

SOB and KESRA Evaluate existing collaboration

The School of Business and KESRA held a meeting to evaluate the development and progress of collaboration between the two institutions.

While receiving the team from KESRA, Dean School of Business Prof Josiah Aduda, noted that the SOB and KESRA had fully supported the collaboration and worked towards implementation of the terms of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

The Kenya Revenue Authority has collaboration with the University of Nairobi in offering the following programmes through the School of Business, Department of Finance and Accounting:

- Post Graduate Diploma in Taxation
- Post Graduate Diploma in Customs Administration and Border control
- Diploma in Revenue Administration
- Certificate programme in Revenue Administration
