HELP FOR SOUTH-EAST ASIA

Spender Plan proposed at Colombo beginning to take shape

NEW DRUGS SUCCESSFUL AGAINST LEPROSY
New sulphur drugs have halted the course of leprosy in half of the patients in the National Leprosarium of the United Kingdom

Table with stock exchange prices, including columns for various stocks and their prices.

THE plan for helping South-East Asia which Mr. Spender, the Australian Minister for External Affairs, first suggested at the Commonwealth conference in Colombo last January is gradually beginning to take shape. Mr. Acheson, the American Secretary of State, gave a strong last week, that the U.S. Government will be sending part of the aid to help themselves and, by so doing, to help the general situation in the area.

THE oil painting "Plum blossom in the peacock" which was presented to the Duchesse of Gloucester by the Mayor, Alderman F. J. O'Connell and Nairobi's City Council and Nairobi's Mayor, Mrs. Lulu Dyer, on March 11.

THE drugs do not cure the disease but they arrest its course and effect a "regression" of leprosy symptoms in 50 per cent of the patients. The results have been very encouraging. Bacteriological tests reveal no active bacilli in the tissues of these patients. It may be possible to arrest the disease very early in its course before serious damage has been done to the body.

A TESTING EASTER FOR LEAGUE SIDES

Manchester U. seem to have easiest task

EASTER is probably the most testing time in the English League for the manager, the players and the spectators. It is a time of comparative inactivity and the promotion and relegation situations are critical.

There is only one day, Tuesday, when all the teams play. The rest of the week is spent in the normal pattern of City and Manchester United, Liverpool and Arsenal, and the other teams. NEW CRISIS OVER BRITISH WAGES

Unions versus Government

ENGINEERS WILL BALLOT ON STRIKE TO BACK DEMANDS

CHALLENGE and counter-challenge brought Britain's industrial labour problems to tension today as the weekend as industry threatened strike action for higher pay and the Labour Party leader appealed for a hold-the-line policy on the Government's anti-inflation wage freeze.

One day after a strike threat from the powerful Confederation of Engineering Unions, the Labour Party chairman, Mr. Clement Attlee, warned trade unionists they could destroy the Labour Government and bring grave consequences on the trade union movement if they abandoned the wage standstill policy.

Ignoring objections made last week by the Minister of Labour, Mr. George Lawson, the engineers have decided to proceed with a strike ballot among their 2,500,000 members in the vital dollar-earning engineering and aircraft industries.

"We have weighed our actions carefully. We realise full well... and the consequences will be..."

Sir—I am a member of the Kenya Club and I have been reading with interest the article on the subject of women in employment.

Poll Tax

To the Editor, "A Standard"
Sir—As one time, before it was abolished, the poll tax was a very important source of revenue for the Government.

AGREEMENT 'WAS JUST IN TIME'

The Indo-Pakistan pact

WE STOPPED AT THE EDGE A PRECIPICE' SAYS NEHRU

NEHRU has stopped ourselves at the edge of a precipice and turned our back on it," declared Mr. Pandit Nehru, Prime Minister of India when he presented the Indo-Pakistan agreement to the Indian Parliament.

Signatures and timing of the agreement, he said, were of secondary importance and added: "The future of the measure of compliance in Pakistan and India, the agreement provides for a settlement of the minorities in East and West Bengal, a demarcation of the international border for each period as may be necessary and the solution in the Cabinets of East and West Bengal and a representative of the minority communities in each, describing the substance of the agreement, Mr. Nehru said that it was a step which was greater even than that. We stopped ourselves at the edge of a precipice and turned our back on it."

Mr. Nehru said that the minorities had complete equality of speech and worship and opportunity to participate in the political life of the country and armed forces. He said that the minorities had the right to elect representatives to the Council of States and to the Council of Ministers.

UNION'S BLOW AT WAGE PEGGING

Problem torments for Sir Stafford Cripps

DELEGATES representing 30,000 shop assistants and distribution workers have struck a blow that seems likely to result finally the wage pegging policy the British Government considers essential to national economic recovery.

The Trades Union Congress supports wage pegging on the basis of a national conference decision in January but the shop assistants at their annual conference in Brighton (Yesterday) on Monday, repudiated the action of their executive council in voting for a pegging policy.

Presenting the executive council's support, T.U.C. leaders were told to get a mandate to pursue a policy of wage restraint.

Defiant

With London's defiance, the majority for the official policy appears to have been secured.

T.U.C. leaders have also been told that the fact that well over half of the 3,000 members and 40,000 voters in a larger union, the official vote, was in favour of the official policy.

