ERA OF CHANGE IN PAKISTAN

TEST OF MEN AND MACHINES

EXPERTS CONSIDER EAST AFRICAN drivers well suited to the test. The weather is important and unpredictable factors. The preceding 14 rallies, no international star has managed to beat the local drivers to become overall winner. Probably it is true to say that, if the weather helps, East African competitors will gain an advantage, while a dry course will favour those who are better at long-hauls created by the weather, there are those who have doubts that local drivers are familiar with the terrain on the course, varying from sea level to 10,000 ft. In the first stages, the drivers will get a good start over 'strangers' who are handicapped to the extent of tropical climates and terrain conditions. The Safari is nothing if not changeable and several factors covering a route of close to 2,000 miles. The start and finishing line have moved from Nairobi City Hall to Mount Park, 200 miles north without altering any time theory. As the Mayor remarked at the recent reception, 'It will be a test of the drivers and the general public who live on the plains'. Aida Reid went so far as to say that this year the test is tremendous. 'You have to drive on the rains, wind at Mount Park and at Mt Kenya Park. It is a test of the drivers and the general public who live on the plains'. Aida Reid went so far as to say that this year the test is tremendous. 'You have to drive on the rains, wind at Mount Park and at Mt Kenya Park. It is a test of the drivers and the general public who live on the plains'.

Variations in the route

Other changes include the inevitable annual variations in the route. This year, the southern leg via Rongai for Mombasa, through then to Kilgoris, Dar es Salaam, Mt Kenya and Mt Kenya. It is this section of the Safari which is the most changeable. A system of sending has been introduced to enable drivers with the best records to get a 'fly' first instead of relying on the luck of the draw. The 92 competitors have been divided into three groups, within which the drivers for places. This first comprises those who have finished in the first 100 on an interim test in the East African rally during the past two years. Those who have finished from fourth to 13th on such rallies can win the second group and the remainder, rather more than half the total, are in the third.

The Safari has acquired a reputation, possibly too high, for being a 'bicycle test' of drivers and machines, for there is scarcely any doubt that this is the 'toughest' rally in the motor world. To finish at all, never mind to get to the end, is a challenge to the skill and endurance of the driver, the mechanical durability of the car, and the efficiency of the service. For this reason, the Safari ought to attract much competition from manufacturers, because any car which can stand up to these conditions obviously enjoys an advantage in competitive selling.

Neither is there any doubt that the Safari breaks records. Indeed, there are only two straight-breaking records—O'Connell's Ford and Diggins' Daimler. Nissan. Nonetheless, a good number of cars have been represented and there are drivers from many different countries, giving an international complexion.

Good luck to all participants in the Safari, particularly to the Press, who will be receiving television and cinema screens throughout the world.

Drivers attend their final Safari briefing

THIRTY-TWO cars, exactly the same entry as last year, are due to roll off the starting ramp at Jamhuri Park, Nairobi, this evening for the Southern Leg of the East African Safari.

Mr. MBOYA HINTS AT WAGE FREEZE

During his work on an important committee of the Minister of Finance, Mr. Mboya has indicated that he would like to see a wage freeze in the public sector. He said that the Government should consider this as a means of reducing inflation and stabilizing the economy. He also mentioned that the Government should consider other measures to reduce the cost of living for the people.

The Southern Leg is 1,638 miles and unless weather conditions alter drastically leading cars should return to the park at about 5.30 a.m. on Saturday morning. The first four cars will be flagged away by the Vice President, Mr. Moi, representing President Kenyatta. At two-minute intervals, the remainder will leave signalled away by a set of traffic lights.

ARMING ON OVERTAKING

Drivers attended a final briefing at Jamhuri Park this evening. The Chairman of the Safari Executive Committee, Mr. Eric Ochieng, pointed out that the introduction of a new system would result in three distinct events. It is as if it seemed likely the course was dry and dusty. It should be really necessary for everybody to take the greatest care if another car was about to overtake. The other driver should give the go-ahead.

The Minister of Education said that the Government was committed to the development of the education system. He mentioned that the Government was planning to increase the number of schools and to improve the quality of education. He also mentioned that the Government was planning to increase the number of teachers and to improve their salaries.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives said that the Government was committed to the development of the economy. LEADERS URGED TO HELP IN AREA PROJECTS

POLITICAL leaders should be fully conversant with the national plans for community development and self-help schemes, the Assistant Minister for Cooperatives and Social Services, Mr. C. M. Mwanjama, said when he opened a Community Development seminar for Nyandarua District at Kitale.

He urged the politicians to give their full support to these schemes and to use their influence to help the people understand the programme and its objectives.

His Ministry would be glad to make it a point of honour to help any community development scheme which would help nation-building.

The Assistant Minister said he did not want to see any conflict between community development and self-help schemes, and people should be taught to work together to build a school that would be the end of welfare, health and other necessities.

There was also no need to build a hospital that would be without proper equipment and personnel. Self-help projects should be developed in order to meet the needs of the community.

He said that the Government would not allow political opponents to use their influence to hinder economic progress.

Great change

Addressing the seminar, Mr. Mwanjama said that the Government was going through a period of great change in the implementation of its development objectives. He appealed to the participants to realize the importance of planning and to support the Government's development plans.

Self-help projects

Mr. Mwanjama said that the Government was encouraging self-help projects and that it would provide technical assistance and financial support for such projects. He urged the participants to take full advantage of these opportunities.

The party was accompanied by several other Kanu officials who will be held at Kitale in the morning. Some officials will be held at Nyandarua District headquarters. Mr. Ole Tuiy will be held at the Nyandarua District Executive Committee.

Better living

Community development was the foundation of democratic socialism, and the anti-social and anti-nationalist activities of the Government were the cause of the present situation, Mr. Mboya said.

Share in sugar duty wanted

Kanua County Council has requested the Government to consider sharing a portion of the sugar duty with the county. Mr. Mboya said that the Government was considering the request.

S. African action on Ovamboland spurned by U.N.

A SPOKESMAN for the United Nations Secretary-General, U Thant, has in New York repudiated South Africa's offer of self-government to Ovamboland in the context of a Government which "has no legal standing in the Southwest Africa."

