SECRETARY OF STATE ON THE INTERESTS OF FARMERS

Kenya questions and problems were discussed by the House of Commons at Thursday evening during the debate on the Colonial Estimates.

The Secretary of State intimated that two Orders-in-Council relating to the Native Reserves and the Highlands would be ready soon. Although there will be no legal discrimination against Indians in the Highlands the present administrative practice will be maintained.

A well-known Labour Member declared that no future Labour Government would be bound by action taken on the Carter Commission's Report.

Mr. Oswald Greville in the course of the debate expressed the general view that in his opinion it was not in the interests of the Colony's farmer community to have a graduated poll tax instead of an income tax.

Sir Edward Grigg's Appeal

Mr. Grigg's appeal in the House of Commons at Thursday evening during the debate on the Colonial Estimates.

The High Commissioner declared that the result of the high cost of administration in Kenya was due to the fact that it was necessary to employ European staffs.

BRITAIN DENOUNCED AT MONTREUX

"ONE POLICY AT GENEVA, ANOTHER HERE"

Mr. Titulescu

British policy was heartily denounced by Mr. Titulescu when the Dardanelles conference was debating the Soviet Amendment, on the lines of M. Paul Boncour's draft, which would grant Soviet warships the right to leave the Black Sea as belligerents only in connection with the Covenant obligations and regional pacts within the League.

You adopt one policy at Geneva, another here, where you are trying to destroy mutual assistance and regional pacts? M. Titulescu declared.

The Hon. A. G. M. Cadogan, one of the British Delegation, endeavoured to explain the British view point, and M. Titulescu interrupted.

You are jeopardising pacts between Rumania and France and the Balkan countries? he declared.

PREPARING FOR INDIAN TEAM'S VISIT THE GAME OF THE SEASON EASTMAN'S FINE BOWLING

"No Certainty for Anyone?" First Round This Morning LADIES VS MEN MATCH

Although the Kenya tennis championships are still some three weeks away, the governing body of the game are not permitting the grass to grow under their feet, and everything being put into ship-shape order.

The new Centre Court at Nairobi Club is steadily progressing and all will be in readiness for the first of the exhibition matches against the Indian tourists on July 25 and 26.

A plan of the seating arrangements for the West Stand of the new structure is published on this page, and bookings can be effected from Monday onwards at either Messrs. May and Co., or the Sports House, both of Government Road, Nairobi.

This plan affords an excellent idea of the manner in which the seating arrangements are being carried out. Seats, which cost Shs. 20/15, 16/ and the 12/.

At the same time, it should be noted, while the season ticket provided a seat in the West Stand, the user is entitled to withness any of the matches which may be in progress on the other courts, without any additional cost.

It is not absolutely necessary, however, to purchase a season ticket if the party concerned is unlikely to be present every day. If he is only able to be present on any three days he can purchase a day ticket costing Shs. 1/ for either July 30 or July 31, but for the other remaining three days of the championship, August 1, 2 and 3, the charge will be Shs. 2/ each day.

This ticket entitles the purchaser to a seat on the East Stand of the Centre Court, or to any of the other courts, but does not include a reserved seat.

Provided all the reserved seats are not sold a person may purchase one of these in the West Stand for any single day at an additional charge of Shs. 1/ payable at the West Stand.

For the exhibition matches which are to be held on the Centre Court on July 25 and 26, and again on August 9 and 10, seats can be reserved. It will be a case of first come first served. The charge for these exhibition matches will be Shs. 2/0 each day.

It is not absolutely necessary, however, to purchase a season ticket if the party concerned is unlikely to be present every day. If he is only able to be present on any three days he can purchase a day ticket costing Shs. 1/ for either July 30 or July 31, but for the other remaining three days of the championship, August 1, 2 and 3, the charge will be Shs. 2/ each day.

Royal East African Automobile Association

HON. SECRETARY REPORTS ANOTHER GOOD YEAR

More Money Needed for Roads

SUGGESTION FOR GREATER OFFICIAL CONSIDERATION FOR VISITORS

The increasing activities of the Royal East African Automobile Association was evidenced at the annual meeting of the organization on Saturday when the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Galton-Fenzi was able to report further benefits for motorists in East Africa.

One of the most important is an arrangement by which members of the Association can now effect an insurance guarantee in place of a cash deposit required for extra taxes abroad.

