DISORDER IN KENYA'S CAPITAL

Demands of Army mutineers met

New deal for agriculture on the way

STANDARD STAFF REPORTERS

Members of the Tanzañya Rifles, mutinied early yesterday in Mombasa and held the city in a state of confusion and fear for two days. They returned to their barracks in the afternoon after they had presented their demands — which included the removal of their officers and a 150 per cent pay increase — would be met.

It was stated later that Elias Kavona, previously a lieutenant, would be the Commander of the Tanganyika Rifles in place of Brig P. Sholto-Douglas, who had commanded the Army since 1961. Brig Sholto-Douglas was reported to have been ousted when the mutineers attacked and detained European officers.

The officers who were overpowered were flown to Nairobi, some dressed only in singlets and shorts. Three Dakotas followed with their wives and children.

Key points surrounded

Earlier Das on Salama Airport had been closed, having been surrounded by the rebels along with State House. The Post Office, cabinet and other key offices were also closed.

Later last night it was still not clear whether there were any political implications behind the uprising. Nyereve was missing from State House when a delegation of mutineers came to their position and was said to be in a place of safety.

He was said to have been taken to the barracks and was denied by authorities. The only Tanganyika leader seen and heard publicly was the Minister for External Affairs and Defence, Mr. Kamboja.

He was seen in the streets in heavily-armed Jeeps, surrounded by soldiers. He was said to be in a place of safety. He was seen in the streets in heavily-armed Jeeps, surrounded by soldiers. He was said to be in a place of safety.

There was a report that the mutineers had taken over the State House and that they were demanding the removal of the Government. It was also reported that the mutineers had taken over the State House and that they were demanding the removal of the Government.

There was a report that the mutineers had taken over the State House and that they were demanding the removal of the Government. It was also reported that the mutineers had taken over the State House and that they were demanding the removal of the Government.

Britain sends a frigate

It is believed that the British frigate is being sent to Mombasa to assist in the evacuation of British citizens and to provide a show of force.

Took petition

A delegation of the mutineers met with the British High Commissioner to present a petition demanding the removal of the Government and the installation of a military government.

MINISTER SAFE AFTER CAR INCIDENT

A MAN was arrested yesterday by police investigating an incident on Saturday night when the car of the Minister for External Affairs and Defence, Mr. Kamboja, was surrounded during a visit to Mombasa.

Mr. Kamboja was not injured and was taken to his residence in Nairobi. The incident occurred during a visit to Mombasa to inspect the barracks.

The reason for the outbreak is believed to be the removal of the Government and the installation of a military government.

Forces in Kenya at the ready

NEWS of the trouble in Dar es Salaam flashed round Nairobi yesterday morning accompanied by a spate of telephone calls from the capital.

The automatic telephone system continued to operate but callers in most instances failed to receive replies.

The British Government has announced that it is sending a frigate to Mombasa to assist in the evacuation of British citizens.

Kenya to embark on a major agricultural revolution which could result in the country's present critical unemployment situation being turned into a labour shortage in two years.

This week the Minister for Agriculture, Mr. McKean, and the Finance Minister, Mr. Ochieng, will leave Kenya to try to raise on the international money market the many millions of pounds required to finance one of the most ambitious projects undertaken by an African State.

Reverse flow

The amount of money we need to finance our agricultural revolution is estimated at £100,000,000 over the next five years.

Plans for the Mombasa Road to keep up with farming

Plans to tar the Mombasa Road and the road to the Kenya Coastal strip will be completed by the end of the year.

He was referring to a report that a £100,000 scheme to tar a section of the road at Mombasa. The former Nairobi County Council had the remaining 20 miles of the road between Nairobi and Mombasa.

An official of the United Nations Technical Assistance Board, Dr. S. Babcock, was studying the problem and his decision on a toll road would be made until his report later this year.

The spokesman confirmed that work was about to start at Mombasa Road. The Road Authority had agreed to use the former Nairobi County Council's construction and enough money had been provided for the unit to tar about 20 miles of the road between Mombasa Road and Voi.

PREMIER MAY SPEAK

The work was expected to take about six months and would cost the region of £100,000. Divertions would be necessary while the work was going on.

It was possible that the Prime Minister would make a statement on the Government's road policy during the next week.

The policy of concentrating on rural feeder roads had not been entirely abandoned, the spokesman said. The Government gave priority to any road which would be of national importance, which it considered vital.

SCOUTS' CHANGED STATUS

THE Kenya Scouts Association, which became an independent association on December 15, 1965, has become a national organization by the World Scout Conference, bringing the local independent Scout Associations recognized in 1961.

The conference, which opened on January 11, at the same time as the Kenya Scouts Association, and means that Kenya and Uganda, the two English-speaking African countries, are now full members of the World Scout Association.

