Reputed by Jews in Reich.

ANTI-SEMITIC OUTRAGE BY PARTY OF YOUNG LITHUANIANS.

The third World Jewish Conference, at its final session in Geneva, resolved to reaffirm the boycott against Nazi Germany as proclaimed last year. In a telegram to Herr Hitler, the National League of German Jews strongly dissociates itself from the resolution.

Another World Jewish Congress will be held in August of next year for the purpose of adopting measures for defending the common interests and protecting the rights of Jewish communities wherever they are threatened.

Members of a Zionist organisation at Kovno, in Lithuania, were attacked by a party of some sixty young Lithuanians, who ransacked their houses, smashed windows and furniture, and injuring many of the occupants. This incident follows a number of other anti-Jewish outrages.

The Akikuyu

Their Customs, Traditions and folklore

By F. C. CAGNOLO, L.M.C.

Text printed by Akikuyu in the Mission Printing School, Nyet.

225 pages, 3 Coloured Pictures and numerous illustrations.

The inhabitants are a quiet, unwarlike, progressive and intelligent people, destined to play a prominent part in the development of Kenya. It follows that a knowledge of their customs and thoughts is indispensable to the Government Official, to the Missionary and in fact to all who come into close contact with them.

COMBATING SOIL EROSION.

Exposure of Land to Sun Covered by Over-Grazing.

MOISTURE EVAPORATION.

Below is given the Kenya Department of Agriculture on an endeavor to impress upon farmers and planters the extent of the loss caused by erosion of the soil on their holdings—

The Department of Agriculture wishes to emphasize that great efforts must be made to conserve the Colony's soil, and further that the necessary steps must be taken immediately.

Losses of soil are not only losses to owners of land, but also to the Colony and the soil in the interests of individual owners who have a duty to the Colony in stopping such measures as will reduce losses to a minimum.

Evaporation of Moisture.

It may be well to repeat that although there may not be deep gullies to call attention to the soil, serious erosion may be taking place. Therefore, it is necessary to make a thorough examination of both cultivated and uncultivated land and to consider means whereby control can be effected.

No general method is suitable for all circumstances. Each situation will need individual treatment. When planning means to be taken the effect of evaporation of moisture from the soil must be taken into consideration. This has a direct bearing on the problem.

Evaporation of Soil to Sun.

It is evident that when soil exposed to the sun's moisture by evaporation and becomes extremely dry and hard. In this condition it is unable to absorb rain so readily as when moist, and the run-off of rain, causing erosion, is intensified. For this, together with other reasons, certain areas are more severe in countries where the temperature is high and the soil is in many parts of Kenya. Therefore it is essential in this Colony to guard against exposure of the soil to sun, wind and rain by having cultivated lands for longer periods than necessary, and by means of covering the soil with pasture by over-grazing.

These are two considerations of primary importance which are easily understood and which should be noted when making plans for conservation of soil fertility.

The Gorilla's Character Vindicated. BY THE GAME WARDEN OF UGANDA.

Denizens of Kayonza Forest. LEAD A PEACEFUL EXISTENCE DESPITE PROSPECTORS.

In his annual report on the work of his Department, the Game Warden of Uganda presents a new picture of the maligned gorilla and as a result of his investigations in the Kayonza Forest, Captain Pittman is able in his report to give a first-hand description of these animals in their natural habitat.

The Kayonza gorillas, it is revealed, differ in their habits from the gorillas of the volcanoes. They make their "beds" in a different way, and their dietary system has undergone modification owing to a different habitat. And now the inmates of the Kayonza Forest andly worried by the machinations of prospectors, blasting even, only scare them temporarily.

It is satisfactory to note that the Game Warden concludes his chapter on gorillas by expressing the hope that they will be protected from "the cinema man and the pseudo-investigator who disturb flagrantly and unnecessarily, then irritate, and finally have to take life in 'self-defence'."

Their Future Protection.

Apparently the gorilla is by no means the terrifying creature he is often represented to be. In a certain way, indeed, the gorilla of the Uganda Game Warden is more like the chimpanzee of the West Indies. Captain Pittman gives some new facts regarding gorillas in the "Present Status of the Gorilla." The gorilla of the Kayonza Forest has been known for many years, but until last year prospectors had been looking for them. The gorilla of the Kayonza Forest, however, leads the lonely more solitary life than the gorilla of the West Indies. It is a more peaceful creature, and its habits are more like those of the chimpanzee. It is a more peaceful creature, and its habits are more like those of the chimpanzee. BRITISH LEGION FETE AT KABETE.

