitale Jan 12.—H. E. the Governor and Lady Brooke-Popkin attended the Kitale air rally which was held on the local aerodrome yesterday. A large crowd of spectators, European and Native, watched the proceedings and a vast display of aircraft which gave to the Aerodrome Field was collected of the day.

Waiting Aircraft
Naturally the waiting planes and their owners contributed mostly to the success of the rally. Apart from the three R.A.F. Vincent aircraft which took part in the proceedings, we were happy in welcoming a old friends General and Mrs. Lee, in their Puma, Meth and also Captain Protheroe (Pervay Vega Gull), Mr. Schwelbush (Vega), Mr. Jackson (Puma Meth), Messrs. Lashofski and Cowy (Puma Light Helicopter).

Messrs. Wilson Airways were represented by two machines, Dragon six-seater, and a Puma Meth. A large number of people watched thousands of flights in these two machines throughout the day. A number of Natives were also taken up and so it is usual with any new experience for them, were met with enthusiasm as one would have expected.

General Lewis Wing
The programme was as follows:—
1. R.A.F. Formation Flirting.
2. Helium Chasing Competition.
3. Aerial Derby.
4. Arrival of the latest Hush Hush (Hush) 5. Arrival and Departure of the Wilson Airways Air Mail, 6. Hush Hush Competition as a novelty target.
7. Flight and speed testing respectively. 8. Road Air Force set Piece.

The aerial derby was won by the successful competitor of two years ago, General Lewis.
"Hush Hush" Jobs
The large crowd present were very much amused by item No. 4 on the programme.
This, the latest "Hush Hush" Machine, was in fact a disappalated berry, very cleverly disguised as an acceptance in charge of a Foreign Admiral and his staff.

The much-anticipated aerial rendezvous of the two aeroplanes, which was the centre of attraction, took place on the 12th. The two aeroplanes, which were the Hush Hush and the distinguished "Hush Hush" of the well-known pilot, the Major, respectively, were seen to be in the air, which had been expected to be the case. The Hush Hush was then seen to be in the air, which had been expected to be the case. The Hush Hush was then seen to be in the air, which had been expected to be the case.

Governor's Tribute
Speeches and the presentation of prizes to the competitors, the R.A.F. Vincent followed. The Commanding Officer, Wing Commander Morgan, the Chief Pilot, Mr. Morgan and Lady Brooke-Popkin, and the meeting. H. E. then paid tribute to the organizers and thanked the general Lewis in thanking those who had presented him with a piece of plate in recognition of all he had done for aviation in the District and how important it was that as many people should have to fly.

Dance Follows
The Kitale Hotel was on fire the dance which followed the rally, in which about 300 people attended. The music was provided by the R.A.F. band and the dance was one of the most successful ever held in Kitale.

London Chamber and Sial Freight

"STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT
London, Jan. 6.
There was a largely attended meeting on Wednesday of the East African Sales Producers and Importers Sub-Section of the London Chamber of Commerce to consider, amongst other matters, the rates of freight on East African steel, having regard to the substantial drop in price which had occurred since early December when the present rate was fixed, the reduction of the availability of optional facilities and amendments to the terms and conditions of the London Chamber of the Steel Company of Great Britain to take into line with the new Institute War Risks Clause sought by underwriters and with general practice as regards responsibility for the premium.

It was agreed to consider the freight question again at a future meeting and to refer the matter to special committees for consideration and report.

Freight Rates
Correspondence with the Conference Lines on the question of freight space was reported.
Mr. C. B. Haugberg was re-elected chairman of the sub-section; and Mr. H. C. Kilham (Hindley and Co.) deputy-chairman.
It was agreed to recommend that Mr. Haugberg should continue to represent the Chamber on the Committee on the question of Freight Space on Plant and Animal Products of the Imperial Institute.

ABOUT

What is Patent Castrol ?

