MISS LIECHTI RETURNS TO KENYA

It is not often that one is tempted to use the word "glamorous" about a young woman, but she is certainly irresistible on meeting Miss Liechti.
For Miss Liechti is tall, slim and extremely attractive, with her dark hair in a long bob, large blue eyes, and a flair for the right sort of clothes. She is sister of Mrs. David Dobbs, and first visited Kenya four years ago when her sister was engaged to be married.
Miss Liechti has her own business in the jewellery district in Zurich, which she has taken over from her father, who is now in the district in Kenya where she stayed on her first visit.

She represents the Magnet Store chain department store and an importer who sells to the major German chain stores.
She has an exclusive contract for three years travelling on their behalf in the Far East.
Miss Liechti has been licensed from Hongkong, and also spent three weeks in Japan. She has offices in Tokyo as well as in Hongkong.

Miss Liechti is a much-travelled young woman who is enjoying life.

TAKING A CLOSE LOOK AT THE LATEST MAN-MADE FIBRES AND THEIR USES

"MAN-MADE" fibres is an expression met and more frequently by the buying public, particularly women, and this is perhaps the time to learn something of the processes by which they are made. Some interesting and informative facts about these man-made fibres are collected together by the Press Officer of the British Made Fibres Federation, Mr. Philip M. Rowe.

All man-made fibres are made by forcing a more or less liquid substance through fine holes, and then converting the fine filaments thus formed into solids.

There are two main forms of the synthetic fibres, one being the filament, in which a number of filaments are collected together to form a yarn, and the other, staple fibres, in which much larger masses of filament are cut into short lengths for spinning into yarns on conventional or modified textile spinning machinery.

Staple fibres are made in two ways, one being the staple fibre, which resembles silk and is more or less adapted for weaving into cloth, and the other, which is delivered by the three processes.

Staple fibres are made in two ways, one being the staple fibre, which resembles silk and is more or less adapted for weaving into cloth, and the other, which is delivered by the three processes.

Many fibres are spun along with natural fibres, and also blended extensively with natural fibres, and with wool.

All this makes for great variety in most of types of man-made fibres.

Through there is now a somewhat confused picture of the brand names for different types of man-made fibres, and the various names used for them.

A warm little cocktail dress in cotton velvet, obtainable in every variety of colour. The fur trim is guardable, and the price in Britain is around the ten guinea mark.

Various man-made fibres may be classified as follows: Rayon, Acetate, Viscose, Cellulose, and others.

WHAT A COURSE OF CONDITIONING WILL DO FOR YOUR DOG

Most dogs are fed on scraps or on prepared foods that may contain a true balance of vitamins and minerals. Even when special meals is brought you can't be certain that all the elements of a dog needs are present.

It is so difficult nowadays for a dog to get exactly what his system needs for full health that most breeders put their dogs on a course of conditioning.

There are three or four Bob Martin's Condition Tablets that give you dogs on so, and this soon shows in bright eyes, blazes of coat, high spirits and everything else that brings a dog to the top of his form.

Why not follow their example? Don't wait for your dog to scowl and snore, with dull coat and dry nose. Put him on a course of Bob Martin's soon and see what fun he can be and how handsome he can look!

Record Round About

By JOHN MITCHELL

"A S we have to pay the brass why not use them?" This is the question Ted Heath saying this when he recorded Ted Heath Sextet (Decca LK 4389/SKL 4129).

The usual quality recordings and they had an often beautiful cover (Pepys, Parlophone, Chess, Chess, etc.). But Ted finds a blast of trumpet from the Londoners and it is not in the record.

Was there a new or better brass? No, it was the same. I haven't heard it. Or one better and the same leader than Frank?

Frank, Tom, Tony, Cherry Pink, Ray, Bob, George and Alton. A good choice, surely not over sweet, but with brass crescendo.

As one of the Tropicans (Columbia 7490-97499) - it is a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas.

The band itself is splendid, of course. It is the same as the last time up. It is the same as the last time up.

For quarter Latin Latin, The Soul of Spain Vol 2 (Epic 9511/USCL 10071) has not only a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas.

There is a short, as well, one of the heavily art balanced. It is a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas.

In the heavy edition, RCA have caught a full size piano. It is a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas.

The orchestra is the Chicago Symphony. It is a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas.

The Producer is another work with quiet music. It is a new album from Las Vegas. It is a new album from Las Vegas.

Kadu and Kanu clash over plotting of plane crash

KENYA TALKS LEPTIC TO DENY Firm sends £50,000 but farmers resentful

LETTERS requesting donations to pay for Jomo Kenyatta's reception on his return to Kiambu have been sent to 500 leading European, American and African businessmen in Kenya.

The circular has gone out on behalf of the Kenya Reception Committee of the Kadu Parliamentary Group, and yesterday the chairman of the committee, Mr. M. Muliro, flew to Maralal to see Kenyatta.

"Kenyatta told me he does not want a crowd of people at his home when he returns," Mr. Muliro told the East African Standard last night.

"He is anxious to meet them and say hello away from here, perhaps at the airport," Mr. Muliro said.

Despite reports that Kenyatta had earlier suggested that his party should be represented on the committee, Mr. Muliro said it should contain only members from the Government side.

The question of security and that is a Government responsibility," Mr. Muliro said.

Mr. Muliro is expected to arrive home tonight after a four-day tour of the East African Standard.

M.P.s URGE THEIR CLAIMS TO BE HOSTS IN BRITAIN

When Jomo Kenyatta comes to London, other for an exclusive interview.

Over all this speculation pending final action, it is the contention of a group of M.P.s that it is a disgrace to the British Government to refuse to host the President of Kenya when he comes to London.

It is thought in London that the visit of Kenyatta will be a landmark in the history of Kenya and that it will also mark the beginning of a new era in the history of Kenya.

THE NEWS IN PICTURES

A dying craft

WHAT may be a dying craft in the Seychelles is the hand weaving of cow ropes. Now that means power is available in Victoria it is likely that machines will take over. The picture above shows women twisting fibres end to end to form a continuous ribbon. Below, the Governor, Sir John Thorp, chats to the owner of the rope-making firm. The lower picture shows the process in which stray hairs are burned off the finished rope with a flaming torch. Longer ropes can be made by twisting smaller ones together.

