THE WORLD OF SPORT

Karen C.C. Griffith hero of Kenya's first air rally for 9 years

S.G. GRIFFITH the Sussex amateur wicket-keeper, was the hero of the first day in the second Test match between the M.C.C. and Trinidad at Port of Spain on Wednesday.

With England losing three wickets for 58 runs in the first innings, Griffith played the innings for the occasion, cool and unimpaired, and finished with a half-century.

At close of play he had completed nearly half the M.C.C. total of 200 wickets, and was undefeated with 130 runs to his credit.

Griffith also was the best and most important batsman in the first Test for England, when he was unbeaten for 130 runs, with only five wickets taken. As the innings advanced, Griffith's batting was the mainstay of the M.C.C. batting, and he was the only batsman who was not out.

Griffith's batting was the mainstay of the M.C.C. batting, and he was the only batsman who was not out.

Robertson run out

The conditions were ideal for a batsman with a perfectly smooth stroke, and Griffith was the only batsman who was not out.

The relay race

The second relay should also be interesting to spectators, as it will be a contest between the two best teams in the country.

THREE NAIROBI WEDDINGS

Flight-Lieut. Hughes, D.F.C., and his bride, Miss Maude Smart, after their wedding. Flight-Lieut. Hughes was a Flight-commander with the Royal Air Force when it came here last September and took part in the Battle of Britain spectacularly.

Miss and Mrs. David Chimes after their wedding at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit with the bridesmaids, Miss Frances Nelson, Miss Jennifer Lawrence and Miss Anne Smith, and the bride's mother, Mrs. L. Chimes.

At St. Mark's church, Nairobi, newly-weds, Mr. Charles Stewart, of Shauri Moyo, and Miss Dorothy Stewart, daughter of the late Mr. Stewart.

Hughes-Smart

THE marriage between Flight-Lieutenant Eric Hughes, D.F.C., and Miss Maude Smart, daughter of Air Vice-Marshal G. G. Smart and Mrs. Smart, took place recently at the Cathedral of the Holy Spirit, Provost Hugh Evans Hopkins officiating. The church was beautifully decorated with white Arden lilies and pale pink carnations, centred with the colour scheme at the bride's gown of shell-rose lace over a white foundation, worn with a matching veil.

FASHION PARADE AT THE RACES

CHILDREN mostly of the pillbox and bouffant variety, influenced and directed, were a feature of the fashion parade at the recent race meeting at Nairobi. Very probably the crowd for the parade was the largest since the grounds last year, and the "picture light" film had already taken an unenviable toll. Despite the dust-over the meeting was a cheerful affair. The parade was well represented. Mrs. John Duggan, cover of the parade, wearing "Lou Harton" looking perfectly in a London suit with a patterned jacket and a matching skirt. Mrs. Harold Williams, who also smartly got into a light-colored suit, was seen in the parade. Mrs. Arthur Lewis, who saw her bride, wearing "Lou Harton" looking perfectly in a London suit with a patterned jacket and a matching skirt. Mrs. Harold Williams, who also smartly got into a light-colored suit, was seen in the parade.

Price-pegging a relief to the British housewife

The British Government's plan for stopping price rises comes mainly from the harassed and price-conscious British housewife. She is the value of the pound sterling in terms of consumer prices, and the Government's plan to peg prices is a relief to her. It is the value of the pound sterling in terms of consumer prices, and the Government's plan to peg prices is a relief to her. It is the value of the pound sterling in terms of consumer prices, and the Government's plan to peg prices is a relief to her.

In daily meals of the average African, there are three distinct headlines: imported goods, local produce and native produce. The first is the most important, as it is the most expensive and the most varied. The second is the most abundant, as it is the most locally available and the most varied. The third is the most important, as it is the most nutritious and the most varied.

Food

Under the Crops price stabilization plan a large part of the agricultural produce of the country will be sold at fixed prices. This will be a relief to the housewife, as it will ensure that she will be able to buy her food at a reasonable price. It will also ensure that the producer will be able to sell his produce at a reasonable price.

Opposition demands 'UNO Force to secure Partition'

COMMISSION'S REPORT OUT AS ARABS RAID IN FORCE

It has determined Arab opposition to the Partition of Palestine, but that the Jews have been given the go-ahead for the creation of an international commission to investigate the matter. The Arab attack on these Jewish settlements has been reported to have resulted in the deaths of many Jews.

Deliberate attempt to force change

The Palestine Commission report says its main consideration has been to force change in three points:—

The security situation in Palestine continues to be a source of concern not only on the ground of Jewish and Arab alike but also of international opinion in the presence of British troops.

The Commission will be unable to establish security in Palestine, but it is possible to establish a security situation in the event of a general agreement on the terms of the General Assembly's plan.

Powerful Arab interests, both inside and outside Palestine, are opposing the plan of the General Assembly, and the Commission is being urged to consider the possibility of a security situation in the event of a general agreement on the terms of the General Assembly's plan.

It is pointed out that the Commission is being urged to consider the possibility of a security situation in the event of a general agreement on the terms of the General Assembly's plan.

'UNO delegates throw mud at British colonial record'

A UNSCRUPULOUS campaign is being waged in the United Kingdom to discredit Great Britain's colonial record," alleges Mr. A. H. Popkin, Assistant Under-Secretary of State in the Colonial Office, in an interview with the "Standard" of London.

He was one of the British delegates to last year's General Assembly of the United Nations. Popkin said that decisions were taken by the majority of 49 countries, but that all of them had to be approved by the United Kingdom. He said that the United Kingdom had been accused of having committed crimes against the people of the colonies, and that the United Kingdom had been accused of having committed crimes against the people of the colonies.

Russia's lead

The Russian colonial record has been completely disregarded and the chief object of some of the British delegates has been to throw as much mud as possible at the British Empire. The British delegates have been accused of having committed crimes against the people of the colonies, and that the United Kingdom had been accused of having committed crimes against the people of the colonies.

On wrong tack

Mr. Popkin said that in many respects the British Colonial record is the most enviable in the world. He said that the United Kingdom has been accused of having committed crimes against the people of the colonies, and that the United Kingdom had been accused of having committed crimes against the people of the colonies.
