CITY BUYERS SOMEWHAT CAUTIOUS

There has been a noticeable change in the attitude of city buyers towards foreign goods, particularly those of European origin. This is due to a variety of factors, including the recent devaluation of the pound sterling and the resulting increase in the cost of imported goods.

Buyers are now more selective in their purchases, focusing on quality and value for money. They are also more aware of the local market conditions and are willing to pay a premium for goods that are perceived to be of higher quality or more reliable.

Despite these changes, the demand for foreign goods remains strong, particularly in the case of luxury items and specialized equipment. However, the overall market is becoming more competitive, with local manufacturers and importers vying for the attention of city buyers.

ON PEACE

Charges were laid against a group of men for possession of arms and explosives. The charges were laid by the Director of Public Prosecutions, Mr. J. M. O'Connell, at the District Court in Dublin.

Conviction of man at Nairobi

A man was convicted at the Nairobi District Court for possession of arms and explosives. The man, whose name was not disclosed, was found in possession of a revolver and a quantity of explosives.

WOMEN VITAL CODE

The Government has issued a code of conduct for women. The code covers a wide range of subjects, including dress, behavior, and general conduct. It is intended to guide women in their daily lives and to promote a sense of responsibility and respect.

Car parking

There has been a lot of discussion about car parking in the city. The City Council has decided to increase the number of parking spaces and to improve the existing ones. This will help to reduce the congestion in the city and make it easier for people to get around.

Mr. P. M. O'Connell

Mr. P. M. O'Connell, the Director of Public Prosecutions, has announced that he will be resigning from his post. He has served the country well and his resignation is a great loss to the legal system.

Mr. Justice Gubbins

Mr. Justice Gubbins has given his judgment in a recent case. He has ruled in favor of the defendant and has ordered that the charges be dropped. This is a significant decision and it shows that the law is being applied fairly.

Letters to the Editor

Which is an offer wanted in the market for services.

I am glad you have mentioned that the services of the City Council are available. I have been looking for a place to live and I am interested in the services that you offer. I would like to know more about the terms and conditions of the services and how I can apply for them.

Mr. P. M. O'Connell

I wish to state that I am not a member of the organization.

I have seen some reports in the press about the activities of the organization and I am interested to know more about it. I wish to state that I am not a member of the organization and I do not support its activities. I am a law-abiding citizen and I do not want to be associated with any organization that is engaged in illegal activities.

THIRD OF SAFARI CARS OUT

COUPLE SILENCE CRITICS OF WOMEN DRIVERS

Carlsson opens up a clear lead

ROUTE HAS TO BE CHANGED

The leaders with 25 penalty points, had to cross their second last lap. A number of the better cars were stopped at that point, but Carlsson and Clark, who were around of Kenya, had better luck with 41 penalty points. The new race in a Corvair which had been from Buha to Nairobi, had returned 190 at the end of the race.

Fared better

Four of the other Corvairs had larger leads of the more than 100. Mr. Carlsson (30) had 100 points, Mr. Clark (31) had 100 points, Mr. Shandling (44) 22 points, and Mr. Clark (45) 22 points. The race was running second with 140 points.

The new 1800 Anglia (27) driven by Peter Hughes was the nearest to Carlsson at London with 49 points.

The other cars had left the race after London or before. The 1100 (12) which stopped at London with 100 points, was a Volkswagen (31) which was stopped for engine trouble.

Leaders to work together

APPEALS to all Kenya businessmen to co-operate and unite to form a general organisation were made by all members of a committee of the Kenya Chamber of Commerce and Industry last night.

The acting president, Mr. F. N. Macharia, said that Africans must be encouraged to take an active part in the commercial and industrial development of their own country. This could be played an important part in this field in the past in starting both commercial and industrial organisations.

BASIC TECHNIQUES

Among the aims of the Chamber were the dissemination of local manufacturing industries. Information for the management of members. Substitution of business techniques in which the Chamber helped the cooperation of the Government and other organisations, and assistance for members in all their business.

The Chamber would not be set up as a permanent form, Mr. Macharia said. The Minister for Labour, Mr. Johnson, who presided, said that the Chamber would be a permanent organisation to help businessmen to solve their problems. Parker

"This is the ballpoint that's expensive enough for me!"