East Africa is, however, neglected in one respect. Whereas in other countries motorists from abroad are allowed to use their cars for a holiday without taking out an additional licence, the East African authorities insist on such cars being licensed in East Africa. The Association hopes that this latter restriction will be changed before long.

The Chief Justice of Kenya who presided at the meeting declared the bad condition of the Mochi-Arusha road and said he had no doubt members would do everything possible to support the Hon. Secretary's endeavours to have more money spent on roads.

Additional Benefits

Another important year's work was reported at the annual general meeting of the Royal East African Automobile Association held in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi, on Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Galton-Fenzi, Chief Justice of Kenya, presided.

Hon. Secretary's Report

The Hon. Secretary, Mr. E. T. Galton-Fenzi read the annual report and stated that the Association had done much to advance the interests of motorists in East Africa. He mentioned the various parts of East Africa to which the Association had sent expeditions and the various parts of East Africa to which the Association had sent expeditions.

Motor Statistics

The 1935 Motor Statistics which I will be able to issue in a few days have been received. They show a steady increase in the number of motor cars in East Africa.

English Licences

The very number, however, is not so high as it used to be. This is due to the fact that many of the cars are now being imported from England.

The Belgian Case

At the beginning of last year I issued a brochure illustrating the position of Uganda motorists in connection with the Belgian case.

The Belgian case is a very important one. It involves the rights of motorists from Belgium to travel in East Africa.

DIVIDED VIEWS ON DAIRY BILL

Interesting Debate at Nairobi Meeting

The Milk Interest

By a majority of votes a resolution expressing the view that the Dairy Bill should not be introduced was adopted at the Nairobi meeting of the Kenya Dairy Producers' Association. The meeting was held on Saturday afternoon at the Nairobi Hotel.

The Dairy Bill, which was introduced by the Government, has caused much controversy. The dairy producers are opposed to the bill because it would give the Government control over the dairy industry.

Speaking of the suggestion that the Government should favour the proposal, Major Joyce said that the Government had a very definite objection to this view.

Cost of Organisation

Continuing Major Joyce said that it would be a difficult job for three men to supervise the milk supply for native producers into Nairobi and would require a great deal of organisation and money.

Beneficial to Dairymen

Replying to the debate Captain Logan pointed out that it is seen from the figures in the report that the dairymen are not doing so well as they should.

Countryman Speaks

Mr. J. Stout, speaking as a countryman, opposed the proposal. He pointed out that the dairy industry was not doing so well as it should.

During the debate, the dairymen were very much interested in the proposal. They pointed out that the dairy industry was not doing so well as it should.

EMPIRE FRUIT PRODUCERS

Important London Conference

Increased Output

Lord KENNEDY AND CONFERENCE

London, July 13 (AP).—A conference of Empire fruit producers called here for the purpose of discussing the working of the London Convention, which is intended to secure to the Empire fruit a share in the world market, and of considering the part that fruit should play in the world market.

Home Competition

Mr. William Lamb, representing the Farmers Union, is chairing Lord KENNEDY, as chairman of the conference, and said that agriculture was a vital industry and that a permanent organization was absolutely essential to the welfare of the country. They were, therefore, free to receive a great deal of sympathy and support from the urban population than was warranted by the case. It would be a great disaster if any difficulties arose between the primary producers and the consumer. They had learned a lesson from the Dominion of the matter of grapes, peaches and marketing fruits and were now successfully competing with them in the home market. He emphasized that the increased consumption of fruit was largely due to the excellent quality provided for the public at prices that could afford.

Organization

They were all concerned in supplying a common market. Vigorous organization and mutual agreement in all portions of Empire industry and especially in all branches of primary production, were essential to the efficiency and permanence of any Empire policy on the part of the several Governments in British countries. Fruit, therefore, was received a wide variety of fruits, many of which could not be produced in home and which were in competition with each other. This competition was likely to become more acute as time went on, as scientists were developing new efficient methods of storage and marketing processed fruits and lengthened the season during which fresh fruits were made available.

Increased Consumption

In the production of fruit this country could not be self-supporting throughout the year, and as they wanted the balance to come from the Empire in as far as possible. The new Government was working closely the fruit of the Empire, and they had already given, and which had resulted to the benefit of other Empire countries. They were also watching the effect on other producers who were dependent upon export.

