ALTRINCHAM BY-ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

Sir Edward Gregg on the Indian Issue.

SERIES OF QUESTIONS. A Verbal Duel with Mr. Randolph Churchill.

THE ALTRINCHAM BY-ELECTION UPON THE PRESENT has not been very calm sailing for Sir Edward Gregg. Two or three days ago Sir Edward Churchill, the son of Mr. Winston Churchill, had been asked by the Independent Conservatives to join their ranks in Lancashire to oppose Mr. Hession's proposed policy in India.

SIX QUESTIONS. Accordingly a deputa-tion of the committee met Sir Edward and put the following questions to him: 1. Are you in favour of devolving responsibility at the centre on the counties suggested in the White Paper? 2. Are you in favour of the Government taking over the power of the Indian Government in regard to the disarming of the down in the White Paper? 3. Are you in favour of the Government taking over the power of the Indian Government in regard to the disarming of the down in the White Paper?

"This Chamber desires to put on record its sincere appreciation of the decision taken by the Secretary of State for the Colonies regarding Income Tax. This Chamber feels sure that this decision will have a highly beneficial effect on trade and commerce of the Colony generally."

Labour Returns for the month of May, 1933 are now available and the outcome of these may result in prosecution. Matters did not everything to get Sir Edward Gregg on the Indian issue. Sir Edward Churchill's withdrawal from the campaign in Lancashire is a matter of regret to the Chamber of Commerce.

Next Month's Competition. How has been suggested that a useful and interesting competition would be to give a prize for the best made tray for collecting for the S.P.C.A. There are lots of ways in which such trays could be made. You could get a book-keeper in good condition, line it with coloured paper, strengthen the sides, and add long strings, tapes or ribbons to go round the book-keeper, and you have a tray.

NOTES FOR THE MOTORIST. TAKING PROPER CARE OF THE CAR. A TIP FOR OWNERS.

Just how many motorists ever think of watching carefully the pressure of their tyres? They are few and far between. As long as the tube retains sufficient air, and does not get so low that the rim is touching the ground, they are content to carry on. Yet correct tyre pressure is an important factor in ensuring long life for the car. Tyre pressure should be tested. You must take a week. It may cause a little inconvenience at times, but the trouble provides its due reward in course of time.

LITTLE POINTS WHICH INCREASE THE MARKET VALUE.

Importance of Tyre Pressure.

MAKE SURE THAT THEY ARE ALWAYS KEPT TO POINT.

Very old and much damaged, but it is up again without any more cracks. What is the more annoying? When a plug is needed up the road it will be found to be covered with a black, sooty deposit. This is a sign that the engine is not firing on the rich side. Another job can easily be fitted, but with beneficial results will result. When the plugs are checked up, a deposit of oil on the internal surface of the cylinder will be found. This is a sign that the engine is not firing on the rich side. Water-proofing the Hood.

A CHEAP REMEDY.

With the constant wash, though rain always the most of rain, the hood of the car is a problem at times. There are little places where the water leaks through and causes damage to driver and passenger alike. In the case of a fabric hood, there is a simple method to be adopted to repair the water proof qualities. Purchase a bottle of lead lined oil and a small brush and paint the top of the hood with this. Allow it to dry, and it will be found that the hood is now water proof.

Practical Hints . . . . .

Telephones and Loudspeakers.

The principle on which the telephone or loudspeaker wireless set work is that the varying low frequency currents in the output of the transmitter pass through the windings of a small electro-magnet which in turn causes the varying current in the small diaphragm causing it to set up sound waves. The wireless set is of the phone type and the amount of wire wound on the electro-magnet has to be small, very few turns are used and there is for mechanical reasons a limit to the frequency which can be used. Also as the wire gets finer so does the D.C. resistance of the phone or speaker. For practical purposes 1000 ohms represents the best compromise between resistance and sensitivity although 8000 ohms may be used where extreme sensitivity is required.

Accepted Fashions for the Season.

Many fashion writers have indulged recently in a good deal of mounding profane repetition...

Two ton suits which illustrate the correct daytime skirt length, the neat waistline, and the short shoulder line.

Trim Waist. There is no dramatic change in the waistline.

Some evening frocks look all alike. It is the difference in the details that makes a frock unique.

As to Colors. You can scarcely call black and white colors, but they must be mentioned because they are great favorites this season.

Long "dresses" should give a neat edge to the neckline and be made of a light material.

