CIRCLING THE EARTH 16 TIMES Question Of Trieste "An Obsession"

Business Man's Ambitious Air Itinerary

Paris, October 2. The big debate on Trieste at the Paris Conference was today made more difficult today with more argument on the question of procedure.

When the Italian Political Commission adjourned last night the plan was that it should begin today's session with discussion on the report of the sub-committee and that the statute for Trieste should come up at 10 p.m.

There was surprise when the Soviet delegate suggested that the Soviet's agenda should be taken first.

Reporting the United States representative said he was aware at the Paris Conference that the agenda should be agreed and agreed to the outside world as an international agreement.

Life can be FUN

When Sound Sleep Solves Household Problems

Life can be difficult enough these days, with worries... you sometimes feel there's no possibility in the problem of living in the post-war world...
Hurdles require the energy that is being used up, even in sleep. Instead of waking depressed and dazed, you have fresh energy to meet each new day with complete confidence.

Although, like many other good things today, silvikrin is scarce, and your chemist and stores may not have as large a stock as usual, silvikrin can be distributed as widely as possible. A little silvikrin each day is a great deal of good—keeps scalp healthy and roots conditioned. The whole fibre you get by feeding it with silvikrin—and save silvikrin by using it carefully.

ITALIAN PEACE TREATY

"The Economic Imposition is Too Much"

M. SPAAK IS CRITICAL OF BIG FOUR

Paris, October 8. — The Belgian Foreign Minister, Mr. Spaak, was President for the first time today when the plenipotentiary conference resumed final consideration of the draft peace treaty. It was the earliest meeting yet called, at 9:30 P.M. time, as part of the drive to complete the work of the draft treaty with Italy, the Balkan countries and Finland within seven days from now. Although 11 speakers were down for today including members of the Big Four who are expected to give their last word on the treaty, the most controversial issue facing the conference is the economic imposition.

Mr. Spaak, M. Paul Henri Spaak, said he believed the economic imposition was too much for Italy. He said that every country has been down in protest, but that it would be necessary to approximate some kind of a compromise. He said that the economic imposition was too much for Italy, and that the Big Four were not taking into account the needs of the smaller countries.
