Lake Rudolf Rift Valley Expedition

PROOF FOUND THAT SOUTH ISLAND WAS ONCE INHABITED

Human Remains Centuries Old

MR. V. E. FUCHS' STORY OF ADVENTUROUS VISIT TO MYSTERIOUS SPOT

The article published below, written by Mr. V. E. Fuchs, leader of the ill-fated Lake Rudolf Rift Valley Expedition, was dated from Marsabit on August 13, the day Mr. Fuchs arrived to report that Mr. Martin had not returned to Hohel (South) Island.

It describes for the first time, the mysterious island which was the scene of the tragic story. Mr. Fuchs reveals the important fact that human remains indicate clearly that Hohel Island was once inhabited and he presents a picture of the disaster that overtook those happy islanders a few hundred years ago when their isolated home was overcome with volcanic violence.

A Meat Pie everyone likes

"I don't consider myself a better cook than others, but I have my own way of doing things. Take meat pie for instance. I make it in just the usual way only I mix a dessert spoonful of Bisto with one pint of warm water, and pour this over the meat, before covering with the pastry. That makes all the difference instead of ordinary meat pie, you get extra-special meat pie full of rich, appetising gravy."

THE AUTOGYRO

Description of Recent Police Test

[STANDARD CORRESPONDENT.]
London, August 31.
(By Air Mail.)
Assistant Commissioner Tripp, head of Scotland Yard's traffic section, carried out an experiment of traffic control in a silver and blue traffic policeman in a motor car. The satisfaction was also the way that further tests will be made, and if these are successful a small fleet of autogyros will be added to the equipment of the Yard. Not only will the machines be used for traffic control, it is hoped to employ them to chase work, particularly in the case of motorists who are without wireless, and if these are equipped with a speed motor above 100 miles an hour.

Passing over Hounslow and Ken in terms the autogyro made for the Glasgow, Birmingham, where it stopped like a stone and hovered for a few minutes, waiting for traffic. Mr. Tripp was obviously concerned with the important lay-out in view of the possibility of traffic congestion when the Radio Traffic Light system opened. As a low altitude machine flew to Hyde Park and following a signal round the park to Marble Arch made for Buckingham Palace.

Over Oxford Street

Then the autogyro drove over Oxford Street, where the Assistant Commissioner saw a genuine West End traffic jam. The whole of the street and the roads immediately surrounding it were choked with traffic. Along Regent Street and on to Trafalgar Square the machine flew, circling over Scotland Yard, which just kept the congestion on Westminster Bridge must have been noted—well thence in Elizabeth and Regent's Park before returning to Harcourt.

On landing, Assistant Commissioner Tripp said: "Although it is too early yet to say definitely, these may be aerial traffic control. We have learned that traffic policemen cannot be reduced locally. The other day there was a big hold-up at Westminster. We tried the usual way to be as far as possible at Westminster. I saw a good many examples of London's traffic problems which

and think of your throat

If cigarette smoke can discolour your fingers, what must it do to your sensitive throat. After smoking a box of du Maurier you will notice a complete absence of throat irritation. Also, your cigarettes have been remarkably cool and smooth. The reason why can be traced to the filter tip. On examination it will be found to have collected the tarsins which, if not trapped in the filter, would produce throat discomfort. This patent filter is the most important advance made in cigarette manufacture for over 40 years and brings you smoke up to date by this modern improvement to your cigarette.

For the first time you will enjoy the full flavour of the finest Virginia leaf. Richer and rounder for being filtered. Sweeter for being clean.

ten the shores of the lake opposite to Mohale Island, ready for the attempt to cross to it. It was estimated that the crossing would take about two hours and it was suitable time of day to choose the worst of the almost perpetual East or Southeast wind which can lash the deep blue surface into a veritable fury of blinding white-capped waves. The crossing attempt was finally made on July 25 and we started to leave the west promontory in leaving the shore, for all the way across we had to contend with choppy waves and a strong wind, whereas it became almost dead calm.

Human Habitation

Later on we came upon half a broken pot and a few fragments of human bone, so that we know that the island had definitely been inhabited in the past, but we do not know how they got there, nor will it be a mystery. All that we know is that the place where they appear to have lived was on the old shore some 100 ft. above the present level of the lake, which may indicate that the last inhabitants fled some hundreds of years ago.

One can imagine the scene a small island continuously being visited for fish and goats and watching the Red of the lake in the same way as do the El Mozo and the El Moza. But from the history of their normal existence they were suddenly interrupted by the sound of explosion that about the ground beneath their feet: then a cloud of smoke spread across the sky and red ash rain poured down upon them and sulphurous vapours spread down the valleys, without their burning, although beyond their comprehension. Many perhaps rushed into the lake for relief, perhaps not to too survive, but who knows, but unable to read the mangled for want of material to construct a boat, those few final survivors succumbed, leaving no trace beyond the fragments of the present inhabitants, mangled good, perhaps the only animal capable of survival in surroundings like these, dead and dead.

Leaving two members of the expedition, Mr. W. H. E. Metcalfe and Dr. W. R. Dwyer on the island for the purpose of surveying the lake and yet returning, we were found possible to pay a visit to the west end of the lake. By following Coast Table's

It was found possible to identify the then active Tashi Volcano. About it there still hangs a sulphurous smell, when the wind blows from the west, although it has long since ceased its active eruptions. Surrounded as it is on all sides by recent streams of lava it is necessary to tread very carefully, for the lake is to the base of the cone, for the volcanic material that these eruptions have piled up in the surrounding areas is likely at every step to precipitate one on to the next volcanic-like masses below.

Work Accomplished

The work, then, that the expedition has accomplished in its first month on the east side of the lake includes an anthropological investigation of the contents and physical constitution of the El Mozo, which, together with the archaeological material, has been reported on by Dr. Dwyer. Mr. Metcalfe has not only made numerous anthropological observations and topographical features but he has also succeeded in fixing the height of the lake by linking with Arthur's trigonometrical survey they differ a distance five feet, which height error, a wide error can be taken. His first expedition his collecting of botanical specimens. Mr. J. F. Millard, who has unfortunately had to leave the Expedition to take up a Government post in Kisumu, collected his anthropological specimens, but unable to visit the extremely remote and inhospitable nature of the country, he found little except late mobile material. I collected the geological work which along the promontory, but have been extremely late in this part of the Rift Valley.

