

DoGES staff attends an international conference in Lisbon, Portugal

Ms Jackie Walubwa of the Department of Geography and Environmental Studies participated at the international conference at the Institute of Geography and Spatial Planning, University of Lisbon in Portugal (9-10 April 2015). She presented a paper on “My water, my choice! The role of citizens in ensuring equitable access to water – A case study of Soweto East, Nairobi, Kenya”. The conference was co-hosted by the IGU Commission on Geography of Governance (IGU-GoG). The theme of the conference was local government and urban governance: Citizen responsive innovations in Europe and in Africa.