The official made the comment after it had been received from the Acting South African Delegate, Albertus L. Hattingh, the text of the offer, which is in Shakata by Mr. M. C. Botha, the responsible South African Minister.

Mr. Hattingh made no request for a meeting with U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, and it was considered that it had been deemed to be in the interests of the United Nations that the offer should be made public. Therefore, did not request a meeting with U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, and it was considered that it had been deemed to be in the interests of the United Nations that the offer should be made public.

GOLD CUP HOCKEY TEAMS ARRIVE

MOMBASA CLAIM MATCH

MOMBASA ROVERS did not concede a walkover in their M. R. D'Souza Cup hockey match against Railway Gymkhana in Nairobi at the weekend, the team's liaison officer, Mr. B. K. Sharma, said on Tuesday.

The team has protested to the Kenya Sports Association against the award of a walkover to the Mombasa team on the grounds that it was not a final match and that the Mombasa players would be allowed to play in the semi-finals. Mr. Sharma said that the Mombasa players were allowed to play in the semi-finals and that the Mombasa team would be allowed to play in the semi-finals.

Tanzanian clubs in action today

QUARTER-FINAL matches of the M. R. D'Souza Gold Cup competition, the modified East African Hockey Cup championship, take place tomorrow and tonight. Uganda and Tanzania arrive in Nairobi today to battle out the best teams of this important tournament.

It is the 16th Gold Cup competition and in the past nine years four teams have taken the trophy—Kenya, Nairobi, Kampala G.I. Railway Institute and Khalsa S.C. Dar es Salaam, now playing under the name of Simba XI. One of the four teams to qualify for the semi-finals is expected to come from Simba XI. Khalsa S.C. is expected to be the only team to improve upon its performance last year.

The Tanzanian team, which was the only team to win the Mombasa Gold Cup last year, is expected to produce the best hockey in the tournament. Simba XI is expected to be the only team to improve upon its performance last year.

Uganda coffee ban to stay

PRODUCTION OF WET ROBUSTA TOO HIGH

The Uganda Coffee Marketing Board has extended the restrictions which were imposed last month on exports of wet-processed Robusta coffee which it recently, was allowed to export without restriction.

From 1,000 tons in 1965, the total was expected to be 20,000 tons this year and the year was expected to be 20,000 tons.

Producers of wet-processed Robusta - many of them new companies, formed by African growers - are now wondering through market their exports.

Mr. M. K. Muka, chairman of the Uganda Coffee Marketing Board, explained that it had been necessary to take action because production had increased sharply.

A limit of 25,000 bags (4,411 tons) has now been placed on exports of Robusta coffee and the figure will probably be cut to 20,000 bags (3,582 tons) by September 1967.

No machinery. Producers of wet-processed Robusta - many of them new companies, formed by African growers - are now wondering through market their exports.

Mr. M. K. Muka said the sharp increase in production of wet-processed Robusta had led to a glut in the market and had caused a fall in prices.

He said the board would be looking for a third of Uganda's export coffee to be sold.

In the past, production of this coffee had been restricted because it sold at higher prices than dry-processed Robusta.

He said the board would be looking for a third of Uganda's export coffee to be sold.

SIERRA LEONE FIASCO

COLONELS HAVE SEIZED POWER in yet another African country, Sierra Leone, following a further blow to the cause of democracy on the continent. When the army as an Army commander to ensure the continuance in power of the former Prime Minister, Sir Albert Margai, has taken the more familiar shape of a military coup.

The strange and unexpected panorama acted in on Friday in the past week before the recent election of the principal performers. Sir Albert Margai, his opponent Sir Milton Margai, and the former Prime Minister, Sir Milton Margai, all being regretting that they did not show little more regard for constitutional procedure and the will of the people.

When Sir Milton became independent six years ago, Sir Milton Margai was the first Prime Minister. Sir Albert Margai's brother — led a strong Sierra Leone People's Party in a comfortable majority in the recent election. Sir Milton died in 1964. Sir Albert succeeded to his post. His proposal to appoint a non-party State last year met strong opposition, and even before the recent election it was clear that he and the S.L.P.P. had lost some ground with the public. In January Sir Albert resigned that an officer pledged to expunge him had been defeated by the former President. Sir Milton Margai's death had been a surprise to many people.

Last week's election result showed that his party's loss had been a surprise to many people. It had not been expected. The S.L.P.P. had officially dissolved itself and stood against the 31 Mr. Stevens' opposition. All the 31 Mr. Stevens had to do was to win the S.L.P.P. candidates had stood as independents. To their surprise, they were elected in a landslide.

There is a strong feeling of tribalism, religious difference and racial animosity which has complicated the situation. The opposition party draws its strength from the towns, particularly the capital, and its adherents openly demonstrated their support for Mr. Stevens to have the chance to form a Government. The Governor, Henry Lightfoot Boston, accepted a reliable possibility.

The correct procedure would surely have been to await the remaining result, clarify the position of the Government, and then to have a vote of confidence in the new House. The 90 Elected Members, however, were to have been joined by 12 members of tribal, ethnic, colleges, whose duty it is to support the majority but whose sympathies probably lie with Sir Albert Margai.

Having been sworn in as Premier, Mr. Stevens might have been given the chance to resign a mandate in return from the new M.P. But before he could do so the Army leader declared a state of emergency. The Governor-General acted in appointing the new Premier, and detained Mr. Stevens in State House, from where, however, he was allowed to continue issuing political statements.

The leader, who Mr. Stevens alleged was in league with the Sir Albert Margai, saw to pains to emphasize that he had not staged a coup and insisted that he was merely leading the right wing of the election results were final and the politicians had forced their own.

Riots followed in which several people were killed and curfew had to be imposed to end fighting and looting. Now it seems the politicians may have to wait a long time to resolve the differences. The colonels and police officers who have ousted Brig. Lansana and taken over as a 'National Relief Council' have suspended the Constitution, dissolved all parties and banned political activity.

They have also tried to placate the public by the politicians, as soon as the coup becomes favourable, but the words are beginning to have a hollow ring in Sierra.