The Unfinished Plan

Shortly the expedition will have finished on the first stage of the work which will entail a two months' canoe journey to the north. The next to be visited is bounded on the east by the sea and on the west by the lake, and the knowledge of the country already gained from the west side of the lake.

Native Policy
THE DANGER OF A FALSE SENTIMENTALITY

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."—The British Empire was won by the courage and vigor of our forefathers, and has been maintained by the spirit of chivalry and honor which we have administered to the wants of the people subject to our rule.

Are we going to lose this Empire by the mere sentimentalism of a weak sentimentality? The slow backward of our subject races are asking for some act of government more or less administered by themselves, among what similar to our Parliamentary system at home. They know that for what they ask.

It has taken Great Britain centuries of hard experience and long years of effort to work out a form of government based on compromise. Am these subject races capable of this spirit of compromise without going through long years of trial?
 If it is absolutely for amiable politicians at Home to attempt to invent a system of government for peoples of whom they have no personal knowledge—will whom they never have had any personal contact.

Friendship is the art of the practical. There are no greater dangers than the philanthropic to hurry. Chances follow in its ill-timed efforts, and the inevitable reaction results. Bonafide intention applied without the necessary knowledge are not remedies at all, but merely aggravation of evil. Great Britain is attempting on a scale hitherto unprecedented to implant into her subject populations the wisdom she has won by long years of labour and effort. Can I be supposed that these subject races can be endowed at short notice with all she has learned? That they can take up the traditions of her rule from her shoulders as if they were, without themselves going through a long period of trial and effort. (Witness the little efforts of Haiti and Liberia—self-governing communities. What failures they have proved to be.)

There are, some, there are many. I fear, who think that possible. I, who think that States are capable of any sort of self-government, except under the dictatorship of their own chiefs. Are we going to have Kenya run by a false sentimentalism, a world-wide, the latest product of idealism out of hypocrisy?

Everywhere there is unrest. Our ignorant subject races are asking to be freed from benevolent rule. A vast of scourge seems in danger of prevailing over our race, a lack of confidence in our powers, which may be the forerunner of collapse.
 Let us show again the virtue of our self-faithfulness who come to what we give and when to retreat.
 Yours etc.

THE BRITISH LEGION AND UNEMPLOYMENT

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."—After being over 1 1/2 years unemployed I am glad to see that the British Legion is willing to do a job of work which would make a big difference to the lives of the unemployed.

As regards unemployment, it is the responsibility of the British Legion to look after their own, but to see that the unemployed are able to find work. The British Legion should be a body of men who are able to do a job of work which would make a big difference to the lives of the unemployed. Social Legislation in Germany

A DRASTIC NEW ORDER ISSUED

Compulsory Dismissal

OF ALL UNMARRIED MEN AND WOMEN UNDER 25 YEARS OF AGE

During the last few months the Hitler regime has had occasion frequently to introduce some new and drastic legislation in order to avoid for itself any possible setbacks.

The control of imports, foreign currencies and industrial services has become increasingly strict. Now it is the turn of the social services. Every unmarried man and woman under the age of 25, who is employed either publicly or privately is to be dismissed.

The places of those dismissed will be filled by older people with families. The State has undertaken to find work for those whom they have ordered to be discharged. As usual there are many exceptions to the order, members of the Nazi Party, for example, are exempt.

Meanwhile the President of the Reichsbank, Dr. Schacht, continues his appeals for an extended moratorium for all Germany's debts. Dr. Schacht never lets slip an opportunity for making appeals of this nature. On this occasion he was addressing a Congress of Agrarian Scientists.

But Certain Exceptions

Dr. Schacht's appeal is addressed to the Reichstag, which has been dissolved. It is expected that the Reichstag will be reconvened in the near future. The Reichstag will be reconvened in the near future. The Reichstag will be reconvened in the near future.

DEBT MORATORIUM

Another Appeal by Dr. Schacht. A demand that Germany be granted several years moratorium on all her foreign debts.

MANCHURIAN BANDITS WRECK A TRAIN

Passengers Kidnapped Following Two Hour Fight

A Station on the Trans-Siberian Railway.

Bandits have wrecked a passenger train south of Harbin. They are believed to have unhooked a section of the track, causing the engine to turn over on its side. Four carriages were telescoped, and several passengers were hurled through the roof.

The Japanese guards fought the bandits for two hours but the raiders eventually captured the first and second class carriages. They then withdrew with their prisoners, which included six Japanese subjects.

Hospital and break-down trains were rushed to the scene but torrential rain handicapped the work of rescue. Many dead and injured are buried by wreckage and many of the bodies recovered had been mutilated beyond recognition.

Three employees of the Metro-Goldwyn Film Company are missing, and also two American and one Danish passengers. It is feared that they have been kidnapped. Thirteen Japanese were killed and many Japanese and Manchurians injured.

IMPORTS OF DAIRY PRODUCE

The United Kingdom's Record AGAIN UNBEATEN

A KIDNAPPING RACKET

Grandchildren of Roosevelt Threats in Letter

Mrs. Roosevelt

Threats to kidnap one or all of President Roosevelt's grandchildren and to do bodily harm to the President himself have just been disclosed in the form of a letter addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt, demanding the payment of 100,000 dollars.

The letter was not delivered to the President's wife as it was intercepted by Federal officials upon its delivery at the White House. The letter demanded that the money should be paid in notes of small denominations.

Subsequently the police arrested Benjamin Zorn, a former Navy Aviation Corps mechanic, in the T.M.C.A. establishment in New York.

PROBLEM No. 1577.
By Cassin Mansfield, Bristol.
Black Four.

White Five.
White mates in two moves.

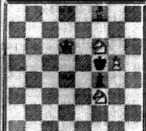

To Correspondents.
The Chess Editor expects to be back from the Coast today, and hopes to resume the normal routine of this column next week.

Problem "B".
Composers solution is 1. Kx
b4. As previously pointed out, the irregularity of the Black Pawn position in no way affects the solvability of the problem.
It dates from a time before the importance of retro-analysis was made prominent by T. R. Dawson, and is to be solved just as it stands. Being a classic, we did not notice the technical flaw in the setting, as it is rightly regarded in these days; but when your attention was drawn to it we confirmed the position as correct and gave an extra week.