America's Heat Wave Continues

ONLY TEMPORARY RELIEF FROM DROUGHT

"Major Catastrophe" Soon

Reports received on Monday that the American drought and heat wave had come to an end were contradicted by yesterday's reports from Boston's New York correspondent.

There have been some thunderstorms but those afford only slight and temporary relief. The latest continues, and the latest reports put the death toll at 1,432. The damage to crops is estimated at several hundred million dollars.

The numbers of deaths in Michigan alone is 315, including 25 fatalities in the Detroit Metropolitan district, or indirectly due to the heat. The medical authorities everywhere are of the opinion that conditions are fast approaching a major catastrophe.

Colonial Compensation for Germany

WHAT INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN BRITAIN THINK

A Place in Africa

"VITAL TO MAINTENANCE OF WHITE CIVILISATION"

Protectorate July 13.

Mr. O. P. Bow interviewed here on his return from London said that most influential quarters in Britain were agreed that there could be no permanent basis for a peaceful agreement with Germany unless the Germans were given adequate compensation for their former colonies.

By this he meant territorial compensation - not anywhere on the face of the globe but in Africa.

Mr. P. Bow said he had found a lot of support for the view that Germany's co-operation in Africa was vital for the maintenance of white civilisation on the continent.

Civil War Imminent in China?

SOUTH WEST TROOPS HAVE ORDERS TO RESIST

Nanking Ruling Defied

"FRANTIC" MILITARY PREPARATIONS BEING MADE BY CANTON COUNCIL

Nanking, July 15. The threat of civil war is intensifying. The Central Government has announced its determination virtually to abdicate the role in the South-Western territories.

It is generally stated that the Southern troops will support General Yu Hanmou if the Nanking general merely orders his advance southwards to assume the chief military control at the latest of Nanking.

Meanwhile General Cho-chi-tung's forces have taken strongly fortified positions outwardly from Shaikwan and orders to resist it.

Frantic military preparations are being taken in Canton to meet General Yu Hanmou's advance and the South-West Council which refuses to recognise their dissolution by the Central Executive and has decided to form an anti-Chinese allied army of Kwangtung and Kwangsi troops under the command of General Cho-chi-tung.

For COLDS of All the Family

—this modern external treatment is best

Mothers prefer Vicks VapoRub for children's colds, because it avoids the constant "dosing" so disturbing to delicate little stomachs.

Other members of the family, too, prefer Vicks for their own colds, because it is so convenient, and so quick to bring relief. You just rub it on the throat and chest.

This method of treating colds originated with Vicks. Today, the wisest trend of modern medical practice is away from medicines "dosing".

'BUFFALOS' HELP FROM KITALA

Nearing End of Seventh Week

The Children's Seaside Holiday Fund Appeal is still lively enough.

Though not to be published yesterday, the money contained in it is now in the office.

There is more in the offering, 'The East African Standard' bears three or four distinct collections still to come and of course the Royal Club Magazine on July 21 will be a great help.

Meanwhile we are just a little down on the weekly average so far, but still in the seventh week, that is not surprising.

The time is drawing near when a hundred children will be happily looking forward to the lake. Let us all see to it that none is disappointed.

Finger Print Code

PRaised by FOREIGN EXPERTS

The supreme importance of fingerprints in the prevention of crime and the capture and identification of criminals is recognized by police authorities all over the world.

Kenya has a particular interest in the science that has grown up in connection with the classification and identification of fingerprints.

After many years of experience and months of intensive study, a Kenya official, Mr. Graham Wedderburn, Assistant Registrar of Native, has devised a new system of the classification of fingerprints which is attracting favourable attention among the police authorities of many nations.

High praise from the head of the Police Technical Laboratory at Lyons.

Mr. Wedderburn told the 'East African Standard' that he had received the highest praise from the British and French authorities.

The code explained Mr. Wedderburn is a 'finger-print' pattern into ten main classes, each of which classes was again divided into ten sub-classes, and so on.

Although the code was a combination of something like a million million possible variations and classifications, all which could equally be detected by human eyes.

Experts' Comment Dr. Locard, after studying the system, congratulated Mr. Wedderburn on his 'remarkable work.'

Dr. Locard reproduced the paper in full in his journal, 'Revue Internationale de Criminologie' which is the official organ of the International Association of Criminology.

