WAR LESS LIKELY, SAYS PREMIER

Deterrents have increased
MR. CHURCHILL PAYS TRIBUTE TO LABOUR ADMINISTRATION

Prime Minister, Mr. Winston Churchill, said that the danger of war has become more unlikely. Opening a defence budget for the House of Commons, he said: "Looking back over the last few years I cannot say that the danger of a third world war is as great now as it was at the time of the Berlin ultimatum." "I can only say that the deterrence has become more and more likely."

Mr. Churchill began with a tribute to the former Labour Government, saying that the defence step it had taken played a most important role in the United States in the maintenance of high peace of lasting peace was assured.

"We should be wiser, as a Europe of Communism, to go on tread the same path in the immediate future," he added.

Britain's greatest concern in her Services, was slow progress in the Royal Air Force, especially in the supply of the latest type of fighters.

"We must be agreed that there will be a European Army and that Germany must be kept under a permanent state of it. The fact that the German Government is still in a state of uncertainty about the Government do not prevent us from proceeding with our plan for a European Army."

In front line
Mr. Churchill went on to talk of the front line. He said that the Government had taken a most important step in the past few years by introducing a new type of aircraft. He said that the Government was now in a position to meet any challenge that might be thrown up by the Soviet Union.

Mr. Churchill said that the Government was now in a position to meet any challenge that might be thrown up by the Soviet Union. He said that the Government was now in a position to meet any challenge that might be thrown up by the Soviet Union.

Indian electoral representation

The Government has announced plans for Indian electoral representation. The proposal involves the creation of a separate electoral constituency for Indian voters, which would be held in conjunction with the general elections. This move is seen as a step towards greater political participation for the Indian community.

Very narrow

The Government has announced that the proposed Income Tax Bill is very narrow in scope. It focuses primarily on the agricultural sector and does not address other areas of the economy. Critics argue that this limited approach may not be sufficient to achieve the Government's long-term economic goals.

Justified

The Government's decision to exempt agricultural income from taxation for a year is justified. It is a necessary measure to support the agricultural sector, which is the backbone of the economy. The exemption will provide a significant boost to farmers and encourage them to invest in their land.

Plague area cut off: 90 cases

The Government has announced that the plague area has been cut off, with 90 cases reported. The area is now under strict quarantine, and all movement in and out is being closely monitored. The Government is providing medical assistance to those affected and is working to contain the spread of the disease.

500 pints a day

The Government has announced that it is producing 500 pints of milk a day. This is a significant achievement, given the challenges of the local dairy industry. The Government is committed to ensuring a steady supply of fresh milk for the population.

HARVESTING PROBLEMS REDUCE THE GROUNDNUT CROP

The Overseas Food Corporation produced a total of 5,000 tons of groundnuts in the 1953-54 season, five per cent less than the estimated 5,200 tons due to harvesting problems. The Chairman of the Board, Mr. Storer Collier, has said that the fall crop is estimated to be practically entirely due to harvesting difficulties.

There is no doubt that the crop will be smaller than the 1953-54 season. The Corporation's estimate of the 1954-55 crop is 4,500 tons, a decrease of 10 per cent on the 1953-54 crop. The Corporation's estimate of the 1954-55 crop is 4,500 tons, a decrease of 10 per cent on the 1953-54 crop.

STANDARDS OF HOUSING OF KENYA CIVIL SERVANTS

Discussion in Legislature

The Kenya Legislative Council, meeting in Committee of Supply, Mr. W. B. Harvelock (Kisumu) moved a resolution of £120,000 in the proposed vote of £120,000 for rents of offices and houses.

He said that he believed there were a number of civil servants living in houses which were really more extravagant than their actual position warranted. The situation of the undersigned was that of the Government had no right to offer a civil servant the same kind of private arrangement as they would offer to a private citizen.

There was a great deal of discussion on the subject. Mr. Harvelock said that he was not a member of the Government, but he was a member of the Legislature, and he was a member of the D.A.R.A. committee, and he was a member of the Housing Committee. He said that he was a member of the Housing Committee, and he was a member of the D.A.R.A. committee, and he was a member of the Housing Committee.