It is an oil of peerless quality, made under a patent process. World rights of this discovery and secret production process are the property of C. C. Wakefield & Co., Ltd.

The process in effect is to render the lubricant the carrying means for an infinitesimal film of an oil soluble chromium compound which will protect your engine from corrosive wear, give longer life to your engine, and longer immunity from piston slap and from high oil consumption, with the only alternative of costly re-boring.

What does Patent Castrol do ?

1. Reduces Cylinder Wear.
2. Reduces Oil Consumption.
3. Reduces Carbon Deposit.
4. Prevents Sludge.
5. Prevents Gummed Piston Rings.
6. Prevents Choked Filters.

Will Patent Castrol mix with other oils ?

There may be some motorists who believe that Patent Castrol will not mix with other makes of lubricating oil. Although an oil of peerless quality, Patent Castrol mixes readily with any other brand of oil; naturally also one grade of Patent Castrol will mix with another.

Patent Castrol "A" (Racing) alone is excepted and should not be mixed with any other oil or any other grade of Castrol.

The full benefits of Patent Castrol will, of course, be experienced unless 100 per cent. Castrol is in use. Therefore the sump should be drained and refilled with Patent Castrol to obtain immediate results.

Is Patent Castrol available at all centres in Kenya ?

Patent Castrol is on sale in every Township at fixed prices. There is no second or third grade oil made by C. C. Wakefield & Co., Ltd. available for sale at shops or garages in Kenya, therefore when you buy Castrol you are buying safely.

Is Patent Castrol more expensive ?

Not except for some special grades. Patent Castrol is priced retail the same as the well known brands of oil in most general use in Kenya.

Patent Castrol A A is the grade for

- FORD, CHEVROLET, PLYMOUTH
- DODGE, BUICK,
- CADILLAC,
- CHRYSLER, HUOBOR,
- HUMPHREYS, LA SALLE, LINCOLN,
- OLDSMOBILE,
- STUDEBAKER, VAUXHALL,
- TERRAPLANE, BEDFORD.

Is not Patent Castrol primarily a racing or experts oil ?

Certainly Castrol holds most of the records for achievements, but all these records were set up using the same standard Oils as are on sale for the every day use of Motorists.

LAND, WATER and AIR

When you use Castrol you not only use the best you also use the product of an

A. VINCENT, Managing Director, Motor Mart & Exchange Ltd., Box 179, NAIROBI.

Dear Mr. Vincent, The reason why I chose Buick to tour East Africa was because Mr. Hagen and myself had a Buick throughout our very extensive tour of South Africa and were very much struck by its wonderful performance which ended in our having a "trouble free" tour.

We were amazed at Buick's riding qualities over some of the roads which we met, both in South Africa and in this country.

Although Buick is symbolic in America and Canada of the finest standard of car values, we did not appreciate the ability of its supreme suitability for African roads.

The choice of this car and the service which was rendered to us by your organisation, played a major part in making our East African trip a delightful one.

Yours sincerely, Ted Hayward.

GAME AND DROP

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
Sir,—The first day of a Government's business is the day when the order and the preservation of the property of its citizens. To the farmer the results of the year, if his property is destroyed by a foreign invasion or by some other cause, he is left with the loss of his land, and the loss of the application of existing laws, results in large areas of land lying in ruins, and the loss of the breeding of game, and the dispersal and destruction of crops.

I attempt to protect certain birds and game, and I am not a farmer, but I am a taxpayer, and I am a citizen, and I am a member of the community, and I am a member of the nation, and I am a member of the world.

Again it cannot in fairness be said that such losses can be attributed to the geological conditions of our country, but rather to the inability to economically successful exploitation of the mineral resources of our country. Panorama of 1937 Getulio Vargas Dictator of Brazil

By The Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, P.C., C.H., M.P. From the Jungle to the Presidency

DURING the whole of the year 1937 the more highly educated portions of the human race have been arising upon a sea of never before imagined.

