U.K. WARNED ON FAILURE TO SEND TRADE MISSIONS

The Commissioner for East Africa in London, Sir Arthur Urry, said exporters and advertising agencies that during the past two years almost every country except Britain had sent trade missions to East Africa.

Sir Arthur was speaking at a party at the Institute of Directors to launch Urry's Africa, by Henry Thompson, secretary to the Institute of Directors in London.

The Commissioner said many new countries were establishing new trade relations with Africa.

"It is necessary to get close to the markets of Africa if we are to have a prosperous future for Africa, both as a country and as a part of the Commonwealth," Sir Arthur said.

No definite date has yet been set for the arrival of the Royal couple, but an announcement from York House, London, yesterday said the visit was expected to take place between February 12 and March 5.

The Duke and Duchess will also inspect other Army units and the Royal Air Force in Kenya. Plans are already going ahead to give them a huge welcome.

Impressive parades and a fly-past of Hunter jet aircraft, anticipated for the Duke - who is a Field Marshal and a Member of the Royal Air Force - but no programme was available yesterday.

The freedom of the city was granted to the regiment in 1962.

It will be the Duke's third official visit to Kenya.

He first arrived with the late King George VI then the Duke of York - in 1923 but their visit was short of that time by years of King George VI's absence.

U.K. PROVIDES MONEY TO CONTINUE CONCESSION

Businessmen who are dependent on a Customs rebate in order to sell their goods successfully will still get this concession after the end of this year, a Treasury spokesman said yesterday.

The draw-back system, which is known, essentially mainly to correct anomalies in the Customs regulations, in fact does not cover manufacturers of finished articles who have to pay duty on the finished article which they produce can then claim the money they pay in duty so that they may sell their products competitively.

It was for this reason that the concession had been acquired as a result of negotiations in which the Minister of Finance, Mr. Maclean, took part in London, the Treasury spokesman explained. This year he realized that he had only been given rebates for six months from July 1, instead of for a full year as was the normal practice.

PROVISION FOR ONLY £70,000.

This became necessary because the provision for the £70,000, based on the normal level of rebates, but this had proved insufficient. Partly due to expansion of industrial activity and partly to recent increases in duties the demands were considerably in excess of £70,000.

Initial estimates put the figure at between £120,000 and £150,000. As the payments were grant-sized it was not possible to be given in respect of more than one year for a half-year.

It is a concession that had to be given in order to meet the needs of the industry in the light of the fact that the Government is agreed that some final limit on the concession would be reached in the course of the year.

River sweeps man from bridge

BY STANDARD STAFF REPORTERS

POLICE and civilians, including a K.F.R. aircraft, worked all yesterday in the Rongai River area, near Kiagio, after a man was washed away.

He is Mr. Roger Brown, Provincial Veterinary Officer at Nyeri, who was a member of a party travelling in two cars from Nyiruki to Nyeri at 2 a.m. yesterday.

A bridge over the Rongai, five miles on the Kiagio side of Naru Maru, was under water. Mr. D. D. Davis, County Council at Nyeri, said: "I was in the second car with Mr. Brown. The first car stuck just before it reached the bridge. We passed it and crossed successfully."

Mr. Brown and I then went back across the bridge on foot, to pick up Mrs. R. King and Mr. D. H. Brown. Then we set off back across the bridge. I was with Mr. Brown and Mr. Brown was with Mrs. King.

"I heard Mrs. King shout and saw that we had gone off the road while crossing. She and Mr. Brown were swept under the bridge. She managed to hold on to the parapet, but Mr. Brown did not."

Mrs. King was admitted to hospital suffering from shock. The force of the water tore all her clothes as she clung on to the parapet.

It is understood that Mrs. Brown is in Britain and yesterday police were trying to trace her.

SUDDENLY-- no lights, no power!

What happens when the power fails? Does your home become dark, silent? Do total stores and factories close? Is food in danger of spoiling in freezers and cold storage warehouses? Do pumps cease operating at the water works and the sewage treatment plant?

Not if someone has provided for standby emergency power. Not if this alternate source of power is reliable and quickly available.

ROW OVER OIL PRICES

Indian Government order to enforce cuts brings protest

A protest of whether petrol is to be squeezed out of the oil industry or given a fair rate in exchange with the nationalized industry, still in its infancy, underlies a dispute between the Indian Government and the three major Western oil companies.

