Breweries dominate in profit taking in more active market

BUSINESS on the Nairobi Stock Exchange was slightly more active during the week. The Brewery market still attracted most attention and further profit taking was seen in East African Breweries which led a further 10 cents to 19 1/2 bid and offered. There was virtually no change in City Brewery which now still remained at 25 1/2. Tussock Breweries rose 3 1/2 to 40 with buyers at 41 1/25 now displayed.

Among Stocks, Easton rose again to 100 and 100 1/2 with buyers at 101 1/2. Easton and Easton, with buyers at 21 1/2, now displayed. The market was active in the afternoon.

WATERBURY TONE QUIET AFTER REACTION

LONDON stock markets were very quiet, with most of the country sections maintaining the reactionary attitude that set in on Wednesday afternoon. Glorified reaction, however, manifested itself in a firm approach.

The foreign market was quiet. Daily stocks were in better demand in the dollar section, after a period of inactivity, and the North American values, including the Canadian market, were in demand.

GROWTH

"Two Leaves and a Bud"

East Africa's rapidly expanding and efficient tin industry is a prime example of a successful attempt to broaden the basis of the economy. The patience, fair-mindedness and faith in the future that the pioneer tin-planters have displayed could well be taken as a model for all who have East Africa's future at heart. Barclays is proud of its association with many of these planters. Barclays shares their faith in the future.

CRASH TRAINING EFFORT NEEDED IN MASS MEDIA

A WIDESPREAD programme of short-term mass media training in East Africa during the next few years is recommended by a report of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization as a result of a survey which during August and September.

The need for trained personnel has become acute because of the development programmes, the report says. It is estimated that in East Africa there are about 100,000 people who are illiterate and that the number is increasing rapidly. The report also notes that the mass media is playing an increasingly important role in the development of these countries. It is therefore essential that the personnel who are responsible for the mass media should be trained in the use of modern techniques and methods.

Their answers will help to build up East Africa's fishing industry

The annual fish catch in the lakes and rivers of East Africa is estimated to be about 50,000 tons. This is a very small quantity for a continent with a population of over 100 million. It is the aim of the East African Fishery Commission to increase this catch to 500,000 tons by the year 2000.

The impact of the articles by Trevor Wood and other members of the East African Fishery Commission on their first training course...

352 top models put on display of powered elegance at Earls Court

HALF — a million people have been greeting into Earls Court, London, for the 100 days of the Motor Show. It is the year's top international motor show for motorists who can inspect the latest models from Britain and 11 other countries.

The bulk of exhibitors have been seen on the 100th day, but some new models have made their debut on the show's stands.

John Martin, an executive of the Ford Motor Co., said the "new Special" is a car aimed with a view to the motorist who can inspect the latest models from Britain and 11 other countries.

UNFINISHED — The 1964 Ford Mustang is a car aimed with a view to the motorist who can inspect the latest models from Britain and 11 other countries.

The 68th International Motor Exhibition, which was opened last night at Earls Court, London, ends tomorrow. In this special four-page supplement we look in detail at models which have been appearing at the show.

models are on display which are in the process of being developed. The new models, B.M.C. and Rover, are aimed at the motorist who can inspect the latest models from Britain and 11 other countries.

New Zephyr 4 proves six-seater luxury needn't carry a luxury price tag (it's the lowest priced six-seater from Ford) one of the most elegant ways to get six people where they're going is Ford's new Zephyr 4. Step into this roomy sedan and you'll discover wide, comfortable seating space for six... plenty of head, leg, and shoulder room... and plenty of luggage space you could ask for. And for all its room and elegant finish, Zephyr 4 remains the lowest priced six-seater automobile from Ford. Like all Ford cars, the Zephyr 4 gives you a special kind of performance. It's easy to handle, and lively in any road situation. You have power to spare from Ford's proven short-stroke engine design. Yet the Zephyr 4 is a miler with fuel, delivering up to 50 miles per gallon. You won't find a finer combination of lively fashion and Ford-built sturdiness than this handsome sedan.