All the prophecies of the year before the outbreak of the Great War show us a comparatively only made to this.

both extremes who have sought to transform it into an ideological net between Nazism and Communism. While promulgating solemnly and repeatedly set to intervene, the German and Italian Dictators have drawn their weight on one side while the Soviet Czar has done his utmost to help the other.

France has been neutral and Great Britain strictly neutral. The British Government and Foreign Secretary deserve applause for the patience and good faith with which they acted, and it may well be that when this latter struggle ends, Great Britain will not be found to be the most unpopular or unfaithful Power in Spain.

The secret military policies which were devised in the latter part of the First World War and in the time of MacDonough and Napoleon are now accepted as the commonplace routine of any future conflict.

All the same time, the mass of every nation in the world is carrying its life in, peace and enjoy the unceasing fruit of their labours with no sense as being.

The Japanese are now deeply involved in China and his case will now for his advantage may carry with no sense as being.

The Chinese have defended their country as well as they could and a new spirit of unity and patriotism is alive in the hearts of the Chinese people, the most numerous in all the world.

The British Navy were at present far stronger relative to Europe than they were in 1914. The French army has not yet been increased in the numbers of forced divisions by the Germans and its formations are of full maturity.

The combination of the British Fleet and the French army is remarkable in the history of the world. The French Navy were at present far stronger relative to Europe than they were in 1914.

The Federal and Parliamentary systems have had in their turn to undergo a series of changes. The League of Nations has been a failure.

The League of Nations has been a failure. The League of Nations has been a failure. The League of Nations has been a failure.

Finally, the good will extended towards the new Government of Brazil is a great measure of unity, and some more apparent as the months pass.

There is therefore no need for us to feel concerned to the stress of 1938 and we must all try to see that year so as to bring about a new atmosphere and a new easy sea situation.

Let me close with a thought which I have in mind. On Christmas Day, 1914, the German soldiers on the Western Front were ordered to stop their trench warfare and to observe the Christmas truce.

The events of the year have corresponded to the forces which have been at work.

The Civil war in Spain has been a tragedy. The Civil war in Spain has been a tragedy. The Civil war in Spain has been a tragedy.

They were buried the dead the other side of the trench. They were buried the dead the other side of the trench.

There were no more warships than Vargas to bring the light against the darkness.

CONVERSATION PIECE

It matters not how meekly abridged a writer is if he hath knowing and communicative friends.—Cicero

SOVIET CONTRADICTION

Last month, the members of the U.S.S.R. went to the Palais to vote for their representatives on the Executive Council of the League of Nations. The Constitution, ratified in December 1936, declared that the members of the Council should be elected by the electorate in five, universal and by secret ballot. Citizens over 18, without distinction of race, nationality, creed or sex, have the right to vote. They are entitled to free education and instruction, and are allowed maternity and sick day benefits. They need not fear economic penalties for the exercise of their political rights. That, you will agree, is the most liberal and most democratic constitution ever adopted by any nation. And Communist writers admitted that in the Soviet Union, as opposed to other countries, there exists no contradiction between the constitutional rights and the actual conditions. Unhappily the available evidence must lead every national man to the conclusion that the Constitution does very little to improve prevailing conditions. The Soviet People still holds unconditional sway. The people is rigidly controlled. Freedom of speech and democratic means of the right of electing the Executive Council are not to be interfered with by the regime. The Constitutional guarantee of the right of equality is largely nullified by the spread of economic inequality and a persistence of bureaucratic. MR. DE VALENS AND ITALY

It is believed that a curious situation has arisen over the relations between the Irish Free State and Italy. Mr. J. P. Walsh, head of the Irish Free State Department of External Affairs, has been visiting London. His visit is said to be concerned with the constitutional position of the Irish Free State. It is believed that the Irish Free State Minister in London is to be accredited to the King of Italy on the subject of the Italian Government. The Italian Government has been visiting London. CURIOSITY SIMILARITY