Man's skill rewarded

Mrs. John Rogers Rankin, Crichton's, proprietor of the Victoria Library of Victoria has been granted a £250 loan by the Industrial Development Board.

It will enable her to buy much-needed machinery, including a printing and photo-copying apparatus, as well as a hand-cutting press. The loan will be repaid during seven years, at an interest rate of 5 per cent, and there will be a guarantee.

DRAMA OR BOXING ON STAGE

The Alliance High School's new theatre at Kikuyu (above) cost only £8,250 but can seat 500. And because of its open stage, no number of the audience is more than 50 feet away from the performers.

Although designed as a theatre, specifically for Shakespearean productions, ballroom and boxing matches will be held in the building.

Spotlights are hand operated by people using a control on two steel trusses which support the main beams and the roof.

On the left it is seen from the school's recent production, when British (then Ceylon) stars, C. A. S. (Allan Kibwe) and the crowd in the forum rush to the scene.

I AM distressed to learn from the report of the League of Nations Commission on Africa, which has just been published, that the Commission has recommended that the African States should be granted independence as soon as possible. Kenya has produced outstanding guitarists

It may not generally be known to those of your readers who are interested in the guitar, that the guitar is almost a national instrument among the Africans in Kenya. It is particularly popular in the coastal and neighboring African territories.

Overpopulation

IN an effort to maintain the population of the world at a level which will be compatible with the needs of the world, it is necessary to control the number of people on the earth.

Disintegrated?

WHILE listening to the speech of the Prime Minister regarding the future of the African States, I was struck by the fact that the African States should be granted independence as soon as possible.

Wards to remember

KEYNANS could do well to remember the words of Samuel Johnson: "The more we know of human nature as it is, the more we shall value it as it ought to be."

Young ideas?

Week-end Standard

HARM OF BEASIDE MAIN ATTRACTION FOR THE TOURIST

By Susan Coggall

THE two words "The Coast" have an almost mystical significance in East Africa. To old timers (and for once many children can be included in this category) they mean memories of delightful holidays and hopes of to come this year, and next year, and the year after that.

To newcomers they mean the determination to get there and see for themselves the beaches and the palm trees, Fort Jesus, Gedi, Malindi, and the Old Town of Mombasa itself.

Part of the fascination and zest of the Kenya Coast lies in the remoteness from the other densely settled districts of the country. Mombasa is the other end of 200 miles of "the coast road".

For this reason one of the best ways of getting there is to fly. East African Airways run a regular service of Comair and Sabena, service Malindi, Mombasa, Tanganyika and Zanzibar.

Changing gear

The passenger who has previously only flown by jet from one capital to another, thousands of miles away, will be delighted to hear an air hostess explaining that the change in the noise of the engine shortly after take-off is nothing but merely equivalent to a car changing gear.

The same passenger will be shocked to see big game over Taveta, because apart from the group of bushes which are quite obviously elephant, even at a height of 13,500ft. in a Canadian, or about half that in a Dakota, there are hippos and rhinos and countless other shapes in the clouds.

Even the Mombasa Road looks good from that height!

Real tribute

The most meaningful tribute to the value of any air service, however, is that of the passenger who is sick, yet who can still appreciate the value of the service. I was one of these.

East African Airways runs a bus into Mombasa from the airport, for the benefit of passengers who are not being met and who require plenty of the harbour, and of parts of the town where vegetation and buildings seem to be fighting for supremacy.

The driver who takes to Mombasa to avoid garage bills for his car or the time of the train journey takes about 720 hours, as opposed to the flying time of 80 minutes, need not be afraid that he will be stranded, because car hire firms abound and it is even possible to rent a scooter.

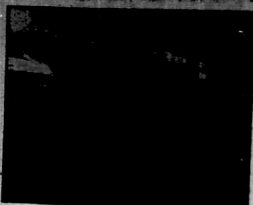

Everyone has his own ideas about what he wants to see in Mombasa. After it has opened on about August 18 it is going to be the new swimming club and night club on the site of the former New Florida. It is by the sea on Mombasa Island, almost within a stone's throw of the Oceanic Hotel.

Sharp contrast

The swimming club, to be known as "The Dolphin" and the night club which will be called "The Moon" are the enterprise of Mr. "Winkle" Thompson, a South African born Chinese who now spends six months doing the same in Johannesburg and Pretoria.

The night club will be chic and sophisticated when it is ready, and Winkle hopes to work with Mr. Ron Partridge of the Regatta Club for the purpose of hiring entertainers.

Outside in the street the night club will be the more traditional, over a series of surrounding streets, inside the fruit stalls and the many people wearing kumbebe, but to the essential difference between the Coast and Up-country.

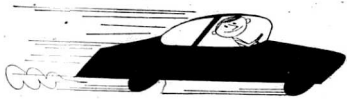

visits the Coast

MOON bathing may not be so beneficial for one as sitting in the sun, but it is definitely more romantic. Our picture may look "too-lit" but we can assure the reader that the photographer did not touch up this negative.

On the right, a row of motor scooters wait for passengers beside the Ministry of Works building in Fort Jesus Road. When these were first introduced to Mombasa they caused quite a stir - not as bad as the Minibus war which we waged in London.

TOP holidaymakers and businessmen make their way to the swarming Canadians for their 30 minutes' flight to Mombasa.

A busy, bustling and busy scene all over the good ship Agouades just off the Mombasa coastline. Boats such as this might prove too expensive to hire for most families but they can have just as much fun in a day-out canoe.

NOT a bad catch on the right for this group caught on Nyali Beach. Harpoon guns and muskets can be hired at most beach hotels and one can always sell off the fish to pay for the hire charges. Most people, however, eat their catch.

Strict security as Kenyatta's house gets final touches

Games matches - At 11

Secrecy maintained as time draws near

JOMO KENYATTA will be back in Gatundu in the Kiambu District within the next 72 hours. That was the general feeling in Nairobi last night. The move from Maralal could take place today, but a number of close friends and acquaintances believe that tomorrow will be the day.

