ON SPENDING WISELY
Britain's welfare State is paid for by the heaviest taxation in the world
By RICHARD DENMAN

A VERY old tradition of Parliament, now handed down to a Standing Order, says it is wrong that private members should propose increases in government expenditure...

AS Budget Day draws near, one of the questions it frequently brings before the House is the question of the Welfare State...

THE trouble is that you cannot spend money as you please. It is not a question of how much you want to spend, but of how much you can afford to spend...

'EAST AFRICAN APPROACH TO SOUTH AFRICA NOT A NEW DEVELOPMENT'

Malan recalls a previous deputation

WHEN Dr. F. Malan, South African Prime Minister, said in the South African Parliament that he was willing to receive a deputation of European settlers from Kenya and Tanganyika on condition that the British Government approved, he was revivifying the Union's role in African affairs.

A prominent feature of Africa today is the fact that the interests between European settlers, particularly in East Africa, and the policy pursued by the governments of the African States, particularly those under the control of France, Britain and Belgium, are becoming increasingly acute. European settlers in Kenya and Tanganyika are becoming more and more conscious of their position. They are making representations to the British Government, particularly to the Prime Minister of Southern Rhodesia, Sir Godfrey Huggins, to demand sympathy and co-operation in their struggle against the "Coloured" Government in the Cape and the "White" settlers in the Union. These settlers were also hostile to South Africa at the time of the war.

Let by Delamere

This was led by a recent conference between the British and the Union of the Interior in the Cape. The British Government has been asked to support the Union's position. The Union's position is that it should be allowed to handle its own affairs. The British Government has been asked to support the Union's position. The Union's position is that it should be allowed to handle its own affairs.

It is responsible for the fact that there was this conflict in Africa between the European settlers and the policies followed by the British and other countries with territory in Africa. The British Government has been asked to support the Union's position. The Union's position is that it should be allowed to handle its own affairs.

LONG RAINS' EFFECT IN EAST AFRICA

Kenya's main roads standing up well CONSERVATION WORKS ARE BEING SEVERELY TESTED

Heavy rain during the last week has caused several landslides on the main roads from Nairobi to Kisumu and yesterday Mr. A. Dalton, General Manager of the East African Railways and Harbours Board said that two new landslides have occurred in the last 48 hours as a result of these conditions.

The landslides have not affected the passenger-motor trains, but it is feared that there will be a great deal of work along the new alignment and this has not yet had time to settle down and consolidate. Repairs are being effected rapidly.

It is the only Kenya road cut off—except by the main north-south road—the road from Gathoni to the main road near Lamu being impassable.

Main roads in South Kenya were closed for a few days—were closed but the main roads through Kenya have stood up so far to the rains.

Without figures it is difficult to say how the rainfall record for the last week in Kenya has been achieved by the fact area as having achieved over 2.5 inches had 7.2 inches for Hill 816, Kiunga, and 8.84 inches for the Mt. Meru area.

Heavy rain—3.51 inches of rain—fell on the hills in the Mt. Meru area (4,000) though the fact has been the worst since 1947 as far as roads are concerned.

The Mt. Meru range was not hit by rain as far as roads are concerned. The Mt. Meru range was not hit by rain as far as roads are concerned.

A recommendation that the Colonial Office should instruct the Kenya Agricultural Service to advise the Government on the need for more grain storage facilities in Kenya was made in a report by the Kenya Agricultural Service.

ANTRYCIDE EXPERIMENTS PROVE DISAPPOINTING

The research work will go on in 1950. The experiments conducted in 1949 to test the effectiveness of antrycide against the tsetse fly have proved disappointing. The results show that the insecticide does not kill the fly as effectively as was hoped.

Deminging up

The deminging up of the roads in the Mt. Meru area is well advanced. The roads are being repaired and the area is being cleared of brush and debris. The work is being done by the Kenya Roads Board.

Drop prospects

The prospects for a drop in the price of coffee are not bright. The price of coffee has been falling for some time, and there is no sign of a recovery. The price of coffee has been falling for some time, and there is no sign of a recovery.

Graders at work

Graders are now at work on the roads in the Mt. Meru area. The graders are being used to level the roads and to remove the debris. The work is being done by the Kenya Roads Board.

Position improving

The position in the Mt. Meru area is improving. The roads are being repaired and the area is being cleared of brush and debris. The work is being done by the Kenya Roads Board.