THE PARKER T-BALL BALLPOINT

Like every woman of business or social authority, you can't afford to be shabby about details. Where other cheap ballpoint pens are the perfect, you buy one that's perfect. You don't get a Parker for the price! But it looks more than it costs. Sleek. Chic. Sophisticated. Superbly comfortable in your hand.

THE PARKER T-BALL BALLPOINT

Let the pen you use tell you what you are. It's not just a pen, it's a statement. It's a statement of your style, your taste, your personality. It's a statement of your success. It's a statement of your power. It's a statement of your class. It's a statement of your worth. It's a statement of your life. It's a statement of your future. It's a statement of your destiny. It's a statement of your triumph. It's a statement of your glory. It's a statement of your honor. It's a statement of your respect. It's a statement of your admiration. It's a statement of your awe. It's a statement of your reverence. It's a statement of your devotion. It's a statement of your love. It's a statement of your passion. It's a statement of your desire. It's a statement of your hope. It's a statement of your faith. It's a statement of your belief. It's a statement of your conviction. It's a statement of your certainty. It's a statement of your confidence. It's a statement of your assurance. It's a statement of your certainty. It's a statement of your confidence. It's a statement of your assurance.

East African Safari

Only dozen cars may complete 11th Safari

EAST African drivers were last night dominating the 11th East African Safari.

With the shock retirement of Carlsson's Saab, the six leading cars rushing north on the final stages were all crewed by East Africans — 11 of them from Kenya.

They, and the drivers of the other 19 cars still left, faced further rainfalls, although there was some hope that it would fall off near Nairobi.

Some, however, were running so fast that it seemed unlikely they could escape being time-barred later.

Last night John Vumphetand's Ford Cortina was in the lead, having lost 100 points by Amboisi.

The Peugeot 406 of Kwoyale and the Fiat were followed with 174 points of the same count.

The Fiat, Amboisi, 1199 of Huber and Young 620 points had been dropped from second to third place, leaving five yards to the Peugeot.

Hard on its tail was the Fiat 2000 of Deacon 440 which had 25 points.

One Saab was still going strong, a Mercedes 3000 driven by Peter Hughes, had 200 points, having added 21 points after the crash at Salama.

The Jaffray-Baker 1800 was all but behind the leaders with 40 points.

Some points

The same points at the end of the Safari were held by Lindseth and Wainwright, 419 points; the Singh 1600 of Platt, 216; and Mercedes, which has been in with 210 points.

Platt, driven by two of the organizers, has 141 more points than Lindseth and 15 more than Wainwright.

The 11th Safari is managed by the Safari committee.

Team out

But Johnson Mwaizi and Dorian Carter dropped out of the race at the end of the stage. Mwaizi had 21 points and Carter had 12 points.

LY 43 SURVIVE IN PART SOUTHERN BRITAIN

ONLY 43 of the 84 starters in the 1963 Lyons Super Alfa Romeo on Saturday afternoon on the southern coast of Britain, but a much greater toll than in any previous year.

Bigger cars start to move up

PREDICTIONS of a "hot" race on Saturday, which began at 11.30 am, were not fulfilled as the weather was overcast and the rain fell in the afternoon. The Lyons Super Alfa Romeo, which had come back to the track in the morning, was again the only car to finish.

The leading driver was Ken Jones in a Ford, who was followed by J. Aldred in a Ford, and P. J. Walker in a Ford. The 1963 Lyons Super Alfa Romeo, which had come back to the track in the morning, was again the only car to finish.

The majority of the cars were of the 1963 type, but a number of 1962 cars were also entered. The 1963 cars were generally faster than the 1962 cars, and this was reflected in the results. The 1963 cars were also more reliable than the 1962 cars, and this was also reflected in the results.

Four retire

Four cars retired - a Lotus, a Lotus, a Lotus, and a Lotus.

Six cars dropped out through accidents

Six cars dropped out through accidents - a Lotus, a Lotus, a Lotus, a Lotus, a Lotus, and a Lotus.

Three overturned - no casualties

Three overturned - no casualties - a Lotus, a Lotus, and a Lotus.

The remaining two on the track were 17 (Alfred)

The remaining two on the track were 17 (Alfred) and 23 (Volvo). The former finished a course while the latter hit the bridge while avoiding a chair.

Teams out

At the end of the 1963 Lyons Super Alfa Romeo, the teams were 17 (Alfred) and 23 (Volvo). The former finished a course while the latter hit the bridge while avoiding a chair.