Among others to whom the new system has been submitted are Mr. J. E. Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, U.S.A., who has read it with considerable interest.

Dr. John A. Larson, Assistant Director of the Psychopathic Institute, New York, and Professor of Personal Identification, a Scotland Yard authority, were also of the opinion that the new system was a long and delicate accomplishment.

International Use 'The idea at the back of the code' said Mr. Wedderburn 'is to provide a simple way of identifying fingerprints, and to do so internationally. At present there are a large number of codes, many based on the same principle, but each with its own limitations.'

ROAD TO NORTHERN FRONTIER

Almost impassable by Rain

'VITAL HIGHWAY'

'STANDARD' CORRESPONDENT: There has been heavy rain over most of the North Kenya district recently and, as a consequence, the main road to Isiolo, Meru and Nanyuki became practically impassable once more.

The K.A.R. S.M.A. troops spent the best part of three days on the way between Meru and Nanyuki, and it is feared that it will not be long before the road will be closed again.

The P.W.D. are doing all they can to keep the road open, but it is impossible for them to get it into proper condition to withstand the severe strain put upon it by frequent heavy traffic.

Insular Obligation? The main trunk road to Isiolo happens to be the principal source of the Government's revenue in the district.

'No Bartering of Territories' CONSERVATIVE AND SOCIALIST SPOKESMEN AGREE

'Equality of Opportunity'

'IMPOSSIBLE AND UNDESIRABLE' STATES MR. L. S. AMERY

Conservative and Socialist views on the Colonial question, presented respectively by the Rt. Hon. Mr. L. S. Amery and the Rt. Hon. Arthur Greenwood were recently published in the London 'Evening Standard.'

Mr. Amery does not believe that colonial territories and peoples can be bartered about between one Imperial Power and another.

The Labour policy as equal access to raw materials and the 'Open Door' and a thorough revision of the existing mandates in accordance with the policy, together with a stronger supervision of the Mandates by the League.

Mr. Amery welcomes the Labour comment with regard to 'bartering territories' and remarks 'We can do without the idea of territorial conquest as outside practical politics.'

The world would never be 'dry' by saying 'it is not equality of opportunity' the impossible attempt to return to the status quo ante by deliberate arrangements between countries, but by getting it in, whose resources are 'equality in each other.'

FOR BACKWARD BABIES

BREASTON BREAST-FED CREAM... The composition of Breaston corresponds more or less to that of the breast milk itself, and its administration constitutes a useful method of adding extra fat to baby's diet without causing any digestive disturbance. It contains cod-liver oil amongst other fats blended in its composition... We are informed Breaston Cream is used very extensively now in Clinics and Welfare Centres throughout the U.K. and has given striking results in the case of backward and marasmus babies. The milked form of the cream has been used in East Africa and all the Nurses are directed for protective purposes, as is usual with Cod and Gate packings.

Stomach Sufferer Discharged From Hospital as Incurable

Stomach Sufferer Discharged From Hospital as Incurable... There is no need for stomach sufferers to despair of relief if they have not tried Maclean Brand Stomach Powder. Almost every case has been cured by Maclean Brand "Incurables" who have been cured by Maclean Brand. Read this letter from Mr. J. H.:

"Four years ago I suffered agonies and hospital treatment was useless. I have rolled over in the garden as great waves beat on the pinnacles. I was Nausea each hour for 2 1/2 hours, was later told that I had a Duodenal ulcer. I refused and was discharged from the hospital as incurable. I then started to take Maclean Brand Stomach Powder and Tablets. Soon after all pain receded and the pain and agony had made return. I am now 50 down to a good meal without an anticid, even a cup of tea was distressful to me. Why not make your digestive troubles vanish with the soft water? Maclean Brand Stomach Powder is effective in banishing flatulence, indigestion, heartburn, as the most serious digestive complaints, but make certain that it is the genuine Maclean Brand—the 'signature' is the name of the doctor—ALEX. C. MACLEAN—signature on the bottle and cartoon and you can get wrong. Write to: Howse & McGeorge, Ltd., P.O. Box 88, Nairobi.

"WHISKERS" BLAKE ARRIVES

Famous "All-In" Wrestler

To Stage Two Shows in Nairobi

"I Don't Like It"

A FRANK AND HONEST CONFESSION

(By Corntarian)

To the vast majority of Kenya people "All-in" wrestling is little more than a name; few Kenyans understand the game, and fewer still have seen it. If I had seen it not more than 4 per cent of the Colony's residents had watched an "all-in" wrestling match. I do not think I would be far away from the mark.

