26-POINT PLAN TO FIGHT RISING COSTS Tanganyika Report says 'cut long leave'

ONLY six months after its appointment, Tanganyika's Committee on Rising Costs has published a 70-page booklet—on some 370 pages in which almost every aspect of rising prices and costs is discussed and summed up in 26 major recommendations.

Key money

THE issue of money is a sensitive one in Tanganyika. It is a subject which has been discussed in many of the reports of the Committee on Rising Costs.

MR. COHEN FAVOURABLY IMPRESSED Visits to Urambo and Kongwa

THE Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. James Griffiths, very much impressed that because of the conditions in Urambo and Kongwa, he was unable to visit Tanganyika.

Mr. Cohen, who accompanied the Colonial Secretary on his tour of Uganda and Kenya, said Mr. Griffiths would be coming to East Africa again as soon as circumstances permitted.

Mr. Cohen has meetings in Dar es Salaam and Zanzibar with the Tanganyika European Council, the Asian Association and the African Association and will hear views on his arrival in London.

Mr. Cohen has meetings in Dar es Salaam and Zanzibar with the Tanganyika European Council, the Asian Association and the African Association and will hear views on his arrival in London.

Co-operation

HE said that Mr. Griffiths had been very favourably impressed by the reports of the Tanganyika European Council and the African Association.

Mr. Cohen remarked on progress being made in the development of the Territory and said that this was particularly noticeable in the field of agriculture.

Control measures

RECOMMENDATIONS 4, 5 and 6 refer to the control of prices of essential goods. The report states, it is necessary to prevent the exploitation of scarce commodities.

MORE VIEWS ON KEYVA STATEMENT Party issue 'disappointing'

THOUGH disappointed that a party of European against non-European views is suggested by the interim constitutional changes announced by the Colonial Secretary, Mr. James Griffiths, said that Mr. Griffiths' statement was a fair statement of the final changes.

Mr. Patel said he was earnestly hoping that when the final details of the interim constitution are published, they will include a party among all three of the major races in the Territory.

Mr. Griffiths said he was disappointed that a party of European against non-European views is suggested by the interim constitutional changes.

Not essential

MR. Griffiths said there would be no essential need for a party of European against non-European views in the interim constitution.

SUMMARY OF THE WEEK'S SPORT

THE first day of the Nakuru Yacht meeting, run on Saturday, produced some of the most enjoyable racing ever seen in Kenya.

The golf's Saturday was better than any of the previous days. It was not, however, a good day for players for only two of the favourites won and after a somewhat disastrous start, the players could not have felt too happy.

Earlier results

THE match between the South Africans and Kenyan was a close one, which seemed to the liking of the batsmen on both sides.

No particular system recommended by E... Conference states 'principles' only

THE statement of policy adopted by the Kenya African People's Conference on Wednesday was not intended to make any recommendation of universal common franchise or any other particular system of suffrage at the present time. An amendment making the position clearer was moved by Mr. Humphrey and agreed upon before the administrative resolutions were completed.

Mr. Stale's amendment replaced one put forward by Mr. McLeod of Trans-Nzoia Branch, who had proposed that the original resolution should read with these words: 'The franchise for the election of the representatives of the people shall be based on the principle of universal suffrage...'

Mr. Stale's amendment was approved by a vote of 10 to 5. The chairman, Mr. Stale, said that the conference was not intended to make any recommendation of universal common franchise or any other particular system of suffrage at the present time.

ARE parents developing a proper sense of responsibility regarding the training of their children for the future?

A harsh discipline, perhaps, yet at the same time, certain care to be taken in the way of their training.

Children are such "sensitive" people and it is not surprising that they are so easily influenced by their parents.

It is the parents' duty to train their children in the way of the Lord, and to discipline them in the way of the Lord.

Watch 'DISPRIN' dissolve quickly—completely

Because 'Disprin' enters the stomach in a free solution, with no insoluble acid particles, it is more rapidly absorbed by the system—thus relieving pain without delay. The best way to take 'Disprin' is in water, though its soothing, pain-relieving effect will be the same whether you take it because of its advantages over ordinary Aspirin.