Security arrangements in the Gatundu area have been strengthened. Kenyatta's move and the transfer of personal possessions will be carried out under strict police supervision. In a broadcast message recorded at Maralal on Wednesday and put out by K.B.S. yesterday, Kenyatta appealed for calm and order.

The Government has made no official statement. All concerned with the move have been warned to keep the matter a close secret. But if the state of preparedness at the new house is any indication it is thought unlikely that the final touches cannot be completed before Sunday night.

PRESS TO GET AT LEAST HOUR'S NOTICE

The following statement was issued last night by the Press Office of the Kenya Government Information Services:-

New organisations wishing to be in the firm of Mr. Kenyatta in his house at Gatundu should be prepared to be on stand-by by August 11 and 17. Applications will receive an answer telephone call or letter within 24 hours. Applications to interview should be made to the Press Office. From there they will be passed on to the appropriate authorities. This will reach Kenyatta in the next 24 hours.

House ready tomorrow

Last night the leader of the Kadu Youth Wing, Mr. Owino O. Kathi, suggested that the £1,750 Mercedes-Benz motor car has been given to Kenyatta by Central Province should be bought — as a national gift — for Kenyatta's personal use.

"Rural" Staff Reporters who visited Gatundu yesterday gave their impressions in the following reports:

August 15 — The date originally forecast in the East African Standard, had been confirmed as the day for Jomo Kenyatta's move to Gatundu.

A member of the Reception Committee, Mr. E. Khashaka, said after visiting the house: "Work is getting on well. The house is ready by Saturday and it will then be ready for Mr. Kenyatta to be moved in at any time before or on August 15."

This was confirmed by the Minister for Works, Mr. Jamdar, who has for some time been carrying his calculations on August 15. The chairman of the Reception Committee, Mr. M. Mutiso, said the move was certain to be made between August 11 and 17. Saturday is the earliest date furniture can be taken into the house, as floor polishing will not be finished until then.

Mr. M. Blundell, the leader of the New Party and Minister for Agriculture, said that for the house, all important work has been completed. Mr. Blundell is supervising the work. Mr. Mutiso revealed that Mr. Blundell is helping Kenyatta's East African Tobacco Co., to supply furniture from the firm.

Mr. E. S. Sagoo and Mr. A. G. Irvingham have also given fittings. The Kenya Central Staff College, which originally offered to furnish the house, is also offering to furnish it. It is furnishing the house with 20 beds. The kitchen will be complete and certain fittings will be ready by Saturday.

Mr. Mutiso, who was still in the house when he came to his office, said that the move was getting on well. He said that the house was getting on well and that the move was getting on well.

Mr. Khashaka said yesterday that all arrangements for Kenyatta's house, which will be in the house, were well advanced. He said that the move was getting on well.

'I appeal to you to keep calm'

Crowds start to gather

A MESSAGE from Jomo Kenyatta at Maralal, appealing for calm when he returns to Gatundu, was broadcast in Jomo Kenyatta's voice in Kisumu and Siwahili by the Kenya Broadcasting Service yesterday. A translation of the message was broadcast in other languages.

The English translation of the message to the Kenyan people in other countries, in the name of the Kenya Broadcasting Service, said: "I appeal to you to keep calm. I have done and am still doing for you all my very best."

"But I am sorry to say that under the present circumstances I shall not be able to meet and talk to you all as I would like to do. I shall be very sorry to say that under the present circumstances I shall not be able to meet and talk to you all as I would like to do."

"However, in a short time I shall have another opportunity to bring a number of my people to you in various places where I will be able to see you all and to hear from you all."

"I am sure that you will all be very glad to hear from me and to see me. I am sure that you will all be very glad to hear from me and to see me."

DEAN RUSK FORECASTS TALKS ON BERLIN

THE U.S. Secretary of State Mr. Dean Rusk said in Paris yesterday "We can expect negotiations on Berlin."

"Exactly when and how will be decided upon by your Government."

Mr. Rusk was on his way home after talks with Italian and West German leaders.

Asked to outline what moves the United States might make to bring about such talks, he replied: "I do not think I should discuss particular moves in advance."

Washington, meanwhile, in a full weekly Press conference that Mr. Rusk had offered to open personally for solving the Berlin problem.

Strong belief

Mr. Rusk said, however, that the Soviet Premier had expressed his desire for negotiations and other issues. The United States will continue to use every diplomatic means possible to bring about such talks.

The president was asked if there was any "crack" in Mr. Khrushchev's statement that a booklet of West Berlin was the work of the Soviet Government. Mr. Rusk said: "I don't know."

Cameroon plan

Participants in the tentative conference just concluded in London, Kamerun, today discussed arrangements for the reunification of the Cameroons and Southern Cameroons on October 1, 1961.

GIFT CARS ROLL IN

WHEN Jomo Kenyatta arrives at his Gatundu home soon he may find himself in a dilemma as to which car to use. It is likely that he will find at least three presented by various groups.

Already there is a Mercedes-Benz car, a Fiat 1200 cc. and a Fiat 1200 cc. delivered on Wednesday by leaders of the Central Kenya Branch of the Kenya Reception Committee.

Further, another car is being delivered today by Mr. M. Mutiso, who is a just returning from the Kenya Reception Committee. Kenyatta has ordered the vehicle. The Kenya Youth Wing has been helping to get it — with its original name, "Kenyatta car for yesterday's new car."

34 children die in air crash

PLANS set at half-mast yesterday at Crofton, Surrey, mourning the loss of 34 local schoolboys and two teachers, killed on Wednesday night when their holiday airplane crashed near Stratford, Norway.

First reports of the missing plane were obtained in the morning by newspapermen, and the police reports from Oslo of the finding of the wreckage covered the fronts of the evening newspapers.

Enquiries were immediately started in London to help New York investigations to find the 14 boys, two teachers and a crew of three aircrew.

The Aviation Ministry said that the wreckage of the plane was found in the mountains of the south of Norway. Police cars started Crofton on Monday to find out the details of the boys' plane and to see if they were on the telephone.