An Ending by Troitzky.
The following position is given in the current number of the "British Chess Magazine".
White, 2 men.—King e4,
Queen e5, Bishop g7.
Black, 2 men.—King f6, Queen
d7.
White to play and win.
This Russian Composer is always ingenious, and the unravelling of his end-game position is a pleasing and instructive pastime. Notably, would guess that White has more than a draw here.

PROBLEM No. 1578.
By F. H. J. Ormsara.
Black Two.

White mates in three moves.

SIR JOHN SIMON ON CHESS.
What a sad failure to make use of the proper opportunity was exhibited by the more emotional of our journalists. What could not the Times Tiger do with the headlines "Perfect Attack upon a Black Bishop"?
What romances and loyal fervour could not the Morning Post work up describing the "crucious act of her Majesty the Queen in defending an isolated Pawn"?
How much good might be done in exposing the evils of Republicanism if a suitable journal insists that the preservation of the King is essential to success in life? What a reputation might be made by the author of a new sensation for the film if the title was A Knight's Service, featuring Charlie Chaplin.
It was remarkable that chess should not take a bigger place in literature, because it was a great game. It has associated with it as continuous and as remarkable a series of examples of skill in the highest form as any game one could pick. Think of the Sycamore, Paolo Bot, who exhibited such skill in chess that, finding no worthy opponent in his own country, he made a lengthy tour throughout Christendom, encountered and defeated the great King Lopez himself, and was actually patronised and rewarded by King Sebastian of Portugal and by Catherine de Medici. Think of the marvelous boy the Chatterton of Chess, Paul Morphy, of New Orleans, who from the age of ten showed amazing aptitude in the game, and won a first prize in a major tournament at New York at the age of 23. He came to Europe seventy years ago, defeated the strongest players in London and Paris, returned to his own country, abandoned chess for the profession of advocacy in the law courts, was never heard of in his new occupation—and after only partially recovering from an attack of insanity; died at the age of 47. What a warning to us all to stick to the job we do best.

But although chess was a most exhilarating and amusing occupation, there was a sense in which it was not a game at all.
Mr. Bonar Law—who always managed to find time to play a game of chess, without in the least falling in the discharge of his full duty to the State—was somewhat to describe chess as "a cold bath for the mind," while, in these degenerate days, it was a very useful stimulant to the brain. What was the relation between strategy and tactics in chess?
Then, again, what were the qualities of mind and temperament most necessary for the game?
He did not know—although he knew what one wanted for the game of advocacy, viz., a good digestion, a good temper, and a cool clerk; and of these three the greatest was the cool clerk.
But in chess playing he had a conviction that there was more psychology than in some people supposed.

There were people who beat you before the game began by the way they arranged the pieces the authority with which they they they looked out of the window. In nearly all games there was always an element of judgment, and an element of execution. But chess, had the very old quality that the executive element consisted in nothing more than picking up a little wooden image and moving it consistently with the rules of the game, to some other square.
Chess, therefore, was a game in which the element of judgment was the over-riding element from the first moment to the last.

most to the situation, and Mr. Kemp considers that the autumn season would be the best time to be carried as the time when, so far as Kenya is concerned, the depression reached its lowest point. The late rains saved a proportion of the crop, but the yield was not a sufficient yield for the market. The Government has made available for the Land Bank following a balance sheet and more confident reports began to spread about the prospects of gold. The Liquidation Committee was also over-optimistic. "Lastly, it was necessary to be warned by the market prices for maize and coffee bringing them back to the stage where sales returns yielded a margin of profit over the cost of production. The long term market tendency, in the case of gold, was also deemed to be favourable."

European Settlement. Mr. Kemp feels it desirable to draw attention to any deduction that points which the overseas shipper and manufacturer must bear in mind. From all responses the stage is set, he says, for an increase in import trade and export trade, but in contradiction to the other East African territories, the European settlement in Kenya is normally responsible for a large proportion of the country's export trade. It is, however, possible that it can achieve results that will be directly translated into purchasing power a determined start must be made to reduce the very heavy outstanding debt of the European agricultural debts including liquidation of Governmental indebtedness which has reached, in some cases, almost unmanageable proportions. It is, however, possible that this process may not be so difficult as it would first appear to be if one may judge from the comparative ease with which fairly large amounts of additional taxation have recently been raised, without apparent reluctance to correct trade trends. A feature that must clearly give the impression that there is much more money in existence in the Colony than had formerly been believed.

Tanganyika. The report thus turns to Tanganyika regarding that perhaps more than Kenya the Mandated Territory has been blessed by the forces of the emancipated territories. The various factors were, however, carefully studied so that relatively speaking the degree of lack of confidence in Tanganyika was perhaps not so great as in Kenya. The basis of production in mining and the Department of Agriculture in pursuing a forward process in the planting of other experimental crops that appear to have a promising future, and also towards standardization of type of certain perennial crops which yield marketable surplus. "It is summary is can confidently be stated that Tanganyika Territory as a whole has not only advanced beyond the common depression set in, and is well on its way to a basis for the savings of improved methods for primary production, and of general capital investment, in development of the territory."

THERE'S A REASON for the superiority of UNGA products. They have a quarter of a century's experience behind them. Never has the reputation of UNGA LIMITED stood as high as it does to-day. KENYA'S PARAMOUNT flour is solidly backed by that reputation. That's why you should SAY "PARAMOUNT" when you next buy flour.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Editor does not accept responsibility for the views expressed in the correspondence columns and in all cases the name and address of the writer must accompany a letter, and necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith. Briefly is also essential to ensure consideration.

FASCISM

To the Editor "E.A. Standard," Sir—Mr. I suggest that in view of world-depression, locusts, plague, typhoid and cholera, it may be that perhaps an appropriate garment for the new Fascist party in Kenya.

THE BRITISH LEGION

To the Editor "E.A. Standard," Sir—It is not your correspondent who writes this letter, but I am sure that the motives which inspired his letter are honest ones. You may refer to him as a critic, presumably an honest one, though I feel a little less, by my stretch of imagination. His letter could be described as satirical, in several respects. It is not as may be described as honest or appears honestly to state the work of the Legion and does not show his honest desire to avoid publicity.

