

CASELAP Faculty, Mr. Benson Ochieng, has been appointed as Joint Secretary to the Task Force on Wildlife Security. The appointment was made by Cabinet Secretary for Environment, Water and Natural Resources, Prof. Judi Wakhungu via Kenya Gazette Notice No. 503, 31 January 2014. The Task Force is mandated to identify and profile the various security threats to wildlife and their habitats; examine the implementation of security programmes in relation to all protected areas and wildlife areas across the country; and make appropriate recommendations on strategies for the strengthening of the security management of wildlife and their habitats, including systems re-engineering. The appointment is for a period of three months.