Driver, car swept away in torrent

Standard Correspondent, Kericho.

KISUMU businessman believed to have drowned after his car plunged into the swollen waters while he was driving from Kericho to Lodai on Saturday. Chief Insp. W. Phillips said the driver, who was wearing the flooded goggles, about 15 miles from Kericho, was swept away by a torrent of water to a submerged rock.

He thought that the man, Mr. Amshah, a Police constable, would be rescued because of his swimming and on the afternoon of Jan. 28, he was seen to be swimming in the swollen waters. Two of his children were seen when the incident and light were still visible as he was seen to have been in the car, which was swept away to a rock and overturned to rest on the rock.

However, it was Mr. Kennedy who was swept away in a car on the same road on the same day. The police believe that the military was with the car when it was swept away. The car was swept away by a torrent of water to a submerged rock.

THE SIX FAIL TO AGREE

Ministers to meet again over farm policy

THE European Community Ministers will meet again today to discuss the common agricultural policy. It is expected that the six will fail to reach an agreement on the farm policy.

The meeting is being held in Brussels after the German Chairman of the Council, Dr. Erhard, had admitted failure to agree on his second stage plan to carry the community to the next stage.

Dr. Erhard said it would be a failure to reach an agreement on the farm policy. He said that the common agricultural policy was the most important part of the community's work.

The meeting will continue until tomorrow. It is expected that the six will fail to reach an agreement on the farm policy.

Bonus for Uganda coffee farmers

UGANDA'S coffee farmers are to get a 20 per cent bonus in the form of a 20 per cent increase in the price paid for their coffee which goes up from 50 cts. to 60 cts. per lb.

The new price will apply from the start of the next coffee season, the date of which is to be announced this week.

Announcing the plan yesterday, Mr. Kibuka, said that it was not the Government's intention to encourage further planting of coffee in view of the world coffee shortage.

"The increase in price is given practically as a bonus, but the planting is not being encouraged," he said.

"Farmers should plant the crop they are best equipped to handle," he said.

"The Government will not be taking on the farm policy," he said.

Goods from the Coast railway in Nairobi

900 consignments

I SHOULD be grateful for the letter from the heading 'Railway' describing the process of taking Nairobi goods from and controlling delivery of the packages in question.

The process is as follows: The goods are packed in Nairobi and sent to the coast. They are then loaded on to the railway and sent to the port. They are then loaded on to the ship and sent to the destination.

Goods from the Coast arrived by railway in Nairobi at rate of 900 consignments a day

It should be gratified for the opportunity to reply to the letter from Mr. A. D. Prich which was published under the heading "Railway Monopoly." Mr. Prich describes the process of taking delivery of a package at Nairobi goods shed and complains about the time taken to obtain delivery of the package in question.

It is to be noted that the case in its proper perspective, it is not necessary to explain that the package was sent to the goods shed on Dec. 7 and an arrival advice note was issued on Dec. 12. It was not until Dec. 19, 12 days later that Mr. Prich came to collect the package.

As a result, storage charges amounting to 1/10 were due, and it was largely owing to Mr. Prich's objection to paying this charge that it took him so long to obtain delivery of the goods. It is complained that the goods shed staff refused to issue a receipt for the package as it was not the owner's property. It is also stated that the goods shed staff refused to issue a receipt for the package as it was not the owner's property.

UNWISE TO BE DOGMATIC ON BIBLICAL SIGNS

THE point of view expressed by W. B. Doery, is based on three assumptions which I have to question.

Mr. Doery, first, that after the Flood, the world was repopulated from Noah's ark. This is a view which is not supported by the Bible. The Bible states that the world was repopulated from the survivors of the Flood, but it does not state that the world was repopulated from Noah's ark.

The wisdom of endurance

There is not the slightest doubt that the wisdom of endurance is the only way to victory in the struggle for the liberation of the colonies from the yoke of imperialism. The forces of reaction and imperialism are powerful and well-organized, but they are not invincible. They can be defeated if the colonies are united and determined to fight to the end.

NEW SETUPS

A number of other colonies are also active in the struggle against imperialism. They are working to build up their own forces and to coordinate their actions with those of the other colonies. This is a necessary step towards the achievement of the common goal of the liberation of the colonies.

The world carries on

MUCH the same old story is being told in the world. The forces of reaction and imperialism are still at work, but they are being defeated in one place after another. The colonies are showing more and more signs of unity and determination. The struggle is continuing, but the forces of reaction and imperialism are becoming weaker and weaker.