All Roads Will Lead to Show Ground.

ARTISTIC PROGRAMME.

Interesting Reading Matter on Variety of Subjects.

A stream of cars along the Kabete Road, dozens of pedestrians from the Show Ground, the driving of the parade, the telling of fortunes, and the other amusements of the day were the British Legion Fete last week.

This year, however, the Legion have made a special effort to produce a fete on September 1st, which will be even more enjoyable than those held in the past. During the afternoon a football match, H.M.S. "Havens" vs. Nairobi, will be played on the ground, and the evening will be dancing from 8.30 until the first hour of Sunday morning on a specially-contrived dance floor. Certain items will not be supplied by these means.

Over-Headed Pages.

The programme for the British Legion Fete is in the form of a magazine containing over a hundred pages. On its yellow cover is a picture of a motor car with a flag in colours, while in the bottom right-hand corner is the "Programme No. 1," which indicates that some fortunate person is to hold the motor car.

CHANGING TIMES.

"There was a time," reads one article, "when flying was classed as a crime, and several articles of it were made. It is now a common mode of transport, and it is no longer a crime to fly over a field."

Valued at £125,000.

RECORD SEVER'S AGENCY.

A record consumption of silver, valued at £125,000, was reported to have been made in the Kayonza Forest.

Much space is devoted to the sports of the day, including football, tennis, and golf. The articles are written in a light and entertaining style.

SPRING OF BEINGS.

A Curious Phenomenon Explained.

The remarkable "discovery" of a spring which jets not only water but a stream of colored beads of all sizes has been made in the Mount Fuji region. The Geological Department, when questioned about this strange phenomenon, stated that this sort of thing had been known to happen in that district for over twenty years. The explanation given is that the Mount Fuji region is a volcanic area, and the colored beads are the result of volcanic activity.

The Gorilla's Character

eleventh valley were, respectively, at intervals of ten, fifteen, twenty and fifty paces in the gully, and all plainly visible to each other. Groups of four, some in trees on the forested slopes of the valley were also seen as if to closely resemble each other as in the case of the vespertines' regulations. These birds are singularly filthy.

Another amusing difference between the habits of the vespertine gorilla and those in the Kenyan forest was in the matter of food. As in the case of the vespertine, and only do not grow in the Kenyan forest and, on the other hand, they are content themselves with a diet of vegetable matter which shows little similarity to that of their relatives on the European mountains.

Coincides with Humans.

The Kenyan gorilla, apparently, is not guilty of frequent assaults ranging, although the local natives insist to the contrary, to these enormous looking beasts and try to drive them away.

The general proximity of the gorilla habitat to human settlements has resulted in the presence of human beings having no objection to their efforts, and the females and young living together out of safety, the males only more when it falls them to do so.

While the Manufacture are extremely tolerant of the gorilla, the other local natives would rarely tolerate the job they were not afraid of the enormous gorilla, following an attack upon an officially protected species.

Many of these have been let out by the Government on a very easy lease conditions system.

Agricultural exhibits were nothing out of the ordinary but all the more a credit to the district whose exhibitors originally made their display by far the most attractive and well chosen.

Gold Exhibits. The gold exhibits were a revelation and particularly those are due to Mr. Mansfield, Manager of the Mint, who also at the request of the district authorities had arranged in a grand display of gold bullion to contrast and arrange an attraction.

NAIROBI TRADER'S ASSOCIATION.

For the information of the Government Committee, Discussion continued on many of the clauses proposed and measures that are now in progress with reference to the composition of the Association.

It was decided to recommend application to the present Government, to consider the proposal, and to the effect of the Government, to consider the proposal, and to the effect of the Government, to consider the proposal.

The meeting was adjourned to the 11th inst., and a representative of the Association should be invited to serve on the Committee and if that cannot be achieved it was resolved that the memorandum prepared should be personally presented to the Committee by the Chairman of the Association.

Nairobi Bonded Warehouse.