The nationalized industry has demanded that the companies be ordered to reduce their prices to a level which would enable them to pay a fair rate for the oil they produce. The companies have refused to do so and have instead offered to pay a fair rate for the oil they produce.

The Government has been unable to force the companies to reduce their prices. The companies have instead offered to pay a fair rate for the oil they produce.

ONE could not rate out the general opinion of the weather in East Africa. This was said by an official of the Meteorological Dept. in Nairobi.
It can be seen from the diagram that there are converging air masses from the Arabian anti-cyclone, a low from the Indian Ocean and the low from the Mauritan anti-cyclone. These low pressure systems have met, the greater rainfall has been the result. The weather is now rainy, rain is not expected till about the 14th.

More roads cut and bridges closed as rains go on

KENYA'S AGONY WILL COST £2m.

300 stranded in buses at Athi River

Kenya's floods and famine are likely to cost the country more than £2,000,000, the Government Secretary to the Office of the Chief Minister, Mr. T. Neil, said in Nairobi yesterday. Half this figure was the estimated cost of closing roads and bridges in flooded areas and half would be spent on food for the 300 stranded.

At least 300 passengers in five motor buses held up near Athi River by a large tree which spans the railway line. The buses were stranded on the old road into the township of Athi.

Food gangs worked frantically to move the tree, which was running water, by backing up, and passengers through to catch the A.A. Kenyan mail from Mombasa. A cargo loaded with mail and two motor buses were jammed on the other side of the Athi.

DESIGN FOR LIVING

ANNE JONES, aged 20, is the girl who won a prize as a competition organised by the East African section of the Institution of Structural Engineers. She had to design a cold and an office building. Anne is an architectural student in her fourth year at the Royal College, Nairobi, and very young to have got so far. She will spend another two years at the college and then work for two years in an architect's office, probably at Nairobi, before she can become fully qualified.

After this Anne wants to travel widely and then to work in the design of houses here. For this reason, she has already had her first job as an architect's office during the long vacation from college. "I haven't the faintest idea what to do," she says. "I have to find out what to do and how to do it."

AID FOR HOMES

HOUSEWIVES and Homeowners are connected by more than alliteration and East African wives will be interested to hear about the latest product of this firm, the Hooverette vacuum cleaner.

It can be used both as an upright cleaner and as a hand cleaner. When in use as an upright cleaner, the extension tube and curved handle section are fitted at the top of the motor, and of the cleaner while a carpet and floor section is fitted to the lower end.

This streamlined plastic vacuum cleaner which can be operated in a "push" position for carpet cleaning or tucked into a low position for cleaning hard surfaces.

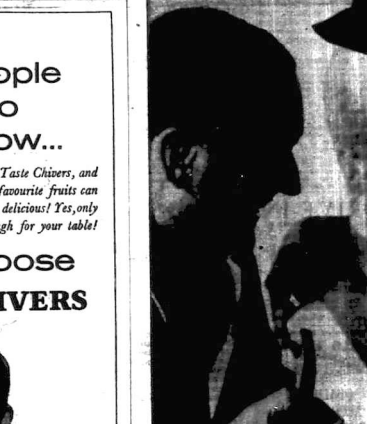

The hand cleaner can be swung from the shoulder by a carrying strap.

At the end of the year, the Government of Gambia has an income of $1.2 million. This is a considerable sum for a small country of 400,000 people.

The first year of the new Government was a year of adjustment. The Government had to learn to work with the people, to listen to their views, and to try to solve their problems.

The Government has achieved a great deal in the first year. It has established a Ministry of Education, a Ministry of Health, and a Ministry of Agriculture. It has also established a Bank of Gambia, and a Gambia Corporation.

The Government has also succeeded in bringing about a general election, and in the formation of a new Parliament.

100,000 Tana River in Kenya

Nearly 100,000 people are now awaiting relief in Kenya.

The majority of these - about 75,000 people in the Ukambani and Tana River areas - will continue to receive relief until March.

They are also likely to need relief for another year. The Permanent Secretary to the Office of the Chief Secretary, Mr. T. Mott, said yesterday.

Mr. Mott said that there were over 12,000 Army transport trucks in the country, as well as a helicopter. A further 100,000 transporters would be available locally.