RED SUPPORT

The Red Army is playing an important role in the struggle for the liberation of the colonies from the yoke of imperialism. It is providing the colonies with the arms and training they need to fight their enemies. The Red Army is a powerful force, and its support is a great help to the colonies.

PASSPORTS RISE

The price of passports has risen sharply in many countries. This is due to the increase in the cost of paper and other materials. The rise in the price of passports is a burden on the people, and it is a sign of the general increase in the cost of living.

LET WEAKER

The weaker nations are being crushed by the forces of reaction and imperialism. They are being exploited and oppressed, and they are being prevented from developing their own resources. The weaker nations are in a desperate situation, and they need the help of the stronger nations.

The Minister of Transport, Hon. Kibaki, said that the Government is determined to ensure that the railway is restored to its former standard of service as soon as possible.

RECORD LEVELS

Charter flights and Air Mail services have reached record levels in the East African region. This is due to the increased demand for air transport services, particularly for the export of agricultural products and for the transport of passengers.

Backers to fairly in four big races

YESTERDAY made ample amends for any disappointment that might have been felt after the first day of the National New Year races and the very tame La Jolla. The crowd that thronged the racetrack was an all-time course record; fields were excellent and the racing keen and exciting.

While no favorites came home, several were placed and backers were fairly well served. Four big races — the K.A.R. Cup, the Kenya Cambridge, the B.O.A.C. Handicap and the Chambragne Stakes Kenya Cambridge, the B.O.A.C. Handicap and the Chambragne Stakes provided a most attractive card and better racing has rarely been seen on this very pleasant course. Goodwin Blue Mountain and Platyne had always run good. My Kiern is a splendid finish. Fortunio Blue Mountain did not start only to be promptly brought into the distance. Mr. Francis Esquire gave another fine performance on the post, by a neck, by the fast-finishing Volcano, ridden with commendable ability.

Cambridge was also a good race. Khabandah making the early pace with Sea Horse and the grey, Pronto won far away. Sea Horse led Sea Lord and Pronto into the straight and ran on second place. But Joe Diver brought Lady Elegant through in a typically powerful drive.

RESULTS

THE B.O.A.C. Handicap was won by Sea Horse, with Pronto second and Lady Elegant third. Sea Lord and Pronto were fourth and fifth respectively. Sea Lord and Pronto were fourth and fifth respectively.

Scotland Yard enters New Year with a vengeance

and 'big business' criminals warned

FIVE teams of Special Branch detectives from Scotland Yard are hunting for spies believed to be working as servants in the homes of some of Britain's leading scientists, politicians and military heads, it was revealed in London yesterday.

The hunt follows the defection to the West of a 28-year-old master-spy, Guy Gibson, who told West German interrogators of Soviet-directed spies working in Britain and the Continent.

He could not name the agents working in the United Kingdom, but said that they recruited women to work in the homes of embassy staff, naval heads and postal officials.

The three-man Special Branch teams, under Commander Evan Jones, have so far concentrated their search on homes of apartments in the London area. American security men and Federal Bureau of Investigation officers stationed in Britain are reported to be checking the homes of senior Navy officers and senior secretaries at the American Embassy.

Split-second timing

In addition, police chiefs throughout the country are planning an all-out offensive against the formidable school of Commando-type troops which is now being trained in a series of unprecedented hold-ups.

Mr. Reg Spooner, the Deputy Commissioner of Scotland Yard, has given the job of chief of the "big business" criminals. Yesterday he revealed that his special branch has set up a special unit to search for spies on their own ground, like the Yard's legendary "Ghost Squad".

But just as important in the past few weeks has been Mr. Spooner's hand-picked team, a "Violet Police", which is being substantially reinforced by new recruits attracted from other recent pay rises which put British policemen amongst the best paid members of the community. More police on the beat will together jail sentences for violent robberies are expected to show results.

Thousands of Scotland Yard officers will be distributed in the first weeks of the new year to the British Isles to deal with the cases where roads may be less busy than in the past.

Employers will be urged to take a charge of espionage for foreign currency. The name of the new law is Traitors.

The aim is to avoid repeating the mistakes of the past, when laws dealing with violence, piracy and other crimes were passed under the name of the Home Office. It is alleged to have been a result of a meeting in which the Home Office was urged to take a charge of espionage for foreign currency. The name of the new law is Traitors.