Heavy rain during the last week has caused several landslides on the new railway alignment from Nairobi to Meru and yesterday Mr. A. The abundance of rain has not affected the passenger-mail trains, but it has had time to settle down and consolidate. Repairs are being effected rapidly and it is only Kenya towns reported cut-off except by air from the outside world, the road from Garsen to the main line at Latta being impassable. Major roads in South Nyanza—where conditions are described as very bad—were closed but the main roads throughout Kenya have stood up so far to the rains.

Significant figures in the record for the first week of the season are the Kilimbo to Meru area at having achieved the record. Emba had 7.97 inches, Fort Hill 9.16, and Embu 8.35.

Nairobi had 9.31 inches, the most for any station in the country (4.03) though the most for the worst area in the world so far as rains are concerned is the Maricopa-Tanzania road.

'GET REAL STORY ACROSS': TRUMAN

Truth 'vital weapon against Communism' PRESIDENT TRUMAN yesterday called on the free nations of the world to join in a campaign of truth to counter Russian propaganda.

In an address to the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington, the President appealed to the Press to help in breaking down the barriers to free communication in the world.

"Unless we get the real story across to the people in other countries we will lose the battle for free world to Russia," he declared.

His proposals President Truman announced that he had directed the Secretary of State, Mr. Dean Acheson, to plan a program of truth to counter Russian propaganda.

The program would include the use of the power of truth in working for peace and the use of government news would be used in the struggle against Communism.

Port threatened with paralysis THE London dock strike spread rapidly yesterday with over 8,000 men idle, threatening the complete paralysis of the port.

Out of 10 vessels in the docks, 10 were closed for work, and 10 were closed for work, and 10 were closed for work.

Leaders of the unofficial dockers' union said they would support the Transport and General Workers' Union's strike of 10,000 men in the docks.

The strike movement is led by a "wildcat" port workers' committee which is fighting the Transport and General Workers' Union's strike of 10,000 men in the docks.

KENYA CANNERIES ARE OUT FOR WORLD MARKETS

From a Correspondent

WHEN His Excellency the Governor of Kenya (Sir Philip Mitchell) opened the new premises of Kenya Canners at Thika last Friday, he gave a warm welcome to the many guests of importance both to agricultural producers and in the export trade of Kenya.

Before the war, the canning industry in America had captured the market of the world by the high quality of its products and the efficiency of its production methods. Twenty-five per cent of the U.S.A. fruit and vegetable production was sold to the United Kingdom alone. There is no doubt that the other countries of the world are now turning to the United States for their supplies of canned goods. It is a large potential market, and the Government must encourage its further expansion. Kenya Canners Limited has been formed with the object of capturing this market, it is encouraging, however, that the present Government should have taken steps to encourage the production of high quality goods, and to ensure that they are competitive in world markets.

JOHN WALKER & SONS LTD., DISTRICT MANAGERS, KAMPALA

SCHEME STARTS

WORK is now in full swing on the biggest electrical development ever undertaken in Kenya, of which the core is the drilling of a tunnel three and a fifth miles in length between the Mathayo and Maragua Rivers—in a stretch of 10,000 feet in the East African highlands.

The "Wall" of the Maragua River, which is the main water supply for the main hydro-scheme, is the first major step in the development of the Maragua River.

It consists of two different sections: a concrete dam and a concrete dam and concrete dam.

The dam built across the Maragua River, about a mile west of the town of Maragua, is 300 feet long and 40 feet high. It will impound a reservoir about 200 feet deep. From the reservoir, a canal some 800 feet long will carry the water to a tunnel 10,000 feet long, which will be bored through solid rock to the Maragua River. The tunnel will be bored with a drop of 25 feet from entrance to exit. The tunnel entrance is at a valve house and runs for half a mile to the Maragua River. It will be bored through a granite rock which is 12,000 feet thick. The tunnel will be bored with a drop of 25 feet from entrance to exit. Ultimately, with drilling parties working from the entrance and exit of the tunnel at the Maragua River, the Maragua River will be harnessed to generate a total of 24,000 kilowatts of power. Big finance

The project cost of "Wall" is estimated at three-quarters of a million pounds. It is being financed by the Government of Kenya and the British Government. The project cost of "Wall" is estimated at three-quarters of a million pounds.