Look into the Zephyr 4—find out how much more car you can get for your money when you buy Ford! Your Ford Products Dealer has the Zephyr 4 now.

There is plenty to keep sports car enthusiasts happy this year

TIGER STEALS THE THUNDER

SPORTS car enthusiasts had to wait until the Motor Show, from the very beginning of the year, to see the new MG sports models range onwards to the glamorous Aston Martin.

But Sport becomes locked in a struggle with the sports car market this year with the new 125 m.p.h. Sunbeam Tiger which represents the outstanding Alpine model.

The Tiger is the result of collaboration between factory engineers, the Ford Commercial Director and the American sports expert Carroll Shelby.

The Sunbeam Tiger sports car, being to enter the sports car market this year.

Powered by a V8 engine of 1611 cc, the Tiger is being shown in Europe for the first time. Initial production this year has been restricted to the North American market, but orders are now being accepted for European customers.

Special versions of two of the best selling of most successful small sports cars in the world, the Austin Healey Sports Mk. III and the MG Midget Mk. II were on the B.M.C. stands.

More power came from improved engines and the new suspension has been approved by the independent test agencies, and the new alloy leaf springs and bump rubbers of the same type as those used on the M.C.B.

Capable of a speed of 125 m.p.h. in the Austin Healey Sports Mk. III, a new great sports car.

Together with the Austin Healey 2000 and the M.G.B. the MG and the Midgets are entering from the Coventry Car Division of the C. & A. Birmingham, the largest factory in the world devoted to sports car production.

With the M.C.G. with its new sports car, behind it, to be replaced by the British sports car, the MG Midget Mk. II, the Report of the Transport Committee, which was set up in 1957, to give into operation in 1960, will be applied to both or used a Ford Zodiac engine gives it a cruising speed of between 110 and 125 m.p.h. and the new bump rubbers of the front are standard equipment.

Capable of a speed of 125 m.p.h. in the MG Midget, a new great sports car.

A sports car with a difference is the Aston Martin D.B. 2 which was used in the James Bond film "Goldfinger". It is a sports car of exceptional class, and the only sports car which has been built to order for the film. The car is a 2+2 sports car, and is built to order for the film. The car is a 2+2 sports car, and is built to order for the film.

CHANGES ARE ONLY MINOR IN THE MORRIS RANGE

THE Morris cars displayed at the Motor Show show little basic change. In the famous Morris Minor 1000 range, which has been covered by an 1100 engine for some months, new improvements have been made in the internal trim and reworking of the seats.

The company's show has led to new fitted with a magnetic coil and new suspension, but also makes for easier and more positive opening and shutting.

For the first time there is a combined start-up and ignition switch with single switches for lights and fuel. The lighting is controlled by a single switch, and the new suspension will be standard on all models.

The new Morris Minor 1000, although not a new model, has been reworked to give it a new look and a new feel. The new suspension, which is a new development, will be standard on all models.

The famous hydraulic suspension has now been introduced in the range of Morris Minor cars. The new suspension is a new development, and will be standard on all models.

British motor industry reaches 'a new pinnacle of prestige'

As a result of advanced technical specifications, high speed racing and rally events, British cars have reached a new pinnacle of prestige.

This was stated by the President of the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders, Mr. W. D. B. Swales, at a Press conference held in Birmingham.

Mr. Swales said the British motor industry was probably the most advanced in the world, and that the country is now producing more cars than any other country in the world.

and the rate of increase in exports had been greater than that of the United States and Japan.

The United Kingdom's motor industry has also been successful in the export market, and has been able to export more cars than any other country in the world.

Mr. Swales said that the British motor industry is now producing more cars than any other country in the world, and that the country is now producing more cars than any other country in the world.

the vast interest that exists in motor cars.

"And what good news. 250 of the best in cars from Britain and the Continent, with some models still on the way. In addition, there will be a complete stand of retraction by the leading manufacturers and the importance of accessories, and possibly, tyres and all kinds of motor car accessories."