INSPIRATION FOR MAIN RACE

"BY NEWMAKET"

THE going is likely to be decidedly firm for today's racing at Nairobi, a great pity as the entries were exceptionally good, but owners and trainers have wisely deferred running their horses until the spring. I only hope we get rain over the weekend, and then fields will be good on Monday.

Only two horses were sent down to start for the first race, a three-year-old maiden named DEW FOR THE MORNAR, the race being for CAROLINA.

But she goes for two-year-old maidens, and may give her chance in the main race.

There are three horses in the race, and the one to watch is TORRELLA. She is beautiful, and was a very good winner in the first race.

Only she has been defeated, and that was by BALLEN to win this without difficulty.

CLOSE FIGHT AS SAFARI HEADS HOME

East African crews poised for honours

The leading car in the 15th East African Safari, reached Nakuru at about 9.55 p.m. last night some things looked certain — an East African crew was going to win. Brilliant driving by Simonian and Huth their Cortina had swept them into the lead — 10 minutes late.

Six points behind came last year's winners Shankland and Rothwell in their Peugeot 404 1j, who had led the rally from the time, Soderstrom and Palm had dropped out. Shankland told an East African Standard reporter in Nakuru he was still hoping to win, but "could not drive as fast as he liked".

He did not explain why but he had gradually lost 100-Kilohertz section which suggested some mechanical trouble. At Kaharet he had four minutes ahead of Simonian.

Price-cutting hitting the new trader

ESTABLISHED Asian traders were selling goods below factory prices to the detriment of Africans who wanted to get into commerce, the general manager of the Kenya National Trading Corporation, Mr. P. K. Kinyanjui, said at the week-end.

He was speaking at the presentation of certificates to traders who had completed a course at the Management Training and Advisory Centre, Nairobi.

Mr. Kinyanjui claimed that African trade "routines" complicated the work of new and established traders who were prepared to lose money by new Africans out of trade.

There were 17 addresses where established Asian traders had set up their offices to discourage African traders from competing with them. It was unfortunate that many local factories gave special "hidden discounts" to these established traders when they refused to extend the same facilities to Africans.

Another problem was for an Asian who had a large stock of goods. He would sell every article at a low price to get the goods off his shelves. Mr. Kinyanjui said there had been cases where established factories charged low prices for goods to get rid of them and ignored the losses by raising the price of the goods.

Mr. Kinyanjui said that because of practices he saw a situation where a new African who had to open a shop had to buy a counter-part from an established trader.

Extensive studies training centres had to be set up without adequate government efforts to help the new traders. Mr. Kinyanjui said that the Government had to provide financial incentives were given to help new African traders. Mr. Kehyatta at Kinangop co-op farm

PRESIDENT Kenyatta yesterday visited Mungu Estate in South Kinangop, which is run on a co-operative basis. Several members of the co-op, Mr. Kenyatta told them that they were not to have such a feeling in their hearts which they could grow cash crops which would make them wealthy. He urged them to work hard. He appealed to them to study the ways of other co-ops and to work together with the Government which was helping them in the development of the estate.

The Government would give them the land which they would be working on. He warned that such lands should be repaid so that others could benefit.

Lacking space on the estate to play his part in its development, the President said that about 100 acres were being developed. The development of the estate should be reported to others for their benefit so that they could benefit from it.

On his arrival, the President visited the Managing Director of the estate, Mr. Kenyatta Njiru, and other officials.

Malawi pact criticised

Having viewed the report of the most hostile critics in Africa and outside the continent, the Government of the United Provinces of South Africa had embarked on a decision to sign a trade agreement with the Malawi Government.

KREMLIN HONOURS A NEW SNUB TO CHINA

THE Kremlin has honoured China by honoring 100 Russians - including two expelled by Peking two weeks ago - for their "courage and resistance" in the line of Red Guard demonstrations. The award ceremony was held in the Kremlin on Saturday.

The Soviet news agency, Tass, said the awarding of these honours "in recognition of the exemplary discipline of their duty, their courage and self-control displayed in difficult conditions of work in China." Red Guards had staged in the last few days of February.

The Kremlin news was seen as a new act of alliance towards the Chinese leaders. The Tass announcement did not say what the honours were given for and how many of them are still in Peking.

At the same time the newspaper Izvestia printed what appeared to be a new warning to Peking not to try to contain the Red Guard movement in an effort to "China against the Soviet Union".

Observers in Salisbury said they were still confident that the statements he had made since Rhodesia's independence in 1965. Mr. Smith said the Rhodesians would have to face the fact that business is going to be done with Rhodesia and that the Rhodesians are going to be a positive force in the business of the country.

SAFARI OF STONES

EARLY THIS MORNING the surviving cars are due back in Nairobi at the end of the fifth East African safari, which has proved more exciting and closer than many had expected, but which has been seriously marred by ugly incidents and accidents.

The safari consisted of the evidence of their shattered wilderness it is clear that deliberate sabotage was in progress. It is clear that deliberate sabotage was in progress. It is clear that deliberate sabotage was in progress.

The Kenya Ministry for Information and Broadcasting, Mr. Oguni, who conducted this year's safari, and added by "co-operation and assistance" from the Government, who through its "Government" was "cooperative and helpful" towards the safari.

It is understood that V.O.K. which comes under Mr. Oguni's Ministry should have been the safari's main base, but on the Northern Line it has been left to the Safari Group, with the exception of the case of the Safari from Kisumu which was in charge of the centre of Nairobi.

The Safari Group has been very helpful in the addition of the necessary equipment for the safari, to the Kenya Ministry.

The safari is a government enterprise, but the safari is a government enterprise, but the safari is a government enterprise.

This system of shipping general cargo in large containers is being planned for the future.

It is possible to envisage a goods direct from factory to warehouse without the traditional intermediate handling of individual packages by dockers, clerks and cargo nets.

Dr. Nyerere drops no-work rule for sacked students

LEADER OF GREEN GUARDS DISMISSED

Dr. Nyerere has given official permission to the private sector to employ any of the 393 students sent down on October 22 last year following a demonstration against compulsory National Service.

According to authoritative government sources in the capital President Nyerere gave his formal blessing last week.