How the film 'No Vultures' got its name

MR. KENNETH COWIE, Director of Kenya's Royal National Park, has told Nairobi Rotary Club of how the Royal Command film-based largely on the life and activities of Mr. Cowie came to be called 'No Vultures'.

Mr. Cowie said that when the film was made, it was called 'The Story of the Royal Command'. The film was made in 1948 and was shown in Kenya in 1949.

Europe expects Atlantic Union

THE North Atlantic Treaty Organisation conference in London, which is held in the Italian Forum, has provided only a partial view of the world forum for discussion of international organization. There are (1) the Far East in the light of a Korean truce, (2) the level of armaments, (3) the unity of Europe, and (4) the possibility of an Atlantic Union.

The probability that there will be a treaty in Europe is accepted now by most of the European countries. The treaty is expected to be signed in 1952.

Buying and selling

On-the-spot representation is an essential part of successful buying and selling.

For the average business house, however, the independent maintenance of hundreds of agents in various parts of the world, while highly desirable, is an economic impossibility.

It is possible, though, for even the small business house to enjoy this world coverage.

The Mitchell Cotts group of Companies, covering almost every corner of the civilised world, is available to effect prompt purchases and sales, to take advantage of local price fluctuations, and to watch the interests of their clients in a world-wide capacity.

DR. HENAUER'S TRIUMPH IN WESTERN GERMANY

DR. EDGAR ASCHAUER

All his work
 Dr. Edgar Aschauer, a prominent German physician, has been instrumental in the development of a new medical system. His work has been widely recognized and has led to significant advancements in the field of medicine. He has spent years of his life dedicated to research and the improvement of patient care. His contributions have not only benefited his patients but also the medical community as a whole.

His problems
 Dr. Aschauer has faced numerous challenges throughout his career. He has had to overcome financial difficulties, personal setbacks, and the resistance of established medical institutions. Despite these obstacles, he has remained steadfast in his commitment to his work. His determination and perseverance have allowed him to continue his research and bring his ideas to the forefront of medical science.

CORRESPONDENCE

Export Taxes: Hides and Skins
 The Department of Finance has announced that it will be introducing new export taxes on hides and skins. This move is part of a broader strategy to increase government revenue and support the local economy. The taxes will be applied to various types of animal products, including those used in the fashion and leather industries. The government expects these measures to have a positive impact on the national budget.

Asian Representation
 The United Nations has agreed to include more Asian countries in its various committees and bodies. This decision is seen as a significant step towards greater international cooperation and the inclusion of developing nations. It reflects the growing influence of Asia on the world stage and the need for a more balanced and representative global organization. The inclusion of Asian countries will help to address the unique challenges and needs of the region.

No imitations
 The original product is the only one of its kind. It is made from the finest materials and is designed to last. There are no imitations that can match its quality and performance. The product has been tested and proven to be superior to all others in its class. It is a true investment in quality and durability.

First target
 The first target of the new initiative is to improve the lives of the most vulnerable members of society. This includes providing access to basic necessities, such as food, shelter, and healthcare. The goal is to reduce poverty and inequality, and to create a more just and equitable society. The initiative will focus on long-term solutions and sustainable development.

Women of West
 The Women of West organization has announced that it will be launching a new initiative to support women in the workforce. This initiative will provide training, mentorship, and financial assistance to women who are looking to start their own businesses or advance in their careers. The organization is committed to promoting gender equality and empowering women to take control of their own lives. The initiative will be a significant step towards achieving economic independence for women in the region.

VIOLENT FIGHT IN PERSIAN MAJLIS

Premier escapes by side door ARMED GUARDS CLEAR CHAMBER: PUBLIC GALERIES JOIN IN

Prime Minister, Dr. Mohammed Moazzam, escaped through a side door of the Majlis yesterday, protected by a few minutes after violent fighting had broken out in the chamber during a debate on the situation in the north-western provinces. The Premier was seen to be running for his life as he fled through a side door of the building, held at bay by a large force of armed troops and police armed with machine-guns. They forced a milling mass of people in an ugly mood to clear the chamber to make way for the Premier's escape.

AESOP and TUSKER

THE FOX AND THE STORK

A Fox one day invited a Stork for drinks, and thinking to have some pleasantries at the expense of his guest, only provided for the entertainment some shallow dishes in which he poured TUSKER LAGER, a beverage of which they were both very fond. This the Fox could lap up very easily while the poor Stork was unable to gain a mouthful.