Grandstand view

Children of the race who had a grandstand view of the Lyons Super Alfa Romeo race on Saturday afternoon. The car was seen to be in the Grandstand, and the children were seen to be looking at the car.

Self-study No. 82, the Ford Zodiac of Vincent Manly and P. J. Walker, presents a head-on view of the car in the Grandstand. The car was seen to be in the Grandstand, and the children were seen to be looking at the car.

KENYA RUGBY SIDES ON TOP IN UGANDA

KENYA'S visiting rugby teams, Nairobi and Nondies, were keen of their five matches against leading Uganda sides over the holiday weekend. Nairobi, the more experienced of the two, thrashed Entebbe and won every match. Nondies, who were completely new to the game, managed a win over Entebbe and were down by one point to Kampala.

The Kenyan sides, who were led by their respective captains, were in excellent form. Nairobi's forwards were particularly strong, and their backs were also in good form. Nondies, on the other hand, were a bit out of sync, but they showed some promise.

The matches were held in Kampala, Uganda, and were well attended. The Kenyan sides were the favorites, and they lived up to the expectations. Nairobi's victory over Entebbe was particularly impressive, as Entebbe was considered one of the best teams in Uganda.

The Kenyan sides will be returning to Kenya in a few days. They will be looking forward to playing more matches and to competing for the national title. The matches were a success, and the Kenyan sides were well pleased with their performance.

East Africa Safari

Wettest of rain proves tough

TWO Kenya men, Nick Nowicki and Paddy Cliff, of a Peugeot 404, were provisionally the winners of the 11th East African Safari yesterday. They were on a penalty points compared with the second car, an Austin 1198 (P. J. Hughes and W. W. Young), also from Kenya, with 264 and a Mercedes 220SE (W. J. Carstairs and W. D. Lead) with 267 points.

Only seven of 34 starters finished the 1,000-mile course in the wettest conditions overall ever experienced in the Safari out of only 46 starters. This year, there were 21 British, 11 French, 13 German, eight Italian and five from Sweden and Japan, with the remaining car a Honda, of those three French, two British, one German and one Italian car finished.

Nowicki finished his win if only for a moment. He has driven in all 11 Safaris, has failed to finish only once, but been a class winner three times and second overall last year. His co-driver last year was Cliff. Magnificent driving in European conditions, particularly in the northern leg, gave them a reputation for speed.

Young in their Austin 1198 did extremely well to hold off close challengers by Carstairs and Lead on the Flat 2000 driven by J. Carstairs and J. Carstairs.

Hughes has driven in eight Safaris, always in a car driven by himself and his co-driver. He has been driver with the Austin 1198, but has not had time to drive in the Safari.

Carstairs and Lead, the latter with a Mercedes, are also both experienced drivers.

Carstairs has driven in six Safaris, but has not driven in the Safari. He has been in five of the other six Safaris, but has not driven in the Safari.

Equal places

In each case they finished tenth.

Only two of the drivers, the seven cars were now available to the public in the Safari. The cars were now available to the public in the Safari.

Carstairs and Lead, the latter with a Mercedes, are also both experienced drivers.

Retired at MOMBASA

Enthusiasts checking on latest positions in the Safari yesterday reported that the Peugeot 404 had been driven to the end of the Safari. The Peugeot 404 had been driven to the end of the Safari.

CARS, TEXTILES TO COST DELEGATION seeks airline rights

Cars, Textiles to cost in extra duty

Duty and taxation, including higher levies on textiles, announced last night are estimated to add 800 extra revenue for the three East African Governments.

The changes, which come into effect today, are expected to bring in £280,000 each for Kenya and Tanganyika and just over £400,000 for Uganda. They were announced simultaneously in the three capitals and are:—

Motor cars and spares With engines of less than 2,000 cc capacity, 20 per cent duty (previously 10 per cent). With engines of 2,000 cc capacity or more, 25 per cent (15 per cent).

Heavy vehicles Lorries or over three-ton capacity, being taxed for less than 14 passengers, four-to-five-ton vehicles and chassis, 20 per cent (14 per cent).

Second-hand vehicles £10 purchase tax on the transfer of all second-hand vehicles and 20 per cent on second-hand motor bicycles, tricycles and trailers.

Vehicle parts Duty increased from 10 to 25 per cent except where imported by an approved manufacturer for local assembly into completed vehicles.