Personally, my experience of "All-in" wrestling has been learned from what I have read and the little pieces I have seen of bouts on the screen.

Like the great majority, I expect when I first heard of "Whiskers" Blake's coming to Kenya, to meet a man of the red brassier type, hard faced, broken nose, with two "caldwells" more probably than the American crowd would say. "A real tough guy." One does not expect, on even look for the physical person being in a deep state of limbo. I heard a deep, rich voice coming for the sports editor. In this course a giant of a man with a where you have a high string audience. It was not about the fact it is not long before some of that enthusiasm is induced into one or two of the "whiskers," and then the fun begins. I personally do not like it. (Good wrestling you do not see the dirty side of you read about, and very often see in these contests.)

"Why," I asked, "did a man of your education pick up such a profession? Surely there was some other outlet for your abilities." "Very unfortunate," said the degree in geology, "that surely was the means of opening up an avenue for my abilities."

"Well," he said, "I was employed by a big Canadian mining syndicate in the old days, but when the depression came they naturally let me down. I had a good knowledge of travel; I wanted to see the world, so as an amateur I had gained a fair reputation as a wrestler. It would have been in the American States, but my visa had expired, and probably also represented the country at wrestling and also in the circus, but when the "see" come I was given the chance to train professional wrestler, and the money being good, I took it. After all, a man must live, and if he has the inclination to be a wrestler, why not?"

"I have wrestled against most of the leading lights in the game, and I think I can give a fair degree of success, but mainly I don't like it. However, as the public want to see the money I make permits me to visit and see the world, and because I want to see the world, there are not so many places I have not been to. I have been to "Whiskers" hopes to stage a couple of matches here, but he is only returning to South Africa in the early part of next month, where he runs a physical culture school in Durban.

"I ask before he went off if I had the idea ever went to see any of his fights." "No," he said, "I don't follow my wife to the mat; I read all about it, but she must not go there after all, what the eye don't see the heart don't grieve for, and I prefer that she should not be present."

And so for the time being we parted. I was impressed because I will surely not appreciate him with these long artistic hands and fingers being engaged in such a form of sport. He does not like it, at least the rough stuff, but he likes in money, and so there we are.

Why the Head?

"My reason for being a head is why, in such a game, he should wear a head," "Well," he said, "it is a long time when most of my opponents fall. I have won all the deliberate tactics against an attack. If that point of my opponent, he will not fight for instance." "By what," "You just see, in the first experience of "All-in" sport, I don't think I was going through the rest of the office. Another two or three other lads, and I was satisfied with the rest, whether in my own line or men, not sporting journals."

CHAMPIONSHIP

Rain Curtails Play for Most Part

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.]

Barry vs. Wintour. July 12. While only two of the County "Cricket" which began today were held as a result of rain, most of the players the elements played their part, and play was curtailed.

The All India tourists are at present in the North, and a particularly impressive appearance. A magnificent man on the part of Morshier, who had saved them from a complete defeat. However, late attack showed up quite well, and Lorne, who had lost ten wickets for 4 runs when rain was down for the day.

While the Thika tennis championships are being played over the week-end, the big event will be the meeting between Railway and Royal Air Force in the play off for the Dobbie League. When We Go Calling

Dr. Alwen M. Evans

Should Women Scientists Wear Short Hair?

Dr. Alwen M. Evans, a visitor to the Medical Research Laboratory, Nairobi, from the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, has just returned from her trip to Kisumu where she said it would remain one of her happiest memories of Kenya. She is very enthusiastic about the work of local medical practitioners. "It is well known," she said, "that about five years ago Kisumu, as far as malaria is concerned, was what is called a 'dirty' place, that is, a place where no one could expect to get through a year without at least one attack. But I happened to be there through what would have been the transmission season. I met a great number of people, not one of whom had malaria contracted locally. This is obviously the result of the intensive control measures that are being carried out uninterruptedly at Kisumu."