Triumph of Organdy. Organdy has come back with a vengeance.

Short-sleeved frocks too often reveal elbows that are discolored and wrinkled.

Wrinkled and DISCOLORED ELBOWS.

TROUT FISHING IN KENYA.

The Problem of Conservancy.

TWO MAIN FACTORS. (Special to "E.A. Standard" by Major P. G. A. McMaster.) The trout fishing in Kenya is classified under two heads: those stocked with Rainbow...

Deterioration in condition and size in the brown trout has been less rapid.

Chief Factors. The problem of successful brown trout conservancy follows two factors: (1) How to keep the stock fit and numerous.

Hard Fishing. The lower waters are all so poor or so little got at.

Household Hints. Put one pound of white into a few muslin bags.

Wrinkled and DISCOLORED ELBOWS.

BRITISH CHESS FEDERATION

At a recent meeting of the Executive, held in London, it was announced that Burma and Belgium had entered for the International Chess Tournament in addition to the 16 countries whose entries have already been published. Entries from Czechoslovakia show that the team to represent that country will be selected from Herron Fajr Opocensky, Pukery Rejzr and Drs. Stalicka and Trepl. The British team has been completed by the inclusion of Mr. C. H. O'D. Alexander, Subinetski and Tarkawer. It must probably be in the Polish team while the latest news from America indicates that Messrs Horowitz and Dako will be two of Messrs. Marshall and Kaselman's colleagues in the U.S.A. team. There is also a good prospect of Alekhin leading the French team.

There are seven entries for the Women's World Championship: Mrs. Mitchell and Miss Price from the U.S.C.F. Miss Gill christ from Scotland, Miss Vera Menikoff from Czech-Slovakia, two from France and one from Australia, the names of the last three not yet having been advised. The Championship Competition will be a double round Tournament.

The entries for the General Congress were carefully considered and the following lists give the selected competitors in the principal events:— Premier. K. H. Buncroft—Malay Straits. A. H. Himmelfarb—London. E. K. Calman—Malay Straits. A. G. Cooke—London. C. A. S. Gussard—London. Arthur Eves—Brenthall. H. Goldschmidt—London. H. H. Haxton—Birmingham. E. M. Jackson—Bexhill. Dr. A. Seitz—Augsburg. E. Spangier—Liverpool. E. Zvonko-Bucurevsky—Paris.

PROBLEM No. 1444. By W. T. Bostock. President, won the Club Championship by defeating Mr. S. Minkin in the final last week by two wins to nil. Mr. Bostock has played very fine chess throughout the tournament, which lasted four months, and he got through without losing a point. This is the first time that he has held the title and his win is a very popular victory. When the Champion of the Indian players is known, Mr. Bostock will no doubt put up a most interesting fight for the Championship of the Colony which is held at present by Mr. Barkar Ali.

Another loss to Kenya Chess has occurred through retirement and departure from the Colony of Mr. F. J. Gordon. Mr. Gordon has been a very good friend to the Club for more than two years and could not be relied upon to put up an interesting and chess game. He played in the first International match against the Indians.

A. Gullerudsen—Norway. C. B. Heath—London. Alfred Lenton—London. W. H. Moberg—Stuttin. O.M. Feld. R. C. Noel Johnson—London. H. Sammlers—London. C. H. Stacey—Hove. Lind Stacey—West London. W. H. Watts—London. G. Wood—Edgware.

It was decided that the British Men's and Women's Championships should be held at Hastings at the annual invitation of the Hastings and St. Leonards Chess Club and the period fixed for the events was the 24th July-12th August next.

SOLUTIONS. Keynotes to problems 1437 and 8 are 1. Q-a1 and 1. B-b7 respectively.

Problem No. 1434, Heahost. Key: 1. B-b6. If 1. K-c4; 2. Q-d2 ch, etc. If 1. K-c6; 2. B-c3, etc. If 1. P-c3; 2. B-g7, etc.

Solutions received from Sant Singh (also 1433 received too late for last week); W. R. M. Fowler, who remarks "Beautiful manoeuvring"; and G. Tanner, who says "Very interesting mate, took me 2 hours to find the key."

Problem No. 1435, "The Chess Derby" by Dawson. Key: 1. B-f2 threatening 2. P-e4 mate. There are numerous variations depending on the defence of the four Black Knights, who in a very clever and amusing manner block and in their attempts to stop the threat thus admit other mates.