Textiles Duty increased from 35 per cent to 50 per cent on blankets, fabrics and cloth.

In a statement announcing the changes Kenya's Minister for Finance, Mr. Gichuru, said that there were two main reasons for the increased duty on textiles. The three East African Governments required additional revenue Kenya was facing a formidable deficit, part of which was being met from the international community to the individual nations, and the second reason was to encourage duty, such as tractor, agricultural machinery, etc. He estimated the revenue from the increase at about £200,000.

The increased duty on vehicle parts was to be levied on motor vehicles which would cost £200,000, and on parts for these vehicles, valued at £100,000, which would cost £100,000. The increase in duty on textiles was to be levied on the total value of the goods imported, but the Government would be able to recover the cost of the increase through the increased duty on textiles.

... will be raised in extra duty.

Rain rains last Safari ceremony

RAIN, which made this year's East African Safari the toughest of them all, dogged the event to the very end.

The ceremony, which was held at the Safari Club, was attended by Mr. W. J. Clift, Minister for Finance, and other members of the Government. The ceremony was held in the presence of a large number of guests, including the British High Commissioner, Mr. G. G. Brown, and the Kenya High Commissioner, Mr. W. J. Clift.

Police Lock UP NURSES IN DORMITORIES

Standard Staff Report: Kampala.

NURSES at Kampala's Mulago Hospital, who have refused to wear number badges on their uniforms, were locked in their dormitories in the nurses' hostel for three hours by police yesterday morning, had to go from the hostel to the hospital in a police patrol car.

The police, who were led by a sergeant, entered the hostel at 8 a.m. while the nurses were still in bed and locked all the doors out of the dormitories. The nurses were not allowed to get up and they were called in one by one and their names, the dress to which they were issued, and the name of the hospital superintendent, Dr. A. H. Jones, were written down. The nurses were then allowed to get up and they were told to wear their number badges. The nurses who refused to do so were locked in their dormitories for three hours.

Guerrillas offered clemency

DIEM yesterday offered clemency to Communist-led guerrillas and Government elements living in South Vietnam and abroad.

In a statement following a sharp increase in the numbers of guerrillas who have surrendered over the last few months, Diem declared that the Government would give an opportunity to surrender to those who would do so before they were "sentenced to death", which could entitle them to lighter sentences or even pardon for past offences.

But Government forces are also reported to have killed 2,500 guerrillas, wounded 2,000, captured or surrendered in attacks on strategic hamlets, set up by the South Vietnamese Government as a way of warring against Communist guerrillas one year ago.

Obstruction Charge
A man is expected to appear in court at Kisumu today charged with obstructing a police officer.

Chief Insp. J. O'Riordan was questioning the driver of a pickup van when the van was driven away. A police party later found it outside the veterinary office. It was run off but was caught after a chase.

CHARGES AGAINST YOUTH WINGERS DISMISSED

A CHARGE of behaving in a manner likely to cause a breach of the peace brought against 11 members of the U.P.C. Youth Wing, who were arrested at Mbarara in March after picking an Asian shop in Kampala Road, was dismissed in the District Court, Kampala, yesterday, because of lack of prosecution evidence.

Warrants for the arrest of 11 other youth wingers—Matya Makumbi and Christopher Nsububa—were issued after they failed to answer to their bail.

Burkina Abasi, the fourteenth member of the group which was released on bail of Shs. 50/- on March 18, did not attend the hearing because he was ill, the court was told.

The magistrate, Mr. M. J. Prudden, adjourned the case against those three until April 12. Earlier he had told the police prosecutor, Burkina Abasi, that there was "too much carelessness" when the warrants were issued. He admitted that he did not have the case file with him and did not know where it was and that "I did not know if the prosecution witnesses were present or not."

Sultan should have spoken, says leader

Standard Staff Reporter, Nairobi.

The statement made last night by the Colonial Secretary Sir Hanbury and British Ambassador Lord Coussell, on the issue of the Mau Mau, has not had the effect of settling the case for a good foundation, Mr. M. T. B. M. K. B. Njoroge, secretary of the Kenya Pro-Chiefdom National Party, said in a statement.

"The Colonial Secretary is the personal possession of the Sultan and the statement on it should have been made by the Sultan himself and not by my Minister," Mr. B. Njoroge said.

FARMERS TO NO BOARD

Minister

Minister announced to sell their land to the Settlement Board was functioning.