Flying doctor
One of five helicopters to be based at Mombasa is to be used for a flying doctor service. Mr. Mott said that over the Tana River basin the whole land area would be covered by the service.

Mr. Mott said that the immediate problem was to get supplies to the people. The general diet in Nairobi and for the Tana River basin is being taken part in the heavy flight, but will be cut.

Effort to end recurring famines in Kenya FULL-TIME BOARD PLANNED

Aden sending help to beat floods

As a result of the famine and floods, Kenya is likely to have a permanent national food relief committee to keep under constant watch the problems of malnutrition and their solution.

This was announced in the House of Commons by the Colonial Secretary, Mandaring, when asked about steps that could be taken to stop recurring famines in the country. He said that, in the long run, the possibility of serious famine could only be minimized by "improved agricultural practices, more enlightened habits in the matter of diet and nutrition and better communications."

Rhodesian planes join in food drops

The Government is seeking to achieve these ends by continuing endeavours to knock down conservative projects and through its general development projects," he added. "Since, nevertheless, the possibility of recurring emergencies is still existing, the Governor is considering whether the National Food Relief Committee should be established on a permanent basis."

Without the Permanent Secretary to the Office of the Chief Secretary, Mr. V. J. C. confirmed there was a feeling among members of the committee that the effects of the famine and floods had been more serious than had been admitted to long-term problems. The committee is expected to be the Council of Ministers for a decision, and Mr. C. said there was likely to be made until the present crisis passed.

One of the purposes of an advisory committee such as the Government, quasi-government or government, was to provide a body which was prepared to give thought being to countries which ran into emergencies, such as that through which Kenya was passing.

Adm is sending men, supplies and equipment to help with the relief work in Kenya. The British and American Governments have arrived and the necessary equipment is being sent.

Back to normal

Manawatu, with a lessening of rainfall, communications better and returns to normal routine. Repairs to the railway bridge between Feilding and Palmerston North are almost completed and it is expected that road traffic will be resumed between Nairobi and Mombasa within a few days. A railway spokesman said that the railway between Nairobi and Mombasa and between Nairobi and Kisumu and Uganda, had been closed for some time. The two have railway bridges but engineers hope to complete repairs by the end of the month.

Roads open

Roads were starting to dry out and a Ministry of Works official said the Ministry was confident that many more roads were open to traffic although some deviations were still being made. Deviations were still being made on the road between Mombasa and Nairobi which will be open by tomorrow. Many of the deviations are open to traffic but it was a possibility that some roads might close if it rained again.

The 'shakes'

I saw a couple of deckhands and asked them to go up to the bridge and tell them there had been an explosion." He was in the ship on July 27 and said that on September 16 had suffered from "the shakes." He said he was not sure what it was, but it was a good idea to see again. My wife and I went and saw him. NEW TERMS FOR FARMAS

ORIGINALLY, the British Government proposed to give the percentage of farm produce to be distributed to the farmers in Kenya in two parts: one as a direct payment and the other as a reimbursement cover over security interest in five per cent.

It had been expected that the Government would have agreed to a new arrangement, but the Government has now decided to go back to the original proposal. This means that the Government will have to pay the percentage of farm produce to the farmers in two parts: one as a direct payment and the other as a reimbursement cover over security interest in five per cent.

What the Mr. Mendenhall's committee is saying is that the Government should not be expected to do more than to pay the percentage of farm produce to the farmers in two parts: one as a direct payment and the other as a reimbursement cover over security interest in five per cent.

NEW TERMS FOR FARMS

ORIGINALLY the British Government proposed to give the leaseholders of 100 farms taken over for settlement elsewhere in Kenya to lease periods conditioned as to downsizing in such areas. These "deferred" leases were to carry interest at five per cent.

By an amendment to the Kenya Land and Agriculture (Amendment) Bill that is certainly a big improvement, the Government has now decided to give the leaseholders in Kenya to lease periods conditioned as to downsizing in such areas. These "deferred" leases were to carry interest at five per cent.

What has Mr. Bundeled achieved, when he shows anything from the Government's point of view, is to get the Government to agree to the terms of the lease. The new lease is to be given to the leaseholders on the same terms as the original lease, but with the addition of a clause which allows the Government to terminate the lease if the leaseholder fails to comply with the terms of the lease.