It is significant that the astounding degree of unanimity in Russia is achieved solely by the modern means of propaganda. The Party, the State and the Government all do their utmost to ensure that all the voters shall be completely enlightened when they go to the polls. The State takes equal care to see that all opposition is liquidated. In a democratic State a election is a means of expressing public opinion. PROPAGANDA AND TRUTH

For some time past Italy has included in its organs of propaganda particularly by means of broadcasts in Arabic from the Italian State. There is a growing feeling of uneasiness in the Arab world. It is believed that the Italian Government is using its organs of propaganda to create trouble in Palestine and the Near East. Have you noticed how expensive the contents of the iron-expoised seem to be? Although we usually have the linens washed in the bottom of the pile, and to draw some suspicion from the top-well, the top layer is not so good as the bottom again.

This means that these articles get more than their fair share of wear which shows up in an ironed pile. Perhaps we have been washing in the bottom of the pile and white and plain. Perhaps we have been washing in the bottom of the pile and white and plain. Perhaps we have been washing in the bottom of the pile and white and plain.

The iron-expoised also needs conditioning. We usually find that the most convenient time for ironing is at about 10 to 11 a.m. while the iron is very hot, all while the iron is very hot, all while the iron is very hot.

Consider sheets, for instance. Why have them until they are discoloured with long storage and wear at the creases of the iron? Consider sheets, for instance. Why have them until they are discoloured with long storage and wear at the creases of the iron?

From NEW DELHI the 'E.A. Standard' correspondent writes on

EVENTS IN INDIA

"What is happening in China has an important lesson for India. The absence of a strong Central Government and an efficient army in China has prevented the progress and consolidation of the constitutional changes which were initiated by the Revolution of 1911."

- LORD LYTON

CHRISTMAS IN India is not a season either of rest or of movement but of strenuous planning and good resolutions at numerous conferences. The All-India Women's Conference, the All-India Students Conference, the All-India Teachers Conference were just a few of the gatherings that are in season this year.

And now I think I am up to the eye of my annual summing up. Except that I have had to look at a few little bits of anything from sight to fortune.

The authors are Mr. J. H. Dewar and Miss Brenda Spencer, and the little girl who is not estranged by it should be made to devour her book.

A book which ought to be given to all boys of fourteen to nineteen, and to all girls of the same age. It is a book which will be read with interest and pleasure by all young people who are interested in "Undiscovered Countries."

Not to end on a tragic note, I have a few words to say about the beauty parades which have been held in many parts of the country. They are a good thing, but they should be held in a more dignified and useful way.

The book I chose for the fortnight is "The Book of the Month" by Mr. J. H. Dewar, "Midway through Borneo."

For East as a member of the League of Nations Commission which was investigating the Manchurian situation, I am convinced that Japan is a country which is not only a dominant power in the Far East, but also a country which is a serious threat to the peace of the world.

The chaos and confusion which has existed in India since the withdrawal of the British Government and the authority of the Indian Government, and the existence of large tracts of country in which the Government has no authority, are a serious threat to the peace of the world.

It should be remembered that it was largely the existence of these conditions which induced the British Government to sign the Treaty of Simla in 1914, and that it was largely the existence of these conditions which induced the British Government to sign the Treaty of Simla in 1914.

"Japan was one of the aggressors that tried to force her way into China, and she has not yet been able to do so."

The English Language and Education

Mr. S. H. Wood, Director of the Department of Education and Public Relations, Board of Education, England, has written a book on the present system of education in India.

Contrasted with these words of calm and objective analysis is the book "The Book of the Month" by Mr. J. H. Dewar, "Midway through Borneo."

In these regions under actual Japanese occupation, the Japanese are engaged in a systematic and organized campaign to destroy the Indian population.

The reader is almost glad to note that the book is written in a simple and straightforward style, and that it is a book which is worth reading.

Do Starlings Carry "Foot And Mouth"!