Beacon parties yesterday searched the blackened wreckage of the missing aircraft.

Quiet week as Nairobi investors hold off BUT PRICE TREND IS UPWARDS

Nairobi Stock Exchange experienced another quiet week and business was on a very restricted level. This was partly due to the fact that trading week ended by the Bank Holiday, but investors generally appear to be holding off and forward was this. Price changes, however, were mostly upward. C.A. and General Index rose 25 cents to 5/50 buyers.

Do You Laugh Your Greatest Powers Away?

THOSE STRANGE INNER URGES

You have heard the phrase, "Laugh, clown, laugh." Well, that fits me perfectly. I'd fret, worry and try to reason my way out of difficulties—all to no avail. Then I'd have a hunch, a something within that would tell me to do a certain thing. I'd laugh it off with a shrug. I knew too much, I thought, to heed these impressions. Well, it's different now—I've learned to use this inner power and I no longer make the mistakes I did, because I do the right thing at the right time.

This FREE BOOK Will Prove What Your Mind Can Do!

Here is how I got started right. I had heard about hypnosis appealing past lives. I began to think there must be some inner intelligence with which we were born. In fact, I often heard it said there was; but how could I use it, how could I make it work for me daily? That was my problem. I wanted to learn to direct this inner voice, master it if I could. Finally, I wrote to the Rosicrucians, a world-wide fratternity of progressive men and women, who offered to send me, without obligation, a free book entitled The Mastery of Life. That book opened a new world to me. I advise you to write today and ask for your copy. It will prove to you what your mind can demonstrate. Don't go through life laughing your mental powers away. Treasure!

Sensible chaps! One can't be too careful of one's Pilsner these days. If anyone else knew they had this hidden cache of liquid gold it wouldn't last a minute. Still, they've deserved their Pilsner after all that digging, and it won't be long before they are enjoying it.

We are doing all we can to increase the supply of Pilsner, but so great is the demand that we are sometimes unable to keep pace. In apology for this, and hope you will bear with us... to make the best takes time.

All the thrills of game fishing — and a festival

By DEBORAH MORRIS

A CARTOON I thought made sense in a situation about the elderly fisherman holding up his hands to show the size of the "big fish" he had just caught. The fish was a small, common fish, but the fisherman was shouting "I caught a shark!"

THE 1961 Malindi Festival, from November 7-12, promises to be one of the brightest events East Africans have witnessed. Apart from the deep sea fishing contests which will keep the men busy, there are many attractions laid on for women and children. A display of Gwinda dancing should bring in large crowds at the Malindi Stadium, while there are dances at the various hotels, ranging from a Tramps Ball at the Snodgrass to a smooch-and-buffet dance at the Eden Race and a fisherman's ball at Lawford's. The "East African Standard" are running a Malindi competition in conjunction with East African Airways, details of which will be announced in next week's issue.

These are of the fish that the fisherman who comes to Malindi for the season which lasts from October to March each year. They are out after bilina, which are of three kinds: marlin, swordfish and sailfin and in 1961, 631 sailfin and 27 marlin were caught by various people.

There are five kinds of marlin, black, striped, blue, grey and white, but only black and blue have so far been caught. These run up to an average of about 1000 lbs. through the recent fashions are very much more and will normally be as much as two hours' sport before being hooked.

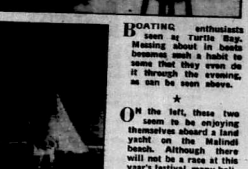

These who catch these fish, and are afterwards the fishing boats on which they are fishing, are the experts. But there is a difference between the Malindi Sea Festival and the Kenya records are held by George Anthony Thacker, the high standard experience is not necessary at all. The first world record was for Malindi was by a girl, 900, line test record of 44 lb. Black Runner in the women's 500.

quarrel of the boat and the skill and experience of the man at the wheel and the power, as well as on the fishermen himself. Some are staffed by men who know every nook of the ground. All have every modern device making for efficiency and comfort and everything is provided except the beer and sandwiches which the passengers probably won't have time for anyway. Some are even fitted with self-cooling apparatus and with a refrigerator. The usual method of catching is by trolling, and a collection of bait is used.

An exciting day leaves little room for sleep, but there is the feel of the pull on the line, especially in occasions when four passengers on one boat hooked four sailfin simultaneously.

At other times the fish may be the smallest recorded, as when a 10 lb. fish was caught in a further 1000 yds. which jumped into the boat and took a mouthful of bait before being hooked.

ON the left, these two seem to be enjoying themselves aboard a land yacht on the Malindi beach. Although there will not be a race at this year's festival, many holiday-makers will no doubt try their hand at this exciting sport.

pool for dramatic dives, children's galas and every sort of game to play — tennis, croquet, golf (even moon), table-tennis, bridge, even chess. There is the splendid sweep overland called Malindi Bay and also Silverstream where the basking sun and down the Coast, as to Gole to visit ancient ruins. There is game to be seen, and if you have the time and very reasonably by the day. Fish, oysters and scallops, such as mackerel, are available in the markets and eaten the same as you do in the "fish and chips" bath.

During the actual week of the festival there will be other amusements laid on as well. A fair, typical of the Malindi is an Afro-oriental — the local Gwinda came second in an amateur sailing boat race. The Royal Navy and the British Army will be present.

In these days of worry and political troubles, it may be able to spend all our leisure time in a holiday, and enjoy it only for a week, and see the festival in the sun.

THE WORLD USES DRESS DESIGNS FROM FAMOUS PAINTINGS

Excellent dress shops can produce some well-travelled buyers, and some of them they will use with the world leaders in having dresses and scarves with designs have been developed by the famous artist. For example, Betty's in the New Stanley Building, reproductions of famous paintings which were discovered in galleries up and down Italy. I have some silk scarves, 35 inches square, portraying pictures by Azzurro varying from an autumn scene to a view of Florence to an abstract composition. These scarves cost $25 for each.

