

School of Business ranked top in Kenya

The School of Business

The School of Business, University of Nairobi, has been ranked the top business school in Kenya by the Eduniversal Business Schools Ranking by Palmes.

Further, the School was positioned 94 out of 396 Business schools in the world. According to Eduniversal, the School of Business meets the highest category of 3 Palmes of Excellent Business School by scoring the Deans' recommendation rate of 108 per cent.

The Eduniversal Palmes indicate the international reputation level of an academic institution and is awarded on the basis of the research work carried out by the International Scientific committee, which compiles the list of internationalization criteria, together with the assessments made by peers: The Deans' Vote. The subdivision of the Palmes into leagues allows for a horizontal and intercontinental comparison, which is different from the vertical comparison established by most international classification systems.

Strathmore Business School and United States International University- School of Business took the second and third position respectively scoring Deans Recommendation rate of 54 percent and 55 per cent.

Kudos to the School of Business on this notable achievement!