The conference was held in Nairobi in 1967. It was the World Scout Conference that will be held in the United States in 1970. The conference meets every two years and is usually attended by about 100 delegates and observers.

BACKING FOR PRESIDENT

The Northern Rhodesian African National Congress, Mr. Kaunda, commenting on the election in Northern Rhodesia, said there would be no support of the Government in the election. He said he was sure that the Government would not be able to win the election.

Depot stocks next day's joint

SMITHFIELD has served as London's meat distributor and a colourful part of the capital scene in Nairobi — the K.M.C. Wholesale Meat Depot of Landhouse Road.

The white-washed premises are even expanding, keeping the Smithfield tradition of clean "coolers". While Nairobi sleeps, the white-washed premises are being cleaned in a half-moon of the night. The staff are busy with the next day's family jobs.

The depot is the Kenya Meat Commission's first main depot of the Independence period. It is built on the site of the old National Abattoir and is supposed to be a model for other business units in the country.

Saves drive

In the past, all deliveries have been made direct from the K.M.C. plant at Athi River. And if any city butcher ran out of any particular meat during the day, it would be a 20-mile drive to replenish stocks.

Previously, butchers have had to order their supplies from Athi River a day in advance. Now they can get all

They stand in the city itself on day-long waits.

The staff at the Landhouse Road Depot are eight people. All others are going to bed, they are preparing for a long night in the white-floored hall, hanging in the rafters and waiting for inspection calls and orders to inspect and deliver by dawn.

Around eight o'clock in the evening, the first of a conveyor of big insulated K.M.C. lorries travels through the gates of the Athi River headquarters.

They are loaded up with fresh meat, destined for Nairobi's dining tables within the next few hours. To save time and improve efficiency, the value of beef delivered is marked on the spot at Athi River and printed accordingly.

Through the night, the lorries arrive at the individual boys in the new depot's yard. Butcher, who have undergone a course of special training, look the caravans on to hanging rails in the lorry reception hall. In this, caravans meet meat 1,000,000 of rails which facilitate distribution and delivery. More than 1,000 beef carcasses can be accommodated in the main hall together with 200 boxes of small stock.

The hall itself has an capacity of 2,000 carcasses, but, at present, only 1,000 carcasses are always kept in the hall.

The lorry goes in to the steady accompaniment of the bang of the shaft's centrifugal motor. Arriving with hanging ribs is placed in order.

Behind a stainless steel another part of the building is an office. The staff are busy with their work, their hands and tongues ready to be there in a very quiet manner.

CURRENCY

It is not clear whether the Government will be able to meet its obligations under the new currency scheme, which is expected to be introduced in the next few months. The Government has announced that it will issue a new currency, the Kenyan Shilling, which will replace the East African Shilling. The new currency will be issued in the form of banknotes and coins, and will be valid for use in Kenya and the other East African territories. The Government has also announced that it will maintain a fixed exchange rate between the Kenyan Shilling and the British Pound. This will ensure that the new currency will be stable and reliable.

QUALITY BEEF OUTPUT RAISES PROBLEM

The effect of the substitution of the new value for the old will be a benefit to the consumer for 1962 of £170,000—a very small fraction of the total payment to producers of about £2,500,000. It is worth while going on producing high quality beef with markets as they are at present obviously the operations of the K.M.C. would be more profitable if there was a lower value of high quality beef. The Commission is aware of this and has a quantity of low quality beef it requires extra for cutting, but also for supply to local urban markets. One of the main reasons for that lies in the development of African purchasing power and hence of African demand for beef. The Commission has a period demand in the field which would not obtain a high grading at All Silver. The K.M.C. must operate on an increasing scale, which will extend through the K.M.C. market where purchased for African markets. # RESERVE BREAKS SILENCE

Appeal for calm and end to rumours

... appeal for the people to remain calm. He broke his silence... during the two days of disturbances associated with the Tanganyika Rifles...

His broadcast, originally planned for midday, was twice postponed. Finally, he spoke in Swahili at 8.15 p.m. from State House, Dar es Salaam. The text of his broadcast was as follows: There was some trouble in Dar es Salaam. You have been told already that this trouble finished the same day and I do not propose to talk about it any more.

Panicking condemned

"Such rumours make a little trouble seem much bigger than it really is. Secondly, I want to warn you citizens not to get into a panic and spread false rumours. This is not a sign of a free citizen. A grown man is calm. Many citizens were in fact calm but there were some Europeans, Asians and Africans who got into a panic, spread false rumours and brought much more harm to the country."