In his own paragraph I suggest that the letter which I received this morning was so full of errors as to be almost a parody on the actual work of the Legion. But then he only claims to be honest and cannot give credit to those who have worked so hard to make the Legion a success. It is so acquainted with all the members of the Legion Committee and strongly trusts his ill-informed and unfair article of the hand-writing public-opinion of volunteer workers.

W. G. EVANS.

SHOP HOURS ACT

To the Editor "E.A. Standard," Sir—Your very commendable leading article on the subject of the Shop Hours Act is strongly welcomed.

One of the objectives of the Trades Association is "to see that the provisions of the Shop Hours Ordinance are carried out and to that end a complete canvass of Nairobi shops was instituted as to their views on the weekly half holiday.

The complete answer reveals that there are approximately 600 shops in the Nairobi Municipality (excluding those established in the Native villages of Pangani and Punjuaui). 426 of these want within the scope of the weekly half holiday section.

There are over 200 shops extra in the European towns which will define area of Government.

of iron nailed over the doorway. When we returned to collect the things all was as we had left it. Could one leave in safety a bit and not come back to find the shop any part of Kenya?

In 1922 I went about with three natives from the railway to the Nairobi valley a party of three, but the lack of 200 miles was not a good 15 days. Both going and returning I did not see a single white person. In 1927 I again went on a similar party with a party of 5. I travelled with 24 boys. That about a month 11 days. Section 7 of the act says that any meeting in the east of the arroyo is a meeting in the arroyo. It is all plain to see and I was surprised to find that and respect. The act says that any meeting in the arroyo is a meeting in the arroyo. It is all plain to see and I was surprised to find that and respect.

To the Editor of East African Standard, Sir—The act says that any meeting in the arroyo is a meeting in the arroyo. It is all plain to see and I was surprised to find that and respect. The act says that any meeting in the arroyo is a meeting in the arroyo. It is all plain to see and I was surprised to find that and respect.

It must be borne in mind that the present expression of opinion does not mean that the act is not good. It is all plain to see and I was surprised to find that and respect. The act says that any meeting in the arroyo is a meeting in the arroyo. It is all plain to see and I was surprised to find that and respect.

PUBLIC SECURITY—CONDITIONS IN RHODESIA

To the Editor "E.A. Standard," Sir—In the East African Standard of August 11, Commander J. C. Coulter (Acting Member) stated in the Legislative Council that "they (the settlers in Kenya) enjoyed greater security than was the case in any Rhodesia and various parts of the Union" and that "he was no reason why Rhodesia should be allowed to end in the same level (which are minor) if they are possible to prevent."

To the Editor "E.A. Standard," Sir—Enclosed is a letter from Commander Lind and another signed "Protection" has appeared under the heading of "Public Security and in other words" in your issue of August 11. It is suggested a probable cause and in other words "Provision" is another society to be formed in a solution.

Both ideas may be very useful, but let me get right down to the root of the question. I believe my last article in stating that Public Security and National Defence is a second unit, covering the full degree of offences in which the law is administered.

It is in fact that it is possible to have an adequate level of security so long as we continue on the same lines. If that provides many facilities for turning out "trained criminals" under the Revised Mentors, and the trouble to investigate the men, the Revised Mentors, and strengthen the hands of the two police units. Then this are I strongly suggest a very great responsibility.

In support of the above statement, I would ask you to kindly produce the figures of the increase in the number of offences in the Province during the

ROAD AND WEATHER REPORT

Mr. Dalton-Feni writes as follows:—The weather was freshened up during the week was very with 125 of rain followed by Kericho. The heavy rain between Maua and Nairoba was just over an inch each. Njoro and Kericho have been in fair condition of an inch. The main road between Kilima Bariva, Makena and Londiani has been very bad but is passable. All up-country roads are in fair condition, but it is advisable to take chains.

Uganda

In Uganda popular showers have fallen in the central provinces and have freshened up the country considerably. The roads are in excellent condition. The heavy rain between Maua and Nairoba has been cleared for traffic, but the road will be open to traffic today.

SAYS A MEN'S CLOTHES EXPERT:

"Half the secret of well-fitting evening dress is a well-fitting dress shirt underneath. . . . Any man who isn't careless about his clothes knows this is true. It is because of the fine Dress Shirts we are so famous for, you find a growing number of well-dressed men buying them regularly—and refusing all others."

Such clean-fitting comfort! It says. Such immaculacy of style! Such extraordinary resistance to laundry grime! and such remarkably modest prices!

Attracting Socialists into Fascist Party

MUSSOLINI'S EFFORTS TO CREATE EMPLOYMENT

Left Wing Suggested

FEMALE LABOUR AS HINDRANCE TO PRODUCTION OF FAMILIES.

Strenuous efforts are being made in Italy to arrest the increase in unemployment. In connection with these endeavours, Signor Mussolini is attempting to induce former Socialists, now outside politics, to form a left wing in the Fascist Party.

An attack on female labour is published in "Popolo D'Italia," the article presumably having been written by the Duce. It describes female labour as a hindrance to the production of families. Drastic reduction in this class of labour is under consideration by labour officials.

Cordial Meeting with Caldara

With the object of checking the increase in unemployment and ensuring the success of the corporative system, Signor Mussolini is attempting to attract former Socialists, now outside politics, into the Fascist Party.

THE DUCE, it is reported, had a cordial meeting with Signor Caldara, the Socialist anti-Mussolini of Milan, and suggested his forming a left wing of families in connection with the production of families.

NAVAL BOXING TOURNAMENT

Disappointing Heavy Contest

MacMillan Defeats Marsh

The Best Fight of the Evening

H.E. THE GOVERNOR PRESENTS PRIZES

Another successful boxing show was staged in the Empire Theatre on Friday evening, when a team from H.M.S. Hawkins opposed a Kenya side. Of the nine contests against the Navy Natives were seven and the Navy two. Both were named in the lighter divisions.

The first fight of the evening was a local one in which D. D. McMillan, Peking, fought H. Marsh, Nairobi. The latter had much the better of the weights, and it was the latter's turn to get the prize, but has since been taken by the Navy.

MacMillan punished very hard with both hands, and Marsh had most of his left hand blooded and slipped.

The next fight of the evening was a local one in which D. D. McMillan, Peking, fought H. Marsh, Nairobi. The latter had much the better of the weights, and it was the latter's turn to get the prize, but has since been taken by the Navy.