Excellent Work

Speaking about the same subject, Dr. Evans said that she was most surprised, after seeing such excellent control work, "to find that the people in Kenya are still to some extent suffering from an inferiority complex with regard to their own real malaria research. There is still a tendency to call in an expert from abroad who, after all, cannot bring any special insight into local conditions and who probably knows very little about the local mosquitoes. It is wiser to rely on the local men who have made a study of the subject for years, who have got the situation laid, and who must know a lot more about the customs and habits of the natives and their requirements."

The specialist (she will not be called an "expert") said that she would like to offer a piece of advice to the wives of all the men who are university and to those on small mines and estates. She urges them to get a copy of Dr. R. E. Paterson's extremely practical little work, "A Guide to the Prevention of Malaria in Kenya," which may be obtained free from the Medical Department, Nairobi. It should be read carefully and its simple instructions followed faithfully. Where there is a big problem, the Medical Department will send along an anti-malaria man to work out a solution.

A New Grievance

Dr. Evans is very interested in the entry of women into the because equally up-to-date, or whether it is only women scientists who must be modern with the modern." She has promised to see what can be done about her hair (which she wears long, in two plaits twisted over her ears) but fears that the Kenyan Committee will have to give her up as a bad job. "Yet some of us just taken out of a new poster, and it will have to be ten years before I can change my style of hairdressing!"

Attesting the World

The visiting specialist is going down to the coast in about a month, where she hopes to see various spheres of activity that have hitherto been denied to them. Talking about women's freedom, she said that she personally has a new grievance that has come to light in Kenya. "The women there are very smart and up-to-date, and as soon as I appeared a ladies' outfit was formed to try to do something about my hair!" The chairman was a perfectly charming person, who evidently thinks that even though a woman may be a scientist she must not have an archaic appearance. "It is a wonderful" said Dr. Evans with amusement, "whether learned scientific men are expected to

SHOPPING DAYS

What to do with the Children

A Problem Solved

FOR some time now the East African Women's League has had in mind the opening of a canteen in Nairobi where mothers could leave their small children while they themselves do necessary shopping, etc. There are many women here who are employed in shops and the problem of parking the children for an hour or two is an acute one with them.

A room at the Y.M.C.A. in East Street has been rented out as an experiment a beginning will be made by opening the room for two days a week, Tuesday and Friday, from 9.30 until 12.30. RECOMMENDATIONS

In a small anteroom where two tables of 10 chairs each were laid, eggs and two ounces of butter, a little grating of salt and pepper, a little grating of lemon rind and some of the strained. When well mixed, add to the milk, and then add the butter, and mix well. Put in a small saucepan, and cook for 10 minutes. Strain through a fine sieve, and add a little salt and pepper. This is a very good food for children, and is especially suitable for those who are suffering from indigestion.

Keeping Fit in Kenya

Tap Dancing to Health

Many women here, who find it difficult to keep fit in Kenya if one does not like games, or is in a different locality, if your friend doesn't want to play cards, it is a useless crying if you do not know yourself how to keep the rubbing about every day. There are other things to do. A little investigation, something of the things. There is riding, but that is not within reach of all women. Swimming is an excellent thing, but it is not within reach of all women. I can give you the value very often. . . .

There is one other way of keeping fit, and it has been kept until last because it is the best. All doctors recommend tap dancing as an excellent means of toning up the system and providing a tonic for the system, and one gets a tremendous amount of pleasure out of it. There is no need for taking it. The preliminary training is not beyond the capacity of the average woman. All sorts of apparatus and types in Nairobi are finding in the past few years, to the prejudice of the few who keep fit in the city. It has the advantage that it is not expensive, and that the kit is not complicated, and that it is not necessary to have a lot of apparatus, and that the kit is not complicated, and that it is not necessary to have a lot of apparatus.

POULTRY NOTES

In July, 1914, twenty-two years ago, a few enthusiastic fanciers of poultry met at the Agricultural Society Club and organized the Kenya Poultry Club. At that time, I was called the Hon. Secretary and I think Mr. Sewall of Nairobi was President. I do not know how long the original members are still members except my wife. We were declared in August 1914, and during those years I worked at the club, passed into oblivion, and I believe the Club was re-formed at the Nakuru Show in 1920. I am not too sure of the date, but I remember that there were four members and Mr. Treweek of Mombasa was the Hon. Secretary. This time the Club's really steady going and it has grown to its present size. Now, every year, I look over the past of the Hon. Secretary and find it very interesting. In 1920, Mr. Pirrelli, the Hon. Secretary, poultry member who died at that time. The Club membership had been growing steadily during those years and for some time I had been advocating a division of the Club into two sections, with separate shows and meetings. As distances were so great, reasonable meetings were practically an impossibility, and therefore the idea of the administration of the Club was more or less in the hands of one person. At the next General Meeting, several districts were formed which gradually increased in number. The Club continues to-day in that form, except that a Central Executive Committee has been added to the permanent staff for the final decision on matters affecting the whole Club.