The Association had been approached to give their opinion whether it was still necessary that the Nairobi Bonded Warehouse should function. The Chairman informed the meeting that he had written to the Bonded Warehouse and had asked the meeting to accept the recommendation of the Bonded Warehouse Management Committee.

"We Must Prepare for a War of To-day."

SIGNOR MUSSOLINI'S OUTSPOKEN COMMENT.

At Conclusion of Manoeuvres.

EDUCATING THE ITALIAN NATION TO BE MILITARY MINDED.

At the conclusion of the manoeuvres of the Italian Army, Signor Mussolini offered a typical contribution to the efforts being made to maintain peace in Europe.

In a speech to the members of Foreign Military Missions present to watch the manoeuvres he stressed the importance of encouraging military mindness in the Italian people. "We must prepare for a war of to-day" was one of the remarks he made in this connection.

Further to explain the situation Signor Mussolini emphasized to his audience that the manoeuvres had been carried out under conditions approximating geographically, to those on Italy's eastern frontier.

LAKE RUDOLF MYSTERY.

Fires on Eastern Shore. Seen by Patrols.

Aeroplane Sent From Nairobi Hope That Scientists Alive.

There was an unexpected development in the Lake Rudolf mystery during the week-end.

On Saturday morning the Secretariat received a telegram from the Provincial Commissioner, Isiolo, to the effect that he had received a communication from the military authorities at Lokichilingi stating that fires had been seen on the eastern shore of Lake Rudolf at a point a few miles south of North Island and in a part of the country which is normally uninhabited.

The place indicated is over a hundred miles north of South-India and north of the two missing sections.

Mr. Puchs accompanied by a police officer from Marsabit and a native patrol set off on Saturday morning for the district indicated.

It was expected that the aeroplane would return to Nairobi last night.

It was not until 10.30 in the morning that the aeroplane returned to Nairobi.

Despite recent controversies between Signor Mussolini and Herr Hitler, it would appear that the former's dramatic speech at the conclusion of the Army manoeuvres is not likely to be well received in Germany.

BOXING TEAM OF H.M.S. "HAWKINS."

This Week - The Navy.

Concerts, Boxing, and a Fete.

Search for David Copperfield.

Joan Bennett, one of the three Bennett Sisters.

The British Legion Fete. This is always a successful event, and this year it will continue with dancing and music (and probably including singing) until about 2 a.m.

A Good Film Returns.

AS far as the picture goes this week Stanley Lupino has brought back with his stepless nightie. One of the better musical comedies, it was shown at the Empire the week before last, but many people missed it because of the greater attraction of "Charisma the Great," which was showing at the same time.

OWEN Nore, a matinee idol of the Empire, has shown at Prince Theatre, and early late and slightly in a new "Gladys" which is being played with application. "Charisma the Great" is playing in its unmodified British form. "Where is this Lady," Nairobi has had several films recently that have reached Africa before their return to England.

Three Sisters.

JOAN Bennett is the youngest of the three sisters, one of whom, Catherine, is "Thought as the Capital theatre this week. They are a theatrical family, three Brigantes, and Joan, after completing her education at Versailles, made a stage debut with her father's "The Three Sisters" in "The House of the Three Sisters." Della, Theodore's three sisters who wanted to go to Moscow, the three Bennett sisters wanted to go to Hollywood, and they did.

George Arliss as Rothchild.

It is particularly fitting that on the 25th of today, George Arliss as Rothchild, should be in the House of Commons.

... of money. International finance, the rise and fall of the market and the financial repercussions on political situations are in the minds of most people at the moment. Meyer Rothschild and a fabulously wealthy man and left for Africa, who returned to the big city and started the most tremendous international banking transactions. Nathan was the one who went to London, and so great were the financial services he rendered in the country during the Napoleonic wars that he was publicly honored by the Prince Regent at St. James' Palace.

Both Meyer Rothschild and Nathan Rothschild are superbly played by George Arliss, and it is said that he surpasses both his achievements as Daniel and as Voltaire. His next film, which he is in work now, is "The Iron Duke," "The House of Rothschild" is looked for Kenya within the next few months.

An English David Copperfield.

