Finances of the Post Office
Office
 There was an air about the finances of the Post Office Central Assembly in their debate yesterday. Mr. B. M. Nazeri, Minister for the Post Office which conveyed the improvement in the financial position of a sick man amongst them it was their business to do much about it. Mr. Nazeri said that the responsible officer for treatment of the sick man was the Post Office. But surely the Government and people of East Africa have the responsibility for the proper management of common services, of which the Post Office is one. It is not enough now to say that the territorial Governments will help, as it is not enough now to say that the Central Assembly, or the High Commission, to span the troubles of the Post Office on the territorial Legislatures with the necessary assistance. It is not enough now to say that the Central Assembly, or the High Commission, to span the troubles of the Post Office on the territorial Legislatures with the necessary assistance. Kampala wants planes and more trains more trains
 It would be quite out of the question at the moment to propose a daily railway passenger service between Kampala and Nairobi, thanks to the General Manager of East African Railways and Harbours, Mr. A. Dalton.
 He expressed this opinion yesterday when asked of his plans on a resolution to be debated at the Central Assembly, suggesting that the railway service be extended to Kampala. Mr. Dalton stated that the railway service between Kampala and Nairobi would be a very costly one, and that the Government would have to bear the cost. He also mentioned that the railway service between Kampala and Nairobi would be a very costly one, and that the Government would have to bear the cost.

CENTRAL LEGISLATURE DEBATE ON POSTS
 The department would be a working capital of the Post Office. He also mentioned that the railway service between Kampala and Nairobi would be a very costly one, and that the Government would have to bear the cost.

Mr. Bevan—and two others—in Cabinet switch
Fair basis
 Mr. Bevan, Mr. Dalton, and Mr. Nazeri were in the Cabinet switch. Mr. Dalton stated that the railway service between Kampala and Nairobi would be a very costly one, and that the Government would have to bear the cost. He also mentioned that the railway service between Kampala and Nairobi would be a very costly one, and that the Government would have to bear the cost.

ENDOWMENT SYSTEM FOR THE CHURCH SUGGESTED

To preserve Christian tradition in Africa

LOOKING ahead to the time when East Africa will become an African or partly African State, Mr. Roland Oliver, lecturer in African Studies at the School of Oriental and African Studies, has recently spent a year in the territories, has suggested a system of endowment for the indigenous Church as a means of preserving and preserving the Christian tradition in Africa.

His proposal was advanced at the meeting of the African Studies Society in London, which was held on the 10th of January.

He said it is to be pointed out that the endowment system is not a new one, but it is a new one in Africa.

The Rendille: a fine-featured and pleasant race

Pleasant by nature, the Rendille, frontier people of whom MERRILL DALTON writes in her fourth article on tribes of the N.F.D., are skilful at effacing themselves from trouble.

Slim and statuesque, they are a pleasant race and the women, especially those with short frizzy hair, have a distinct resemblance to the Romano.

THE Rendille, whose country adjoins that of the Boran and Samburu, are a pleasant, fine-featured race who claim kinship with the Somalis of Halenswein on the borders of Italian Somaliland and Abyssinia.

It is many of their customs and traits, even the names of certain of their possessions and the manner of their dress, which suggest to the mind the people of the tribe in Somaliland. In fact, however, the Rendille are a distinct race, and may be practically regarded as a branch of the Boran.

Sacred Lake THE two most important sources of water in the Rendille country to the west and east of Marsabit. In earlier days, however, as in the latter years of the present century, their waters were much more extensive, and the Rendille were then called the Rendille-Mountain people.

Main concern THE welfare of their cattle is the main concern in the lives of the Rendille, and it is their chief task to look after them, which is done by the Rendille men.

Four days' feast THE main feast of the year is the Rendille, and it is held for four days. The Rendille are a fine-featured and pleasant race who claim kinship with the Somalis of Halenswein on the borders of Italian Somaliland and Abyssinia.

UNITED NATIONS IN A QUANDARY

Two resolutions to consider PEKING SENDS ANOTHER NOTE TO THE INDIAN DELEGATION

Another resolution was made at Lake Success yesterday during the 12th session of the Arab and Asian bloc yesterday in the United Nations Political Committee their resolutions.

The Netherlands delegate said members would doubtless need to consider this "very important proposal" before the resolution calls for the establishment of a seven-nation committee to consist of representatives of China, the United Kingdom, the United States, Russia, India, France and the Netherlands.