Mr. Swales said that the British motor industry is now producing more cars than any other country in the world, and that the country is now producing more cars than any other country in the world.

HOW HITLER DIED — WHEATLEY STYLE

By A. F. MOORE

They Used Check Forces, by HERBIE WHEATLEY, Hutchinson, 21c.

DIMMED WHEATLEY has once again produced an excellent, graphic, carefully illustrated and polished history. His written explanation of the events surrounding the death of Hitler is so lucid and so convincing that it is a pity that it is not read by his countrymen.

In the book Hitler is described as a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist. He was a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist. He was a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist. He was a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist.

As a result of the events described in this book, the author has written a book that is not only a history, but also a study of the man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist. He was a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist.

Hitler appears to have been a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist. He was a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist. He was a man who was not only a great leader, but also a great strategist.

KIPURCI LOOKS TO FUTURE

His aim is gold medal at Commonwealth Games

By GUY SPENCER

KENYA'S 26-year-old Olympic human maddist, Wilson Kipurci, was given a hero's welcome at the Nairobi Airport on his arrival back from Tokyo with the rest of the victorious Olympic team yesterday afternoon. He received the congratulations given him but already he is looking to the future.

KARACHI TEST IS DRAWN

THE Swedish cricket Test between Pakistan and Australia at Karachi ended in a draw yesterday, after Australia had been out to score 242 runs in 200 minutes to win.

Australia declared at 175 in the eighth over, 114 in the ninth and 202 in their final innings on the first day.

Australia started as if they were to win the Test and tried to chase the lead but Pakistan batsmen, led by the left-hander, Iqbal, set a good example and put on an opening stand of 100 runs before the first day was over.

Test matches were in the shorter run as it was the first day of the match and a draw by the end of the first day would mean a draw for the match.

Pakistan's batsmen were out for 111 in the first innings and 121 in the second. Australia's batsmen were out for 242 in the first innings and 111 in the second.

Referendum polling in Rhodesia

RHODESIA'S Prime Minister, Mr. Ian Smith, was among early voters when polling began yesterday in the independence referendum.

A big majority of the 180,000-vote, mostly white, voters are expected to say 'yes' to the question: 'Are you in favour of independence on the terms of the present constitution as it stands at the present time?' After voting his 'yes' Mr. Smith said he would be very pleased if as much as 90 per cent of the electorate voted 'yes'. This was the percentage of the total population of Rhodesia.

Many voters appeared to have been given a vote and at one polling booth a man was seen to be writing on a ballot paper having apparently been told from the officials that he was not eligible to vote.

The people appeared to vote in the morning and afternoon. The Rhodesian 'British' Government of Rhodesia, led by Mr. Ian Smith, said that the referendum would be held at the same time as the general election for the House of Representatives.

'Wild rush'

Later a statement by the Opposition, Rhodesia, said that the referendum would be held at the same time as the general election for the House of Representatives.

Youth Service will fight the enemies

Kenya was fighting a battle against ignorance, poverty and disease. And this battle must be won if her people were to enjoy the fruits of independence, the Minister for Labour and Social Services, Mr. J. N. Kariuki, said yesterday.

He was speaking at the opening and presentation of the Kenya Youth Service Centre, which is being built at Nairobi.

The Prime Minister had declared that Kenya was to be a free country. It was to be a country where the people would be able to enjoy the fruits of independence. But this could only be achieved if the people were educated and trained.

The Youth Service Centre was built to provide training for the youth of Kenya. It was to be a place where they could learn the skills and trades necessary for the development of the country.

Mr. Kariuki said that the Government was committed to the development of the youth of Kenya. He said that the Youth Service Centre was a step towards this goal.

Prison example

When they had done so, they found that it was not as easy as they had expected. The prison was a place of discipline and order, and they had to learn to follow the rules.