Fabric prints in the C a c e s s a spring like costume collection in bold tones are in many cases, inspired by paintings. Color, texture, and design have made an easy transition from canvas to cloth, and emerge as the abstract geometric design. These national children from the first day party dresses are soft, pastel shades of Christian Dior's masterpiece all the fragile delicacy of the Marie Lantier painting.

Prints inspired by paintings are a theme in almost every leading Paris collection. In the past, subjects have become living, animated compositions in airy, feather-weight measurements and organic. In the porphyry and brilliant-toned jewelry boxes on wide silk. Pierre Cardin has carried the design into the range of his fabric prints in a wide variety of styles. He has used motifs to be worn in the evening and in the day.

His flower-prints are a result of his artistic sense. He has used motifs to be worn in the evening and in the day. He has used motifs to be worn in the evening and in the day. He has used motifs to be worn in the evening and in the day.

STAMP STORY

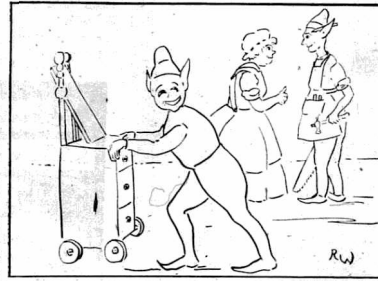

By KENNETH ANTHONY
THIS is the first adhesive postage stamp ever issued - Britain's Penny Black which first appeared on May 6, 1840. It was in use for less than a year, but has not acquired the distinction of being either the world's rarest or most valuable stamp. Over 40,000,000 were issued and many of them forgeries. The reason for this is the difficulty of having reproduction over a long period, of the same design, at the same time, and most letters were cancelled in the few days that they were in use. It is said that the original design was written on the inside of the wrapper and the design was copied on the wrapper. It is said that the original design was written on the inside of the wrapper and the design was copied on the wrapper.

Furniture-moving presents surprises to Pixie Pushkin

By ROBINA WRIGHT
Pixie Pushkin was always happiest when he was moving his furniture about. He loved to spring clean his cottage and change the rooms around. "This would not have bothered me at all," he said, "if my Pushkin had been big enough and strong enough to move them for himself, but he won't." He was always making his neighbors to come and help him. If Mother had been in the kitchen, she would have been in the kitchen, she would have been in the kitchen, she would have been in the kitchen.

Day of wrath who charged over the top

BY JOHN BOTTING

A T. 7.30 on the morning of July 1, 1916, about 100,000 British troops went over the top of their trenches and advanced on the German lines in the Somme. By nightfall, when the losses caused to be counted, it was estimated that there were about 400,000 British soldiers, most terrible losses the British Army has ever suffered in a single day.

And in his headquarters 12 miles behind the lines, Gen. Sir Douglas Haig, not realising the extent of the attack, carried on his work as usual. It was not until the attack had begun to wane that he was informed of the disaster.

Such a disaster had never before happened in the history of the world. The attack had been planned for weeks, and the weather was perfect, and the British Army had been drilled for months in the tactics of the attack.

By modifying the proposed plans for alterations the council has decided it can build enough additional space to cater for its growing needs.

this will warm your heart

Standard Government, Arusha.

Included in the proposed work is a new wing for the Health Department, which will also cater for public vaccinations. A new committee of health, town and general affairs has been formed by the Town Clerk's Department.

Direct labour

For security purposes the open market for direct labour in the Town Hall is to be restricted. The work is to start as soon as possible and the council intends to use direct labour for the work.

Lack of support for the Public Works Bill in Arusha is now disappointing, the Deputy Town Clerk has noted.

Not suitable

One of the reasons for the lack of interest, they were told, was that the librarians had not always attended at the meetings of the committee.

The possibility of removing the library to buildings vacated by the former market, which has been inspected, but it has been found that these are unsuitable. The only other possibility is to use the office as well as recruitment under the terms of the agreement to the library.

Zanzibar leader sees union heads

Standard Government, Zanzibar.

LEADERS of the Zambian Labour and Peninsular Federation of Labour have had a meeting with the island's Chief Minister, Sheikh Mohamed Shammah Hamadi.

The general secretary, N. N. Moyo said the federation would cooperate with the Government in every way that could promote a prosperous Zanzibar, but emphasized the danger if the Government failed to understand the labour movement in Zanzibar.

Mr. Moyo commented the Colonial Trade Union Decree, which was adopted in 1958, and urged the Chief Minister to cooperate in making certain amendments to this act.

KENYA has been a long time in the making. The Westminster type of constitution is the only one that will take root and provide us with the much desired objective of every individual - to go about freely saying and doing what he pleases, without interference with others.

It appears that the intention of H.M.G. is to shove another Westminster type constitution to us from their saying: "Here you are, now go into Independence."

The experience we have from a number of Asian and African countries forms that a Westminster type constitution cannot work here.

Our India split into two, and Pakistan split into two, are a vivid illustration of what a constitution which is not of the soil really means. It is a disaster.

To South Africa the attempt to shove the Westminster type constitution on to this country is a disaster. It is a disaster because the Westminster type constitution is not of the soil.

In Ghana the Westminster type constitution is not of the soil. It is a disaster because the Westminster type constitution is not of the soil.

In Kenya the Westminster type constitution is not of the soil. It is a disaster because the Westminster type constitution is not of the soil.

It is not that these countries are governed by wicked men. It is that the Westminster type constitution is not of the soil.

AIRLINES MAY SLASH FARES

By JOHN CHADWICK

FACED by dozens of angry pilots in their new transatlantic jetliner, American and European operators may slash fares drastically in the summer, the trade leaders in New York. "Already $100 New York from London, the fares may be slashed to $75, the lowest fare ever for a transatlantic jetliner."

While ordinary fares are expected to be slashed, experts believe that the airlines will not slash fares on the transatlantic jetliner. The airlines will not slash fares on the transatlantic jetliner.

The memorial, which is the focal point of anti-Communist demonstrations in the past.

The incident involving the British patrol was the first brush between Allied and Communist forces since the weekend marches to seal off East Berlin.

A British Army announcement said the incident occurred when the border line was not clearly marked.