The Chairman of the Executive Council (Mr. Cripps), who was present at the meeting, said that he was trying to show the unity of the union and that it was not to be permitted to fail.

Mr. Cripps said that he had no explanation of the vote given by the majority of the union members and has told him that the only explanation was that the lower paid workers must be more militant than the higher paid and industrialists.

NEW THEORY ON SPREAD OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Doctors suspect diphtheria injections

DR. BERTRAM P. McCLOSKEY, a young doctor of the Nyasaland Government, has announced that he will lead a party to the mountains to fight animal marauders.

A British Medical Association announcement that anti-diphtheria and whooping cough injections might have caused infantile paralysis was taken in Melbourne as confirming Mr. McCloskey's research in that field.

Dr. Kevin Brown, anti-Vietnam official, described the disease as "the most serious of all poliomyelitis infections in every country in the world."

Medical authorities in Melbourne reported that in a survey of 641 children, the incidence of poliomyelitis was found to be higher than in previous years.

Of these 30 cases of poliomyelitis, 10 were attributed to the disease. The other 20 were attributed to the disease.

Kenya official's forecast 'INCENTIVE' FOR FARMERS TO USE BETTER METHODS

KENYA'S Director of Agriculture, Mr. Stuart Gillett, told Nairobi farmers yesterday that economic circumstances had made Kenya to undertake "an increased acreage drive" which had been done "without taking cognizance, as we should have done, of the fact that we were land mining."

ATLANTIC TREATY France to suggest an extension

THE French Foreign Minister, M. Robert Schuman, will suggest a political and economic extension of the Atlantic Treaty which he meets the American and British Foreign Ministers in London on May 4.

These powers forecast that the present situation in the world is such that the Atlantic Treaty, which was signed in 1949, should be extended to include the Far East.

Mr. Schuman said that the extension of the Atlantic Treaty would be a "logical and necessary step" in the development of the world economy.

He also mentioned that the extension of the Atlantic Treaty would be a "logical and necessary step" in the development of the world economy.

KENYA P.W.D. PREPARES FOR ROAD EMERGENCIES

Special gangs on duty for quick repairs

WHILE the main plan for the maintenance of Kenya's roads in the future is being brought to fruition, the Kenya P.W.D. are now taking steps to meet contingencies such as washaways in the mountains.

"Washaways are a very big danger," said a P.W.D. spokesman yesterday, "because road drainage is un satisfactory and it is very easy for washaways to occur."

"These gangs will be able to rush to any place where trouble is reported," said the spokesman, "and they will be able to carry out repairs within a few hours of the time of the report."

"The P.W.D. are also taking steps to meet contingencies such as washaways in the mountains," said the spokesman.

THE BALANCE

These times in the last few days... The balance of the account...

Mr. Will Evans, who has long experience as a Kenya farmer...

Adding a plea for down-to-earth field work on grasses and clover...

Finally Mr. Stuart Gillett, the Kenya Director of Agriculture...

Are we, in fact, heading for the day when the farmer will be able to farm on his own...

Recent views and admissions certainly support the view that the future of Kenya's most valuable asset...

Perhaps the time has come to stop talking about the 'balance' and to get on with the job...

It is a matter of fact that the Government has not yet decided on the engineering undertaking which is to be carried out in the Nairobi area...

Lodestars at a bargain price

THE EAST AFRICAN AIRWAYS have just acquired seven Lockheed Lodestar aircraft...

South African Airways suggested the Lodestar was the best aircraft for the Government and had been used in New Guinea...

The Lodestar was built by the Lockheed Aircraft Corporation in the United States...

Finally Mr. Stuart Gillett, the Kenya Director of Agriculture, has refused to accept any dependent on the Government...

London East Africans talk about the early days of Nairobi

"Brasserie" Connoisseurs
THE life of Nairobi at various stages of its notable progress to colonial city status, was reviewed in an interesting and many old East Africans in London this week. The settlements is no doubt also true of many others associated with the territories throughout Great Britain and other parts of the world, but it was left to the Eastland branch of the E.A.W.L. to organize a central demonstration on the eve of the royal civic occasion in the Kenyan capital.

"I'm Serpente Ellis"
The speaker had only a week's experience of refashioning his own life with the aid of many photographs which speakers and audience alike had seen. He had been a member of the British Army, and in the early days of the war, he had been an administrator in the cultural, social, and sporting life of the community. He had been a member of the British Army, and in the early days of the war, he had been an administrator in the cultural, social, and sporting life of the community.