This follows several months of confusion during which some Government departments said students could work in the private sector while others said this was illegal.

However, at the present time, the definition of the private sector is an student employment is concerned is unclear. Normally the private sector would be firms where there is no Government participation but it is understood that Williamson's Dairies Milk, in which the Government has a 50 per cent holding, is to take on 15 students.

ADULTS TO JOIN NATIONAL SERVICE

Dr. Nyerere has announced that adults will be required to join National Service from January 1, 1952.

The Director of National Service, Mr. Martin Lewis, executive director of the Federation of Tanganyika Employers, said that all members were pleased that the matter had been clarified. There had been confusion since the middle of January.

"I am sure several employers and certainly the Government will have taken some steps to ensure that no one has been employed in the private sector since the middle of January," Mr. Lewis said.

NEW FORD FALCON PUT THROUGH EXHAUSTIVE TESTS

ONE of the most grueling test programmes ever conducted on a car in Australia was detailed for the XR Falcon, recently released by the Ford Motor Company of Australia Ltd. The new Falcon is modelled on the popular selling American-styled Mustang, and initial reaction to the car — which has a basic model — has exceeded all expectations.

Ford engineers used years of experience to check for possible mechanical faults. The Falcon XR prototype ran day and night for months. The company's average ground total of more than 100,000 miles was exceeded by up to 50 per cent. The XR test and development programme. They 100,000 were proving ground to test and develop the durability and reliability of the new vehicle was designed for the Mustang 2 1/2 V6 engine.

Forward cross members and driver single drive shaft, and 4 1/2 inch diameter rear axle and the body design. A new front "back door" floor pan (together with the full front suspension) was added to the body.

As well as a bigger braking force, the new Falcon has front disc brakes and rear drum brakes. The front and rear brakes were used in the new three-chamber hydraulic transmission.

HILL BILLY GETS THE VOTE

Paul Berner out to retain lead in championship

THIS going will be very firm and consequently runners will again be light on the second day today at the Easter race meeting at Nairobi. But the main race on the card, the Delaware Gold Vase, over 10 furl. 27 yds., should be a very exciting affair.

The top two weights, Valerius and Amber, will be the main attraction. Valerius, a good second year colt, is the favorite and I think will be the winner. Amber, a very good colt, is the second favorite and I think will be the runner-up.

The other races will be very interesting. The 1000 Guineas, over 10 furl. 27 yds., will be a very close race. The 2000 Guineas, over 10 furl. 27 yds., will be a very close race. The 3000 Guineas, over 10 furl. 27 yds., will be a very close race.

NO SCORE IN GOLD CUP FINAL

Mixed fortunes at coast KATHIWAR VISIT COAST

Exciting game dominated by defences

THE M. R. DSOUSA Gold Cup hockey final at Railway Institute, Nairobi, watched by a capacity crowd of about 400 spectators, ended in a goalless draw after 30 minutes of extra time. Railway Institute, who had their third match in two days, were lucky to hold the powerful Kampala Sikh Union team, who were unfortunately out of the game for 20 minutes of the game. Their only ten players for the match had to resort to treatment for a outside-right, Jasidin, had to receive treatment for a broken nose. He returned to the field but almost immediately fell to the ground. Kampala forwards were ordered behind the fly two of the Railway goal for 'robbing spots'.

The match was played throughout at a cracking pace, but both teams played quite obviously on the defensive with four half-backs, which certainly any constructive move by the forwards had to be easily covered on long through passes. For the first time in the Gold Cup tournament the forwards were kept back during the Easter holidays. The date for replay will be announced later. It cannot take place today because some of the Kampala players had to fly back last night for emergency duties.

The first 20 minutes were dominated by mid-field play, both goalkeepers being tested only once. Kampala then came into the game in the 25th minute. Upari cleverly flicked back to Ajay, who shot wide with a first-time hit, while the goalkeeper out of position. Two minutes from half-time the centre-forward, Maitra, collected a high scoop, came almost on the goal-line, but his 13 yards box shot went begging.

S.A.S.C. MISS CHANCES

SIXTH UNION, Kampala, who played like real champions in disposing of Kikuyu Union, Nairobi, the only weather in the M. R. DSOUSA Gold Cup hockey tournament on Saturday when they just managed to defeat through by a 20-minute interval. S.A.S.C. lost to the goal against S.A.S.C. The match was scored by the goal-keepers. Kampala were unlucky, and in the fifth minute of the match, they were denied a goal by the fifth minute of the match. Maitra, who shot wide with a first-time hit, while the goalkeeper out of position. Two minutes from half-time the centre-forward, Maitra, collected a high scoop, came almost on the goal-line, but his 13 yards box shot went begging.

ROYAL LOOK IMPOSSIBLE TO CATCH

AFTER the third day's play in the Easter golf tournament at Royal Nairobi, R.N.C.C. had now set a pace which the other clubs are virtually impossible to catch. From a position of parity at the start of the tournament, the club has now built up a 36-point lead. In five matches, the leaders have scored 180 points, while the other clubs have managed to score only 144 points. The gap is now 36 points, and it is impossible for any other club to catch them.

Upari cleverly flicked back to Ajay, who shot wide with a first-time hit, while the goalkeeper out of position. Two minutes from half-time the centre-forward, Maitra, collected a high scoop, came almost on the goal-line, but his 13 yards box shot went begging.

The match was played throughout at a cracking pace, but both teams played quite obviously on the defensive with four half-backs, which certainly any constructive move by the forwards had to be easily covered on long through passes. For the first time in the Gold Cup tournament the forwards were kept back during the Easter holidays. The date for replay will be announced later. It cannot take place today because some of the Kampala players had to fly back last night for emergency duties.

The first 20 minutes were dominated by mid-field play, both goalkeepers being tested only once. Kampala then came into the game in the 25th minute. Upari cleverly flicked back to Ajay, who shot wide with a first-time hit, while the goalkeeper out of position. Two minutes from half-time the centre-forward, Maitra, collected a high scoop, came almost on the goal-line, but his 13 yards box shot went begging.