BECAUSE little English boys are apparently not allowed to adopt career in Hollywood. Mr. John Farrow, the American film director, has been in Toronto searching for a Canadian boy with an English accent to play the part of David Copperfield in the film version of Dickens' classic. The screen David Copperfield must be from eight to ten years old and stand about 4 ft. 2 in. tall, and Mr. Farrow says he will travel all over Canada until he finds the right boy with an English accent. All the Dickens period costumes and frocks for the film will be designed by a young woman from London, Dilly Tree, who is now in Hollywood. Miss Tree is left-handed and self-taught. She was born in Gloucestershire in Great Britain. Her first screen performance was with Ronald Colman in "Babes in Arms." Della, Theodore's three sisters who wanted to go to Moscow, the three Bennett sisters wanted to go to Hollywood, and they did.

Legislation to Help Canadian Farmers. FACILITATING THE REFUNDING OF FARM DEBTS.

According to Ability to Pay.

LOAN BOARD TO TAKE OVER MORTGAGES AND GIVE FURTHER CREDIT.

Two Bills, both of which are designed to help farmers, were recently introduced in the Canadian Legislature, on the motion of the Prime Minister.

The first Bill sets up machinery to facilitate the refunding of farm debts, and the second contains provisions for amending and enlarging the scope of the Farm Loan Act, which was passed in 1922, established a system of long term mortgage credit for farmers.

The new legislation will apply to the whole of Canada, and is intended to give full effect to the scheme the Provincial Legislatures must enact supplementary measures.

Comprehensive Measures.

On the motion of the Prime Minister, Mr. R. B. Bennett, two Bills designed to bring financial relief to farmers have been introduced in the Canadian House of Commons.

The first Bill, known as the Debt Adjustment Bill, sets up machinery whereby a farmer may have his ability to pay re-appraised on the basis of the value of his holdings and his potential ability to produce woolly, and a suitable amount to refinance his indebtedness in the light of the circumstances.

An official receiver, to be appointed by the provincial Government, will be responsible for the carrying out of the provisions to which the Act refers. The official receiver in each district may be appointed if necessary.

This official will receive applications from farmers who desire to have their ability to pay re-appraised by an official receiver. He will act in the capacity of an official receiver, custodian and trustee under the provisions of the Act.

Boards of Review.

Should the efforts of the official receiver fail to secure a debt adjustment, the matter will be taken to a provincial board of review. Such a board will be appointed by the Governor in Council on the recommendation of the official receiver. It will consist of a chief commissioner, two members of the board, who will hold office at pleasure, and one or two assessors. Its duties and powers will be prescribed by the Act. The chief commissioner will receive applications from farmers who desire to have their ability to pay re-appraised by an official receiver. He will act in the capacity of an official receiver, custodian and trustee under the provisions of the Act.

FEELING TIRED?

Choose your system of body poisoning, easily with Fennel-salt, that gives you long-term health. Choosing in this manner—just on time.

COLD SUPPERS

Potted Meats and Salads

HERE are suggestions for an appetizing cold supper which can be prepared at any time during the day and left in a cool larder until required. Questions given are sufficient for two people.

Potted Veal and Ham.

One pound veal neck without fat, quarter-pound cooked ham with fat, quarter-pound butter, seasonings.

Put veal and ham several times through the mincer, pound to a smooth paste in a mortar, adding the butter gradually. Press the seasonings of pepper, salt and mixed herbs, and continue to pound until you have a paste which will spread easily. Put this into a small press drawn well, and cover with melted butter. Small dinner rolls are good with this paste.

Gratinified Salad.

Choose two large grapefruit, wash the skins well, cut the fruit in halves, and remove pulp and juice. Take all skins and rinds from the pulp and mix it, and the juice, with two tinfuls of tomatoes, some finely sliced tomatoes, a few cold potatoes cut into small cubes, and some cold cooked green peas. Arrange lettuce leaves in individual dishes. Fill the grapefruit shells with the salad, piping it high, sprinkle with mayonnaise, and set them on the lettuce.

Fruit-daily Salads.

Buy a package of red-currant jelly and make it up in the usual way. When the jelly is cool but not quite set, stir into it a cup apple finely grated, a cupful each of chopped stoned cherries and chopped pineapple, and a mashed banana. Leave to set, then wash it up thoroughly, pile on slices of melon, and top with whipped cream.

Parliamentary Uniform.