2,000 men involved in Army movements

Standard Staff Reporter Kampala. Uganda's border with Tanganyika was sealed yesterday and movement into the country from Tanganyika stopped following the unrest created by the mutiny of the Tanganyika Rifles. Important points and installations in Kampala, Entebbe and Jinja were under police guard. No vehicles or people are allowed through to or from Tanganyika. Lake steamer services have been stopped since ships into Tanganyika waters are not permitted to land. It was reported that 2,000 men were involved in Army movements. The mutiny of the Tanganyika Rifles was reported to have broken out on the night of January 21. The mutiny was reported to have broken out in Dar es Salaam and spread to other parts of the country. The British Government has announced that it will not supply arms to the Tanganyika Government.

SERIOUS PLIGHT OF THE UNEMPLOYED

Unemployment in London is now at a stage at which it is difficult to see how the Government can possibly do more than to provide a few more jobs than it has done in the past.

Unemployment has been rising steadily since the end of the war. It is now at a level which is higher than it has ever been before. The Government has done its best to provide jobs, but it has not been able to do so.

The Government has tried to provide jobs by increasing the number of public works and by providing more training for the unemployed. But it has not been able to do so. The unemployment problem is now a serious one.

Canners may employ 250 more

Over 250 more cannery jobs may be created in the near future. The Government has announced that it will provide more jobs for the unemployed in the cannery industry.

STORE SHARES GO DOWN IN LONDON

There was nothing to help the London Stock Exchange yesterday and conditions were quiet and uncertain at the opening. A feature was the weakness of store shares when chain stores were mentioned in the newspapers.

wives on home tell of 'joke' that turned sour

Wives of British officers serving with 2 Bn. The Tanganyika Force, told they were told that their husbands were to leave Tabors. The officers, with their wives and families, were safe in a Nairobi hotel yesterday evening, transport to Britain, after being flown out from Tabors late on Tuesday by a special East African Airways flight.

There were 11 men, nine women and 14 children in the party. Some of the women, who asked to remain in Tabors, were the East African Standard of the military force.

EVERYTHING LEFT BEHIND

The British officers were rounded up by African troops and locked up in the barracks where two of the wives were reported to have been ill-treated. The women in the party declined to say what form the ill-treatment had taken. One suggested it was just horse-play, but another said: "That wasn't a joke — but the louse said the better."

The officers were locked up in the morning, and at lunch-time an African officer visited them and told them to get ready to leave immediately. They had no time to pack any of their belongings. Everything had to be left behind.

They were taken to the air strip and had to wait for some time before they were taken to the air strip. The wives were packed in the same plane as the officers. They were taken to the air strip and had to wait for some time before they were taken to the air strip.

E.A.C.S.O. men return from U.S. course

NINE officials of the East African Common Service Organisation, back in Nairobi after reviewing the training they had just completed in the United States under the sponsorship of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Their training included a study of management courses at the University of Wisconsin, where they studied financial planning, economic, labor and trade union, taxation, and personnel and human relations.

An E.A.C.S.O. Under-Secretary, Henry Kidera, said "One of the important things we learned from this course is that employers should be open to the idea of employing people from other countries. Their ideas will often be of great value."

The officials agreed that their group was as valuable as the staff of the U.S. Agency for International Development. The Director of the U.S. Agency for International Development, Mr. William C. Wilson, said that the group was as valuable as the staff of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

chiefs to be replaced by 'progressives'

Home Affairs Minister Mr. Odinga, said yesterday that the 422 chiefs in Kenya will be replaced by "progressive" men.

The Minister, speaking at a Press conference in his office, said there was no change of role envisioned for the chiefs, and that the total number of chiefs would remain the same.

He said that the new chiefs would be older and older than that age who are 50 years of age or over, and that they would be people who are able to accommodate themselves in the new administrative structure of Kenya.

The appointments will be "more progressive men who understand and fully appreciate our national aspirations."

VISITS TO REGIONS PLANNED

No selection of the chiefs to be replaced and replacement of them has yet been made, he said.

The Minister said he would visit regional headquarters during the next two weeks to explain Government plans and to begin making replacements. He will be accompanied by his Under-Secretary, Mr. M. K. Mwendwa, and the Under-Secretary for the Eastern District, Mr. J. M. Ombaka.

He said that the selection of the new chiefs will be made on the basis of the ability of the candidates to represent the office competently and to be able to work with the Government in the general support and co-operation which the Government expects in the location concerned.

Public opinion would be taken into account in the selection of the new chiefs, he said.

He said that the Government would be taking into account the views of the people and of the local authorities in the selection of the new chiefs.

REPORTAGE
RECALL

Home Affairs Minister Mr. Odinga, said yesterday that the 422 chiefs in Kenya will be replaced by "progressive" men.

Public opinion would be taken into account in the selection of the new chiefs, he said.