Hat-trick by Oxford in boat race

OXFORD, who were the favorites, won the University Boat Race in the Thames on Saturday. The Oxford team, consisting of nine rowers, defeated the Cambridge team by a time of 19 minutes 40 seconds. This was the first time since 1947 that Oxford had won the race. The Cambridge team was composed of eight rowers and a coxswain.

The match was played throughout at a cracking pace, but both teams played quite obviously on the defensive with four half-backs, which certainly any constructive move by the forwards had to be easily covered on long through passes. DOUBLE FOR SHANKLAND - ROTHWELL

49 cars complete the 'Busty Safari'

BERT SHANKLAND and Chris Rothwell, the Tanzania drivers, raced back to Nairobi yesterday morning for their second consecutive win in the East African Safari. Their car, a Peugeot 404 Injection model, had 59 penalty points.

Shankland and Rothwell were 170 points behind and Armstrong were fifth in their 404 Injection (Cortina GT) were sixth.

The winners had a large slice of 4 1/2 in the closing stages. Simonian and Huth were leading by six points when the leading cars left Nakuru to tackle the Mt. Kenya section and showed every sign of hanging grimly to their slender lead - if not progressing it.

Disaster struck in the form of an impala in the Thompson's Falls area. It leapt out into the road and Simonian, racing along at almost 90 m.p.h. struck the animal and then, as Huth described it, did a bit of 'horrid banking'. It was an expensive experience. It took the drivers 45 minutes to get 170 to the road and running again and they limped back to Nairobi with badly damaged steering knuckle with 172 points.

Even with their main challenge out of the running, Shankland and Rothwell could afford to take no chances in the final section. Fredan and Gerish were motoring magnificently and lost only three minutes between Nakuru and Nairobi compared with the 17 of the winners.

Placed and some had a close shave with the 170 mark. The 170 mark was set by the 404 Injection model, which was driven by the 170 mark. The 170 mark was set by the 404 Injection model, which was driven by the 170 mark.

New change at the top in Freetown

ONLY four days after being appointed to lead the new military Government in Sierra Leone, Lt-Col. Ambrose Gerde was 'dismissed' yesterday - without even reaching Freetown - by his diplomatic post in New York. His successor is another Army officer, Lt-Col. Andrew Juxon-Smith.

The sudden change in leadership was announced shortly before Col. Gerde left by air (from London for Freetown) where he was represented after travelling from New York, where he had been posted since 1964.

Col. Gerde was replaced by Lt-Col. Juxon-Smith, who has been in the country since 1964. He is a former member of the Sierra Leone Army and has served in various capacities.

Firm's move to boost tourism

Standard Staff Reporter, London.

NEILSTAR TOURS of Nairobi, is so open at this time of the year that it is sending out 40 British tourists every week. Mr. Abraham said the expansion was partly prompted by the withdrawal of British troops from Aden in the past three years. He has brought 5,000 tourists from Aden and Bahrain to Kenya. Mr. Abraham agreed that the leading London travel agents, several of whom have handed together to coordinate their East African business, offered formidable competition for a long time. But he considered that competitive prices and the fact that the world is now a much smaller place than it was would mean that local knowledge would be a big advantage.

Watts—the big zero in American race relations

HAVING a black skin in the United States is not necessarily a barrier to a career, especially for those who have education, self-confidence or a pleasing personality.

In Los Angeles, as before, there is a steady increase in the number of Negroes in the white-collar professions. In the past few years, the number of Negroes in the white-collar professions has increased by 100 per cent.

STUART UNDERHILL, managing editor of the Los Angeles Times, who is travelling in the United States, describes in this article the nature of a violent racial conflict in August, 1965.

Los Angeles attracts the Negro population of the United States in large numbers. In 1965, the Negro population of Los Angeles was 400,000. In 1966, it was 450,000.

The arrested members of the Chicago office of the White Citizens' Councils, who were arrested during the rioting in August, 1965, had no intention of attacking Negroes.

POPE ATTACKS AID 'SCANDAL' Cut arms race to help new States he says

The Pope yesterday renewed a call for a world fund for developing nations, taken from the arms expenditure of industrialized nations. In an Encyclical Letter, the Pope said expenditure prompted establishment of the arms race constituted "an intolerable scandal" in the face of men's suffering.

NEW SIERRA LEONE LEADER FLIES IN

The 45-year-old colonel, trained in the United States, was announced on Tuesday as the new commander of the 3,000-man force which took over control of the country.

Col. Juxon is the first of a new generation of officers to rise to the top of the military hierarchy in Sierra Leone.

Col. Juxon was born in the United States and served in the U.S. Army before coming to Sierra Leone in 1954.

He was promoted to colonel in 1965 and was appointed commander of the 3rd Brigade in 1966.

Col. Juxon's appointment was announced by the late President Sir Albert Margeson.

He is expected to remain in Sierra Leone for several months before returning to the United States.

Col. Juxon is a member of the Sierra Leone Army and has served in various capacities during his military career.

He is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and has received several awards for his service.

Col. Juxon is a member of the Sierra Leone Army and has served in various capacities during his military career.

The Encyclical Letter to the world's 555,900 Roman Catholics through the bishops criticized certain aspects of the capitalist system. It was uncertain that the system considered profit the key motive for economic progress.

He attacked the rich for keeping what they did not need, landowners who misused their vast properties and men who drained money from a country and transferred it abroad.

The superfluous wealth of rich countries must be placed at the service of poor nations, he said. The Pope repeated the call he made in Foghaya in 1964, for a world fund taken from arms expenditures to be used to relieve men's suffering.

The Pope of the world and the future of civilization are at stake, he warned. Underlining the urgency of the work to be done, he said: "We must make haste, too many men are suffering."

In his 2000-word letter, the Pope called for the establishment of a world authority capable of acting effectively in juridical and political matters. He also urged the development of public banking systems for mutual support.

The Pope's letter was widely read and discussed in many parts of the world. It was seen as a call to action for the international community.

Dr. Zhivago's run to be extended in Nairobi

WHATEVER the critics may have said both locally and overseas about DR. ZHIVAGO it does not seem to have dented its popularity in Nairobi.

It has supported it so well that it is to have an extended run at the 10th Cinema. This prominent picture of the Russian Revolution has been a success in Nairobi since its arrival in the city last week.