The commission's terms of reference, suggests the resolution, should be to meet as soon as possible for the purpose of seeking the most adequate and expeditious of the Chinese and the French Republic's reply of January 13, and of making any necessary arrangements towards the settlement of the Korean and other Far Eastern problems.

There is considerable speculation as to which resolution will be considered first—the Arab-Asian one or that of the United States which seeks to call Communist China an aggressor.

Mr. Albert Gaidar, Minister of Information, stated after a French Cabinet meeting in Paris that France would support American resolutions seeking to brand China as an aggressor.

At the same time, "France will have certain observations to make on certain points in the resolution," he added.

The official communique issued after the Cabinet meeting said that proposals had been given to the United Nations Political Committee on December 12 last.

Mr. Gaidar said he was based on the assumption that the French would support an extension of the present United Nations Commission on Korea, but he would not say whether the French would support the United States proposal to establish a five-nation committee to investigate the United Nations situation.

Another message The Australian delegate, who was chairman of the Commission, said that the United States had proposed a resolution which was not being as well appreciated as it was in Asia.

EFFECTIVE CONSERVING OF SOIL

Encouraging Nyeri report

DESPITE threats from agitators to bring all such work to a standstill, a high level of co-operation prevailed during the second half of 1950 since the report from the Office of the District Commissioner, Nyeri, on soil conservation during the six-month period.

An all-out drive was made on the district involving Agri-Extension Officers, Kikuyu and Mbatia, with the result that for the first time received target figures during the last six months of the year.

Consistent terracing work is being done, and the soil is being conserved to an increasing number of acres.

At the same time, "France will have certain observations to make on certain points in the resolution," he added.

WEST PREFERS WIDER 'BIG FOUR' TALKS

'Not only about Germany'

BRITAIN, the United States and France have agreed to a 'Big Four' conference if Russia lifts its ban to the discussion of a 'problem likely to threaten world peace'.

Russia has so far stipulated that the sole subjects of the conference should be German demilitarisation and other German problems—a move aimed against Western plans for raising German units for European defence.

TRANS NZOIA OPEN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Muir wins two titles

While their Rugby Union brethren were being soundly beaten by Wales at St. Helens on Saturday, England's Soccer amateurs were giving their best display since the war and gaining a well-merited four over the Welshmen at the latter's own ground.

The players' own interest led to a half an hour in the first set which was a very close contest.

A creditable debut by the South Coast players in the first set was the only bright feature of the match.

A better match was the final of the men's doubles in which the South Coast players were again the victors.

The women's singles was also won by the South Coast player.

Trade-testing and apprentice scheme mooted

STANDS' CONGRESSMENT
A trade-testing and apprentice scheme has been mooted by the Government. The scheme is intended to provide training for young people in various trades and professions.

The scheme will involve the establishment of trade-testing centers and the appointment of apprentices to work under the supervision of experienced craftsmen.

Par-registered

It was reported that the Government had decided to par-register certain types of motor vehicles. This would allow the vehicles to be used for both private and commercial purposes.

The par-registered vehicles would be subject to the same regulations as private vehicles, but would also be allowed to be used for hire and reward.

'Would it work?'

The question of whether the proposed trade-testing and apprentice scheme would be successful is a matter of debate. Some people believe that the scheme would provide a valuable opportunity for young people to learn a trade or profession, while others believe that the scheme would be too costly and would not be worth the effort.

It will be interesting to see how the scheme develops and whether it is able to provide the training and opportunities that it was intended to provide.

Wage plan

A wage plan for the public sector has been proposed by the Government. The plan is intended to provide a framework for the determination of wages for public sector employees.

Kenya gold production down in November

Gold production in Kenya during November was 1,000 ounces, compared with 1,200 ounces in October. The decrease is attributed to a reduction in the number of mines operating.

The Kenya Gold Mining Corporation reported that the production was down by 16.7 per cent. The company stated that the decrease was due to a number of mines being closed for maintenance.

INDUSTRIAL VISITS KENYA

ME. W. F. COURTAULD, Director of the Industrial Development Corporation, is expected to visit Kenya in the near future. He will be accompanied by a number of officials from the Corporation.

The visit is expected to be a successful one, as it will provide an opportunity for the Corporation to discuss with the Kenyan Government the various projects which are being undertaken in the country.

