

School of Business Students participate in clean up exercise

School of business students participate in a cleanup exercise at lower Kabete Farasi Lane Primary School. This was collective social responsibility affair organized by the westlands MP, Hon. Tim Wanyonyi dubbed “clean to serve and know your neighbor”. Above, the MP launches the event which will enhance the maintenance of a clean environment around the school.