As in the methods of treatment, farmers had been warned in the Government's proposals that the Government would not be prepared to accept any lease until security was provided. The Government has now decided to give the leaseholders in Kenya to lease periods conditioned as to downsizing in such areas.

Uganda revolts against Kenya attitude

THERED of what it calls Kenya's "racist attitude" and its policy that Kenya is not ready to admit that it is a white man's world of top class athletes.

Uganda's Hockey Association officials have pledged themselves to fight Kenya's Olympic plan. Their first move is to become recognised on international level by persuading touring teams from other countries instead of receiving Kenyan touring teams.

COMMENT A magnet for any crowd

It appeared once again that in the meeting between Juventus and the Innsbrucker, attendance generally would soon be in the middle five-figure bracket.

Not only was this one of the season's most exciting and dramatic encounters but both teams, each in their own style, produced excellent football.

To them the soldiers today were the players of the past. They played typical football, fast and direct with the wings and without the ball about work.

The ball ran very much against Juventus. Two of the forward goals would have been scored but the regular goalkeeper, Ledda, was able to make as few as two saves with the whole team scored with the white shirt. Ledda scored with the white shirt for a reliable defence against the referee's blind side.

Within spirit The fourth embroiled the crowd of players in the white. The penalty awarded to Juventus for "obstruction" was fully in the spirit of the law.

But Juventus must surely be the team to watch in the attractive side in the league. They were the only club in the half of the league with a half of the league in the half of the league. Instead of clearing out their front line, the forwards do not want to play.

What a welcome he's been getting

Back from Australia, Harold Vite And what a wonderful welcome he got. He landed! Just didn't believe he could have done so much business in so short a time. And that's doubly because — One of the most profitable items he's ever made. Found the center true that the newcomers to Australia since 20 years and more have included some of the most enthusiastic from the United Kingdom and Europe who today produce the highest quality goods. One thing there are lots more like Harold Vite. And, with so much Australia has shown — discovered — he's kept his own business, trading in just perfect. Just handling his service to Africa. Pattern next title day

If the world heavyweight title fight between Patterson and McLesley is successful, the fight against Jess McLesley is expected on December 6, he will probably be the winner. Seany Linton late next year, it was announced by Championship Sports, promoters of the Linton bout.

Mr. Tom Bolan, of Championship Sports, said the proposed Patterson-Linton bout also depended on Linton winning the fight on December 6 against Germany's Albert Westphal in Philadelphia. Linton is rated the top contender for the heavyweight crown.

The December 6 bouts are to be shown — and the other — on closed circuit television in homes throughout the United States and Canada.

$37,000 CHEQUE RAISED

"There is no doubt in my mind that Patterson will meet Linton in the last spring of both men's lives. The fight is successful," Bolan added. "We have worked very close with Patterson. He thinks of one fight at a time."

Earlier, a $37,000 cheque was handed to Bolan as a guarantee that Patterson will be given a return fight if he loses his title to McLesley. The cheque was donated by McLesley's manager, Peter Fuller.

The agreement between the parties is that if Patterson wins or forfeits the title, the money would return to Fuller if McLesley wins. The return would have come out of retirement he would owe Patterson $100,000.

ENGLAND MEAN TO REBUILD THEIR XV

ENGLAND have decided to rebuild their team for the 1954 tour of South Africa. The selectors have decided to drop several players and bring in new ones to make a team that will be able to cope with the conditions of the South African game.

The choice of Daines (14) and Jones (15) as replacements for the departed players is expected to be announced in the next few days.

Hockey women clash in Uganda

KENYA women's hockey team will visit Kampala late in January to play two matches against Uganda. This will be the first time Uganda has formed a national women's side.

The Kenya team is led by the captain, Mrs. J. J. Jones, who is also the manager. The team is expected to be in Uganda for about two weeks.

Now Czechs meet Spurs

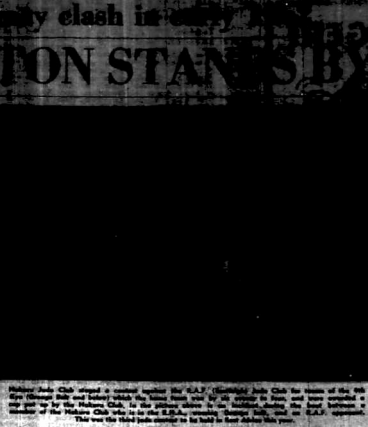

DUBLIN, Ireland, has been selected as the venue for the first international test match between the Czech Republic and Ireland. The match is scheduled for next year.