They were given a strict schedule to follow, and they had to work hard to earn their keep. They were also given a lot of training in various skills, and they learned a lot from their experience.

The prison was a place where they had to learn to live together and to respect each other. It was a place where they had to learn to be responsible and to take care of themselves and their fellow prisoners.

Kenya church services

Services were held in various churches across Kenya, marking the beginning of the new year. The services were attended by many people, and they were a time of prayer and reflection.

The churches were decorated with flowers and bunting, and the atmosphere was one of joy and hope. The ministers gave inspiring sermons, and the people responded with enthusiasm.

The services were a reminder of the faith and the values that have guided the people of Kenya through their journey towards independence. They were a time to look back at the challenges they have overcome and to look forward to the future with confidence.

Does your driver take a beating on every trip too?

...he doesn't if he operates a Thames!
Heavy commercials are built to take a beating — but their drivers are not. Thames heavy commercials supply solid cab comfort, room and good all-round visibility to your man at the wheel. Bigger profits begin with better driver efficiency and Thames scores heavily on both. Your choice of diesel or petrol engine, 4 or 6 cyl., 4 or 5 speed gear box, forward or normal control, two speed or auto. If required, from 2,500 to 17,500 payload lbs. — Traders make your normal pay more.

U.S. VOTERS GIVE MANDATE FOR UNITY

President Johnson has turned his overwhelming victory in the American Presidential election a "mandate for unity" and a nationalistic celebration of the "Mandate for Peace" in Asia, Korea and Johnson pledged to work for "peace in our time for our people and the rest of the world."

Proof of 'sound American judgment'

President Johnson's victory was predicted by national leaders and commentators throughout the world and was widely hailed as sound judgment on the part of the American people.

The election results express the desire of the American people to support and underwrite the leadership of President Johnson in the White House. He said in a statement: "The election expresses that the American people fully approve and have confidence in the leadership of President Johnson in the White House and the course he has set for the United States."

Reeves fans can make this another hit

If there was a prize for the record that stayed longest in the Hit Parade this year that prize would definitely go to the late JIM REEVES.

with Jon Macintyre

Both his last release held their places longer than any of the other top ten items, and it would be so at all surprised if his next There's a Goodbye Following Me is another record topper. This one (RCA, 423) has been listed from Jim's long career in Country, in a player club and sentimental with the new and country and western styles, and it should be a hit on the charts.

There is a colorful ballad on the other side called Diamond in the Sky, another really good ballad with string and brass accompaniment.

There's a colorful ballad on the other side called Diamond in the Sky, another really good ballad with string and brass accompaniment.

THESE ARE also some very nice releases from the ladies this week amongst them Doris Day's "I'm a Believer" and Patsy Cline's "I'm Positively Five O'Clock". In no opinion that is the best song she has come up with so far. It has a sturdy beat, catchy lyrics, written by Tony Hatch, and with its professional singing it should be a hit both sides—coming back into fashion—two out of the top three places by the ladies. It has come out as just the right moment.

THE SAYING "there it goes" — as far as getting into the charts in consecutive weeks — applies to an American group who are currently selling the British market. They're the Beatles. They're the Beatles. They're the Beatles. They're the Beatles. They're the Beatles.

they have only their name to rely on as a gimmick. Their disc, in addition to the Beatles, is entitled "I Don't Wanna Know" and has the same title. The record is a good one, but it is not a hit. It is not a hit.

NEW Ardena Liquid Night Cream

The greatest beauty secret of all time

A great cream is not born every day! But the day so long awaited it, at last, here is the Liquid Night Cream in its answer to the thousands of girls I have received from women who prefer a cream in liquid form—nothing so sticky as the remarkable benefits which, until now, only a regular cream could provide.

This rich golden liquid, chlorine-light in texture, is formulated with a new natural oil and endowed with exceptional creaming and moisturizing properties. The cream is quickly absorbed into the skin and works all night unceasing, imparting vital moisture, rousing lines and smoothing away all trace of blemishes.