The following are the results:— Lightweight—O.S. Jopling (Hawkins) v. Savage (K.D.F.).

Savage punished M. Randall, of Nairobi, for his opening bout of the evening. It was, however, his debut in the ring, so that his showing was woefully watched. He stayed well, but the sailor had him too well, while Savage's punches were equally good. In fact, the only real blow in the first two rounds was a right by Jopling to Savage's jaw. Savage tried hard in the second with his right left left himself open, and the sailor went forward to level the rights and lefts, getting his opponent groggy. Jopling dropped his

Ray Richardson (Hawkins) v. H. Yotall (Railway B.C. Nairobi).

The second fight of the evening was a featherweight contest, Ray Richardson being pitted against his man, Hoy Howard was done up to oppose the Railway man, but he failed to pass the doctor. It was not a heavy scrap from the start. Richardson was not fitly prepared to make a fight of it, instead of boxing his man. He missed one swing which left H. Yotall with one hand entangled matters. The pace made a swirl of it again in the second, the Navy led putting up a fine show against a heavier opponent. With half a minute to go the referee stopped the contest with Richardson being pronounced the loser. Richardson got up a few minutes ago with a lot of pain in his right eye, and had Yotall had a punch he might have finished it before.

Middleweight—Boy & Van (Hawkins) v. D. Finch (K.D.F., Nairobi).

This match saw Mr. E. C. Dunder of the Empire Theatre, making his initial appearance as a judge.

There was nothing startling. Finch, taller than Boy, and with a longer reach, did not make him valuable they were to him, and with a fair, Ally of Kenya looking all the way out. Savages who had never lost a blow, retired.

There was a fine crowd at the theatre to see the boxing. The stage, where the ring was situated, was kept clear except for officials.

At the close of the bouts His Excellency the Governor, who followed the various bouts with the greatest interest, presented the prizes to the winners.

The following are the results:— Lightweight—O.S. Jopling (Hawkins) v. Savage (K.D.F.).

Savage punished M. Randall, of Nairobi, for his opening bout of the evening. It was, however, his debut in the ring, so that his showing was woefully watched. He stayed well, but the sailor had him too well, while Savage's punches were equally good. In fact, the only real blow in the first two rounds was a right by Jopling to

Stake Morrison (Hawkins) v. K. McD. Robertson (K.D.F.).

A featherweight contest. Robertson fought modest from the start, and his tactics worried the sailor. Morrison adopted a hard right to the heart at the start of the second round, and took three blows in quick succession to the chest. Morrison retained with a left and right to the face which brought Bob. The sailor had the better of the exchange in his regular rounds.

Welterweight—Stoker Hogan (Hawkins) v. S. Ellis (K.D.F.).

Last year, Hogan met Randall of Nairobi and lost him. His first round against Ellis was a dull affair, mostly for too much holding, and Hogan got some two or three good blows on the outside. So too in the second round, marked by wild exchanges, and the only real blow was a right by Hogan to the head. Ellis's jaw and about him, it was Hogan who was the leader in attacking in the first round, but the only hit of look that came the way of Ellis was when he laid upon the neck of his balance and sent him to the floor. This position went to Ellis, but it did not seem to appear to the audience.

Meek, Dugan (Hawkins) v. E. D. Gurewski (K.A.B.).

This was the first contest in the heavy division. Gurewski fought against the "Columbo" some two months ago when he lost on points to Martin Turner. Hogan forced the fight at the contest, and stopped Gurewski with left and right to the chin. Gurewski was prone to leave his chin open. Hogan got some with a right hook to the side of the head, and Gurewski went into a clinch in which both were punching. The K.A.B. man had the longer and the reach, and got some frequently with lefts to the face and body, but there was little solid boxing done. Gurewski went the body in the third round, leading those with his left to the stomach and then brought over a right to the head. Just at the end of the round the pair went into a clinch when Gurewski sent a series of lefts to the stomach, which made his man groggy. Gurewski got the best on points.

W. F. Van Dyk (Nairobi) v. J. Wessels (Railway).

A middleweight bout. It was W. F. Van Dyk's first appearance in the ring in Nairobi, for nearly two years. They took well, either measure for the most part, neither getting home to do serious damage. Wessels kept his left on the move, but it made no impression. A right to the ring got home on Wessels followed by another to the heart. Another to the ribs and a left to the face sent Van Dyk for his man, but he did not seem to be much concerned, but most of his punches were for the most part, either getting home to do serious damage.

A. E. Dunfield (Hawkins) v. F. M. Allen (Nairobi).

The concluding contest of the evening was in the heavy division, and the ring after some two years, Dunfield retired with a damaged wrist after half a minute, when Allen had led all the way.

The third round went to Van Dyk, who got the verdict on points.

Lightweight—Boy Fudge (Hawkins) v. M. Randall (Nairobi).

A meeting which promised exceedingly well, for both men were much "in hand" and so keen an opponent. There was, however, rather too much holding, a fault expounded by over-reliance upon the hands, which had not been really shown by both. Fudge was the worst offender. Randall won the fight, for he did try to open up matters in a rather desultory way.

Marine Austin (Hawkins) v. J. C. Yates (H.F. Nairobi).

At the middle time, Yates sent home a series of left jabs to the face when he got his man to the ropes, and kept up the dose. Austin found difficulty in having clear of Yates left jabs in the second, but going into his man landed on Yates' head. A left to the body from Yates was countered by the nurse with a hook to the jaw, but there was no weight behind it. Austin stepped into a straight left at the start of the third which rocked him. Yates followed it up and three to the face made the Hawkins man shake his head. Yates scored with a series of left and right hooks to the head which crashed his man. He got a good verdict on points.

Welterweight—D. D. McMillan (Kenya Police) v. R. Marsh (K.D.F., Nairobi).

The first round made a welcome return to the ring after a long absence and for this fight he came from Mombasa, where he is now stationed, married against Marsh, another popular local. A good scrap was promised. Both went to initiating in the first round, but Mac had much the better of the exchanges, making a right and left effectively, and hard. He landed Marsh so much and many of the latter's blows went wild. The second was all Mac's round, wherein he used both hands effectively and broke down Marsh's defence. With another couple of inches reach, McMillan would have given Marsh an even worse defeat. It was the best bout of the evening, and a good win to Mac.