WIDE POWERS FOR A.F.A. CURRENCY BOARD

Can now discount bills of exchange

WIDER powers have been given to the East African Currency Board, it was disclosed yesterday.

New currency regulations published in a supplement to the Kenya Gazette empower the Board to discount bills of exchange and promissory notes payable in East African shillings, drawn or issued for financing commercial transactions arising from the processing and marketing of crops.

The documents must bear two of more good signatures, one of which must be on behalf of a bank licensed to operate in an East African territory. These regulations, which came into force on December 11, enable the board to invest its funds in Sterling securities of any Dominion or any Territory under the protection of the British Government or a territory administered by the British Government or any other authority established to administer services common to two or more of the territories.

They also enable the board to subscribe for or buy or sell publicly-issued securities of East African territory, or any other authority established to administer services common to two or more of the territories. The value of East African securities held by the board must not be more than the equivalent to £200,000 at par, plus the value of the territories. Neither must the total amount of exchange in hand. Neither must the total amount of bills and promissory notes discounted and three-month advances issued against such securities exceed £5,000,000 at any one time.

Bar gives way in march of science

A JEALOUSLY preserved plainness in the temperature in the cellar at Severn near Hereford has become an important curiosity, one noted by a topographer in 1870.

The cellar, which is 100 feet long and 10 feet wide, is situated in a rock of soft sandstone, and is reached by a narrow passage from the street.

The temperature in the cellar is constant throughout the year, and is only a few degrees above or below the temperature of the air outside.

This is due to the fact that the cellar is situated in a rock of soft sandstone, which is a good conductor of heat. The cellar is also situated in a part of the rock which is not exposed to the sun, and is therefore kept cool.

HAIR SETTING TIP

For your hair to set quickly and with a wavy wave, don't use too much hair cream. Use a little cream on your hair, and a little more on your hands. This will give your hair a wavy wave, and it will set quickly.

These members of the U.S. made this organization a forum distinct from its predecessor, the League of Nations, by way of a charter laying down fundamental human rights and freedoms, with high stress to turn it later into case world government.

Whether the U.S. had a challenge and an opportunity to build a new era by the way that it is to be met, it is not clear. It is a matter of fact with many sorts of results.

Secret Valley should be a non-shooting area

It was shocked to read the letter from the Indian Commissioner regarding shooting around the Secret Valley. I hope the area before the Government and some other place will be set off as a non-shooting area.

I suggest the Ministry for Foreign Affairs should be asked to take the Secret Valley and other places as a non-shooting area.

By CHARLES DISNEY

Col. J. Gardner, president of the Kenya Golf Union, will accompany the Kenya players as well as Col. J. Gardner Brown, its non-playing captain.

Dr. Salazar: Let us see what positive content remains

PORTUGAL IS TO EXAMINE HER COUNTRIES' POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC SITUATION

Dr. Salazar said he would like to see "positive content" remained in it, the Prime Minister, Dr. Salazar, told the National Assembly yesterday.

He accused the British Government of delaying to reply a refusal to a Portuguese request to be allowed to use "force" articles for connections with Goa.

Dr. Salazar said that "in the same way" there has to be a transfer of force or handing over of ships, there has to be any treaty to recognize the sovereignty of the Portuguese territories in India.

Portugal would "have to wait for the international community to address the offense done to Portugal" and restore it to its legitimate rights before a final decision can be re-established.

German airline flies in soon

Referred to the treaty by Hitler and the present view of the two governments that the airline would be operated by the British.

The Prime Minister said one of the missions of the 2,500 Portuguese troops in the Indian subcontinent was to "force the Indian Government to accept a large military operation which would show the world and that mission had been fulfilled.

Smaller Regular Army planned

Mr. Salazar said Portugal had invoked the treaties of alliance with Britain in 1939 of government, but Britain had done so.

One example was "the request for the construction of facilities in Azores in 1942 in spite of the fact that the British had begun the beginning of the war."

Kanu objects to end of East African Navy

A MEETING of the Kanu Parliamentary Group in Nairobi yesterday decided to oppose the East African Common Services Organisation's recent decision to disband the Royal East African Navy.

Announcing this, Kanu's general secretary, Mr. T. J. Mboya, said the group felt that disbanding the navy would not be in the interest of East Africa. He said if the navy were to disappear, large sums of money would have to be spent in training another navy after independence.

"We feel that we should insist on the East African Navy training and better equipment," Mr. Mboya said.

