WIVES

By IRAN VAUGHAN
 "I don't know how to do it," she said, looking at the dress she had just made. "I don't know how to do it," she said, looking at the dress she had just made.

Having got your trousers back, however, you may find it well to get a new pair. You can't wear the old ones any more. You can't wear the old ones any more. You can't wear the old ones any more.

NEARFOUSS

Does the latest enthusiastic and confident dress-maker, who knows before she buys it just how she will wear her material, get a little quality in her fabric, she picks up the shirt and pattern pinned to the back of her chair.

The only way I know of ensuring that the fabric does not gather itself in a cupboard or the garment hangs on an unbecoming rack for months is to hang it on a hanger for a week ahead of time. It is surprising how fast and inordinately the work proceeds.

If you are new to dressmaking or have had little or no experience, you should not do up too many dresses at once. You should not do up too many dresses at once. You should not do up too many dresses at once.

TRICKY

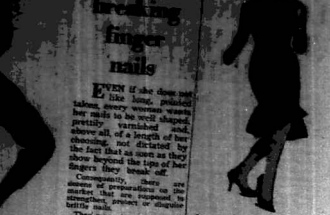

Let's begin by looking at the collar. It is a tricky job to get the collar to lie flat. It is a tricky job to get the collar to lie flat. It is a tricky job to get the collar to lie flat.

Any new dance craze needs an old friend

Whether it's the Charleston or the Fox-Trot, it seems to be the fashion these days to have a new dance craze.

It is a good idea to have an old friend to help you learn the new dance. It is a good idea to have an old friend to help you learn the new dance.

How to Have
 Handy Hands
 The secret of having handy hands is to keep them in good condition. This can be done by using a good hand cream and by keeping your hands clean and dry.

DIAMONDS MUST BE SENSUOUS SAYS DESIGNER

Diamonds are not a girl's best friend according to an internationally known designer. He says that diamonds are not a girl's best friend according to an internationally known designer.

Wanting to appeal

LUSAKA TIES WITH E. AFRICA PLANNED

NORTHERN RHODESIAN leaders are exploring the possibility of economic defence and other links with East African countries after independence.
The Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Local Government and Public Works, Mr. G. W. Wainwright, said today that the Government was studying the possibility of establishing a Central Tanganyika railway.
Observers said such a rail link would save an independent Northern Rhodesia with a Pan-African orientation from possibly entering a costly race with Kenya during recent visits to Dar es Salaam and Nairobi.
Mr. Wainwright said that the Government was studying the possibility of establishing a Central Tanganyika railway.

During these days a link to London of British citizens Mr. President Banda, said the Board of Trade said overseas visitors were showing a growing demand for medicines and other goods.
"The days when they patronized only the local markets are over. Now they are to be seen all over the place and in London as the facilities for trade are improved."

Explosive fighters battling a ship against communist forces. A case of breaking down an unending carrier of supplies by the Federal Intelligence Service of the World Health Organization in the context of 'Kilias at Lango', U.S.S. This photo is being shown by Kenya Television this week.

Unlikely to have any effect on the situation in the Congo, but it is hoped that the situation in the Congo will be improved by the arrival of the new government.

The situation in the Congo is a complex one, and it is hoped that the new government will be able to bring about a more stable situation in the country.

The new government is expected to be formed in the near future, and it is hoped that it will be able to bring about a more stable situation in the country.

Six more are forced to leave

SIX people, four of them Lutheran Church workers, have been declared prohibited immigrants to Tanganyika and a South African journalist, Miss Frances Gwinnell, ordered to leave the country within 24 hours this week.

Other people on the move were the two Portuguese whom she flew to Tanganyika from Mozambique in March. They left on a Malabar Airways plane when they intended to visit the four church workers from the Northern Rhodesia Mission, a German, an American and a Briton — all to have Tanganyika. It was considered that their presence would be a hindrance to the day in Tanganyika was not conditional staff member, New Zealand, who was ordered to leave the country within 24 hours this week.

POWER

The Ostrich, the largest and most powerful bird in the world, is a common sight in East Africa. The male ostrich has a height of eight feet and weighs more than 300 lbs. The Ostrich uses its tremendous power to speed to reach its maximum, and when struck to hit one to be hit to back and human able. It appears to be an unlikely bird, and like the Australian Emu, is almost flightless.

Supershell power comes as a surprise to those who see it for the first time. The same may be said for Supershell with ICA. First-time users find that this high octane petrol has an immediate effect on all petrol engines. It increases the power through all the gears, gives maximum acceleration as well as more miles of the gallon. Fill up with Supershell and get peak performance from your car at all times.