[STANDARD CORRESPONDENT] London, January 4. The Starling is reported to be the carrier of foot and mouth disease, and as a result of representations by various stock breeders, the Government efforts are being made to prevent or suppress the pest.

Although it is true that the Starling is a pest, it is also a very useful bird. It is a very hardy bird and it is up to town breeders to do all they can to see that they are not interfered with. JELLO-O

TERUEL—AND AFTER

Republicans Optimistic

The Republican offensive on the Teruel front came about to every body as a complete surprise. The plans had been laid very thick and the unexpected I had to say (says a special correspondent of the "Morning Standard") took in Madrid and Barcelona was Franco's first offensive against another Guadalupe. In other words, Franco must and must not seem that the Government plans would be defeated by its own position—least not for the time being.

As Dr. Negre told me: "We shall not take the offensive until we are sure that we are ready for it. This is working in our favour."

Retreat as Teruel says, I do not change this fundamental view that the Government will not be ready for a big offensive; though it is true that the Government troops are already admirably trained and equipped for counter-attacking and for comparatively small-scale operations. It is unlikely that the enemy's plans will be so well worked out that related plans were undone by the attack on Teruel.

Republican Hopes

What the Republican leaders say is in no manner, a poor reflection on the Government side. They are not equal to those of Franco; that the spirit of the Government troops will start with the success at all. He has clearly been beaten in the last few days, but he is not discouraged and is rubbing the dirt under his feet. He has been through his easy victories in the past. At once I think that in Spain was that the "great" mistake was made. It was that Franco might merely try to get the Government troops to "retire" without any serious fighting. It appears that this military move of Alcaniz in the South—rather than the one in the North—may be a serious military importation. Or he might also attempt to pass the attack to Alcaniz, but that also need not be done.

The hidden bombing of defenceless towns like Teruel, in the Madrid area which, like Guernica, was considered to be the property of the civilian population, suggested for a time that an attack on Madrid was coming. Madrid itself is a good as impregnable.

But the southern side of the "outhouse" is a strongly fortified position. It is a very strong position, and they are very well equipped. The number and the stability of the Government troops here are comparatively greater than during the Government's offensive from the North. It is a very strong position, and they are very well equipped. The number and the stability of the Government troops here are comparatively greater than during the Government's offensive from the North.

No Larger a Militia

The international troops, whose high fighting quality was demonstrated at Teruel and at Madrid, are not other large, do not exceed 15,000 men, and they are very well equipped. They are very well equipped. They are very well equipped. They are very well equipped.

Two Dangers

From the Government point of view there are two dangers. The first is a blockade, with the assistance of Germany and Italy, against the Government's supply lines. The second is a blockade, with the assistance of Germany and Italy, against the Government's supply lines.

REPUBLICAN SPAIN AN COLONIAL DEMANDS.

Great Threat Foreseen to Democracies

A striking prospect of an Africa under the domination of Italy, Germany, and Portugal, a "satellite reflecting the glory of Berlin and Rome" is drawn by a writer in the Barcelona newspaper "Vanguardia."

The article, issued by the Catalan Government's propaganda Bureau, and reflecting the opinions of Government Spain, declares:

"Of old nations or fear, or both, the democracies give before the empty presumption of Nazim and permit the return to Germany of even the most insignificant of her former African colonies; if they go on rearming and tying their own hands at the same time, and ask to surrender all the territories of the republic to the foreign invaders and native traitors, they will soon find out how the totalitarian states will run Africa and make themselves master of Central and Western Europe, including the British Isles, without regard to the armistice on the part of Britain impending them."

Don Emilio Carles, writing in the Barcelona newspaper "Vanguardia," says that the British position in Africa is not as strong as it is generally supposed to be.

Reference is made to the return of the African colonies which Germany has demanded as an integral part of her peace program. It is stated that the British position in Africa is not as strong as it is generally supposed to be.

