

On Friday January 23, 2015, teachers, volunteers, the Chinese choir, dance team, dragon and lion dance team of the Confucius Institute at the University of Nairobi were invited by Barclays Bank to perform in the New Year's celebration held by the bank for their customs.

7:00 pm, with the announcement given by MC, Confucius Institute young lecturer Ruth, the New Year's Celebration started with the dance "Feitian" by two beautiful Kenya girls. The guests were attracted immediately by the Chinese dance. Then during the whole ceremony the Chinese Choir of Confucius Institute sang many Chinese songs to show their good wishes to the guests in the coming New Year. The last performance was the line and dragon dances given by Confucius Institute students. Their vivid performance brought people not only happiness but also power and energetic for the New Year.

Confucius Institute at University of Nairobi is proud of our students who could make use of what they have learnt to serve the people and the society. They decided to study hard and did more to the country.