Locally-Produced Variety

THEIRI have been rumors for some time of a concert, or rather, a variety review which is being given in Nairobi by local people. Now these rumors have become more definite proportions. It will have singing, dancing and sketches, and a special feature is to be made of the slip dancing and circus work. Locations, brightness and humor are the guiding principles of the producers. Its objects are worthy for half the profits will go to the Royal Agricultural and Horticultural Society which will go to the other half will be divided between the League of Mercy and the Jewish Charities for their details will be given later.

Seconds Out!

"An unfortunate incident occurred at the boxing contest between H.M.S. "Hawkins" and Nairobi on Friday night. The boxing was restrained and in good order and there were no casualties. But one of the "Hawkins" seconds in passing a stool over the railings accidentally hit another second, cutting him severely on the head. The injured man had to be taken to hospital to be attended by."

The Heavy Troupe

THE Chinese tumblers and jugglers at the Princes Theatre last week performed some remarkable feats of balance. In one from a man stood on his head on the head of another man, kicked his legs in the air and waved two sticks on the ends of which were balanced china saucers, with his hands while his supporting companion turned slowly round so that the audience could see that there was no other support. Another man rested a ladder against the empty air and climbed to the top of it carrying a child on his back. At the top of the ladder, still balancing against nothing, the child climbed on to the top of the man's head and raised himself with one hand into the air. As a feat of balance this was extraordinarily clever. The whole performance was witnessed ing, and showed that with balance, facts or seemingly enormous strength can be performed with ease.

Light for the Aero Club

WITHIN a few days members of the Aero Club of East Africa at least those whose subscriptions are paid will receive admission tickets for themselves one given and a set to be enclosed on the day of the Air Rally. For some time the necessity of adequate lighting at the aerodrome has been recognized and now at last something is being done about it. The Aero Club together with Wilson Airways, Imperial Airways, the Shell Co. of East Africa, Mr. George Blowers and Mr. Philip Whitman are negotiating with the East African Power and Light Co. for a line to be carried to the aerodrome. It is hoped that by the end of the month the work will be completed, so that there will be adequate electric light available on the day of the Rally.

CAPITOL THEATRE

and production. It has a continuous air of gay impersonation, and is surprisingly fine. The Million, "Tom Clark's French picture which became so popular with its London audience. That, too, dealt with the love and search for a swag ticket. Gordon Harker plays the part of the lead last year or two, one of the lead box-office stars of the British film industry.

The pictures showing this week include "The Day After Tomorrow" (Boris Hebert) and "Eastern Promise" (Queen Christina) shows Greta Garbo in a historical drama of Sweden; and "The Man Who Changed His Name" in an Edgar Wallace thriller. Another unreplicated British film coming this week is "Tiger Bay" with Anna May Wong.

Unpiloted Planes

WITH reference to a flying performance in "Body and Soul" where a plane with a dead pilot was started, set, and sent on its way back over the enemy lines, a true story is quoted in the publicity matter for the picture. "One of the most astounding incidents in the history of British aviation," it states, "is the story of the second flight which flew itself after an encounter with an enemy plane over the Italian lines. The observer and pilot had both been killed, but the plane continued on its way and flew in wide circles, drifting with the wind until its gasoline supply was exhausted. It finally glided unaided to the ground within 20 yards of the nose of the observer. This was, of course, before the days of wireless control."

Drama and the B.B.C.

THE B.B.C. think broadcast play listeners are too modest. They complain that too many listeners praise the official judgments to be infallible in selecting the length and character of wireless plays.

So they have decided, after Mr. Val Gielgud has held the position for five years, to allow their Director of Drama to convene listeners by their own what they want.

"This is an experiment," said an official when interviewed. "It depends on the audience, or other words, whether other sections, such as variety and talks, follow the same plan."

They are to be asked to judge down:

1. Whether there should be more, or fewer, plays.
2. How long they should last.
3. Whether they should be thrillers, historical, or Shakespearean plays, adapted stage plays or novels, or pure wireless plays.

They are to be asked to judge especially writers for broadcast

IT seems that entertainments in Nairobi come in waves, and the waves they retreat and leave a sandy waste until the next wave arrives. We have just emerged from the wave of the Naval visit with its concerts and boules, and the British Legion Fete, and we await the next installation.

THERE will be a preliminary ripple-to-morrow afternoon when the Nairobi Group of Two II will hold an informal concert at Crawford House in Valley Road, among the performers will be Mrs. McElough at the piano, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. C. E. Mortimer and Mr. D. H. Hughes as vocalists, and Mr. E. Bird on a sketch artist. The concert will begin at

Free Flights

THE holder of the winning prize in the game number will have his (or her) choice of a free return flight to Mombasa by Wilson Airways Ltd. or to Entebbe or Kisumu by Imperial Airways Ltd. The second and third prize winners have their choice of the Entebbe and Kisumu flights, after prizes are halftone flights over Nairobi with Mr. George Blowers. Ten or short flights during the afternoon of the Rally will be offered at concessional prices. The winner of the beach judging contest from Sept. 10th, and Sept. 20th, respectively, go to the second and third prize winners.

Free Flights

THE Rally committee have one regret. They would have liked to have had the pleasure of entertaining the officers and men of the Royal Navy. Inquiries to and correspondence concerning the Rally should be addressed to the Organising Secretary, Mr. Douglas, c/o P.O. Box 814, Nairobi.

Pictures This Week

GORDON Harker plays another of his famous Cockney roles in "Lucky Number" this week. It is a film that is different from the average British comedy, even though it is British in performance and production. It has a continuous air of gay impersonation, and is surprisingly fine. The Million, "Tom Clark's French picture which became so popular with its London audience. That, too, dealt with the love and search for a swag ticket. Gordon Harker plays the part of the lead last year or two, one of the lead box-office stars of the British film industry.

Prices Raised. Prices of Kenya timber today are those that had when they were ten years ago, but, as usual in such cases, these were not confined to Government forests and in respect of which a heavy royalty is payable.

No Profit Made. Mr. Constantine declared that no saw-mill in Kenya was able to profit whatever at the present time. Some of them might be able to carry on for a year or two, largely because they were private concerns and were not connected with the State.