The article also mentions the possibility of a Franco-German alliance and the potential threat to the democracies.

"Oo' ech" said the article concludes with a warning to the democracies.

Great Britain, who is awarded the prize for the most successful of her Empire, is now losing hundreds of her territories to the Axis powers.

The article discusses the political and military situation in Africa, particularly the role of Italy and Germany.

In the pro-war era, German possessions in Africa were valuable assets because of their natural resources and their strategic positions.

Portugal is being the submarine cable of Great Britain, which she has used as a master of the world.

The article also mentions the role of Spain and the potential for a Franco-German alliance.

The article concludes with a warning to the democracies to be prepared for the worst.

Hope of Peace By Sumner

A private dispatch from Japan indicates that the Japanese Government is not prepared to make any concessions in the question of this expressed objective.

NO SIGN WHATEVER OF SLUMP - SAY THE EXPERTS

Speaking last night about the cost of living, Sir John Simon, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, remarked that there was a common saying that when prices came up in the lift, wages were never ordered by the stairs, but as a general rule, when prices were raised in the lift, wages hung on to the banisters.

An optimistic view of British trade was expressed by Viscount Horeau, a former Chancellor of the Exchequer, who said that he saw no sign whatever of a slump. The drop in commodity prices since the early part of 1931 had depressed the market to some extent, but he believed that they would very soon recover again.

Sir John Simon, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, in a speech applied to recent criticism that the cost of living in Great Britain is rising.

He mentioned that the cost of living figures in relation to the level of output and prices had not been intelligently understood if the figures were regarded as a whole.

He also mentioned that the cost of living figures in relation to the level of output and prices had not been intelligently understood if the figures were regarded as a whole.

TELEVIEWED OPERA—WITH TWO CASTS

A new experiment in television opera will be tried on January 24 when Salome will be produced at the second of "Television" broadcasts at Alexandra Palace.

The double cast of actors and singers. The actors appearing on the screen will only move and the singers themselves will not be shown. It is hoped in this way to obviate one of the main faults of most operas, the necessity of the difficulty of finding steps in which to justify the most sedate look the parts as well.

It is to be staged by Sir Richard Pate, the manager and producer, who is to be assisted by the B.B.C. "television" broadcast on January 11. The record will be broken by an exciting and human opera, has succeeded in producing an artificial view.

"The Elephant Never..." Misbehaves

Elephants are among the best behaved railway passengers, according to Mr. Alexander McMillan, chief clerk at the stationmaster's office at Paddington, who is about to state.

He ought to know, for during his 27 years there he has seen his rail-ways travel with elephants, and something like 20,000,000 travellers have used the station.

McMillan, Mr. McMillan said to a reporter, never their backs will be turned, and never of a kind throughout the journey.

The stationmaster's office of a big London railway terminus might well be proud of the S.O.B. elephant, the best of the railway travelling public, and the only one of its kind in the world.

McMillan, Mr. McMillan said to a reporter, never their backs will be turned, and never of a kind throughout the journey.

PRIMATE PRAISES: DOCTOR DAMNS

Britain's Physical Fitness Campaign

['STAMINA' CONSIDERATION?]
In a New Year letter to his disciples in the January issue of Contemporary Diseases (Quarterly of the Archbishop of Canterbury) expresses a hope that January 23 may be observed as "British Sunday" and that the clergy will act as "ministers of health."

The Primate says that that in importance to the health of the nation is the health of the bodies of its citizens.

Dr. F. C. M. Jones, the Royal Physician, recently stated the need for a "physical fitness" campaign, and "damned it with both hands."

So far as an expert on nervous diseases was addressing the assembly members of the Association of Homeopaths in London.

The campaign, he said, would not be acquired of semi-political nature. Others who are "Healed" have been a large part of preparation.

If the Government had spent on general research instead of merely half the sum proposed to spend on physical fitness, it would be making a really profitable investment.