Liquid Night Cream is the most perfectly guarded beauty secret any woman could ask for! Not a trace is visible on the skin at night; you awaken each morning to a smoother, silkier complexion which, economically, only beauty has brought.

Ardena Liquid Night Cream opens the way to new worlds of beauty for you today. Making this day one of the proudest moments of your life!

Railmen strike despite wage pact signing

SENATE ATTACK ON NEWS REPORTS

By a spokesman for the British Railways Board, it was announced today that the railwaymen's strike was not a result of a disagreement over wages but of a dispute over the terms of a new agreement.

The spokesman said that the railwaymen had accepted a 10 per cent increase in wages and a new pension scheme. He said that the strike was a result of a disagreement over the terms of a new agreement.

COURT UPHOLDS DEATH PENALTY ON POLICEMAN

The High Court today upheld the death sentence passed on a policeman who was found guilty of the murder of a woman.

The policeman, who was a member of the East African Police Force, was charged with the murder of a woman in the city of Nairobi. The court found him guilty and sentenced him to hang.

The court said that the policeman had acted in a premeditated manner and that his actions were heinous. It said that the death penalty was the only appropriate punishment for his crime.

Hotels to be taken over

The Government has announced that it will take over the management of hotels in Kenya.

The hotels, which are currently owned by private companies, will be taken over by the Government to ensure that they are managed in the best interests of the country.

The Government said that it would take over the hotels in a phased manner, starting with the largest hotels in Nairobi.

Toy cars in court demonstration

A group of young boys today demonstrated their anger at the Government by bringing toy cars to court.

The boys, who were from a slum area, brought their toy cars to court as a protest against the Government's policies. They said that the Government was not doing enough to improve the lives of the people in the slums.

The court dismissed the boys' protest and the toy cars were taken away.

The contemporary view 'voluntarily girls'

DEFENCE FROM UNWARRANTED ATTACK

SOME of the most interesting and controversial aspects of the contemporary view of the 'voluntarily girls' is the question of their defence from unwarranted attack. The girls themselves are often the target of criticism and abuse, and it is important that they should be able to defend themselves against such attacks.

The girls are often accused of being promiscuous and of having a bad character. They are also accused of being a danger to the community. However, it is important to remember that the girls are often the victims of circumstances beyond their control. They are often poor and have no other means of support. They are also often the victims of social stigma and discrimination.

It is important that the girls should be able to defend themselves against such attacks. They should be able to explain their situation and to show that they are not the people that they are often portrayed to be. They should also be able to show that they are not a danger to the community.

Brushing the eyes

Brushing the eyes is a common practice in many cultures. It is often done to clear the eyes of dirt and to soothe the eyes. However, it is important to remember that brushing the eyes can also be harmful. It can irritate the eyes and cause damage to the eye tissue.

It is important to use the correct technique when brushing the eyes. The eyes should be brushed gently and from the inner corner to the outer corner. It is also important to use clean water or a sterile solution.

Double-think

Double-think is a term used to describe the process of holding two contradictory beliefs in one's mind simultaneously, and accepting both of them. It is a common phenomenon in many cultures and is often used as a means of coping with difficult situations.

Double-think can be a useful tool in many situations. It can help people to deal with conflicting interests and to find a way forward. However, it can also be a dangerous tool if it is used to justify bad actions or to suppress the truth.

Caltex in line to keep title

POST OFFICE "A" is currently leading the Division 7 table of the Sports and Leisure Club in the Tynes League, but they are likely to be displaced by Caltex "A", the reigning champions, who are expected to have played two matches less but have also beaten the current leaders in their first game.

National Council Secretary, Bob Clark, said that the Division 7 "A" team, which is currently in the lead, has a strong chance of retaining the title.

There are several other teams in the Division 7 "A" which are also strong contenders for the title.

The Division 7 "A" team is currently in the lead, but they are expected to be challenged by several other teams.

