PRODUCTION CONFERENCE

Pros & Cons Of Kenya Farmers' Union

PRODUCERS HEAR ABOUT RHODESIA'S EXPERIENCE

The question of Producer Agricultural Organisation in Kenya discussed at the Production Conference last week.
The speaker said that he was a great believer in local government, but that they were on the way of a great step forward in the District Councils. He said that they had full powers to make it their own law, and that they had 500 members, but he did not feel that the District Councils there were the nucleus of the organization. He suggested that the Production Conference should be sub-committee of the District Council, and that they should be given powers to co-opt members to the Production Conference and to elect members to the District Council. On the other hand, he would have liked to see the best men in that organization elected to the District Council, and he suggested that the Production Conference should be a sub-committee of the District Council, and that they should be given powers to co-opt members to the Production Conference and to elect members to the District Council.

Mr. A. A. M. Lawrence referred to his own experience on the subject of the Farmers' Union in Rhodesia. He said that the people there were still much more than 10 years behind Kenya in the matter of agricultural organization. He said that the people there were still much more than 10 years behind Kenya in the matter of agricultural organization. These sprayers are being developed more and more on the lines of the grass seed and must that make this machine so effective. An article on fruit growing in Rhodesia will appear in next week's Agricultural Page.

Union's Farming Policy

White Settlers Essential TO PROPER PROGRESS OF KENYA

Important Statement By Mr. Creech Jones

London, March 3.—CREECH JONES UNDER-SECRETARY FOR THE COLONIES REFERRED TO THE COMMONS YESTERDAY A SERIOUS MISUNDERSTANDING IN CERTAIN QUARTERS AS TO THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S POLICY TOWARDS WHITE SETTLEMENT IN KENYA.

He went on to question whether the Secretary of State for the Colonies was in a position to make a statement on what had taken place in Kenya and on White Settlement in that country.

Mr. Creech Jones said that the following reply had been given to him by the Secretary of State for the Colonies:

"The British attitude of H.M. Government in the United Kingdom towards white settlement in Kenya was made clear in a Kenya Settlement Paper No. 9 of 1948 on Land Utilization published last November. The text of this Paper has full approval of My Right Hon. Friend who has discussed matters involved with the Government of Kenya during his visit to this country last year. The Paper recorded My Right Hon. Friend's approval for my important belief that the British Government as a part of a comprehensive programme for the better use of land in Kenya by all races.

"Paragraph 4 of the Paper stated that European settlement was based on recognition of the important contribution that European settler communities can make both to the well-being and to the development and stability of the Kenya Colony."

MISUNDERSTANDING

In spite of this authoritative statement it appears from reports that there is a serious misunderstanding of the attitude of H.M. Government in certain quarters in Kenya. I think it is worth making it clear that My Right Hon. Friend fully recognizes the value of European settlement in Kenya and that the Government is most anxious to see that the settlement of European settlers is carried out in a manner which will bring the country to its present stage of development and the important part which it will play in developing it further.

My Right Hon. Friend is convinced that if the Kenya Government is successfully to carry out the present urgent tasks, it is essential to have a population which can only do so with the assistance not only of African labour but also of European settler communities. He believes in fact that European settlement will be an integral part of Kenya's development as a whole."

In a note to Russia published last night, the State Department said that the United States Government is deeply concerned over the presence of Soviet troops in Persia and that it is essential that the United States Government should be assured that the Soviet Union appreciates the heavy burden which it has to bear in the Middle East.

The note also stated that the United States Government is deeply concerned over the presence of Soviet troops in Persia and that it is essential that the United States Government should be assured that the Soviet Union appreciates the heavy burden which it has to bear in the Middle East.

Shortage Of Pilots For E. Africa

"Herd Of Road Hogs"

The standard of driving of motor vehicles, military and civilian, in Nairobi today is notoriously bad. No doubt there are many reasons for the poor quality. Traffic volume is increasing, very rapidly to a point at which the unsuitability of Nairobi's main streets and roads for so many motorized vehicles is becoming increasingly apparent. In many hurry to the town of town planning experts who sought a solution. During the present stage of demobilisation, the military authorities are having to employ a considerable proportion of African drivers trained in the past few years and recent. The number of taxis does not appear to be any less, though the military population has decreased. The duration of the war has impaired the quality of most vehicles which have been repaired on the roads than usual. War vehicles have been repaired to the standards of the war, particularly among Asians and Africans, and in addition there is a very marked tendency to buy and use heavy and slow transport vehicles.

"An End To Doubt"

No more important statement of policy in regard to British settlement in Kenya has ever been made by any British Government since the independence declaration by Mr. Creech Jones in the House of Commons on Friday. Nor has any statement on the subject been more welcome, more satisfactory, or more timely, as the Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies pointed out, than the approval of a new declaration of British policy in the Kenya Settlements Paper No. 6 of 1948, an "Laid in Law" in Kenya, carried the same publication but is lacking in the view of public opinion in the Colony. The statement in the policy of His Majesty's Government.

There is included in this declaration a partnership between His Majesty's Government of Kenya and British Settlers in the land, including the primary duty of British people in Kenya. This is in line with the policy of the Colonial Office, African people along the road to the high standards of civilisation and economic development represent the backbone of the British way of life in Kenya.

It has long formed the basis of the responsibility of His Majesty's Government and the nation to forward the people of the Empire in their endeavours to take up their own lives in their own countries.

The new declaration is a statement of policy, a statement of principle, a statement of intention, a statement of aim, a statement of purpose, a statement of aim, a statement of purpose.

Official Explains Transmission Difficulties in East Africa

In view of extensive complaints and criticisms regarding land design in East Africa, the Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, Sir Owen Eden, has been asked to explain the transmission difficulties in East Africa.

The Under-Secretary has explained that the transmission of land design is a complex process, involving many factors, including the availability of land, the interests of different groups, and the need for a fair and equitable system.

He has also pointed out that the transmission of land design is a process that is still in progress, and that there are many difficulties that still need to be overcome.

From Kenya Camp to Portuguese Border

(Italian Correspondent)

Two Italian prisoners of war, who were held in the East African Air Camp at Three Rivers, near the Portuguese border, have managed to escape and return to their homes in Italy.

The two officers, who were held in the camp for several months, had managed to contact their families in Italy and to arrange for their escape.

They were found by the Portuguese authorities near the border and were taken to a camp where they were held for some time before being released.

The Italian Government has expressed its appreciation for the assistance of the Portuguese authorities in the escape of the two officers.

Thika Refuses To Have Anything To Do With Present Proposal

All nominated members of the Tanganyika Legislative Council at Mombasa have asked Government to allow further time before the non-parliamentary Paper is debated in the Council.

The members expressed their concern over the proposed changes to the constitution, and they felt that more time was needed to consider the implications of the proposals.

The Mombasa Committee's report, which was presented to the Council, set out five points for consideration. These included the need for more consultation with the people, the importance of maintaining the integrity of the constitution, and the need for a more balanced approach to the changes.

Thika, who is a member of the Council, has refused to support the current proposal, citing his concerns over the potential impact of the changes on the local population.

THE ANSWER

Affairs Committee has been set up by the East Africa Settlements Commission to examine the transmission of land design in East Africa.

The committee's role is to investigate the various factors that have led to the current transmission difficulties, including the complexity of the land design process, the interests of different groups, and the need for a fair and equitable system.

The committee will report back to the Commission on its findings and recommendations, and it is hoped that this will lead to a more efficient and transparent process for the transmission of land design in East Africa.