As a result of relief work, 100,000 people want more power

HALF GIVEN IN COLONY

Food Relief Committee appeal fund has reached half of the total—£24,000—has been donated in Kenya, comprising £12,000 from Britain, so far £23,000 being food for tribesmen in the defective areas and a further £33,000 will be allocated for food. It is unlikely that further large amounts will be spent on food as big gifts consist of food as well as clothing.

The balance of £36,000 in the fund will probably be spent on long-term measures to eradicate dietary deficiencies in the area, especially by providing children a decision on this will be taken by the fund committee. The Speaker, Mr. Humphrey Slade, in the next few weeks.

A direct grant of £15,000 will be made by the Oxford Relief Committee in London.

PARITY URGES DUAL LEGISLATURE

It will be necessary to have a two-chamber legislature in Kenya, the Kenya Citizens' Democratic Party says in its proposals on a new constitution, announced by the party's president, Mr. Arvind Jamdar, yesterday.

Each chamber should form an effective part of the constitution and not be capable of being reduced to an insignificant role. The lower chamber should be constituted broadly on a population basis—one man one vote—while the upper chamber should be constituted on a regional basis, each region having the same number of representatives irrespective of its population or importance.

Report of Kenya, Uganda, and merger

There was no reason why Kenya should give up the upper chamber proposals, which were so important in the recent negotiations, but to deny what was continued previously.

ENGLAND TROUBLES

295 runs needed to avoid defeat today

ENGLAND, set to make 481 to win in 600 mins., had lost four wickets for 125 by this stage yesterday to leave India well placed to win the Fourth Test at Calcutta on the final day today.

India, who gained a first-innings lead of 168, were all out for 252 by mid-afternoon and with the ball turning more quickly on the wearing pitch than at any other time, England were in trouble from the start.

Eric Marshall, as in the first innings, was late with the ball moving into him from Vaasit Ranjane, and Ken Barrington, the heaviest batsman on the lower, was caught looking at backward swing.

RHODES FOR CAVALIERS

T. C. D. JONES

REPORT

Harold Rhodes, the Derbyshire fast bowler, has accepted an invitation to join the team of international cricketers, the Cavaliers, which will tour parts of the Commonwealth in February and March.

Rhodes was asked to make the trip after Freddie Trueman had been refused permission to go by Yorkshire because he declined to tour India with the M.C.C.

The international team will include players from England, Australia, the West Indies, Pakistan and South Africa and Pakistan will play matches in East Africa, New Zealand, Hongkong and Sri Lanka.

It is a notable fact that Rhodes would be touring India with the M.C.C. over the last few years.

CALL FOR PREMIERS MEETING BEFORE U.K. JOINS SIX

CANADIAN Prime Minister, Mr. Diefenbaker, has reiterated his call for Commonwealth Prime Ministers' conference before Britain joins the European Common Market.

Mr. Diefenbaker said today in Ottawa that this is the only realistic solution to all the obvious difficulties that will be encountered in connection with Britain's application to the Six.

Mr. Diefenbaker said that a Commonwealth conference is a common-sense solution to the problems that will be encountered in connection with Britain's application to the Six.

"Fully satisfied" he said, "it has already been agreed that the talks are further advanced than at any previous time."

The Canadian Prime Minister said that the Government is satisfied with the progress of the talks, and that the Government is confident that a Commonwealth conference will be held before Britain joins the Six.

SOUTH AFRICA LOST MILLIONS

Government's brake on capital flight

THE chairman of Mitchell Costs Group Ltd., Mr. H. C. Drayton, has estimated that between £20,000,000 and £100,000,000 left South Africa during the recent flight of capital following the Republic's imposition of export restrictions.

In his annual report, for the past 13 months, presented to the company's third ordinary general meeting in London, he said capital continued to flow from South Africa during the year under review.

"During virtually the whole of the period," he said, "there has been a continuing outflow of capital from South Africa. The total withdrawal of capital during the period was probably something of the order of £100,000,000. It is in the general economy, might have been the effect of the withdrawal of capital that the Government of South Africa is trying to do something to stop."

Not surprising

The example advanced by the Government of South Africa, and again, said by the chairman, was that of the United Kingdom.

"It is not surprising," he said, "that a country which exports so much of its produce should be subject to a continuing outflow of capital. It is not surprising, therefore, that a country which exports so much of its produce should be subject to a continuing outflow of capital. It is not surprising, therefore, that a country which exports so much of its produce should be subject to a continuing outflow of capital."