Unable to meet demands of Olympics

KENYA's hockey team at the Olympic Games in Tokyo was NOT fit. The Chief de Mission, Mr. Harbison Singh, announced yesterday. On telegrams on Monday Mr. Harbison Singh hinted that the condition of the hockey players was not 100 per cent, but yesterday he told spectators in Nairobi that "They definitely were not physically fit at that extent where they could play after day four or five games."

And the Chief de Mission also reported the matter forwarded by members of the team that the conditions at Nairobi were really appalling. "It is not correct that we should blame the conditions. In my opinion, the fact of attending the best sports in the world and to be easily be compared with the best of sports."

"Admittedly the grass was spongy but any player able to defend himself in so long a time as the Olympics should be able to defend himself in the conditions in Nairobi. There is a good example of other sports in Kenya. There is a good example of other sports in Kenya. There is a good example of other sports in Kenya."

Mr. Harbison Singh also mentioned that the Kenya Hockey Association is planning to appeal for £10,000 to buy a new hockey field. He said that the Kenya Hockey Association is planning to appeal for £10,000 to buy a new hockey field. He said that the Kenya Hockey Association is planning to appeal for £10,000 to buy a new hockey field.

Second donation for appeal fund

Only two donations have been received by the Kenya Hockey Association in response to the appeal for £10,000 to buy a new hockey field. The first donation was £5,000 from the Kenya Hockey Association. The second donation was £5,000 from the Kenya Hockey Association.

Minister today S. Nyanza PLANS FOR BETTER LOCAL RELATIONS

Measures to improve relations between British subjects and African natives were held with a view to the promotion of a better understanding of the objectives of the Government and the role of the African in the development of the country.

The Minister of Education, Mr. S. Nyanza, today announced that he would be introducing a Bill to amend the Education Act, 1947, to provide for the establishment of a Council of Education to advise the Government on matters relating to the education of the African population.

The Council of Education will be composed of representatives of the Government, the African community, and the European community. It will be responsible for the formulation of a policy for the education of the African population, and for the supervision of the implementation of that policy.

The Minister also announced that he would be introducing a Bill to amend the Education Act, 1947, to provide for the establishment of a Council of Education to advise the Government on matters relating to the education of the African population.

SEYCHELLES BEGINS BIG HOUSING SCHEME

WORKING on one of the largest public development schemes ever undertaken in the African continent, the Government of the Seychelles has announced that it is starting a big housing scheme for the island.

The scheme, which is being financed by the Government, will provide for the construction of 10,000 new houses over a period of five years.

The houses will be built in the form of small blocks, each containing 10 to 15 units. The scheme is expected to provide for the needs of the growing population of the islands.

Piped water

A major scheme to pipe water to the islands of the Seychelles is being undertaken by the Government.

The scheme, which is being financed by the Government, will provide for the construction of a network of pipes to carry water from the main islands to the smaller ones.

Allocation priority

As each unit is finished, the Government will give priority to the allocation of the units to the most deserving applicants.

A great educational experiment—and it started in a shed

Two wooden sheds at St. John's Karamall Nairobi, close to each other, but in a way, it is the realisation and social education in Kenya of a time when sufficiency was head in the hands of the people.

It was the first real home of what the Minister for Agriculture and Constitutional Affairs, Mr. Mwangi, called, only four short, change-packed years ago, "the most significant single experiment beginning of the Hospital Hill School."

The educational school system is now an accepted fact in Kenya, but it is only recently a matter of water policy in 1964 it was a distant dream. The most change of the Hospital Hill School among from the determination of one generation to provide a better way of life for the next. Mr. Karamall and his European wife, Jean, were one of Kenya's first pioneers "mixed" marriages.

When Mr. Karamall and his wife first came to Kenya, they found the educational system was almost non-existent. The few schools that were then in existence were almost all run by missionaries.

Mr. Karamall and his wife, Jean, were one of Kenya's first pioneers "mixed" marriages. They had a son, John, who was born in Nairobi in 1928. He was the first child of a mixed marriage in Kenya. He was educated in the Hospital Hill School. He is now a doctor in Nairobi.