WARNING AGAINST FIRE

FIRE RISKS ARE EVER PRESENT in areas like East Africa, where forests cover thousands of acres of land parched under the scorching sun. During periods of prolonged drought, such as now, the hazards become even more intense.

The public needs to be educated against the dangers of starting fires, as the District Commissioner for Nakuru stated last week. Mr. Daniel Kimani, who is a positive advocate of the responsibility rests with the public not to commit any wanton act which might result in fire and to take immediate action when fire starts and to raise the alarm.

Mr. Kimani had been touring devastated areas of Nakuru where 2,000 acres, property of the K.M.C., were ravaged and grazing for 400 head of cattle destroyed. The state forests, Sela and Nyiro, were destroyed. The trees have been gutted, fences, electric standards and telephone poles have been destroyed.

The Secretary of the Treasuries, a village where the fire engulfed a cut down, three shilling County Council, urged the public of this day saying County Councils should encourage tree planting along roads, roadsides to break against the wildfire and to provide shade for travellers. The cultivation of grasses and other crops should be encouraged. The state forests should be step by step planted with grasses, shrubs and other plants to prevent any further loss.

Money hunters suspected in Aberdoras

Outbreaks occur because careless pedestrians or motorists take smoking cigarettes end on to the grass nearby. The grass is dry and therefore, is dangerous mainly the heat of the sun and, therefore, is dangerous because withered grass becomes highly combustible. Careless burning of debris while clearing land for cultivation is reported to be responsible for the forest fire near Mau Njiru.

In a country where both forest fires are traditional, one of the worst outbreaks in memory has been raging for several days. This blaze was reported out of control despite the mobilisation of 1,000 firefighting control, despite the mobilisation of 1,000 firefighting forces using modern appliances, reinforced by soldiers from National Youth Service, in operations directed from the air.

Between 25,000 and 30,000 acres have been incinerated, and all that is left is a charred strip, and the flames acting as fire break. Only the cultivated strips, which were the Ol Kallio Saltwater settlement scheme, have escaped preparation and care by the Forest Department, many thousands of trees have been razed for wildlife has many animals have been razed. Kenya has estimate how many animals have been razed. Kenya has estimate how many animals have been razed.

People must be on a constant watch and be vigilant about the risks of fire, and this warning applies equally to urban and rural areas. Prevention must be given not to urban and rural areas. Prevention must be given not to urban and rural areas.

If any outbreak threatens, the alarm should be raised by the fire-fighters, the alarm should be raised by the fire-fighters, the alarm should be raised by the fire-fighters.

THE CHINESE WEDGE IN THE WEST

INSCRUTABILITY and the Chinese have long been synonymous, and nowhere has this parallel been more manifestly displayed than behind the walled gardens and grey facades that house the Communist Chinese Embassy in Rome.

It is, however, a secret, a secret that has been kept for so long that it is almost impossible to know what is going on inside. The Chinese Embassy in Rome is a place where the Chinese are not only a mystery but also a source of information. The Chinese Embassy in Rome is a place where the Chinese are not only a mystery but also a source of information.

There were later indications that a part of the espionage and subversion work in Western Europe had been transferred to the Brussels mission. On the other hand, the ambassador accredited in London since July, 1956, has been said to have a close relationship with the Chinese Embassy in Rome.

As far as the West is concerned, the Swiss are the only European country where the Chinese Embassy in Rome is a source of information. The Chinese Embassy in Rome is a source of information. The Chinese Embassy in Rome is a source of information.

The building at No. 10 Kalkbrenner, Bern, which houses the confessional Communist Chinese Embassy in Switzerland, nerve-centre of a complex web of subversive and espionage throughout Western Europe.

Uganda tribe may be from Ancient Egypt

The line of research being pursued by a British professor proves correct it may help to throw light on the development of East Africa's population by showing that a remote tribe in north-eastern Sudan has ancestors in ancient Egypt, and this may lead to new insights into the development of East Africa's population.

The professor, who is a British, has been studying the DNA of the people of the tribe. He has found that the DNA of the people of the tribe is very similar to the DNA of the people of ancient Egypt.

The professor has also found that the people of the tribe have a very high percentage of the same DNA as the people of ancient Egypt. This suggests that the people of the tribe may be descended from the people of ancient Egypt.

Make sure you like it before you buy it. You know how long Volkswagens last.

Like it or not, that's a Volkswagen. With all the beauty of the funny-looking one.

An air-cooled engine that can't boil over or freeze and averages 27 miles per gallon of petrol, depending on how you drive it. Which is pretty good for a car that goes 84 miles per hour.

EUROPEAN SPACE CENTRE BEING BUILT IN FRENCH GUIANA

FRANCE is speeding up construction of a new rocket-launching range in French Guiana, South America, destined to become Europe's Space centre for the international race for telecommunications satellites and conquest of the Moon.

It will replace the present base at Hammaguet, in the Sahara, now being dismantled and returned to Algeria, and is expected to be ready for the launch of the first European telecommunications satellite in 1970.

Most of the launching equipment is already installed. Radio tracking stations will be shipped to French Guiana in the next few months.

The Hammaguet site was one of a number of bases granted to France for five years, under the 1967 Outer Space Agreement which ended the Algerian refusal to be re-occupied by July.

Engineers technicians and support workers with heavy machinery, rocket motors, and other equipment, are working at the site. It has a population of about 4500 people.

The Kourou centre covers an area of about 200 km² and includes a large rectangular area reserved for the launching of rockets and the launching of satellites to the South American market, and also to other parts of the world.

SAIGON WANTS SEAT AT TALKS

U Thant's peace plan accepted in principle

SOUTH Vietnam has accepted in principle U Thant's plan for a ceasefire and an international conference on Vietnam, but has rejected peace talks without South Vietnamese Government representation, a point U Thant is believed to have avoided carefully.

Review of aid work by U.S.

U.S. Vice-President Hubert H. H. Humphrey led a group of 35 American politicians and officials at Embury Air Airport at the start of a visit to Kenya during which they will have discussions with the Government on the light of President Johnson's new policy on Vietnam.