The Egg Circle

In 1920, when Mr. Chesbury was Secretary for the Nairobi District, it was considered necessary to organize some organized method of marketing eggs. The idea was to have a regular market and it was evident that the time was approaching when, without organization, the eggs of the Nairobi District would be sold at a disadvantage. The K.P.A. have done a great deal of good work in finding markets for the ever-increasing supply of eggs.

Two Series Drawn back

There has been much hard work entailed in the establishments of the Egg Circle on a number of farms and the agents have had two series of week-end visits to various farms to see the work of the Circle in the hands of the farmers.

Notes on Poultry

In my last article I gave the best recipe for tape-worm I have ever tried and it has worked on anything else but I recommend it being followed up with a second dose after the interval of ten days, and the passed few more immatures were. The difference in the food and how best during this last week is wonderful.

Notes on Poultry

I had been meeting at Nakuru with Mr. Spencer Treweek on his farm for the purpose of the advent of this wonderful later if it is not too late to send these reports and the redoubt. The trouble is an inspection from

Notes on Poultry

My intention has been "thrown in my face" by Mr. F. Jones of Nairobi who has kindly written a note of my article in Kenya. "Note—I've just said that 'Cave' (I'm not a cave man) is a good publisher at the present time at Olympia. Criticism must have a heavy side but a very perfect opinion."

There is nothing high or grand about Sir Malcolm's life. In fact, it is an unimpressive story, that he is an unimpressive man. He has been in the world for 67 years and he has had a long and varied experience.

From Pub to Pub

One day, he is sitting in a public house in London. He is looking at a picture of a man in a military uniform. He is thinking of the man's life and how it has been a long and varied one.

The Spectral Printer

But Sir Malcolm still has his doubts. He is the president of the British Association of the Printing Industry. He is thinking of the man's life and how it has been a long and varied one.

In India and Africa

All this time, Sir Malcolm has been in India and Africa. He has been in the world for 67 years and he has had a long and varied experience.

Friend of Ronald Ross

That is all he would say about his greatest work in finding a cure for malaria in the British East Africa. He has been in the world for 67 years and he has had a long and varied experience.

His Own Story

So, Sir Malcolm has his own story to tell. He is the president of the British Association of the Printing Industry. He is thinking of the man's life and how it has been a long and varied one.

War in the Air

Material and Morale will Decide the Issue

Part II:

Although a ruthless enemy equipped with plenty of potential, and service Bombers are trained, the most serious danger is the possibility of a surprise attack. It is not necessary here to discuss the matter of the possible surprise attack, but to point out that the surprise attack is a possibility which must be considered in the planning of our defence.

As the bill is currently framed for the League of Nations, and the League of Nations is not yet in existence, the League of Nations is not yet in existence. The League of Nations is not yet in existence. The League of Nations is not yet in existence.

Electric and Potential Bombers
Modern has been made of electric and potential bombers. A service bomber is a fighting machine carrying guns, a trained crew and landing gear, in addition to its load capacity. There is, however, another type of bomber which may be called a "potential" bomber. This is a machine capable of carrying an excess disposable load over and above the necessary crew and fuel, required to carry it to and from the bombing area. It is a machine which is used for the purpose of training and increased knowledge of our own forces has made it worth while to invest in a valuable airplane and crew with only a minimum of equipment.

Relying on Commercial Aircraft
Having regard to the public eye, which everyone is looking on, the construction of a bomber is a task which is not only a technical one, but also a financial one. It is a task which is not only a technical one, but also a financial one.

Great Britain's Five-Plus Standard
On the other hand, our attack problems are more difficult and more complicated. We are not only a great power, but also a great power. We are not only a great power, but also a great power.

The Modern Englishman Does Not Want to Fight
The psychological disadvantage of Great Britain is equally noticeable. The modern Englishman does not want to fight. He does not want to fight. He does not want to fight.