Problem No. 1436, Kt and P ending. Key: 1. K-c3. If 1. K-c2; 2. K-c1 and K moves over via d2 to attack the Kt, allowing White K to come in to support the Pawn and escort his safe home. Or course 2. K-c2, Pawn goes on. Solved by Gussard, B. R. M. Fowler and J. S. Pandy.

It remains in the system of the blood, forming uric acid crystals. It settles into their sharp points. Your joints are swollen. Better still, uric acid settles into the joints of the spine. CONGRESS OF WORKMEN BROKEN UP.

Priests Assaulted.

HERR VON PAPPEN AMONG THE DELEGATES TO THE CONFERENCE.

The Nazis in Germany, after attacking Communists and then Jews, turned their attention to Catholics, and a congress of Catholic workers at Munich was broken up. Among the delegates to the congress was the Vice-Chancellor, Herr von Pappen, who is himself a Catholic. He hastily left the meeting when the trouble started.

It appears that the Nazis objected to the Catholic delegates wearing uniform, and set on them in the streets. One man died as a result of injuries received. Onslaughts were also directed against priests.

One delegate died after a beating outside the Cathedral. Public intervention was futile against the organizers of "Brown Shirts" assaults, which were even directed against Catholic priests, and prevented the Archbishop of Munich holding mass for the delegates.

WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

Opened by His Majesty The King.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR THE NATIONS.

To Work for Common Good.

PRIME MINISTER STRESSES URGENCY OF THE WAR DEBTS QUESTION.

The most important international gathering in history was inaugurated by His Majesty the King when he opened the World Economic Conference in London on Monday.

In the course of his speech, which was broadcast to His Majesty the King, the world is in an unquiet state and for you the task is heavy; but it will not be achieved except through goodwill and sincere co-operation . . . I appeal to you to co-operate for the sake of the ultimate good of the whole world. It cannot be beyond the power of man so to use vast resources of the world as to assure the material progress of civilisation."

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald made a significant reference to War Debts declaring that although the Conference could not deal with the question, it was nevertheless one which did not permit of delay.

Stressing the necessity for international co-operation the British Prime Minister in the course of the past few years proved that a purely national economic policy, by impoverishing other nations, impoverished those who pursued it.

He urged the Conference to "put new heart and confidence into the world. . . Let us see before we disperse that we have revived hope, energy and confidence. . . For these the world waits and it is in our power to provide them."

Effect of Suez Canal Dues on British Trade.

HEAVY BURDEN ON PRODUCTS FROM EAST AFRICA.

Ten Per Cent. on Sisal.

PROTEST OF THE JOINT EAST AFRICAN BOARD.

At the May meeting of the Joint East African Board a resolution was adopted protesting against the high dues in the Suez Canal, which, it was stated, placed a heavy burden on Empire producers in the East, including heavy burden on Empire exporters to the West.

It was pointed out that ten per cent. of the value of sisal from East Africa went in dues to the Canal Company, while Welsh coal paid 37 1/2 per cent.

During the course of the discussion it was stated that during the last 10 years nearly 70 per cent. of the shares owned by the Company had been sold in dividends.

Another difficulty was that while the British Government held 46 per cent. of the shares, the Egyptian Government held no single share.

Rate Reduction Demanded.

At the May Meeting of the Joint East African Board the following resolution was passed in regard to the Suez Canal Company.

"That in the opinion of the Board the high dues charged by the Suez Canal Company amounting, for instance, to 10 per cent. on sisal (i.e. value), at a very heavy burden on Eastern producers and on exporters from this country.

A NATIONAL GENEAL?

A Good Suggestion for Producers.

STANDARD CORRESPONDENT.

London, May 22. (By air mail.) British films are still appearing in large numbers, but are not doing the rapid growth of British production, but the fruits of it are slow in appearing. This week we offer three pictures, one of which is the country picture 'A British Girl'.

Out of the picture, in the week ending, only two British films are eager to be seen and abroad that our British studios are turning out pictures as good as any in the world. But at any given moment it is the dilemma of a job to see a good British film and hard enough to see a British film at all.

Stop that cold with VAPEX

At the very first symptoms of a cold, apply VAPEX on the handkerchief and inhale it frequently. A drop on your cigarette now prevents the direct results of colds let to run their course.

ATTACHMENTS ON LOCAL THEATRE.