Military police on a routine patrol were taken up by the East Germans, questioned and refused to march along the border line.

"This sort of incident has happened before and a number of occasions in the past," it was added.

Kenya needs freedom elections

MR. WILLIAM BOUYA displays his ignorance of Kenya's political history when he presents an interval of "freedom elections" without general elections, etc.

Tanganyika has had two general elections in less than two years. Similarly, two constitutional conferences have taken place in a similar period of time. Bouya should be thankful that Tanganyika was peacefully full constituted by the constitution of 1960. He should be thankful that the members of the Colonial Service in Tanganyika are as salient as any other.

The present Lancaster House constitutional programme did not provide for any flexibility other than it contained any provision for a port of call. The Leader of Government Business and a subsequent Deputy Leader in essence did not intend to depart any fresh Kenya if that was desirable, as it would be to other parts of the world. Kenya should just follow the path of the other parts of the world.

It is necessary that Kenya should have a free political development, even if it did not wish any flexibility in its constitution. Any legislation which is false when its constitution was made, is false. Every country has its different political problems. There is no one political problem that is not different from any other political problem. It is not therefore possible to have an argument on more political, political, etc.

With the present political situation in the country, it is not possible to have a conference to formulate a new constitution. It is not possible to think any political development, even if it did not wish any flexibility in its constitution. It is not possible to have a conference to formulate a new constitution. It is not possible to think any political development, even if it did not wish any flexibility in its constitution.

After the long wait, Kenya's return is so quiet

Standard Staff Reporter Nairobi

THREE weeks of anticipation, Kenya's move from Marilla to Garundu on Monday came as a surprise to an anti-climax.

Only 2,000 or 3,000 people had gathered near his new place in Kenya who, with his family had been flown in by Police air wing planes from Marilla to the Kibera airstrip early in the morning and taken from there to Garundu in an Administration Land Rover escorted by 100 police vehicles.

The crowd grew during the day but it soon reached the proportions which the police had expected and had made preparations to control. One of the most important points made at a Press conference immediately after the arrival was that land that was developed to the benefit of the country would be secure, but that undeveloped land would be handed over to the landless.

Kenya could give no indication when his restriction under would be lifted, said the Leader of Government Business, Mr. Ngala, who said he could not be expected to give any indication of the future attitude shown at Garundu on Kenya's arrival.

Another man who was asked and was not answered by a judge during an abortive attempt on a day in Banar Street, Nairobi. The third man was Mr. Khalid Dervai Shah, who had been by the escaping planes when he stood in the ground and tried to raise his arms.

Condemned

Many Asian shops in the city were closed next day and the political leaders condemned the move.

Mr. Ngala, for example, said it made it difficult for the Kenya people to help to support the movement of Kenya towards independence.

At Garundu, Keniait described the shooting as a "terrible thing" and said the type should be eliminated.

It was adjourned until the following day.

A crowd of welcome, Nyero, including many Kenu supporters, assembling before travelling by bus and car to Garundu to receive Kenya's home.
Thousands more made a similar journey.

Tanganyika KAUNDA FAILS TO 'BLOW THE LID OFF'

Standard Staff Reporter Dar es Salaam

THE leader of the National Independence Party of Northern Rhodesia Mr. Kenneth Kaunda, having arrived in Dar es Salaam with fanfare trumpets, whistled the ascription of Pressmen by hinting that he was going to "blow the lid off" the Cooperist situation in the second Pan-African Youth seminar. His speech, however, proved disappointing for the expected disclosures proved singularly unnewsworthy.

The seminar ended so much with a bang as with a whimper. Its organization left much to be desired. For example, a session arranged "mainly" for an "most inconvenient time" was set at 1.20, and the programme was changed with bewildering and some times unpragmatic regularity. At an international event it

Trade show

A feature of the independence celebrations in Tanganyika is the Trade and Agricultural Exhibition.

This will tell the story of Tanganyika's natural, agricultural, industrial and social progress and spotlight the future potential.

Smart girls

Six smart girls had got off to a flying start at Garundu in Salama airport.

Among the many gifts which Kenya has received for his new home is a canteen of cutlery from Kenya's Muslim community. Seen here making the presentation are, from left to right, Messrs. Haji Hamid, Zaidi Qures and Bohar Mouloud.

Territory's first Bible in tribal language

TANGANYIKA now has its first entire Bible in a tribal language. At Naas, 60 miles west of Mtwara, the Wamwaka celebrated the achievement of the Bible in their own tongue by holding a prayer service.

Crowds, streamed in by foot, bicycle by tractor and on bus, each carrying the necessary fuel to buy a copy.

How could he forget those seven long years, painstakingly writing out in hand-penned translations of the Bible text from the Swahili text.

Seven years

Zakaria Baka understood as he delivered the prayer message at the service.

His three years as a student in the Bible School at Pangani had been incidental in the hours before and after classes.

Several of the manuscripts also were translated in the night hours by the same hand.

After Dr. Akiba of the British Bible Society's hatched determination to give to the Tanganyika and to the Sukuma Paramount Chief long years formed at home and abroad, and 5,000 Bible Society's church members.

Adam's Paradise Regained in 1956

By the sea...

WHEN the Archangel Gabriel showed Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden in 1008, the best and sweetest of human-made sweetfish were caught from the Malindi.

Malindi Bay itself is not short in with reefs so the breakers can catch up to the silver beach and provide quite exciting fishing for those who do not want to catch up to the fish.

There is enough reef, however, to discourage sharks, yet schools of porpoise will jump and play right in the breakers.

What else can one do in the sea? Well, there are sailing boats for hire and a beautiful expanse of coast. So and so on. There are sailing boats that can be collected (one identified — or bought).

Arch vendors if you feel like going to find them, or you could arrange for the boat if they could not find the elephant and rhino and the various species of fish including the very rare sable antelope.

There is no official National Park however, for this is a transport, luck and some knowledge of the country are necessary.

The nearest National Park is in Taita, and it is the size of an ancient city.