Traditional Excellence
For nearly fifty years discriminating smokers have chosen State Express Five-Five Cigarettes. They have an age-long tradition for quality perfection, and discerning tastes discover in them a flavour of unrivalled excellence.

Aerobatics Extraordinary
This magnificent photograph, taken from an aeroplane flying nearby, shows three Glanville light-gauge fighters banking starting a loop during the Royal Air Force Display. They are joined together by cables, which can be clearly seen in the picture, and go through the whole range of formation aerobatics without breaking the code.

Too Many Cinemas
The suggestion that there are too many cinemas in Britain was made by Mr. K. A. Nigam, of London, speaking at the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association summer conference at Eastbourne. He advocated the appointment of a Government tribunal to consider the problem. Many reports were either acquiescing that the cinema industry was a success, or that it was a failure.

Bob Roy
The first big scale attempt by a British company to "put Scotland on the banking screen" will be made next month with the filming of Bob Roy. Almost all the action will be played on a natural exterior set.

Explosion's Civil Aircraft are Not Suitable for War
The modern British day bomber is probably the most powerful machine of its type in the world. With only a fighting load (such as it would have in its returning from bombing enterprise) it is probably the equal of even the British day bomber fighter, which is also a day bomber.

The Old Laws of Strategy
War strategy and tactics are very ancient, and it is in fact in the American have added anything to the subject. The general of flying machines, but complicated the problem, but not the old laws of strategy.

A Reply to Every Move
It may seem at the moment that the odds are so great in favour of the attack, that any defence is bound to be ineffective. However, the material and morale will decide the issue.

A Study in Mystery
An interesting American picture is shown in London this week in "Fury," which is a story in the style of the old western. The story, by Norman Krasna sets out to tell of a man who is a man of mystery. He is a man of mystery. He is a man of mystery.

Soft Lights and Sweet Music
James Cagney appears in "Call Me Crazy," with Pat O'Brien, Stuart Erwin and a new girl, Jane Travis. It is a sentimental air drama but very good entertainment.

"Use More Oil"
The stream of such publicity campaigns as these whose slogan are "Eat more Fruit" and "Drink more Milk" appears to be a daily happening. It is a daily happening. It is a daily happening.

More New Ships for the Union-Castle

It would be of no particular advantage to the Empire to quote the numerous instances of modern ingenuity and scientific skill displayed in the design and construction of these ships. It is sufficient to state that the demands of both passengers and cargo appear to have been most adequately provided for.

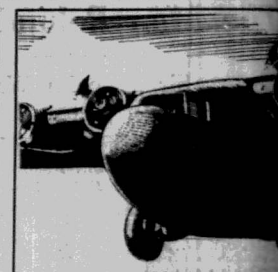

The passenger accommodation, of an extremely high standard, is arranged for 250 first class passengers and 150 second class passengers. The cabins are fitted with hot and cold water and ventilation on the Dinabank Louvre system which can be regulated by the individual passenger.

The decoration and the general appearance of the ship is entirely in line with the public rooms, which are high standard, which the world has learnt to expect of this famous line.

A special feature is the installation of electric clock watches, which keep correct time, while a very complete system of ventilation ensures that every part of the vessel is kept cool and fresh in the hottest weather.

It is understood that the decision to expedite the new ship to South Africa, and the consequent loss of the company's main business will be compensated by the Dinabank Castle and the Dun- castle Castle, "giving a hand" to the South African service, and so on for some time.

SOUTH WEST TROOPS HAVE ORDERS TO RESIST

Nanking Ruling Defied

"FRANTIC" MILITARY PREPARATIONS BEING MADE BY CANTON COUNCIL.

Nanking, July 15. The threat of civil war is intensifying. The Central Government has announced its determination virtually to subordinate the recalcitrant South-Western forces.

Meanwhile General Chen-chi-Tang's forces have taken up strongly fortified positions southwards from Shikwan with orders to resist if attacked.

Francic military precautions are being taken in Canton to stem General Yu Hanmou's advance and the South-West Council which refuses to recognise their dissolution by the Central Executive and has decided to form an anti-Japanese allied army of Kwangtung and Kwangsi troops under the command of General Chen-chi-Tang.

The Conservative and Socialist spokesmen have agreed that the bartering of territories is impossible and undesirable, and that the only way to solve the problem is by the application of the principle of equality of opportunity.