One of the delegates to the Empire Parliamentary Association to visit Uganda and Tanganyika during the Parliamentary recess is Mr. V. Malleson, M.P., of County of Walshampton. He was asked what sort of uniform he would have, and a fellow councillor suggested that a string of beads might not be out of place!

Fast Flight from Heat.

Monaster G. Probstmann, a Cavalier of the Legion of Honour and the owner of cotton estates in Uganda, flew from Jinja to Paris, Uganda, New from Jinja to Paris, a distance of over 5,000 miles, in two and a half days. He stated that the reason he made so fast a flight was because of the intense heat which he felt.

POSE AND CHARACTER

How Do You Sit?

An amusing and amusing amount of information about a person's character may be gained by watching the way in which he sits and is accustomed to sit. Just a few of your friends will notice how their poses emphasize what you already know about their characters. And when you are away on holiday or anywhere among strangers, you can identify yourself, and gain quite a lot of information about people, by noticing whether they habitually lounge, sit up stiffly, spread themselves, or push on one corner of the chair.

Notice the girl who often sits with her hands clasped behind her back, and her crossed feet sticking stiffly out in front of her. She takes an admirable pride in her appearance, and her feet are always clean and shined. Almost certainly you'll find her to be one of the people who like the good things of life but are prepared to work for them who are never lazy for long periods, and who have quick and interesting brains. While she is sitting at work in her chair her hands are working, and when she does get up she springs straight to attention.

For a woman like all the women who is drifting herself all over her chair, there's a very little vitality about her. She's good-natured, inclined to be selfish, often lacking in initiative. If she likes to sit alone and without originally. On

How do you sit? Do you consistently sit in the world's way? or a keen business woman, a hostess, a born leader, someone who has been born a silver spoon in her mouth, a clever girl?

Face Powder and Cocktails

DOCTORS WARNING TO WOMEN

DOCTORS are warning women about the dangers of face powder, and at the same time strongly advising that no woman will take their advice. Many face powders containing extra lead may be the cause of extra lead and all sorts of new troubles, which accounts for the fact that catarrh is more common among women who use other people. A famous oculist once wrote: "I think the reason is not that young women are more ignorant in their use of face powder, but women are particularly susceptible to extra lead, and it is to be good authority that it is to be avoided."

Forecasts. For at many months of plain and stripes it is interesting to learn that it is predicted that fashion designers will favour that fabric must be rib and plain within a few months' time.

One designer in particular is greatly impressed with the beauty of paper white satin. A evening gown of this fabric always attracts someone whose long black hair is parted in the centre, plaited, and twisted into a braid at the nape of the neck—was shown to a few principal people last week. A plain house-closet chiffon model was worn by a "golden" girl at the same school. Pictures for Burlington House

EXHIBITION OF ART IN INDUSTRY

THE 1916 Summer Exhibition of the Royal Academy, which opened a few weeks ago, has been successful for the first time. There has been a record number of visitors, and sales total over £10,000. This is a record for the previous year, when the amount was just over £7,000.

Five of the pictures will remain at Burlington House, having been selected by the Council of the Academy with the view of giving to the late Mr. Edward Selous, B.A., who was killed in the Gallipoli campaign, a memorial picture. The pictures are: 'The Landing of the King and Queen' by the Duke of Devonshire and the Prince of Wales; 'The Boer War' by the Duke of Devonshire; 'The Boer War' by the Duke of Devonshire; 'The Boer War' by the Duke of Devonshire; 'The Boer War' by the Duke of Devonshire.

The model of the Metropolitan Cathedral of Liverpool, exhibited by the Edwin Lutyens, is to be sent out to one of the Cathedral Funds. It will be sold at Liverpool Fall and later to Dublin.

As work at the galleries is completed, it will be open to the public on the afternoon following. The King and Queen are patron of the exhibition and the Prince of Wales is chairman of the Executive Committee. It is the first time that industry has been directly linked with the Royal Academy, and the programme has been designed to show the connection between art and manufacturing industry. Judging of the exhibition, the picture shows how well they are going on for some months. Pictures have been sent out and designs were drawn to Burlington House, already noted to illustrate the exhibition. The exhibition is open to the public on the afternoon following.

Miss Edith Macdonell, school principal in Mr. Graham Harvey will take next month. Prince Binks.