FINCH WILL NEED A HARDER PUNCH

But Turpin proves that his is deadlier

(By Freddie Mills)

THAT does not stand still in the boxing ring any more than a chessman, and while British chessmen have been selected in South America, the English chessman Albert Finch, of Croydon, is climbing the tree after Croydon's light-heavyweight crown.

Finch has now a record of 10 wins and 10 losses, and in his 10th fight he was able to knock out a little more vigorously to become a really good professional pugilist.

Finch's last fight was against the former champion of London, Robert Brown, who was a very good fighter, and Finch was able to knock him out in the 10th round.

Finch's next fight will be against the former champion of London, Robert Brown, who was a very good fighter, and Finch was able to knock him out in the 10th round.

What he requires

Finch, however, needs a harder punch. In a recent fight he was knocked out in the 10th round by a very good fighter, and Finch was able to knock him out in the 10th round.

Finch's next fight will be against the former champion of London, Robert Brown, who was a very good fighter, and Finch was able to knock him out in the 10th round.

Second thoughts

Finch's next fight will be against the former champion of London, Robert Brown, who was a very good fighter, and Finch was able to knock him out in the 10th round.

2nd TRIPLE CROWN FOR WALES?

Principality's XV the perfect team

WHO is bold enough to deny that this will be another victorious year for Welsh Rugby? The Welsh team, under the leadership of the Welsh Rugby Union, has been playing at a high level of performance, and it is not surprising that they are being considered as the perfect team for the 2nd Triple Crown.

One of those things

But it was just one of those things that did not work, and although the Welsh team has been playing at a high level of performance, it is not surprising that they are being considered as the perfect team for the 2nd Triple Crown.

Local peculiarity

In recent articles, I have made passing reference to the peculiarities of the Welsh team, and it is not surprising that they are being considered as the perfect team for the 2nd Triple Crown.

Array of talent

It goes, in truth, for Welsh Rugby that it is one of the most important events in the world of golf.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK'S GOLF

An analysis of Dai Rees' style of play

LAST Saturday was given a delightful golf of Dai Rees' style of play. The Welsh team, under the leadership of the Welsh Rugby Union, has been playing at a high level of performance, and it is not surprising that they are being considered as the perfect team for the 2nd Triple Crown.

The growth of Leopoldville... a city of contrasts

As the capital of a colony in full development, covering an area as large as two-thirds of Europe, Leopoldville is growing even faster than the booming cities of the West Indies.
 Founded in 1903 at the place where a journalist-navigator met a man with a population of 10,000, it is now a city of 100,000.
 Located at the extreme point of the Congo River, Leopoldville is a city of contrasts. It is a city of the future, a city of the past, a city of the present. It is a city of the future, a city of the past, a city of the present. It is a city of the future, a city of the past, a city of the present.

Even frightening

Even in a country starting to develop, there are many things to be frightened of. In Leopoldville, the fear of the unknown is a constant presence. The city is a place of contrasts, a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

Two civilisations

Near Leopoldville, there are two civilisations. One is the civilisation of the future, the civilisation of the past, the civilisation of the present. It is a civilisation of the future, a civilisation of the past, a civilisation of the present.

News bulletins

The news bulletins from Leopoldville are full of interest. They tell us of the progress of the city, of the growth of the population, of the development of the economy. They tell us of the future, of the past, of the present.

Literature

The literature of Leopoldville is a reflection of the city's growth. It is a literature of the future, a literature of the past, a literature of the present. It is a literature of the future, a literature of the past, a literature of the present.

Packed stadiums

The stadiums in Leopoldville are packed with people. They are a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. They are a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

THE PLACE OF THE COOKING SODA

Written by C. J. LEVI, Business Manager of the Donovan Motion Studio Theatre, Nairobi.
 In the kitchen, the cooking soda is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

What I should advise I got to know is that the cooking soda is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

As for the soda, it is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

As for the soda, it is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

ALL along the North Road

As for the soda, it is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

As for the soda, it is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

As for the soda, it is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

As for the soda, it is a constant presence. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present. It is a place of the future, a place of the past, a place of the present.

... of course, last week we drove down the Jordan Route along the Cape Coast. So beautifully green. I would never have believed one country could offer such a wealth of natural beauty as South Africa. The serene austerity of the Johannesburg - the crystal-clear air over the deserts - a bit lyrical I know, but if you were only here, you would feel the same.

You must see it in your next letterbox for and ask the SA Tour office all about it.