Zebra in the garden
The speaker had only a week's experience with game to relate, and that was in 1930, when he accompanied Admiral Sir Robert Harris, C.B.C., CVO, Squadron, on a trip up-country. Leaving camp armed only with a shotgun, Mr. Harris almost walked on top of three lions which, fortunately, were not hungry. But they followed him for a long time, and he remembered that a "barbet" was on the railing of his Nairobi house, and a zebra in flight over his garden.

President's visit
When President Roosevelt visited the country in 1931, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, who succeeded to the office of Town Clerk, and the first time he remembered about Nairobi was being his arrival. The leading young man in Nairobi was then being his arrival.

At the crossroads
The atmosphere of mid-twentieth century Nairobi was captured for the audience by Mr. Robert Anderson and Miss Jane Hughes, who dealt not only with herds and herds, but also with the social life of the community. The speaker had only a week's experience with game to relate, and that was in 1930, when he accompanied Admiral Sir Robert Harris, C.B.C., CVO, Squadron, on a trip up-country.

Unimposing
"Unimposing about the very look of that man," he remarked in his address to the audience. He had been a member of the British Army, and in the early days of the war, he had been an administrator in the cultural, social, and sporting life of the community.

'Guppies' helping the export drive
The delightful-looking tropical fish with long and graceful flowing tails are among Britain's latest exports to the United States. Known as 'guppies', these little fish are bred in the United Kingdom, and are highly valued for their bright colors and easy care. They are being exported to the United States in large quantities, and are helping to boost the export drive.

Sunflower crops poor for hay SOME 7000 acres have been planted with various crops on the Kongwa Flood Commission at Kongwa this season, but it is expected that 9000 acres will be a failure.

10,000 acres short THE area of 10,000 acres was planted in dry soil. This was not the case in 1949 when 10,000 acres were planted in the same area and the crops were a success.

NORTHERN RHODESIA TO MAKE AFRICAN CENSUS

'Sample' method will be used A 'SAMPLE CENSUS' is to be made of the African population of Northern Rhodesia in June and July this year. The survey will be divided into three parts which will include rural African villages, European farms and the main urban areas of the Territory.

Small Error

"Although this year of survey is known as a 'sample census' the operation will really be more than that."

GADGETS FROM BRITAIN

This hand-made cocktail bar will serve drinks in America. The built-in oven holds run refrigerators for the selection of different "seasons" and built-in sink and drain. A "mixing bar" with built-in refrigerator is surely something new.

This latest in utility furniture made in laminated plywood of alternate layers of French walnut and teakwood is contrasting in color. On the left is the basin in egg stone. Water has given the place to the built-in basin. The latest arrival of the breakfast table.

And it's all done by STEAM!

MAY FOWLER, tells you how useful an ordinary little can be about the house.

Pressing
 Treatment that are "batter" at the knee hinge which is a common fault and is caused by the steam treatment. Old fat bats can be easily removed. With soft fingers many attractive shapes can be created. To stiff pants, slacks, and blouses when they will, and be much easier to handle.

First aid
 To remove a splinter, press the splinter just over the point of a bottle bulb with very hot water. The splinter will draw it out. If the nail is actually in the wall, the splinter facing towards the wall.

Your knitting
 Knitting wool that has been washed, when it is washed, readily if held near steam, and then washed, ready for use again immediately. Water opens up material can be removed by trying a thin piece of

A BASIC WARDROBE IN BLACK AND BROWN

On March 24, we outlined a basic wardrobe for the younger age groups. Here is one for the older professional women whose tall, slender figure is ideally suited to simple and elegant clothes. She should not wear "grey" colours but make the most of her complexion and hair for wearing the unusual, softer colours that are most effective when worn by the right woman.

The case for the FLYING SAUCER

By RICHARD GREENOUGH, from NEW YORK

objects that "go whizz in the air" are common in all over the United States. They are seen here, some being reported with the majority coming from the east and west coast of the States.

There have also, of course, been reports from other parts of the world, from Singapore, Africa, China, the West Indies.

The objects already seen here have ranged from the now almost conventional "saucers" or "saucers" with a pilot, to the "saucers" with a pilot, to the "saucers" with a pilot, to the "saucers" with a pilot.

Sparkling teeth kept sparkling because Kolynos foam cleans IN BETWEEN

It's known to just that danger lies. That's where bacteria multiply and go to work—producing the acids that cause decay.

Soaping, dulls hair—HALO glorifies it!

Yes, "soaping" your hair with even hair-liquid or cream shampoo leads to trouble with dulling soap.