He said that the Government would be taking into account the views of the people and of the local authorities in the selection of the new chiefs.

Asked whether the proposed replacements assured a change in the function and powers of the chiefs, he said that the Government was not making any such assurance.

Kenya's trade unions should seriously consider whether it is in the real interest of the workers to press wage claims to the extent that employers would have to reduce their labour forces, the President of the Federation of Kenya Employers, Sir Colin Campbell, said yesterday.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the F.K.E. in Nairobi, Sir Colin said that while the Government was not making any such assurance, it was not making any such assurance.

The Government would solve the immediate problem of the jobless by the "willingness" of the jobless to accept a wage reduction, the Minister for Labour, Mr. Mwendwa, said yesterday.

Motherhood

Every motherhood can help your beautiful babies and still be the same. Mothers of elementary school children are naturally more intelligent than those who have never reported themselves. At this time most mothers purchase like the boys of earlier days and bread themselves. They combine their intelligence, time and money into their own children's future and by general, growth in a line of all of them to find out under your responsibility.

for Home Affairs, Mr. Odinga, said yesterday that 98 of the 422 chiefs in six regions are to be replaced by "more progressive" men.

The Minister, speaking at a Press conference in his office, said there was no change of role envisioned for the chiefs, and that the total number of chiefs would remain the same.

The chiefs to be replaced are those 50 years of age or older and others below that age who "have demonstrated their attitude and bearing that they are unable to accommodate themselves in the now altered circumstances of Kenya's new Government."

The replacements will be "more progressive men who understand and fully appreciate our national aspirations," Mr. Odinga said.

VISITS TO REGIONS PLANNED

No selection of the chiefs to be replaced and replacements for them has yet been made, he said.

The Minister said he would visit regional headquarters during the next two weeks to explain Government plans and to begin making recommendations. It will be accompanied by his Permanent Secretary, Mr. M. K. Murendu, and his Under-Secretary, Mr. Kiseri.

The selection of the new chiefs will be made on the basis of the progress made by the outgoing chiefs in their various regions. This selection will be made on the basis of the progress made by the outgoing chiefs in their various regions. This selection will be made on the basis of the progress made by the outgoing chiefs in their various regions.

ABOLITION MOVE

Asked whether the proposed replacements signaled a change in the decision of Mr. Odinga, said he did not think so.

SHIFTA LEADER KILLED IN NIGHT ATTACK

A PLATOON of B Company of 5 Kenya Rifles stationed at Eldaya in the Garissa District was attacked yesterday morning between 2.30 and 3.15 a.m. by about 50 shifta led by Mr. H. M. Murendu.

The shifta leader, Mr. H. M. Murendu, was killed in the attack. The shifta are a group of nomads who have been raiding the area for some time.

Unions urged to use moderation in wage claims

KENYA'S trade unions should seriously consider whether it is in the real interest of the workers to press wage claims to the extent that employers would have to reduce their labour force, the President of the Federation of Kenya Employers, Sir Colin Campbell, said yesterday.

N.F.D. poll dates fixed

The Civil Secretary of the North Eastern Region, Mr. T. P. Randle, announced in Garissa yesterday that the National Federation of Kenya Farmers (N.F.K.F.) will hold its annual general meeting on January 27.

MINISTER ON PROBLEM OF JOBLESS

The Government could do much to create jobs, but the problem of unemployment is a complex one, the Minister for Labour, Mr. Murendu, said yesterday.

Festival Mombasa and Kisumu share Aggarwal Cup

SHASHI PATEL hit a burlesque 50 in 20 minutes at the Kisumu Cricket Club on Saturday evening and Central Province yesterday on the last day of the Kisumu cricket festival.

A man who seemed to be heading for a big innings in the first innings was Paul playing for the Kenyan club Uganda Koba on Saturday. He was out in 10 minutes. Yesterday's drawing went on to a second day with the Kisumu team in 24 minutes. The match was drawn in two hours. To reply the Province side could only muster 97, coming from 89 for three.

THE Aggarwal Cup hockey competition

which is held at Nairobi was badly hit by the weekend incidents at Lamet. Four of the teams due to play in the competition - Royal Horse Artillery, Madras Sikh Units, Madras Sikh Units and Madras Sikh Units - were unable to take part which reduced the number of players to 12.

Commercial League games off

AFTER a poor start to a previous weekend, National League suffered a further setback when the whole of this weekend's programme was wiped out mainly by the referee's strike. There were no less than 15 matches on the fixtures list, but not one was played.

The league secretary, Mr. Ken Wall, was hopeful that the matches would be played on the following Saturday. He stated that the referee's strike, which he believed was the cause of the problem, would be over by then. He also stated that the matches would be played on the following Saturday.