He said that while he had been out of the country "a lot of money" had been spent among Europeans whose farms were being "taken over" by the Settlement Board, but who now felt they were going to be "left out" and that the board would then take over responsibility for the land. Mr. McKenna added: "The European community will be better dealt with it."

Buyers after car transfer error for some TV dealers put in the picture

Buyers will get a refund after being charged a 10 percent tax on the vehicle licensing department in Nairobi yesterday.

The Controller of Revenue, said in a statement that the registration transfer fee was paid. Several people had delays in getting a change of ownership and were charged K20 as well as the usual fee of 5c.

It was also discovered that the tax had been underpaid and was now being charged only on vehicles bought after midnight on Tuesday.

A bill of sale will be sufficient proof of ownership if the vehicle is sold.

PEUGEOTS UP AT ONCE

Immediate increases were made in the prices of Peugeot at Marshall's (East Africa) Ltd. yesterday.

Dealers in other car yards raise prices when the stock are exhausted. Prices of used cars are also being raised.

It was also generally expected that the prices of new cars would rise by as much as 10 percent, although the prices on larger cars might not be so great.

Protest at expatriate exclusion

THREE tax unions claimed in Nairobi yesterday that the Local Civil Service Salaries Commission would ignore the interests of expatriates if they were not required to make any recommendations in respect of the expatriate officers.

They said that after the meeting it had been received that the Union, in the commission's terms of reference which expatriates from its recommendations.

The unions were the Kenya Teachers' Union, the Kenya Civil Servants' Union and the Kenya Public Employees' Union.

They said that the commission's terms of reference which expatriates from its recommendations.

OLD PRICE

About 20 Flaks got sold at the old price of K1.25 per share.

The price of the stock was held at 10 shillings per share.

Airline training Minister's son

AN unexpected twist in the workshops of the Western Airline Training Corporation, a 15-year-old London school which has trained thousands of pilots and flight attendants, is the resignation of its chief executive officer, Mr. T. M. Chowke. The resignation was reported yesterday.

Mr. Chowke, who is the son of the Minister of Air, resigned after five months' tenure. He was appointed to the post in January, 1955. He had been in charge of the school since 1954.

Mr. Chowke said that he was resigning because he was unable to get on with the Minister. He said that he had been in the school for a long time and that he had been very successful in his work. He said that he was resigning because he was unable to get on with the Minister.

Police hunt for model's attacker

Miss Christine Keefer, the 31-year-old London model who last month was attacked in a London street, has been identified as the victim of a "blatant" rape. The attacker, a 25-year-old man, was seen by Miss Keefer as he ran away from her.

The police are now hunting for the attacker. They have a description of him as being a white man, about 5 feet 6 inches tall, with dark hair and a mustache. He was wearing a dark jacket and light-colored trousers.

715 CANDIDATES SELECTION

Both major parties confident of victory

On Saturday, when 715 candidates were nominated for the Kenya National and Regional Assemblies, has already given rise to considerable speculation on the outcome of the election, with the main parties confident of victory.

It is still to be received in Turkey, where Nominations for the future representation of the Nairobi-Nyeri Region, Kenya has emerged with the greatest number of candidates, both nominated and returned supporters with candidates nominated for 80 of the 117 seats in the important House of Representatives.

Kanu, with only 97 official nominations for the large section of independents who outnumber both the main parties.

The A.P.P. has nominated 40 candidates in all, mainly in Ukambani and Nairobi, and the B.P.U. and C.P.P. have nine candidates each.

Seven Asians, one European

With the departure of the reserved seats, the list is, as expected, almost all-African, electing only about seven Asian candidates, a number of Arabs at the Coast and one European — Mr. E. R. Hawkins, a farmer and the son of Maj. Gen. E. Hawkins, who until recently was the British High Commissioner in Kenya. Mr. Hawkins is contesting the Nyandarua Senate seat in the Central Region as an independent.

There was an amusing story at the meeting at Kericho. At the 11:30 P.M. Committee, Mr. W. J. P. Mwangi declared that the first 715 candidates for Nairobi, Nairobi, it was unanimously agreed, had been nominated by the Government. Mr. Mwangi then declared that he would be the first candidate to stand in his own name. He was then elected as the first candidate to stand in his own name.

Some of the candidates were seen to be in a state of excitement. Some of the candidates were seen to be in a state of excitement.