Dilemma for Gen. Kassem

The Iraqi Petroleum Co. requested authorization from the Government to legislate has frustrated the Prime Minister, Gen. Kassem, with an "awkward" formula, the Financial Times said.

"Either the Government will refuse permission of retaining the existing law (which would mean the Government and the company) or, if it grants the proposal that the revised law may well be at least modified by the authorities."

Mr. E. K. Quinn, works director at Fort Dublin, Edinburgh, Blythburgh - the target in the Commonwealth - has retired after 27 years with the Dunlop Rubber Company.

Russia lifts the veil on its diamond industry

INTERNATIONAL diamond dealers are intrigued by recent indications that Russia is placing new emphasis on her diamond industry. Soviet diamond mining is reported to have increased considerably in 1961 and there are indications that it will expand even more rapidly in the years to come.

In a report issued on this little known industry, the People's diamond mining industry, the city of Mirny is situated in the extreme west of the Yakutia region, now has a population of 20,000 people. It is a small town, but it is a town of diamond mining. It is a small town, but it is a town of diamond mining.

New Year greetings to the swamping driver

I WOULD like to extend happy New Year greetings to the male reader who periodically proceeded at speed this morning at about 7.50 a.m. through the flooded streets during our small bridge on Ring Road, Riverside.

K.S.S. morning club

I FULLY sympathise with those who are weary of the New Year resolutions. It is a pity that we cannot do more to help the poor and the sick. The K.S.S. morning club is a fine example of what can be done. It is a club of women who meet every morning at 10.15 a.m. to discuss the needs of the poor and the sick. They have a list of names of the poor and the sick, and they try to help them in every way possible. They have a fund of money which they use to buy food and clothing for the poor. They also have a fund of money which they use to buy medicine for the sick. They are a very fine example of what can be done.

Afro-Asian bloc opening up continent, says Sir Roy COMMUNISM GAINING IMPACT IN AFRICA

Raise—and criticism for

...of Communism in Africa was raised yesterday by the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom, Sir Roy Jenkins, and delegates to a Commonwealth conference in Lagos.

He said that foreign money—mainly from Communist bloc Britain and the United States—was supporting nationalism and Communism in Africa.

He said that the practical effects of the aid of the Afro-Asian bloc had been to open up the continent to Communist influence and pressure.

The Federal Government had made tremendous headway in the past eight years to assist Africans to rise to the level of modern civilization, but was now handicapped by lack of funds and facilities. But if the Africans' aspirations developed towards the political goal of force means, the Government believed he was being his own master, Sir Roy said.

SOMALIS: WE ARE NOT PART OF KENYA

SOMALI chiefs from all over the Northern Province of Kenya yesterday told Kudu's constitutional adviser, Dr. E. Zellweger, that they were wanting to do with Kenya but demand union with the Somali Republic.

A 40-man delegation from the Northern Province People's Progressive Party, the largest and strongest in the province, was endorsed in the province.

A large crowd of N.P.P.P. supporters gathered outside the residence of the British High Commissioner in Nairobi, Kenya, to demand that they were not satisfied in their position and that they were not willing to be part of Kenya but would rather be united with the Somali Republic.

The 12 members of the delegation, who were led by the party's secretary, Dr. E. Zellweger, said they were not willing to be part of Kenya but would rather be united with the Somali Republic.

Envoy's shout angers Dutch

REPORTS that the U.S. Ambassador to Indonesia shouted "freedom" at a mass rally there have angered the Dutch.

The Ambassador, Mr. Howard Jones, is said to have shouted the word, which has a strong anti-Dutch association at a mass rally led by President Sukarno.

The Malay word "freedom" although it literally means freedom is always associated in Dutch eyes with the struggle of Indonesian nationalists against the Dutch, when Indonesia was a Dutch colony.

The fact that the incident was reported to have taken place at a rally at which the Dutch ambassador was present has given an undercurrent of bitterness to the report.

It is understood that efforts are now being made to secure a detailed and accurate account from the Indonesian press.

The U.S. Ambassador's "freedom" (using the English word) is not the word "freedom" in the sense of the Dutch word "vrijheid."

Germany to buy more arms from Britain

At the Lagos conference, delegates said it was impossible to keep the cold war out of Africa. The only thing that could do this was to bring about a general armaments conference, which is organized by the United Nations.

The program said delegates noted that many African countries were aligned with West European countries like Britain and France, which had their good relations to a joint communique published last night.

GERMANY TO BUY MORE ARMS FROM BRITAIN

DR. ADENAUER agreed in talks in Bonn with Mr. Macmillan yesterday to step up German arms purchases in Britain, according to a joint communique published last night.