The Stork, seeking revenge, asked the Fox to return by visit upon the next day. The Fox accepted, but was humiliated to find that on this occasion, the Stork had provided the TUSKER in narrow-necked vessels, down which he readily thrust his long bill, while the Fox was fain to be content with licking the neck of the jar.

Upon the Fox admitting, withal, that he had but been paid back in his own coin, the two repaired to a local inn and made up their quarrel in copious draughts of TUSKER LAGER, served in the traditional manner.

MINIMUM WAGES FOR AFRICANS

Statement expected soon

NAIROBI CITY COUNCIL MAKES AWARD TO LOWEST-PAID

THE A warding committee, Kenya Wage Advisory Board has reached a decision on whether African minimum wages should be increased. But the decision remains secret until the Government has given its approval to the Government's Commission.

When approval—or otherwise—has been given the decision will be made known.

The Board considered the wage scales which came into effect last year. It increases in the wages of about 100,000 Africans. It is estimated that for a review as soon as possible.

The Nairobi City Council has already decided—in favour of Mr. C. F. Adcock, District Commissioner, as an increase of the allowance of the financial difficulties which many Africans are suffering—to increase the wages of African staff in the city.

The Council at its monthly meeting passed a resolution that the African Staff Advisory Committee—through its sub-committee—should make a recommendation on a suitable increase of 1/2-1 per cent to be granted to African staff as from the next annual award.

The recommendation is one of the measures which the Nairobi Municipal Corporation has taken since last Government servants' wages were raised. It is one of the measures which the Corporation has taken since last Government servants' wages were raised. RELEASE OF PRISONERS IN KOREA

New proposal by Communists

COMMUNIST plenipotentiary delegates in Korea yesterday offered to release information on prisoners of war if the United Nations delegates first agreed to an exchange of all prisoners and other points.

Their offer to permit plenipotentiary delegates to visit prisoners-of-war camps, free and unpaid, for the purpose of exchanging information, was refused to say how many they would release.

Yesterday the Communists made a further proposal. All prisoners to be released, starting with the 100,000 in the hands of the Communists; the exchange to take place in stages, a former exchange agreement to operate under the Communists.

The United Nations accepted the Communists' offer to release information on prisoners of war if the United Nations delegates first agreed to an exchange of all prisoners and other points.

IT HAS BEEN A LONG JOB FOR JET AIRLINER MEN
By BRETT OLIVER

WHAT a long and arduous job it has been for the men who have spent the last few years in the struggle to bring the jet airplane into practical use. They have not only had to contend with the technical difficulties of the jet engine, but also with the financial difficulties of the project. The jet airplane is now being used for military purposes, and it is expected that it will be used for commercial purposes in the near future.

Two plays about wicked wives
 A JOINT substitute for the Nairobi Amateur Dramatic Society, producers of Painted Oak and The Ringing Cedars, tonight presented Wicked Wives in both of these plays, set in different times, the English title—the first most fully described—“The Wicked Wives” comedy—the second a masterpiece of compact play-writing—the wife is an underdeveloped female spitter, from which her worthy husband is a “good” comedy.

BOWLING IN THE TESTS - THEN AND NOW

AN interval of 21 years separates the visit of the first and second English cricket teams to Australia. This is an unusual long interval between one visit and another, so much so that not one member of either the West Indian or Australian teams of 1930 is playing Test Cricket today. The article discusses the changes in bowling styles and the impact of international cricket on the domestic scene.

Trans Nzoia discusses suggestions for new Kenya Constitution

The first of a series of public discussions on the Trans Nzoia Constituency held at Chemsungu Club on Sunday night from Mayor Ruddy McLeod, Chairman of the Trans Nzoia Constituency, and Mr. J. H. M. O'Connell, Secretary of the Kenya National Association, discussed the suggestions of the Commission for Kenya.

The Trans Nzoia Constituency, which is one of the 12 constituencies to be formed in Kenya, will be one of the most complex problems ever faced by the Government.

Kenya Constitution

The great difficulty of the problem of Kenya is that it is a country with a large African population, but with a small European population. It is a country with a large African population, but with a small European population. It is a country with a large African population, but with a small European population.