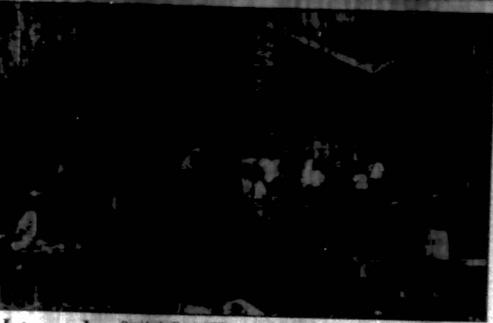

After a few weeks, the school moved to the Karamall's house. But after a year it was apparent that conditions were far from ideal. At that stage, the idea of building a school for the children and the young people of Nairobi was born. The school was built in 1931. It was the first school in Nairobi. It was built by the Karamalls. It was the first school in Nairobi. It was built by the Karamalls.

HOSPITAL HILL SCHOOL

The humble beginning

The school at Hospital Hill Nairobi, the children who live in the village. A few years ago it was the first home of the Karamalls who came to Nairobi Hospital Hill School.

Integrated from the cradle

but it was a genuine pioneer of the struggle which is clearly apparent from Karamall's present and his future integration from the cradle.

€7,000 GRANT

The Colonial Welfare and Development Corporation agreed with a grant of £7,000 of which £5,000 was for building an experiment and the rest for the purchase of land in Nairobi.

Outside the Hospital Hill School

The school today has 200 pupils. It is a mixed school. It is a pioneer of the struggle which is clearly apparent from Karamall's present and his future integration from the cradle.

HARMFUL RESULTS OF BILL FEARED

The Motor Vehicle Bill, which is being introduced in the House of Representatives, has caused a great deal of concern among the public. It is feared that the bill will result in a number of harmful consequences, such as the loss of jobs and the increase in the cost of living. The bill is expected to be passed in the near future, and it is hoped that the government will take steps to mitigate any potential negative effects.

Low production may kill future of pyrethrum

FARMERS attending the open day of the pyrethrum station at Molo were told that the valuable pyrethrum industry might 'go by the board' unless production was boosted. Others from overseas which had a great deal of sales were disappointed because growers had not fulfilled their quotas.

Kadu joins Kanu to make Kenya one-party State

KADU leaders yesterday expressed their strong belief that when the Opposition Party they formed with the Kanu Party, the Kenyan people would be able to elect a Government which would be able to carry out the wishes of the Kenyan people.

The Kadu Party was formed by the merger of the Kenya African National Union (KANU) and the Kenya African Democratic Union (KADU).

The Kadu Party is a coalition of the Kenya African National Union (KANU) and the Kenya African Democratic Union (KADU).

THE WEEK in East Africa

The Prime Minister of Kenya, Mr. J. M. Oginga Odinga, yesterday announced that the Government would be prepared to discuss the possibility of a coalition Government with the Kadu Party.

Mr. Odinga said that the Government was prepared to discuss the possibility of a coalition Government with the Kadu Party, provided that the Kadu Party was prepared to accept the Government's policy on the independence of Kenya.

Riots follow return of 'lost counties'

Riots broke out in the 'lost counties' of Kenya yesterday following the return of the area to the Government.

The riots were reported to have taken place in the areas of Nyeri, Kirinyi, and Murang'a. The Government has sent troops to the area to maintain order.

The 'lost counties' were areas that were lost to the British Government during the Mau Mau rebellion in the 1950s. They were returned to the Government in 1961.

Army patrols

The Kenya Army is patrolling the border areas of Kenya to prevent the entry of arms and ammunition from the neighboring countries.

The Army has been patrolling the border areas since the return of the 'lost counties'. The Army has reported that it has not found any arms or ammunition in the area.

The Army has also been patrolling the border areas to prevent the entry of refugees from the neighboring countries.