Berlin, the German press said, the Common Market was discussed.

The British and West German Foreign Ministers in separate talks, discussed Berlin and a British plane factory, according to Mr. Macmillan's office.

He said talks were going on details were given of the Soviet memorandum handed over in Moscow last month to the West German Ambassador, Dr. Kroll.

TAKING EXPATRIATES PLACES Africans to fill up to 70 D.O. posts soon

BY July about 30 per cent of the Kenya Provincial Administration posts now held by expatriates will be localised.

Between 60 and 70 district officers are due to retire under the limited compensation scheme and their places will be filled by Africans. At present there are more than 200 men in the district officer cadre of whom about 18 are Africans.

The Permanent Secretary to the Office of the Chief and Mr. Neil said that if expatriate officers serving in the cadre had been asked if they wished to take advantage of the limited compensation scheme.

The number who had volunteered to retire this year was about the same as the number of Africans available to take over the posts and the application of about 50 officers had been accepted and they now serving their six-month notice and would have taken leave for the new year.

AKAL PROCEDES LET Letters to the Editor REPORT ON ANGOLA

YOUR readers might be in a position to understand the character of the "proletarian" report entitled "Angola Negro". This report, first issued by the Portuguese Government, and later by the "Angola Negro" committee, is a typical example of the type of report which is published by the Portuguese Government and its organs. It is a report which is intended to mislead the public and to create a false impression of the situation in Angola.

THE FORGOTTEN MEN

ALTHOUGH it is never quite safe to say such-and-such a thing has happened for the first time in East Africa, a woman's society has been formed which is claimed to be "unique because it is the only one of its kind in the world".

The Society of Wives of Non-Designated Officers has been formed to assist the wives of those who are "forgotten" by the general public. The society's members are the wives of those who are "forgotten" by the general public. The society's members are the wives of those who are "forgotten" by the general public. Congo mercenaries back in Paris, but U.K. asks about others

WITH IT BELTS BELLA SIT

Policy attacked by Federation

The United Nations Secretary-General, U. Thant, who has turned down Britain's invitation to visit Rhodesia to discuss his allegations of aid for Katanga, was bitterly criticized by the Federal Government.

Although rejecting the invitation on the recommendation of his special Congo Advisory Committee, U. Thant is considering the possibility of sending a deputy to Rhodesia. A spokesman said he would designate Senator Joseph Holt-Bennett, his Guatemala Assistant Chief of Cabinet, for the task.

The Secretary-General told the committee that the U.N. was pressing the Katanga leader, Mr. Tshombe, to implement Security Council resolutions, particularly about mercenaries.

It was told it was hoped that he would make it unnecessary for the U.N. to employ further force to eliminate mercenaries. Preparations for operations in Katanga ordered by Elisabeth, the Queen Mother, were continuing.

Mr. Salisbury last night said the Government would not be re-examined while Mr. Thant had not eliminated the situation of Katanga's aid from the Congo. The Government would not be re-examined until the Government had received reports from its Congo Advisory Committee.

Spinners are expected to clinch issue

INDIA, who by the close had reached 296 for seven, had already gone a long way to ensure that England do not win the fifth Test, which began at Madras yesterday, with the best cricket seen so far in the series.

A magnificent 103 by the Nawab of Pataudi was mainly responsible for India's establishing their strong position on a pitch that within half an hour of the start was proving helpful to spin.

England, one down in the rubber, already face a tremendous task to square the series, and will have to bat very much more than they have done recently against India's strong attack, which includes five spin bowlers.

BATSMEN SURPRISE EVERYONE

Full credit must go to the Indians, who after Nari Contractor had won his fourth successive Test, batted in aggressive fashion from the start.

Many people expected India to play safe in this match but they surprised everyone by the methods they adopted.

India's batsmen in future follow the example set by Contractor and the Nawab in this game. Indian cricket will earn considerable credit throughout the world.

The Nawab of Pataudi, who was 21 last week, showed the best cricket of his career. He joined his famous father as century-maker in a Test match his first, however, scored his 100 in the 11th over.

The young Nawab had only 15 minutes, but he was an instant and a great credit to the Nawab's batting.

FIELD PREPARED-EGG

For far too long in this series, and many others throughout the world, bowlers have been the mainstay of the team.

This time, however, they were not. The field was prepared to receive the ball, and the batsmen were ready to take advantage of it.