Be a Mycologist

Women Who Specialise

A WOMAN of the mycology has been suggested as a career for girls. It is a profession that offers a wide field of research into diseases of plants and animals. The mycologist studies the growth and life of fungi, which are everywhere. The mycologist is also a chemist and biologist.

As a career it is necessarily limited to those who have had a good education. The mycologist must have a degree in botany or a similar subject, and a course of two years in post-graduate research. Women mycologists have made good on the South African, Indian and Zulu. A few years ago it was largely due to the work of a woman mycologist that the island's chief industry, sugar cultivation, was saved from a fungus that threatened to destroy it.

The New Zealand spider arriving in Government cases were submitted to a woman mycologist, who took the venom and transferred it to her laboratory. She examined them microscopically, and found that they were not poisonous. She also examined them for the purpose of ascertaining the source of the venom. She found that the venom was derived from a spider which was native to the island.

Another Step Forward

Wives and Their Nationality

AN English girl of 22 has turned out to be a native of the West Indies. It is a case of a woman who has been married to a British subject, and has therefore acquired his nationality. The woman is the daughter of a native of the West Indies, and she has been married to a British subject for several years. She has now decided to return to her native land.

These statements are made in the report of Mr. W. R. Harbette, Chairman of the National Recovery Council. The improvement in both cases is attributed mainly to the reduction of hours which the N.R.A. has effected. General Johnson remains undisturbed dictator of the N.R.A. This is the outcome of a complete tactical victory over Mr. Harbette, the N.R.A. Council and the Public-Private Secretary. NIGHT BLOWING OF MOTOR HORNS

Transport Minister's Appeal

'NOISE DISARMAMENT'

THE Minister of Transport made a most timely appeal yesterday evening for "Noise Disarmament," urging the public to cooperate in the Ministry of Transport's order forbidding the blowing of motor horns within an area of five miles of Charing Cross between 11.30 p.m. and 5.15 a.m. The first appeal shows that the measure is being taken seriously. An effort was made to persuade motorists to stop blowing their horns at night, and other means become more prominent. One effort was a certain diminution of the speed of vehicles. At 11 p.m. no accident had been reported and no increase in traffic. The measure is being taken seriously. 7:10-By Day!

It is pleasing to note that 7:10, are broadcasting the news during lunch hours and demonstrating progress. The Company, I am sure, are anxious to do every thing within reason for the majority listeners and to this end it is the duty of these listeners to let the Station hear their suggestions.

7:30-Homeless has been one of the discussions with which I have been most interested. I have been most interested in the following discussion before me: "What is the difference between an Indoor and an Outdoor Aerial?" After giving him what I consider the obvious answer, I was informed that I was wrong, and as usually this case I said: "Well, I'll try it." "Well," said my friend, "the answer is fifty miles."

While the Indoor Aerial may be a way of avoiding the expense of a wire, there are many reasons, however, of detecting whether or not it is one without having to look for a wireless net supporting an ordinary set. On the other hand, the Wireless Ordinance, if applied to the outdoor antenna, should have no difficulty in obtaining information as to who are in possession of a set.

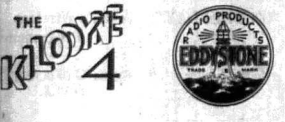

The Dealer. The "Wireless Ordinance" makes it incumbent on a wireless dealer to keep a record of all sales and disposal of wireless apparatus, and such records

LISTEN TO THE WORLD!

Only those who have handled the new 1936 Kilodyne can appreciate its wonderful capabilities. Unlike many "All Wave" receivers, the Kilodyne is not an ordinary set adapted afterwards for short-wave working, but an instrument designed for efficient short-wave reception as a first consideration and adapted later for the higher wavelengths. The features of the design are ease of operation, an excellent slow-motion open vision case of operation, freedom from objectionable body capacity effects, even on the shortest waves, no spots in any wiring, and smooth and definite reaction everywhere. Ideal for reception of the British Empire station programs.

A TEST REVIEW of this outstanding Receiver appears in the June issue of the "Wireless Magazine."

We definitely guarantee that a receiver built from an EddyStone Kilodyne kit of parts to be greatly superior, cost in performance and quality of parts, to any other kit receiver on the market in Kenya. We sell this kit on performance and not on price.