The group, headed by Mr. Humphrey, will spend 11 days in Kenya, then on to South Africa and back to New York. The group includes Sen. Mike Mansfield, Rep. Carl Albert, Sen. Warren E. Hearnes, Rep. Bill Winter, Sen. James Buckley, Rep. Robert Kennedy and Sen. Hubert H. H. Humphrey.

The U.S. is curbing by President Johnson's order on the situation in Vietnam, and on the progress of U.S. aid to South Vietnam.

The U.S. is curbing by President Johnson's order on the situation in Vietnam, and on the progress of U.S. aid to South Vietnam.

Diplomatic observers believe U Thant made no reference to South Vietnamese participation in the peace talks to avoid the thorny question of representation of the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Vietcong guerrillas.

Mr. Sagan has always ruled out Vietcong involvement in any peace talks on the future of South Vietnam, whereas Hanoi consistently refers to the NLF as "the sole representative of the South Vietnamese people."

A South Vietnamese aide returned to U Thant detailed a proposal by Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky that the military commands of the North and South meet in a demilitarised zone to discuss a truce.

Image boost for America

Publication of U Thant's plan looked like serving as an image boost for the United States, observers said in Washington as the Government unveiled the contents of its affirmative response with that from Hanoi.

President Johnson and North Vietnam was apparently not prepared to accept the United Nations Secretary-General's proposals for talks based on a general standpoint of truce, but he declared the search for a settlement would continue.

HIGHEST VIETCONG TOLL

The Vietcong suffered their heaviest casualties in the war last week, being 2,774 men in fighting that ranged throughout South Vietnam, an American military spokesman said in Saigon yesterday.

According to an American report, 418 Vietcong died of battle wounds. Many of the 25 and unknown number, said this month was likely to be the heaviest toll reported by the Americans since early in the week before last when they were involved in a battle with United States forces in the mountainous region of Quang Nam.

Other reports from Saigon said the toll was 2,774, including 1,418 Vietcong and 1,356 South Vietnamese.

'Reluctant to die' tanker blown up

BRITISH fighter bombers smashed at the remains of the tanker Torrey Canyon with napalm bombs and rockets yesterday and sent flames shooting 500ft. into the sky. Now it looks like the end of a coastguard watching from the nearby Scilly Islands said.

Planes made four attacks on the wreckage of the 11,000-ton ship during the day as it lay listing up from Seven Stones Reef, still spitting out oil. After the third attack, three big explosions shook the steep part of the vessel. Smoke billowed out from the ship.

ANTI-APARTHEID pickets demonstrated near the headquarters of the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York during its annual shareholders' meeting in a protest against South Africa.

A few of the demonstrators carried signs saying "apartheid has a friend at Chase Manhattan" and "the bank's own advertising slogan, 'You have a friend at Chase Manhattan', is the only friend that the question of apartheid has in the United States," they said. "None of us at Chase Manhattan holds any brief for the South African Government."

EDUCATION ANSWER TO STOCK THIEVES

COLLECTIVE punishment is not the answer to stock thieving because the Government would be punished as well as the thief. The Attorney-General said in the House of Assembly yesterday.

Members of the Opposition said the Government should not punish the public as a whole for the actions of a few.

MONEY HOLOGS UP MALAWI'S NEW CAPITAL

JOHN ELGON'S DIARY

Spitting cobra on her doorstep

THE sound of frenzied barking from her dog brought Mrs. Janet Freese out on the veranda at her Nairobi home last night only to find a black and white cobra on her doorstep with blood oozing out of its mouth.

Fortunately the dog was in the front of the porch and Mrs. Freese was able to grab the cobra before it could strike.

She called her husband, Mr. Alan Freese, who "happened" to be in the kitchen with her. The cobra was kept in a cage in the kitchen.

Mr. Freese said he was in the kitchen when the cobra was brought to him. He was in the kitchen when the cobra was brought to him. He was in the kitchen when the cobra was brought to him.

RADICAL THINKING

IN HIS POLITICAL LETTER, Pope Paul expressed a new kind of optimism on socialism, at least as close to the type of political thinking embraced by Kenya's professional Party of National Unity.

The letter was addressed to 250,000 Roman Catholics (that figure is approximately given in a news report yesterday) as because of a trying effort, the Pope has been able to reach the hearts of the people who form a very influential, consistently active, and fervent, practical support, to the cause.

While he attacked capitalism as the key motive, competition system, especially profit as the incentive, and the free ownership of the means of production without social obligations, he did not go as far as to suggest the wholesale nationalization of the economy. He directed attention to the reverse dangers of revolutionary extremism.

The temptations he stressed were those of materialism which he urged away towards types of Messianism which he warned would lead to the ruin of the soul. He urged that the resolute agitation towards insurrection, and a drift towards totalitarian ideologies.

What he had to say emphasized the moral duty of the individual, but he stressed the need for the individual to be concerned in his phrase about private initiative, which he does not seem when states lack necessities. The principle is founded on Biblical warnings to the rich who are exhorted to give the poor, and can be extended from individuals to groups of people and to nations.

That, the Pope is using such religious to place his message, is not surprising, given the fact that the superstitious faith of the established and industrial countries could help the new and agricultural countries to develop. No amount of propaganda will be as convincing as the struggle between Communism and democracy as a proof of the advantages of living standards of living and the living experience of rising standards of living.

Kenya schools not maintaining proper standards

INSPECTION reports showed that very few private and harambee schools in the Nairobi area deserved to remain open for another year, although they might have been registered for a long time, the Provincial Education Officer, Nairobi, Mr. H. J. Nyamu, said yesterday.

He was addressing about 60 managers of private and harambee schools at a meeting called by the Ministry of Education to stress that the various directives must be complied with.

Some schools, of course, were doing their best, but others were leading to loss and had already lost sight of national considerations in favour of strenuous monetary standards of the maintenance of minimum.

Kenya's education system had reached a stage where national resources could not adequately meet the demand for post-primary education of various types. This meant that there was a large area of opportunity for exploitation.

EXPLOITATION FACTOR

"This exploitation, as I have indicated, has in the past been prompted in the main by commercial interests," Mr. Nyamu said.