The Irish Rugby Football Union has agreed to host the match, which will be played at the Gaelic Grounds in Dublin.

Rongai footballers get new pavilion

THE busy minds of local government have given housing, roads and taxes a rest and concentrated on a more mundane problem — how to provide a refresher for a tired footballer after a match.

Football is a popular sport in the Rongai area, but the problem of entertaining visiting players has been bugging the local sports association for some time.

WASHED OUT

The Rongai F.A. has just finished a season of 12 matches, but the club is still in a state of flux. The club has decided to build a new pavilion to accommodate the needs of the players.

The pavilion will be built on the site of the old pavilion, which was destroyed by fire. The new pavilion is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

John Derrin, who was captain of the club last season, has been elected president of the club. He has a plan to build a new pavilion to accommodate the needs of the players.

The pavilion will be built on the site of the old pavilion, which was destroyed by fire. The new pavilion is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

TO GIVE £180,000 AID

Development drive 'solid, good sense'

BRITISH Government sources will provide £180,000 worth of aid for development projects in the Government Secretary for Technical Co-operation, Mr. T. Yoppey, said in London. He indicated that private industry would be asked to contribute towards the scheme.

Equities drift lower

Equities were in a weak mood today, with the Dow Jones Industrial Average ending at 100.87, down 1.12 points from the previous session. The New York Stock Exchange volume was 10,000,000 shares.

Market activity was characterized by a general decline in prices for most major stocks. The London market also showed a downward trend, with the FTSE 100 index falling to 3,200.00.

Quite evident

The general mood of technical analysis was that of technical weakness. Last year's sharp boom had been followed by a period of consolidation, and it was felt that the market was likely to continue to trend downwards.

EMBARKATION NOTICE

Passengers are advised that the B.O.A.C. service to London is suspended until the 15th December 1961, because of the closure of Heathrow Airport. Passengers should contact their agents for alternative arrangements.

B.O.A.C. FACES £10m. LOSS COMMONS TOLD

BRITISH Overseas Airways Corporation, one of Britain's two State-owned airlines, expects to make a loss of about £10,000,000 this year after paying interest on capital, the Minister of Aviation, Mr. Thorpe, told the House of Commons.

Volkswagens in demand

World demand for the new Volkswagen 1600, reported with an annual output of 150,000 units, has increased since the start of the new year in East Africa.

Good reasons

Mr. Thorpe said the B.O.A.C. losses were partly due to rising losses attributable to subsidiaries and trading associates and partly to capital losses, directly or indirectly attributable to re-equipment programmes after the disaster with the Comet 1.

No hope of agreement to owners becoming tenants

MR. MAULDING OPPOSES PROJECTS FARM PLAN

Police stop near riot at Eldoret

THE STANDARD STAFF REPORTER ELDRET, Kenya. Mr. Maulding, yesterday turned down a plan, put to him by a delegation of 15 West Kenya farmers, that Britain should buy out all the Colony's mixed farming areas but keep the owners on as tenants until Africans could take over.

A member of the delegation told the East African Standard last night Mr. Maulding indicated there was no chance of British approval. He had pointed out it would involve ownership of land by the British Government in an independent Kenya. An alternative plan that the land could be held by a company was also considered impracticable.

On security of land titles, which was also strongly raised by the farmers, the Minister said he thought they would be protected by an independent government. Provided there was a strong and independent judiciary.

The 15 delegates met Mr. Maulding at Eldoret, where the farming community of Kenya's difficulties stemmed from their lack of confidence arising from the political situation. A recovery of confidence must be complete.

To illustrate the decline in the confidence of the farmers, especially in the north, Mr. Maulding said he was leaving the 18,000-acre Kudu station, which had a regular weekly attendance of 1,200 cattle had now dropped to 400 families would be existing.

Classes between rival demonstrators of the Kudu station, Mr. Maulding said, were being held in the area. He said that the Government was not prepared to take any action which would result in the loss of any land.

LOW OVER MARKET 'LEAK'

U.S. received British policy statement claims Press

COMMONWEALTH Governments are to get a verbatim copy of the opening statement to the members of the Common Market by the British Minister in charge of Market negotiations, Mr. Heath, in Paris on October 10, it was announced by the Foreign Office yesterday.