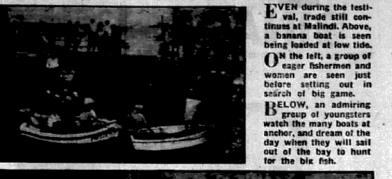

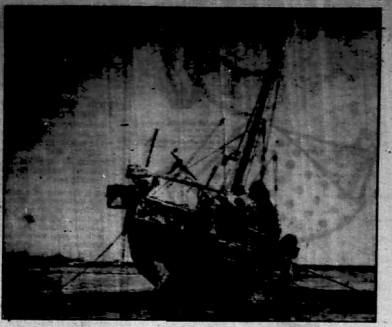

ALL the hotels at Malindi are booked for the Festival, but Allen and Charlton, the house agents, have a few houses to let, prices ranging from £5 to £15 10s. Readers interested should contact Mrs. Allen, P.O. Box 381, Malindi.

Certainly, when one sees the foodstuffs coming in with their catch to be weighed and sold, the attractions of this popular spot are obvious.

The sea has little fish as well. Brilliant and beautiful, they swim among the coral reefs, a myriad of colours and shapes. One never can catch both along the shore and in the reef and tell him self that each individual of each fish should spend two or three or more in a London set shop. The reef can be traced in a hired aquaria, which in the traditional local outriggers, can will carry a diver.

Underwater fishing with oxygen tanks attracts many keen sportsmen who prefer to seek out the larger fish and do something other than mere catch. All the equipment can be hired.

Still another form of fishing can be had along the coast. Some big catches have been made by this cheap and easy method — a 300-cwt pull-out for example, and one of the most

EVEN during the festival, trade still continues at Malindi. Above, a banana boat is seen being loaded at low tide. On the left, a group of eager fishermen and women are seen just before setting out in search of big game. Below, an admiring group of youngsters watch the many boats at anchor, and dream of the day when they will sail out of the bay to hunt for the fish.

Palm grove

The two main lagoons are Blue Lagoon and Turko Bay, but there are a number of white beaches, coves and outlying coral islands and reefs to explore. Besides a picturesque fishing village built under a grove of coconut palms, a dhow can be hired and anchored here and there if a boat search of coral which reaches to the mouth of Mida Creek which also has good bird watching and goggling (though this latter is inclined to be spoilt by the current of the tide filling the creek).

There are many species of snakes to stay with four miles away from the reef and a camp-site under the palms where water, sanitation and dishes may be had for a few shillings a week. One cannot feel that Gabriel had tasted these delights when he bled, Quilua and Malindi there in the year 1008. The descendants of Adam and Eve should not do so.

KENYA GIRLS PUT TRUST IN DIAMONDS

By LESLEY CLAY

WHAT precious stone is the favourite of Kenya women? It is the costume jewellery vogue done up in the jeweller's trade? Are pearls still fashionable? These and other questions were answered by the girls of the country's leading jewellers.

The answer to the first question is not unexpectedly, diamonds. To the second, not unduly, for the kind of diamonds which is an investment, the piece that not only holds good but in good time.

It is worth, they seem as a rule, to wear diamonds in costume jewellery. Even with the present vogue, it is not the pearls which are worn rather scarce than diamonds. The diamonds which are worn remain as they are, and are not changed for pearls.

Why the ant-bear hides himself in a burrow

By RUBINA WRIGHT

"HERE comes that silly Muhanga again," grumbled the animals to one another as they saw the ant-bear.

The afternoon was hot and they were resting in the shade of a great thorn tree. None of the animals liked single old Muhanga very much and they wished he would keep away from them.

He sat down clumsily, treating on the jackal's tail. The jackal stopped. "Be careful, you stupid beast!" he growled. "You might get into the ant-bear's trap."

STAMP STORY

Pick of the soups from HEINZ

Most post offices are Government monopolies... but, nevertheless, some private individuals and organisations have taken to run their own posts and issue their own stamps.

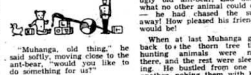

Two local posts still thriving are those of the British islands of Lundy, near Bristol, and the Channel Islands, and Herm, near Guernsey, which has a permanent population of only 100.

Another island has an official post office, but the owner or tenant has organised a public service to carry mail as far as the mainland - in the case of Lundy - or to other islands.

Both islands used to have their own stamps, but these were cancelled because they were not used.

Story-telling unable to match power of veld setting

by MICHAEL DAVIDSON

HARD on the heels of Siegfried Stander's strong record about cattle-driving in Beers and elsewhere, this Desert Place comes another novel from the same publisher with the pitiless African continent as a background. The novel is by the English Rooker, a Lawyer for Estate the Zulu land, to which a South African family, the Krainers, come in 1922, to take possession of a Government settlement where the country is largely deserted—the game has been shot, the rivers are dry and the soil is unproductive. The Krainers' farm where they are to live is a bare, rocky, and unattractive one. The country is a barren, dry, and unattractive one. FRESH LIGHT ON MUCH MALIGNED GENERAL

By MAJ. W. ROBERT FORAN

Brasshat, Basil Collier has written an absorbingly interesting and illuminating biography of Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, an important part in all of them. Wilson was intimately associated during those years with both military and political events, and indeed had an important part in all of them.

Wilson was a man of many talents and many interests. He was a soldier, a statesman, a diplomat, and a writer. He was a man of many talents and many interests. He was a soldier, a statesman, a diplomat, and a writer.

Covering the game of politics in any country

IT IS OUR DUTY TO MAINTAIN THIS GREAT HERITAGE

The Governor of Kenya, Sir Patrick Benson, yesterday officially opened Kenya's new Parliament at the National Kenya Game Lodge, at a ceremony at Nanyuki.

Pointing out that he had personally taken a great deal of interest in the game conservation problems of Kenya, the Governor said he felt it was their duty to maintain this "great heritage".

A second major material consideration was that the country's animals were a great attraction particularly to the visitors from overseas.

"There is no doubt in my mind that game lodges such as the Mount Kenya Game Lodge, designed to make easy and enjoyable the observation of the fauna of the country, will do much to educate both our own citizens and visitors from overseas and to impress upon them the value and importance of watching our animals in their natural and very beautiful habitat," Sir Benson said.