"It is his mode of thinking and practice we must now replace with the new philosophy based on your will to endeavour to provide this national problem. If we have been too much of commercial adventurers in education, we must now change into some organisation imbued with a new spirit to take the national considerations before individual well-being."

He went on to say that it would be no surprise to find that this might be used to justify the retention of a school whether or not it should be closed.

The Ministry secretary stressed that the school should be able to do more than merely provide an education. It should be able to provide a training which would give the students the ability to adjust themselves to the changes which would be necessary in the future.

The Ministry secretary also stressed that the schools should be able to provide a training which would give the students the ability to adjust themselves to the changes which would be necessary in the future.

DAR QUEUES FOR WORK CARDS

Round-up begins at midnight tonight

Standard Staff Reporter
Dar es Salaam

EMPLOYERS' representatives in Dar es Salaam yesterday to obtain identity cards for their workers — people who do not have cards — will be round-up for questioning after midnight tonight.

This is the deadline for the operation under which those without jobs are to be rounded up and repatriated to their home areas to work on the land.

Despite demands for postponement by harassed businessmen, Chairman of Dar es Salaam's Parliamentary Committee, Mr. Songanyile, yesterday confirmed that arrangements to remove the city's unemployed would proceed as arranged. It was also disclosed that by yesterday 84 unemployed had left the capital for farming work in their home areas, under the terms of the Arusha Declaration on socialism and self-reliance.

Questioning of the employment exchange in Titi Street ran into hundreds, and many people who had waited since early morning were still there at 4 p.m.

Complaints of slowness

Employers of their former representatives — who are required under the regulations to collect the cards — went through the slow process of filling in forms and paying for the cards, while at the counter people clamoured on top of one another trying to get service.

During the morning there were complaints that there was only one person dealing with the collection of money, which meant that after completing formalities everyone in the queue had to be dealt with by this man. Later in the day queues were formed by the workers.

Kenya actors star in film with a pertinent moral

A FILM with a moral about neglecting the land which stars only Kenya African cinema, schools and social halls throughout Africa during the next few weeks.

A Tale of Two Shambas is a story of two farmers, one efficient, the other unable to cope with his responsibilities. By ROGER HOWE

Before they can start their new programme, Odeon, April 15 to 16, will be the start of the TV week which will feature the return of Dr. Finlay's Casebook which will continue its programme on Saturday nights from 9.30 to 10.0 p.m. It is expected that the programme will be well received.

Dr. Finlay's Casebook was a fairly well received series on the part of the TV week as the host of the TV week was Paul Taylor who did not take kindly to the return of Dr. Finlay's Casebook. Mr. Moi wishes drivers success

The Vice President of Kenya, Mr. Moi, wishes good luck to the drivers of the 15th East African Safari Rally. He is seen here with the winners of the rally, the Ford team, after the rally in Nairobi.

The Volvo of B. S. Pappas and F. K. Javer rolled down a bank in the Southern Leg and broke all its windows. The drivers were unhurt and after getting a large crowd of spectators, they continued to mangle the vehicle back on the road. They continued to drive, but they did not compete the leg.

Threat to waiting cars spotted just in time

With drivers of 18 nationalities ready to go, police officials saved the 15th East African Safari Rally from possible disaster two hours before Kenya's Vice-President, Mr. Moi, raised the first starter off the ramp.

Which of the Beetles is this one?

There are three models. Different looking. Different prices. Different power units. The lowest priced beetle has single bumper bars, less chrome trimmings than the others and a 1.2 litre engine. The 1300 has a more powerful engine (1.3 litre), more trim and costs a bit more than the 1300S. Then there's the most powerful Beetle of all, The VW 1500 the one that's in the picture. It has a 1.5 litre engine (goes from 0-50 in 12 seconds), disc brakes in the front, an optional racing on the rear axle plus a wider rear wheel spacing.

This is what they cost at the Coast: VW 1300A £675, VW 1300 £735, VW 1500 £780. So don't let the body deceive you. Beneath each humble exterior lies an air-cooled engine. It won't boil over and ruin your paintwork. It's in the back of the car, better protected in mud or sand. It will give you a lot of miles to a gallon of petrol and more miles than most other cars in a lot of VW Beetles are built that way.

EVERY WOMAN DRIVER FINISHED THE COURSE

By ANN MARSHALL

NO all-women teams entered the Safari this year and for the first time for several years there were no women drivers from overseas. But the four who did enter all had the satisfaction of finishing the course.

The first of the four to arrive back in Kampala was Mrs. Louise Cartwright, driving with her husband in a DeSoto, a black coupe 214 cc engine. They were closely followed by Mrs. M. G. George, Nissan 1200 cc, arriving a few days later. Mrs. M. G. George, 411 Thurston, the most experienced of these yearlings, had been driving the DeSoto for the past three years. She had also driven a DeSoto for the past three years. She had also driven a DeSoto for the past three years.

Mrs. Michaelides was making her debut in the Safari. She had been driving a DeSoto for the past three years. She had also driven a DeSoto for the past three years. She had also driven a DeSoto for the past three years.

John Okello's short-lived hour of glory

By ERIC MARDEN

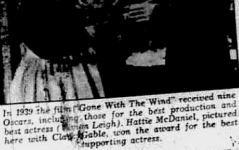

REVOLUTION IN ZANZIBAR, by John Okello (East African Publishers, Nairobi, Kenya, 1966, 10/-)

NEW ZANZIBARI has been produced in a form which is a masterpiece of editing. John Okello, the author, who led the fighting in the revolution which ended centuries of Arab rule in Zanzibar, but was promptly ousted, has since returned in an apparently unimpaired obscurity which has made it difficult for him to be heard.

Okello's book is a masterpiece of editing. It is a narrative of the revolution which was a masterpiece of editing. It is a narrative of the revolution which was a masterpiece of editing. It is a narrative of the revolution which was a masterpiece of editing.

THE ACADEMY AWARDS

By Paul Michard (Geyse, Allen and Duncan, 45/-)

A TEN-INCH statuette made of gold plated over bronze, the Oscar costs less than £35. Yet its value can be worth millions. A low-budget film like On the Beach starring Sidney Poitier, tripped the Oscar statuette.