The decision, breaking the long-standing convention that the Governments negotiating Britain's Market entry, was taken in view of the "sensitive reports" that the text had come into the possession of some Government officials in the Press.

Some newspapers claimed the text was the French document. Political observers expect the text to be a more detailed statement than a Parliamentary speech in the House of Commons made by Mr. Heath.

The announcement said that all kinds of the statements would be sent to member Governments of the seven-nation European Free Trade Area, of which Britain is a member.

"Totally unaware" of the French Ministry spokesman said that the French Embassy in London had not been told anything concerning what French Government spokesmen had said to Commonwealth Market Foreign Secretary, Mr. Heath, in London.

Mr. Roy Thomson, the Canadian newspaper magnate, said that a chain of British newspapers had been tipped off by the Daily Mirror's Group's financial director that they were interested.

It was pointed out that French representatives were not the only ones to be notified on the October 10 meeting.

Several sources, a very full and detailed summary of Mr. Heath's speech that occasion was leaked to the Press in Paris by the British and Irish.

In Washington officials said the U.S. Government learned from several sources that Mr. Heath had the Ministers about to announce on joining the Common Market. As far as they were concerned, Mr. Heath had not been advised.

They said they had had no contact with participants at the time from whom they had been able to get the word that Mr. Heath had said.

Last-minute goal blights R.A.F. hopes

DEVILGUA, Jamaica's swing centre forward, cleared through the net of the Calcuttians ground last night like a charging bull, but his defence and the goalkeeper to score a spectacular last-minute goal which gave his side over R.A.F. in the semi-final of the Gleaners Cup.

It was a thrilling climax to a match which was only made possible by members of the Calcuttians Club who formed a work party to seek up, sweep off, and dig drainage channels after a cloud which had drenched the entire field.

"Despite their status, the pitch was a water-logged swamp—but one of the biggest crowds of the year saw a cup-tie thriller that produced an astonishingly high standard of soccer.

From the moment that Jervis took the lead in the 20th minute, the goal from the Calcuttians was a matter of time. The R.A.F. side, however, were not to be taken lightly. In the 34th minute, the crowd knew that this match was worth watching the rain to watch.

SCHOOLS SHARED HONOURS

DUKE of York and Prince of Wales Schools shared honours

Two goals after 20 minutes of their return soccer fixture on Saturday marked by a heavy downpour which unfolded even in the most drained Camberian pitch.

A game that promised to produce plenty of good football, but which became a hard-fought and even more of a struggle as the rain fell and the ground turned to mud. The Duke of York School, however, were the better team and scored two goals in the 20th and 34th minutes.

POLICE CRASH TO DEFEAT IN NAKIVUBO MUD

UGANDA Police beat Kenya Police 6-0 in the annual interterritorial polo football match at Nakivubo on Saturday.

The match was played on a wet and muddy ground, and was watched by a small but enthusiastic crowd.

Although the pace started the Uganda Polo team, who had only a slight edge in midfield, it is an accurate reflection of the lightness of the opposing force.

Whereas the Uganda team covered well in the mud, the Kenya side had a number of broken passes in the first half. The Kenya side, however, while their opponents were still trying to find in the heavy rain.

Kenya scored 1st goal in the 14th minute.

The Kenya side led 1-0 at the 14th minute when a long pass from the left wing was intercepted by the Ugandan goalkeeper. The Kenya side then scored a second goal in the 20th minute when a long pass from the left wing was intercepted by the Ugandan goalkeeper.

Scoring spree by the M.C.C. at Nagpur

The Middlesex players, Peter Parfitt and Eric Russell, both scored centuries in a remarkable partnership in a rain-soaked day at the M.C.C. on the first day of their three-day match against Central Zone at Nagpur yesterday.

Narrow winners

Jack Howell and John Procter, who were both out for the first time, were the narrow winners. Howell scored 146 not out, the highest of his career, and Eric Russell made 116 to help the M.C.C. to a total of 400 for three days.

FORGOTTEN MEN IN THE CIVIL SERVICE

On July 21, 1963, the publication of the "Flight of Nigerian men" was a landmark event in the history of the Press. It was the first time that the names of those who had been dismissed from the service were made public. It was a blow to the Government and a vindication of the men who had been dismissed.