The American way, never so organized attempt. Two Trade Shows. Two British trade shows were seen this week. The first was the 'Woman' and 'Trick for Trick'.

It is time that the British cinema gave some earnest of its activities. The extensive and the improvement in British films has got to be constantly brought before the public eye. It is not possible to live for ever on the reputation of a few good films.

In this connection, I observe a critic remarks: 'America has at least four permanent picture windows for its films in London. It is when you come to the picture window in London that you are without a permanent show window for our films, not only in London but even in our own country.'

There are very few new films in London just now. 'Fra Diavolo' is the only one which is of any interest. It is a sentimental production by the same hands which produced 'Pick-up'.

HYMN CRITICISED.

A resolution suggesting that the hymn should be altered. The hymn is 'O God, thy love is boundless and thy mercy is without end.' It is a hymn which is sung at all British Legion services.

Rival Claims by Creditor and Landlord.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

No Local Necessity.

Phidde contended that the landlord had generally to give notice to the tenant of the proposed distress. The court held that this was not necessary.

Property to be Sold.

At the trial of the case, the court held that the property should be sold. The court found in favour of the creditor.

Objection to Unsuitable Verse.

Important advances in immunisation against virus diseases which are deadly to both man and animal are expected from research work which is proceeding at the Wellcome Institute of Scientific Research, London.

Problems of Immunisation Research.

There are fifty or more virus diseases of man and animal which are deadly to both man and animal. The Wellcome Institute is working on these diseases.

The Problem.

The problem with yellow fever vaccine is to improve the technique developed at the Rockefeller Institute in New York. It is necessary to find a way to produce a vaccine which is safe and effective.

Household Hints.

To obtain the best results when making a custard, add a tiny pinch of salt to the milk.

An ordinary custard with much fat in it will splutter green if the whole stand, but not if a little fine salt is placed in the pan before it is used.

When using a double boiler, you will find you can put more heat by adding salt to the water—one teaspoonful to each quart.

When you have removed the cooked eggs from a cold oven, do not leave them in it until you are ready to use them.

When you are making a custard, a very soft rolling pin is required. A bottle filled with cold water and used as a rolling pin makes the lightest pastry.

Do not get hot cooked fruit for tart, as the steam given off will make the pudding hollow before it has started to bake.

SAUCES, batters and blouses hang because heavy oil is used. It is added too quickly to the ingredients. Pour it in gradually, stirring, and do not have them made so hot that the bread loaf can be removed in a very short time.

Practical Hints

Care, Maintenance and charging of L. T. Batteries.

When an L.T. battery is discharged it should be put on charge as soon as possible...

Wireless batteries are never likely to be over-discharged, i.e. discharged at a higher rate than that for which they are designed...

The top of the cells should be kept clean and free from acid and to prevent the wire leading from the terminals to the rest of a motor of vessel, it is well to provide creosote or shellac varnish...

KENNEL NOTES by Margaret Collyer

Miss Collyer, Gt. Pl., to whom all correspondence in connection with "Kennel Notes" should be addressed, does not hold herself responsible for accuracy of statements made by her which are, in the main, based on information supplied by her correspondents.

I got news of some very well bred Springer Spaniel puppies, some of which will be advertised for sale very soon. I had no idea there were so many good Springers in the country. The owner of these puppies tells me that he has had over these active spaniels, and has found kinds where without these dogs, he never found any birds at all. Springers will both point and retrieve, and are excellent water dogs, so very useful for duck shooting on the lakes.

They are much stronger than most dogs and more fitted for rough work and long days. I advise those who enjoy muzzling birds to keep an eye on the advertisement column in the East African Standard and buy a brace of these pedigree apertures.

With regard to the dog who has had his ear split. It is about 60 to 1 that it won't join up. I've never found stitching ears do any good at all, as the stitches increase the irritation and cause the animal also use his claws to scratch the injured ear.

On the few occasions that I have had any success in getting torn ears to heal, I have treated them in the following manner. Washed thoroughly in disinfectant painted the torn edges with Iodo-balsam to stop all bleeding, thoroughly dried the ear, and then wrapped the whole in a piece of wide strapping (2 inch strip) of the ear exactly together I kept the strapping wet and by the ear properly fitted fold the rest of the plaster over it, ensuring the whole of the wound has been thoroughly cleaned and disinfected. There should be no strapping should be left on till a course of 10 days has taken place. If healing has not quite happened. The dog should not be allowed to go into water as the single piece of strapping if properly and comfortably put on, does not seem to worry dogs at all, but they should be washed for half an hour until they are quite clean, after that they soon forget the same ear when ear ointment is administered, the edges must be washed, they are quite sore and bleed. Strips put into an ear are very apt to deform and cause it.