Dr. Jones said that the "physical fitness" campaign would be a really profitable investment. It would be making a really profitable investment.

TRAVEL IN ITALY

Troubles of Cap-bound Visitor by Genoa Route

STANDARD CORRESPONDENT. London, January 13. The following letter appeared in "The Times" of Wednesday morning: "Sir,—For the information of passengers who are obliged to travel through Italy, it may be well to mention my recent experience."

Left London on December 30 for Genoa to join the Langhe Castle for South Africa, sailing January 1 from Genoa. My passport was endorsed "All countries in Europe." It was said by the Italian Consul at Modena after delay of 17 hours at Modena I eventually reached Paris. Meanwhile, I have written to the Cape and my baggage, which was registered through to Genoa. It is not known or reason for this treatment of my baggage offered me."

It was on the day that I was at a general experience of travellers visiting Italy, and in Italy, the porter, something should be done about it. It would be interesting to know whether people on route to East Africa who have had a similar experience to Major Matfield Kearton.

Constraining Experiences. I also understand that the East African Office in making enquiries to the matter. Mention the fact that following letter appeared in "The Times" that morning, though not bearing on the point at issue: "I am, Sir, Major Matfield Kearton's report of his experience when travelling through Italy should be taken as typical of what English travellers have to expect, may I testify to my own experience of unbroken courtesy and consideration from Italian passport and Customs officials? For instance, last year the duty on a fairly large quantity of cigarettes was waived of the officers when they were declared as such as if meant that I had already paid a Birmingham from February 21 to March 4."

It is, Sir, a pity that the courtesy of substantial relief was never given to the Italian officials is still extended to foreign visitors. I am, Sir, your obedient servant. D. L. MURRAY."

LEARNING, NOT LENGTH

The height standard for the Metropolitan Police has been fixed by an act of Parliament.

This announcement was made from Scotland Yard.

The Commissioner of Police announces that he is prepared to offer a limited number of vacancies for the Metropolitan police force to 16-year-old school boys over 5 ft 6 in and under 5 ft 9 in who are not less than five feet eight inches in height, provided that they are particularly intelligent, physically fit and possess sound educational qualifications.

The minimum height for the Metropolitan police has hitherto been five feet six inches, but under modern conditions, there are many police duties for the efficient performance of which physique and intelligence are of more importance than stature.

KIKUYU'S KNIFE THREAT ALLEGED

Allegation that a Kikuyu had brand a sheath-knife to an Indian and was prevented from striking the latter by another Kikuyu, who held his arm from behind, were made in the Resident Magistrate's Court yesterday before Mr. G. R. B. Bidd, when Elizabeth A. O. Kikuyu appeared charged with assault with a knife, or alternatively with common assault. He was convicted on the latter charge and was fined $20, or one month's imprisonment in default. Accused pleaded not guilty.

The complainant told the Court that accused had left the tap in the compound running and he asked him to turn it off. The boy stated he was not his servant, then accused hit him and asked that witness to decrease of two of his friends being arrested. He then went into his room, and was not to be seen thereafter and, in the words of witness, "was just trying to get away with it when another Native caught him from behind."

The other Native corroborated, and said he, the complainant, and another Indian witness stated that accused was near enough to be complained to have hit him. Accused admitted he had the knife in his hand but stated he had no intention of striking anyone with it.

Christmas Fun Cures Crippled Boy

A Christmas party has restored the use of his limbs to 15-year-old Leslie Trueman, of Hastings road, Hastings, a missing victim of the war.

Leslie was admitted to Merton and District Joint Institution Hospital suffering from diphtheria. The illness ended paralyzing his right leg and right arm, leaving him almost helpless.

His parents were told that the possibility of his being discharged from New York Stn. they were told that the diphtheria and the excitement caused by the decoration of the ward, and the presentation of their had resulted in what is hoped will be a cure for the boy.

