LAND OF 324 GANG LEADERS FORFEITED

Government action 'irrevocable'

SURRENDERS TOTAL 962 UNDER JANUARY TERMS

FROM today 324 Kikuyu and Embu terrorist leaders and organisers, who failed to surrender by midnight on Sunday, are deprived of their land under the Government's increased powers of forfeiture.

Their names are listed in the Official Gazette. It was emphasised last night that the decision is irrevocable, and that terrorists will not be able to reclaim their land by surrendering under the "green branch" terms.

At the end of the last at the last minute was the name area, who was killed by a Home Guard patrol five hours before the surrender offer ended. Scores of soldiers marked the names of the dead. Another gang leader named Haraka, who had operated in the Embu area, was also killed on Sunday night.

Official figures put the number of surrenders under the January 1953 terms at 299. Of this figure, 296 were accepted after June 8, the date on which it was announced that the Government would accept the terms of the offer. The number of names who surrendered in October, 1952, is 777. The response to the offer, however, represents more than half of the total of surrenders.

There were no reports yesterday of surrenders under the "green branch" terms - announced in August, 1953 - which remain in force. But observers in the Embu and Fort Hall areas said of a significant change of heart among the Kikuyu and Embu, a feeling of security as a result of closer administrative control.

SUCCESSFUL CLIMAX TO EMBU CAMPAIGN

POLICE and Embu Guards achieved one of their biggest successes a few hours before midnight on Sunday. Taking action on information given by a terrorist who had fled the area, they killed a man who was a leader of the Haraka. The man was born in a forest in a forest in the north of Kiunga. Another report, with him was wounded but escaped.

It is believed that the remainder of Haraka's gang will be hunted down in the next few days. The police are also operating in the area with security forces are expected to bring down the remaining members of the Haraka gang in the next few days.

Compounds cleared

Shortly before midnight on Sunday, the police cleared the compounds of the Haraka and his followers. The police are also operating in the area with security forces are expected to bring down the remaining members of the Haraka gang in the next few days.

RESERVOIR TO SUPPLY WATER FOR RAILWAY

Work on Section Hamudunjoje

Water supply from Nairobi to Mombasa via particular line between and Kin stations, has for some time been delayed. It has been agreed that the arrival of the new Chinese locomotives.

These "plants" have capacity of 2,500 gallons per hour and will be used to supply the water for the reservoir.

A scheme now in progress will provide for the construction of a reservoir and pump in the vicinity of the new line. The reservoir will be 100 feet in diameter and will hold 100,000 gallons of water each day. It will be situated where it is to supply 100-mile pipeline.

An 80-mile pipeline has been laid from the O.T. Tank, Sergety, near Laikipia to the lower reaches of Kilimanjaro, and this will supply a 2,500-gallon reservoir now being built near the station. From the reservoir, stations are fed by means of pipes, and this will be done from the scheme. A total of 100 miles of pipeline is involved. The project will cost more than £75,000.

Most of the water passes through country administered by the British Government. Many cattle owners and pig pens are being provided with regular supplies. The water is being pumped to the reservoir during the day, and a covering period for them—have an ample supply of water.

Wimbledon lacking in 'punch' and vivid personality SERIOUS, UNSMILING TENNIS

WIMBLEDON, with personality and punch, was appointed. There was plenty of good tennis, but very few of the big names. The "big boys" and girls were absent through their own fault. Personality was missing. The tennis was serious and unsmiling. The crowd was small. The atmosphere was dull. The matches were long and boring. The players were tired and out of sync. The overall impression was one of a lack of excitement and interest.

Hardly one smile.
There were the occasional Americans, but when they were to be expected an exhibition was included. The Americans, with their usual confidence and skill, were the main attraction. However, the overall atmosphere was one of a lack of excitement and interest.

Lacks 'fluff' service.
But Wimbledon is still only 25 years old. It is a young tournament. It is still in the process of developing. It is still a work in progress. It is still a tournament that is still in the process of developing.

Colour and character.
How the crowd would have been disappointed if they had not seen a few more players. The atmosphere was dull. The matches were long and boring. The players were tired and out of sync. The overall impression was one of a lack of excitement and interest.

A worthy champion.
Despite the criticism, the tournament was still a success. It was a tournament that was still in the process of developing. It was a tournament that was still in the process of developing.