By air mail today I got a letter from Mr. Abshire Finlay who writes from Maritz, Alsace, that I think Miss Muller, for her letter telling of a remarkable cure in "The Animal House" of last month a lady left two very good bull-terriers in my hands. The letter was said to be in my hand right this morning. A fortnight later the lady gave birth to twenty-two strong and lusty puppies all black or brown. The owner of the bitch also had a Great Dane, and the vast pile of money was by the way of it. I should think the 22 puppies is a record for any of the later breeds. After checking the bitch was quite all right and not a bit out of the ordinary. The least worried about her owners.

I have been requested to enquire if there is any monetary value attached to a first edition of a book called "A Thoroughbred Mangled" by Robert A. Shepherd. It is treated by the book is well as to sell it. I should think the 22 puppies is a record for any of the later breeds. After checking the bitch was quite all right and not a bit out of the ordinary. The least worried about her owners.

SOME REMARKABLE CRICKET. Verly's Amazing Work with Ball. 23 WICKETS FOR 127 RUNS. [WESSEX] (WIMBORNE) London, May 28. (By Air Mail). There has been some more remarkable cricket which appears in the Standard weekly on April 1. His letter runs as follows:—"May I be permitted to reply to your letter in the E. A. Standard of April 1st. It is stated by you that the present colored bull-terriers are bred from the 'All Whites' and that the Staffordshire are altogether a different breed. I was rather lazy on the point myself, and so I wrote to a breeder of pedigree coloured bull-terriers about the following reply: 'Staffordshire bull-terriers have no pedigree. They are the primitive stock (very primitive some of it) from which first the white and the modern (pedigree) coloured bull-terrier have been developed. The modern coloured bull-terriers have been produced by a steady process of infusing the best white blood into the primitive Staffordshire stock, which consisted of the white and the pedigree coloured animal' which is comparable with the white and the pedigree colour, but black-bred. It is a fact that all red-faces (all generally with some white markings) are all popular and all even at the present time. Mr. Finlay continues: 'In this country there are classes for all breeds of the bull-terrier, at one show and I think it is a pity that it is not the case here. I believe the colored breed as yet cannot quite compete with the white. I have seen a black and tan bitch which are about as good as the white and which I got from Mr. Alex. Morris. He is the same breeder who sold Mr. Hasting his black and tan bitch. I hope to see these two bitches out to Keny at the beginning of the year together with a coloured dog.' Mr. Finlay has a farm near Oke, near Oke. If Mr. Hasting wishes to read this article he will see that it was correct in my statement that the colored bull-terriers were their origin to the old Staffordshire breed, and that he was wrong in saying that they were bred from the 'All Whites'.

AFRICAN HANDICRAFTS.

Opening of Exhibition in Nairobi.

An exhibition and sale of African women's work on material woven at the Salween Army Women's Industrial Training Centre, Quarry Road, Nairobi, was opened at the Salween Army Headquarters, Government Road, last week, by Lady Berke. There was a very large gathering present at the ceremony.

Only those who make a habit of visiting such exhibitions can realise the advances made by African women as a result of their tuition. Eight needlework items were on display at the exhibition, and the quality of these handicrafts was exceptionally high.

All this activity is to help the girls earn a useful living. Some are kept, and clothed by the Salvation Army in return for the work they do, while other girls are able to live with their parents, but so come in daily to learn needle-work so that later they may earn a little money. And in charge of these industrious women is Mrs. Harvey, the Matron-in-charge.

There are a number of motherless babies, whose fathers have been killed in the war, and Mrs. Harvey takes charge, and among the many activities she conducts are the girls in needlework, giving practical lessons in cooking, sewing, clothing, and training babies.

When opening Lady Berke, thanked her for coming to open the exhibition. In reply Lady Berke expressed her delight with the work, in which she wished the Salvation Army every success.

Most of the flight was made at a height of between 5,000 and 6,000 ft and was over some beautiful country. The return flight will be made on Tuesday morning and is intended to consist at Crofton with the midday air services to the Conington, since enabling passengers to reach Nairobi in less than eight hours.