CHECKING SOIL EROSION

Loss of Fertility Due to Denudation

Below is given the sixth of the series of articles on the subject of soil erosion that is being issued by the Kenya Department of Agriculture.—

In unimpaired condition, having a rainfall sufficient to maintain vegetation, soil erosion is slight, or far less than in high-land areas.

Prior to the advent of man, fertility of the soil of large portions of the earth surface was built up over long periods by the fall and decay of vegetation, and the soil was protected from forces causing erosion. With the advent of man and increase of population, forests have been destroyed, grassland ploughed up and great areas land overstocked. These operations have exposed the soil to erosion and fertility has declined accordingly.

Process of Denudation
This process of denudation has proceeded farthest on such a scale that the soil in parts of the world has become so infertile that populations have become poor and have experienced difficulty in raising sufficient food supplies for their maintenance. In times of diminished rainfall, famine has occurred.

During the past 20 years considerable areas of land in Kenya have been under the plough, and, although not fully tilled, erosion, yields have declined accordingly.

Losses Incurred
Governments, including that of the United States, have called the attention of their peoples to losses incurred, yet in that country it is estimated that not less than ten million acres of lands formerly cultivated have been made unproductive by soil erosion. There are many regions in Central Africa including Kenya, where red and other soils, some of which are similar to those of the United States of America are likewise eroded in a similar manner. If precautions are not taken to combat the evil in this Colony, great losses will be sustained. Action must be taken before it is too late.

DECLINE IN CEREAL PRICES

Speculators' Anxiety to Take Profits

MARKET HEALTHIER

The following weekly cereal market report, dated August 29, was sent by the Kenya Farmers' Association (Co-operative) Ltd.

Main
The price of all cereals during the past week declined sharply. The setback was due almost entirely to anxiety on the part of speculators to take profits, and the market today is perhaps in a healthier position than during the previous week.

Argentine shippers have reduced prices slightly, but the retailer's market is considerably lower than first-hand prices. For example, Superior Maize which is being sold to London at about 25/6, is held for 24/6 first-hand, while December Maize, which was sold during the week at 24/6, cannot be bought from shippers at under 22/7. The high prices being brought forward a certain number of offers of Durban Maize, and business has been slow for shipment from August to December at about 24/6.

The South African position shows no change, and no offers are forthcoming.

What
The volume of business transacted has been on a smaller scale, and there has been a reaction in the price. The decline seems to be attributable more to speculators' unwillingness than to intrinsic weakness in the situation.

Prospects for the new Argentine crop are favourable, and shippers have been offering new crop wheat at more attractive prices. The following are the approximate values.

No. 1 Manitoba 32/6
Western Australian 27/6
64 lb. Russek—August/September shipment 24/9

64 lb. Russek new crop—January/February shipment 26/3
Barley
Malting varieties are steady; the feeding qualities are dull and lower the minimal value of Persian and Daubian being about 21/2. New crop Plate for February shipment is quoted at 22/4.
Other Commodities
Oats, continue firm; and 19/4 quoted for East African quality.
Buckwheat: Market steady at about 5/8.

It is as widely known as possible with a view to its proving of maximum benefit.
It has been estimated that an appendix sufficient for a town of Nairobi's size would cost £2000 but full details may be obtained from the inventor, Colonel Hume Vardell, 59, Avenue 4, Jomo, Paris.

PURIFYING WATER FOR DRINKING

Merits of Vermidamiation System

A short time ago a letter appeared in the "East African Standard" over the signature of Captain Marco Moore, suggesting that the time had arrived to erect in Nairobi an up-to-date disinfecting plant which would obviate the present necessity of having to boil water received from the pipes.

The writer referred to the Vermidamiation system of purifying water, so called because it was discovered and put into use during the Battle of Verdun when the French troops, demoralized by typhoid and dysentery, refused to drink the water treated with chlorine because of its unpleasant taste. The inventor of the system is Colonel Bunan Yvanc, a copy of whose book explaining it has been received by the "East African Standard".

More Economical
In the Vermidamiation system alkalies of soda is used, but whereas by ordinary methods three milligrams of chlorine is necessary to kill "bacterium coli" in three hours, one-tenth of a milligramme by the Vermidamiation process kills it instantaneously. Further, it is claimed that whereas under the old system a sterilized building and sterilization are required, the Vermidamiation system only requires the addition of one pint twice a week and it is possible to add an antiseptic which renders even this smallest human agency unnecessary.

Diseases Eliminated
In several countries, it is believed, the adoption of the new system has eliminated many water-borne diseases, such as cholera, fever, dysentery and typhoid so spreading, whereas primitive people find it in one place where there had been 6,000 cases of typhoid annually, the number was reduced to practically nothing.

The inventor refused to reap any pecuniary advantage from his invention, his sole aim being to benefit humanity.

DISEASED MEAT 1st NAIROBI BATTALION ORDERS

Cause of Death of Two Natives... INDUSTRIAL INQUIRY

An enquiry into the death of two natives who died on a farm at Embakasi, near the end of July, as a result of eating diseased meat, was held by Mr. D. Edwards, Resident Magistrate, Nairobi, on Thursday.

It appeared that East Coast fever had broken out among the stock on Mr. A. B. Reed's farm, "Wattle House, Embakasi," Embakasi, about the beginning of June, and a number of cattle had died. According to Mr. C. Thornton, manager of the farm, one of the calves which had been sick for about a week died on July 25, and the carcass of the beast, after a post-mortem had been carried out, was ordered to be rendered down, for which was used in the making of rems. This was the usual procedure adopted in respect of beasts that died from disease on the farm. However, a Momba was instructed to see to the disposal of this particular beast.

At 11 o'clock the same afternoon, Mr. Thornton went to the boiler where the carcass was supposed to be incinerated. No work but he found the boiler dry, and as a result of certain information he procured the Mombas natives who worked on the farm had eaten the meat.

Evidence Reported. The following statement was received a report that a number of the native labourers were ill, as administered evidence (deposited) and upon which the Mombas reported sick several of the natives then admitted the Mombas had eaten the flesh of the dead beast. Mr. Thornton later received another report that one of the labourers was extremely ill, and was rapidly dying, and he administered further medical treatment.