As he lay in bed watching the other children moving their limbs, he playfully begged for the officers to play tennis for the officers and Leslie eagerly tried to follow suit.

To the establishment of everyone some stimulus energy, which would lead him to get up and use his limbs. It is hoped that he will now continue to make steady progress until he is a generally normal child.

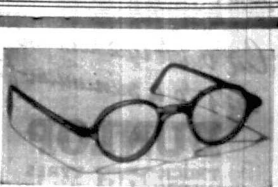

RESCUE PARTY NEEDS RESCUING

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wallock, Mr. W. Aston Chasler, wealthy American and Dr. T. J. Fox of Boston, all members of an American expedition into the Himalayas, were being helped to solve the mystery of Peak 8,000, American summit, which disappeared in the jungle in years ago.

The party, which was to be situated at a rock 1500 miles up a jungle river, had been abandoned and rapids and with very little food.

Their Native porters, abandoned with the food, went off and took American with only a few days' supplies. The Native reported to the authorities 60 miles away and a rescue expedition, which will take a week to reach the place, has been organized by the American expedition. Mr. Wallock, apparently the leader of the expedition, is believed to have reported news about the Indian mystery and decided to branch off into the Corbett, a rock island river, which meant a longer and more hazardous journey.

Meanwhile the American couple have granted permission to take, Boston to report herself as a witness.

WHAT are Polaroid Glasses?

They are glare glasses in which a new scientific principle is applied to control or stop the transmission of reflected glare. A thin sheet of Polaroid material is laminated between two pieces of glass to make the lenses for Polaroid Glasses. Because of their scientific glare-removing properties, Polaroid Glasses are exceptional glasses for all outdoor activities. They remove glare from water, sand, snow, ice, highways and other reflecting surfaces.

THIS WAS HOW THE FRENCH MINISTERIAL SITUATION WAS SUMMED UP ON SUNDAY MORNING, WHEN, AFTER TRYING SINCE FRIDAY TO FORM A MINISTRY

MEMBER GEORGES BONNET, WHO WAS FINANCE MINISTER IN THE CHAUTEMPS CABINET, HAD STILL NOT ANNOUNCED HIS COMBINATION.

The Bonnet party are adamant in their opposition to his forming a Cabinet, and this only seems to be a condition between the Radical-Socialists and some of the parties of the right.

A Socialist proclamation declares that the conflict is one between "proletarian feudalists" and democracy.

The Radical-Socialist party, led by the President after the late bid for several political leaders in the Cabinet, M. Herriot, M. Daladier and M. Herriot.

Russian Help For China?

MONGOLIA REPORT

"Successful Attack on Japanese By Soviet-Trained Troops"

Reports from a score of different sources in the Far East indicate that there is little chance of any more fighting in Shanghai and other points from foreign powers. Fighting continues heavily for the control of the Peking-Hankow railway, and the reports are, as usual, in complete conflict.

The Japanese Cabinet has held an emergency meeting, and a declaration of policy, with regard to the war is expected.

Another report of special interest is that letters from Outer Mongolia, equipped and trained by Russia, are successfully attacking Japanese troops in the province of Inner Mongolia.

Fighting is still going on at Tientsin, the strategic position on the North Railway, where General Chiang Kai-Shek is personally leading the Chinese operations. The position is still undecided, but it is believed that the Chinese have the upper hand in their possession. The attack on the Chinese administration is continuing.

APPEAL COURT REDUCES COMPENSATION

"I have come to the conclusion that the finding in the nature of a test case rendered necessary by an error of law on the part of the Magistrate, the non-appearance of the respondent, and the fact that he is still entitled to compensation, though reduced, makes the equitable order that each party bears their own costs in order advisable." This was the ruling of the Appeal Court in the nature of a test case rendered necessary by an error of law on the part of the Magistrate, the non-appearance of the respondent, and the fact that he is still entitled to compensation, though reduced, makes the equitable order that each party bears their own costs in order advisable.