Delegates found J.K. somewhat preoccupied

The English addition to the sport cost the Convention of Association of Sportsmen of useful publicity when they were in Nairobi in June to present a petition to the Government. The Convention was held in the House of Commons.

The Convention's chairman, Mr. E. C. Cook, told Nairobi delegates the day of the opening of the Convention was the following day he had the death of the late Lord Windlesham.

Mr. Kaunda will 'make it hot' in N. Rhodesia

The leader of the Northern Rhodesia United Nations Independence Party, Mr. Kenneth Kaunda, who left Tanganyika yesterday for Lusaka, told a news conference that he is going back to what must be a hot situation, if it is not very hot yet, I am going to help make it so."

He said racialism in Northern Rhodesia was fighting a losing battle. "The release of the white man — the big man — Jomo Kenyatta, which the Government has called 'backslapping yesterday's sweeping victory for the Malawi Party in Nyasaland, and indeed our own campaign at home have done much to make it clear that the Government is not only exist politically much longer and the quicker we finish with him from politically, the better for our country."

WARNING TO DRIVERS IGNORING TICKETS

MOTORISTS who ignore traffic "tickets" in Nairobi can expect stern measures to be taken against them, said the acting magistrate, Col. A. G. B. Thompson, in a warning broadcast in the city.

"Yesterday the magistrate reprimanded those who have warned offenders who have been issued with tickets," he said. "I am sure we will all agree that the more strict measures are necessary for three months if necessary."

'Sound of Music' given thorough working over by record companies

By JOHN MITCHELL

When a major musical comes to town it certainly gets a thorough working over by the record companies. The Sound of Music has the original Broadway cast on a Philips long-player. The London production on H.M.V. and on long of that there are two other versions in this country.

THE new Sound of Music (Decca) LPs are a double album at first, but turn out to be an LP and a double album. The new Sound of Music (Decca) LPs are a double album at first, but turn out to be an LP and a double album.

When the album was made in 1959, the group had been singing together for five years. Richard Rodgers' music is so good that they have been singing together for five years.

In the garden...

By H. RUSSELL

IN the construction of the trough featured in our last article a slope on the bottom of the tank is supplied from the top. It will be seen that the chequerwork is a 40-gallon drum with the top tank fixed (see copy) and should flow through the trough to the lower tank.

Looking to please

THE lowest of fish is what the herring is sometimes called - yet I can assure you that the lady among us is not of that quality or goodness.

People tend to overlook the fact that the herring is extremely nutritious. Perhaps because it has no bones, they leave it to be in the hands of the fishmonger. For those who want to know how to prepare a really good herring, here are the methods I think best.

Stuffed herrings: Clean, wash and weigh the herrings. Remove the heads and tails. Mix together the same quantity of butter, onion, carrot, parsley, and a few grains of cayenne. Stuff the herrings with this mixture. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes.

Fish roasts: Clean, wash and weigh the herrings. Remove the heads and tails. Mix together the same quantity of butter, onion, carrot, parsley, and a few grains of cayenne. Stuff the herrings with this mixture. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 minutes.

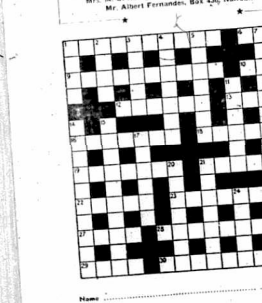

Water cakes: Into a small basin pour three quarters of a pint of water. Add a pinch of salt and a pinch of pepper. Beat the mixture for 10 minutes.

Beef: Cut the beef into small pieces. Season with salt and pepper. Fry in a moderate oven for 20 minutes.

Soup: Heat the water in a pot. Add the beef and vegetables. Simmer for 20 minutes.

LIMURU COURSE IN PERFECT CONDITION FOR TOMORROW'S N.H.

SOME first-class racing is the prospect at the Limuru National Hunt meetings which have been good and the course itself is in perfect condition, a pleasant change from the on-top-of-the-ground going at recent Nairobi meetings.

Despite the fact that Big Ben, Sen Horse and Pronto must be regarded as doubtful runners, they generally should be good. An amateur rider new to Kenya will have a moment in some of tomorrow's events.

Mr. Hugh McCalmont who, with his younger brother, is on a month's visit to Kenya. Mr. McCalmont, who rode a number of winners in the early English N.H. season, is the elder son of Mr. Dermot McCalmont, a member of the Jockey Club and of the Irish Jockey Club, whose light blue and scarlet quarters still make a familiar sight to British spectators.

There appears to be little likelihood of the annual East African inter-territorial series, probably the first for some time. The tournament should have been arranged about the time of their December departure, but the unfortunate aftermath. That has been ruled out and Tanganyika, too, proved to be too preoccupied with politics to accept its nomination as the venue. Kenya had, however, to stage the tournament but there has been no date. These are the matter, etc.

Juventus F.C. are back in their most confident form again, are producing some of the best football in the world. The Double League. Paulo Loda's team has strengthened the defence while the rearranged forward line has proved an great success.

Cricket is far happier on the left wing while on the right flank Colfer is more effective. He is a player of the highest calibre, a player of the month or so ago, is slugging into a top-class centre-forward. He formerly played for the Italian Division. It club Alessandro near Turin.

It is understood that the possibility of Bulgarietti returning to the club is being considered. He ranks most well mounted, he is to remain in Italy.

James L. Sullivan

Manchester district, Kenya's L. Sullivan, who will represent all six schools in the 100 yds. race, has fought 23 contests, won 19 by knockout, and has one draw. He was looking for the British against the U.S. Army in the final at a technical K.O.

He also played Rugby Union, at wing three-quarter, for the Manchester district, before leaving for Kenya.

Sullivan assisted Father Walsby in the teaching and training of St. Mary's School boys, and the results of their best efforts have been apparent in the schoolboy boxing tournaments.

Due to a slight error of judgement by the president of the St. Mary's Boxing Association, Sullivan was referred to as "Father" by his opponents, a name which was showed upon him through a slip of the tongue.