GO SUPERWELL — GO SUPERSHELL

and a driver to pilot you out of London

Vauxhall are the only British car makers to have a showroom entirely devoted to overseas visitors (it's near Piccadilly Circus). Just name the model you'd like to buy, and the colours and accessories, and it will be waiting for you when you arrive. Experts will smooth away the formalities of purchase tax exemption, road tax, insurance and so on — and help you, after your vacation, to ship your Vauxhall overseas.

If you like, Vauxhall will provide a skilled driver to pilot you out of London's traffic and set you on the right road.

HERE'S WHAT MAKES A ROOTES USED CAR SO RELIABLE
 A used car comes to Rootes. At once it is given a thorough inspection. On an inspection report, made out for every individual car, is recorded all the work that must be done to bring the car up to Rootes standard.
 Rootes makes sure of that too. Components are tested, ignition, transmission and suspension systems checked. All faulty or suspect parts are replaced. Then the car is given a road test. The Rootes would rather scrap a used car than lose their good reputation for reliability.
 Rootes is a car you can depend on absolutely. Prove this for yourself by visiting our Showrooms at any time.

PILOT TV STATION

NYANZA

By Kenneth Ridley

NORTHERLY from Nairobi, as the wind blows across the country from the east, the station will have a better chance of being heard than a station on a hillside. You could miss it, if it does not broadcast up into the skyline.

But a small, unobtrusive, well-placed transmitting tower will do a better job than the hillside. The station will have a better chance of being heard than a station on a hillside. You could miss it, if it does not broadcast up into the skyline.

As a station which will be used for television purposes, it will have a better chance of being heard than a station on a hillside. You could miss it, if it does not broadcast up into the skyline.

Games postponed because of Kenya calls

TEACHERS ON THEIR MARKS!

Several hundred school teachers which were to have been in attendance at the Kenya call to play for the British Empire and Commonwealth team have been asked to postpone their participation in the tour.

Teachers were to have played the African League Cup, the North African, and the British Empire and Commonwealth Cup. The three teams, however, are supposed to play Kenya's team to play Sudan, and it has been decided that the sides are at all strength.

Beautiful blooms for border

FROM Nairobi up to wards peninsular coast extremely well and make a splendid show of blooms carried on stems of up to 30 in. They are easily raised from seed, and being perennial in habit may be propagated further from cuttings.

They then change, and these also can be divided up to increase crop sizes of plants. The blooms are similar in shape to those of the fuchsia and the flowers are large and of a shade of pink and white.

There are many species worth growing, and some of these also occur others are yellow, blue and violet in all their varieties are grand plants for the front of the border and although they prefer the cooler conditions of the higher altitudes, will succeed elsewhere providing they are given shade and moisture. Keep the soil well mulched to keep the roots of the plants cool.

Although strictly perennial, they are best treated as annuals, as they tend to get leggy after the first season. They may also be propagated further from cuttings, but the best method is to raise them from seed. They are easy to grow and the seedlings often take as long as six months to appear. The ribbon variety has the most striking and these are the best to grow.

NEED SHADE

Perennial polyanthus. Perennials in all their many varieties used cool and shady conditions, well drained soil and ample moisture, and many are grown as pot plants where they can be moved from outdoors to the house in winter.

Polyanthus produces large heads of bloom in many bright and sunny shades. The tubular tubulars bear the flowers in shades of pink and they are to be planted in the garden, where it will self seed. The yellow-double form is also done well in the garden but there are very many species of perennial polyanthus only increased at the highest altitudes.

A new strain of polyanthus with long flowers of some 2 inches in length, known as the Pacific Giant strain and is known as the 'Blue Bird' in colour including yellow and white. It has a reputation for being an innovation for the exhibitor.

SOON DIRECT

Poppies can be sown directly where they are to flower as they will not transplant easily and not every type succeeds. The perennial varieties are poor, although Iceland poppies do quite well. Poppies are available in an attractive form, particularly in a variety known as the 'Blue Bird' which is also available in a variety of shades, although sometimes a little bluish. Poppies are also available in a variety of shades, although sometimes a little bluish.

Poppies are a perennial. The flowers are very long and tubular in shape. Poppies are lood may force Kisumu golfers to move to Kakamega

KISUMU golfers held on little hope of regaining more than half the course from the floodwaters of Lake Victoria. They are now considering playing their golf at Kakamega, 23 miles away.

About 60 per cent of the course is under water and the last time Kisumu golfers were able to use their full course was in 1961. The club captain, Albert Cook, told his members: "It is costing us a lot of money to pump water out on the course as it is but there is no indication that the water will recede."

"We do not anticipate that the water will recede any more," he said. "We have had to play our golf in Kakamega, with the hope that we will have some of our own course open again some day."

Only six holes are playable on the course. The water has been made worse since the beginning of the rains. The club has income worse over the past months.

The club has had to buy drainage systems which were a last resort with the risk of increasing the water level in the adjacent to the course, but this is a last resort.

"I will and change" comes from the club members.