NOTES FOR WIRELESS FANS

This page, devoted to the interests of Wireless, is conducted by "Jared," a wireless enthusiast of wide knowledge of East African conditions.

Responsibility of the Dealer

It is interesting to note that the Postmaster or any other authority of his own volition. Further, a wireless dealer is not permitted to sell a set of hand wireless unless he is satisfied that that person is a bona fide listener and is not purchasing for resale. It is the duty of these listeners to let the Station hear their suggestions.

The Penalty

Assuming that there are a large number of unlicensed sets in the Colony (which there is), the Colony apply (there is) a penalty for this "trespassing" activity. It is of course of some and component parts, and it is the author's duty to see that those persons who are being unlicensed especially when one feels that the maximum penalty for not being in possession of a wireless license is £200. It is obviously unfair that those who comply with the Law should pay that those that do not do so. The total amount of revenue collected last annum was £1,650, and if everyone was forced to pay, this figure, it is thought, would be quite a very much retained. If the Government

A Reader's Report

J. A. L. Muzana. The following extracts from a letter dated 14th inst. are quoted for the information of readers. I listened for helpings to see to fix up my gramophone to the wireless. It works famously. Here are a few notes about reception in these parts.

Empire 25.80 metres (G. S. B.) Very good, but not much. Empire 21.5 metres (G. S. B.) Fair, great volume but subject to atmospheric. Nairobi, C.L.O. Very good but fades terribly, one moment too much volume and the next it disappears completely; atmospheric not as bad as London reception. On the indoor aerial it is almost possible to cut out all the atmospheric, but not the volume. Often the loss of volume is simply helped by the clarity of reception. Radio's morning and lunch-time programmes come through exceptionally well every day. The 3:30 programme on Thursdays which I have heard, is not as good as the other two. Germany (Zezen) 31.80. Always very good. EddyStone. Very good. Always very good, but they always seem to be talking.

I have noticed that when it is full moon down here, reception seems to be better.

Answer:—Many thanks for your report. I am always interested to receive reports on reception, especially if there is a noticeable improvement from the reception from any particular station.

High Spots in the Programme

FEATURES OF THE WEEK

RECEPTION conditions during the past week have generally speaking been fair to good. The most outstanding feature especially regards on reception, is the fact that the "Empire" programmes of the days' play records of the days' were received very well here, and L.I.O. must be congratulated on their relay. I listened to the relay on different sets on two occasions and I have no hesitation in saying it was really excellent.

OTHER items in the Home programme which came through well were the Variety programme from RadioCity on Monday and Saturday evenings and "Blackout Night" on Friday evening.

THERE are a number of items this week from the Empire station which listeners would be well advised to look out for. This evening just after the news Hupke Green and his Gang will attack the microphone. This Children's Hour, which I believe Hupke Green is only 14 years of age, is a new quite frequent of the Radio Station and his half hour turn is usually most amusing.

ON Thursday at 19:15 GMT "The Boosters" give a three-quarter hour programme. After this follows a Promenade Concert relayed from the Queen's Hall, London. Under the baton of the great beauty of the music is, however, lost.

ON Friday at 19:00 hours (GMT) "The Wireless Military Band" give a three quarters of an hour programme.

SATURDAY. Following the half hour Variety concert which commences at 19:00 GMT, there will be a running commentary of the R.A.C. International Tourist Trophy Races and his Gang will attack the starting point. This Children's Hour, which I believe Hupke Green is only 14 years of age, is a new quite frequent of the Radio Station and his half hour turn is usually most amusing.

'INDICATOR' BATTERY

... tells you in time the time to recharge

The 'Ezid' 'Indicator' forewarns that you may be forgotten. It tells you at a glance the exact state of the battery's charge and there is nothing to memorize. You can depend on what 'Indicator' says. With this new invention you can know exactly the amount of 'charge' in the battery. If it says "Full," then it is full—that's an assurance. On the other hand it is a sure safeguard against the expense of being caught unawares by a run-down battery. The Ezid Batteries already equipped with this invention are the "D" type listed below. You'll find it a boon.

Dogs for Protection. He did not think that increasing the volume of the lioness would lead to a decrease in the volume of the lioness. Those people who believed that it was necessary, living in the middle of Africa, in being very sure dogs for the purpose of protection.