Political aim

The Prime Minister of Kenya, Mr. J. M. Oginga Odinga, yesterday announced that the Government's political aim was to achieve the independence of Kenya.

Mr. Odinga said that the Government was committed to the achievement of the independence of Kenya. He said that the Government would do everything in its power to achieve this goal.

IF BACK ACHES Fight ASTHMA COUGH
 Try This Quick Help

The greatest cause of back aches is poor posture. This is especially true in the office. The average office worker spends most of his day sitting at a desk. This causes the muscles of the back to become weak and the spine to curve. This in turn causes back aches and stiffness.

There are many ways to prevent back aches. One is to use good posture. Another is to exercise regularly. A third is to use a back brace. A fourth is to use a back support.

BY KYEYUNE.
 The founder member of the African Artists' Association in Nairobi, Kenya, has been elected to the post of president of the International Foundation for the Development of African Art.

Turning the African world into pictures

JOHN ROBERTS describes a recent interview he had with El Kyeyune, the artist which the author discusses his inspiration, ideas and ambitions and gave his views on the African artist's role in his own country.

El Kyeyune, the artist, has received the 'Young One' award.

As a result of his election, the International Foundation for the Development of African Art will be based in Nairobi, Kenya. The foundation was set up in 1961 and its headquarters are in Nairobi. It is a non-profit-making organization which aims to promote the development of African art and to provide a platform for African artists to exhibit their work.

El Kyeyune is a well-known African artist who has exhibited his work in many international exhibitions. He is a member of the African Artists' Association and has been elected to the post of president of the International Foundation for the Development of African Art. He is a passionate advocate of African art and believes that it is the duty of the African artist to express the life and culture of his people through his work.

WAR AGAINST THE VIRUS DISEASES

SEVERAL forms of virus disease have been identified by scientists in the tropics. These include the common mumps, measles, and rubella, as well as the more serious diseases such as yellow fever, dengue, and the recently discovered Marburg and Ebola viruses. These viruses are highly contagious and can be spread by direct contact with an infected person or by contact with their body fluids. They are also spread by insects such as mosquitoes and ticks. The World Health Organization is currently conducting research into the prevention and control of these diseases. It is hoped that this research will lead to the development of effective vaccines and treatments.

THE SAME WAY

It is his opinion that the African artist should not be confined to the traditional forms of art. He believes that the artist should be free to experiment with new materials and techniques. He also believes that the artist should be encouraged to express the life and culture of his people through his work. He is a strong advocate of the African artist's role in his own country and believes that it is the duty of the African artist to express the life and culture of his people through his work.

Britain must back farm take over plan, say farmers

During the first day of the annual conference of the Kenya Farmers' Union in Nairobi, yesterday evening the Kenya Government was urged to support the proposed take-over of land owned by the Kenya Government of land owned by the Government.

The three major motions before the conference were a call for the British Government to take over European mixed farms, proposals on the take-over of the British Government to see that reasonable stability and land values would be maintained in the interim.

DEPUTATION TO U.K. URGED

The first motion emphasized the continued uncertainty of European large-scale mixed farming, which was leading to the loss of jobs and urged that a deputation of the Union visit Britain to see an agreement regarding the future.

The proposer, Mr. S. D. Whelan, admitted that the purpose of the motion was fulfilled by the request to meet the Secretary of State for the Colonies in London.

Mr. Whelan complained of the late Conservative Government's policy in generalization and procrastination in such circumstances as these: Kenyan farmers had been expected to bring a petition to the Government, but the Government's policy was to wait until the take-over by the Kenya Government for the Colonies was complete.

President warns of impasse

The President of the Union, Mr. J. B. Pollard, in his address to the annual conference, warned that if a position of impasse was reached, through lack of progress in the long-term plan, it is almost certain that the Government will have to take over the large-scale farms.

Mr. Pollard was speaking in Nairobi, which he will be going to visit in the next few days. He said that the Government's policy was to wait until the take-over by the Kenya Government for the Colonies was complete.