On Friday, 10th next morning he found one of the sick native dead outside a small cattle house, and that another was dead in his hut, in which was also a large number of other sick natives. Witness immediately sent word to Nairobi, to the Police and to Mr. Sandhu regarding the dead natives, and he received instructions to bury them. Later a Police ambulance was sent out to the farm, with two European Police officers, which returned to Nairobi with two sick natives and the bodies of the two dead natives, which had meanwhile been exhumed.

Medical Evidence. Dr. R. H. Gormack, Senior Bacteriologist, Nairobi, who carried out a post-mortem on the dead bodies on July 30, gave evidence that they had died of bacterial poisoning as a result of eating diseased meat. Both bodies were very decomposed, and he estimated that one of them had been dead about ninety hours.

A native giving evidence, said that the labourers on the farm had eaten the diseased meat. He stated he did not know it was wrong to eat diseased meat. "In the reserve we eat any kind of meat," he added. He was a Mombas.

The Resident Magistrate found that the natives had died of bacterial poisoning from eating diseased meat, and that death was due to misadventure.

RUHR WATER SUPPLY SCHEME

Inquiries Regarding Loan of £80,000

At a recent meeting between members of the Finance Committee of the Nairobi Municipal Council and the Commissioners for Local Government on the subject of the Ruhr River water supply scheme, the Commissioners requested that in forwarding their application to Government for the approval of the scheme, the Council should explain fully the means by which it proposed to finance the scheme and would indicate what loans, if any, it wished to ask Government to provide in respect of the existing Government loan.

The matter was subsequently discussed by the Finance Committee, when it was recommended that for the consideration of Council that, in forwarding the new water supply scheme to Government for approval, the Council should state for Local Government to be informed that inquiries had been set on foot regarding the raising of a loan of £80,000, which, no account of the funds in hand would not be required until 1928. Investigations have now been completed, but a sub-committee of the Council is dealing with the subject.

It was also recommended that Council should appoint a sub-committee to consider, with the Municipal Treasurer, proposals for the raising of the loan.

WHAT'S IN A NAME

Surnames of the Aristocracy

It was Shakespeare who advised that after all, was in a name. It is not satisfactory to have a name which is not a name at all. It is not satisfactory to have a name which is not a name at all. It is not satisfactory to have a name which is not a name at all.

This custom distinguished them from the common herd. It was not satisfactory to have a name which is not a name at all. It is not satisfactory to have a name which is not a name at all.

There have always been first names, now known as Christian names, but it was only as the world grew that a second, or a third, or a fourth name came into use. It is not satisfactory to have a name which is not a name at all.

Notes for the Aga Khan
The agents of H. H. the Prince Aga Khan are according to the Sunday press, looking for a new seat for him in England, preferably in Berkshire or Cambridge. If the kind of house he wishes to find is not available he will build a palace, which in the future will be the headquarters of the Aga Khanate. He has had some idea before him ever since he succeeded his father in 1929.

After Seven Years
LADY NORRIS expresses great pleasure at being back in Kenya and seeing so many of her old friends again. It is twenty seven years since her first visit to the country, and during that time many changes have taken place. She is warmly welcomed by the growth of the M.M.M. Since it is only a week since Lady Norris was in the country, she has been able to express any opinion on the condition of the country. During the three months when Mr. Edward Northey will be in the country with the Public School, she will be staying with her daughter, Mrs. Crofton, at Ngong.

Chief Engineer's Advice

Marriage is a Handicap

M.R. Cecil Milesworth Banbury, I.E.S.T., M. Inst. C.E., recently advised the student of the Crystal Palace School of Practical Engineering, and warned them against marriage. Mr. Banbury was formerly Chief Engineer of the I.C.T. and H., and speaking of railway survey work in Africa he advised that marriage was a handicap. He said, "If you want to go ahead, do not get married. The married engineer is a handicap, so is his wife. Women are not right in their place, but their place is not camp."

Meeting the Crisis

At the end of 1929, owing to the catastrophe laid in the Department of Agriculture, the Government decided to take active steps to ensure the maintenance of the level of production in the agricultural sector. It is now more than a year since the Government has taken these steps, and the results have been most satisfactory. Two British Films

One of the new films which are being shown in London picture theatres this week are two British productions. The first is "The House of the Living Dead," which has been a great success. The second is "The House of the Living Dead," which has been a great success.

Mulholland and Kibala, Ngoni's wife, said that during her husband's absence one day Ngoni came to her and told her that he had drunk. The hearing was so severe that he had to be taken to the hospital. There had been no quarrel and she had no idea why she had been taken to the hospital.

Lobe of Ear Cut Off

The worst wound was one about eight inches long and an inch wide. It had been inflicted in such a way as to cut off the lobe of the man's left ear. Another wound had opened up the shoulder and had penetrated to the bone. The man was taken to the hospital, and the lobe of his ear was cut off.

Accused's Statement

The accused, in a statement at the time of his committal for trial, told the Magistrate that he saw his wife running away from Ngoni, so he hit Ngoni with his finger. The statement continued: "I had wanted to get rid of my wife so that the stock paid for her could be returned to me and we could divide the stock which had belonged to our fathers. That night I slept at home. In the morning I took goats and went to Ngoni and made statement with him."

For the first time — High frequency amplification on All Wave Lengths from 12-2,000 Metres.

Why has nobody ever before produced a receiver even a factory assembled set, much less a factory All-Wave-Whisperer? Because not until Linsen found the way was it possible to apply high frequency amplification to all wave-lengths, and not until it was practical to use high frequency amplification was it possible to bring the distant Short- and Ultra-Short Wave programmes up to real establishment strength.

For the first time H.F. amplification over all wave-lengths from 12 to 2,000 metres. So stable is this device, which Linsen has devised, that it can be used for the most delicate of valves, that you cannot only reach out with it for stations on the other side of the world, but you can use the mighty amplification of the Variable-Mu Screened Grid H.F. tube to the full extent of its power to bring in the faintest of signals. So common is its power that you drive a moving coil loudspeaker at half volume, and they agree you are reproducing his voice some thousands miles of over land and sea.

It is usually taken off at once and handed over to those who have reported as stated either by a letter sent or by the delivery of a copy of interest limited to official business. It is a document of first class importance. Additional to the usual part, our Treasurer, Mr. J. W. Carter, has made no pretence of presenting it by Air Mail as printed in white, but in black.