Intended for Stray Dogs.

Councillor Rutledge said he did not think that the amount of the lioness was so important. It was a question of ensuring that people who had been bitten by a lioness, that the animals were kept under control so as to be a nuisance to other people. The dog is also as very stray dog.

Councillor Moller said that only very good progress had been made by the committee. It had brought to the attention of the public the fact that there was no pressure and no resistance in his mind. It was only by the cooperation of the public that the dog industry could be done in the future.

Restriction of Sisal Exports

PRINCIPLE APPROVED BY KENYA GROWERS International Discussions

First Sugar, then Tea, and now Sisal. Another of East Africa's staple industries is to be subjected to a restriction policy as a means of raising prices and coping with the depression.

London Talks in September

The following statement was issued yesterday by the Association for the Restriction of Sisal Exports:

It is felt generally that the continuance of the depressed state of the sisal market due to the enormous carry over of production and the fact that with drought affecting much production there is little hope of the price of sisal rising to a level which would justify the carrying over of production.

CLOSING OF SHOPS ON SATURDAYS Council Debates Half-Day Proposal INDIAN OPPOSITION Referred Back to Committee for Enquiry

Whether Shs. 50/- or Shs. 20/- should be the fee imposed in connection with plumbers' licences was debated at the monthly meeting of Nairobi Municipal Council on Tuesday.

At a recent meeting of the Works and Public Health Committee a resolution was passed on the subject of plumbers' licences submitted by the Municipal Engineer, suggesting alterations in the form of licence issued, and urging the imposition of a fee of Shs. 50/- for permission to do the examination having regard to the cost incurred by Council in respect of such examinations.

After discussion it was recommended for Council's consideration that the proposed fee be accepted, but for Shs. 20/- and that steps be taken to ensure a strict supervision of applicants for plumbers' licences, and greater supervision during the practical tests of applicants.

Higher Fee Urged At Tuesday's meeting of Council, Councillor C. J. Durham suggested that the fee be Shs. 20/- instead of Shs. 50/-. Many people, he said, were simply waiting until the municipal staff and an increased fee would tend to reduce the number of applicants.

Councillor G. Howers agreed. It was an examination for master plumbers, he said, and not an ordinary licence to pass out unqualified persons. The Deputy Mayor, Councillor J. Merton, explained that the Council had been discussing this matter at a committee meeting, when it was suggested that Shs. 20/- would not deter them.

Referred Back Councillor Cooper said that they were not here to issue trade and no to restrict it. While they did not want any more, Dick or Harry as plumbers, on the other hand, if they were only going to do the licence master plumbers, they would not be giving a fair chance to those who try to become master plumbers.

Those who were in some sense of the town who did not require the services of master plumbers; he qualified workers would suffice for them. It would, therefore, be wrong to penalize by imposing a heavy fee those people who, as master plumbers, were nevertheless, sufficiently expert to do the work they had to do.

The matter was referred back to the Council with a recommendation that the fee be Shs. 20/- and not Shs. 50/-.

Emergency landing grounds have been established at Semanga and Sikwa in Brookland, North-east Rhodesia. Each landing ground consists of one runway 1,000 yards by 300 yards pointing into the prevailing wind, with standard markings and wind gauge.

afternoon closing, since that was not only possible, but many people from outside districts could come into Nairobi to do their shopping.

The matter was referred to the General Purposes Committee with the view of inquiry being carried out.

Proposed Opposed The Mayor said he had that afternoon received a letter from the Nairobi Indian Merchants' Association stating that the Indian trading community were entirely opposed to Saturday

Capital Theatre. "Where is this Lady?" is a happy musical comedy in very much the same vein as "The Shipwrecked Sailor". A happy-go-lucky comedy of financial errors and a society girl's life. It is set in Vienna, and like all starts with a bang. It is a sparkling film with romance and gaiety.

TEST MATCH SCENES Film at the Princes Theatre

The Princes Theatre has just received by the last air mail a film of the test match between England and Australia at the Oval. It is a very interesting and shows the great partnership between Donald Bradman and Percy Lister.

It was originally intended to show the picture last evening, but in view of the test match in the Empire Theatre it was delayed by Mr. W. B. D'Almeida to suspend the first showing until this evening.
