The Council is headed by a prominent lawyer cum businessman, Mr. John Simba - who was reappointed by the government for a three-year period.

The newly formed University of Nairobi Council has just been inaugurated. The Council is headed by a prominent lawyer cum businessman, Mr. John Simba - who was reappointed by the government for a three-year period. Mr. Simba has headed UoN Council for the last six years. Others reappointed to the Council alongside Simba include Dr. Betty Gikonyo as the Vice-Chairperson and Mr. Philip Kinisu as Honorary Treasurer. Apart from the three officials who served in the previous council, the governing organ now has many new faces from different sectors which include Susan Mboya, Dr. Kitili Mbathi, Sheila Mmbijewe, Eunice Mathu, Dr. Ekuro Aukot, Mr. Sammy Langat, and Dr. Philip Toroitich among others.

Addressing the new Council during its inauguration yesterday, at the Council Chamber, the Chancellor Dr. Joe Wanjui, emphasized that their appointment was grounded on professional diversity to inject new ideas in management of the University and scale up the sterling performance of the previous Council. He congratulated the previous team for their outstanding service in the last six years especially in successfully steering the public sector reforms, initiation of new projects and completion of stalled projects of the late 80s and early 90s. He challenged the new team to surpass their predecessor by confronting some perennial challenges that face the University.

The Chancellor reminded members that government funding is not adequate to meet the needs of the institution and challenged the team to assist the university in getting more corporate sponsors to chip in as happens in the developed countries. Dr. Wanjui recognized the support extended by Barclays Bank in the endowment of the Business Finance Department that resulted in the appointment of an internationally renowned scholar and pleaded for more support from other organizations.

Represented in the council is top university management, college representatives, student representatives and staff union representatives