The Trans Nzoia Constituency, which is one of the 12 constituencies to be formed in Kenya, will be one of the most complex problems ever faced by the Government.

Mayor McLeod stated that the meetings had been arranged to provide the Commission an opportunity of showing that, contrary to the opinion of some of the public, it was not necessary to do away with the constituencies. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

Local government

Dealing with questions on the proposed new local government legislation, Mr. O'Connell stated that the Commission had proposed the creation of a new local government system. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

'In had od'

Mayor McLeod indicated that the Commission had proposed the creation of a new local government system. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

Appeal for funds

At the end of the meeting, Mr. O'Connell stated that the Commission had proposed the creation of a new local government system. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

'Bound to fail'

The Commission suggested that the present system of government should be replaced by a new system of government. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

'Institution'

Do not suppose that the Commission is a simple body. It is a complex body with many interests. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

THE AGONIES OF A MEAT-HUNGRY BRITON AT SMITHFIELD SHOW

UNTIL the day comes when Britain is able to produce enough meat to satisfy the needs of her population, the British public will continue to suffer from the agonies of a meat-hungry Briton at Smithfield Show.

Really new

What a really new in the development of the industry is the introduction of the new machinery. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

Taxation

Explaining why the Commission thought that the present system of taxation was not fair, he stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

The machinery

The Commission has proposed the creation of a new local government system. He stated that the Commission would be asked to consider the possibility of a new Constituency Commission.

And Oh! the difference in London

I HAVE never enjoyed buying clothes—least of all myself. But the time comes when something has to be done and with a sinking heart I contemplate a warty day of pushing through rows upon rows of skirts and coats or whatever garment is the fashion of the moment, and in the process, perhaps, of looking at the faces of the women who are standing in the queue. It is a familiar experience and one which I could have done without. I have never seen the point of it. I have never seen the point of a woman going through and there in the queue, trying to see the back of a brightly shining rail and the iron label, the decision of my eye even I experience a sudden, sudden feeling again. It has happened to me more than I would care to admit. I have done it and that is why I hate doing it and my whole attitude changed and believe it or not, it changed in London.

It can be done!

It was a cold grey day and I had only just arrived from Kenya and I was not used to the weather at all. An overcoat was the first thing I saw in the window of the shop. I had never seen anything like it before. I had never seen anything like it before. I had never seen anything like it before. I had never seen anything like it before. I had never seen anything like it before.

JUST HOW IMPORTANT ARE HUSBANDS?

By Rebekah Wright

WHENEVER you look through a feminine magazine you get the impression that husbands are the most wonderful creatures in the world, to be loved and married before and after marriage. They are it seems the main preoccupation of every woman. Now and then some unfortunate female who thinks otherwise writes to the editors of these papers and condemns them for publishing such implied admissions of the male.

And yet looking back at the friends and acquaintances who seem to be so devoted to their husbands, I find that the majority of them are doing them a great service in the matter of their husbands. It is not as if they are any the wiser when they are in the matter of their husbands. It is not as if they are any the wiser when they are in the matter of their husbands.

I LIKE CATS, BUT...

... writes Nona Bonner

I LIKE CATS, though these days I think I should be called a cat-lover. I like cats because they are so easy to love and so easy to hate.

THE fun began when I was a child. I remember the first time I saw a cat. It was a black and white cat, and it was so beautiful.

The Things They Say...

It is not easy to grow old. A gloriously, to give way to a new generation, and it is just as difficult as growing up. That is why the Greeks used to say, 'I don't like to grow old, but I don't like to grow up either.'

There was the respectable little thing of Manchester who never took himself of a habit of his dinner days when his congregation had round him in the open world, and he would, more times late the pulpit in his church, than he would in his own home.

MAKING A NEW ATLAS

By D. P. Bickmore

Why make a new atlas? The man for the man might have asked. There is a whole world of atlas-makers that could make anything he wanted.

Of course, it is true, that in general, the atlas-makers are not making a new atlas. They are making a new edition of an old atlas. They are making a new edition of an old atlas. They are making a new edition of an old atlas.

But there are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.

There are some who are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas. They are making a new atlas.
